Madam President, I agree with Councilman Ferlo. This Council has expressed its wishes to have an attorney. The Mayor has not seen fit to hear those wishes; he's vetoed it and we were unable to override the veto because of lack of unity on our part.

I will not vote for this resolution, Councilwoman Madoff. I will not support you with this resolution because I feel that this is giving the Mayor Office an opportunity to act as if they are in favor of us having our own attorney, which they're not.

I agree with Councilman Ferlo; I think we need to sit down amongst ourselves and try to get a strategy whereby we can force his hand. And if it is holding up a vote that he wants, then that's something we ought to do. We have to use our power that the City and the citizens of Pittsburgh have given us.

Mr. Lyons:

Madam President, I said the other week when this came to the floor that there are two sides to his letter. One says he's con and one says he's pro. The only thing that Council has the right to ask the Mayor is to come to this august body and explain what he wants. And then the guessing will be completely out and we'll know what he wants; therefore, we can chart our courses from there. That's all I'm saying; that's your answer.

Mr. Coyne:

Madam President, I think the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh is much too important and too busy to be coming down here and explaining to everyone his decisions. I think it's something we need to read and interpret in our own minds and use our own conscience. And anyone who thinks that the Mayor is in favor of it just is not thinking clearly. If any of the Councilmembers want to go down and ask the Mayor, I'm sure we can call him on the phone and ask his opinion, but to think that the Mayor is going to come down here and debate this point with us, and then what's the next point he's going to have to come down and debate and what's the next one he's going to have to come down and debate? He doesn't have time to do that and I think it's ludicrous to even imagine that he would come down and do that.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, it was my intention when I put this bill forward as a wish of Council to see if there was indeed the sentiment that was expressed here, that while there wasn't six votes to override a veto for a full-time attorney, there indeed was sentiment to hire a consultant.

I am perfectly agreeable to hold up on this bill until the President of Council calls a meeting where we again discuss how we can go ahead and have a consultant attorney. Since the Mayor has already vetoed the bill, he's not going to change his mind on a full-time attorney and I think to play politics with, "We'll hold up his bill" is not productive.

I have stated my position year after year to have both the legal counsel and the fiscal analyst. I think it's now in the hands of the rest of this Council to see what they want. If we get a legal counsel, you'll have my vote. And I'll hold out until a decision is made by the others as to how they wish to proceed and they have my vote on it.

The Chair:

Do you want to withdraw your resolution.

Michelle Madoff:

Yes, I will, Madam President.

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of order. Am I to believe by comments that were made here today that we're out to blackmail the Mayor? Is this what I'm being told? That's proper conduct of Council?

The Chair:

We're on another issue now.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, we have a legal opinion from Mr. Dan Pellegrini which is dated January 25, 1988 with reference to the issue of Alcosan and the appointment by this Council and who has the power to appoint, whether this Council does or whether the Mayor has. Since last June, Mr. Wagner has tried to get a legal opinion and wasn't able to get that because it was not a consensus of this Council with five votes to get a legal opinion. Finally, we did get one because it was requested, I believe, as a majority of this Council, as a body.

In his last paragraph he says, this is Mr. Pellegrini's statement, "Accordingly, to remove an improperly appointed Alcosan board member, both the Attorney General and the District Attorney was formally refused to bring the action. Then and only then could the City bring an equitable action to remove the improperly appointed Alcosan board member or members."

I've written a little note to the Mayor today and I want to share that with Council.

"Dear Dick,

Enough is enough. Every time Alcosan and Jeep in particular are zapped, Council as a body is made to look more and more ridiculous.

This letter is to implore you to respond NOW to the public outcry and the requests of Tom Foerster and Barbara Hafer and move quickly to remove Jeep DePasquale from the Board of Alcosan.

The ball is in your court since the mechanism for removal, according to the opinion prepared by City Solicitor Dan Pellegrini, mandates that the Mayor must first formally request that the Attorney General and the District Attorney bring action for removal.

The media challenged both Mr. Lucchino and myself to do something other than complain. I undertook a ratepayers lawsuit. Mr. Lucchino says it's not in his department. So the ball is back to you.

We, your public, anxiously await your leadership and actions.

Respectfully,

Michelle Madoff

MM/lS"

Madam President, this bundle is just the tip of the iceberg in material I've been collecting for ten years on Alcosan. I have a copy of the conferences that took place; the Association of Metropolitan Sewage Agencies in Ft. Lauderdale; the meeting at the Drake Hotel in Chicago in '86; the meeting at Seattle, Washington in '84; the New Orleans meeting; the meetings in Vienna; etc., etc.

I think the issue is best exemplified by a letter to me from a constituent who I do not know; I can't put the face to the name but probably I know him, perhaps someone else does. It says:

"Michelle,

Sorry we couldn't speak tonight. I just wanted you to know that I am angered by Jeep's latest caper to San Diego. I also do not believe you should be the only one to call for his ouster.

I support your suit against him, et al, at Alcosan. I have called Sophie, Mark and Jack and I believe all Councilmembers and the Mayor should make public statements as to their outrage over Jeep's apparent disregard for the public interest. Foerster and Hafer have already spoken.

Jeep is an embarrassment to the people of our great city.

Keep the faith,

Raymond"

I would like to ask, if I may, Mr. Jeep DePasquale, would you please, in light of the publicity that is focusing on all of us members of Council who made the appointments to Alcosan to please step off the Board willingly and resign. Would you care to respond, Mr. DePasquale?

Mr. DePasquale:

I won't dignify that with a reply.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, may I continue? The other people who got calls, were you called by this Mr. Raymond Shotzman? He says he called Sophie, Jack and Mark. Mr. Wagner, were you called by this person? Are you aware of his contacting you?

Mr. Wagner:

I don't know.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, I think that the letter speaks for the sentiments of the public. We have enough problems with how we vote aye and nay. We have enough problems with the issue of whether we get a legal counsel. I think it's time we stop being the focus of every joke, every butt, every cartoon, and to dignify this Council by professionalizing it. And I ask, in the spirit of that, for Mr. DePasquale to please, voluntarily, remove himself from Alcosan.

And if he does not do that, I would like to have this Council - he said he would not dignify it with a response - I would then like to have a letter go to the Mayor supporting my letter to him asking him to please get on with taking the spotlight off of this Council.

He has a ruling, he has an opinion from his Law Department and I think it's time that something happened. We have to have the courage to speak out. All the eyes of the City are upon this Council.

I make that as a formal motion; do I have a second? The content of my letter be basically sent to the Mayor in support of my letter.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'll second it just to get it on the floor for discussion.

I don't really want to get in the middle of a political battle which is obviously happening here right now on the Alcosan issue and I wish our own Councilmembers would be concerned about City-wide travel as much as travel at Alcosan.

Secondly, I think Commissioner Foerster should be concerned about some of his own appointees to the Alcosan Board.

What I would like to suggest that Council consider in the future is that we start using some of our consultation money in our line item because the one thing that I'm in favor of is abolishing Alcosan. I think it's time that Alcosan become a County department, functioning under County government and should have a director that's responsible directly to the Commissioners just like all the other department directors in the County. And then we can hold someone accountable for Alcosan and quit this running battle back and forth.

So, I would say, let's get our own house in order. Let's raise the question of Commissioner Foerster's appointees to the Board and let's undertake a study to abolish Alcosan because, as far as I'm concerned, it should be a functioning department within County government.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, may I respond? If anyone wishes access to my files, they're open. These letters that I have here go back to 1979. We're almost ten years from the first letters and my actions to try to do something about Alcosan.

I don't believe this is a political issue. I believe it is very clear cut in the public's mind that the trips that were taken were by people who don't have the expertise to really understand the highly technical information. I consult in that area; I've been involved for 20 years in the environmental issues. I have not gone to some of these meetings because they were too highly technical in the nature that I felt were somewhat more designed for engineers and people that could relate to me in layman's terms.

It is apparent when three of the five board members go to the Alcosan meeting, three out of five, and we have the assistant to the Director going who really is the person who should be going and perhaps one board member, then something is drastically wrong. And for this Council to not bite the bullet and have the proverbials to stand firm and vote the correct way is appalling. You're all scared and I think it's a disgrace.

Mr. Pollock:

Madam President, I can't support the letter as written but I would ask that the maker of the letter amend it to request that Mayor Caliguiri meet with Mr. DePasquale. I think Mr. DePasquale is entitled to present to Mayor Caliguiri his side of the story. I don't know if he's been entitled to that courtesy anywhere but I think certainly in our system of government and our system of propriety that Mr. DePasquale be permitted to discuss this matter with Mayor Caliguiri before Mayor Caliguiri institutes any action. So, I would ask that the letter be amended to request that Mayor Caliguiri ask that he and Mr. DePasquale meet to at least discuss this matter before taking any further action.

Mr. Lyons:

Madam President, I'd like to address what Ms. Madoff just said. I'm not afraid of anyone and it's well known that there are ill feelings between Ms. Madoff and Mr. DePasquale. There's no fear that I have of anyone. There's a personal vendetta here which I wish to have no part of.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, I don't believe this is a personal vendetta. I think it is based on facts that go back ten years of my being on this Council. I innocently, when I got to this Council, being a neophyte, offered to serve on Alcosan because I had the expertise and was told it would become a black/white issue. I was appalled.

If there is a battle between Mr. DePasquale and myself, it is because of this kind of action. I don't care if it was Mr. DePasquale, Mr. Lyons, or whoever it would be; I would be opposed to that kind of action. And if I'm the only one that has the courage to say so, so be it.

And to answer Mr. Pollock, Madam

President, Mr. DePasquale has already met, my understanding is that he has already met with the powers that be and with the Mayor on several occasions and I think it is his decision to stand firm.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, it took me six months to clarify the responsibility of appointees on Alcosan. This Council was in the dark for 13 years, the whole City was in the dark for 13 years, the whole County was in the dark for 13 years as to how appointees should be made to Alcosan. I had to have read in the newspapers at least 100 times that it's Council's responsibility to appoint to Alcosan.

I will say, hopefully for the last time, it's not Council's responsibility to appoint or to remove from Alcosan. That was backed up with our Solicitor's legal opinion. I believe every member of Council received a copy of that opinion. It is the responsibility of the Executive branch of government to appoint or remove from authorities. The Alcosan issue is not a councilmatic issue.

I echo Councilman Otis Lyon's opinion that an issue brought in front of this Council pertaining to another Councilmember, even though this issue is a very, very sensitive public issue, at this point in time, you can't go wrong at taking a shot at Alcosan. Nothing can happen except that you'll get public praise if you take a shot at Alcosan. It is not within the powers of this Council to do anything at Alcosan, and that has been backed up with a legal opinion that every Councilmember received three weeks ago.

Mr. Pollock:

Point of order. The motion on the floor is to send a letter to Mayor

Caliguiri, not to take any other action than that.

The Chair:

Exactly, and we're going to move on that.

Mr. Coyne:

Madam President, I would like to reiterate what Councilman Wagner and Councilman Lyons have said previously. It seems too often that when Councilwoman Madoff isn't getting her way, it's a question of courage; it's a question of our stupidity, it's a question of Council doing all sorts of crazy things.

We do not have the authority. It's in English; read the legal opinion. It's in front of us in black and white, Councilwoman. We do not have the authority. It's the Mayor's business, it's the Commissioner's business; they appoint. If they deem to do something regarding Mr. DePasquale's actions at Alcosan, it is their business to do so. If we fail to do so, it is not because we lack courage, it is not because we lack intelligence, it is not because we lack intestinal fortitude; it is because we have no authority to do so.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, then I suggest that we amend the rules of Council and we no longer has wishes of Council. We take on every issue in the whole world and we vote on those issues of which we have absolutely no authority to enforce; should we name the USS Submarine, should we not name it? Six weeks after its already been named, we hold a public hearing on it. I mean, this is ludicrous. Everybody is begging the issue.

This is not a vendetta between Mr. DePasquale and myself; it is what is must move with the District Attorney and the Attorney General before he can do anything. Let's get the ball rolling.

Mr. DePasquale:

Madam President, I fully intended not to say a word on this issue with one exception. I think I should address a question to Madam Madoff and have her tell me where it's written that a duly authorized trip by an Alcosan board member is illegal. This is what she's saying, that we took an illegal trip, did something wrong. Find where that trip is illegal.

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Lyons:

This resolution is in keeping with the Black History Month that is being observed in Pittsburgh.

Mr. Lyons presents

No. 268 WHEREAS, on Sunday, February 21, 1988, marks the celebration of over two hundred years since Richard Allen, the first consecrated Bishop, founded the African Methodist Episcopal Church, and

WHEREAS, Richard Allen was born a slave on February 14, 1760 to Benjamin Chew in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, later being sold along with his family to Garrettson (Sturgess farm) near Dover in Delaware State, and

WHEREAS, after playing a great part in the spiritual conversion of his owner, Allen purchased freedom for his brother and himself for two thousand dollars. From that time Richard Allen traveled extensively preaching the Gospel, and

WHEREAS, over 7,000 churches are actively in service in the United States, Canada, England, the Caribbean and Africa making up the nineteen Episcopal districts. This is a reflection of the cultural, religious effort which has inspired and maintained the achievements that have enabled us to enter the third century of our rich heritage.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby proclaims February 21, 1988, as the celebration of African Methodism which will take place at Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church, the oldest African Methodist Episcopal Church west of the Alleghenies.

Mr. Lyons moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 269 WHEREAS, the United States post office located on Walnut Street in Shadyside is one of the busiest post offices in the City of Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, said post office is used by the residents, shoppers and the businesses of Shadyside; and

WHEREAS, said post office is one of the key facilities that enhances the attractiveness and convenience of the Walnut Street shopping district as a vital part of the neighborhood; and

WHEREAS, the Shadyside community is striving to maintain a comprehensive integration of its residential and commercial districts; and

WHEREAS, the loss of the post office in the heart of its business district will be a significant impairment of the health and vitality of the neighborhood; and

WHEREAS, United States Postal Service authorities have determined that the Shadyside post office will be closed February 29, 1988 and no other location for said post office will be established.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby respectfully urge the Postmaster of the City of Pittsburgh to re-examine the decision to close the post office on

Walnut Street without providing an alternative Shadyside neighborhood facility; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council offer their assistance in any way possible to keep a post office on or near Walnut Street.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

Madam President and members of Council, I have two people here to comment on this but before they do I'd like to just take a couple minutes to discuss the situation myself.

About 15 or 20 years ago there was a wonderful movie called, "The Russians Are Coming, The Russians Are Coming". It concerned the inadvertent landing of a Soviet submarine in a small New England town. The Soviet sailors got off the submarine and were parading through the town with their hands up in the air trying to figure out what they were going to do to get back to the Soviet Union because they were just lost. The town had a lot of senior citizens, veterans of World War I and World War II, and they got their militia together and their muskets and they figured that this was Armageddon, that the Soviet Union was now attacking the United States and they chose this little New England coastal town as the place where they were going to attack.

Just when the two sides were together and the Soviets were going to defend themselves with their machine guns and the old veterans were there with their old muskets getting ready to fire, there was a little shout in the distance from a little boy on the top of a roof. Both sides put down their guns and ran over to the roof to try and save this little boy from falling. Needless to say, that was the end of the conflagration.

I think we have a perfectly analogous situation in Shadyside. As everyone in this room knows, we certainly have a state of turmoil with the residents and the commercial district basically at odds over the future of the area and the situation with parking and the development and so forth. But it's important to note that both sides are totally supportive of the effort to keep this post office in Shadyside. We're all united; the residents, the elected officials, the businesses, the Shadyside Action Coalition, the Shadyside Chamber of Commerce, and we've been working very closely with both Senators' offices, Senator Heinz' office and Senator Specter's office, and especially with Congressman Coyne's office to try and turn this decision around. The absence of a post office in this very tightly knit residential community and this important business district would be a great, great loss to the community.

So far we haven't had a great deal of success with the Postmaster and we're hoping that this resolution that I'm delighted that Council passed unanimously and continued efforts from Congressman Coyne's office and Senator Heinz' office and a massive outpouring of support for this post office from the residents and the business district will turn this decision around.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mark, if I may. I guess you're aware of the fact that they were supposed to build a post office at the corner of Baum and Center and that was to house Bloomfield, Shadyside and Oakland. They had informed us that the Oakland station was going to close as of March; that was back about six months to a year ago. I understand, for some reason or another, the monies dried up and they haven't proceeded with building that and they've told us that obviously the Oakland post office will not close until that building is completed. I would imagine the same holds true of Bloomfield. I'm surprised and shocked that they would close the one in Shadyside and have no other station available.

Mr. Pollock:

You've accurately stated it. I didn't realize that Oakland was going to be closed as well. At least they're not going to close it until they have another facility but this one is supposed to be closed a week from today unless we can stop it somehow.

With me are Mary Alice Lightle who is the President of the Shadyside Action Coalition and Frances Wright who represents one of the Block clubs in Shadyside.

Ms. Lightle:

Let me say on behalf of Shadyside Action Coalition that we appreciate the support of City Council and the Mayor's Office in helping to maintain the post office in the Shadyside location. I find that one of the advantages of living in the City is the ability to obtain basic services within walking distance of your home and certainly the post office is an example of one of those services.

So, again, I'd like to thank you all very much for your support.

Ms. Wright:

As a resident of Shadyside for the last nine years, my comment would simply be to City Council that Pittsburgh is to remain a liveable city and part of that liveable quality is its neighborhoods, so there has to be a concerted, on-going effort by all of us to maintain those actual neighborhoods, and the loss of the post office will mean that Shadyside is less of a neighborhood in terms of the City of Pittsburgh.

Thank you.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President, I think this is a very important issue and I hope that we would communicate directly to Senator Heinz; he's up for re-election and if he wants to do some good for the City I think he should join with us in communicating his concern to the Postmaster General.

The Chair:

Mr. Perry, will you see that Mr. Heinz gets a copy of the resolution?

Mr. Perry:

Yes.

Mr. Woods:

Madam President and members of Council, if I may I'd like to call a few of my friends and former colleagues to come up; Mr. Len Kenna, Mr. Ed Pelger, Jim Blose, Paul Beaner, Ralph Hugo and representing the contractors, Mr. Jim Roth and his wife, Mrs. Roth, and Ken Ensco.

This is the first time I've ever come up here to read a proclamation so you all know it means something to me to present something to my own local, my own industry.

After I present this, these men want to present something to our Mayor, Richard Caliguiri.

Mr. Woods presents

No. 270 WHEREAS, the Sheet Metal Workers International Association was established to assure better economic status and working conditions for those employed in the performance of sheet metal work; and

WHEREAS, the Sheet Metal Workers International Association has provided skilled manpower to do the quality work required by the industry and has established and conducted training programs using industry personnel and resources to assure that skilled manpower meets the needs of the industry; and

WHEREAS, the skills of the sheet metal worker provides many comforts such as heating and air conditioning systems, provides energy-efficient, clean, healthy air systems to improve the quality of air and life in the workplace and, more importantly, provides protection to the residents of the City of Pittsburgh by the installation of roofing systems; and

WHEREAS, many magnificent structures built in this great City are accredited to the skills of the sheet metal workers, and these masterpieces contribute to the astounding beauty of Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, the works of these craftsmen inadvertently go unrecognized by the residents of the City of Pittsburgh and the County of Allegheny.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby calls public attention to the magnificent works of the Union Sheet Metal Workers, recognizes the contributions made to the health, safety and comfort of the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh, and acknowledges the conscientiousness and faithfulness of the Sheet Metal Workers International Association in the representation of its members for the past one hundred years.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that on the occasion of the 100th Anniversary of the founding of the Sheet Metal Workers International Association, City Council does hereby proclaim the week of February 21, 1988 as "SHEET METAL CRAFTSMANSHIP IN THE CITY OF PITTSBURGH".

Mr. Woods moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Woods:

First I would like to call Mr. Len Kenna who is our Business Manager for Local No. 12. Len, would you like to say a few words?

Mr. Kenna:

I would like to thank the Mayor and the City Council for this recognition, and believe me, we appreciate it. If you look around this City, you will find the work of the sheet metal worker is quite fabulous. With our education program, our apprentices receive college credits to enable them to further their education in our field.

Thank you very much.

Mr. Woods:

Now Mr. Jim Roth, past President of the Contractors Association.

Mr. Roth:

Representing the contractors who hire the sheet metal workers from Local 12 in Western Pennsylvania, I would like to comment that celebrating their 100th anniversary, they have chosen a very fitting theme. The theme is generations of craftsmen. With the sheet metal worker, nothing could be truer than focusing on craftsmanship. The work that the sheet metal worker does for the residents of Pittsburgh as cited in the proclamation just scratches the surface of the craftsmanship, the training and the quality that goes into the work that is performed by these journeymen and apprentices every day.

I would like to thank the Mayor and the residents of the City of Pittsburgh, the Council, for their support of organized labor and the construction industry over the years.

Thank you very much.

Mr. Woods:

Thank you, Jim.

Now I would like Mayor Caliguiri to please come up. Mr. Jim Roth has something to present to you.

Mr. Roth:

On behalf of the sheet metal industry, I would like to present this replica of the statue we have in Washington, D.C. This thing is very heavy and I think somebody better help the Mayor carry this back.

Mayor Caliguiri:

Thank you. That is heavy but it's a marvelous piece of work and I believe it epitomizes what this union and its membership and leaders and contractors actually can accomplish here. It's really and art. It's just not people hammering things together; you can see the artistic work on this. It's absolutely marvelous.

Let me congratulate you on your 100th anniversary because it's very seldom that anybody sustains themselves for 100 years and I think it's a tribute to yourselves, the members, for doing what you've done for this City of Pittsburgh.

I'll accept this on behalf of myself and members of City Council who really put together the opportunity for people like yourselves to be able to show what you're able to do in this City under our Renaissance. I would just hope that we're able to hammer out many, many more things like this in the future with future renaissances that are going to come along. That's our responsibility here, myself, members of Council, and, of course, the entire private sector to keep investing in this City. That's what we want to continue to do, to keep you working, all of you and your members, and doing the fine work that you've done because without you, we wouldn't have the Renaissance here. You've made it happen. We can only pass legislation, try to appropriate the money and try to get people involved; but it takes yourselves, your union and the contractors, really, to make it work.

This is a beautiful, beautiful piece and I have two aides that are going to carry it back for me, I'm sure.

So, on behalf of myself, again, and the entire people of this City, I congratulate you for your 100 years; keep it going fellows, because we need you. Thank you.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

(BEGINNING - MR. FERLO'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 73 -- WEDNESDAY,
2/17/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Pollock, I would like Director Lurcott to come to the table.

Since this is about the fifth time we have discussed this and I haven't changed my opinion on the fact that we should not be paying for this bill in the first place, there is an amendment based on your dialogue and discussion with Duquesne Light amending it downwards of $3,000.00.

The point I would like to establish Mr. Pollock has a very important point and to Chairman Lyons.

There was no interim approval whatsoever on this bill. That's a very important principle. That if we're not going to stick to our guns on that principle, then we might as well not serve around this table and spend hours debating and discussing financial bills before the city that have to be paid. There's a very important principle here that no interim approval was sought on this bill. What we're doing in approving this, aside from the politics of the fact that the report is not worth paying for and it should come out of the Mayor's expense account, the more important point is that we are establishing a principle here of allowing a department director, in this case either Mr. Lurcott or Reverend Simms of the Mayor's Office, and I'm not sure to this date who exactly is the person responsible, of basically going out and doing what they want. And if we're going to establish this principle, the problem that I have is that it's going to be a principle that other department directors are going to soon follow.

Now we may be morally obligated to pay this bill in defense of Mr. Lurcott or Reverend Simms, aside from the fact that it should not even have come before us. But we're establishing a very bad principle here for department directors to do what they want and then basically expect that Council is going to rubber stamp their approval. Now it may be nice if the Director went back and got $3,000.00 in extra dollars out of Duquesne Light.

And I want to close by saying that the confusion that existed at the last meeting that somehow the City will be sued--let's be very, very clear. The only person that will be sued and the only person that can be a legal party in this suit is the Director or Reverend Simms or whoever the individual is on the city payroll who initiated this bill either with Duquesne Light or with Humphrey, Herbert and Alber and there's enough case law on the books that will not make the City of Pittsburgh as a municipality responsible for some individual who goes out and incurs a bill. And if that's not going to be the case, then we may as well wrap it up and go home and not even engage in legislative dialogue. And we have no purpose, we have no function under the Home Rule Charter.

So I hate to crucify the Director here and I hate to bring him up to the table and make an example out of him but the problem is we're allowing a very dangerous precedent to be initiated in approving this amended amount. So I'm still voting no on it.

Which was read.

Mr. Ferio

On Bills 145, 146 and 147, I'm voting no on all three of these professional service agreements in relation, supposedly, to external professional consultants to help on the City's computer systems in various departments. After discussion at the table with the CIS manager, I was still not satisfied that it was worth spending $130,000 for this additional expertise. I think clearly there was not a good indication from the manager as to what the in kind contribution would be from the computer companies on helping to train staff on their own equipment. There was not a good enough effort made at receiving in kind help and assistance from Carnegie Mellon and the University of Pittsburgh, specifically.

Secondly, I find it disappointing that there's not in-house on the payroll expertise in relation to designing and implementing some of the systems that the professional service contracts hope to perform.

So, I am voting against all three of these bills, for the $130,000. I think it's a waste of money.

The Chair:

Is there a motion to approve?

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President, I believe it should go on the floor for discussion.

The Chair:

There was no motion to approve.

Mr. Wagner:

It's my understanding that it's not needed in this meeting. It has to be voted up or down.

The Chair:

Is there a motion to approve?

Mr. Ferlo:

Move to approve.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

The bill is on the agenda.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

Mr. Ferlo:

I'll defer to Mr. Woods if he'd like to speak first.

Mr. Woods:

I was just going to say that even though it has a negative recommendation, that the City Clerk read the bill and then we vote it up or down just like we always do on any other piece of legislation.

Mr. Ferlo:

Discussion. My understanding is that this bill is on the agenda and it should be read and we should vote it up or down.

But on the subject itself, I feel strongly in favor of a need for legal expertise and I think Michelle has offered a specific way in which we can have the money put into a code account to achieve that ends. I'm willing to vote in favor of this recommendation today.

Assuming it's going to go down to defeat, however, I think it's important that members of Council, especially since there was a majority originally who were in favor of having legal counsel, meet and discuss how best we may go about obtaining that end. In that regard, Madam President, at the end of the meeting I will speak on this to conduct a specific public meeting so we can discuss how best to get a legal advisor. But I will vote in favor of this bill before us now.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, I'll simply restate my position. Presently we have $10,000 in that account for this purpose. I was in support of a full-time solicitor position for Council; that was defeated by Council several weeks ago. We still have the opportunity and the dollars there to proceed for independent legal counsel through a consultant with that $10,000. Even if this bill fails, and I intend to vote against it primarily because we haven't utilized those monies yet, but even if it fails, at some later time we can always put additional dollars into that account if needed.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, I don't give up very easily but at this point it would seem to me that I'm fighting a battle, something that I cannot win; there is not a majority of Council that wish to support professionalizing this Council. In order to professionalize Council, as I stated when I was sworn in again, we need to have a fiscal analyst, as other cities do, we need to have our own legal counsel, we need to have some engineering expertise.

It is very obvious that no matter what I suggest, I suggest a full-time attorney, I suggest a consultant attorney, a law firm, no matter which way I go, it is not going to pass.

And it's the intention of my colleagues who expressed their opinions both last week and today that to use the $10,000 as needed, we're back to the same old routine of, you've got 20 minutes to vote; go out and get yourself a consultant. We quickly vote and we really don't have any meaningful input. The consultants are absolutely frustrated; they've come in from other cities and have said, "We just can't give you that kind of information in 20 minutes." They don't even have a chance to rebut, even if it's a two week frame period because the Administration has worked for six months, eight months to a year on an issue that we're being presented as a fait accompli and we have no way of rebutting. You just can't get your responses in that short order.

I have been on this Council ten years and I keep hearing, "If we don't vote right now, that building is going to shut down. If we don't do this, we're going to lose the money. We'll have to give the money back on a grant. You Council will be the scapegoats."

It is apparent there is not a willingness of the majority of this Council to get full-time counsel, meaning in the area of whether it's a lawfirm or whether it is, as I said, a consulting firm or a consulting person or even request from the Administration that they assign an attorney to us.

So, the kind of propaganda that is coming out again, and once more this Council is scapegoating, and I'm just reading in an issue, Public Affairs Capsule, Allegheny County League of Women Voters, a bunch of distortions; one, that Michelle Madoff wants to take money from the Social Security fund. It was not Michelle Madoff who said where that money should come from; it was our bookkeepers. You know, the fellows who work in our Budget Office who do the books who are not fiscal analysts. They came up with the source. I don't want to see any money "come out of the ability to pay our social security". Why was that particular account chosen?

Furthermore, the concept that we have $10,000 and as we need that money we can always get an opinion. That doesn't give this Council the kind of day in, day out support that we need in legal matters, issues that we get into ridiculous discussions about, for example, we're going to vote for President Pro tem in violation of the Code but if we do it in public, it doesn't matter whether it's illegal. I thought that was a great rationale by Mr. Woods, that if we do it in public, even though it's illegal, it was alright.

Obviously, we need some professionalism; we need an attorney. I'm not going to win that battle. So, I've told my colleagues, if you can pull together four votes to do something that's productive and constructive so we can have a legal counsel for this body, you got my vote. But I don't think you're going to be able to pull it off because your buddies don't want to professionalize. The private club will go on and you'll just have a stronger Mayor Administration and maybe that's the way it should be because this Council is not exactly exemplary.

I'm going to abstain on the basis that we don't have the willingness to get this bill through; it's pointless. When they come up with a mechanism, I'll vote for it.

The Chair:

FERLO)

Which was read.

Mr. Woods:

Madam President, I would urge my colleagues on Bill 100 to rethink their position and to vote no. I think that we're going in that direction and we should not go if we're going to be competing with the private sector. I don't think that's what we want to do. All of us here say we want to encourage the private sector to come to this City, Allegheny County, Western Pennsylvania; well, not many of them are going to want to come when they set up shop here and invest a lot of money and find out that the City of Pittsburgh is going to be competitive with them.

And to my one colleague, Ms. Madoff, I would ask her to use the same criteria she used in 1982 to vote against this piece of legislation because it went into a trust fund. It is still going into a trust fund. In fact, I have the Minutes here, and you made a lot of remarks, but one of them was, "It's a disgrace; and of course I'm going to vote against this bill." I would like you to do the same thing today because you didn't feel it was proper to sell this material to the local agency, to our own, to the URA, to the Stadium Authority and the Parking Authority, and have the profits from that go into a trust fund. There is nothing different today than there was six years ago. We're selling to the same authorities; in fact, we're broadening it. And that money will still go into a trust fund and I'm asking you to reconsider your vote as of last Wednesday and the Thursday before that and vote against this bill like you did six years ago.

Mr. Ferlo:

I would hope that everyone who voted in favor of selling asphalt would vote affirmatively.

In response to my colleague, Mr. Woods, I am also concerned about various trust funds but there's a time and place for everything. It's first things first. First we should move affirmatively on this recommendation and resolution so that we can raise additional revenues for the City while not competing with the private sector, as Mr. Woods alludes to.

Secondly, I also share Mr. Woods' concern about the issue of trust funds. I have submitted three bills today which eliminate various trust funds; there are about 40 more that I'm going to be introducing over the next few weeks. The issue of a trust fund in Public Works regarding asphalt, I would concur with Mr. Woods; we should not have the trust fund. But first we need to resolve the issue of the sale of asphalt and later on in the year I will be introducing a resolution regarding not only that trust fund but a number of other trust funds that are loose accounts throughout the City of Pittsburgh. But I think that is fundamentally a separate issue and has nothing directly to do with the merits of the bill. I think it's unfair to indicate that that was Councilwoman Michelle Madoff's discussion because, in fact, she voted originally for this bill.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, this bill took place a number of years ago, I believe two or three years ago. We have hundreds of bills constantly and I think the bill was discussed in several different sessions, not just at one session. I think what we're doing is taking one segment of the Minutes, I'd like to see the other segments of the Minutes where the bills were close. I have to tell you that I have not read the Minutes. My understanding is that, at the time, the vote on the asphalt generally was in opposition. I was the only one that supported - that's my memory; my memory could be wrong - that I had voted to support the sale of the asphalt with Mr. Gaetano.

Now, we're looking at the Minutes of November 15, 1982; this is 1988. I must tell you, in seven years I don't remember every vote. My sentiments that I've expounded on here at numerous times - I have to look at this and I want to see the other Minutes on - You know, we vote many times on legislation, on various aspects of the legislation. I may not want it to go into a trust fund but I may have voted for the sale. I don't know; I'd have to go back and look at it. But if we have our minds locked in the closed position and we never are open to new concepts and new ideas, then we're not a very worthy Council.

In 1982, I don't think the City was in the dire straits it's in today. It's also, since 1982, and I have pointed out, that many cities are going into joint ventures with businesses where they're building office buildings and various entities where they have lease back arrangements. For example, it would have been nice to have the Buhl in the City at a lease back arrangement so the City would get some money from it.

We're at a point where we can't haggle. We have got to find a source of dollars because if we don't find the source of dollars we're going to have to start cutting back on Police, Fire, Paramedics, and that's a fact of life. And given the immediate fact of life, I don't think we have any choice and in light of listening to what Mr. Gaetano stated, that he's not going to competition with the big guns, that he couldn't supply even a full street with asphalt if it needed it, that we're only selling small amounts to the various boroughs and municipalities, that is not going to cost significantly to produce it, that we can produce it and sell it as a profit. We have a responsibility here to protect our citizens by seeing that they have the police they need, the fire protection they need, the garbage pickup the need. And you can't pay for those things with air; you have to have some money. So by selling water to suburban communities, by selling surplus asphalt, we are not going to be taking the food out of the mouths of babes. What we're going to do is take some of these asphalt lobbyists and asphalt companies who called me and who lobbied me and when I asked them the question, "Are you not making a profit?", they said, "Oh, we're making great profits." So just take a little of their profit away or they'll work a little harder.

I think we have an obligation to vote for this bill. If we see the asphalt people going broke or going out of business, we can always reverse ourselves, and I don't see that happening.

Mr. Woods:

One last comment, and I don't want to keep beating this thing to death, but as far as Mr. Ferlo's comments that why Ms. Madoff voted for or against the bill, I'm just repeating and reading what I read in the Record.

If I may answer Mr. Ferlo, Madam President, her reasoning was, according to the Municipal Record of November 15, 1982, the reason is because the money would go into a trust fund, Madam President and members of Council. And I just read the reason she gave. That's all I am doing, Mr. Ferlo.

And as far as Ms. Madoff's remarks about the question of Lou Gaetano, this past Wednesday when I asked him, and it's on public record also and those members of Council who were here can remember this, would he be competitive with the private industry or private contractors. His response was yes. I asked him if he would hurt the private contractors by doing this; his response also was yes. I ended my questioning at that point. If either one of you would like to bring those records out, that's exactly what he said.

I have no further comments, Madam President.

Mr. DePasquale:

Madam President, the City has painters, quite qualified painters, and perhaps we should go into contracting painting homes. We have plumbers who are very capable; maybe we should do the plumbing in homes and private buildings. We also have some pretty good electricians, just to mention a few in the City of Pittsburgh, and maybe we should do electrical wiring in private buildings in the City of Pittsburgh. So why don't we go a step further and not stop at asphalt?

Mr. Pollock:

With all due respect to all the previous speakers, I don't think the issue is whether one voted one way in 1982 or another voted a different way in 1988 in a preliminary vote. I think Justice White said it best, that he's not afraid to get off the trolley half way down the road if he's going in the wrong direction.

None of us have been bound by previous votes or previous comments. I think it wasn't that long ago, just a couple months, in fact, that members of this Council who vigorously opposed the smoking bill said that they would never vote for anything that was bad for business. Well, this bill before us today is certainly not good for business, but yet people are going to be voting for it because they know that there's a higher duty and that is to the taxpayers of the City of Pittsburgh and not to business.

So, I don't think anyone should be held by previous statements or previous votes.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, this is very important. This was presented out of the blue; it's the usual terror tactic. I just read what I said in 1982 and I presume the transcript is correct; it doesn't say I voted against the bill. It said that I will vote no if we don't eliminate the trust fund. So, obviously I voted yes with the exception that there be --

Mr. Woods:

Point of order, Madam President. This is a very good point. My colleague is lying; she is not reading the entire thing. She voted and she gave her reasons for voting. She said the reason

I'm voting against this --

Mr. Ferio:

That's not a point of order, Madam Chairman.

Mr. Woods:

Yes it is a very good point, Madam President.

Michelle Madoff:

I had the floor, Madam President. I don't think that's a point of order.

Madam President, I think what I did in 1982, if I said all of Council should go out and work in the asphalt plant and have a beer party at night, it would be irrelevant to what I am voting in 1988.

In 1982, the City was on much more solid financial ground; we are not today. As I just stated, I have not read that and I don't recall how I voted at that point. I would be a liar to say that I recalled. I do not know. The impression I had when I spoke to Mr. Lou Gaetano is that I was the only one that supported him at the time. And that obviously is incorrect.

This issue is, how do I vote now. And the way I'm voting now, as I just stated, the issue is that in 1988 the City is in great financial trouble. And being in great financial trouble, I think we have to vote to raise money and the best way we can. The only way I can think of at this point is to sell our water wherever we can, sell asphalt surplus, providing we don't do harm in the long run to industries.

There's an argument going on down at this table by my being held for a vote that I gave six years ago. Nobody is held to any vote they gave six years ago. Six years ago Sophie Masloff would not be up, having a woman as President of Council. I think it's an irrelevant issue.

Mr. DePasquale:

On the bill, Madam President.

Michelle Madoff:

Yes, on the bill. I was in the middle of speaking; I haven't been ruled out of order as yet.

All I'm saying, Madam President and members of Council, is that I don't remember how I voted in 1982. I thought I had voted differently. It is irrelevant. The relevancy is, how do I vote in light of the fiscal crisis today. And that is, that in light of the fiscal crisis today, we are not, in my opinion, going to harm any of the asphalt dealers and I think we should vote for it.

I also will call to Mike Perry's attention that when I asked him how I voted he said one thing, I believe there will be some other Minutes, if we look at them, but they're really irrelevant. What if I had voted no before I voted yes? Do you want me to change my mind? If I voted yes, do you want me to vote no? It doesn't matter. I'm voting 1988 conditions, not 1982 conditions.

The Chair:

Mr. Wagner and then that's the end of the discussion.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, rather than asking that my comments be brought forward for the record I'd just like to briefly state the reasons why I'm voting for the bill.

As I indicated last Wednesday, originally I asked for a legal opinion to determine if, in fact, it was legal for the City to do this. The legal opinion that came forth indicated yes, it is permissible for us to sell this product to other municipalities. It is not permissible for us to sell this product to private concerns, whether they be commercial, industrial or residential. For that reason, I don't think that we are impairing the market to a great degree here in Allegheny County. I think in terms of the numbers of workers whether or not any will be lost, I really don't think there will be any jobs lost anywhere here. I think it's simply awash. People working for the City at the asphalt plant may work a little more, a little longer. We may need an extra worker somewhere down the road. Possibly some companies may not have the labor demand that they once had. But I think it's awash either way. The people are receiving union wages working for the City of Pittsburgh as operating engineers and not necessarily union wages working for private concerns. That's been a concern of mine all along.

In addition to that, I think that one of the most significant points of this is inter-governmental cooperation. There is a great need in this region of the state and the country for us to have greater inter-governmental cooperation. In other words, if this government can sell another government a product at a lesser cost, I believe it is helping out the taxpayers not only of this City but also the other municipality. And hopefully, if there's another municipality out there in the immediate area, or Allegheny County for that matter, or the Commonwealth, and they have a product that they can market to the City of Pittsburgh for less than what we buy it today, I think the City should entertain purchasing it because, in essence, what it does is reduce the cost of the taxpayer. We must all remember that the taxpayers also are those businesses; those businesses are paying taxes. True, they may lose a little bit in the profit margin area, but the City taxpayer is gaining more and, basically, our responsibility is to the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Woods:

I would like to have my remarks brought forward from Wednesday's meeting, Madam President.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

(BEGINNING - MR. WOODS' REMARKS ON BILL NO. 100 - WEDNESDAY, 2/17/83)

Mr. Woods:

I'd like to have the Director come up.

I have no problem with the legality. What's the capacity of this plant right now?

Dir. Gaetano:

Sixty to seventy percent.

Mr. Woods:

And you propose to sell the excess? Are you proposing to enter into an agreement with Allegheny County and other municipalities to sell asphalt?

Dir. Gaetano:

Yes.

Mr. Woods:

Then if you do this, will you operate at 100 percent?

Dir. Gaetano:

Not necessarily.

Mr. Woods:

In other words, 60 to 70 percent--you're making excess asphalt.

Dir. Gaetano:

I don't make excess asphalt. You have a capacity to make so many tons of asphalt. I could never sell to a municipality or to the County or State for an extended road project; it would just destroy me. What I'm saying is I could not sell 50 trucks or to do one-half mile of street. It would actually put a strain on the use for the City of Pittsburgh itself.

Mr. Woods:

You still didn't answer my question. If you propose to sell--right now you are operating at 70 percent. If you start selling asphalt will you then start operating at 80 percent, 90 percent, 100 percent or stay at 70 percent?

Dir. Gaetano:

I wouldn't--I'd sell more than 70 percent.

Mr. Woods:

So you would then operate at what?

Dir. Gaetano:

Ninety percent.

Mr. Woods:

So if you operate at 90 percent, will you have more manhours involved?

Dir. Gaetano:

No. I have two silos out there and while we're operating at 60 percent, I'm not totally filling the silos on a continuous basis. I would then fill the silos on a continuous basis during the regular operating hours and fill my silos up and use actually--the silo can hold the bituminous materials for seven days without going bad on you. And you'd actually use the silos--that's what they're for.

Mr. Woods:

What happens at operating at 70 percent now once the silos--what do you do with your manpower? Do they go home or do nothing for the rest of the eight-hour period?

Dir. Gaetano:

My manpower is there usually 6:30 AM on a paving season and actually they work until 3 P.M.

Mr. Woods:

You are only going at 70 percent.

Dir. Gaetano:

That's correct. There's many times that there's nothing in there or nothing in the silos or there's no trucks of mine coming in there to actually make one mix design to another mix design takes all of about a minute and a half to push the buttons.

Mr. Woods:

Lou, here's what I'm getting to. I want to know if we go to start selling asphalt, is it going to take more manhours to make this extra asphalt or if it's not. And if it isn't, evidently we're not utilizing the manhours we have.

Dir. Gaetano:

It's not going to take any more manhours to actually make the additional asphalt. It's not that you're not utilizing the additional manhours that you do have. When you have an individual in there, he's not doing one thing, he's doing another thing. It doesn't take any more time to make one ton as it does to make two tons in this particular plant that we have. We have a very, very modern plant out there.

Mr. Woods:

Do we have the biggest in the state of Pennsylvania?

Dir. Gaetano:

No, that's false. We have one of the most modern up-to-date plants in the state of Pennsylvania--a plant that I would never recommend we sell.

---

Mr. Woods:

Who do we propose to sell to the state small portions, is that what you're saying? And the County and other municipalities.

Dir. Gaetano:

I would propose to sell it--if I were doing this and if Council would permit--

Mr. Woods:

--Council voted for it, let's say it's going to happen.

Dir. Gaetano:

We're talking selling very, very small quantities to people who do patching. You may have one truck or two trucks from a borough or township. As I said before, I would not sell it--

Mr. Woods:

--when you say a small quantity Lou, I heard the figures thrown around at Monday's meeting and perhaps they were exaggerated somewhat, $1 million a year.

Dir. Gaetano:

I didn't say that. I said we'd start out--we could start out--the fact is that you couldn't sell anything this year anyway. All the agreements are made with the different municipalities, so this year is out the window anyway, but it's the idea of starting.

Mr. Woods:

Get being back to where I was at. If you start selling to Mt. Lebanon, Wilkinsburg or the State of Pennsylvania, right now they are buying off of a private contractor. If there are not buying off of us and we're the only municipality that has a plant, then they're buying off of a private contractor; is that correct?

Dir. Gaetano:

Yes.

Mr. Woods:

So therefore, we're going to be competitive with a private contractor. You have to answer "yes" to that.

Dir. Gaetano:

Yes, it's true.

Mr. Woods:

Now one other thing. Are we going to cut our prices and get them to buy off of us versus buying off of private industry?

Dir. Gaetano:

I would not lowball a price. We're looking to make money here not to lose money.

We have a product that no one else has and we reclaim our material. I have the only reclaiming plant and that's the product. I can sell virgin, I can sell recycled, I can sell anything but I'm very, very competitive and no one else really can touch my price because they don't have the product.

Mr. Woods:

Like you said, you can sell virgin and you will if somebody wants it, therefore, we're going to be in competition with private industry.

Dir. Gaetano:

That's right.

---

Mr. Woods:

I don't think that's proper.

Secondly, if I may just get off the subject a little bit. You have carpenters that work for you, you have ironworkers, painters so forth, correct?

Dir. Gaetano:

Yes.

Mr. Woods:

Are you going to then start being competitive with contractors and start bidding out to Kaufmann's and refinish their building?

Dir. Gaetano:

No.

Mr. Woods:

Not to Kaufmann's, let's say, to Mt. Lebanon to go in and fix their police station? This is the direction that we're going.

Dir. Gaetano:

That can't happen, Ben. Then your first question that you had asked me, is it going to cost me overtime to do something like that--

Mr. Woods:

--No, no. Like you have this plant sitting idle.

Dir. Gaetano:

They're not idle, they're actually doing one thing and if they're not doing one thing they're doing another thing. You can't send them out there to do that.

---

Mr. Woods:

Why not? If Council approved it you could.

Dir. Gaetano:

No, absolutely not.

Mr. Woods:

Right now you're being competitive with asphalt makers. The next step is, are we going to be competitive with Massaro or some other contractor--are we going to do that?

Dir. Gaetano:

No.

Mr. Woods:

You say that now. This money that we derive from selling this asphalt, that is going to go into a trust fund, right?

Dir. Gaetano:

Correct.

Mr. Woods:

What do we do with that money that's in that trust fund?

Dir. Gaetano:

Right now we have money in our trust fund. We sell to the Water Authority, the Sanitary Authority--any authority within the City of Pittsburgh. If this Council has ever noticed, I have not--I don't think I have ever come up here for a piece of legislation or for something in asking for money to maintain my plant. All the maintenance of that plant has come from the dollars that I have made from the different authorities for the City of Pittsburgh, so there is no maintenance or dollar values at all in that particular plant.

If Council would then wish, I have an appropriation of $2 million a year on putting asphalt down. So what Council would do and I know what our budget office would do--my appropriation next year would be less than what I had in the trust fund.

Mr. Woods:

You said that you never come to this Council for any repairs of any equipment or materials for the asphalt plant. I just deleted out of the invoices for parts that went to the asphalt plant.

Dir. Gaetano:

Yes, you deleted it but now the asphalt plant won't be able to run.

Mr. Woods:

The reason I deleted it--if you want to get into it is because you submitted two different invoices, one or this money because you went over the $500 limit and one for next week for the same products. I was kind to send it back to you.

Dir. Gaetano:

If you would look to the code account, most of the money comes from my trust fund.

Mr. Woods:

These people buy off a private contractor therefore, by us doing it we will hurt the private contractor. You have to say yes to that.

Dir. Gaetano:

Absolutely.

Mr. Woods:

We will hurt private industry by doing that.

---

Dir. Gaetano:

Yes.

Mr. Woods:

I'm done.

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President and members of Council, I'd like one last shot at convincing you to vote against Bill No. 135, for $78,000 for consultants in Engineering and Construction for the repair of No. 5 Police Station and No. 8.

As I stated earlier in the Finance Committee Meeting, I think it's a waste of money for these consultants and, in fact, it will delay the work even further than what is necessary because this work is important and should be done sooner.

In looking further into this issue, and I reviewed Engineering and Construction's budget, they have 120 total employees. They have $3.1 million that they spend for salaries each year. They not only have a director, they have three assistant directors. They have one manager for administration. They have six project managers. They have eight architects. They have thirty-four engineers. They have eight drafting technicians. They have thirty-one inspectors. In fact, they have an additional thirty-one in additional staff which I assume would be administrative support staff in addition to another $34,000 that they have for student interns.

The reason why I'm concerned about this as well as other consultant contracts that come up from Engineering and Construction, a review of the public record found that in 1986 there were 31 consultant contracts. In 1987 it increased to 36 consultant contracts. In 1988, it's estimated by the Department that there will be 59 consultant contracts. Let's review this dollar figure very quickly. In '86, $2.1 million for consultants. In '87, $3 million. In 1988, it's projected by Engineering and Construction that they will spend $4.3 million. That's an estimated amount of money which is more than double in the last couple years.

I think it's very critical that the Engineering and Construction consultant line item and prerogatives is out of hand. It's almost as though we need to hire a consultant to study why we have so many consultants. It sounds redundant but I think in this specific instance where we're trying to make minor repairs, the spokesperson from the Department, Mr. Reginella, talked about paving a parking lot. He talked about widening doorways. He talked about putting up plaster. And we have to spend $78,000 to hire consultants?

Members of Council, I would hope that you reconsider your support of this bill and vote against Bill No. 135. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, it's a very sensitive bill simply because it's a fire station and anyone who questions it is going to be suspect of being anti-police and anti-wanting to do the right thing for police protection.

I think my colleague has a very valid point. I have, for a long time, been upset about the number of consultants in Construction and Engineering. I pointed out that I think in the last five years it's closer to $5 million in consulting work. I must confess that I was not here at the end of the meeting the other day, the meeting went forever. I keep telling Mr. Ferlo if he wants votes he better speed it up a little bit. However, I do want to point out, for those who may have a short memory, the last fire or police station that was done, and I believe it was done with a consultant, we had no doors on the rooms that are used for privacy, we didn't have soap dishes in the showers. I've talked to some of the police officers and firemen who tell me that one of the stations that was redone, they have a locker room on one floor, in the basement, and the dressing room two floors above. There's something sadly wrong, or something's gone amiss when common sense doesn't prevail. It doesn't take a genius if you're building a house to put a door where the john is. It doesn't take a genius to put a soap dish in the shower. And it doesn't take a genius to have your dressing area next to the bathroom, not two floors away. I don't see what you need a consultant for.

I think it's time, I've been a voice in the wilderness, by myself, calling for something to be done about $5 million in consultants, to address the issue that Mr. Reginella and Mr. McDermott sitting here telling us that we don't go more than five percent over on jobs and in the private sector they go 15 to 20 percent over on jobs. Yet we have Phase II of Grant Street as an example. I could give you a lot of other examples where they went $1 million over on the low bid. That's 25 percent. Then you're going to go another five.

Something has got to happen in Construction and Engineering to revamp that whole business and I think a vote against having a consultant is not a vote against expediting having the No. 5 repaired and moved on quickly.

I repeat, I was not here at the end of that meeting. I don't know what the details were. I hear Mr. Ferlo telling me now there were very simple, straight forward issues such as paving a parking lot and doing some rehab work that almost any contractor could come in. The contractors themselves could determine what has to be done and probably the police officers themselves know what needs to be done.

Mr. McDermott will come back and give you the standard party line, and that is, how can we put it out for bid if we don't know what needs to be done. So, we're hiring consultants to tell us what we need. Now, if that's the case, it would seem to me that the kind of money we're spending for consultants, that kind of work could very easily be ascertained in-house. It's not complicated, it's quite simple. I don't think there's any great difficulty or technology. Again, I repeat, if someone knows something I don't know and they care to correct me, I will stand corrected. I am quite willing to change my mind and be open to input from anyone if it is constructive and productive and you can convince me that I'm not in the right ballpark.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Pollock:

Last week, President Reagan unveiled his budget proposal to Congress and in this budget proposal he called for the elimination of the Urban Development Action Grants and a reduction in Community Development Block Grant funding from $2.9 billion to $2.5 billion. Needless to say, if both of these proposals are adapted by Congress, the impact on the City of Pittsburgh and other metropolitan areas would be enormous.

I would ask that a letter be drafted to go to the appropriate members of Congress and I will work with the staff to get the right names of different committee chairmen and so forth. I'd like the letter to actually be signed by all nine members of Council to have more effect rather than by the City Clerk expressing our opposition to these proposed cuts, the elimination of the UDAG grants and the elimination of CDBG funding, at least the reduction of them, so that the members of Congress do not support this very malignant change in the budget.

The Chair:

Very well.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, I think all Councilmembers received a letter from the paramedics in regard to some tests that various paramedics have taken, or I should say EMTs have taken, in an attempt to qualify for EMT paramedics, a new test that has been put together by the Civil Service Commission. I have also received several calls from various people that are paramedics working for the City. They feel that this test is not an appropriate test in that they are qualified by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for this position.

I would like to have some open discussion on this. I've talked to a couple of physicians that tell me that these people are very qualified for this position and this test is not really determining what their qualifications are. It's something that has been drawn up by the Civil Service Commission without proper input from the medical authorities.

Therefore, I'd like to make a motion to set up a public hearing on this issue and in the process invite Melanie Smith, Director of Personnel, John Binger, the Chairperson of the Civil Service Commission, Michelle Cumko, Secretary of the Civil Service Commission, also Director Cannon and Chief Kennedy to that public hearing.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Would you like this as a post agenda or a public hearing?

Mr. Wagner:

I would prefer a public hearing so that these individuals have the opportunity to speak.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Wagner:

One other item on Public Safety. I would also like from Personnel and Civil Service Commission a reason for the upcoming firefighters examination to be given. In the past, this has traditionally been given on Saturdays when most applicants have the day off and do not have to take a day away from a job, hopefully if they have a job. This time it's been changed to a Wednesday, March 30th. I'd like a written response to the Civil Service Commission to this Council as to why we are not having this exam on the weekend.

The Chair:

So be it.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President, on three unrelated matters. First of all, in advance of this meeting I submitted a formal motion which at this time I would like to read and have discussion and vote on it. It concerns the public's right to view Council's proceedings.

Mr. Ferlo presents

No. 271 WHEREAS, in the name of good government, both the finance and legislative sessions of City Council are cablecast; and

WHEREAS, citizens of the City of Pittsburgh have the right to be heard in front of Council in the form of a public hearing on pending legislation or any other matter; and

WHEREAS, it has been the practice of Council to cablecast a public hearing only when five or more members vote to do so; and

WHEREAS, the public should have the same right to watch the functions of City government conducted at public hearings as it does at the finance and legislative sessions of Council.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh will, in the name of good government, cablecast all public hearings properly held under Section 320 of the Home Rule Charter of the City of Pittsburgh or held at the majority request of Council; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that five or more members of Council may vote to not cablecast any such public hearing.

Mr. Ferlo moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

What I am trying to do here is change the default mechanism. I think the onus of responsibility should be on those Councilmembers to debate why they don't want a hearing to be held instead of the members of Council who would like a public hearing to be held.

Two examples recently where there was not cablecast was on the Troy Hill Fire Station public hearing which was well attended, and the Lawrenceville public hearing regarding safety and on-street drug trafficking on the Butler Street area. There are lots of people who called my office; it's possible that other members of Council received calls asking why these public hearings were not televised.

So, it's in that spirit of good government, open government, public awareness, citizen participation in government, that I make this motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, I believe there was a movement by this Council originally to put everything on cable so the public could be privy to government, those who cannot come down here, they may be infirm, they may be at work, and they would like to watch it in the evening. The one obstacle that has always been raised as an impediment was the fact that we just didn't have enough money to pay for cablecasting all of the hearings so I suggested that at least the urgent ones, the important ones where there is a majority of interest, because one community that is affected by a lack of police is no different than anybody else; it's the wheel that squeaks loudest that gets greased. What you do is take police from another area and put them in the area that is complaining. We know we have a shortage of police officers.

So, what has happened is that the argument has been well, there are some hearings that are meaningless. I think you've covered that, Mr. Ferlo, when you say that you would eliminate the cablecasting if five people objected, and I think the objection should really be, for example, I understand there is a hearing tomorrow with two people testifying; am I correct, Mr. Perry? One for and one against. I think somebody wants to show off their project, somebody else lives next to it. I don't think that really needs a public hearing in tying up my time, because I've got a lot of things to do, and I've already told Mr. Perry, as I always do, when I will not be present so that I will assure that there will be a quorum. At the end of the year I'll probably be recorded as having attended less hearings than anyone else because I will not attend hearings where there are only two people, one is for and one is against. I try to get to everything else of any magnitude or any significance.

I think your point is well taken. I just have one concern, that you've really given yourself an out, I mean, you haven't given Council an out. If the same five people who don't want to have Council open to public scrutiny will vote five against it. What you're doing is putting the onus on them but nothing is changing. It stays the same; you're just putting the onus on the other people.

I wonder if there's some way of wording this to just say, any hearing that has more than 20 participants, as opposed to something where you just have one or two people. I don't know. I'm not saying that's the answer; I'm groping. I'm asking my colleagues, who I believe are as concerned as I am about the public's right to know is protected, if they have any thoughts on how we can make this viable. But I'm afraid that the way it's worded right now, and I'll vote for it, but the way it's worded right now, all you're doing is shifting the onus to those who don't want to have the hearings to have to state that they will not have it. And hopefully the media will report that, but not likely because, not that they wouldn't but it's just that space provided doesn't allow that kind of thing on an on-going basis. Hopefully, people who watch cable will know that.

Mr. Lyons:

As I understand it, the trust fund for Cable doesn't have enough funds nor manpower. And I feel that the Director of Cable should be consulted to determine what he could spare, if anything, especially in manpower and in money. I know there's a fund outside of the City that runs Cable but the thing that has always come to my ears and asking is that there isn't enough manpower nor funds to air a public meeting.

Mr. DePasquale:

Just one statement. It's sort of an outreach on what Ms. Madoff was saying a while ago. I have no problem with televising the meetings if the money is available, what have you. But in regards to the ones that we walk in and five minutes later they're over and we walk out, I would put it in the form of a motion that Mr. Ferlo amend his resolution to not include any public hearing that has no opposition. You can check with Mike before, or you can, Sophie, and if there's a hearing coming up where there's no opposition, it's obvious it's going to be over in a couple of minutes. There's just no sense putting all this equipment to work and all these people to work.

Mr. Coyne:

Madam President, I would have to agree with Councilman Ferlo on this issue. I think Councilman DePasquale has a point there but I think that's something we can deal with on an individual basis, that if we all know that a certain group is coming up or a certain issue is coming up where it's really not that important or there's one or two speakers, that it's something that we can vote not to have on television and it's something we can all probably take an adequate stance for.

I think that Councilman Ferlo is correct in his assertion that the people who would not want a hearing on cable, they would have to be the ones to defend their position. And even if the press didn't cover it, as Councilman Madoff suggests they wouldn't do, I feel that just by someone having to defend themselves on cable television to the public would be reason enough to bring enough pressure onto that person. So, I would have to speak in favor of this resolution.

Mr. Woods:

To my knowledge, since we've been on television, five and a half or six years, there's never been a public hearing turned down when someone requests it, to my knowledge. And who are we to say now what hearing is important and what hearing is not important. What may be important to you, Mr. Coyne, or you, Mr. Ferlo, may not be important to me, but I would not offend you by saying that it's not important. I think it's a wrong assumption of this Council to come before any neighborhood group or anybody coming for a zoning change or whatever matter might be coming to this Council, to say I want to vote against it because we don't feel that's important enough to be aired. I don't see any problem with the way we've been conducting it. Any member of Council that wants a public hearing aired, it has been aired since I've been here.

And, in fact, Mr. Coyne, I'm surprised that you would fall for this today when the other day you said you were tired of people saying when you're against something or somebody is against something, that they don't want the public to know or they're afraid for the public to know. That's been said twice today. But because I don't want to see every hearing on television, it doesn't mean that I don't want the public to know or I'm afraid of the public. And every time one of us doesn't agree with one another, that's the excuse we give. That's how we try to browbeat people into voting our way. That's not proper and I'm tired of hearing it, and I'm shocked that you even repeated that today because you defended that just last week saying that you didn't like to hear that anymore.

So, I think that there's nothing wrong with system we presently have. Anybody here that wants a public hearing televised, it has never, and Mike, you can check the record for me and any of my colleagues here can correct me if I'm wrong, but I don't remember any time that it's ever been turned down by a Councilmember.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, I'm going to vote against it and for that reason I have to state my reasons for it. In my time on Council, I don't recall anyone making a motion that did not pass to televise a public hearing. It may have occurred once in four years, but I even have difficulty remembering if it did occur once in four years. During that same time frame we had to televise at least 100 public hearings.

The two most recent, Troy Hill Fire House and Lawrenceville and the police protection, if any one person would have requested to me as Chairman of Public Safety, to televise those hearings, I would have put a motion on the floor to do that. And I'm sure the majority of you would have supported it. I think that has pretty much been the standard in the past. If there is an interest to televise a public hearing, for people who can't make the hearing, a motion goes on the floor to do that and it passes.

I don't want to see the Bureau of Cable Communication become over-obligated when they can be spending time towards doing some other things that a lot of people would like to see them do. I'd like to see them have more Public Safety programs on there. Our new 911 system opened up today, I'd like to see them have an explanation of what that's all about. I've requested from Brother Richard an explanation of the Charter and description of the Charter over the Bureau of Cable Communication. In this past week I've had two requests into my office to televise School Board hearings and School Board meetings; I think that's a great idea. Obviously that's not under our jurisdiction but these are all potential uses of the Bureau of Cable Communications and the government channel. If we over-obligate that channel for zoning hearings, which are generally very localized, and sometimes there isn't one that's localized, sometimes it pertains to the whole City, that can be televised. But, to my knowledge, we have not turned down any one time to televise a hearing and I believe that this Council will continue to do that in the future.

Mr. Pollock:

What troubles me about shifting the fail-safe mechanism from a burden on Council to affirmatively deny something being accessed on television versus the way it is now is, as Mr. Woods stated very accurately, it's very difficult for someone to vote and say, "You're not important enough to be on television." So, it's a practical matter. What will happen is everything will be on cable television which, as we all know, with the way the Charter is drafted, anyone can go out and get 25 signatures and have a public hearing which would then mean it would be on television. I have to look at the cost to the City and is that how we want government to function. I believe in open government and good government, but we have to consider the resources of the City being limited as they are. And as Mr. Woods very, very accurately stated, I don't recall anyone requesting a hearing to be televised having it denied. In fact, most of the time it's almost unanimous that they be televised. Mrs. Masloff, you certainly have more expertise in Cable than anyone here; you can remember is anyone was ever denied that request.

But, inadvertently, we could forget to make a motion to not have something televised or, as Mr. Woods stated, we wouldn't turn somebody down. So, everything would be televised. And again, the Cable Bureau would be bounced around like a yo-yo. I mean, they're going to have to schedule things in advance and if they know there's a public hearing they have to tell everybody else, "No, we can't televise what you want because we're reserved for Council that day." And then if there's a motion to not televise it, then they have to change everything else.

So, I think the way it's going right now is the healthiest way, the most economical way, and clearly the most good government way by having a motion that anyone can make at anytime to have something televised, and if it's significant enough that the majority of Council feels that it should go out over the cable network, then that's the way it would most likely be passed.

The Chair:

I want to point out that the Cable Bureau resources try to cover Council and other City activities. They try to maintain a balance with the resources they have available with which to work. They have a lot to cover. Some issues, as has been pointed out, are purely local issues.

The current policy is for five or more votes in order to grant a request for coverage. I think that's broad enough.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President, I think this has to be one of the more ridiculous debates I've ever participated in on City Council. And there's a complete lack of logic to the argument made by Mr. Woods and Mr. Pollock. On one hand, we are saying that any public hearing we vote for will be televised by an affirmative vote of five members. Presumably, then, as both of them said, every public hearing can be televised and there's not going to be any debate. So, it's in direct contradiction to what you're saying in terms of why these public hearing should be televised. There's no logic whatsoever.

The Chair:

That's not what they said.

Mr. Ferlo:

Secondly, the Director, on many occasions Director Emenecker has said to this body, and I've heard him in the past, saying that the Cable Bureau staff is at the beck and call of this Council as it relates to public hearings, and any time Council wants a public hearing cablecast, they will be here and there's no problem. It's a ludicrous argument to raise the issue of money and lack of resources because there's not any additional money or revenues needed in order to do this. These are people already on the payroll; it's not an additional burden. But if the logic says that five of us can have a public hearing, and no one is going to object, which is what at least two members on this Council said, then I don't understand what the logic is to be in disagreement with this resolution except for those who would like to be disagreeable.

Mr. Lyons:

Madam President and Council, I think in the resolution it's saying that the five people who would oppose it would mean that the people that have asked and sought for a public hearing are saying that these five members, and point them out, said that you weren't important enough to have it. I think that he's turning it around and I don't think it's fair to Council.

Mr. Woods:

Just one last remark and then I'll call for the question. I think that the reason every meeting isn't televised, we've always used common sense and we just didn't put a blanket, that this needs televised and that needs televised. That is my argument, Mr. Ferlo, and I believe that's Mr. Pollock's argument and I believe that's Mr. Wagner's argument, that all nine members, no matter if we agree or disagree on a lot of issues, we all use common sense on this one issue.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|           |                 |
|-----------|-----------------|
| Mr. Coyne | Michelle Madoff |
| Mr. Ferlo |                 |

|        |        |
|--------|--------|
| AYES 3 | NOES 5 |
|--------|--------|

VOTING NO:

|             |              |
|-------------|--------------|
| Mr. Lyons   | Mr. Woods    |
| Mr. Pollock | Mrs. Masloff |
| Mr. Wagner  | (Pres't)     |

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

Mr. Ferlo:

On two other points. I'd like to make a motion to televise the public hearing on property tax assessment.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, point of order. We don't know if we're going to have a hearing. Why don't we find out, first of all. They've already said they're not coming.

Mr. Ferlo:

There's a public hearing called for. A hundred people signed signatures on a petition requesting the public hearing.

Michelle Madoff:

But what are they going to do? Just ventilate and voice their opinion? We have nobody here that they can address. We've been told by a letter that they're not going to come, the County is not going to be here.

Mr. Ferlo:

I have a motion on the floor to televise a public hearing that several hundred citizens have requested on property tax assessment.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                 |              |
|-----------------|--------------|
| Mr. Coyne       | Mr. Pollock  |
| Mr. Ferlo       | Mr. Wagner   |
| Michelle Madoff | Mrs. Masloff |
|                 | (Pres't)     |

AYES 6 NOES 1

(MR. LYONS VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion was approved.

Mr. Ferlo:

In closing, my last unrelated point, Madam President. I won't deal at length by comments made this morning by the City Controller in relation to the issue of the City residency requirement. I would hope that other members of Council would join with the Controller in expressing their concern over the issue that so many people on the payroll out at the School Board do not live in the City of Pittsburgh. I have supplied a chart here today which talks about the loss of City revenues.

But at this time, Madam President, before Mr. Pollock walks out of the room — Mr. Pollock, this has to do with you.

Mr. Pollock:

I have a meeting to attend.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Pollock has a meeting.

In relation to the issue of the pending school pact, we are talking about a situation where the School Board will be faced with at least a $20 million shortfall. The reason I'm disappointed Mr. Pollock has walked out of the room is, on one hand at the end of the year he makes grandiose comments about the need for tax reform and now we have a very important matter before us and that is the fact that our School Board is going broke. They will be facing a situation where they will be without some $20 million in funds and they will have to institute a sizeable property tax on the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh. On one hand this Council and the Administration have been working overboard for tax reform and, on the other hand, the School Board has wiped that reform out with one stroke of the pen.

Madam President, I am asking you today, and I am calling on Councilmembers here, to please ask for a joint planning meeting between this legislative body, the School Board, our Mayor and the City Controller so we can discuss the financial calamity not only of the pay raise that's been pending, but we need to talk about joint tax reform. Not us by ourselves; not the School Board by themselves. This is a planning process that we need to jointly enter into with the School Board. Not at the end of the year, at the 11th hour on Christmas Eve when we're both hard pressed to pass budgets. We should begin this process now and it's my hope that members of Council and Madam President will join in please establishing this dialogue and establishing this meeting. I'm not the first one to call for this; Councilman Wagner and others have called for it in the past. But given the impact of the wage pact that will be approved, it's all the more necessary.

Thank you, Madam President.

The Chair:

Mr. Wagner has called for precisely that and we have been turned down soundly.

Mr. Ferloc:

Here's what I propose, Madam President. If they refuse to meet, I would hope, as I will be doing I believe it's March 14th at the next public input session of the School Board, I would ask that all of us together, hand in hand, go to the School Board and talk to them. We should go and appear at the next public input session at the School Board and I believe it's the first or second week in March. I would hope that we would go out there and begin to make that dialogue. This is absurd; I can't even believe that both taxing bodies are not talking to each other. I can't believe that the Administration has not even uttered a peep in relation to the school pact that is about to be approved.

Mr. Lyons:

Madam President and Council, what powers does the Council have to summon the School Board? I believe that there isn't any.

The Chair:

They have refused; they've turned us down at least ten times. Under all conditions and all circumstances, they have turned us down. Each individual member of Council is free to go before the Board but they refuse to come. And we have no powers to force them.

Mr. Lyons:

I'd like to raise another question. I think here it's a very delicate thing where money is concerned. I would like to see a meeting not only between Council and the School Board but I'd like to see a meeting among the legislature council in the School Board because there are many conditions that exist there that maybe if we could get the legislature to pass a bill, one of the things that bothers me is the six percent in their retirement that the City matches with them and so does the State, the Commonwealth. I'm not taking anything away from the School Board but since it's coming through grants, I would like to see the City relieved of that six percent and let the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania pick up that six percent, pick up the whole twelve percent. I think that would be a meaningful and a great lightening of the burden of taxes on the residents of the City of Pittsburgh if we could resolve this.

The Chair:

It's a wonderful idea but we can't get them here. If you have any way of getting them here, I'd appreciate it.

Mr. Wagner:

On the same issue. Madam President and members of Council, I appreciate the comments of my two colleagues in regard to this issue because, obviously the four percent wage tax cannot be addressed and reduced only by one governmental entity. The City of Pittsburgh has 2.1 percent, to be precise, 2.125 percent of that tax, and the School Board has approximately 1.9 percent of that tax.

If you were to go out on the street and survey the average citizen, probably four out of five think that the four percent wage tax is totally related to City government. That is not the case. That has to continually be said because we are responsible, that is true, for 2.1 percent of that, and we should be responsible for it. But the School Board is responsible for 1.9 percent, approximately, of that tax. I'm not aware if the new members of Council are aware of this but I requested through the President and members of the School Board that a public meeting be held last November and I should get copies of everyone of that letter. A response came back from the President of the School Board indicating that they would like to meet but they would like to meet privately. I asked our Solicitor and our Solicitor said no, you cannot meet privately. This would be a violation of the Sunshine Laws; therefore, it must be a public meeting. I then sent a letter back to the President and members of the School Board again indicating the opinion of our Solicitor. As of this date, three months later, I have had no response.

I think it's a very urgent issue because the wage tax issue in the City of Pittsburgh is shared jointly between two independent governmental entities and it is almost mandatory that these two governmental entities sit down and address that problem jointly and do it in a public forum.

So, maybe what we should do is put a formal motion here on the floor rather than simply me sending two letters to the School Board that we want to do that. I will do that at this point. I'd like to put a motion on the floor that the City of Pittsburgh legislative body, City Council, the executive branch of government, the Mayor and the Controller, sit down with the Pittsburgh School Board and the Superintendent of the School Board to discuss the overall fiscal condition of the City of Pittsburgh and primarily the four percent wage tax and how both independent governmental entities can address that issue jointly but independently in our own separate ways. Without that commitment from both the School Board and the City, the residents of this City will be cheated because one alone cannot reduce their portion and the other increase their portion of the wage tax. All the residents of this City are paying to both governmental entities; therefore, the only logical way to come up with a solution is to do it together.

The Chair:

Jack, I agree with you; you're absolutely right. However, they are an independent body, they value their independence, they say they're elected. We've asked them numerous times. I will ask them again and hope that we have better luck this time. I will be glad to follow through on your resolution.

Mr. Lyons:

Madam President and Council, I embrace what Councilman Wagner has said, but I think we would still be without a voice because, if I'm wrong, correct me, both bodies are taxed in the City of Pittsburgh through the legislation of Harrisburg. And I think it would be good to bring in whatever we could get from the legislature to sit in on this meeting.

Mr. Wagner:

If I may respond, the School Board has a limit of two percent in their taxing power in the wage tax; the City does not have a limit. Now, I don't think any changes are going to occur there in tax reform, but we are both operating under the limitation set by state government at the present time. I think it would first be appropriate for the two groups to meet and then, if the need exists, to sit down with the appropriate state people.

Mr. Ferlo:

Let's be clear. We're not only talking about a $20 million shortfall. One-third of the amount of money that we bring in on our side of the wage tax for the fall, the tax reform bill in Harrisburg does change it, limits, I believe, the 1.5 percent on income the amount of money that the School Board can institute. So, they're already talking about a significant millage increase on property taxes because of the $20 million shortfall on top of another sum of money that they have to raise because they're now going to be limited. So this exacerbates the situation even further.

But I would hope in passing this resolution that we will physically send a delegation to the next School Board meeting to deliver this resolution.

Mr. Coyne:

I would just like to quote from Mr. Flaherty's letter which I'm sure members of Council have received. You know, we're saying our hands are tied and that the School Board doesn't have to respond to us because they're a separate entity and they're elected by the public; well, I think we need the public's input in this issue also.

To read from a paragraph near the end of the letter, it says, "The issue of residency reform must start with the School Administration's top brass." And for the interest of the people that are watching right now, most of the district's top salary and administrators live outside of the City, i.e., the Director of Personnel, the Director of Finance, the Deputy Superintendent of School Management, the Associate Superintendent of School Management, the Associate Superintendent of Community Relations, the Director of Curriculum Development, the Associate Superintendent of Curriculum and Program Development, the Chief of Security, the Director of Purchasing, the Director of Computer Services.

Now, I think it's very, very outlandish that these folks are profiting — I mean, they do a job and they perform a service for the citizen of Pittsburgh but their taxes aren't coming back into the City and I think that if we are finding a problem with dealing with this on our own, that the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh need to start writing letters, need to start making phone calls, and let's bring the School Board to the table any way we can.

Michelle Madoff:

On the same issue. I just looked at the chart. I found it fascinating that we're seeing a shortfall, as I understand from Mr. Ferlo's presentation, of $3 million. The $6 million that we lose on the four percent outside the City and $3 million that we would lose in total; three would be from inside the City, three from out. Is that correct?

Mr. Ferlo:

We're losing 3.1, as the chart indicates.

Michelle Madoff:

We're losing 3.1. While I think it's commendable that we find out why the suburban employees of the City School Board, how it came about that they were allowed, maybe somebody knows. You know what I'm looking for, Madam President; at some point they may have changed the rule but maybe people who lived outside before were not fired or they allowed them to live outside or there was a shortage. I don't know what the reason was. But whatever the reason was, we need to find out.

What we're talking about is $3.1 million and that's a lot of money. We've got a Construction and Engineering Department that has spent $5 million in only the last five years and if we had the $5 million we could clean our own house, first of all, before we start cleaning the house of the School Board. I could go through a number of entities that we need to clean our own house and start bringing in revenue to cut our four percent wage tax. That is not to say that we don't need to look with what can be done with the School Board.

From what I understand in the dialogue that took place today, and I think the reason Mr. Wagner is on the right track, before you start making plans or changes or making decisions, you need the facts, and frankly, I don't have all the facts. I don't know how it came about that people who worked for the School Board do live outside the City of Pittsburgh. I'd like to know that. I'd like to know whether the item that Mr. Wagner touched on which was that they cannot exceed two percent in their taxing, will the shortfall be made up by changing the millage. Who is giving permission to the County to change the millage? I don't know. Maybe the people we need to zero in on is not the School Board but maybe the County Commissioners to say no, we can't change the millage to amend it.

We are coming to conclusions and making statements in a vacuum, not based on a lot of interesting or important facts. And I think a fact-finding meeting is not in violation of the Sunshine Act. We have the right to meet and get our questions answered. That's not a secret meeting. It's probably general information anybody can research and have available to us. Perhaps a letter going out and asking these questions. Then we should sit down and start saying what should be done. It seem to me just from what I've heard, maybe the villain in the plot is not the City, not the School Board, but the Commissioners who are giving them permission to amend the School Board. I don't know. I'm not saying that I do know. Do you understand, Mr. Coyne? I'm just saying that I don't know the facts.

But I do know, the fact is that we must lower the four percent wage tax or this City is in very, very, very dire straights. We've got to do something about the terrible taxes that we have on mercantile, business privilege, amusement tax, that keeps people from coming into the City. We need to do things like starting to give ten year tax abatements to attract industries to our area. We have that capability under state law; we don't utilize it. And these regressive taxes do impact on us.

Right now Harrisburg is looking at the revamping of the tax structure of this City and would like to do nothing to impede that. But I think that we ought to start looking within our own structure to see what we can do to bring down our wage tax. On Grant Street alone you have $1 million. If you look at every contract that's $200,000, $500,000 over, pretty soon you're going to have the $5 million in consulting. There's probably $10 million that has gone down the tube for no reason. And so when we start picking on the schools, I think we should know the facts. I'm not saying it's wrong; I'm saying I don't know.

Mr. Wagner:

There is a motion on the floor to have a formal vote to request a meeting.

Mr. Lyons:

I second that motion.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

The Chair presents

No. 272 Resolution appointing Council President Sophie Masloff as President of the Board of Trustees of the Comprehensive Municipal Pension Trust Fund, to serve a four year term to expire February, 1992.

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner moved to approve the appointment.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

On another item, Madam President. This is a very quick item; it will not take a lot of your time.

Madam President, I think that we had a terrible showing and a showing of true character of people here today where Mr. Woods screamed that I was a liar. I'm going to read from the transcript. He quoted from November 15, 1982 and I have the transcript of the meeting here of November 8, the meeting prior. I thought there was more to it that what met the eye.

On November 8, 1982, quoting from Michelle Madoff. "Mr. President, I called a Mr. E.J. Sadowski who represents the Pennsylvania Asphalt Pavement Associates, and said, 'Sir, I've heard that I could not get a copy of the article.' I've since received a copy of the article. You industry is being investigated for price fixing in the asphalt business. Is that true? Mr. Sadowski said, 'Yes, it is.' I understand from speaking to our Director that the reason we went into the asphalt business in the first place is because we could not get asphalt in time for the projects and delays, as Mr. Stone has said over the years, are very costly. It is also true that if indeed they prove that the asphalt industry is indeed guilty of anti-price fixing, the City will get reimbursed fifty cents per ton of the asphalt we purchased previously."

Basically, I voted to support selling asphalt. What I didn't vote to support was the creation of a trust fund. So, I think anyone who may be listening who thinks that in '82 I changed my mind, and there's nothing wrong with changing your mind, but to be called a liar on camera, in front of this body, and many of you were not here in '82, I think is the bullying type of tactics that one can only expect from certain members of this Council and the Record corrects that impression.

Mr. Coyne:

On another matter. Madam President, I'd like to bring up and publicly express my dismay in what I see as the Administration's conduct towards labor unions during the past few weeks.

First of all, with the foremen's contract, I believe, Mr. Perry, you could clarify this for me, that we did send a letter asking for the Administration's position of why the foremen have been treated differently regarding their health benefits. We haven't received a reply to that as far as I'm aware.

The Administration went to court, went to binding arbitration with the Firemen's union and if the Administration would have won, I'm sure they would have been very happy with that decision but since they didn't win that decision, they're going to take that to court. Also with the issue that Mr. Wagner brought up concerning the paramedics.

I think what we're seeing is the Administration acting rather callously to the people who are providing services to this City and I think that we need to start working closer with the Administration and the labor unions so that both sides are adequately represented and that the unions aren't being short-changed.

Once again, I'd like to have a response letter from the Administration stating why the foremen are expected to do something that no one else in the City workforce does now.

The Chair:

Did you write a letter and ask for it?

Mr. Ferloc:

I raised this issue over a month ago and I concur with Councilman Coyne not only on the issue with the foremen but the firefighters and some of the other points he expressed. We did, at least three weeks ago, request this information from Bernie Schneider who is the negotiator in relation to the foremen's contract and to date we have not yet received any response.

I think it's time that this City Council starts getting some backbone with the Administration on these issues and if we're not going to start getting some communication, then I think we should start holding up some bills.

The Chair:

Mr. Perry, will you see that that letter goes out?

Mr. Perry:

Yes, Ma'am.

And on the motion of Mr. Wagner

Council adjourned.

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Lyons presents

No. 299 WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh is one of nine (9) members of the Steel Valley Authority, whose purpose is to retain and develop existing industries in the Monongahela and Turtle Creek Valleys; and

WHEREAS, the City of Clairton has signified its desire by resolution to join the Steel Valley Authority, and the Steel Valley Authority has by resolution, expressed its consent to such joining; and

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh believes that the addition of the City of Clairton to the Steel Valley Authority will greatly strengthen its local community base of support.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, pursuant to Section 3.1 of the Municipal Authorities Act of 1945 as amended, authorizes the proper officers of the City of Pittsburgh to join in the application of the City of Clairton to the Secretary of the Commonwealth to become the tenth member of the Steel Valley Authority.

Mr. Lyons moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Salaj who is one of the officers of the Steel Valley Association is here to express his thanks and the importance to economic development.

Mr. Salaj:

Thank you, Councilman Lyons. I am not an officer, I forgot to mention that to Councilman Lyons; I'm the Outreach Coordinator for the Steel Valley Authority. The reason we wanted this resolution, of course, is to have Clairton enter our membership in the Steel Valley Authority. Part of my job will be, in the future, to come back to Council to try to provide information relative to community development that City Council is interested in. We'll have to make some arrangements in the future because I understand this is a legislative meeting and I don't generally speak here.

What you'll all be interested in, of course, is our efforts at the LTV electric furnaces, South Side of Pittsburgh. There has been movement in that area; we expect those furnaces to be activated sometime in the very near future.

The Steel Valley Authority has taken a large part in the results of the Metals Retention Study conducted by Allegheny County and State of Pennsylvania. We expect a sizeable number of jobs to be produced as a result of our efforts on the South Side of Pittsburgh and we hope this is only the beginning of what the Steel Valley Authority may do in Allegheny County itself.

I thank you very much.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'd like to ask the representative from the Steel Valley Authority if there's any indication yet from either Governor Casey or our honor, the Mayor, in relation to the Steel Valley Authority's Metals Retention Study and the electric furnace in the South Side where it has been made clear that there is productive use there and a potential for jobs. Has it been clear yet as to what the Mayor's position is on this as well as Governor Casey?

Mr. Salaj:

We've not approached either of those parties relative to this Metals Retention Study. Allegheny County has been working together with the Steel Valley Authority. There has been positive results as a result of the study; it's a comprehensive study that goes into a great deal of detail and they do specify an expected number of jobs that may result from these electric furnaces in terms of approximately 430 basic steel jobs and for each basic steel job, they estimate 2.7 spin-off jobs that will result when these furnaces are activated.

To my knowledge, the Governor has not been contacted, personally, nor Mayor Caliguiri. But we do know that the Mayor has been very favorable to the Steel Valley Authority and I'm sure when the time comes for a ribbon cutting or whatever, we'll invite everyone to such an event.

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 300 WHEREAS, House Bill 1103, introduced by Legislator Frank Pistella, would prohibit the imposing of the death penalty to persons who were young at the time of the offense; and

WHEREAS, while crimes committed by youths are just as harmful to victims as those committed by adults, they deserve less punishment because young people have less capacity to control their conduct and to think in long-range terms; and

WHEREAS, the argument that the death penalty is the ultimate means of preventing young offenders from committing more offenses rejects the alternative of rehabilitation and the nature of young people is that they will mature, almost always in directions more acceptable to society; and

WHEREAS, as Bishop Anthony Bevilacqua said, "the death penalty advances a destructive, anti-life attitude and is inappropriate in our age and in our society and other means must be used to prevent criminals from committing serious crimes and to redress the injustices suffered by victims of crime and their loved ones"; and

WHEREAS, the death penalty is applied in a discriminatory manner with blacks and the poor being executed while, as Justice William Douglas said, "one searches in vain for the execution of any member of the affluent strata of society"; and

WHEREAS, the death penalty is irreversible and the English government's execution of an innocent man led to the abolition of capital punishment in Great Britain.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh supports House Bill 1103 and urges all Pennsylvania Representatives, Senators and Governor Robert P. Casey to support this pro-life legislation, without amendment; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council declares March 1, 1988 as Abolition Day in the City of Pittsburgh in hopes that the day will not be far when our society ends this discriminatory, inhuman punishment.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Mr. Pollock:

With me today are Bruce Ledewitz from the Western Pennsylvania Coalition Against the Death Penalty and Father Greg Swiderski who has been on a hunger strike for seven days in support of Abolition Day and for the elimination of the death penalty. I would like them to speak but before they speak I'd like to just say a couple things.

You know, just by coincidence, and I'm not being the least bit disingenuous about this because it truly was a coincidence, I was reading last night the story of Hurricane Carter. Some of you may know this story; he was a boxer in New Jersey who was accused of killing three individuals in a bar. The conviction was based upon the eyewitness identification of two gentlemen. Seven and a half years after he was convicted, after the trial - not even seven and a half years, seven years and several months - these two individuals came forward and said that they had lied as to the eyewitness identification because they were given courtesy by the local police force and some of their own crimes were ignored and they weren't given any sentences and so on and so forth. Now, I say seven years and several months because the Statute of Limitations for perjury in New Jersey is seven years. Fortunately, Hurricane Carter had been given an appeal and so his life was saved; but if he had not been given an appeal, then he might have been put to death during that seven year period without these gentlemen coming forward to recant their testimony.

There are numerous, numerous examples of this. 60 Minutes had an incident involving a Pennsylvania conviction of Neil Ferber who was convicted in Philadelphia of murder and was on death row in the State of Pennsylvania when the eyewitness again changed his testimony and he was saved.

One of the most famous ones comes out of Florida, and this was on 20/20 recently. It was called "Hours

From Execution". I'd just like to read a couple seconds from the transcript from the 20/20 episode.

"Joseph Green Brown had reached the end of the road, the death house here at the Florida State Prison. He was in the final phase of death watch, meaning he was tightly restricted, closely observed. He was measured for a burial suit and offered a final meal. He was approximately 30 steps and 15 hours away from being strapped in the electric chair and executed.

Attorney Richard Blumenthal won a last-minute reprieve persuading the federal judge to issue a stay of execution.

A new part of the record came out. Ronald Floyd, who had convicted him by his testimony, changed his story. He now said that he had lied at Brown's trial."

This man was just a few hours away from being killed by the State. And again, these stories are not uncommon; they happen all the time. That's one reason why I'm opposed to the death penalty so very, very strongly. I don't want the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in my name, killing any person, especially an innocent person.

The second reason why anyone with any kind of conscience should oppose the death penalty is because it's only blacks that are getting killed in the electric chair. And any person that has any money, any person that has access to a lawyer and can delay it, is not getting killed. And if you look at the statistics across the country and Pennsylvania, you can see this.

If Council would permit, I'd like Father Swiderski to just say a few words and also Bruce Ledewitz.

Father Swiderski:

First of all, if I can correct the Councilman, I have not been on a hunger strike so much as a fast for seven days, taking only liquids in during that time. I'm not the only one; there are a few other folks who are joining in the fast. The purpose of a fast, there's a variety of reasons for that but I'm not here to talk about that.

The concern about young people who might face the death penalty is that someone who is adolescent, someone who has not reached an age mature enough, I don't think should face the ultimate losing of their life, which is the ultimate penalty that they face. Certainly, Pennsylvania law requires that if they are found guilty of first degree murder, they will be held in prison without parole and, therefore, they are removed as a threat to society. I do not think, especially having worked with young people for 16 years as a parish priest in the suburbs as well as in Lawrenceville, the Hill District and now in Morningside, and observing the behavior of youngsters during that time, I don't think that they should be held liable to the point of taking their life away for something which they do while they're at such an impressionable and difficult trying age.

Mr. Ledewitz:

I would just like to thank Council and Councilman Pollock for bringing the resolution before you. I know I speak for Representative Pistella as well, whom I spoke to last week about the upcoming vote.

I can't add anything to what Father Greg would say about the death penalty; his opposition comes from a profound moral sensibility. But I would like to simply reiterate about life imprisonment without parole. It is little known, in Pennsylvania, there are even some judges who are not aware, that the State has had life imprisonment without parole since the mid-nineteenth century. So, whatever you want to say about young people, it is possible for us to protect society without having to execute them.

Again, thank you very much.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, with all due respect, I have a tremendous respect for everybody that has spoken, particularly my colleague, Mr. Pollock who is a dear, old friend. But I think we all come from our own personal bias.

When you say young, what do you mean by young? Do you mean ten? Do you mean eight? Do you mean six? Or do you mean somebody who is fourteen who has been out, street smart, never had a childhood, and is not really going to change very much at that point?

I have been on Council ten years. In the ten years that I have served, I know of three incidents. One is the Rosen child that was just murdered by someone calling attention to a psychiatric problem, and I hope the young woman does get some help. I know in my own office my aide's daughter was murdered six months before she came to work here; they never caught the person. And the Goldberg child that was murdered by a young white man, who everybody thought was a charming young man, but a young person.

When do we say enough? We just cannot have — We just don't have enough budget money to have the number of police that we need.

The one thing to be said for somebody who is executed is they're not there to kill again. A very good example of that is the man that was apprehended, I believe, yesterday, over the weekend, who killed his first wife. He somehow found his way into somebody's heart, got remarried, and sexually abused her daughter since the age of fourteen and ends up murdering her. If you had a wild animal attacking you, you would protect yourself from that wild animal and kill it.

I think there are extenuating circumstances. If a person does not confess and it is just circumstantial evidence, I think we should not execute. But when they're caught and they admit it and the evidence is there, what are we accomplishing by putting the burden on society and also on the guards who have to protect these people who also get murdered and are taken hostage?

I am afraid I can't vote for the bill unless it's clarified to the point where you tell me what you mean by young and what you mean by the kind of person that is going to be not executed. Is it someone where there's circumstantial evidence? If they confess and they are found on the scene with a knife and a gun in somebody's back, I will not support this.

Mr. Pollock:

To answer the question about young, I think a fair barometer of youth is what the state considers old enough to drink or old enough to enter a pool hall which is the age of 21. In other words, in Pennsylvania, under the age of 21 you can't go into a pool hall and you can't buy drinks. So, if the state doesn't feel you're old enough to do those things, it shouldn't kill you either.

Michelle Madoff:

Do they go to military service before that?

Mr. Pollock:

Eighteen.

Michelle Madoff:

Yes, and they go in and they learn how to kill.

Mr. Woods:

Mark, you mentioned Frank Pistella's legislation. What age limit is that?

Mr. Pollock:

Twenty-one.

Mr. Lyons:

In the first place, I don't believe a person, if he has done a heinous crime, I still don't believe that we have been vested with any powers to take his life. Certainly I support the bill. Execution is a very bad thing. I don't care what a person has done, I don't think I have the right to take his life. And certainly I feel that as Councilman Pollock has said, with execution, too many blacks have died because they didn't have the resources to fight in court or make the appeals. Sure, if they have done something wrong, take them out of society, but don't take anyone's life.

Mr. Ferlo:

I concur with my colleague, Mr. Lyons. I think, unfortunately, this is one of those emotionally charged debates and I don't think any time that we spend today will convince Councilmembers either one way or the other, depending what is in their mind and what is in their heart. Personally, I feel life without parole is a practical alternative in relation to those people who are dangerous to society and for the reasons outlined by Councilman Pollock as well as Mr. Lyons, I would vote in favor of the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mark, I'm not a proponent of the death penalty, but I think an amendment is required here. We're talking about adults. You say anybody under 21. The state, I believe, considers a person an adult when they're 18 or over.

Mr. Pollock:

You can't drink or you can't go into a pool hall or numerous other things until you're 21. And the bill says 21 so I'm just supporting the bill as it's written.

Mr. Wagner:

If I'm not mistaken, this is the same resolution that was in front of Council --

Mr. Pollock:

It's not.

Mr. Wagner:

What is the difference between this one and the previous one?

Mr. Pollock:

It supports the bill but it also adds the declaration of it being Abolition Day in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Wagner:

But the bill is still the same bill that exists in Harrisburg?

Mr. Pollock:

The bill is the same.

Mr. Wagner:

I just want to go on record, last time I abstained in voting on this. This time I'm going to vote against it and the reason being is not that I support capital punishment, necessarily, but I believe that this particular resolution, if I read it correctly, identifies an age limit as to whether or not capital punishment is appropriate.

I'd just like to say that there are also some other items in it that I don't agree with. The argument that the death penalty, and I'm reading the third paragraph, "the argument that the death penalty is the ultimate means of preventing young offenders from committing more offenses rejects the alternative of rehabilitation and the nature of young people is that they will mature, almost always in directions more acceptable to society." I don't agree with that argument, if that is an argument. I personally believe that the way to prevent people from committing murder is in their upbringing, their background and their education and I don't really believe that the way to prevent them from doing it once or twice is with the death penalty.

However, I must state that if a person is 20 years old and they commit murder, I don't know if there's any significant difference between the age of 20 and 21. That's really what this resolution is all about. It's not whether or not capital punishment is or is not the right way to go. As a matter of fact, I commend Governor Casey for not moving in that direction today because I think anyone that was Governor, that would be an extremely difficult decision to make. But, at the same time, the argument of 20 versus 21, when we know the people in our society at the age of 18, 19, 20, are adults, and I consider them to be adults, if Legislator Pistella's bill referred to people of younger age, that I consider to be younger people, I think there would be a greater potential of me supporting it for that reason. But when the drawing line or the differential is 20 versus 21, at this point I can't support it.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mark, if I may. You don't have an age in your resolution but is that contained in the bill?

Mr. Pollock:

The bill says it, yes.

Michelle Madoff:

I wonder whether the maker of the resolution would consider, even though you are supporting another bill in principle, making the age that we support here as a Council, 16. When you're over 16, when you're 17, there is very little chance that you're going to change.

One of my great concerns is, you're really giving a license to people saying, "Well, I'm under 21. I'll be rehabilitated; I don't have to worry." I'm very concerned about that. I've just seen, heard, read, been exposed to, too many things that have happened. We know other stories that we won't even talk about here in Council where people have not been given the death sentence and have been put in jail and they come out and repeat their crimes.

I believe there is a certain validity to the fact that young people should not be executed for whatever reasons, exposure to their lifestyle. Not everybody, my colleague, Mr. Wagner, understands, comes from a settled home with a mother and a father. Sometimes there are street kids, especially today. I think we ought to make it 16. If you amend it to 16, I could support the bill.

Mr. Pollock:

I can't possibly amend it.

Mr. Ferlo:

I don't understand the logic on the issue of the age. Really it comes down to, quite frankly, this says a bill introduced by Representative Pistella and there are people here today obviously trying to get a wedge in on the issue of capital punishment and the most likely ability to do that is to at least suggest in Pennsylvania that people under a certain age should not be executed. But it really gets down to, quite frankly, and I disagree with Councilman Wagner, that you're either for capital punishment or you're against it. There could be a vicious person at age 14 who commits a heinous crime and regardless of whether that person is 14 or 15 or 20 or 21, I think it really comes down to, and it's unfortunately much the same sense of logic that goes into the debate on abortion, you're either for this or you're against it, based on the issue of capital punishment. Period.

Mr. Wagner:

That really isn't the issue and I ask my colleague and everyone here to please read this resolution again. Let's not change this into something else. It's simply in support of a bill that determines whether or not the age should be 21. It's nothing more and nothing less than that. And if it were something more or something less, please educate me, because it isn't that. And I am stating, people go into the military at 17, 18 years old; they are held responsible as adults. And that's all this is talking about; at what age should someone be held responsible. If Mr. Pistella's bill referred to a younger age, I would definitely be in support of it. At the age of 21, at this point in time, I am not. And quite frankly, that's all this resolution is.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |              |
|----------------|--------------|
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Pollock  |
| Mr. Ferlo      | Mrs. Masloff |
| Mr. Lyons      | (Pres't)     |

AYES 5                      NOES 4

VOTING NO:

|                 |            |
|-----------------|------------|
| Mr. Coyne       | Mr. Wagner |
| Michelle Madoff | Mr. Woods  |

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion was approved.

Mr. Pollock:

Thank you very much.

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 247 Communication from Councilwoman Michelle Madoff amending Rule VIII of the Rules of Council to read "c. All amendments made to any bill proposing an ordinance or resolution can be voted on without being in writing before the final vote is taken on the bill".

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, may I explain the bill? It has always been, in the ten years I have been here, until the last couple of years, we had democracy. If somebody thought of something or they got information just before they came to Council or over the weekend, they were allowed to make a change and explain their change as being reasonable. And if the members of Council supported it, it passed. If the members of Council didn't support it, it failed. But to put an impediment and pass a bill by saying, unless it's in writing, that sort of really puts a crimp into what I believe is true democracy. And I know that some of our new members of Council have tried to amend bills on Monday and have just not been able to do that.

I don't think it's imperative that we have it in writing; that was done by those who control Council in the previous sessions. I think that we ought to take a good look, a new look, at what we do here and to have a little more leeway because the bills don't pass if the majority doesn't agree with it anyway.

I know some of my colleagues have tried to amend bills on the floor and occasionally there has been an exception made. We should not have to have an exception. If somebody approaches them while we're having session on Monday and says, "Oh, did you know about this?" and you say, "No, I didn't know", and wants to change their position, it should not be, "Oh my God, I can't do something that's responsible and in the best interest of the public because I didn't have it in writing."

And that's the intent of my bill. To go back to the way it was for many years before we had to have it in writing.

Mr. Woods:

I'm against it not being in writing for one reason, that many, many times the spoken word is different than the written word. When we make an amendment on a Wednesday and it's not in writing, we come back here on Monday and we can visually see what that amendment is. And since I've been here, and I know I haven't been here as long as Ms. Madoff, but since I've been here, it's always been that way. I agree, sometimes maybe the rules weren't enforced, but I don't know when the rule was changed but I am almost sure that it's always been in writing. I checked back to the Rules since 1978 and it still had to be in writing in 1978. I didn't come to Council until 1981. But they've at least been in the Rules for ten years and I see no difference in changing it.

If, this Council, if you want to have an amendment on a Monday and you can't have it in writing, many, many times we ask for a motion to recommit. We recommit the legislation and we can discuss it and have that amendment again on Wednesday. But not to have it in writing, final action, I think is a very, very bad policy because, as I said, many times you say something and when it comes out in black and white on a piece of paper, it's a lot different.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President, the reason why I'm opposed to this is that on the issue of amendments, and I've offered one as an example on the Giant Eagle UDAG Grant, I think in the interest of democracy there needs to be lengthy debate and dialogue on amendments because often times, at least for those amendments that I will offer not only this week but in the future, they're sometimes more substantial than the bills themselves, and actually alter substantially the content of the bill.

I would like to see debate and dialogue in the Wednesday Finance sessions, especially since at that time we can interact with the various department directors as well as other administrative staff people and still allow time for Councilmembers to lobby each other prior to the final vote on the Monday. I'm just worried that in doing it in the last minute, it sort of negates the ability of people to organize around an amendment or to lobby effectively their colleagues on the content of anything substantial.

While it may seem like a democratic thing, I think in the end it's not actually democratic and, in fact, I would suggest that amendments continue to be a part of the Finance Committee Meeting so that they can be debated and have discussion on.

Michelle Madoff:

I am not going to say that it was not part of the rules; the rules were enforced as it applied to friends or not to friends. They were not uniform. What I am saying, very succinctly, I hope, is that on occasion, I bet somebody is going to vote against my bill today and say, "May I leave the room?" and come back and have it in writing during budget time when we're down to the wire, and it was said, "No, you don't have the time to leave the room and take a five minute recess and get it in writing."

And while I agree in principle with Mr. Ferlo that very frequently the amendments do require debate and indeed with Mr. Woods that you can recommit the bills, those who control this Council have prevented recess, those who control have prevented putting the bill back in Committee, and railroaded the bills through without having some very simple amendments made at the table that came up at the last minute.

I'm just dealing in history and in fact. Based on that, everybody has to vote their conscience.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, in regard to Bill 247, all Councilmembers are aware of the procedure but sometimes the public is not fully aware. Every bill has two votes; the preliminary vote which occurs on the Wednesday prior to the final vote which is a Monday Legislative Session like today. At that Wednesday meeting, we have the option verbally to make amendments to bills without it being in writing. What this bill by Councilwoman Madoff is suggesting is that we do the same at the final meeting here today after the preliminary vote has taken place. I personally disagree with that because when you're taking a final vote on a bill, seconds before the vote, you cannot have someone making a verbal motion to amend. An amendment can be two words or it can be two hundred words to that bill. Everyone needs to take a look at that amendment and determine what impact it has on the bill. I have never seen once, where someone had a legitimate amendment, that it was not considered. And anyone that has a legitimate amendment will come in front of this Council prior to final vote on the bill with it in writing.

So, consequently, I think it's a very healthy democratic procedure. It has worked very fairly not only for this Council but for the people of this City with the proper type of legislation and I am hopeful that it will continue in the future.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, I loved the analysis of my bill and the explanations for me. I appreciate all the help because we all can use help.

Traditionally, in 99.999 percent of the time, my colleague is correct. And I said that probably someone who is not going to vote for this bill was one of the people, and it was indeed Mr. Wagner, who during a budget hearing, as a matter of fact, on two occasions, and I just checked with some of my colleagues and it was true, tried to get an amendment, asked for a recess to either go out and write the couple of words down, and was denied that prerogative.

All I'm saying is that sometimes there's an emergency, sometimes something happens at the last minute where we get some information that we were not privy to because, while we vote on Wednesday, sometimes you don't get some information until over the weekend and we do vote again on Monday. I think there has to be a little leeway to allow a change, an amendment made verbally to amend a bill in a matter that is not significantly going to destroy the City providing there are five votes in favor of that. And I find it most humorous that while in appearance it would look like I'm trying to destroy the democratic process where we vote on Wednesday and we shouldn't have to change anything on Monday, those who are voting against me have tried to make the same changes. I find that extremely amusing.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President, is it not true that in times, as Councilwoman Michelle Madoff outlined in the annual budget process, if there were times when that needed to be done, is it not true that a majority of Council could suspend the rules to do that?

Michelle Madoff:

Unfortunately, those in control did not permit. There are new alliances now but when it happened, those people were told no, you can't leave the room; no, you have to vote right now; no, you can't amend it. That's why I came up with this motion. It was not a frivolous thought; it was to have democracy, true democracy.

Do what you want about it; I'm just telling you the facts of life.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Coyne            Mr. Pollock
Michelle Madoff

AYES 3            NOES 6

VOTING NO:

Mr. DePasquale    Mr. Wagner
Mr. Ferlo           Mr. Woods
Mr. Lyons           Mrs. Masloff
                      (Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the bill was defeated.

Mr. Ferlo presents

No. 237    Communication from Councilman Jim Ferlo amending Rule XII of the Rules of Council to read, "No rule of the Council shall be amended or changed except by a majority vote of the members elected thereto and after one week's previous notice to the members of Council, in writing, of such change desired to be effected".

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

My explanation, very briefly, as read, is that it takes a majority of Council to pass legislation in this City from any taxing matter to budgetary administrative priorities; you name it, any substantial thing affecting the City of Pittsburgh gets done by a majority of this City Council, except to override a veto which takes six votes, and I believe seven votes to override the Planning Commission. I think in terms of rule changes, it should be a simple majority vote of the legislative body of City Council. I think it's a question of democratic majority.

Mr. Coyne:

Madam President, I would have to disagree with Councilman Ferlo on this bill. It's possible that when we have a quorum here on Council, five people, and you vote to make a change, even if you do let the members know a week ahead of time, you could still pass a change in the Rules of Council with only three votes.

Mr. Ferlo:

Excuse me, point of information. Majority means, as it is the case by law, five votes it would take.

Mr. Perry:

It's a majority of the members elected. It would have to be five or six votes, however you call it. It has to be members elected, not members present.

Mr. Ferlo:

It would take five members elected to do this.

Mr. Coyne:

Okay, my mistake.

Mr. Pollock:

I think it's something that is not subject to a mayoral veto, as Mr. Ferlo actively pointed out, that the votes that we take that require a majority are subject to a mayoral veto and thus it would take six votes of Council to override a mayoral veto. If we vote on something that does not require or does not permit a mayoral veto, then that same burden should be met of six votes. In other words, Mr. Ferlo has actively stated that we require five votes to pass something but our brilliantly conceived system of checks and balance means that it actually requires six votes because, if the Mayor does not support it, the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh can veto it which then means that to pass it we need six votes. If something does not have a mayoral veto, it should have the same burden of having a six vote majority, a six vote requirement for Council. I think something as important as our rules should similarly also in and of itself require a six vote total.

Mr. Woods:

I'm not going to debate it much; I just want to say that the Mayor has no, to my knowledge, has no authority over the Rules of Council, whether it takes five, six, seven or nine votes. So, to use the mayoral veto, I just think is terribly wrong.

And you must remember that it took five members of Council years ago, and I checked this out, to create the Rules of Council. Therefore, if you can go for a legal opinion, Mr. Pellegrini, our City Solicitor, will tell you you can change them with five votes today, if someone really wanted to argue the point.

Also, you have to remember that this Council right here, six of us, or five of us, could change the rules saying it would take nine members of Council to change the rules, which would be a terrible thing, especially when you have a district council coming up where you probably will never have nine members to change the rules. I think five, the majority, is what it should be. It takes five people to vote for the President of Council, it takes five people to vote for any piece of legislation, and there's nothing more important than the head of this Council, the President, and it only takes five people; it doesn't take six people to vote for that. And this rule change, I think, is legitimate.

Michelle Madoff:

I am inclined to agree with the comments by Mr. Woods; however, I think we ought to, as Mr. Wagner said, in case there are some people who don't understand how the system works, I would like the opportunity to explain how the system works. The system works that when we want to appoint a President Pro tem, if we have the power and the rest of the votes and the buddies on Council, we just go ahead and nominate him; we just appoint him without even a vote. We don't even obey the Rules of Council. And if we want to have an illegal President Pro tem, you go ahead and you nominate that person; you don't change the Rules of Council, you just go ahead and you do it.

Frankly, it isn't going to make any difference whether you have nine votes or five votes or six votes, because what it really boils down to, and I must tell you, I am, I wouldn't say bitterly, but I am terribly disappointed. I thought the new Council was going to be one where the public would have the five votes because in all the time I've been here it's a 5-4 vote with the public losing out, always being on the 4 end of the vote. That's my personal opinion. And it appears now that it's tough to get five votes in the public interest.

Mr. Ferlo:

I agree with you.

Michelle Madoff:

I think that it is really irrelevant whether you change this from five to six because those who have their buddies voting with them will do what they want anyway.

The Chair:

I don't agree with you. I think there are five people who will vote in favor of the public's interest.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, in response to that, thank God we have Council gavel to gavel on cable and people can decide for themselves what's really happening. They're not stupid; they know when somebody gets here and says, "I am going to nominate somebody for President Pro tem" and you couldn't even get a legal opinion; you couldn't get five votes out of your Council to get a legal opinion.

Mr. Wagner:

Since my name has been used again on the bill, I wasn't going to comment but I will. I'm also very happy that it's on T.V. and the public has the opportunity to see what goes on.

Madam President got five votes to be elected President; no one knows that more clearly than myself, and it was a very justifiable election. But in regard to how the system works, Councilwoman Madoff, if it doesn't work in your benefit, you say the system doesn't work. And that's really not the case here on Council. Council is a majority and if you have five votes, you win on an issue. I've lost on many, many an issue and I've never once said the system doesn't work in my benefit.

We have nine members, five is a majority; that's what this rule change suggests and I support it.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, I cannot let that go unanswered. Mr. Wagner introduced the bill to put Mr. Woods as President Pro tem, which is legally in violation of the Rules of Council that Mr. Ferlo now wants to amend. That is a fact and everybody listening knows he did that. That's a fact. So now he can say he didn't object and then you can have Mr. Woods say, "Well, it may have been illegal, but we did it in public".

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 256 Communication from Councilman Jack Wagner amending Rule
IV of the Rules of Council to read, "a.
At its organization meeting or thereafter
Council shall, by a majority vote of all Councilmembers, elect one member to serve as 'President pro tempore' for the ensuing term" and by adding "b. In the absence of the President and the President pro tempore, the members shall elect a temporary President pro tempore to chair that meeting provided there be a quorum present".

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Clarification, please. Mr. Wagner, is this an amendment to remove Mr.
Woods whom you nominated for President Pro tem and change the rules so you can do it legally?

Mr. Wagner:

Is that a question or is that a comment?

Michelle Madoff:

That's my question.

Mr. Wagner:

If I may comment on the bill, I will answer your question in the process.

The Chair:

Please do.

Mr. Wagner:

In regard to Bill No. 256, very clearly it's an amendment to Council
Rules and the amendment pertains to the President pro tem position.
Approximately four weeks ago, I nominated Councilman Woods as President pro tem. He received six votes in the nomination to become President pro tem. It was brought to my attention by you and by others that that did not clearly follow the Rules of Council. In looking at the Rules of Council, I determined that you and others were accurate; it did not clearly follow the Rules of Council in that what the Rules of Council stated was that any time when the President was not present for a Council meeting, that Council by a majority, by five votes, would elect a person to serve as Council President.
That's what the rules presently state, prior to this vote on a proposed amendment. The problem there, as I saw it and stated it then and will state it again, without the President of Council here in these Chambers, there is no one to chair the meeting. Traditionally, it has been that a President pro tem was appointed by or elected by the majority of Council. There has never been a disagreement on that in the past until I nominated Mr. Woods as President pro tem.

I am trying to clarify what I originally intended to do, and in doing it I saw that there was a violation or there was not anything in the Rules of Council to support what my original motion was. I am therefore changing with this rule amendment the rules so that that can be done through a democratic process of the majority of this Council.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, I would like to thank Mr. Wagner. I know that many of us fought tooth and nail the day that he made the appointment and we said to him, if you wish to have Mr. Woods as President pro tem, you have the votes anyway; as a matter of fact, if I recall correctly, Mr. Ferlo said, "Why bother changing the rules; he's going to get what he wants so why even take the time?"

But it was determined by most of us here at the table, not most of us but many of us, that it was indeed an illegal vote and we urged him to please review the Rules of Council and to make that change, which he refused to do and proceeded to go ahead and make the nomination.

Subsequently, for whatever reason, Mr. Wagner has seen the light and I think that's wonderful and if I played any role in that I think that's great and I think anyone that changed their mind should be commended.

Mr. Ferlo:

I think future civic historians will find Mr. Wagner's comments a brilliant explanation at eating humble pie and that's exactly the case, as Ms. Madoff said, and I'd like to proceed with the vote.

Mr. DePasquale:

Madam President, I wish somebody would define for me permission to leave the meeting. I don't want to be facetious but if someone has to step out for a cup of water or to go to the bathroom, do they have to raise their hand?

The Chair:

I don't think that's the case, Mr. DePasquale. If you go out, you say to somebody, I'll be right back. But if you're leaving permanently, I think that should be established.

Mr. Coyne:

Madam President, in the interest of getting on with the City's business, I think it would be smart for Council to let personal differences die at this point. I think Councilman Wagner has made a valid explanation of his decision to bring this rule change forward and I think we should call for the question on the motion right now so that we can get on with more beneficial business for the City of Pittsburgh.

Michelle Madoff:

One quick question; I'm a little confused. I don't know whether Mr. DePasquale was being facetious or an attempt at humor, but is there anything in this bill that said if anybody leaves the meeting?

The Chair:

It says that no member shall depart without leave from the President.

Michelle Madoff:

Let me tell you why that is not frivolous. We've had some serious questions here on votes that pertain to issues that were unpopular with various members of Council who are no longer here and they were on racial issues.

Members would conveniently get up and walk out so they didn't have to vote and when they came back, on occasion I would ask whether we could ask for their vote and they were not forced to give their vote.

I think that we ought to go by the rules and I believe the rules are such that if anyone leaves the room, they can request that their vote be allowed when they come back. If you request that you have the privilege of voting, you do have the privilege to vote. But if you don't request it, you lose that right to vote. I would hate to see people wandering out of the room at a sensitive issue and not have their vote recorded.

We've seen this happen over and over again in the last years and I think that's an issue that we just can't brush over very lightly. I think it is appropriate if somebody is going out for a glass of water — I don't know the exact terminology, I used to know what it is, but I think it's "I reserve the right to cast my vote before the meeting ends".

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President, point of order. That's not the issue in front of us.

The Chair:

That's part of the amendment, though, Mr. Wagner.

Mr. Wagner:

No, it isn't. It's part of the rule but it's not part of the amendment that I have proposed.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Madam President, one question. Now that we have passed that rule change, is Councilman Woods still considered President pro tem or are we going to have to vote again?

Mr. Lyons:

We have to vote again.

Madam President, I think in the previous motion that related to the motion for Councilman Woods to be President pro tem, I'd like to have reconsideration to that motion so it could be wiped out.

The Chair:

It's been declared illegal.

Mr. Lyons:

I make the motion that Mr. Woods be President pro tem.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Are there other nominations?

The Chair:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

I nominate Mark Pollock.

The Chair:

Is there a second to that nomination?

Mr. Perry:

You don't need a second.

Michelle Madoff:

My rationale is that he is the Finance Chairman and for the many years that I've been here the Finance Chairman has taken over for the President; the President has taken over for the Finance Chairman and it has worked very well. If we want to go back to obeying the Rules of Council, any time there's quorum and neither are present, we can elect someone at that point. That would be my recommendation.

The Chair:

We're voting on the appointment of Mr. Woods or Mr. Pollock as President pro tem. Is there any further discussion on the nominations?

Also,

Bill No. 186

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts for the P.J. McArdle Roadway Sidewalk Rehabilitation; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President, on Bill No. 186, in relation to spending $225,000 to put some sidewalks down on McArdle

Roadway, I'm opposed to that and I'm disappointed that we're voting on this without having any clear indication from the Department of Public Works as to whether or not it's possible that these sidewalks could be put down by City workers. We have cement finishers on the payroll. This amount of money, $225,000 to be let out to outside contractors is probably about three times as much money as is needed to do the job. I'm voting against this because I think it should be done in-house; it can be done competently.

Secondly, with that amount of money, if we did it in-house, we'd actually have money to repair some of the concrete stairwells throughout the hilly districts and neighborhoods throughout the City of Pittsburgh. So, I'm very much opposed and disappointed in this legislation.

Michelle Madoff:

I think we have to go back and review what happened and the dialogue with Mr. McDermott with reference to this bill and the $225,000. In principle, I happen to agree with Mr. Ferlo; as a matter of fact, I have some drawings that I got from Public Works that showed us how sidewalks are put in and how curbs are put in, and they're pretty standard and pretty basic. You can give it out to almost any contractor without having to have a consultant do a lot of the work.

The problem, as I understand it, and I think it's important to reiterate, is that it took seven years and hundreds of thousands of dollars to redo the bridgework on McArdle Roadway. And during the seven year period, either all of McArdle was shut down or one lane of McArdle was shut down so that tourists coming to Pittsburgh, like the Prince and like the Today Show, the first thing you go to show them is what is known as our Niagara Falls, our showpiece, the overlooks on Mount Washington of the City. The Today Show opted to go to the North Shore because it was almost an embarrassment to take them up McArdle Roadway.

Today and yesterday, as I came down McArdle Roadway, the street is blocked off again; they're cleaning it up for the Prince so it will look clean; ragged, torn, unpaved, sloppy with grass and weeds growing through the cement, but nevertheless, tidied up for the Prince, not for the citizens who pay the taxes but to show us off, and perhaps that's what we should be doing.

The $225,000, I understand, Mr. Ferlo, is because the electrical wiring, the catch basins that must be factored into the cement work and the poles so that when they come back, there's going to be a lot more than $225,000 which, incidentally, is a quarter of a million dollars and we've already spent millions. We'll probably have to tear a lot of this up. The walls have got to be put in, the retaining walls; that's the cement retaining walls. And the guardrails are going to have to be put in. The electrical work is going to have to be put in; you heard Mr. McDermott say that was not part of this number. We have piecemealed that project to death. It is a disgrace.

Grandview Avenue has had the street torn up for a waterline; now it's being torn up for a sewerline. The impact on the businesses and on the people living up there has been unbelievable but more important, really more important than the inconvenience to people living there because they have other roads in and out of the area if you know where they are, those of us who live there do know where they are, is that the impact on businesses, people going up to Mount Washington, but tourism which has got to be one of the sources of income for our City, has been severely, severely damaged. And it will be again and again and again until McArdle Roadway is really finished and cleaned up. It is obviously, in my opinion, the responsibility for the terrible neglect, the terrible planning and the lack of foresight in looking after the problem must be squarely laid at the feet of Mr. McDermott for very poor administration of the Construction and Engineering Department.

We can't vote against the $225,000 because it's a little bit to get things going. But I want you to know it's only the tip of the iceberg; you're going to see millions more and I would like to make a request, if I have the President of Council's permission, for Mr. Perry, can we have all the monies spent on the McArdle Roadway for rehabilitation on the bridges, the consulting for the bridgework that has been done to date, the amount of money that has been spent on cleaning the catch basins out on a regular basis, what it's going to take to put the rails in on the side, the meshwork on the bridge, to replace it, there are pieces of the rail completely out, re-doing the sidewalk on the curbside of the wall, not the sidewalk side, and re-doing the walls. I will tell you, it will be millions more. And doing it piecemeal has tripled the price; it would have been done for a third of the price.

Mr. Wagner:

On the bill on McArdle Roadway, I support that bill. The sidewalk does need repaired. It's in disrepair to the point where people could be injured walking on it. However, we all know, and I know because I use the road quite often, not many people actually use that sidewalk; probably 100 a day use it. However, it still needs to be repaired.

But I'd like to make a request through the City Clerk, in doing this work it was mentioned to me by a Building Inspection employee over the weekend, and it was a legitimate comment, that that's a very wide sidewalk and maybe the sidewalk, they said it was a six foot sidewalk, maybe it could be decreased to four feet and the Roadway could be slightly widened to reduce the potential of vehicular accidents on the Roadway and possibly even a median barrier sometime in the future.

So, I'd just like that to go with the passage of this legislation. If the sidewalk does not have to be the width it is, can the width be made less and possibly even, in the process, the cost could be reduced.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, I think Mr. Wagner's concerns are genuine. The problem with that road is, as you turn onto it from the top, at Grandview, it is a sharp turn there; it was very, very badly engineered and very, very badly designed. That's where you can really hit somebody.

But the rest of the road, there have not been any accidents on the road. The problem is that there is water running off the hillside and freezing. One of the owners of one of the restaurants on Mount Washington was indeed knocked unconscious and was in a coma for several hours skidding on the ice that was created from the freezing water running off the hillside. That's the wall I'm talking about. If that isn't done, that road started to be repaired properly very shortly, I'm going to start to bring into this Council pieces of the curb that are falling off into the middle of the street. I'll put them in my trunk, have somebody pick them up, and have them wheeled into Council every week or every time we have a session. I'll bring you pieces of McArdle Roadway and we'll give it to Mr. McDermott so he can put it back. Maybe somehow if we focus enough attention on it, that will happen.

I remember when we did the Larimer Bridge, you recall, everybody said the kids were throwing stuff off the bridge. It turned out it was water going into the crevices, freezing and pieces of the bridge were falling off and at one point, on Election Day, as you know, pieces of the bridge went through somebody's windshield and he was blinded and all the electricity was put off in that area.

The cement coming off the wall is damaging and dangerous to people driving on the road. It is the entire restructuring of McArdle Roadway that must be addressed.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Wagner also raised an issue regarding the McArdle Roadway which I think adds a different twist now and it's unfortunate that in opposing this $225,000 for outside contractors, I am not opposed to renovating or rehabbing the sidewalk. Obviously, it needs to be done. I'm only suggesting that it can be done, probably, quicker as well as cheaper by the City workforce.

The point that Mr. Wagner raises on the possibility of reducing the width of the sidewalk, it might be a constructive idea but I fear, knowing the Department as I do, and recognizing that it took many thousands of dollars in consultants to design the sidewalk in the first place, not to mention to put down the concrete, that if he makes any alterations to the plan, Mr. McDermott will spend another $100,000 trying to figure out how to reduce the width of the sidewalk.

So, either table this and let's go back to the drawing board, or vote it down.

Bill No. 206

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 1094, effective January 1, 1988, entitled: 'Resolution adopting and approving the 1988 Capital Budget and the 1988 Community Development Block Grant Program; and approving the 1988 through 1993 Capital Improvement Program', by creating a new line item entitled, EC 88-65 'Troy Hill Fire Station #39, Rehabilitation.'"—(SPONSORED BY MR. WOODS)

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

On Bill No. 206 in relation to the Troy Hill Fire Station #39, I am hoping that this will be a unanimous vote of Council. The problem is that in appropriating, if we vote in the affirmative, the $500,000, there's no guarantee that this will necessarily be done by the Administration. And I'm hoping that if this vote proceeds and we vote to budget the $500,000 for the fire house, that we will be able to get a clear indication from Director Cannon and the Mayor what their intentions are exactly, no later than June or July when they formulate the capital budget, in relation to the repairs and the rehabbing of this building.

So, I'm putting on notice in support of this bill that I hope Councilmembers will join together and voluntarily issue a deadline of June or July whereby the Administration will let us know specifically what their intention is on the rehabilitation of the fire station. If not, I will be introducing a resolution in June asking the Mayor to come forward before this body to specifically talk about this issue.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, in regard to the Troy Hill fire hall bill, I definitely support it and I'd like my comments brought forward for the Record for last Wednesday's meeting and I'd like to further state that the decision there really is not a Public Safety decision. I stated that last week and I am saying it again. It's a budgetary planning decision. I think, though, that this Council use whatever influence it has to make sure that those monies remain in the budget and that the rehabilitation work begins on that building.

(MR. WAGNER'S REMARKS ON BILL
NO. 206 - WEDNESDAY, 2/24/88)

Mr. Wagner:

I have one comment in regard to the bill, and I mentioned this to Director Cannon. I believe I mentioned it at the public hearing last week. I have never seen a community support keeping a facility as much as Troy Hill has, and because of the uniqueness of that neighborhood and the identity that that neighborhood has, not only in the City, but to the people that live within it, this has become an intrical part of that neighborhood. For that reason, I believe the project deserves some special exception for renovation work, and basically that's what we are talking about. We are not talking about a new fire station. We are talking about reviving a building which may even be a historical building -- at least in the neighborhood I'm sure it is -- but restoring that building and putting it back in such shape that a firehouse can continue to operate in it for an extended period of time.

(END OF REMARKS)

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 206, I agree with Mr. Ferlo that our passing the bill isn't going to get us the fire station and I'm not as magnanimous as he is. I cannot wait until June. I think that we must give the Administration two weeks, the budget office two weeks, to tell us. It is not a safety issue; it is a budgetary matter, as Mr. Wagner stated. What we need is two weeks in which to tell us which item will be put back and how this piece of legislation, the Troy Hill Fire Station which was promised light years ago and has precedence and promise from previous Councils would be put on the front burner. In other words, I want to see a realignment of the line items, that indeed Troy Hill will be built or reconstructed, rehabbed.

Mr. Ferlo:

I disagree with both of my colleagues. At a public hearing, the person who is not yet convinced that this need to be done is the Public Safety Director and I think the comments by the Director of Engineering, Mr. McDermott, were also in that vein, that until, I think he used the term user department requested, he's not going to move on it at all. It's clearly in the lap of the Mayor and I'm only pointing out that ultimately the Administration needs to make the decision. But I think the Public Safety Director, from what I've been able to gather at the public hearing, is not yet in favor of this rehabilitation and I think there's very clearly still a move on in the so-called Public Safety Department to consolidate further and eliminate further some of the fire houses and engine stations around the City of which this happens to be key on the list.

So, I think there is disagreement within and among the Administration. I don't think the Public Safety Director is on-line in support of this. That's one of the problems. The second problem is that the Administration itself needs to decide what is the priority.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 206, Madam President, I have spoken with old parties in the Administration and it is, in my opinion, in speaking to them in private, that this is not a Safety issue; the Safety Director has no say in what is to be built. But one of the things that all Directors must do, and that is loyalty. Their's is not to wonder why; their's is but to do or die. They are to speak for the Administration; they are not to speak against the Administration. You can't ask them to do that; it's unfair and unjust for us to do that, and I do it often enough because I figure it's the only way I can get my message back. So, I know your frustration.

However, Mr. McDermott, when I approached him during the hearing and said, "Mr. McDermott, what are you going to do to get us the Troy Hill Fire Station which was promised ten or so years ago?", he said, "Well, I would need a directive from the Administration giving it a priority assignment."

Therefore, I'm suggesting that we don't need to wait until budget time; we have a request from this Council. We vote for it, and we already voted for it unanimously at the Wednesday meeting, that a letter goes out from this Council or from the President of Council requesting from the Administration a commitment that indeed this will be a priority and begin immediately, construction or design or whatever is needed, to get this bid prepared so we can start doing the construction. It will be the priority of the City next to lifesaving issues like water, although now I believe water is in Water and Sewer Authority so it would not have to be a conflict. That there is a commitment from the Administration to have the Troy Hill Fire Station as a priority and that we will know that it is indeed going to be done and something else would be delayed, something that is probably not ready to go anyway or we don't even have our monies yet or our commitment. There is no reason we should not proceed.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff:

I would like a letter to go to the Administration, Finance Department, asking that we have a commitment to put the Troy Hill Rehab as a priority item. Do I have a second?

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

My second item. I'm sure everybody has heard that Duquesne Light is about to bring the City to its knees if they are granted their 75 percent increase. There are people in this City who are going to eat dog food, who are barely getting by on cheap hamburger; there are people who are going to choose between eating and freezing. We have a responsibility to support the Administration; we have just been notified that the Mayor is going to appeal that rate increase and I would like a vote of confidence from this Council supporting the Administration. I make that in the form of a motion.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Could we have a letter going from the President of this Council to the Mayor saying that we unanimously support him in his efforts, Madam President, with your signature?

The Chair:

Yes, that letter will go out.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President, same issue. I'd just like to mention, we had a resolution earlier that talked about the LTV electric arc furnaces. To my knowledge, it hasn't been taken into consideration by the people in the PUC that if, in fact, that were to happen within the next year or two, that has a significant impact on the profit margin of Duquesne Light Company in that between five and ten percent of their total power generated was utilized at the electric arc furnaces on the South Side. And the LTV company, as a matter of fact, when it went into bankruptcy, owes them millions of dollars; I believe somewhere in excess of $10 million to Duquesne Light Company. But the PUC, I believe, is not taking in all the appropriate information here and that could be one large variable that could potentially add to their profit margin in the future.

The Chair:

Are you suggesting that we write to the PUC as well?

Mr. Wagner:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like that clarified. What would be the purpose of pointing out to the PUC that the electric arc maybe go back into operation? That they should give them the rate increase because they would get the money?

Mr. Wagner:

No. The point I'm making is that that is such an issue of importance here within Council, within the City, the Steel Valley Authority, and it has a significant impact on the profit margin of Duquesne Light Company. And if in fact that project is going to move forward, and all of us hope that it does, Duquesne Light will need even less monies in the future than they need today.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, it's because an electric arc uses a tremendous amount of electricity; is that your rationale? You got me confused because you talked about the debt.

Mr. Wagner:

Well, just the use of those electric arc furnaces, two of them in the South Side, was between five and ten percent of the total power generated by Duquesne Light Company.

Michelle Madoff:

And it was done on request. J & L requested that capacity be made available. I think it would have been prudent to have had some kind of contract because J & L is a subsidiary of LTV and I think LTV still owes that money. And I believe, Mr. Wagner, that Duquesne Light is going after the parent company to collect that bad debt. So, you're not talking about the bad debt, which is what you confused us on, because they're going to, hopefully, collect their bad debt. It's owed.

What you're saying is, electric arcs are large users of electricity and therefore would generate some revenue and therefore they wouldn't have to put it on the backs of the taxpayers and the residents of this community. Is that basically your point?

Mr. Wagner:

That's correct.

Michelle Madoff:

I might point out that I donated my three shares of J & L stock to the electric arc furnaces. They were supposed to build a cube op and didn't, so I gave it to the electric arc anyway.

The Chair:

Mr. Wagner, will you give us the information on that and we'll see that a letter goes forward.

All in favor of a letter going to the PUC? Opposed?

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President, on three separate matters. About a month ago during the time of the commemorative events of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., I convened a group of citizens from around the City from all different kinds of organizations around the issue of developing a tribute to Dr. King. As a result of two initial planning meetings, there was tremendous enthusiasm and support for a tribute along the lines of some type of major art piece, some type of statue, and the discussion that took place focused in on either Market Square or some other well known public facility in downtown City of Pittsburgh.

It was also mentioned in the initial planning meeting about the idea of the renaming of Market Square. I can safely say that as a result of discussions that I've had over the last two weeks of people grabbing my arm as well as a tremendous number of people who called my office, I would have to admit overwhelmingly that while there was tremendous support for the idea of some type of tribute or statue or art piece, there was very little support and, in fact, severe criticisms of me for even suggesting the renaming of Market Square.

With that in mind, I will convey that information to the planning meeting that has been convened and we will attempt to focus our efforts on the development of this tribute in terms of the significant work of art.

On the matter of the School Board meeting —

Michelle Madoff:

On your first subject I would like to make a comment.

The Chair:

Let him finish his discussion first.

Michelle Madoff:

Are you still on the same subject?

Mr. Ferlo:

I'd like to finish my three points before people fly out of the room.

The Chair:

Michelle, let him finish, please.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm on the same subject.

Mr. Ferlo:

That's alright. Let me just finish my two other points briefly and then we can discuss any of them.

On the matter of the School Board pact, as you know, a number of Councilmembers expressed dismay over the approval of the labor agreement without any indication from the School Board how they plan to pay for this increase.

I would like to publicly call at this time, and ask if there are members of Council who would like to go together as a delegation to address the School Board the evening of the next meeting which is March 14th at 7:30 in the evening, not so much to get into a lengthy debate about the school pact which has already been approved, but to begin to try to open up and have some discussion with the School Board early in the year on the issue of tax reform so that both of our legislative bodies are of one mind come the end of the year when we try to reform the wage tax.

I feel strongly that all of the communiques in the past have gone unnoticed and have not been taken seriously by Dr. Milliones as well as other School Board members. I think, though, in response from their vote that they are under more pressure now and more likely to consider dialoguing with us. I will be going to the School Board to speak on the 14th at 7:30 but, quite frankly, I would like to solicit the support of other members of Council and I was hoping that we could meet and develop a joint statement which we could all present collectively as a will of Council. So, I want to make that overture to my colleagues today.

In closing, on the issue of residency, as has been raised by the Controller previously and other members of Council at the School Board, I share the same concern about our own authorities in terms of the Housing Authority and the Urban Redevelopment Authority where we are losing thousands and thousands of dollars in income each year because the people who work at the URA and the Housing Authority do not necessarily live in the City of Pittsburgh.

I'm investigating the possibility of introducing legislation to require that these people be residents of the City and pay the wage tax and hopefully own property in the City and pay their fair share. I think it's outrageous that these people who are working in the Authority do not live in the City not only because of loss of revenues but we have major people, suburbanites, making major policy decisions on our lives and they don't even live in the City or have a stake in what the quality of life should be in the City of Pittsburgh.

I would like to make a motion to ask Council to join with me in requesting information from these two authorities as to where their employees specifically live. That's a formal motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, there were three items and I want to comment on —

The Chair:

Wait a minute. We have a motion before us.

Mr. Ferlo:

The motion is, as you know, members of Council, each year we receive a listing of people who work in the Authorities with their salary level. Unfortunately, it does not tell me, and I'm trying to determine how much money we lose, where these individuals live. I looked up some of them in the phone book; it's clear that some of the higher paid administrators live in North Versailles and North Huntingdon and Washington, PA and everywhere else.

My motion is to communicate a letter to the two Authorities, the URA and the Housing Authority, and specifically ask for a listing of where these individuals live. I'm not talking about people's home addresses; I don't care to know that. I just want to know who lives in the City and who lives outside the City. I don't think that's in any way infringing upon their rights.

The Chair:

If they have a home address in the City, I don't know why they don't live there.

Mr. Ferlo:

We don't know where they live; that's my point. The information that comes to us only lists their name, their title, their position of employment and what their salary is. What I would like to know is their name, their salary, their position, but also, are they a City resident or non-resident. I don't care to know their specific home address; I'm only trying to determine who actually lives in the City and are we collecting a wage tax off of them, and who doesn't.

Mr. Coyne:

I second the motion.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

The Chair:

Alright then, send those letters to the URA and Housing and ask for that information.

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you, Madam President.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, unfortunately, I have to go back to the first motion. We got on three subjects; I just wanted to take them one at a time.

On the first subject which was having a memorial for Martin Luther King, may I point out in your committee, in your negotiations, that some of the people who are friends of mine are serving on your committee, very prominent people. One of the things that has been pointed out to me by architects is that we have the veterans' memorial in a place where nobody can get near it. Cars whiz by. If you see it from my house it's beautiful, but you can't get to it, use it, hold meetings under it, and enjoy it. And I think that's one of the things you want to be concerned about; when you do have a memorial that isn't hidden somewhere. And I think that the veterans' one is really a hidden memorial and I don't think that's what you want to have when you come out of it.

With reference to going to testify before the School Board, anybody is free to go and do their thing before the School Board. But you do know that we all got packets today from the School Board explaining that, as Sophie Masloff pointed out, the people who lived out of the City were grandfathered; anybody knew that's hired since a certain date must be City residents. And I figured out that the total possible revenue to the City would be about $1 million, just about what we lost on one little contract because we don't clean our own house, and that was through Mr. McDermott and Construction and Engineering on Phase II of Grant Street. So we have to clean our own house first of all.

And with reference to getting information on any authority, I've never had any problems by making a request, saying, "Could you please tell me where the people live?". And they'll tell you.

Mr. Ferlo:

Well we just voted.

Michelle Madoff:

You don't need it; just go ask.

Mr. Lyons:

Madam President and Council, the School Board has taken a very hard line in meeting with City Council and certainly what Councilman Ferlo has proposed, how would it be accepted if we still couldn't enter any dialogue with the School Board members in regards to the future of our tax problems? Certainly I feel that somewhere we must come together. Some are saying that we're violating the Sunshine rule if we meet behind closed doors; the School Board is saying that they do not have to meet with us. And an unreliable source has said now for the School Board to overcome their $20 million projected indebtedness that they are going to float bonds for it. So certainly, if we go there, they still don't have to favor us in any way. This is the only thing that I have fear of and I think it's two branches of people that represent the community that should sit down and thrash the differences out.

Mr. Ferlo:

In response to Councilman Lyons, I agree with him and it would be outrageous if the School Board, in order to balance a budget, floats a bond. I mean, if that happens, they should be impeached.

I'm very disappointed in Dr. Milliones' comments. If the Post Gazette accurately listed his comments, and to quote him, "We'd be glad to meet in private; I don't want to participate in the City Council Circus." I'm very disappointed in that comment because I think all of us have a sincere effort to try to deal creatively with tax reform and we don't need to talk about it here but it's clear that we've lost tremendous amounts of people in our City. On one hand, we are working overtime on the issue of tax reform along with the Mayor and the Administration; and on the other hand, that reform will be wiped out with a regressive and significant tax increase on property come the end of the year. I think it's outrageous that Dr. Milliones and other School Board members, if they agree, frankly should be voted out of office, for them to say that they cannot meet with us and they are only willing to meet with us in private when the School Solicitor himself has made it clear that no private meeting is legal and, frankly, whether it's legal or not its not desirable. This is the public's business and I think for too long the School Board has acted like a sacred cow and I think we should begin to question their activities

And I was there at the board meeting in the afternoon a couple weeks ago when they voted on the wage package; there was not one sentence, there was not one comment from any of those School Board members debating or dialoguing, agreeing or disagreeing. It was yes, yes, yes, yes, yes. Not one discussion. It was basically, other than the fact that it was a public meeting, they don't have cablecast, which I think they should investigate so people can at least watch what's going on at the School Board. But it's a City bureaucracy and a budget that at least equals that of the City of Pittsburgh.

And what I'm proposing, colleagues, is that we physically go to the next School Board meeting on the 14th and deliver a joint message on the need to begin to meet and develop a planning process for tax reform. And rather than continually sending letters that go unheeded, I think we have the possibility to impress upon them, especially since some of them are up for re-election, the need to sit down and meet with Council, the with Administration, with the Controller, and with the School Board together. And I think if we go there in person and deliver that message, I think we will have more weight and more seriousness and I once again call on other colleagues to join me in developing a joint statement.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, if I may comment. All of you are aware that I have sent three letters to the School Board, going back to October of last year, requesting a joint meeting. I think it's important that we do not get into a confrontational position as to how the School Board operates. I have tried to stay away from that and I have tried to simply address the issue of a meeting and the need for a meeting and to talk about common issues and problems that both independent elected bodies face. I think there's great merit in that happening, not only with the Council and the School Board but also the Mayor, also the Controller, also Superintendent Wallace.

I have met with many members of the School Board individually over the years and Superintendent Wallace pertaining to different issues, some financial, some not financial. And I have always felt that there can be a better way to do it collectively. However, in talking with one School Board member this morning, and I won't mention that individual's name, there appears to be a desire to meet, and I think that's very healthy and I think we have to have a common respect about what the two independent groups represent and not in any way get into their issues or them get into our issues, and just talk about common problems such as taxes.

However, what I am hoping to convey to them is that if we do meet in the future, that we define the agenda very clearly, as well as possible, and we cannot deviate from that agenda if a meeting takes place. For instance, if we want to talk about just the four percent wage tax, let's make that the issue and only that the issue. I've also suggested that I think the person that should chair the meeting should be the Mayor. And I think the Mayor should determine precisely who talks, when they talk, and I think it's very important that from a turf point of view we respect where each other are coming from because, in order for anything positive to happen here, we have to have some cooperation. However, to this point, the School Board has not cooperated in saying yes, they want to have a public meeting. And I am hopeful with some of this dialogue that we can get to that point because it can only be beneficial and helpful to both groups and the people that all of us serve. I am optimistic that something like that will happen in the future; however, if we start saying things about each other, I don't think it will ever happen.

Michelle Madoff:

One quick question. Madam President, why do we only have the Minutes today from February 8th? I need those Minutes from the last couple of weeks; I've been waiting for them because I need to send them to someone on an important item and we're late.

We increased our budget so the printing could get out. We increased the staff. We went to computers so that we would not need -- We have lost some people and we would not have to increase. There are some people not doing anything. I wonder if the City Clerk could explain what is happening.

Mr. Perry:

We're getting them out as fast as we can, Michelle. After all, our meetings are lasting now for over two hours.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm not going to argue with you; I just want to know what happened.

Mr. Perry:

We're getting them out as fast as we can; there's nothing else I can do to get them out quicker.

Michelle Madoff:

Do you have enough people to do them?

Mr. Perry:

I can't put too many people on one job; I just can't do it on the Minutes. I just can't do that. I have the staff to do it but it's just not feasible to do it.

Michelle Madoff:

Do you understand the problem? Today is the 29th of February and I'm getting February 8th's Minutes.

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of order, Madam Chairman. I thought we were on the School Board.

Michelle Madoff:

When did we finish it? I've had my hand up for a half hour.

The Chair:

I'm sorry; I apologize.

Mr. DePasquale:

I don't want to beat it to death but I just want to elaborate on what Councilman Wagner said, and I agree with him. Obviously, I'd like to see the School Board meet with City Council and, at the same time, I don't like the idea of anybody living in the City of Pittsburgh and being deprived of a job when someone from out of the City gets that job. In other words, anyone who has a job in the City, I believe should live in the City.

But the problem we face is the autonomy that the School Board has, and obviously, they have a Board and the Board meets and the Board sets the rules and the regulations. I'm not advocating a change in the School Board; I'm entirely satisfied with that School Board down there myself. But at the same time, the only way that it's going to change is through the School Board members. All the other stuff isn't going to do one darn bit of good unless their change their rules down there and, apparently, this School Board is not going to change those rules. They're going to allow people to come in from out of the City to work and they're also going to continue to levy taxes. They're going to have that right regardless of whether there's a new Board or not. All we can do is go down there and cause a little furor and a little havoc and it's not going to serve any point whatsoever. But I think a meeting between Council and the School Board will serve a very good point if they would just allow that meeting.

The Chair:

I think a meeting is a wonderful idea but they haven't agreed to it and I don't know how we can force them to.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. Ferlo made a motion and I believe someone seconded it on getting a list on where employees -- Is that all authorities?

Mr. Ferlo:

Yes. We voted on that.

The Chair:

Just a minute. We only said URA and Housing.

Mr. Ferlo:

I wasn't aware of other authorities that have payrolls but I'll stand corrected if you know, Mr. Woods.

Mr. Woods:

They're not big payrolls but the Stadium, the Water and Sewer --

Mr. Ferlo:

I apologize.

The Chair:

We do have a list. I have a list from the Housing Authority of all their employees and where they live.

Mr. Ferlo:

We don't know where they live. The list only states their name, their title, their job position and what they're paid. It doesn't list whether or not they're a City or non-City resident.

The Chair:

And so you want all the authorities?

Mr. Ferlo:

I would like it to be all the authorities, and I stand corrected. And I thank Mr. Woods for bringing that to my attention.

The Chair presents

No. 301 Resolution that the appointment by the Mayor of Robert C. Watson of 3459 Shadeland Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15212, be and the same is hereby approved and confirmed as a member of the City Court for a term to expire March, 1992.

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Point of information. This is the first time we voted on something like this. Is it not the case that we at least receive a resume and get to interview these people?

The Chair:

If you so wish.

Mr. Ferlo:

I would like to at least see a resume of this gentleman, although I happen to know him.

The Chair:

Do you want to make a motion to have him come before us this Wednesday?

Mr. Woods:

Madam President, I move to bring him in this Wednesday.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

With a resume.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Woods moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, February 8, 1988.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Woods

Council adjourned.

ABSENT:

Michelle Madoff

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, I'd like to ask Mike Mayhak to please step forward. He is the Executive Director of the West End-Elliott Joint Project and is involved in various development initiatives in that area.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 335 WHEREAS, the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation (PennDot) plans to rehabilitate the West End Bridge and Circle; and

WHEREAS, a portion of the present PennDot plan calls for rehabilitating only the downstream sidewalk of the West End bridge, with the upstream sidewalk to be permanently closed; and

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh and the Urban Redevelopment Authority are pursuing development projects on the North Shore, both downstream and upstream of the West End Bridge including the extension of Clemente Park and the building of the Buhl Science Center; and

WHEREAS, the West End Bridge is a critical link in the pedestrian network serving the City's residential communities, development projects and riverfront parks, with a priceless view of the City; and

WHEREAS, the structure of the West End Bridge does not allow the roadway to be widened if one of the sidewalks is closed.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby urges the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation to retain and rehabilitate both sidewalks of the West End Bridge; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council strongly suggests that if only one sidewalk is retained that it be the upstream sidewalk.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, prior to Mike saying a few words, I'd simply like to state that the community development organization that he represents, the West End-Elliott Joint Project, is the two closest neighborhoods on the western portion or the southern portion of the West End Bridge that would be involved here. Also involved, obviously, is the Allegheny section of the North Side and also the Manchester section of the North Side.

What is being proposed by PennDOT is to eliminate the sidewalk on the upstream or the Downtown side of the West End Bridge. One of our greatest values in the City of Pittsburgh are our vistas and our view of the City, and essentially what would happen would be that we would eliminate the sidewalk that gives us the best vista and the best view of the City of Pittsburgh.

That proposal was made in the West End neighborhood about a week and a half ago to various neighborhood representatives. It was strongly opposed by the neighborhood representatives including Mike and several others. And simply, what this resolution is doing is supporting their desire and our desire to see the sidewalk on the upstream side continue as is today when the project begins which, I believe, is next year but they're in the final stages of planning.

I'm sure Mike would like to say a few words.

Mr. Mayhak:

Madam President and members of Council, I'd just like to thank you for your support on this issue.

As you know, the proposed rehabilitation of the West End Bridge is very much going to affect our neighborhoods over there but it also affects the North Side, as Jack mentioned, and the City as a whole.

The West End Bridge is the first bridge on the Ohio River. It's a Pittsburgh bridge and we feel that if there's going to be a one-sided view, it ought to be a view of Pittsburgh. It's a unique view; it's a spectacular view. It's the only view of that nature that you have in the entire City looking straight on to the Point from down river.

Furthermore, this has the support of all the neighborhoods. Three groups spoke at PennDOT's public hearing a week and a half ago; our's, the West End-Elliott Business Associates, and the West End Citizens' Council. There is broad-based support for keeping the sidewalk on the upstream side.

The things that are mentioned in the resolution, the potential riverfront developments, the continued pedestrian access, things of this nature, are all very important to us and we think it's good for the City.

One last thing I'd like to throw in because I know that budget considerations are a major concern to this body. This won't cost the City anything. All we're asking is that PennDOT change their plans a little bit and move the sidewalk from one side to the other. We aren't asking the City for any money for a change.

Thank you very much for your support.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President, in regard to the resolution on PennDOT and the West End Bridge, could that be sent by the Clerk's Office, to the Governor's Office, PennDOT, the Director of PennDOT, Howard Yerusalim, and also the local PennDOT office, Henry Nutbrown.

The Chair:

Yes, sir; it will be done.

Mr. Wagner:

Thank you.

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 336 WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh Public Schools and its 15 middle schools have made a significant contribution to the high quality of life in the City of Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, middle level education has a special and unique function in Pittsburgh's and our nation's educational system; and

WHEREAS, early adolescents are undergoing dramatic, physical, social, emotional, and intellectual growth, in which the habits and values established during this age period have a critical, life-long influence; and

WHEREAS, Pittsburgh's 15 middle schools have now been officially accredited by the Middle States Association; and

WHEREAS, the Greenway Middle School Teacher Center will open in August, 1988 as a special staff development center for middle school educators.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh declares the week of March 13-19, 1988 as "National Middle Level Education Week" in Pittsburgh so that the public will be afforded special opportunities to become aware of their local middle schools and the ways in which they respond to the unique and important needs of the early adolescent child.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

With me to receive this resolution are Dr. Lloyd Briscoe who is the Principal of Greenway Middle School, Dr. Richard Gutkind who is the Director of Greenway Teacher Center, and Courteney Kovacs and Brian Patterson.

Dr. Gutkind:

I'd like to thank City Council for passing this resolution and also Councilman Pollock for introducing it into Council. I'd like to thank all of you on behalf of our Superintendent, Richard C. Wallace, and our boss, the Associate Superintendent, Mrs. Louise Brennan and the President of our School Board, Dr. Jake Milliones.

We feel that middle schools in Pittsburgh are the vital, vital link in the education of our children. They are the bridge between those elementary years and the secondary years and you're going to be hearing some big things about middle schools in the coming years. You're probably aware that five years ago the Schenley High School Teacher Center opened as a combination high school for students in that area and also as a special staffed development center for all the high school teachers in the City. It's a program that brought national acclaim to Pittsburgh and to the Pittsburgh Public Schools and has been most successful.

The Brookline Elementary Center opened three years ago and now, we're saving the best for last, the Greenway Middle School Teacher Center is going to open in August. We're in the process now of preparing the program, selecting staff and so on. So, we're very proud that Pittsburgh was able to honor us today, to recognize our end of this deal.

I'd like to invite all the City Councilmembers as our guests to come and become part of Greenway in the future. We think that we're going to have a model program that's going to be very exciting and that the people of the West End area are going to be very, very proud of.

Over the course of the next five years we will be retraining every single middle school teacher in the City of Pittsburgh and also trying to present to them what we consider a model middle school program for our City. So, we're very, very proud of some of the changes coming to middle schools.

Our middle schools program, in general, was accredited this year by the Middle States Accreditation Association and this resolution, I will be sending it on to the National Association of Secondary School Principals and also the National Middle School Association. They're sponsoring this week nationally and I want them all to know that the City of Pittsburgh is participating and we're participating very proudly. So, thank you.

I'd like to introduce to you one of our students, Courteney Kovacs, who also would like to thank Council.

Courteney Kovacs:

Thank you. I would just like to again say thank you for making what it's going to become. I think Greenway is an excellent school for the Teacher Center because it has the good facilities to make it become one and the children will learn a lot more by it being this way. Thank you.

Mr. Pollock:

Thank you. Dr. Gutkind, you mentioned the Schenley Teachers' Center which was founded to train Pittsburgh's teachers, but in the five years its been there it has become so successful that it is now doing contract work with other school districts in Western Pennsylvania and I'm sure it will not be too long before Greenway will be doing the same thing with other districts in the area. Thank you very much for coming.

(BEGINNING - MR. WAGNER'S REMARKS ON APPOINTEE TO BE CONSIDERED FOR CITY MAGISTRATE -- WEDNESDAY, 3/2/88)

Mr. Wagner:

It seems like I always have a lot of questions for people that are magistrates and other appointees but I think sometimes that is healthy because prior to voting I'd like to get an idea of what the background is and what your views are on certain things.

One very important issue in the city that I have asked previous candidates, and I'm still not pleased with it totally when it comes to Magistrate's Court, is the drug issue in the city. When people are coming in front of magistrates that have obviously been apprehended by the police on narcotics in particular. First of all, what is your background of that problem in the city? What do you think your overall position will be?

Mr. Watson:

In terms of drug cases in general, actually it's interesting you picked that particular subject.

I am currently a member of the District Attorney's Office and I am in what is termed the "General Trial Unit" however, in the General Trial Unit they have selected individuals and I was one of them which they targeted one of the many drug cases towards just so we would have some familiarity with it.

I do realize that drugs are a substantial problem in the city. Frankly, I don't know the real solution to it. I don't know whether or not if everyone should be placed in jail or ideally of course, we need to find some way to just to try and help these people overcome a problem if that's a possibility, but in terms of drug cases as they come to the Magistrate's Court, it's the policy that at this point I have been indoctrinated with that when a case comes it should be held for court so that it can ultimately be decided by the higher court level, primarily because I believe in the past, a lot of times individuals were dismissed at that level on what we call "disorderly conduct charges" and when that happens, often times ultimately a person will come back through the system and he can ultimately have a disorderly conduct charge against him and never really focus on that this person has a substantial drug problem. We do have means to take care of that in the higher level courts and individuals when they come through should be sent to the higher level courts, so if a person is deserved a first break, they can receive what we know as probation without verdict, but at that point they have it on their record that it was a drug related incident and not a summary offense. I do understand it's a major problem and I'm concerned with that.

Mr. Wagner:

Obviously when it relates to crime, over 50 percent, and these are legitimate figures, over 50 percent of crime, recorded crime in the City of Pittsburgh, is related to narcotics, whether it be burglaries, robberies, homicides, auto theft, etc. They are legitimate figures and so obviously that's a major problem not only in the city but in this country and there are many ways to address the problem and many ways in which our society is failing to address it, however, one very critical area of importance is the judicial system and you are at the first level in that system and to have cases thrown out of court with plea bargainings going on when it shouldn't, for narcotics people that are dealing in narcotics on our streets, that is the kind of thing that I don't want to see happen there.

So--and I have said that to anyone and everyone that has come in front of this Council, and I continually feel that has to be an item that is focused in on at all levels. So my question to you is, will you be tough according to the law under which you can be tough with people involved in narcotics?

Mr. Watson:

Yes. I believe that narcotics is a major problem and the function as a magistrate would be to--if a person violates a crime, it is his function to hold them for court and I certainly will uphold the law.

Mr. Wagner:

Good. I don't want to see cases being dismissed, and I hear from many narcotics detectives and I stay in touch with those people as well as I can and I want to see our local court system under this city be as tough as we can be in that particular area.

Just a couple of other questions. The Chief Magistrate, Joan Melvin, I think has implemented a couple of excellent, new ideas and concepts at that level of the judicial system relating in particular to community service for people who have been convicted of various offenses and when I say community service, have them go out and pick up litter as a community service for several days or hours as a penalty. Some other items that she has provided some--I believe some innovative ideas are in the area of domestic violence which we all know is a serious problem. Will you follow suit in those areas in terms of implementing as much community service, particularly with young people as a deterrent to them in terms of them potentially not committing the same crimes in the future because they are out in the community working and helping the community in the process?

Mr. Watson:

Yes. I believe that one of the primary functions is ultimately to try and address the needs of the individual and if a person is before you--everyone's situation is different and you must look at them differently and often times that would be the best solution, especially if they are of a young age, it's a good chance that we can deter them from ultimately having a lifelong history of it.

Mr. Wagner:

So you would be an advocate of community service activities for offenders that are found guilty that come in front of you.

Mr. Watson:

Certainly again each situation would be different but that would certainly be an excellent result for an individual.

Mr. Wagner:

So you will follow suit in the areas of the Chief Magistrate.

---

Mr. Watson:

Yes.

Mr. Wagner:

Thank you.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                          |
|----------------|--------------------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Mr. Pollock              |
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner               |
| Mr. Ferlo      | Mr. Woods                |
| Mr. Lyons      | Mrs. Masloff(Pres't) |

AYES 8 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion was approved.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Pollock presented

Bill No. 330

Report of the Committee on Finance for March 2, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with a NEGATIVE recommendation,

Bill No. 148

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the Mayor and the Director of the Department of Finance on behalf of the City of Pittsburgh, to lease to Tri-River Marine, Inc., six hundred seventy six (676) lineal feet of wharf frontage on the Ohio River near the foot of Main Street, for a term of five (5) years, subject to a ninety (90) day cancellation clause with year to year renewal provisions, at a rental of Eight Hundred Forty Five (845) Dollars per month, and providing for certain terms and conditions."

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President, I move to amend Bill No. 148 by changing the term of the lease from 5 years to 60 days. Also, deleting "subject to 90 day cancellation clause with year to year renewal provisions".

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Mr. Pollock:

Again, I bring up what I brought up before in the past that when we make amendments and there is no emergency concerning them, that we should have input from the appropriate directors and staff of the City. I mean, we've had several conversations with directors at this table and I think that they should be given the courtesy of responding to amendments unless there's an extenuating circumstance. I don't see any in this matter so I would ask that if any amendment be made to a bill that we receive input from the Administration on it out of common courtesy.

Mr. Coyne:

Madam President, I have to disagree with Mr. Pollock on this. I feel that there has been plenty of discussion about the proposed boat docks, or barge docks. We know how the Administration feels. We all have our own questions concerning this matter and I would have to support Mr. Wagner's amendment.

Mr. Ferlo:

I concur with the comments made by Councilman Coyne and the amendment of Mr. Wagner. And I don't think each time we need to have the final word from the Administration. This legislative body provides the final word.

I would like my comments brought forth for the Record on the discussion concerning the river study.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, first of all, I'd like my comments brought forward for the Record from last week's discussion on this bill where I had a visual presentation in regard to this site.

(MR. FERLO'S AND MR. WAGNER'S REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

---

(BEGINNING - MR. FERLO'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 148, WEDNESDAY,
3/2/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you Mr. Pollock. First of all I believe it's the Army Corps of Engineers and not the Coast Guard. I did contact them and they know nothing of this new company and there's no permits that have been granted for the mooring what will amount to be about 20 barges; that's the first thing.

I have some concerns about this and I'm still inclined to vote against it and it's not because Marvin Fein is representing the firm. I only raised his name originally in that the context in which this was first raised previously several weeks ago. In fact, very little information in writing was conveyed to Council other than a few sentences of this resolution. There was no background material presented and in fact, under questioning, Mr. Murphy gave conflicting information and left many people, including the public, with the impression that this was a marina with upwards of 100 boats, so we know now that that is not the case, but I still think there are a number of concerns or questions.

Mr. Wagner has some slides and a presentation but I wanted to ask just a few questions prior to that so we could put some more points in context.

First of all, the negotiation of these rates $645.00, are 1982 rates compared with the other nine leases that you have presently.

Mr. Evers:

That's correct.

Mr. Ferlo:

This is 1988.

Mr. Evers:

Right.

Mr. Ferlo:

Secondly, there's more favorable status for this, now why that is I'm not sure but you're suggesting here that they get a five-year lease and also a 90-day cancellation. Everybody else has a 30-day cancellation and a one-year lease.

Mr. Evers:

Correct, except one other tenant--

Mr. Ferlo:

So that's a concern that I have also. I'm not opposed to barges on the rivers. To me, barges mean somebody is at least working out there, so I'm not opposed to barges. It's a question that the City has invested--I can't even add up the millions of dollars in major development--North Shore, Station Square--you name it around the central location of the Downtown area, we've invested millions of dollars in what will hopefully be a renaissance that will include at some point the riverfronts. And right now there is an expensive study going on that would begin to talk about use of the riverfronts in the City of Pittsburgh.

The problem that I have and I read from Marvin Fein's letter to Mr. Murphy, the last page of Mr. Fein's letter is the attorney representing the Tri-River Marine Company. The second to last paragraph says, "...that although Tri-River could continue under the month-to-month lease executed last year, it needs a long-term lease in order to provide it with the ability to enter into long-term contracts and obtain long-term commitments from national barge companies." Again, I think there is sort of a basic contradiction here. If on one hand we're saying that we would like the study to be completed and we'd like to look overall at the use of our riverfronts. My concern, at least to be fair to this company, is that if want a five-year lease, then I presume that they have a large capital investment in addition to wanting to gain these long-term contracts. And it seems as if there is a direct contradiction here.

Mr. Evers:

They do not have a large capital investment. They have some pilings that may be expensive. You're talking about a three -foot wide strip and there's not much more that they can do.

Getting back to the long term contract, since this letter was written, they have agreed to the 90-day cancellation clause.

Mr. Ferlo:

Who has agreed?

Mr. Evers:

Tri-River Marina.

Mr. Ferlo:

Isn't Tri-River misleading national barge companies?

Mr. Evers:

They may be.

Mr. Ferlo:

I don't see how they can suggest--at any given point you're saying the City has the prerogative to terminate the contract and de facto all of those other contracts are null and void.

Mr. Evers:

That's correct. That would be their problem.

Mr. Ferlo:

This doesn't give them any security that they want anyway.

Mr. Evers:

No. It gives them more than 30 days because of the travel time.

Mr. Ferlo:

It doesn't give them the five years.

---

Mr. Evers:

No.

Mr. Ferlo:

There is a basic contradiction there. I still have a problem not only with the amount of money being computed in 1982 rates, I still maintain my earlier position that--I'm not opposed to barges. There are other areas along the riverfront from where we enter the city at the point of the Ohio upstream and the Mon where there are other moorings of barges that could take place.

I strongly maintain my earlier position that the study should be completed.

Mr. Evers:

Councilman, that's your prerogative; you can do whatever you want to do.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Chairman, point of order, there needs to be order at this table and I think there has to be an appropriate procedure of talking.

Mr. Ferlo:

I wasn't done with the floor. I want to comment that $800.00 a month is $30.00 per day and if they park 20 barges, it's $1.50 a day which is cheaper than parking a car.

---

Mr. Evers:

They are charging $15.00 to $20.00.

Mr. Ferlo:

It's easier to park a barge cheaper in Downtown, Pittsburgh than it's a car. Park the barges in the garage.

(END OF REMARKS)

PREPARED BY: MARY ANNE HRUSKA, STENOTYPE REPORTER

(BEGINNING -- MR. WAGNER'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 148 -- WEDNESDAY, 3/2/88)

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Chairman and members of Council, in regard to this bill, BILL NO. 148, I have some slides of the area that I'd like to show and the reason why I oppose this bill, but first of all I would like to discuss this briefly.

I've talked with Mr. Evers about it. Some of the directors that I think should have input and I would like to get their opinion on the bill.

But in essence, what the bill is doing, is to change lease conditions for leasing waterfront wharf areas in the city and in particular this area, from a month-to-month lease that we presently have to a five year lease under different conditions; insurance conditions, the cost of the contract, et cetera. And we all are well aware of the fact we do have a riverfront study that I believe costs in excess of $100,000.00 presently going on over the last two years here in the City of Pittsburgh, to determine proper use of our riverfront and access to our riverfront, particularly access by the public. In addition to that, since last Wednesday when this bill was held, we have received some correspondence from Baskin Flaherty, Elliott and Manino and the letter written by Mr. Fein, as we have discussed earlier, in support of this legislation.

I'd like to refer to that briefly because I think it's important to talk about the particulars of this legislation and what everyone is saying the advantages are versus the disadvantages. And in the letter written to me and I suspect everyone received a copy of it, several major points are listed and I'd like to talk about those briefly.

Number One, the business will provide a service not presently available in Pittsburgh to out-of-state barge operators and at the same time help clean up the riverbank by providing a safe secure mooring area for the operators.

I would disagree with that and I respect Mr. Fein and I believe he's an excellent lawyer but that point I don't agree with. There are many areas in Pittsburgh where barge docking can go on. There are 35 miles of riverfront in Pittsburgh and if it's not necessarily in Pittsburgh it can be in the Emsworth Pool which is above the Emsworth Dam anywhere from here to the lock up at the Allegheny River or Mon River. There are many, many areas for docking barges, and as you will see from the slides we don't think the right place is across from the Point.

Number Two, he indicates that the site has been used for mooring the previous lessee's own barges since at least 1965. I can't disagree with that; that's accurate, however, it doesn't necessarily mean that that's the best use of this parcel of property. What's the best use for the residents of the City of Pittsburgh and not necessarily this company?

Number Three, there are two other sites in the same area used by barge operators to moor their own barges one of which is far more visible from the Stadium and Station Square.

Mr. Evers, I would like you or the appropriate director, to find out where the locations are. I don't know if he's talking about something right adjacent to this area or not. If that is the case, I think we should be taking a look at those locations also and certainly if there are other locations I'd like to know whether or not we're receiving monies for it. So wherever Mr. Fein is referring to, please determine where those barge locations are. I know of two that are sunk over by the Southside riverfront park that should not be in the river and hopefully we can get them out. That does not support the reason to lease this property for this price at that location.

Number Four, formally this site was also used as junkyard since it was unsecured but upon receiving a month-to-month lease, Tri-River cleaned up the City's property at a cost of $15,000.

By the slides you will see the access to the river really hasn't been cleaned up. There is a salvage yard but not on Main Street and Main Street actually goes to the river here. We have a public street that takes us to the river and it's unique and it's a real asset in this location. So I don't necessarily agree with that. There's a salvage yard there but it's adjacent to Main Street.

Number Five, Tri-River is paying a monthly rental of $845.00 for a strip of land that is only three feet wide and has no other use at the present time. Whereas the former lease only paid rental of $150.00 per month and Tri-River carries ten times the insurance coverage of the former leasee. I'm pleased to see there's some differences there, however, just saying only three feet wide, the riverfront and the value of the riverfront can't be determined simply by a price of $15.00 per foot, per year; that's a breakdown to $1.23 per foot, per month and that is such a ridiculously low price it's incredible and if we were to utilize this property for public marina owned or operated by the City or to have someone operate it for us, we could get at least 10 or 20 times the return on our investment with the road way going to the river.

In addition to that, there is a great need in our city to have public marinas. Something that I have been stressing for years and I'm hoping this study will support that position.

So true, there are increases in insurance coverage but three feet wide--even if it's a half inch, it is still access at the riverfront and that is a critical item because it's a value to the City and to the taxpayers.

The long term lease will allow this new business to attract more national barge customers. That's the last thing we want at our Point in the city is the docking of barges. There are so many other areas that barges can be docked; we don't want to do it at our Point area. Let's beautify that area; that's the jewel of Pittsburgh and why do we want more barges? The interpretation of that item tells me that with this lease, there are going to be far more barges at our Point in the future than there have been in the past.

Number Seven, perhaps most important of all the City's long-term planning standpoint, the lease can be cancelled on 90-day notice if the City determines that this strip of land can be put to better use. Well, it can be put to better use and let's determine that right up front and obviously the consultant study is going to support that. So why do we want to lock into a five-year lease even with a cancellation clause? Most leases have a cancellation clause but you know that once you sign a five-year lease, you reduce the potential of someone else coming in and utilizing the property for some other use such as a public marina or the public.

They are the seven points mentioned in Mr. Fein's letter. As I said, I respect his position, he's representing the client, but I don't think that's the best interest of the City of Pittsburgh.

Now I'd like to turn on some slides here and I'd like the lights to be turned off for one moment and I have about eight slides.

SLIDE SHOW PRESENTATION

Mr. Wagner:

These slides were taken from the West End Bridge and you are looking at a slide from the West End Bridge where the boats are presently docked along the mouth or western side of the Ohio River. You are looking at one of the best views of the City of Pittsburgh from this location. The only better view truly looking at the Point is probably from the West End Overlook which is just in back of this site but up higher, but as you can see, this is prime real estate in the City of Pittsburgh.

There's another shot of it and the next two slides bring out probably the most significant part of this parcel of property. All along the south and western portion of the Monongahela River and the Ohio River, there are railroad tracks. Therefore, we do not have access to the riverfront and that is a problem in terms of use of the river in that whole corridor from McKees Rocks, and I want to point it out over here on the map while I'm talking and Jerry is going to point it out (indicating). From McKees Rocks all the way to Southside, approximately five miles of riverfront there are railroad tracks along the entire river. There are only two locations where there is access to the riverfront. That one location is Station Square for the Gateway Clipper with an underpass under the railroad tracks, and this location. They are the only two locations where you can get to the riverfront, where the public can get to the riverfront.

Now the next location further south on the river is at Southside Riverfront Park. A park that costs us millions of dollars to develop and to gain access to the riverfront, but that truly isn't even a safe access to the river because we have to cross the railroad tracks. Here we go under the railroad tracks with an underpass and that's how the people get to these barges and this docking facility.

Now another slide to illustrate and you can't see well because of the lights in the room, that's looking west towards McKees Rocks. Again, railroad tracks all along the riverfront. You can't get to the riverfront.

Now there's a slide looking again at the location and in the background you can see a salvage yard which you'll see an underpass. It isn't brought out clearly here in this slide but there is access to the riverfront there. It's to the right of the boats. There's a passage area actually where you can drive a vehicle under or a small pickup truck.

Now there it is. Now this slide is not a great slide because of the light in the room and I'd like to--could we turn all the lights off for a second since we're looking at the slides with a camera, because if there's light in the room you can't see the slide well.

Michelle Madoff:

Are those coal barges, Mr. Wagner?

Mr. Wagner:

They are barges that are covered and are probably petroleum or something else inside of them.

Now that is Main Street; all of you know Main Street in West End. Well, Main Street in West End is interrupted by the West End Circle. Well, this is the continuation of Main Street and Main Street goes straight to the river. That's a public street right there and the area to the right is a salvage yard and I believe it's called the Taglio Salvage Yard to the right, but as you see, there's a roadway to the right there that leads onto Main Street; it's a public access.

In addition, I hope you can see with this slide in the front lower portion of the slide is a stairwell from Carson Street down to Main Street. Now Main Street is not a finished road as you can see; it's cinders and it needs to be paved but it's about 300 feet of roadway and that 300 feet of roadway takes you right to the river. It is the only way you can get to the river with public access from McKees Rocks to Southside Riverfront Park on the south or western bank of the rivers. The other location is at Station Square but obviously Gateway Clipper, that's a private access. The public cannot take a boat and go to the river there and really we only have a couple areas in the entire City of Pittsburgh where we can gain access.

Now the last slide is nothing more than just another view of the City of Pittsburgh from the West End Bridge, which incidently is going to be revamped in the near future. We're going to put a lot of public monies into the West End Circle area and the West End Bridge. It's going to be a multi-million dollar contract beginning next year that it's going to enhance this area.

Mr. Wagner:

Now that's the end of the slides, but I thought it was critical to show everyone the value of this property. And when I say the value of the property, I mean that in the City of Pittsburgh the jewel of Pittsburgh is our rivers. The reason why we're all here and the reason why the settlers originally came here was our rivers. Over the years we've created some problems with access to the rivers by giving the railroads property along the riverbanks and also by building highways along our riverfronts.

What we're suggesting to do with this legislation is continue to reduce the potential for the public to have access to our rivers. Now if this city is going to move forward economically, we certainly have to better utilize our riverfronts and we have a road that the taxpayers have paid for to get to the river here and I believe the public has a greater right to this area than us issuing a five-year lease to a barge company, and I don't believe esthetically, financially, morally, any way you look at it, it's in the best interests of the City of Pittsburgh to lease this property for barge use. I think the City should continue to lease on a month-to-month basis to this company and we should aggressively move forward to turn this area into a public marina where we can put two to three hundred boat dock facilities and in the process of doing it, probably have a return ten to twenty times greater financially to the City of Pittsburgh, and the process will be utilizing our rivers, we'll be gaining more money and I think we'll be beautifying the rivers. I don't know how many people have been up to Fox Chapel Marina and anyone that's been to Fox Chapel Marina, you look at that marina and you say to yourself, "why don't we have this in the city"--here's a great location to do it with access to the riverfront. Down river from the Point, on the south side of the river directly accessible to the West End, I can visualize people walking over and getting on their boat or getting in their boat driving to Three Rivers for a baseball or a football game, going to Station Square for dinner, coming to Downtown area, going to the Convention Center, going to Herr's Island. We are developing our riverfronts with Herr's Island, with the Stadium, with Pittsburgh Technology Center, with hopefully riverside in the future. The Downtown area, the Convention Center expansion is going to have access to the riverfront. It only seems sensible to me that we utilize a location like this for that purpose. So I'm asking my colleagues that between now and Monday take a closer look at this legislation because we're giving the shop away with a five-year lease. Now, that in any way does not say anything derogatory with Mr. Evers up here, I believe he's acting in the best interests of the City in that we presently have a lease that is much less in value for a barge company and I believe everyone is acting in what they consider to be the best interests of the City by increasing the value of the lease in the future. My point is and the position I'm taking is that we should be totally rethinking the use of this area from barges to pleasure boats and permitting public access to the riverfront and hopefully all of you will support it.

I'd like-- prior to the end of this discussion, to ask Director Lurcott what the status of the consultant study is and whether or not he feels a better use of this property would be for pleasure boats or public access to the riverfront.

(END OF REMARKS)

PREPARED BY: MARY ANNE HRUSKA, STENOGRAPHIC REPORTER

Mr. Wagner:

In regard to Councilman Pollock's comment, I wanted to bring Director Lurcott to the table last week but he chose not to have him come to the table and this is precisely the reason why I wanted him to come to the table, to get his opinion. I have spoken with him privately and he has indicated that this parcel of property is a very valuable piece of property.

In addition to that, I'd like to say that even if Director Lurcott did not agree, I don't think that should necessarily be the decision of Council. I think Council has to stand on his own two feet when it comes to certain amendments like this and if Council in and of itself feels that its the proper thing to do, it should do it.

What this amendment does is keep this company operating at this location. They are presently operating on a 30 day lease, a month to month lease. This is actually extending the lease and making it a 60 day lease. It's not making it a five year lease and the reason behind it is that a 60 day lease is more practical in terms of the consultant study that is being performed by the Planning Department which is anticipated to be completed within 60 days. And that consultant study is to focus in on riverfront use in the City and this is precisely what this location is.

It appears as if Council thinks favorably about the amendment; I'm very pleased to see that. It does two things; it gives us the opportunity to look for a better use at this location and it also gives the operator the opportunity to continue to operate.

Mr. Woods:

On the way the amendment is prepared, I just want to say that it's following the letter of our rules. We had a lengthy discussion on this very same rule last Monday; everyone agreed that this is how it is to be done. I think Mr. Wagner is following that and I see no problem with the amendment.

Mr. DePasquale:

Just one note, Madam President. A couple of people came over and talked to me while the amendment was made and honestly I didn't know I was voting on an amendment or a bill or whatever. In the past, we used to tell the people who came past that rope that they were out of order and they could not come by there, and that would prevent people, the press or whoever, from coming here and talking to members while the meeting is on.

I want to apologize again for not ricking it up but I thought I was voting on the bill; I don't even know what the amendment was, to tell you the truth, because I didn't hear it while people were buzzing in my ear.

The Chair:

I'm opposed to this. I think the man should have 90 days to wind up his business if we ever want to cancel him and I'm opposed to the amendment.

Mr. Pollock:

I'm going to abstain not because I'm either for it or against it but because I think there should be input from the contracting parties. This is legislation that has to do with a contract and a contract by definition concerns two parties. You can't have a contract with one side setting the terms; both sides have to agree to the terms.

The Chair:

Mr. Ferlo:

Discussion. Obviously, I think this is a great bill since I submitted it. But I think we've talked the issue of travel to death so far before Council since arriving here in January. I'll try one last shot.

What I'm attempting to do here is not to suggest that employees do not have the right nor would they benefit from out of town travel. What I'm only suggesting here is that we have a responsibility to provide oversight on out of town travel which I think has grown excessive and is, in fact, uncontrolled.

I'm suggesting in this bill that we put a cap on it in the amount of the $179,000. I've indicated earlier that in travel in 1980 this Council allowed about $87,000 and in 1987 it grew to $360,000. I'm suggesting that it's far too much money. The priorities should be elsewhere and I think we need to direct the Administration regarding the amount of money. So, I wish that Council would reconsider its opposition.

Which was read.

Mr. Coyne:

Madam President, I have a question on Bill 250 concerning the Workers' Compensation Program. Has it been resolved that the State has ordered the City to do this or is the City doing it on his own? It seems to me that there was some confusion on that last week when we discussed it and I'm not sure if Council has received an answer.

Mr. Perry:

It hasn't received an answer.

Mr. Ferlo:

I would like to express concern and opposition to Bill No. 250 for a number of reasons. First of all, in response to Councilman Coyne's question which was directed to Mr. Turner, the Finance Director, he did send some information to Council and he made a comment in the letter to Council quoting from one sentence from, I believe, a 1979 letter from the State Bureau. I know I explicitly asked for a copy of the specific letter from the State; I assume, since no specific letter was supplied to Council, and as well, a discussion that I had with Director Cook from Harrisburg who is in charge of the program statewide who indicated to me that there is no formal indication by the State that the City must go into contract with an external manager to handle the comp fund, that that's not the case.

The problem that I have is, this is $600,000 and I am still of the belief that this could be done in-house as it has been done in the past and I have yet to see any information in detail explaining why it can't be done in-house and what were the problems originally with the program when the benefits were paid in-house.

In addition, assuming this bill will go through, however, against my opposition, I'm still questioning the value of increasing the amount by some $200,000 from the last fiscal year. Director Turner's indication to me by phone was that $200,000 additional monies were needed so that the contract can be beefed up in order to do investigative and surveillance work. I know that the Post Gazette supposedly is coming out with a major expose on the issue of worker abuse of the system, but I still question how many people are supposedly abusing the system. I think the overwhelming majority of people are in need legitimately of compensation and deserve to have their claims paid on time and not be litigated to death by either Baskin, Flaherty, or the firm Fred S. James.

I think there is a delicate balance that we have to work on there and I'm still opposed to jobbing it out. And if I'm not successful in blocking this, I would hope that in the request for a proposal going out, there's a clear policy that the Administration conveys to the company bidding on this work, setting up a specific policy regarding what is good behavior for investigation and surveillance versus what is bad behavior, because I don't think people should be under attack who are legitimately in need of compensation. And I fear a situation that will develop whereby people are harassed and intimidated and litigated to death and I raise again my concern about some type of a public hearing so people who are on the system can provide some input before the Administration hands out the contract.

Also,

Bill No. 194

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh to expend $340,000.00 of Giant Eagle Urban Development Action Grant repayment funds for the Streetface Program."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

On Bill No. 194, I'd like to just restate very quickly a compromise that was worked out and that's the reason why I'm switching my vote in support of the UDAG repayment funds being spent on Streetface, and I think it's important to state it for the public record, and that is, after lengthy discussion with Councilman Otis Lyons, myself and other citizens from the West End, the URA agreed to the following: one is that the Director would come back to City Council with legislation earmarking the sum of $200,000 from the Giant Eagle UDAG repayment funds in order to support neighborhood based economic development projects in areas that were adversely affected by the closing of Giant Eagle supermarkets.

Secondly, the URA would assign either a consultant or a staff to work with the West Side Community Development Corporation in their effort to develop the Plaza.

Thirdly, that Mr. Lyons would meet with Director Lurcott from Planning to see if there cannot be an emergency appropriation to the West Side Community Development Group in order to help them secure the property that is now in jeopardy of being lost, specifically to help develop the business plan.

Fourth, is an overall concern that Planning and the URA need to redefine their commitment to assist residents in the West End who are working on various economic development projects.

So, with that in mind and that compromise agreed to, I'm very much in support of the bill.

Mr. Lyons:

On Bill 194, I have already contacted Director Lurcott from City Planning and he's very interested in helping the West End group, the Westgate Developers, in this. We took all the shadows and everything away from the bill as it is and I ask for the passage of Bill 194.

Also,

Bill No. 240

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing a Cooperation Agreement with the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh providing for the Administration of City Programs and projects and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

On Bill No. 240, I had offered an amendment regarding the residency of employees at the Urban Redevelopment Authority. I had attempted to submit an amendment which was defeated because I'm concerned that people who work in the authorities live and pay taxes in the City of Pittsburgh. That was defeated. The Director said he would voluntarily raise for the Board's consideration at the Authority, a residency requirement. I have before you a bill submitted today that would require all authorities to hire City of Pittsburgh residents. So, I will reconsider and support Bill No. 240.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President, in regard to the same bill, I just want to commend Councilman Ferlo and Councilman Lyons and Mr. Donahoe for having that post agenda meeting last week and working out an agreement that will help the people out that requested help.

Which was read.

Mr. Pollock:

Madam President, on Bill 225, when I was reviewing the bills I did not pick up on this. There's a slight typo and obviously I don't have the correction in writing to make amendment.

I make a motion to waive the rules so that we can amend Bill 225 to correct the typographical error in the name of the organization. It's indicated in the bill as The Pittsburgh American Waterways Wind Orchestra. It should be Pittsburgh's American Waterways Wind Orchestra. So, I move to waive Council rules so as to amend it orally.

I make a motion to amend Council Bill 225 to read Pittsburgh's American Waterways Wind Orchestra instead of The Pittsburgh American Waterways Wind Orchestra.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

I'd like my comments on that bill brought forward please.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like my comments brought forward on Bill 225 also.

(MR. POLLOCK'S AND MR. WAGNER'S
REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

(BEGINNING -- MR. WAGNER'S AND MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 225, WEDNESDAY, 3/2/88)

Mr. Wagner:

If I may make a comment in regard to this organization and the funding they get from the City. I think it's very appropriate and very necessary and it's probably the most popular boat in the world except for the Stars and Stripes and there's many more things that this organization can do in conjunction with other city organizations to promote the City of Pittsburgh, and that is going to happen in the future and if there's a need for additional money, I believe Council and the City and the Administration should find those monies. For instance, presently they pass out at all of their concerts a Pennsylvania piece of literature promoting the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania but there's nothing passed out promoting the City of Pittsburgh at their concerts and Richard Gorman and Robert Boudreau and myself met recently and the Convention and Visitors Bureau is trying to put together a piece of literature that could be given to the symphony to pass out in all cities and all countries where they are touring promoting the City for tourists and conventions and this is a fantastic organization that can do nothing but benefit the City of Pittsburgh financially in the future. So better cooperation by this organization and other organizations in the City to promote Pittsburgh can do nothing but help.

Mr. Ferlo:

I think all of these are wonderful and I'm for this particular program as well as the CLO and Ozanam and Civic Light Opera and the Symphony.

The problem that I have with this bill and about three others that are going to come up in the next few minutes have to do generally with the amount of money that we contribute to the cultural entertainment groups that exist in the Downtown area, all of which I think are important and have to be supported.

The problem that I have is that the previous City Council, much to my dismay, in approving the Benedum UDAG of $8.5 million, gave away its right to receive the repayment funds under that UDAG grant. This morning we had the benefit of approving some $340,000.00 in the Giant Eagle UDAG Program that came back to the City, to the URA, for economic development. What this City Council chose to do, and I can't believe they did it and I don't even know if it's legal, but what this City Council chose to do is not to receive that income back from that UDAG but rather give that repayment money to the Pittsburgh Trust for Cultural Resources which is a foundation established to specifically support the ballet, the opera, the dance ensemble and the Civic Light Opera and in fact, starting in 1990 it's my information that for 1990 to 1992 it will be $250,000.00 each year in the UDAG repayment funds that will go to this trust so for the following two years it will be $400,000.00 that's a little over $1 million in a four-year period, and that there will be interest payments to that trust until the year 2062. In other words, instead of that UDAG money coming back to CD neighborhoods for low income economic development or housing and all the things that are granted--that are allowed underneath the CD budget--

The Chair:

--with all due respect, are we on the bill?

Mr. Ferlo:

Yes, it is on the bill because the reason why I'm opposed to funding this separately is that I think we have already done our fair share and in previous Council in creating the trust is allowing the UDAG repayments to go for tourists and music and symphonies and all of the various programs that I agree are important, but I think we have done that and I think it's wrong for us to take other monies now we should go better to neighborhood based organizations or other kinds of development activities at the neighborhood level. I'm saying that I'm definitely for the programs--don't get me wrong, but I think this previous Council has been very gracious in creating this trust fund that will eat up and benefit from the UDAG interest monies for the next--until 2062 and I think this program, the CLO, the Opera, etc., all of these groups should not get ULO C/D money, I think they should all partake from this fund that Council has made available and for that reason I'm voting against this and the other bills.

Mr. Pollock:

Jimmy, I want you to know that I was in the minority of one on Grants and Donations the last two years. I have been the most ardent opponent of Grants and Donations to little leagues and football teams and veterans parades. I was eight to one on every one of them. At the same time I'm probably with the exception of a couple other members of Council, the most frequent user of the arts groups but the American Waterways is something extremely unique, not only to the City but to the world. To have the City of Pittsburgh's name and the boat is now being changed from the Point Counterpoint to Point Counterpoint II Pride of Pittsburgh so the name is going to be on the vessel, the name of the orchestra will be now be "Pittsburgh's American Waterways Wind Orchestra" and as Mr. Wagner mentioned, they are going to be promoting the City of Pittsburgh going into every port in the North American Continent as well as they are starting in late 1980's a tour of Europe and Africa and part of Asia doing the same thing. This is greatest money we could possible spend to get our name, our literature and our name on the boat for $25,000. Cities would kill for this opportunity.

(END OF REMARKS)

Mr. Woods:

Madam President, on many of these grants, we passed some legislation here a few years back that anything $10,000 or over our City Controller would audit these people to see what they had done with the money and also when they applied, they had to provide us with an audit.

Could I introduce legislation to withdraw these monies or anything like that?

Mr. Perry:

Do you mean after you give them the money?

Mr. Woods:

No, after we pass this today.

Mr. Perry:

You can repeal it.

Mr. Woods:

You can repeal it with other legislation if they didn't fulfill what Council passed, I believe it was two years ago. Thank you.

Also,

Bill No. 226

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with the Pittsburgh Symphony to provide free concerts in Point State Park for the benefit of the residents of the City of Pittsburgh during 1988 and providing for the payment of the cost thereof which is not to exceed Sixty Thousand ($60,000.00) Dollars and is chargeable to and payable from Code Account 1833 (183301) Recreation, Concerts in the Department of Parks and Recreation."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

On Bill 226, in the Committee Meeting last Wednesday I expressed concern and opposition on the Pittsburgh Symphony, a sum of $60,000. The question I had was, what other governmental bodies contribute and how much. I learned this morning, after a call to their headquarters, that the State does contribute $340,000; the County contributes $100,000. And this proposal is for $60,000. So, I withdraw my earlier concern.

Also,

AYES 8 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 228

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with the Civic Light Opera for the furnishing of professional services for the benefit of the residents of the City of Pittsburgh during 1988 and providing for the payment of the cost thereof which is not to exceed Fifteen Thousand ($15,000.00) Dollars and is chargeable to and payable from Code Account 1838 (183306) Recreation, Miscellaneous Services in the Department of Parks and Recreation."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

On Bill 228, I am still concerned on what amounts, to me at least, as double-dipping on the part of the Civic Light Opera for the sum of $15,000. We spent a little bit of time in the Finance Committee Meeting, and here earlier, discussing how we want to best use the Giant Eagle repayment funds under the UDAG grant. I raised in discussion at the last Finance Committee Meeting the fact that the Benedum C & G Tower repayment funds, the UDAG grants, instead of coming back to the City and to the URA to be used for targeted economic or community development are given instead which I expressed concern about how that happened to be approved. But, nonetheless, it was approved and it's already a signed contract. But those funds, rather than coming back to the URA, are given to the Pittsburgh Trust For Cultural Resources which then give the money to the Ballet, to the Opera, to the Pittsburgh Dance Counsel and to the Civil Light Opera.

So, I'm voting no in opposition to this amount of money because I think clearly we've already made a commitment and are supporting these agencies elsewhere.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

Report of the Committee on Engineering and Construction for March 2, 1988 transmitting two resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 187

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 933, effective October 27, 1986, entitled: 'Providing for an Agreement or Agreements, or Supplemental Agreement or Agreements with a Consultant or Consultants, for Professional Engineering Services in connection with the Design and Consultant Management of the Retrofit/Rehabilitation/Renovations/Asbestos Removal of the Public Safety Building; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by increasing the total project allocation by $185,000.00 from $605,000.00 to $790,000.00."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'd like my comments on Bill 187 regarding the Public Safety Building to be brought forward and I just want to note that this is a one-third increase in this amount of money. And given the track record of this department, if the Director proposes to spend $8 million in the actual work involved to renovate the

---

Public Safety Building, we will then have a cost overrun of $2.5 million. I just want to make that as a footnote and I hope that people can say that I was out of line a year from now and I hope that's the case.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

(BEGINNING - MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 187, WEDNESDAY,
3/2/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Two questions Mr. McDermott. How much of this money has already been expended and we are committed to paying for?

Mr. McDermott:

A big portion of it. I don't know exactly--

Mr. Ferlo:

80 percent?

Mr. McDermott:

--75 percent or so.

Mr. Ferlo:

I had thought that we were going to hold this--these two companion bills until such time that there was either--there was mentioned either a hearing or a post-agenda or some kind of lengthy discussion and a presentation of this information in terms of what's planned for the building, what are all of the other possible alternatives in terms of new construction. Mr. McDermott mentioned several buildings, there were buildings mentioned at this table. I thought we had agreed to hold these bills until such time that we had that presentation.

The Chair:

Mr. McDermott is here and can comment on that.

Mr. McDermott:

I think both the two actions--if your memory is correct they were proposed at last week's meeting. The two of them are unrelated passing on this and looking at the other alternatives. And in talking with the Chairman, I had asked that the post-agenda--I think we asked for one week at last week's meeting, that it be postponed for about three weeks because since this did go into the media, we are getting proposals in from real estate agencies and I think these should be reviewed and for us to be able to address them at the post-agenda meeting.

Mr. Ferlo:

Why couldn't we then amend this to pay what is actually encumbered and then--I mean, why proceed and do anything more if we're going to have an alternative plan? I would suggest that we amend this to pay only for what we have already incurred in terms of the cost which you say might be around 75 percent of this total.

Mr. McDermott:

In the review, my cursory review of the information that we received so far, I have not seen an acceptable building yet that has the capacity, the off street parking, et cetera, that we need as a replacement for the Public Safety Building. So in all truthfulness and fairness to you, I do not see an alternative surfacing in an existing building at this time.

Mr. Ferlo:

What about my comments about the possibility of negotiating with the County? They have additional space needs. Together we collectively rent a lot of private property in the Downtown area and I thought-- part of my concern was to negotiate with the County to see whether or not there is a possibility for some mutual project.

Mr. McDermott:

That is the development of a whole new structure, yes, an alternative.

Mr. Ferlo:

Why proceed-- and I'll just close, why proceed and spend any more money if we are still -- Council should be presented with a clear process.

Mr. McDermott:

In my experience over the years, to develop an agreement between two municipalities to enter into a common interest project, is going to take a considerable amount of time. And then once you enter into the agreement, then developing the program for that building to satisfy both needs could be a number of years also.

And in the meantime, that building is non-useable down the street. It's asbestos and it has to be vacated. You can't go in there, you can't run telephone lines, computer lines because every time you do you penetrate the asbestos.

The feasibility of proceeding with a combined project is a good five to eight years. In the meantime, these people have to be out of there and have to be found rental space. We can have this building retrofitted in 13 months after the asbestos is removed and back in there.

The building falling completion of the retrofit is a very marketable building in the event that Council wants to go out and build another building, and I am sure that you would recover that cost.

(END OF REMARKS)

PREPARED BY: MARY ANNE HRUSKA, STENOGRAPHIC REPORTER

Mr. Wagner:

With the passage of that same bill, I would like to make a request that Engineering keep Council abreast on whether or not the construction people are maintaining their schedule in the renovation of the Public Safety Building. Obviously, that's a tight schedule and I think it's important in terms of reducing cost and inconvenience and providing better public service that that project be on schedule as closely as possible. So, if we could receive possibly a quarterly update with a letter going to the Director, Mr. McDermott, on whether or not we are keeping on schedule in that project.

The Chair:

Mr. Perry, will you see that that's forthcoming?

Mr. Perry:

Yes.

Mr. Lyons:

Madam President and Council, while it has been mentioned that there is an overrun on this building, I think under interrogation the Director pointed out that while we retrofit the building down there and should the future hold for us to buy another land or erect a building, well, this is making the building now, the retrofitting and the rehab is making it more marketable for sometime in the future. And certainly I'm pleased with that kind of progress.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Pollock:

Madam President, I just have one item. I was talking to the people from the North Side Civic Development Council and they have an update that they would like to provide to this Council and to the public on what is happening with Washington's Landing. I would like to make a motion that we have a public hearing on the current status of Washington's Landing - where they are on leases, where they are on the development of it and so forth - to be scheduled by you at your convenience.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

I ask that that be televised as well.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale:

Madam President, it's a fact that Council is governed by Robert's Rules of Parliamentary Law and I pose this question to the Parliamentarian. If a quorum is established at roll call, is that quorum maintained throughout the meeting, even if there are only one or two members present? I'm not copying a plea in regard to five of us not being present last week; I don't think it was right and I'm sorry it happened and I hope it never happens again. But I was always under the impression that once a roll call quorum was established, that quorum was maintained throughout the meeting. I'm almost sure of that but I would like the Parliamentarian to give us a legal opinion on that.

Parliamentarian:

The answer is that the quorum is maintained and Council can conduct all business except the passage of legislation, of course, if there are fewer than five members.

The Chair:

If there are fewer than five?

Parliamentarian:

Otherwise it would be a quorum.

The Chair:

Yes, but I mean no matter what the number is, less than five, business can be conducted?

Parliamentarian:

Well, down to two. One person cannot conduct a meeting.

Mr. Woods:

Just to add to what he's saying, when he says the passage of legislation, that means in a Monday meeting, not in a Wednesday; because when we vote in a Wednesday meeting, that's just recommending, it's not passage of legislation. So, you can run a Wednesday meeting with two people present. The Home Rule Charter says committees are made up of three.

Mr. Pollock:

There seems to be some kind of confusion about this and I want the Record to reflect that since I was chairing the meeting at the time, and it was the first time that I had been chairing a meeting where we went below five, I deferred to the City Clerk who had been here for 20 or 30 years and I asked him what we should do. Mr. Perry said that if we go below five we don't have a quorum and, if someone raises the issue, that we'd have to adjourn. I said fine. Somebody raised the issue so I said we had to adjourn. That's exactly what happened; isn't that correct, Mr. Perry?

Mr. Perry:

Yes. And I'd like to add that it seems like every week we change our rules one way or another. I'd like to get that straightened out, too. Is it going to be two, three?

The Chair:

You heard the ruling by the Parliamentarian.

Mr. Perry:

Okay, is that going to be the rule then?

The Chair:

Yes.

Mr. Perry:

Okay.

Mr. Ferlo:

With all due respect to the Parliamentarian, and frankly, I don't care what the rule says. The fact of the matter is that out of all the responsibilities that we as elected officials have, it's to be here on Monday and to be here on Wednesday morning for the Finance Committee Meeting. And regardless of what the rule says — The way I read the rule, it says that you need five to have a quorum and to pass on legislation. If there's not going to be five, then we should not conduct a committee session; we should not be forwarding recommendations to the Monday session, as far as I'm concerned.

But regardless of what the rules say, it's a question of what is right. And what is right is that we have nine elected officials here and if we can't even make a Monday and a Wednesday session, I suggest that some members go on to other endeavors. But I think it's outrageous that we can't minimally have five; I think we should have all nine. But minimally, I'm opposed to any conducting of business without a minimum of five people and I suggest a re-reading of the rules indicate that it takes a majority and majority, to me, means five.

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of order, Madam President. I'm the first to state that I wish that nine could be at all meetings, even though I've been guilty of leaving meetings and making it less than nine. And I just want to establish a fact whether a quorum was present that day or not. Apparently a quorum was present and it's been distorted something awful. And this is what caused all the cartoons and everything else in regards to Councilmembers leaving, not the fact that Councilmembers left, the fact that we did not have a quorum. I'm not condoning five members leaving a meeting, I never did and I don't think any other member of Council does.

Mr. Coyne:

Madam President, I have to agree with Councilman Ferlo. I have a real hard time accepting that two members can carry on a meeting and make suggestions as this body as a whole.

Also, I don't think it's too much to be asking us to be here for two days a week. Also, if you're going to leave the meeting, I think you should tell the Finance Chairman, if it's Mr. Pollock or the President, yourself, that you have an outside engagement. And except in the occurrence of an emergency, I don't think it's very much at all to let the presiding officer know that you will be unable to attend or stay for the entire duration of the meeting.

Mr. Woods:

Here we go again with Mr. Ferlo and Mr. Coyne, what's good for the public; they're the only people that know. No one has said or suggested that you shouldn't be here on a Monday or a Wednesday or a Tuesday or a Thursday. Not one member of this Council has suggested that. Mr. DePasquale brought it up that a quorum was present. In the past we've run meetings and, Mr. Pollock, you know that and I realize what Mr. Perry said to you, and I'm not faulting you or Mr. Perry or anybody else. But you know we've sat through meetings, hearings, where there were two, three people, four people. No one says it's right; I'm not saying it's right. I agree that I can make two meetings or three meetings or whatever; I'm here. But it just happened to be that one day. So, all these people saying that we can at least do that, hell, we all know that.

The Chair:

We're going to stop the discussion; everybody has had their say. Mr.

Wagner, you're the only one and then the discussion is going to be closed.

Mr. Wagner:

Well, I just think it's important to note, and I think it has to be clarified, on a Wednesday vote, that is a final vote on certain items, invoices and travel. So, it's important to maintain that number on the votes on that particular item also.

I'd like to make a motion, Madam President, that the public hearing next Monday, dealing with the paramedic issue, at 10:00 a.m., be televised.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo:

Very briefly, twice now this City Council has asked Mr. Schneider to communicate to it regarding the issue of the foremen's contract. I'd like another letter to go out but I'd like to ask Councilmembers to join me in opposing the trip by Mr. Schneider when he comes to the table Wednesday for over $1000 to go to San Diego. I think this is a good opportunity that we should express concern about the fact that he has failed and refused to indicate to Council on an important issue. So, I'm giving him a day and a half notice to put his boxing gloves on for Wednesday morning.

I would also like, Madam President and City Clerk, there's a controversial issue that's on the table Wednesday. I'm going to make a motion to hold it for a week and I'm asking that a post agenda session be scheduled for Wednesday at 1:00. This regards the City contract for our fuel for City vehicles. There's a bill up to put a request for proposals out for $500,000, supposedly enter into contract with the gas card system whereby we're going to hand out credit cards to 5400 employees around the City.

It's a lengthy debate and discussion and since people are concerned about the Finance Committee Meetings extending too long, I'm suggesting that a post agenda will be held on that issue Wednesday at 1:00.

I'll just close by saying that if we only allow a couple of people to vote, then we're opening the flood gates to even suggest that. And as far as I'm concerned, the public should ask that we be drawn and quartered if we're not here Mondays and Wednesdays.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, in regard to that bill with the post agenda, I would be very much in favor just to debate with the Administration on the issue right at the meeting. And the fact that a post agenda sometimes is a better forum for discussion, I can agree with that. But it's also a very important issue and maybe everything we need to talk about on the issue should be talked about publicly.

Mr. Ferlo:

I have no problem with that. The problem is it's now at the end of the day, Monday. There's a significant packet of information that has yet to come from the Administration regarding the cost benefit of jobbing this out to private contract. I'm just worried that we're going to be sitting there on Wednesday without having a lot of detailed information and I don't like to be at a loss to debate the point with the Director when I don't have the information.

The Chair:

You asked for a post agenda, Mr. Ferlo, and it was granted.

Mr. DePasquale moved to excuse Michelle Madoff for absence from the meeting.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, February 15, 1988 and Monday, February 22, 1988.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Lyons

Council adjourned.

The Chair:

Today we are pleased to have the eighth grade of St. Norbert's School with their teacher, Miss Beck, who has threatened to give them all a test on everything that happens today, so you'd better listen carefully.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Coyne:

Could I have Toni Gorenz and Bill Bissell come up, please?

Mr. Coyne presents

No. 367 WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners of Allegheny County have proclaimed the month of March, 1988, "Hemophilia Month"; and

WHEREAS, the Western Pennsylvania Chapter of the National Hemophilia Foundation is a non-profit, social service agency devoted to improving the health and welfare of persons with hemophilia, through education for patients, providing financial support for research and treatment of the disease, and increasing public awareness of hemophilia; and

WHEREAS, the Hemophilia Center of Western Pennsylvania provides comprehensive care for all individuals who reside in Western Pennsylvania; and

WHEREAS, hemophilia is an inherited disease which prevents the blood from clotting properly, affecting males principally, of all races and socio-economic groups; and

WHEREAS, hemophiliacs still face a life of unpredictable medical complications that may result in disability or death; and

WHEREAS, proper medical treatment and public awareness and acceptance of this medical condition will allow the individual to live a productive, independent life and will dispel some of the common misconceptions of the disease.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby recognizes the month of March, 1988, as "Hemophilia Month" to increase public awareness of this disease and thereby assist in efforts in improving the health and welfare of persons with hemophilia.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby commend the officers and members of the Western Pennsylvania Chapter of the National Hemophilia Foundation and the Hemophilia Center of Western Pennsylvania for their program of public awareness and for seeking funds to improve treatment and research of this disease until a cure can be found.

Mr. Coyne moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Coyne:

I have with me Toni Gorenz and Bill Bissell, both from the Hemophilia Foundation, and if they could just say a few words, please.

Ms. Gorenz:

Madam President, members of Council, Mr. Coyne, on behalf of all individuals with hemophilia who reside in Western Pennsylvania, I'd like to thank you for this resolution.

I'd also like to take this opportunity to publicly thank the Department of Health, the State of Pennsylvania, for supporting our comprehensive care programs, the United Way of Allegheny County for supporting our Chapter, as well as our dedicated staff and our many members of our volunteer staff. Without all of these individuals we would not be able to provide the kinds of programs that we provide and our ultimate goal is a cure.

Thank you very much.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, I'd like to ask the following people to please step forward for this resolution: Jack Gavin, Worthy Supreme Sir Knight of the Knights of Equity; Lorraine Keller, President of the Daughters of Erin; Kathy Watson who is the Vice-President of the Daughters of Erin and also the Director of the Dance Council; Bernie Cusick representing Mike Walsh and also is a very important person in the Knights of Equity; and last but not least, John McMahon who is also an officer in the Knights of Equity. It's no secret what the resolution is all about.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 368 WHEREAS, on Thursday, March 17, 1988, the Knights of Equity, Court No. 9, and the Daughters of Erin will celebrate their annual St. Patrick's Day Banquet and Dance at the Pittsburgh Hilton Hotel and Towers; and

WHEREAS, the Knights of Equity was founded in 1895 for the spiritual, material and social development of Irish-Americans, the teaching of Irish history and culture, and the defense of the cause of freedom of the people of Ireland; and

WHEREAS, from the time of its inception, the Knights have fought anti-

Catholic discrimination, freeing Catholics to enjoy their full civil rights, and to earn respect in business, the professions and public office; and

WHEREAS, today, members of the Knights of Equity constitute a vast and energetic society, directing their efforts toward mutual assistance, helping the church, working for the cause of liberty for Ireland, and denouncing discrimination in all its hateful forms.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby offer our sincere best wishes for the success of the St. Patrick's Day Banquet and Dance; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we extend our heartfelt "Erin Go Bragh" to the Knights of Court No. 9 and all those participating in the week's festivities.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Prior to having Jack Gavin come up and say a few words and introduce everyone else again, I'd like to say that this past weekend we probably had our most successful St. Patrick's Day Parade ever. There were literally thousands upon thousands of people in the Pittsburgh Streets and marching down the parade. I've never seen so many people participate in the St. Patrick's Day Parade. A lot of tribute and a lot of credit should go to the Knights of Equity and the Daughters of Erin, some other Irish organizations that also play a very important part in this parade. So, Jack

Gavin, please come up and say a few words.

Mr. Gavin:

Madam President and members of City Council, needless to say, this is an honor to be up here again this year. I thank you very much for the proclamation on behalf of not just the Knights of Equity and the Daughters of Erin, our ladies' auxiliary president, Lorraine Keller; the teacher of our culture and our dancing which we're very proud of because we keep our heritage together, Kathy Watson; the Vice President of our organization, actually, he is the Worthy Vice Sir Knight, Bernie Cusick; and my boss originally, John McMahon, is a past Supreme Sir Knight.

I'm here to deliver this little poem that was given to me three years ago, and I think this little poem is going to say everything that I feel, and it's never been heard before. There are three people here who know the individual who wrote this poem; one is a man that I grew up with, sitting over on the corner there, by the name of Ben Woods; I've had the privilege of knowing Jimmy Ferlo; of course, Michael Coyne; and of course, most importantly, the man who sponsored this, Jack Wagner. But I want to say what I think that we Irish have in our hearts at this time of the year. It is something that I think we all believe in and, again, this is the first time.

BLESSED

Of many things I know I'm blessed;
It's love of Ireland I feel best.
I'm caught forever in her spell;
My thoughts on Erin ever dwell.
The stone-stashed cottage flower then;
The shreds of mist cling to the glen.
The wind blown mountains craggy heights;
The rolling meadows are God's delights.

I've watched the shining shed and flow;
At fest there still the turf flower grow.
Over all this exquisite scene lies a beauty, a thing of dreams.
Long look, for yesterday is gone;
I still believe here her siren's song.
And as the tears dry on my cheeks;
My throat constricts, I cannot speak.

One of my dearest friends, James Patrick Bracken, an old union, hard-working, North Side Irish Catholic, wrote that. And on behalf of him and on behalf of you, ladies and gentlemen, thank you very much for this great honor.

Mr. Coyne presented

No. 337 Communication from Michael F. Coyne, Councilman, requesting authorization for Michael Lamb to attend a Capitol Orientation seminar entitled, "State Governments Impact on Municipal Management", in Harrisburg, PA, March 24-25, 1988, at a cost not to exceed $25.00, payable from Code Account No. 1001-1, Miscellaneous Services, Supplies, Equipment, City Council.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Parks and Recreation.

Mr. DePasquale presented

No. 338 Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements between the City of Pittsburgh and Patrick Media Group, Inc., for the payment of costs sustained by the latter upon the removal and installation of its billboard in connection with the construction of public sanitary sewer improvements on, over, across, under and through certain property owned by the POA Company, along Banksville Road near the Parkway West inbound lanes in the 20th Ward, City of Pittsburgh, owned by the POA Company, at a cost not to exceed $12,882.65, chargeable to and payable

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Coyne:

Could I have Toni Gorenz and Bill Bissell come up, please?

Mr. Coyne presents

No. 367 WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners of Allegheny County have proclaimed the month of March, 1988, "Hemophilia Month"; and

WHEREAS, the Western Pennsylvania Chapter of the National Hemophilia Foundation is a non-profit, social service agency devoted to improving the health and welfare of persons with hemophilia, through education for patients, providing financial support for research and treatment of the disease, and increasing public awareness of hemophilia; and

WHEREAS, the Hemophilia Center of Western Pennsylvania provides comprehensive care for all individuals who reside in Western Pennsylvania; and

WHEREAS, hemophilia is an inherited disease which prevents the blood from clotting properly, affecting males principally, of all races and socio-economic groups; and

WHEREAS, hemophiliacs still face a life of unpredictable medical complications that may result in disability or death; and

WHEREAS, proper medical treatment and public awareness and acceptance of this medical condition will allow the individual to live a productive, independent life and will dispel some of the common misconceptions of the disease.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby recognizes the month of March, 1988, as "Hemophilia Month" to increase public awareness of this disease and thereby assist in efforts in improving the health and welfare of persons with hemophilia.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby commend the officers and members of the Western Pennsylvania Chapter of the National Hemophilia Foundation and the Hemophilia Center of Western Pennsylvania for their program of public awareness and for seeking funds to improve treatment and research of this disease until a cure can be found.

Mr. Coyne moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Coyne:

I have with me Toni Gorenz and Bill Bissell, both from the Hemophilia Foundation, and if they could just say a few words, please.

Ms. Gorenz:

Madam President, members of Council, Mr. Coyne, on behalf of all individuals with hemophilia who reside in Western Pennsylvania, I'd like to thank you for this resolution.

I'd also like to take this opportunity to publicly thank the Department of Health, the State of Pennsylvania, for supporting our comprehensive care programs, the United Way of Allegheny County for supporting our Chapter, as well as our dedicated staff and our many members of our volunteer staff. Without all of these individuals we would not be able to provide the kinds of programs that we provide and our ultimate goal is a cure.

Thank you very much.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, I'd like to ask the following people to please step forward for this resolution: Jack Gavin, Worthy Supreme Sir-Knight of the Knights of Equity; Lorraine Keller, President of the Daughters of Erin; Kathy Watson who is the Vice-President of the Daughters of Erin and also the Director of the Dance Council; Bernie Cusick representing Mike Walsh and also is a very important person in the Knights of Equity; and last but not least, John McMahon who is also an officer in the Knights of Equity. It's no secret what the resolution is all about.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 368 WHEREAS, on Thursday, March 17, 1988, the Knights of Equity, Court No. 9, and the Daughters of Erin will celebrate their annual St. Patrick's Day Banquet and Dance at the Pittsburgh Hilton Hotel and Towers; and

WHEREAS, the Knights of Equity was founded in 1895 for the spiritual, material and social development of Irish-Americans, the teaching of Irish history and culture, and the defense of the cause of freedom of the people of Ireland; and

Catholic discrimination, freeing Catholics to enjoy their full civil rights, and to earn respect in business, the professions and public office; and

WHEREAS, today, members of the Knights of Equity constitute a vast and energetic society, directing their efforts toward mutual assistance, helping the church, working for the cause of liberty for Ireland, and denouncing discrimination in all its hateful forms.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby offer our sincere best wishes for the success of the St. Patrick's Day Banquet and Dance; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we extend our heartfelt "Erin Go Bragh" to the Knights of Court No. 9 and all those participating in the week's festivities.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Prior to having Jack Gavin come up and say a few words and introduce everyone else again, I'd like to say that this past weekend we probably had our most successful St. Patrick's Day Parade ever. There were literally thousands upon thousands of people in the Pittsburgh Streets and marching down the parade. I've never seen so many people participate in the St. Patrick's Day Parade. A lot of tribute and a lot of credit should go to the Knights of Equity and the Daughters of Erin, some other Irish organizations that also play a very important part in this parade. So, Jack

Gavin, please come up and say a few words.

Mr. Gavin:

Madam President and members of City Council, needless to say, this is an honor to be up here again this year. I thank you very much for the proclamation on behalf of not just the Knights of Equity and the Daughters of Erin, our ladies' auxiliary president, Lorraine Keller; the teacher of our culture and our dancing which we're very proud of because we keep our heritage together, Kathy Watson; the Vice President of our organization, actually, he is the Worthy Vice Sir Knight, Bernie Cusick; and my boss originally, John McMahon, is a past Supreme Sir Knight.

I'm here to deliver this little poem that was given to me three years ago, and I think this little poem is going to say everything that I feel, and it's never been heard before. There are three people here who know the individual who wrote this poem; one is a man that I grew up with, sitting over on the corner there, by the name of Ben Woods; I've had the privilege of knowing Jimmy Ferlo; of course, Michael Coyne; and of course, most importantly, the man who sponsored this, Jack Wagner. But I want to say what I think that we Irish have in our hearts at this time of the year. It is something that I think we all believe in and, again, this is the first time.

BLESSED

Of many things I know I'm blessed;
It's love of Ireland I feel best.
I'm caught forever in her spell;
My thoughts on Erin ever dwell.
The stone-stashed cottage flower then;
The shreds of mist cling to the glen.
The wind blown mountains craggy heights;
The rolling meadows are God's delights.

I've watched the shining shed and flow;
At fest there still the turf flower grow.
Over all this exquisite scene lies a
beauty, a thing of dreams.
Long look, for yesterday is gone;
I still believe here her siren's song.
And as the tears dry on my cheeks;
My throat constricts, I cannot speak.

One of my dearest friends, James Patrick Bracken, an old union, hard-working, North Side Irish Catholic, wrote that. And on behalf of him and on behalf of you, ladies and gentlemen, thank you very much for this great honor.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

| Mr. Lyons       | Mr. Wagner   |
| Michelle Madoff | Mr. Woods    |
| Mr. Pollock     | Mrs. Masloff |
|                 | (Pres't)     |

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

Mr. Ferlo:

On the bill itself. First of all, I think we're establishing a very bad precedent here regardless of the actual merits of the legislation. I think when Councilmembers want to question a bill, it's important before we finally vote on the legislation that we're knowledgeable about what we're voting on and if we have legitimate questions and concerns, and if we are setting a precedent now where department directors are not necessarily made to come to the table and are available for Councilmembers to ask questions, I have a problem with that precedent.

On the bill itself, obviously I'm very much in support of Mercy Hospital. But I do have a number of concerns. I think when there is a major institution in the City such as Mercy Hospital which, in the main, is a non-profit tax exempt institution, that when and if they are planning expansion that we know fully what their expansion intent is.

While it is true, I've come to learn, that the piece of property in question adjacent to the existing parking lot is already currently owned by the Hospital, I think it's fairly legitimate that when a Councilmember has questions about overall expansion plans of an institution, that somebody, in particular the department director from Planning, is available to answer some of those questions.

I know in the particular area there is a question on the part of the neighborhood generally on the issue of parking. But I am concerned about encroachment and further expansion of non-profit institutions in the City of Pittsburgh at a time when close to fifty percent of our land is tax exempt.

Those are some of the questions I wanted to learn and discuss with the department director.

Mr. Lyons:

Madam President and Council, I secured the information that the property is all ready and has been owned by Mercy Hospital. They are within the ambience of the property that they own and they have held meetings and they had no concealing votes at the Planning Commission of all the people they went out to get and therefore I see no reason why this bill shouldn't be passed.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, in principle I would support Mr. Ferlo's contention that he has the right to get the information he needs. The only question at the last Finance Meeting was, indeed, did they own the property, who was it, if anybody, that was going to impact on the community. And having checked that out before today, I was satisfied that there was no real problem.

As for the issue of tax exempt entities encroaching in the City, that is a separate and apart issue that we will have to deal with under tax reform and I see no reason to hold this bill up.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                 |              |
|-----------------|--------------|
| Mr. Coyne       | Mr. Pollock  |
| Mr. DePasquale  | Mr. Wagner   |

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 273

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the letting, during the calendar year 1989, of contracts and for the use of existing Contracts, for the maintenance, rental, rehabilitation, renovation, inspection, or servicing of personal property bonding, insurance, printing and other related services and for the maintenance and repair of buildings, structures, or any other properties in the custody of the various departments of the City of Pittsburgh, and for the miscellaneous services in and for any or all departments of the City of Pittsburgh, and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 275

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the letting of a Contract or Contracts, or for the use of existing Contracts for the purchase and delivery of Compressor, Pavement Breakers, Tampers & Clay Diggers for the Department of General Services, Code Account 4-30-01-0001-86, (GS 86-04) Index Code 370320, Miscellaneous Equipment for City Departments for payment thereof."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                 |              |
|-----------------|--------------|
| Mr. Coyne       | Mr. Pollock  |
| Mr. DePasquale  | Mr. Wagner   |
| Mr. Ferlo       | Mr. Woods    |
| Mr. Lyons       | Mrs. Masloff |
| Michelle Madoff | (Pres't)     |

AYES 9

NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 276

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Professional Services Agreement or Agreements for the purchase of fuel for City owned vehicles, and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President, I move to recommit Bill No. 276.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Mr. Woods:

Madam President, if I may, I think we can speak on this motion. The reason I say, and I suggest or ask that Council go along with Mr. Ferlo, he is the Chairman of this Committee and always in the past when the chairman of a committee asked to have his or her bill recommitted, Council went along with it. I know on Wednesday when he wanted it held for a week, I happened to be out of the room and it didn't get held. But I think as a courtesy to a chairman of a committee, if they request that it be held, we always held it and I would suggest that Council do that again today.

Michelle Madoff:

Traditionally I would support what Mr. Woods is saying and I realize that Mr. Ferlo is a new member of Council and somebody who has been here as many years as you have and I have and Mr. DePasquale and Sophie Masloff, we've been here many years, and we can understand where somebody might have a problem in getting the information they need. But it seems on this particular issue, in talking to the Director and in previous meetings here before Council, the issue is pretty clear cut and if every time the Director tries to do her job, get the bills through Council, the Chairman of the Committee is going to be an obstructionist and hold up the bills, then all of us are subject to the repercussions and the delays and the problems that the delays cause in the fact that, for example, our police cannot go across town and get their gasoline right away -- they have to go across town as opposed to getting it at an accessible source or our paramedics.

This bill should have been in place yesterday, and by that I means months and months ago. I think it is imperative that we discuss it right now. Those of us who got Mr. Ferlo's review spent some time and I think Councilwoman Masloff has the information. I have the information and I see no reason why we can't discuss it right now and get on with protecting the citizens of this community by having the energy available to them.

It is not as if this just came up today, with all due respect, Mr. Woods, and we said, "Well, let's give the Chairman a chance to hold it." There was a question of a post agenda; there was a question of many issues. I have the information I need to vote right now; I think many of us have checked on this and I would suggest we go ahead with this because it's very vital that we proceed.

Mr. DePasquale:

Madam President, I am in favor of the bill but I would give the Chairman of the Committee the courtesy of recommitting with one exception; is there a time problem here?

The Chair:

I don't know except that all the questions that were raised have been answered, Mr. Depasquale. I can see no purpose either in holding it.

Mr. Ferlo:

I don't believe there's a time problem because there's already an existing contract which is the pilot program which permits the department to keep incurring costs under the gas card system. So, I don't see that there's any great hurry.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, in regard to the hold motion, going back a year ago I was the one concerned about this and brought a resolution in front of Council so that our vehicles could be fueled at satellite locations rather than simply one location. So the intent of the bill I definitely support and possibly the bill itself.

But getting back to the hold motion, the Chairman of the Committee has requested to put back into Committee and I think it's a justifiable request from a chairperson of that committee. And due to the fact that the information that we received was a day prior to last Wednesday's Standing Committee Meeting, we really did not have much time to review it or to interact with the Department Director. So, with the Chairperson of that Committee requesting that this be held for one week, I think that's a justifiable request.

A previous bill in Planning, Housing and Development, Mr. Lyons did not want held; he is the Chairperson of that Committee and Council supported his request. I believe that the Chairperson of any committee has the right to ask Council to hold a bill for one week for additional information. So, therefore, I support the hold motion.

Mr. Coyne:

Madam President, just to concur with Mr. Wagner, I support the bill, Mr. Ferlo, and I disagree on this issue. But, since he is the Chairman of the Committee, I do think that we should give him the benefit of the doubt and just hold it for a week. As far as I know, speaking with the Director, there is no time factor involved.

Michelle Madoff:

In the normal procedure of Council,

I believe that we've all agreed that it would be courteous to let a department head have the respect of letting them hold a bill. However, it is becoming very apparent to many of us here in Council that we cannot just be obstructionists on the basis of every time a meaningful piece of legislation comes up, meeting with the department head, meeting with the director, and then saying, "I still want to hold the bill." I don't think that's fair; I don't think harassment of the department head -- We're going to lose her; she's going to leave because nobody is going to take this constant kind of abuse, meeting for three hours in the office on a bill and then coming before us and saying we don't have the information.

When Mr. Ferlo is correct, I vote with him all the time, consistently. I think in this instance the questions could be answered in five minutes, the issues that he's raised, and we could get on with the bill. I see no purpose in holding it again and cross-examining her once more when we've already got the answers and she has supplied us with the answers.

Mr. Pollock:

I think what everybody is saying is not mutually exclusive. I think Mr. Woods has accurately stated the courtesy that should be given to a committee chairman. I think Michelle has correctly stated the courtesy that should be given to a director. And I think, as I stated earlier, that these are not mutually exclusive, that courtesy begets courtesy and that if a committee chairman requests courtesy from his colleagues, then he or she should bestow courtesy upon the Director with which he or she is working.

A case in point was that this past Wednesday a bill was asked to be held in General Services for the reason given that information wasn't supplied, and the Director said it wasn't requested. So, the bill was introduced ten days or two weeks earlier and there had been no request to obtain this information and so the bill was attempted to be held, or actually, in fact, it was held. This is common courtesy. If the Director submits legislation and there are questions, you don't wait to hold the bill and hold up that Director's legislation. You make a call when it's introduced and say, "I want information."

I think that this Council should not be non-congnizant of relationships between committee chairmen and directors. The directors work for all of Council and all of the City; they don't work for one member of Council. And, as I stated earlier, courtesy begets courtesy and I'm willing to give courtesy to my colleagues, and I will in this case, but if discourtesy and confrontation and obstruction continues, then I don't think this Council, and especially not I, should bestow courtesy to any colleague who asks for it.

Mr. Lyons:

Madam President and Council, what penalties will we suffer for not passing this now? What was the motion? The motion wasn't for a week so that would have to be included. It wasn't in the motion; it was just to be recommitted.

The Chair:

There was a motion to recommit.

Mr. Lyons:

Yes, but for how long?

Mr. Woods:

Just until Wednesday.

Mr. Lyons:

Just until Wednesday? Okay.

The Chair:

I, for one, feel that this bill has been talked to death. I don't know of anything else we can add to this. Everybody agreed that they're going to vote for it next week, so what are we holding it for?

Mr. DePasquale:

Question called for.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                 |              |
|-----------------|--------------|
| Mr. Coyne       | Mr. Pollock  |
| Mr. DePasquale  | Mr. Wagner   |
| Mr. Ferlo       | Mr. Woods    |
| Mr. Lyons       | Mrs. Masloff |
| Michelle Madoff | (Pres't)     |

AYES 9

NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion was approved.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Ferlo:

I have two brief points under Motions and Resolutions. First of all, the monthly meeting of the School Board is this evening at 7:30 p.m. and it's the first meeting that is a public meeting where citizens, and in this case, an elected official, myself, has the opportunity to address the Board, since the Board has already agreed to accept the pact with the Pittsburgh Federation of Teachers. I'm going there this evening to speak because I have a concern not only about that wage pact and the issue of the residency but also the continuing issue that Council has raised about a planning process that needs to take place between Council as a legislative and taxing body as well as the School Board. So, that meeting is at 7:30 this evening and I would hope that maybe other Councilmembers would like to address the Board on this concern.

This coming Wednesday night, on a separate matter and then I'll close, this coming Wednesday night in these Chambers at 7:30 there will be a large public meeting and rally sponsored by the Pennsylvania Alliance for Jobs and Energy regarding Duquesne Light Company's rate increase, a rate increase, obviously, which this Council opposed in its original form which was a 47 percent rate increase. As you know, much to the credit of the Administration and the Solicitor, the City has expended thousands of dollars in opposition in litigation against the rate increase.

The third and final vote of the Public Utility Commission on the Duquesne Light Company rate increase, which tentatively is being reviewed as a 36 percent increase and not the original 47 percent, that final vote by the PUC is March 23rd at 10:00 a.m. in Harrisburg. We are attempting to, in the last few days, a week and a half before the final vote, to mobilize public opinion and ratepayer opposition. And the purpose of the meeting Wednesday night, I hope people will come down here as well as those of you on Council.

And again I would ask that if citizens are opposed to the rate increase, which, obviously, many of us are, that you take the time to call the Public Utility Commission and lodge your complaint by calling in a toll-free number: 1-800-782-1110. Express your opposition to the rate increase. Again, I hope that citizens will join us in Chambers this Wednesday evening at 7:30 for the protest against the Duquesne Light Company rate increase.

Michelle Madoff:

Interesting, that was the same subject matter, so I would like to address the issue. I forgot what the first one was, and may I ask for a ruling for the future — We ran into this once before and I backed off and I really looked very bad, looking at myself on the tube. We've never had someone give three issues without having people comment on the individual issue. I forget what the first one was and there's something I wanted to say about it.

Mr. Ferlo:

The School Board.

Michelle Madoff:

I'll take that first and then I want to talk about Duquesne Light. It's always been the rule that people talk on a subject and if anybody else wishes to add something, we add. But when you get into three items, as Mr. Ferlo did last time, and two items this time, what happens is that we don't have input.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'd like to raise a procedural point so we can be clear on this.

Michelle Madoff:

The procedure is that you take one item at a time, address it, and then you take the second one; you still keep the floor.

The Chair:

Hereafter we'll take one at a time.

Mr. Ferlo:

That's no problem as long as we're not yielding the floor. If we're not yielding the floor, I'd be glad to talk about one issue at a time. Everyone else is in a hurry to get out of this room; I'm not.

Michelle Madoff:

Since I'm not in a hurry to get out of the room, Madam President --

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Pollock leaves the meeting before anybody can speak.

Michelle Madoff:

That is out of order.

Mr. Ferlo:

It's not out of order.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, may I have your permission to ask Mr. Ferlo a question about the meeting tonight?

The Chair:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Ferlo, on tonight's meeting, are you scheduled to speak?

Mr. Ferlo:

Yes, Ma'am.

Michelle Madoff:

Can anybody come in and speak without being scheduled?

Mr. Ferlo:

No, you have to be scheduled.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay, so I would suggest that before Mr. Ferlo speaks, he should clearly understand that if he goes, he goes as a private citizen and does not speak for the august body and speaks only for himself. And I think that's very important because if we're going to take a position, and I think the position has been expounded on by Mr. Wagner and others, that we should have a consensus of what we wish to say if we designate someone to be our spokesperson. Mr. Wagner and others of us have raised the concern, and a very valid one, that the tax that is seen by others to be the four percent "wage tax" being a City tax is, in fact, not a City tax. It is a School and City tax. And if we're going to go and talk to the School Board, we assign the President of this Council or a spokesperson to go with a position. Anybody is free; this is America, not Russia. And Mr. Ferlo is absolutely free to go and talk about anything he wants to as long as he speaks for Mr. Ferlo and not for the rest of this Council. That was my first item, and I don't think I'm out of line on that.

The Chair:

Let me answer you on that. I have not appointed anybody to be a spokesperson for Council. Each one that goes will speak on their own behalf, as a citizen.

Michelle Madoff:

You understand that I wanted to convey the message through you that, indeed, if he does go; and I'm happy that he's going, that he speaks for himself because there seems to be a diversity of opinion, for example, on the issue of the law that says you don't have to live in the City to be a member of the School Board but there was a law passed --

The Chair:

That's not the issue, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

There seems to be different opinions on this Council.

On the second item, which is Duquesne Light. I testified at the State Office Building September 28, 1987 in opposition to the proposed 47 percent rate increase and presented some history that goes back 20 years in my dealings with Duquesne Light, i.e. the fact that Duquesne Light was told and knew that if they proceeded along the route they were taking and building more nuclear power plants that the cost was going to be astronomical, that indeed they didn't need the capacity, that all the signs were there, they were not going to need the excess capacity which they're now saddled with, that the Japanese who did not fall under the spell of the panacea of nuclear energy were the ones who paid for developing the deep mines and for 20 years received the clean coal in Japan a cheaper cost than we could buy in our own country.

I'm not sure that a rally on Wednesday, and as much as I'd like to think that it would make a difference, or calls to the 1-800-782-1110 number would have as much impact as some resolution coming out of this body that was a very strong resolution in support of the Mayor's position which was something that I moved on and we all agreed that we would support the Administration's position.

I've talked to Dan Pellegrini, I've talked to a number of people in the Administration and they're not very hopeful that we're going to get very much done. I don't know what we can do in the very short time because the ruling is about to come down. But it would seem to me that maybe bodies in Harrisburg are calling on the PUC to face the people that they're going to renalyze. Let them come here as they did to Philadelphia and face us and tell us what they're going to do, that they're going to raise the rates. And it's more than 37; it ends up closer to 39 percent when you really work the numbers out. Instead of giving us a message by carrier pigeon or by the media and saying, that's the way it's going to be, let them face us and tell us and let's have all the people here and their busses and their cars and maybe meet in Soldiers and Sailors hall, people who are concerned, and let them tell those people that their utility rates are going to go up 37 or 39 percent.

I have thought about a two-scale, two-tiered rate; a cheaper one for the residential users and a higher one for the commercial industrial users. On investigation I found it's not terribly practical. The utilities have always given a bargain rate to the large users because they sell in bulk to steel mills, etc., who use their own transmission line. The public has always paid a higher rate for kilowatt hour. But what happens is that if we lose more industry here and we end up with a greater surplus than the 40 percent excess demand that we have now - we have a 40 percent or better excess - the more excess we have the more the residential user is penalized. And it's sort of a Catch-22. It would be wonderful if we could sit down with the Administration, particular Dan Pellegrini and those who are fighting this case, and tell us what we can do that is productive.

Yes, I agree with Mr. Ferlo that the public voice is an important facet. But the public voice was raised here and the utilities brought their hired guns, they brought their employees who shouted down the little people who are paying. It was an outrageous misbehavior, if that's a word, by Duquesne Light. The little people weren't even allowed to talk; they were booed by the employees of Duquesne Light who put, perhaps, their jobs before the fact that they have to deal with the increase in rates.

So, what I guess I'm suggesting is if the President of Council can quickly convene with the Administration to see what we can do that would really be productive. I'm willing to add my voice and my presence to be where it will count. However, I'm not just sure that we're not really trapped into a terrible situation with the impact, with Koppers, perhaps, losing jobs here, with the fact that we must face reality that the software industry, the Robotics and computer business are not going to generate the jobs that we've lost. I don't know the answers but I sure know that we've got a serious problem on our hands and to be productive we need to have some suggestions of what we can do that would be really productive.

The Chair:

When you talked to Mr. Pellegrini what did he tell you?

Michelle Madoff:

He's not very optimistic. He's asking what we can do to help, and I'm saying, what can we do to help.

The Chair:

What did he say?

Michelle Madoff:

He doesn't know. And I'm going to be talking to one of the former utility commissioners today, hopefully. I'm going to be talking, again, to the people in Harrisburg, the consumer advocates, to see what they think we can do. But one of the things they did say was that we demand that they face us, that we ask the PUC people to come here. That is something we can do. You come here and confront the people who are going to have to pay it as opposed to sending a message. And that, I think might be productive. They ought to face down the people who aren't eating and have to choose between sometimes dog food and staying warm. If they have to confront those people eyeball to eyeball, we may get some kind of an impact and maybe my suggestion would be for the moment that we ask them to come here to give their final decision.

The Chair:

You're asking for a public hearing then?

Michelle Madoff:

No, I'm asking that the President of Council, with the support of City Council, ask the commissioners of the utilities, when they are going to make their ruling, that they make it right here in Pittsburgh and right in front of the people that are going to be impacted upon. That would be the first thing, that they're going to be called upon to confront the people they're putting this burden on. Let's start with that. And I make that as a motion.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

What's the harm in asking them to come here?

The Chair:

I think the mechanics of that are going to be hard to set up. Do you want it in Council Chambers?

Michelle Madoff:

Where is not the issue. They've done it in Philadelphia. They went to Philadelphia to give them the bad news; let them come here. It made an impact when they knew they had to confront the people. They did not raise their rates to the extent that they were initially going to do it. That will be a beginning.

The Chair:

You're asking that we call them here after they have made the decision?

Michelle Madoff:

To come and tell us face to face.

The Chair:

You want them to come after they've made the decision and face the people?

Michelle Madoff:

That's correct.

Mr. Woods:

Before they make the decision.

Michelle Madoff:

They've already been here; where were you? We had a hearing. I want to the Public Utility Commission and I testified before it. I'm saying it was done at the State Office Building on a one on one, a few people in the room, and the testimony was recorded. There was a big hearing in this room. The people were overflowing to the elevators. It's not funny, people; this is a serious problem for those people who don't have the money to pay their utilities.

I'm saying, and I want to be very clear, that if they know in advance that they're going to have to face the people, they may think twice about making the rate quite as steep. If they know they're going to have to come in with that ruling facing the people. I'm not saying that's the only thing to do; I'm saying that's one little tactic. Very small, perhaps, but it worked in Philadelphia. It worked. It was effective when they were told they had to come in and face the Philadelphia residents with their decision. Don't ask me why it worked, but it did.

Mr. Woods:

Just to clarify, are you asking that this body, through the President, send a letter to the PUC asking them to come here prior to when they vote, to vote here in Pittsburgh and not vote in Harrisburg?

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like them to vote here and if they don't vote here I'd like them to at least come here and not send a message; be here to tell us what their decision is. I think they'll have to think twice about the people that are going to mob them when they get here and demand to know why we are being penalized and why other parts of the state — It's been an effective weapon, an effective tool. When they were told in Philadelphia that they had to be there to confront people with their decision, it made an impact and they lowered the burden.

The Chair:

Are you asking the PUC or Duquesne Light?

Michelle Madoff:

Duquesne Light does not make a decision. If it was up to Duquesne Light they'd raise it 200 percent. I'm asking the PUC to come here the day they make their decision and confront the public in Allegheny County and the City of Pittsburgh and tell us face to face, eyeball to eyeball, that they're going to raise our rates 37 percent and the impact it's going to have on jobs.

And one other thing, Madam President. There was a report that they deliberately would not allow it to be entered into the Record because they said it came in too late. I would like to know what we can do to get that report accepted as part of the Record and impact because that report which was paid for by a number of corporations in the City is completely diametric to the information that they had, that it wasn't going to hurt the City. And for them not to accept that report is unconscionable. And I think that's another thing that we can do, that we demand that that report reflect their decision and they can't say, "Well, we don't want to look at that report" because it's the other side of the coin. It says that it will be a tremendous impact on jobs. I'll get you the name of the report; it was in the newspapers and I have it in my office.

Mr. Ferlo:

Just an additional comment on this. I have no problem with it, and it has been asked in the past for the Commission to conduct its vote in public in the service area in question. As I said, the PUC's vote is the morning of March 23rd in the North Office Building in Harrisburg. Consumer groups in the past, and I, by all means, would support again, this Council sending a letter asking that the Commission meet in public in Pittsburgh in the rate service area to indicate their decision.

What I'm suggesting, though, more importantly than that, because that's the midnight hour, I'm talking about mobilizing a public protest and citizen action before March 23rd. That's what needs to happen and I think that's what this legislative body needs to give some direction to.

We have expended hundreds of thousands of dollars in legal battles with the PUC on the issue of the Duquesne Light rate increase. What has not happened and what needs to happen more is to compliment that legal battle with consumer and citizen protest. The PUC is a political body just like the State Legislature and just like our Governor, Mr. Casey. Mr. Casey has yet to indicate his concern and has yet to indicate to the PUC his concern regarding the rate increase. Michelle makes a valuable comment in her concern that the report that the City and corporate community did and the tremendous loss of jobs and residents that will move out of the area because of the rate increase. That's an important point. We need to mobilize public and citizen protest to the commission members before the 23rd vote.

In the decision pending on the rate case, both Commissioner Smith and Commissioner Shane, as well as Commissioner Taliaferro, right now are ambivalent on the question of excess capacity. I think a tremendous protest by people and businesses and the corporate community throughout Pittsburgh and Western Pennsylvania can help tip the scales prior to their vote on the 23rd. That's why I've asked people to please support the show of public protest this Wednesday evening in Council Chambers.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, I think that Mr. Ferlo is 1000 percent right on this issue and I think that his support of getting into the Record the report that has been denied by the PUC is absolutely essential and in line with the request to ask the PUC to come here and make their decision here. We also should ask that that report be accepted, at least considered, in their final decision. That report was a very expensive report; it's the other point of view. We can't wait until the meeting on Wednesday because this Council has the ability right now to include that in the letter. Would you support that?

Mr. Ferlo:

I second your motion.

Michelle Madoff:

I think we're in agreement on that and I would suggest that the letter be a two-pronged letter; one, they have their decision-making meeting here, face us down; and the second one is that the report that has been disallowed on the basis that it's a last-minute grandstanding to buy some time and they're used to it is invalid and we demand that they look at that report because it was a very expensive, in-depth report that shows that indeed we're going to lose a tremendous amount of employment. It's going to produce a tremendous hardship on this community and it was a very valid report. It is not something that was just done by somebody on the spur of the moment to be shuffled aside. So, the letter should include both and I'll be happy to give you the name of the report. I could draft a rough letter for you.

Mr. Lyons:

Madam President and Council, I would like to see the motion read that the PUC will meet before they make their decision. That's what I would like to see because I think after they've made their decision, they don't have to come here. And then we have the small businesses that will collapse and suffer the giant increases of the utility. And certainly the City cannot afford to lose any other income. I feel that in the best interest of everyone concerned, the Council and the people and the residents and the businesses of the City of Pittsburgh, that we should compel the PUC membership to meet with this Council before they make their decision.

The Chair:

We've already met. They've been here several times. We've already met with them and have had numerous public hearings with them and everybody has had a chance to speak.

Mr. Lyons:

They can still come back. Madam

President, after they've made their decision, they don't even have to come. This is the only thing I'm saying.

The Chair:

Yes, but we've told them everything we have to say.

Michelle Madoff:

Could we clarify this? We're agreeing, Mr. Lyons; Mr. Ferlo and I are in agreement. What we're saying, so that it's very clear, is that we know that once they've made a decision, what good is it to have them here. The problem is, they've already been here numerous times. What we want to do is to say, you make your decision in Pittsburgh because you're going to have to live and face us eyeball to eyeball, so they will reconsider their opinion.

Secondly, they come in again, I have no problem with that, Mr. Lyons, I think it's a point well taken, and that we demand that the report that shows the other side of the coin, the impact on this community be considered and not brushed aside because it came in after the due date. It's like saying the courts refuse last minute evidence on somebody who may be convicted of a crime, not allowing evidence to be submitted. There is evidence and they're denying the admission of this evidence. We've got to see that that evidence is part of the Record. And that's what I'm asking, that this Council insist that the evidence on the other side is part of the Record and that they confront us with whatever decision they're making and make their decision right here in Pittsburgh.

Mr. DePasquale:

Madam President, I want to go on Record as being against the percentage increase asked for by Duquesne Light.

And I appreciate the comments of all my colleagues; however, I would think that the remarks made by Mr. Ferlo were more in order and they're the ones we should follow.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, Mr. Ferlo and I said the same thing.

Mr. DePasquale:

No you didn't.

The Chair:

Wait a minute. Are you through, Mr. DePasquale?

Mr. DePasquale:

No. Mr. Ferlo said the meeting Wednesday was the important one, not after the fact.

The Chair:

So there will be a meeting on Wednesday.

Michelle Madoff:

That's after the fact. There is going to be a meeting. I'm saying in addition to the meeting we need to do the other. And Mr. Ferlo seconded my motion so obviously we agree on it.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion?

Mr. DePasquale:

Have we voted on the letter?

The Chair:

Well, I didn't think we needed a vote on that. I agreed that I would write a letter to the PUC and tell them that the day they make the decision we want them to make it here in Pittsburgh and to confront the people, and also, to demand that they look at the report, whose name Michelle will supply. I didn't think that was a matter for a vote.

Mr. DePasquale:

Well I don't want my name on that letter.

Mr. Lyons:

But a motion went on the floor. There's still a motion on the floor.

The Chair:

What motion?

Mr. Lyons:

The motion that Michelle made.

The Chair:

It was not a motion; she just suggested that we send this letter, and I will send the letter. And your remarks will be a part of the Record, Mr. DePasquale.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, one item. A year ago this Council passed a resolution that I presented requesting that the Parks and Recreation Department determine a location for a golf driving range within the City of Pittsburgh. When that resolution passed here unanimously, we indicated the many potential locations in the City where that could be done on City property, the fact that there is none within the confines of the City of Pittsburgh.

In passing that resolution, a note was sent to the Director of Parks and Recreation, Louise Brown. She responded by saying that she would respond to this Council by the Fall of last year. Well, we are one week away from Spring and we still have not had a response. Therefore, I would like a letter going from the City Clerk's Office to the Director of Parks and Recreation, Louise Brown, asking where these potential locations are because they can act as a revenue generator within the City of Pittsburgh and they could very well be part of our Parks and Recreation system.

I would like a copy of the study and a report by next Monday's meeting and when, in fact, we could have something of this type operating within the City.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, one other quick item. We agreed in this Council, again, at a vote, to put a no smoking sign in all the buildings, in elevators, that say no smoking or carrying of lighted materials. I know that there are buildings in the City that have been threatened with penalties because they have called in to Building Inspection to find out what the rules are. But the City County Building, our own elevators, have a piece of junk, a piece of cellophane that has been scratched off and the solid metal or permanent signs have not been put up here.

May I get a response, Mr. Perry, and with the President's permission, from I guess it would be Mr. Imhoff, when our signs will be in place to set an example for the rest of the City. The no carrying of lighted materials and no smoking signs, in our elevators that are permanent, non-removable, metal signs, or something equally secure, something of a solid material that would not be scratched off. It is really unbecoming for this Council to vote on something, have other buildings being penalized, and we don't even set an example.

Mr. Ferloc:

Didn't the law take effect, Madam President?

Michelle Madoff:

Yes, a long time ago.

Mr. Ferloc:

If the law took effect and there's a penalty set forth, we should have the person who is in charge of the City County Building fined. That's all. Isn't a penalty called for in the smoking ordinance for the signs to be posted? We are a public building just like the other buildings around town and if we're out of compliance then the department, or whoever is responsible in Public Safety, should initiate action against the City County Building. What's good for the goose is good for the gander.

Michelle Madoff moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, February 29, 1988.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. DePasquale

Council adjourned.

I want to thank Council for the resolution; thank you, Madam President and Councilmembers.

In October when Governor Casey appointed me to this position, he mentioned that I would be the chief advocate for the Hispanic community in the State of Pennsylvania which is growing, vibrant, very much alive. One of the main purposes for coming out to your City is to, number one, see the Pittsburgh Renaissance and be able to witness some of that, and secondly, to work very closely with the Hispanic community organizations that exist here in their effort to strengthen their role in this community to enhance their position in regards to being a greater contributor to the social economic and political life of this City.

I want to, again, thank you and be able to say that my office does the advocacy by doing research on Latino issues, policy development, policy advocacy, and also work with community based organizations and I think people here in Pittsburgh should be very proud that you have some very strong leaders in the Hispanic community here, and in different organizations; Dr. Ignacio Christlieb who is a world-reknown cardiologist here with the McGovern team; Tito Capobianco who is Director of the Pittsburgh Opera; Dr. Rolando Bonachea who is the Acting President of Duquesne; and Angel Jordan who is the Provost at Carnegie Mellon.

operating an Audio-Visual Service, a Lawyer Placement Service, a Legal Secretarial Placement Service, a Paralegal Placement Service and TEL-LAW; and

WHEREAS, despite his ever-increasing duties, JIM SMITH has involved himself in such worthy causes as the Catholic Youth Association, the Jaycees, the Kiwanis Club, the Neighborhood Legal Services Association, the Legal Aid Society and the Notre Dame Club of Pittsburgh which he served as President in 1970 and 1971 and which honored him as its "Man of the Year" in 1972; and

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Do you remember what I said I was going to do if you ran down the hall and tried to avoid a citizen's arrest? I'd hug you - when you leave I'll give you a hug - if you promise to give up cigarettes, cigars, in elevators. Do I have your commitment? Only in elevators.

Mr. Smith:

Absolutely.

Mr. Pollock:

Madam President, if I could just make one comment. We in Allegheny County are truly blessed to have Jim Smith here. It doesn't get said very often and it took this anniversary to really come out, but Jim is considered by Bar Associations across the country to be the finest Executive Director of a Bar Association in this nation. Representatives come from all across the land, in fact, other nations, to learn from him, to observe how we operate, and to gain guidance from Jim Smith. We're fortunate to have been able to keep him here. The programs that he had instituted that serve this community are phenomenal and he is truly, more than any other person in this County, dedicated to the cause of justice and to providing legal services to everybody and the most qualified judiciary that one could possibly imagine.

So, it's a great honor to have him here to accept this, and I present Jim Smith to you.

Mr. Smith:

Madam President, members of Council, this is a distinguished honor to have this day named for me. My wife and several of my children and my in-laws from the East are here. I'm sure that they're as pleased and thankful as I am for this award. It's been a privilege to have devoted 25 years to serving the lawyers of this great community.

We do have a special affiliation with you. As you know, our public service, our conference center is located on the ninth floor of this building and we were so pleased to be able to offer as many public service programs to the community to assist the low income who are rightful and deserving of all their legal rights.

So, on behalf of the 62,000 members of the Allegheny County Bar whom I represent, we are all very, very proud of your taking the time to devote a few minutes of your time to making this award presentation. I thank you very much.

Michelle Madoff:

Your wife knows this is only a sisterly hug.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, I'd like to ask Jim Mushinsky to please step forward and to receive this resolution on behalf of Fred Zangaro who couldn't make it here today. Jim is a good friend and is also a member of Boilermakers Local 154.

Zangaro, a 5'7", 200 lb. linebacker, for his induction into the Minor League Football Hall of Fame and commend his dedication to sports as a player, coach and official, and his many contributions made to the City of Pittsburgh

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like to again introduce Jim Mushinsky, a good friend, to say a few words for Fred Zangaro.

Mr. Mushinsky:

Madam President and Council, especially Jack Wagner, I want to thank you for this resolution because I grew up with the man and I played ball with the man and I know what his capabilities are and still in discipline with others. And to be a leader like him and to go on even now in his late '50s to work with young children and grown boys and women and keep them on the right side of the law and keep them disciplined in their life throughout, I can say nothing else but with people like him around, Jack, you don't need a sign to say no to drugs. Freddie does it all. Thank you.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President and members of Council, on Bill No. 276 regarding the GASCARD concept or contract with the Mon Valley Petroleum, I'd like to address several concerns that I have.

I continue in my opposition to the plan being submitted by the Administration, a plan that I feel will put several hundred gasoline credit cards into the hands of City employees. I think it was abundantly clear from the discussion and the debate at last Wednesday's Council session that the plan that was submitted was completely half-baked, not very well thought out. I think the plan lacks coordination with other City departments. The plan is costly. The plan is entirely unnecessary and it doesn't even achieve the stated purpose for which it was attended.

I agree with the need for emergency vehicles to have some access to gasoline in neighborhoods north and south of the rivers, without the need of personnel to leave their designated service areas. The GASCARD system, however, doesn't even address this issue. The City Council Budget Office calculates that the plan will increase gasoline expenditures by some $250,000. That is twice what the Administration originally suggested. I would argue that $250,000 which is an increase over the budgeted amount is an amount of money that is the equivalent to the hiring of seven and one-half police officers. I believe those police officers could better be used in business corridors in Lawrenceville, in Bloomfield, in Hazelwood, North Side, and places throughout the City of Pittsburgh.

I believe, also, that the City will have no control whatsoever. Very clearly stated by the Department Director, we will have no control whatsoever over the price per gallon of gasoline we'll be paying with the GASCARD system at those GASCARD service stations. The GASCARD system, as was clear from the debate, provides only two stations which will be open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and, in fact, these two gas stations fail to satisfy the original purpose of the GASCARD plan.

The opportunities for fraud and abuse are great and I would argue that the abuse rate is greater under this system than presently where we have the City gas being pumped by City workers. If this isn't the case, and if there is abuse at the gas pumps currently operated by the City, then I think it's the responsibility of the Administration to take corrective action.

I would ask Council to defeat this costly and half-baked plan for an alternative plan of using the new gas pumps that we own and that we operate through the Department of Public Works in addition to the 29th Street Station in Lawrenceville. These gas pumps, as I talked about last week, are well distributed throughout the City. They're brand new pumps; they're in Schenley Park in Oakland; they're in Herschel Field in the West End; they're in Riverview Park in Brighton Heights and they're in McKinley Park in Beltzhoover.

We have already spent over $150,000 in tax dollars. We've already expended over $150,000 of taxpayers' money for the installation of these new gas pumps and the brand new gas tanks that were installed. I believe strongly that we should continue to buy gasoline at wholesale, bulk prices at 27 cents cheaper than the GASCARD system proposes. The gas pumps that are staffed by the Department of Public Works operate already eight hours a day. It is totally ludicrous to argue that there will be new expenditures of personnel time and I think that was an unfair estimate made by the Department Director. These are costs we've already incurred in the City budget. They're already operated eight hours a day. And in the winter months we've learned that they are staffed for three full shifts.

I believe it would be far cheaper and much more logical to have employees who are required to do limited work duty. We've already heard from the Administration that they are having a problem finding placements in the City workforce; people who are coming off of compensation have limited work duty. There are placements that are needed and I would argue that it's much more logical to have these individuals staff a second shift and operate the four gas pumps that I'm talking about. In addition to these gas pumps, as I've indicated, we have a full service, 24 hour operated gasoline station in the Strip District and 29th Street in Lawrenceville.

I'll just close by making the point that I'm sure many Councilmembers, in campaigning for public office — I know when I went door to door, I met a lot of people. I met one elderly woman down in Lawrenceville who said if I was fortunate enough to get elected to City Council, and when I'm voting on expenditures and when I realize that when I'm voting on large sums of money, to keep her in mind. And this individual telling me that she's on a fixed income and when she goes to pay her yearly property taxes to the City, she has to be very thoughtful; she has to scrimp and she has to save. And she said that when I'm about the business of voting on major expenditures, I should think of the value of these expenditures and I should think of how she's going to spend that money. I would argue that the amount of money that we're talking about today, a half million dollars, is an amount of money that we should think about the thousands of other people in this City who are scrimping and saving and trying to support their families.

I would ask you, my colleagues, to please reconsider this plan and let's propose some of the alternatives that I've mentioned. I hope you will vote against this resolution. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President and members of Council and anybody in the public who has been following this fiasco, I am offended that the perception of a very well prepared, and I congratulate my colleague on his phraseology, his manner in which he presented a distorted picture of what actually has happened. If people are listening to that, listening to the statements made by Mr. Ferlo, it would appear that out of nine of us, he is the only one that understands and that we are going to vote, and I presume we're going to vote, in favor of the GASCARD bill simply because we're either committed to the Administration whom I've taken on on several occasions, or that we're rubber stamps and that we haven't looked at the facts. And the facts are not as they were presented by Mr. Ferlo; the facts are, and I don't want to reiterate all the dialogue that we've had over and over again, but my understanding of how this all came into being, and I think a great deal of credit goes to Mr. Wagner who pointed out that it was ridiculous to have police officers, paramedics, any emergency vehicle traveling across our City, wasting sometimes, perhaps, two hours during rush hour, endangering somebody's life, and a life has a value, and that we ought to have available some mechanism for the purchasing of gasoline, fuel, at sources convenient to the vehicles round the clock.

It was further stated by Ms. Botsford, the Director of General Services, that in order to keep the present gas stations that belong to the City open, the sources of gas pumps, we would have to hire personnel at $9 an hour. It would be wonderful if we could do what Mr. Ferlo wished to do, and I've been a proponent of that, just bring people back for light duty who cannot work, who are on workmen's comp. But we're mixing apples and oranges and grapes and pears and we're making fruit salad. The issue is really not, I would hope, to not confuse the issues but stick with the basic fundamental problem. The problem is that we need to provide, to save lives and to save money, a source of energy to our vehicles who need them. It was stated at least 20 times in at least 20 different ways by the Director that built into the system were protective and preventive methods to see that fraud was eliminated and certainly there would be no more of that than we have under the present system which really was in abuse in many cases where City employees had the use of cards to go to our own stations.

She sent us a letter, to the President and members of City Council, City of Pittsburgh. I'm not going to read the whole letter but I will read the portion that I think really puts this dialogue into perspective. "All the figures and methodologies of our analysis are available for your review, and that's for the public to review, too, should you so desire. Additionally, it must be noted that it costs the City, at a very minimum, ten cents per gallon to pump our own fuel at our own sites, approximately 1.7 million gallons. This cost was not included in the bulk gasoline figure given to you previously. We recognize that the prices do and will continue to vary." You know, we have no control over what happens in the gas producing nations or imports, etc. "The Administration has attempted to project future cost as accurately as possible, not just show you past costs as the total program will be more extensive than the pilot program." Incidentally, remember, this is only an experimental program which can be stopped at any time. "We are in agreement that this program will cost the City actual increased dollars between $125,000 and $300,000 based on which analysis is used. But the bigger issue is the annual $2.7 million savings in man-hours. Public Safety will have the equivalent of 72 more officers on the streets. As I stated Wednesday, we've reviewed all the alternatives suggested, plus some, and are convinced that this is the most cost efficient and effective program for the City of Pittsburgh. We will scrutinize this program closely and will provide you with the quarterly reports on usage and cost that you have requested."

And I think, really and truly, the implication that — You know, Mr. Ferlo may in the long run be proven correct; there may be an abuse of the program. But there's a program in effect that has had abuse. We need to try to improve the lot of the City and we need to try to improve the service. There's no question that we have a director who is qualified and she's listened to all our input and has taken some of the advice. As a matter of fact, as I recall, Mr. Ferlo or Mr. Wagner, I'm not quite sure who, suggested that we should have nothing other than the actual fuel; there should not be any windshield wiper or oil or other things because that can be purchased in bulk at our stations and she was gracious enough to say, "You're right, I made a mistake; I took it out." And as other suggestions are made that improve the system, this is a bright, caring woman who is going to listen. But in her estimate and in her convincing me and the rest of the members of this Council in debate, it seems to me that she makes good argument for the system, she makes good argument for the fact that there are controls and if anybody tries to use the card that is not authorized, it will automatically lock out that card. I think there will be a severe penalty to that person who would attempt to abuse the privilege by using a card where the license plate doesn't match the card number. I think every conceivable attempt to make this a viable, responsible program has been taken and we cannot overlook the savings that are over $2 million which is far greater than perhaps the $300,000 that will be put out.

I urge my colleagues to support this bill and to vote for it.

Mr. Wagner:

I respectfully disagree with my colleague, Mr. Ferlo, on this issue. However, I would say that even in that disagreement, I think the debate has brought out a lot of good information, more precise information on this proposal. Originally, we talked about the estimate being approximately $125,000 a year for the cost of the program; now we're talking, and our budget staff has given us some more data, where they're suggesting it will probably be about $250,000. Director Botsford is also saying, in her most recent letter to Council, March 18th, that it may be more than $125,000 but it will be between $125,000 and $300,000, the cost.

So, I think the debate and the conversations and agreements and disagreements that have occurred have come up with some better data to support or not support the bill. I personally think the information is still good information, even if the cost is $250,000 a year, and the reason being are some of the items that Councilwoman Madoff indicated. The benefit to the taxpayer of the City here is so real, particularly in the area of Public Safety, it will keep more of our people working on the streets. And when you go to the outlying areas of the City, like the Brighton Heights and the Sheradens and the Overbrooks and the Esplens and the Lincoln Place and the Homewood-Brushtons and even Greenfield and places like that, it's critical to keep these emergency vehicles in those respective areas.

When I first became Chairman of Public Safety two years ago and I was out riding with the various people in the different bureaus, they told me what they had to do to get gasoline. They had to go out of service and they had to go to the Strip District, from whatever area of the City they were in. If you ever want to see in reality what it's like, I suggest anyone to go down to the 911 center and listen to the cars and the emergency vehicles that go out of service to go get gasoline. It happens rather often over the radio, more so during the day than at night, but it happens rather often. It struck home with me one particular time, it was during the Shadyside Rapist situation. I was out with the detectives that evening in a vehicle and we were touring Shadyside; their gas was low and they said, "We have to go get gasoline."

So they went out of service for 45 minutes. They went to the Lawrenceville station to get gas. We waited in line, after a couple vehicles, got our gas and were back in Shadyside. That was 45 minutes later. But the point is that we're paying officers a good salary, we're paying paramedics a good salary, we're paying firefighters and squad vehicles good salaries to be in service, to be out there and to be available for eight hours; not for seven hours, not for seven hours and 15 minutes, but for eight hours in that respective district.

So, the return on our investment here is very significant, even if the cost up front is $125,000, $250,000 or $300,000, because there is a very likely possibility that the lives of our citizens will depend on whether or not these emergency vehicles remain in their respective areas of the City.

So, I would strongly recommend that we move forward with this piece of legislation, even though everything isn't absolutely, positively certain that the system will work 100 percent. There's a little bit of a trial here, that's true. But the Director has indicated that she will provide us with quarterly update reports. But the bottom line still is that we will have more police officers, paramedics, firefighters and squad vehicles available in respective areas of the City, particularly due to the fact that we've had situations where we have not had people easily accessible in those areas in the last month or two. I think this piece of legislation is even more important because we must find every way possible to keep as many of our employees, particularly those in Public Safety, available to provide the necessary service to the public. So, I would suggest that we vote in the affirmative for Bill No. 276.

Mr. Lyons:

Madam President and Council, while we speak of a half million dollars we should speak of people when we go to spend our money.

Secondly, we have to think of what the Directors told us. While we'll get these gas stations around the City of Pittsburgh, we will be protecting life, we will be safeguarding life in the communities of the respective vehicles, the police, the emergencies, the fire people. They'll be in their district and very active. But more than that is that the $2,700,000 that the City spends each year in dead man-hours, the people traveling back and forth to 29th Street to get their gas, will be abated very substantially. And it is in that area, too, that I see a great return to the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. DePasquale:

Madam President, this is the fourth time we've roundly discussed this matter and I think we've said just about everything that could be possibly said. And if Council isn't ready to vote by now, they'll never be ready to vote, so I call for the question on it.

The Chair:

Everybody has had a chance that wants to speak and we will proceed on with the vote.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, I just want to clarify some that I said, if I may have the privilege briefly.

Mr. Ferlo:

I would like equal time if she's going to speak.

The Chair:

No more discussion on it. Everybody has had one chance to speak and we're going to vote on the bills. We've been around and around and around and nobody is going to speak twice on any issue anymore.

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Bill No. 436

Report of the Committee on Parks and Recreation transmitting one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received, and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 305

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the establishment of the Department of Parks and Recreation Regional Swimming Pool Imprest Fund in the amount of Eight Hundred ($800.00) Dollars."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President, on Bill No. 305, setting up a Swimming Pool Imprest Fund, as I indicated earlier in the year, I am totally opposed to the collection and implementation of any type of fee for children who swim in our swimming pools. So, I'm voting no on the creation of this fund for the collection of those fees.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

Mr. DePasquale presented

Bill No. 437

Report of the Committee on Engineering and Construction for March 16, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 307

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution further amending Resolution No. 922, effective September 26, 1980, as amended by Resolution No. 881, effective August 31, 1981, entitled, 'Providing for an Agreement or Agreements for architectural, engineering or other professional services in connection with the design and rehabilitation of Burgwin Pool and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by decreasing the total project allocation by $3,288.53, from $33,600.00 to $30,311.47."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 308

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution further amending Resolution No. 97, effective March 2, 1984, as amended by Resolution No. 376, effective May 8, 1986, as amended by Resolution No. 151, effective March 4, 1987, entitled, 'Providing for a Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts, for the rehabilitation of various Housing Authority Playgrounds including Glen Hazel and Bedford Housing sites; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by decreasing the total project allocation by $6,836.34, from $75,000.00 to $68,163.66."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 309

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a contract or contracts, or use of existing contracts for the Repair of Sidewalks and other work incidental thereto in various communities operated by the Housing Authority of the City of Pittsburgh (Bedford Dwellings); and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 309, I find it interesting that I do not see anywhere that the Director, Mr. McDermott, has hired a consultant to put in sidewalks. Previously, sidewalks were put in by General Services and they have a formula and a format and a design that has been effective. Traditionally, Mr. McDermott comes to us and says, "We have to have a consultant to tell us how to put sidewalks in." But here's an example of sidewalks being put in, to my knowledge -- That's what we're doing on Mount Washington, we're repairing, but he needs a consultant.

But the point I'm making, this is on the Housing Authority and the Housing Authority, and I asked the question of Mr. McDermott, why are we doing any work for the Housing Authority. He said, "Because our garbage trucks have damaged the sidewalks so we're repairing, supposedly, the damage we did at the Housing Authority."

Now, I know that the Housing

Authority awards its own contracts and I would be very interested, and I mentioned this in Council previously, at having a public hearing, having Mr. Pietragallo and members of the funding sources, I don't know from what sources they would be, but I would like to know how the bids are put out, who gets the bids, I'd like to know who the people are who get the bids. I'd like a list of the same people, if they're the same people over and over again, how they determine cost, and I'd ask to have a public hearing. What that ever scheduled, Mr. Perry?

Mr. Perry:

No it wasn't.

Michelle Madoff:

But you know I did ask for it, and I asked for it on Wednesday. I wanted to be sure --

Mr. Perry:

You were supposed to make a motion today.

Michelle Madoff:

But I just wanted to be sure that in case I had not done it in the proper format that I was doing it today, and that I thank you, President of Council, for scheduling it.

My motion is that we need to know, we're talking about millions of dollars every year that are spent -- As a matter of fact, I believe our Controller wanted to do an audit; we're talking about performance audit, we're talking about contracts. I don't know how that vote went down and what's actually happening on that at this point, but I personally think that that's such a major expenditure of taxpayers' dollars that I would like to know how the monies are being spent, who gets the contracts, how they're awarded, because we're talking about substantive dollars and I'm respectfully asking that we schedule a hearing for that.

The Chair:

All in favor? Opposed?

Mr. Lyons:

Opposed.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 338

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements between the City of Pittsburgh and Patrick Media Group, Inc., for the payment of costs sustained by the latter upon the removal and installation of its billboard in connection with the construction of public sanitary sewer improvements on, over, across, under and through certain property owned by the POA Company, along Banksville Road near the Parkway West inbound lanes in the 20th Ward, City of Pittsburgh, and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 339

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the purchase from POA Company for public sanitary sewer improvements of an easement on, over, across, under and through certain property along Banksville Road near the Parkway West inbound lanes in the 20th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh designated as Block No. 16A, Lot No. 300, for $4,500.00; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. DePasquale, on these two bills, they're confusing the issue of POA, which stands for Pittsburgh Outdoor Advertising which is now owned by Henry Posner and not by Jim Roddey, and Patrick Media Group. They're two bodies that are sharing these dollars. If you may recall, and there's a transcript, I asked Mr. McDermott how he arrived at these dollars. One bill has, I believe, almost $13,000 and the other one has almost $4,500. We're talking about something like $18,000 or $19,000. And I wanted to know, what are these dollars for. You know, we want to put a sanitary sewer line through and Mr.

McDermott said that he didn't know how these dollars were arrived at. Sophie Masloff informs me that you can buy a billboard for something like $500 a month. Presumably the money that we're paying them is to subsidize them for the inconvenience of having to take their signs down. Now, there may be, and I spoke to Danny Pellegrini, money in actually taking down the sign and putting it back up.

But the thing I'm confused about is that Mr. McDermott didn't know how the numbers were arrived at. I called Mr. Pellegrini figuring it was done in the Law Department. He didn't know how it was done; he said Mr. McDermott did it.

I suggest we put the bills back in Committee and find out why we're spending $12,800 and $4,500 to reimburse Pittsburgh Outdoor Advertising and Patrick Media, and I may vote for it when I know how they arrived at the figure. I don't think we should vote without knowing.

Mr. DePasquale:

In all fairness, I have no problem with it going back to Committee with the exception that I thought Mr. McDermott explained it rather well the other day. It's an obligation that we owe Patrick Media for the cost that they assumed in regards to moving the signs or removing the signs and the loss of rental or whatever. All factors involved, it was mutually agreed by the City of Pittsburgh and by Patrick Media, $12,000 or whatever. There was never any question as to whether they should have gotten it or shouldn't have gotten it. Once they agreed on that figure, that was it. I don't know what purpose putting it back in Committee would serve but I have no problem with it.

Michelle Madoff:

I think you didn't hear my question. My question was, who negotiated the price? Mr. McDermott said he didn't do it and Mr. Pellegrini said he didn't do it. I want to know how we arrived at these dollars and for what purpose? Is it to take the signs down for one month to put the sewer in? Is it because we had to take them down and put them up? What is the cost of taking them down and putting them up? What would somebody charge to take them down and put them up? Could we do it in-house in the City? I just want to know how we arrived at these numbers.

I made the motion to recommit these two bills.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, I have two items; one of tremendous magnitude and one that's just something that is Council business. I'll take the important one first, if I may, and I will allow anyone to interact and then I will take the second one, because that was your decision, that the person would not relinquish the floor but we would stop at each item if anyone had any input.

Less than two weeks ago I was invited to tour the Hill District on Trent Street to take a look at an appalling sight. The sight was hypodermics that without questions, and we checked with the Board of Health, may contain the AIDS virus but certainly have Hepatitis, perhaps Hepatitis B. Lying on the ground were hundreds, not dozens, hundreds and hundreds of balloons that originally contained, I guess, cocaine or whatever the drugs were for injection, and also, perhaps a hundred hypodermic needles.

On the same street were dozens of children and within two blocks is a public school where these children go to school and the parents perhaps go to work and the children walk along together. And what mother, being the mother of a daughter and a child, was to be terrified if she walked down the steps with a pencil and she might trip, what mother can quickly move to stop her child from picking up a hypodermic needle in the street? There are dogs, there are cats, probably from low income families, and the dogs and cats probably haven't even had their injections to prevent them from spreading disease. There were houses with children in the window; we knocked on doors and the parents said, "I don't let my children out of the house. My children do not play outside; I removed them from the street."

There were approximately five houses on the street - and I'm sure other people have been on the Hill and Mr. Lyons probably knows the street better, people have been up to visit, there were probably five houses that are not in disrepair, that people have taken pride and have maintained those houses. The rest of it is a garbage dump. I will tell you that the City garbage dump, or going out to Chambers Landfill which is a sanitary landfill, is cleaner than that street is. That is a garbage dump; nobody should have to live in such filth and squalor.

We knocked on doors and we talked to people, and I learned a new expression. I always thought a shooting gallery was somewhere in an amusement park that you tested your skill in marksmanship. Do you know what a shooting gallery is? Homes on the street that sell drugs. The police know they're selling drugs, and they come in and they try to do something, try to arrest the people and stop the sale, and these people, when they are arrested are back out on the streets. And in those houses there are children living. I went into one of those houses and I didn't want to touch anything; there was vermin crawling on the walls. There are back alleys up the street; the addicts come to the back alleys.

While we were on the street, in broad daylight, it was a cold, damp, drizzly day, about 5:30 at night, cars, mostly with out of town license plates, were driving by, brazenly, probably going to the three shooting galleries in one block. Three in one block. And maybe five homes were people live in some semblance of lifestyle that everyone would like to live in. These people bought their homes many, many years ago and they're trapped; they can't leave. Where are they going to go? Who is going to buy a house with three shooting galleries on the street? Who is going to buy a house where you have hypodermics lying on the street with viruses and with infection? Who is going to buy a house when you see the drugs, the litter, on the street and the garbage on the lots? And there's no maintenance of that part of the City.

In talking to the people I have learned, and in talking to some of the police officers privately, that one of the problems that we've had is that if you send a police officer to the area to monitor and sort of scare the people out of the area, they just go to the next block. But they've also done abominable things like riding over a police officer's foot, harrasing police officers out of the area, terrifying our police officers. Obviously, the answer is that we must send our police officers up with protection in two's and with dogs that are capable of scenting out or smelling out the drugs.

But more important, I understand that years ago, I believe it was under the Flaherty Administration, we had crime squads. I just asked Mr. Lyons about them and he said they were called crime squads where you went in with a battalion of police officers and you stayed there and you cleaned up the area. But even beyond that, if you were asking for a recommendation, and I speak only for myself, as a mother and someone who cares about people, and I think we all do, I think we ought to take the four or five people who live in the houses, compensate them so they can go and live in areas that are liveable, equal to their own homes. We do that when we take land by eminent domain, highways. Relocate the four or five families and level that whole area so there is not a shooting gallery on the street and certainly not three of them.

This is something that we cannot close our eyes to and I would like to suggest that those members of Council who've had a special interest, I think Jack Wagner and others, in doing something about the drug problem of our City because it doesn't affect only those who have to live in that squalor on the hill, but those who don't have come to where they do have, and it is a very sad scene. Most of the crimes in our nation are committed by people who are addicted to drugs. And, of course, if we took Noriega and Panama and hung them by the toes, I wouldn't be very unhappy. It is a very sad commentary. No child should have to live, no woman without a husband who is the head of a family should have to live, and no human being should have to live in that kind of squalor.

I call upon this Council to write a letter to the Mayor, to write a letter to Mr. Pampena and Mr. Cannon, to meet with us to discuss what we can do to correct this horrendous, horrendous problem. And I make that in the form of a motion and I hope someone will second it.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Michelle, that particular street has been zeroed in on the news for the last week. One of those houses that was a shooting gallery was owned by a minister of one of the churches.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't care if he was a rabbi.

The Chair:

I know; I don't care what he is either. He said that he didn't know it was a shooting gallery because he rented to two people who needed a roof over their heads. But, as I understand it, and from what I've been reading, they have been zeroing in on that area and they have been cleaning it up in the last week because it's been in the news.

Michelle Madoff:

Sophie, I'll take you up there and show you the street, and you tell me if anybody has zeroed in on it, and see if there's a policeman in sight. And you know what? It's right near the police station; it's a block away. The police are terrified, justifiably so because their lives are in danger.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President, in response, there is a problem there; there's no doubt about it. The narcotics detectives and the police have made a couple busts in the last couple weeks. Hopefully they'll make more if the problem persists. However, there is a problem with refuse that has been thrown on the streets. A week and a half ago I contacted Director Gaetano; the following morning he had some Public Works people out there cleaning it up. Since that time, there has been additional refuse in the form of needles and balloons and other paraphernalia used in drugs and narcotics that has been found in the same location. It obviously is a hot spot for narcotics and yes, we need to devote more attention to it but we need to do a whole lot of things. I think the problem that Councilwoman Madoff is referring to, though, is a public health problem in addition to the narcotics problem with the potential of AIDS and other diseases related to the drug paraphernalia that has been found in public places.

All I can say is that in the area of Public Safety, we're trying to do as much as we can. I agree, if there's a need we should have people evicted from homes, we should have demolition proceedings, if that's possible, in areas like that if those areas are continual hot spots. But in the narcotics area, we have doubled the number of narcotic agents, as all of you know, narcotics detectives, to address that problem in the City of Pittsburgh. It's just not a City problem; it's everywhere in this country. However, we can still do more, I believe, and I, for one, have tried to get Public Safety to put more and more emphasis on it. They have. We've ordered a couple surveillance vans for narcotics; they're still not completed but hopefully they will be in use. That will be another additional item in terms of tracking down people involved in drugs. I'd like to see more canines trained in the sniffing of drugs and, obviously, I'd like to see more education going on in the schools, both public and private.

It's a massive problem. Zeroing in on this particular area, I think, is good. But at the same time, the problem is everywhere in this Country. And in my opinion, it's the number one internal problem in America. We are getting very little help at the federal level. I think all of you remember when the President came out about a year and a half ago on the Just Say No To Drugs campaign, bills were passed in Congress to allocate a half billion dollars to fight narcotics. Still to this date, none of those dollars have reached the cities. We need more help at the federal level, at the state level, and also at the local level.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'll just be very brief. First of all, I want to thank Michelle for bringing up the issue of the Trent Street shooting gallery. But I think if we're honest with ourselves, as Councilman Wagner pointed out, we could probably find a Trent Street in every neighborhood throughout the City of Pittsburgh. That's an unfortunate situation and I feel very strongly that on-street drug trafficking, unfortunately, has increased in this City. I can take you to Second Avenue in Hazelwood, I can take you to places in Lawrenceville. In fact, probably in half of the business corridors throughout the City of Pittsburgh there is on-street drug trafficking.

What I would like to ask, and I wanted clarification from Michelle, I think what she's trying to get at maybe is not just a question of a communication to the Administration, but it's my understanding that there has been in existence some type of a drug task force in this City. Councilman Wagner mentioned a number of things that have happened over the last few years, of doubling the number of narcotics agents, etc. I would like to see some type of a public hearing to review the efficiency or the activities of this task force and talk generally about what kinds of progress they're making. I think it's a problem, obviously, that affects pretty much every neighborhood throughout the City of Pittsburgh and if we wanted to go looking for Trent Streets we could find them throughout the City of Pittsburgh. I think it's a problem of a lack of leadership in the City, quite frankly, and I would ask not that we have a letter or a communication from the Administration, but that we have some type of a public hearing.

I know I got a call from a gentleman in Hazelwood the other night and that was one problem that he was facing. We heard a public hearing a month ago from citizens in Lawrenceville about on-street drug trafficking down at the bottom of Stanton Avenue. I would ask that clarifying Michelle's point, that we have a formal public hearing on this issue and try to get down to the issues and afford the opportunity of community representatives to meet also.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, speaking for myself, since I brought the issue up, we cannot throw up our hands and say this is a problem that's everywhere. The greatest hypocrisy in the world is Nancy Reagan saying Just Say No To Drugs, and the President not doing very much about Panama, as far as I'm concerned, and doing business with the people and the countries that provide the drugs for our country.

What I want to see happen, and I will be very specific, I want to meet with the Safety Directors, Mr. Wagner; he chairs this committee. I want to meet with a representative of the Mayor and I don't care if it means putting tenfold the investment we have into our narcotics control. We have to do it. And do you know why we have to do it? Because it's going to be the best money we ever spent. The greatest burden and cost to this City in crime is created by people on drugs and people who have a drug habit. It will be the biggest bargain we'll ever have if we concentrate on getting rid of the problem of narcotics. I know we're not going to eradicate it; I'm not stupid. I know it's an on-going problem worldwide, but we have to make this a community that will understand if you want to deal in drugs go to Ohio or go to some other place. I don't mean Ohio; I'm not trying to offend Ohio. Just get out of our City; we're not going to allow it. And if it takes a referendum question on the ballot that says to our community, are you willing to pay X more dollars a year to have enough police officers — That's why the bill we voted on today on GASCARD is so important, because we're talking about the equivalent of 72 more police officers being out there to work. We need to have teams of police officers; we need more police officers. We know the Administration has said we need more police officers and they're in the process of trying to give them to us and we're getting more classes. But this must be accelerated and we cannot stop and throw our hands up and say, "Gee, it's a problem but we can't solve it" because we must do something to make a tremendous dent in this problem and we have to do it with the school systems as well.

Mr. Wagner:

I have one last comment here, if I may. The issue of narcotics, for anyone here to believe that you can address that problem with a very limited amount of time and people, you're fooling yourself. I have thousands of hours in Public Safety working on this problem. I have a six-page report in the office that was done two years ago suggesting many things to be done, one of which was a task force that really is not in existence. And I'll say that publicly. Everyone has their own little groups that are working on the problem, but there's no major task force on the problem. It takes Federal people, it takes State people, it takes County people, it takes City people. The City is devoting more effort and more money to this problem than anyone is locally, at the present time. We have 24 full-time narcotics detectives; there's no municipality around the City that has one. We have people working on it full-time. There have been recent arrests of people that have been convicted; you've all read about them in the newspaper and I'm not going to mention them. Our people within the City are doing a good job in that area. They truly are. And we've devoted more money towards buying narcotics; that budget has been doubled. In the budget two years ago we've gotten equipment.

We still need to do some more things but a meeting with me, Councilwoman Madoff, isn't enough. This takes a constant daily activity on your part and on everyone's part. My number one recommendation in my report two years ago was that every elected official at all levels of government carry this burden, should carry this burden more so than anyone. Not the police; I'm talking about the Council, the Mayor, the Commissioners, the State Legislators, the School Board elected officials. They're the people that have to get more involved in this problem. If this problem is going to be attacked, it has to be attacked on all levels, by all entities of government.

Michelle Madoff:

Especially our judges: let's take them on a tour.

Mr. Wagner:

You're right, including the judicial system that is too light on people that are caught with narcotics. Too much leniency is granted there. We have to build more jails if we have to. But the problem has to be address at all levels. This is a massive problem in our society, not just in the City of Pittsburgh. As a matter of fact, it hasn't hit the City of Pittsburgh the way its hit other cities. And if you read the New York Times and you read some other newspapers and see how massive the problem is, the Mayor of New York City just recently extended his narcotics people from, I believe, 25 or 30 to 125. And he still isn't going to put a dent in the problem. But it has to go on at all levels, most importantly in the educational area.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, specifically, I would like to see a tour; this Council and the Police together at the same time. I want to invite the judiciary to join us on that tour; I want the judges to see what those people are living in.

And with all due respect to my colleague, Mr. Ferlo, there's no question, I get calls, that in a back alley in Brookline you'll see the occasional hypodermic needle or you'll see it in Squirrel Hill or you'll see it in Shadyside. I'm not talking about the occasional; I'm talking about something nobody can believe until you've been there and seen it. You cannot walk down the street without hundreds of hypodermic needles and hundreds and hundreds of balloons where you've had drugs. We're talking about something entirely different. The problem is universal but we must address the greatest festering cancer immediately and we cannot let it fester any longer.

I want to get a letter out inviting everybody on that tour, Mr. Perry, the judiciary, the Police Department, the Commissioners if they want to come, the Mayor's Office, and every member of this Council. And I want you to see what I've seen with your own eyes and then you will feel differently. It's like the time we were trying to clean up the coke ovens and the head of the State Department of Environmental Resources couldn't believe it until he heard Foerster say it's like hell on earth. And it wasn't until he toured the Clairton Coke Works that he understood it. You don't feel a cut on somebody else's hand; you have to go and be there and feel it and see it.

Mr. Lyons:

I would like to say this in closing. Where does the trafficking of narcotics begin? At one time it was thought it was only among the poor and the black. But you need money. Narcotics trafficking is everywhere. As recent as last week you saw that an educator was found who had 30 years of services teaching school trafficking narcotics. Certainly we need to expound the police department, narcotics agents.

And further, we need to inform the people to tell where the people are. In the first place they're telling you that they're guilty too that do not use it; when they know where it is, they won't tell you because they have fear for their own self and their children. Last month when we had a public hearing here on February 9th, we had several people in upper Lawrenceville that were saying, "Sure, I know where narcotics are but if I tell, then I suffer reprisal." We have to overcome this and I think everybody should be involved.

Not too long ago, within the last month, we had a fireman caught in a shooting gallery. Certainly, you don't know who to look for but I know we need to increase our efforts to write this Sodom and Gomorrah condition out that exists in our cities.

And certainly, as Michelle has previously said, the four or five innocent families on Trent Street, if it were possible by eminent domain to remove them somewhere where they would have a decent and a whole quality of life — There cannot be too much exhausted here again, for the safety of our children and our society in Pittsburgh.

The Chair:

Okay, that issue is closed.

Mr. Ferlo:

Point of clarification. We went from a letter to the Mayor, a public hearing, and Michelle is suggesting a tour. I'm for any and all of those; I just want to be clear on what the action was.

Michelle Madoff:

All three.

Mr. Ferlo:

The other problem with the tour, quite frankly, is if we go with TV cameras and an entourage, that's all well and good, but you're not going to see what you want to see in terms of on-street drug trafficking.

Secondly, I think our responsibility is to provide oversight to the Department of Public Safety. We should meet with the individuals responsible in the department, in this case, Director Cannon and whoever else, and find out to date what's been happening, what's not happening, what kinds of new resources do they need. I think our responsibility is to make Public Safety work. Mr. Wagner says it is working. It's very possible that there are additional resources and activities that are needed. I would suggest, and I have no problem with the tour, but Michelle, I don't live at 1000 Grandview Avenue and I do get out to every neighborhood throughout the City

Michelle Madoff:

What's that got to do with where I live?

Mr. Ferlo:

Your comments earlier that somehow members of this Council have some rosy colored glasses about conditions of the neighborhoods; I don't need a lecture on that. The point is, what we need to do is create some activity and here from our department directors. I have no problem with the tour but I think our responsibility is to interact with the Department of Public Safety Director on this issue.

The Chair:

I think on this issue there's a lot of things that the Department of Public Safety won't even be able to tell us. They can't divulge their plans, their operations, very well; they'd give it all away. So, decide what you want to do.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, I'll restate what I said. I want to do all three things. I think through Jack Wagner, since it's his committee, I would like to ask him respectfully to set up either a post agenda or, preferably, a hearing to find out whether indeed we can do what the Mayor of New York thinks is important and triple the number; whatever is needed to provide more narcotics people and police officers on any area where we have a problem. But particularly to zero in on the festering that I saw of this horrible cancer, and, incidentally, it isn't just hypodermic needles and balloons, it's a garbage dump. Litter like you cannot believe. Pop bottles, broken glass, rats. It's an unbelievable situation. We have a responsibility to start.

Secondly, with reference to what Mr. Ferlo said about traveling with cameras, you don't announce when you're going. We set it up through Mr. Wagner, we go with the police, we take some representatives of the courts and we let them see what's going on first-hand on an unscheduled meeting.

Thirdly, I don't think there's any harm in sending a letter to the Administration and to Mr. Cannon expressing our concern. Again, if Jack wants to do it, I have no problem, but I'm asking Mr. Perry to send a letter saying that this is a situation that must be addressed immediately because of the impact on the whole community and the dollars we can save.

When you see people murdered and you see pictures, they know who the murderer is, you see his eyes glazed over, one may guess that that person is on drugs and probably 99.9 percent of the time you're right.

Now, on another subject.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President, I think in the future I would prefer the old system where everybody have their limited five or six minutes and just outline the various issues at the end of the meeting.

The Chair:

That's what I've tried to do and I've tried to limit each person to one remark.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, Madam President, Mr. Ferlo asked that we stay with one subject and have input. You agreed to that and —

Mr. Ferlo:

No, I didn't ask that; you asked that.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, his exact words, "as long as I don't relinquish the floor, I don't mind discussing each subject independently".

I have not relinquished the floor. You gave me the floor and I have two subjects. I let everybody have their input on the first and I'd like to go to the second one.

The second one is one, in magnitude to the other which may be a mountain, this one is a pimple. On this pimple, last Wednesday, I believe, a member of this Council took it upon himself to break the lock on the lighting system because there were cameras here at a hearing that I believe he had helped to organize. It was a very worthwhile hearing; it was on Duquesne Light. But to damage City property — I spoke to Brother Richard who is very disturbed, Mr. Ferlo; he has not heard from you yet. He is upset — I was not here; I had to go to another commitment on the Refusniks but I believe Ms. Johnson was here — that the lock was broken. The lock is only $15.00; you can kick in the $15.00, Mr. Ferlo but it's the labor to repair it. But Brother Richard was concerned that if they had been working on that system in the afternoon and nobody knew about it, for anyone to touch it was unconscionable.

I'd like to respectfully ask that that never happen again, that no member of Council take it upon themselves to touch property that is not their right to touch. And Brother Richard has told me that any time, if anybody would just give him the courtesy of a telephone call, if the cameras were coming in from the television stations and you needed power, just to tell him and he will provide somebody and he will pay them overtime to be here to provide whatever lighting. He is not uncooperative, but for us to have anyone go in and damage the equipment is absolutely an unconscionable kind of thing. I say $15.00 is only a pimple but when you talk about what it could have meant, I think somebody had to raise the issue here and everybody sort of felt they didn't want to do it. I've got a big mouth and it needed to be said.

Mr. Ferlo:

First of all, I don't know what Michelle is talking about.

Michelle Madoff:

Yes, you do know what I'm talking about. You broke the lock on the light switch box.

Mr. Ferlo:

Michelle, if I were you, I'd be accurate in your information. If you would like an explanation on what happened, I'll be glad to give it to you.

Michelle Madoff:

I would be happy to hear it.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'll be glad to give it to you.

Michelle Madoff:

Give it to everybody.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President, on another issue

Michelle Madoff:

I think you need to answer the question. You say I'm wrong — Were you here, Ms. Johnson?

Linda Johnson:

No, I was not.

Michelle Madoff:

Who was here that night the box was broken?

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President, point of order. This meeting is out of control.

The Chair:

Yes, it's out of order. Mr. Ferlo?

Mr. Ferlo:

On a more important issue, since Michelle is totally off base. Last week I went out and spoke to the Pittsburgh School Board. As I indicated, I was very concerned and I think all members of Council were concerned about the issue of the four percent wage tax. All of us have reiterated our concern about trying to get the School Board to meet cooperatively with City Council in some kind of a joint planning process.

I delivered a message and I gave the President and members of Council a copy of my remarks last week. I think it was a level-headed attempt to try to communicate to the School Board. Unfortunately, I felt like I was addressing nine individuals who had succumbed to a taxidermist because, unfortunately, they were there listening but I don't think they heard anything I said. So, I want to put Dr. Milliones and the School Board on notice that I will be back out again at the next month's public hearing to see if I can generate some response from my request. And that request was, very clearly, that they set up some type of mechanism with us. I had made the suggestion that Mayor Caliguiri moderate and share the planning process regarding tax reform.

Again, everybody is concerned about the four percent wage tax. It's been pointed out consistently that the four percent is not just levied by this legislative body but is levied by members of the Pittsburgh School Board.

I also raised the suggestion with them that they cablecast their public hearings because, unfortunately, many citizens are not able to attend the School Board meetings and, in fact, many citizens are not aware of a large number of the concerns and activities of the School Board.

So, I want to put the Board on notice that I'll be back out again next month to try to solicit their input on the tax reform question. Thank you, very much.

Mr. Ferlo moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, March 7, 1988.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Lyons

Council adjourned.

ONE-HUNDRED TWENTY-FIFTH COUNCIL

SOPHIE MASLOFF ..... President
MICHAEL PERRY ..... City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON .. Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, March 28, 1988

PRESENT:

|                 |              |
|-----------------|--------------|
| Mr. Coyne       | Mr. Pollock  |
| Mr. DePasquale  | Mr. Wagner   |
| Mr. Ferlo       | Mr. Woods    |
| Mr. Lyons       | Mrs. Masloff |
| Michelle Madoff | (Pres't)     |

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Coyne:

Could I have Mr. Clifton Pitts, Mr. John Tokarski and Mr. Milwaukee Fuller come forward, please?

Mr. Coyne presents

No. 479 WHEREAS, on Tuesday, March 29, 1988, the communities of Hazelwood, Glenwood and Glen Hazel will celebrate the Grand Opening of the "Carbarn", a senior center and community center; and

WHEREAS, the Carbarn is a historical landmark in the community which was first constructed in 1890 to provide horse and carriage service to residents and was later used to house electric trolley cars; and

WHEREAS, the Carbarn sat dormant for many years after trolley services were discontinued in 1964, but was rediscovered through the efforts of Citiparks and Mr. Milwaukee Fuller in their search for a senior citizen facility; and

WHEREAS, the Hazelwood, Glenwood, and Glen Hazel Council, Inc. (HGGH) will occupy a part of the beautifully refurbished building which has been restored as a tribute to an era of the community; and

WHEREAS, the HGGH Council is a non-profit organization which provides social services such as transportation, education, job counseling and information and referrals.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh join in the community celebration for the grand opening of the "Carbarn"; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of Pittsburgh commend the HGGH Council and its Board of Directors for their contributions to the community over the past 23 years, and wish them the very best in their efforts to serve the needs of the community in the future from their new headquarters.

Mr. Coyne moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Coyne:

I'd like to give everyone here a chance to speak. The resolution calls for and says that Citiparks has a lot to do with the restoring of the Car barn, which is true, but the one fellow here, Mr. Milwaukee Fuller was one of the prime motivators of the Hazelwood community and he's somebody that stayed on the goal of creating a senior citizen and a community center down at the Car barn facility. I think without his efforts, we'd still be looking for a new center in Hazelwood.

So, first of all, I'd like to have Mr. Clifton Pitts, the Director of the HGGH speak, and Mr. John Tokarski, the President of the Board of Directors, and then Milwaukee Fuller, please.

Mr. Pitts:

Councilman Coyne, President of Council, members of Council, on behalf of the HGGH Council, I would like to thank the City of Pittsburgh for taking this time and opportunity for recognizing them. Thank each and every one of you.

Mr. Tokarski:

Councilmen, fellow Councilmen, I'd like to thank the Mayor and yourselves, the City Administration, on behalf of myself, the Board of Directors, and the residents of the Greater Hazelwood area.

It's rather unique; Hazelwood is a lot like the spirit of the City itself. It was always a community, a neighborhood that thrived on the blue collar manufacturing atmosphere that has been associated with the City and through the years we've gone through rather a change, a renovation, a bringing up in the times. And I find that a resolution and an honor such as this is rather your acknowledgement that we're on the right track and we're moving ahead along with the City of Pittsburgh. And on behalf of the residents, we'd like to thank you.

Mr. Fuller:

President of Council, Councilman Coyne and Councilmen, I stand here to thank you for the input that you have given to help us to accomplish this feat, something which was a long time coming. But there's something that I must stand here and say, that I want to give credit to Councilman Coyne, especially, for his input and for the attention that he has given to us to help us to carry this thing through.

And I want to say to you all, tomorrow is our grand opening and there is an open invitation to you. So, those of you that can attend, we welcome you. And I say again, thank you, Councilman Coyne, for just thinking about us, for just coming forward to talk to us. Thank you.

And I want to thank the Mayor who so graciously helped us, him and his constituents. Mayor Caliguiri, thank you. Thank you all.

Mr. DePasquale:

May I say a word? I just want to congratulate the gentlemen, especially Mr. Milwaukee Fuller. When he worked for me I told him he was going to succeed someday and he wouldn't believe me.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Mr. Lyons presents

No. 480 WHEREAS, the Alliance of Bikers Aimed Toward Education is a Pittsburgh based non-profit organization; and

WHEREAS, A.B.A.T.E. participates in civic activities, Toys for Tots, Jerry's Kids and the Central Blood Bank; and

WHEREAS, A.B.A.T.E. further supports local charities such as the Buhl Science Center's Christmas Angel Program and donates regularly to WQED's telethon; and

WHEREAS, it is important to A.B.A.T.E. to maintain a good image for bikers.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby proclaims the week of June 6 through June 11, 1988 as Motorcycle Awareness Week in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Lyons moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Lyons:

This is Mr. DeWorken and he will have a word or two to say.

Mr. DeWorken:

Madam President and members of City Council, I am the public relations officer for the Allegheny County Chapter of A.B.A.T.E. and I would like to thank you all, especially Otis Lyons, for introducing this resolution.

We are going to be working hard towards Motorcycle Awareness Week, June 6th through June 11th, to maintain a good image for bikers who have been so stereotyped by Hollywood. We want you to know that we are active in your community; we are working here. We are citizens just like yourselves. And when you do see us riding down the road in our black leather, on our Harley-Davidson motorcycles, give a little wave to us because we know that you're there too. Thank you very much.

The Chair:

Thank you very much.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President and members of Council, may I call on Patricia Shehorn and Mr. George Jacoby to please come forward.

It is with great pleasure that I give this resolution today and after you've had a chance to make whatever comments you will, I would like to point out why I have a special interest in this field or this resolution.

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 481 WHEREAS, the Partnership for Medical Renaissance, which is composed of Presbyterian-University Hospital, Eye and Ear Hospital, and the Medical and Health Care Division of the University of Pittsburgh, has pledged financial support to the City of Pittsburgh amounting to $11.1 million over the next ten years; and

WHEREAS, the Partnership for Medical Renaissance notes that over 78% of its patients and a majority of patients in other Pittsburgh based hospitals come from outside the City of Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, the University of Pittsburgh and its major affiliated hospitals constitute one of the largest and most highly regarded academic medical centers in the world and are now embarking on a medical renaissance; and

WHEREAS, it is in the best interest of our hospitals to contribute financial support to help maintain the elements which make Pittsburgh America's #1 City and which will be key factors in attracting patients, money and quality staff to our area; and

WHEREAS, this goodwill contribution is an excellent example of government and the private sector joining together to strengthen the economic future of this city.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby congratulates Mayor Richard S. Caliguiri for his successful accomplishments in securing financial support for the City of Pittsburgh and hereby commends the Partnership for Medical Renaissance for their voluntary support to the City of Pittsburgh; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council hereby encourages unanimous financial support from all 17 Pittsburgh based hospitals so that this City can continue to provide the excellent quality services which help to make Pittsburgh America's No. 1 Choice!

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Before you come up to make a statement, I'd just like to mention that it's a good thing that we have Linda Sarno in our office because if she left, we wouldn't know where anything was in our files. Linda, at my request, went back and found a December, 1981 review - I used to do a critique of the budget every year until I realized it was hopeless; perhaps this year it will not be so hopeless - In 1981, I stated, it is my belief that a fee for service must be levied by the Administration to collect some revenue from the 30 percent - and at that point I said 30 but I believe we're up to 40 - tax entities in our City who are provided with a service such as fire, police, litter removal, street paving and repairs, salting of streets and snow removal.

Now, Mike Perry will have somewhere in his files a bill that I introduced which failed miserably, because I guess it was an idea before it's time, which said that the fee should be based on square footage. What would happen to the hospitals if the City didn't go out and clean up the litter, didn't provide police protection in the immediate area surrounding the hospital so that people feel safe in the garages when they go to park, if we didn't wash your streets, make sure fire people were available?

Obviously an enlightened hospital has seen the light and I hope that the other hospitals will not stand on the issue of it's going to cost us money and we'll be innovative and creative and come up with some way that will not put undue burdens on themselves and we'll meet with the Administration to come up with some mechanism where they too will contribute, perhaps on a square foot basis, to providing for the services that the City taxpayers must go into their pockets every year on a debt service. And not only do City taxpayers pay City taxes and Federal taxes, but we pay the County taxes, and we pay the entire debt service as City residents. The City of Pittsburgh residents and taxpayers burdened with the four percent wage tax are just being hit so hard that it doesn't help all of us. This is not us against them, not City against County, but let's work out a way where the other hospitals will make some attempt to follow in the steps of Patricia Shehorn and the hospital she represents.

Ms. Shehorn:

Madam President and Councilmembers, Presbyterian University Hospital, Eye and Ear Hospital and the Medical and Health Care division are truly proud to have entered into this partnership with the City. We firmly believe that a strong City will lead to a stronger academic medical center. Thank you very much.

Mr. Jacoby:

Madam President, on behalf of Mayor Caliguri, I'd like to thank Council for recognizing this event. I'd very much like to thank the University of Pittsburgh and its health-related facilities for being good corporate citizens and recognizing that the best interests of the City of Pittsburgh and its employers are often mutual. Thank you.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 482 WHEREAS, JOSEPH RHODES, JR. was recently nominated by Governor Robert P. Casey to serve on the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission; and

WHEREAS, JOE RHODES was educated at Harvard University and the California Institute of Technology and has a history of public service that is uncommon in its breadth and its commitment; and

WHEREAS, JOE RHODES served as a Member of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, served as a Consultant to the Counsel for the President of the United States and to the Secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, served as a Member of the President's Commission on Campus Unrest and the President's Commission on Voluntary Service, served as a Member of the Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency and currently serves as Deputy Secretary for Development for the Pennsylvania Department of Commerce; and

WHEREAS, in addition to his public service, JOE RHODES has been a Professor at the University of Pittsburgh and at the University of Massachusetts, a consultant in efforts to develop Latin America and Southeast Asia and the Manager of Strategic Minority Investments for Westinghouse Electric Corporation; and

WHEREAS, JOE RHODES has also served on the Steering Committee of the National Urban Coalition and on the Pennsylvania Council on Humanities; and

WHEREAS, throughout his public and private life, JOE RHODES has revealed an understanding of the plight of those "in the dawn of life, those in the twilight of life and those in the shadows of life" as Hubert Humphrey described; and

WHEREAS, JOE RHODES' compassion, intelligence, integrity and record of service make him uniquely qualified to serve as a Public Utility Commissioner and he would bring to this important position, character, fairness and talents which would enable him to be of enormous benefit to the people of Pennsylvania.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh thanks and commends Governor Casey for nominating this extraordinary individual to the Public Utility Commission and the Council strongly urges the Senate of Pennsylvania to confirm the nomination of JOE RHODES as expeditiously as possible.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

Madam President, just one comment on this. There's only one negative drawback to Governor Casey's appointment of Joe Rhodes to the Public Utility Commission and that is that we'll be losing him as the Deputy Director of Commerce for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania which is, of course, also an extremely important post.

I'm hopeful that he will be able to be replaced by someone close to him in competence and commitment, but I think that as we recently saw with the Duquesne Light increase that individuals with fairness and intelligence and commitment are very, very important on the Public Utility Commission and I think Joe Rhodes is the most extraordinary individual that could be appointed to this position and I strongly urge that the Senate confirm him as soon as possible.

I would ask that a copy of this resolution be sent to the appropriate members of the Senate in charge of the confirmation process.

The Chair:

Mr. Perry, will you see that that is done? Thank you.

Bill No. 413

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution nominating the South Side Pittsburgh Works, LTV Steel Corporation to be an Historic site under Section 513 of Chapter 1007 of the Pittsburgh Code."
—(SPONSORED BY MR. POLLOCK)

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, on Bill 413, every one of us has been lobbied not once but probably three times by a gentleman whose initials are W.W. He's called me at home two or three times; he's been in all of our offices. He represents J & L and his purpose was, I believe, to ask for a one week delay promising that nothing would change if J & L would have the opportunity to come before us and make a presentation.

I have 20 years experience dealing with J & L on and off and I would like to read a letter, if I may, a very brief, quick letter that's from the History and Landmark Foundation which expresses my sentiments exactly. It was sent, I believe, to every member of Council. This is the Pittsburgh History and Landmark Foundation speaking.

"RE: Resolution to nominate the South Side Pittsburgh Works, LTV, to become an Historic site; Bill 413

Dear Ms. Madoff:

We understand that LTV Steel Corporation has requested a one week delay in Council's final vote on 413. We believe that this proposed postponement may only be used by LTV to seek further delays in initiating the appropriate City procedures for review of the historical significance of the site.

We must act now to authorize the Historic Review Commission to prevent the demolition of these important structures. Your vote review on Monday, March 28th, is critical."

I move that we do not hold this; I move that they have their equipment in place and are ready to move with their bulldozers. And I'm afraid that if we hold it we jeopardize the intent and goodwill of the community.

And I would also point something out. The people are going to have to negotiate with LTV and the actual purchase of property. We'd want to get the property at the most practical dollars and would in no way want to jeopardize negotiations. If they feel that it is necessary to move quickly and not to delay the creation of this area or designation of this area as an historic area, I believe they must know what they're talking about because they're jeopardizing the fact that it may even cost them some more money. They believe in the overall, the best good to be offered this community is to move expeditiously, right now.

This came to the attention of the members of Council who presented the bill, Mr. Pollock, I believe, because we knew that the equipment was in line, ready to bulldoze. I think we should not delay, not put this back into Committee. I think there is going to be a motion to do that and I think we must move very quickly on this bill because if we as Council are bulldozed, I think we're going to be in big trouble.

The Chair:

We haven't had a motion to delay it anyhow.

Mr. Coyne:

Madam President, I do agree with Councilwoman Madoff's comments on the holding but, first of all, I'd like to make an amendment to the bill as it reads; it would be in Section 2. It would say, "This resolution shall not affect any attempt by Steel Valley Authority to re-open the electric furnaces on this site."

I've been contacted by both the Tri-State Conference on Steel and the Steel Valley Authority, and, although they agree with the overall idea of what this is attempting to do, feel that as a safeguard something like this should be added.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'm all in favor of the amendment and I thank Mr. Coyne for introducing it.

On the actual bill, I would like to make a motion to recommit and I'd like to just briefly state that on Friday I believe Council President Masloff was in receipt of a letter from the Corporation, LTV, where they basically make an appeal to Council to hold for one week this legislation to allow them an opportunity to speak before Council concerning their plans for this site. In the end I will vote in favor of the motion for the nominating petition, but I do see an opportunity for the Company to at least address Council and I would argue that we at least should afford them the opportunity to communicate to Council. I would offer the same for a neighborhood group if they had a problem with a bill.

I don't think anybody has been described as more anti-corporate in their behavior over the last 15 years, but on this one issue, I do think that they should at least be afforded the opportunity to communicate to Council —

Mr. DePasquale:

Madam President, we haven't had a second on the motion and we can't have discussion until we have a second.

Mr. Woods:

Second.

The Chair:

Okay, now we're on discussion.

Michelle Madoff:

He moved to recommit; he needed a second.

The Chair:

Well, no, Mr. DePasquale made the point that we didn't get on the bill. He's talking about the bill. But we can't move on the bill until we finish discussion and we're now on discussion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Just to finish, concluding in the letter the Company is specifically stating, and I assume or presume that we would take them on their word, and I quote that they agreed that during this one week delay period they will not take demolition action on the property.

In the issue of fairness, I believe that they should at least be afforded the opportunity to speak to Council and if they do get that opportunity I do have some concerns that I would address to them and to our Solicitor again on the issue of the tax exempt status and again on the issue of environmental liability. There's at least one toxic waste dump that's present on this piece of property as listed by the EPA, and that's the Air Products and Chemicals site at 34th and Carson.

There are probably a myriad of concerns and questions that individual Councilmembers might like to address to this corporation and to our Solicitor.

Again, I'll state in the end I will vote for the nominating petition, but I see no harm in offering the courtesy to allow this company to address Council.

Thank you, Madam President.

Mr. Coyne:

On the recommittal. I don't agree with Councilman Ferlo on this issue. First of all, last week in deference to Councilman Ferlo we held a bill up that he was the Chairman of and I think that Councilman Pollock has looked into this issue and feels there's no problem with it. And I think in deference to him being the Chairman of this Committee, we should go through with it.

Also, I don't think anyone on this Council would attempt to be an historical expert. LTV will have their opportunity to present their case to the Historical Review Committee and they can discuss with the people who know the business what exactly is of historical significance and what isn't of historical significance.

So, I would ask my colleagues, please, not to hold this bill because I just don't see a reason for it. They will be in court; they will have an opportunity to defend their position. And I think we're to avoid the possibility of quick demolition on LTV's part and to do all we can to preserve that site, both as an historical landmark and as a viable operating facility we should go through with this right now. Thank you.

Mr. Lyons:

I have another question. I'm in favor of the bill, but if we owe J & L a courtesy, does Council have the right, or the City Solicitor, to put forth an injunction to stop them from raising any of this property? I'd like to ask the Solicitor that.

The Chair:

The motion before us now is to hold the bill. That's the motion that is before us now, to hold it for a week. If you want a legal opinion, I'll be glad to get it for you.

Mr. Lyons:

I understand that, but does the Council have a right, through the Solicitor, to issue an injunction? That's the question I'm raising to the Solicitor.

Parliamentarian:

As I said before, I can't respond in my capacity as Parliamentarian. I'm not here as the Deputy Solicitor.

Michelle Madoff:

I can answer that question and I think Mr. Pollock, as an attorney, can confirm what I'm saying. It's their property; they have the right to do anything they want with it. If we don't stop them from moving ahead, they can move within the hour to demolish whatever they wish to demolish.

If J & L is standing on good faith, if what they mean is to be good neighbors, we can pass this bill and they can come and talk to us. In any event, there's nothing to prevent them from having dialogue with this Council unless some people want to endear themselves to J & L, or LTV, for whatever purpose, in the long run there's nothing to lose by voting on this bill today and everything to gain. And we can invite J & L, LTV, to come here and discuss all the other issues such as hazardous waste and hazardous sites because under law we're still responsible. And we can invite them here to talk about the tax exempt property because in other communities when companies have left without regard for the employees, just taken their business like LTV and J & L have to their marketplace where they can make more money than staying on this site, they have donated the property to the communities. I don't see J & L giving us any property; I don't see any goodwill from that community saying, "We want to at least help the community; we'll donate our riversides", and we're going to give them a week or two where we could be sitting here talking with them? In any event, it has no bearing on this bill whatsoever.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, I think it's important to clarify what has happened in the last week. Councilman Pollock introduced a bill to make this an historical designation for it to go to the Historical Designation Commission, Committee, however it's referred to. First of all, that's not his Committee; it's in the Committee of Planning, Housing and Development under Councilman Lyons. I think that's an important point of clarification.

Number two, I believe Rule 8 was suspended on this legislation last week. It came up in Committee during that interim period between Wednesday and today. True a representative from J & L contacted each member of Council and asked each member of Council if a commitment was made in writing to do nothing on that site, would you please hold this bill for one more week so that we could come in front of Council and explain the site and what we want to do with it. I think it was a legitimate request that was made to me anyway, individually. I spoke with the individual and I also received a copy of the letter sent to you, Madam President.

Number three, all of our concerns, I believe, relate particularly to the Steel Valley Authority, number one, at this site. At least that's my number one concern. My number one concern at this site, and I should say this, is not historical designation; it's steel-making operations. It's to put Pittsburghers to work on that site as steel makers. Now, there has been a study done that the two electric arc furnaces at that site could be hooked in with a continuous castor and possibly be put back in operation if the proper financial funding becomes available.

That is what I would like to see happen, and I believe what this Council would like to see happen. And just to go back a few years ago, it was this Council, and I believe Councilman Woods was the Finance Chairman and he can correct me if I'm wrong, it was this Council that put the $50,000 up the first time for the Steel Valley Authority to initiate this study and the operation of that Authority. Since that time, in previous Councils, not this Council, previous Councils have also funded the Steel Valley Authority with the potential end result being the operation of these two electric arc furnaces. I personally would like to see that happen.

Now, I understand, in talking with some people over the weekend, that there are some things on that site that are critical to see the electric arc furnaces be put in operation. There's a water purifying plant, I understand, that ties into it. There's some other facilities that are very important that they're not touched.

I would like to see the J & L people ask us, this Council, to the site someday this week to take a look at all these facilities and then for us to have a much better understanding of what we're voting on prior to final passage of this legislation. As I indicated previously, my number one goal would be to see steel-making on this site; if not J & L, the Steel Valley Authority or some other steel entity, possibly a special's steel operation like the Metaltech that's on Second Avenue. I would like to see steel-making on the site. If that can't be the purpose of the site, possibly historical designation, or possibly both working together. That would be the ideal intent of this site, to see some steel actually being made on it and see some other facilities that are designated for historical. The public could actually go on and see some of the historical buildings and also see steel-making at the same time.

The point I'm trying to make is that I don't see, as long as we have a commitment in writing, anything wrong with holding this bill one week. At the same time, I'm making a request to the J & L people - I don't know if they're in this room; I know some of the History and Landmarks people are here - but I would like them to set up a time, not necessarily at our Wednesday Council meeting because we all know the time constraints there, but possibly a time that we could visit that site and take a look at the facility.

Mr. Woods:

Madam President and members of Council, I signed interim approval on this piece of legislation. I intend on voting for this piece of legislation. But I see nothing wrong, especially since J & L has put it in writing to ask us to give a chance to speak to us for one week. It's the same old story with some of our colleagues; every time you disagree with them, you have an ulterior motive. Now, because we want to vote for this, or those who don't want to vote for it, we are going to endear ourselves to J & L. Why don't we get our act together here and just vote your conscience and every member of this Council can vote his conscience without having some other kind of motive.

I am going to vote for this bill when it comes up again, but I ask my colleagues to recommit this bill for one more week, especially after one of our colleagues say if you do vote for it, you're endearing yourself to J & L. Stand up the other way and be counted once, and quit letting people browbeat you.

Mr. DePasquale:

I wonder, Madam President, if we could learn the feelings of the maker of the bill on the recommittal.

Mr. Pollock:

I was going to comment. Since everyone said they're going to vote for it eventually, I can only wonder what the purpose for having an extra week to discuss it, and I think if there are ulterior motives I don't share the philosophy that it's to endear anyone to J & L or LTV. I think, though, that it's a wonderful opportunity to garner attention to make demagogic statements to attack the whole LTV corporate structure, whatever you want. It has nothing to do with the bill. If everyone is going to vote for it, then what purpose is to be gained by holding it one week? I don't want to play chicken with a major corporation. And their promise to not do any demolition during the week has nothing to do with the fact that the bids are out there and the extra week gains them time to have the bid process completed. So, the demolition is not affected by delaying a week, but the demolition bidding and getting everything ready to demolish is. So, that's what the extra week gains them.

I don't see what is to be gained by it; I think it's extremely dangerous. I think that people should know that all this bill does, if passed, is stop any demolition, stop any possibility of demolition of the site. The Steel Valley Authority supports this; they are afraid that if LTV comes in and demolishes certain parts of the site, then the whole idea of having steel-making on the site becomes moot. That is what it is all about here.

I support the idea of there being steel-making on the site. I was contacted by both the Steel Valley Authority and by the History and Landmarks Foundation. They are mutual in their benefits and I feel that if steel-making cannot occur here, then clearly an historic site should be there or they can work hand in hand. But to play chicken with LTV Corporation, I think, is doing a disservice to the people of Pittsburgh. And everyone says they're going to vote for it, so vote for it. There's nothing to be gained by waiting a week.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President, on the bill itself.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, Madam President. I had raised my hand to speak on the bill and you said there was enough conversation and you would not let me speak.

Mr. Wagner:

We spoke on the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

I asked to address the bill and I was told we've had enough conversation on the bill and let's vote. We've now voted on the bill.

The Chair:

No, it was on the motion that I said there would be no further discussion. Now we're on the bill. Is there any discussion on the bill itself?

Mr. Wagner:

Yes, not a lengthy discussion. I will vote for the bill, but I simply want to state that we have not been fair to a company that is based in the City of Pittsburgh, with a steel-making operation in the Hazelwood area. I think at the very least we should have done that.

In addition, I'd like to make the request, even in that the bill has not been held for one week, I'd still like to make the same request to J & L that an arrangement be set up for this Council, or at least this Councilmember, to go to the site and to look at each of the facilities on the site. As I indicated previously, and I'll say it again, it's my intent, number one, to see this site used for steel-making operation.

Michelle Madoff:

On the bill. As someone who has not only toured the J & L site but has been on top of the coke ovens and I've looked at schematics and I have copies of their layout, there is nothing to be gained by holding the bill. There is everything to be gained by moving quickly. There's nothing to prevent this Council to start a meaningful dialogue with J & L along the lines of what can you do to help this community, the community in which you have taken blood, sweat and dollars out of over the years and made lots of money. While the tides have turned, I think you have a responsibility to this community. What can you do to help this community? What are you willing to give back to this community? And I think that inviting them here and having some meaningful dialogue has no bearing on this bill but certainly should be pursued.

Mr. Coyne:

Madam President, I'd just like to call it to the attention of Council that LTV is not a Pittsburgh based corporation but a Dallas, Texas based corporation. LTV has not shown any consideration whatsoever to the Pittsburgh community or to the Pittsburgh working class. They have shut down blast furnaces, they have shut down electric furnaces, after they tell us it's going to provide many jobs for years to come. They have not given us one bit of consideration or one bit of consideration to the working class of the City of Pittsburgh or the neighborhoods where people's lives have depended upon it. I think if LTV has anything to say, it should not bother coming to this Council but to go to the Historical Review Commission, and there to try to weave their tales and see what they can possibly do before they demolish more buildings. Thank you.

Mr. Ferlo:

Point of information. When does the bill become law?

Mr. Pollock:

When it's advertised. This would move it up. The Home Rule Charter says that we can move it up to the date of the Mayor's signature.

Mr. Lyons:

I have a question. I'm in favor of the bill, but which one comes first; the Mayor's signature or the advertising?

Bill No. 340

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements or Supplemental Agreement or Agreements with a Consultant or Consultants for Landscape Architectural Design in connection with the Rehabilitation of Various Playgrounds; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 340, you know, I'd like to think I'm a pretty smart lady but every now and again I really get sucked in. I must tell you that McDermott did it to me again. Do you recall that at the last meeting I asked Mr. McDermott why he needed $27,000 for the design of two playgrounds? And incidentally, Mr. McDermott, if you're listening, and the taxpayers of this community, through the medium of modern science we are now taping on VCR all the marvelous statements by Mr. McDermott who clearly stated, it's a matter of the transcript on separate occasions, that indeed the money was for $27,000 for two playgrounds. He didn't say three, he didn't say four, he didn't say six; he said two. When I called Mr. Padolf, Mr. Padolf said, "Oh, he couldn't possibly have said that". I said, "Would you like to see the tape?"

I said to Mr. McDermott at the time, "Mr. McDermott, is your consultant at $14,000 each for these playgrounds because they're going to deal with the topography, waterlines, sewer lines, the escalation of the terrain?" He said, "Oh, yes; that's correct." And I said, "Well, in that case, this is the first time I'm going to agree with you that you should have consultants." —

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of order, Madam President. She's not on the bill.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm on the bill, Madam President. Mr. McDermott, on the bill, said, "Yes, that is correct."

I get back to my office, having voted to support him on consultants, and I get a phone call. The phone call said, "Councilwoman Madoff, do you know these are not new playgrounds, that these are existing playgrounds? And do you know that the consultant need only to take a tissue paper and trace over the existing plans?"

And I have here the McKnight Playground and I have here the Fineview Playground. One is dated 1977 and seems to already have had the design worked out, so I don't know what we need the consultant for; it seems it's done already. The other one has all the levels, measurements and topography. But I took it a step further. Two minutes before Council I called the Pete Jeffrey Associates, Inc. of Indiana and I called Recreation Equipment Unlimited, Broad Street Mall, and I spoke to Doris Vanyell, Project Manager of Recreation Equipment Unlimited and I spoke to Mr.

Pete Jeffrey and associates of the company, and both of them informed me there would be no charge, not a dime, to do a consulting layout plan. And we could take that plan and we could give it to anybody we want to estimate what it would cost to put in playground equipment.

It's the old story, Mr. Wagner, of a consultant for roofs or a consultant for sidewalks. This City has put roofs and sidewalks in for 100 years; we don't need a consultant for $27,000 or $5,000 or any other thousands to tell us what to do. You can take the free consulting and put it out as an RFP for bid.

I was had, and I urge my colleagues to reject the $27,000. Put it back into Committee, find out exactly what is being proposed and urge Mr. McDermott to send these two playgrounds out to the two companies who would be very eager to come up with a plan without a charge. And then we could look at it and determine whether they meet our needs and certainly we can go back to Construction and Engineering.

The four percent wage tax is directly affected by bills like this. This is the reason, Madam President and members of Council, that we can't lower our wage tax, because it's $27,000 here, $5,000 here, $100,000 over on Grant Street, and we're never going to be responsible to the taxpayers. And we've got to stop saying it's the suburbanites' fault when we don't clean our own house.

My motion is to recommit the $27,000; that Bill 340 be recommitment and it's $27,500 to design two playgrounds. If not, I'm going to sue to get this money back.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President, on Bill No. 340, I voted against this bill in Committee. One of the effective things of having the Wednesday session, and the reason why I'm glad that they are lengthy debates, is that you have dialogue and discussion with the Department Director. If the discussion with the Department Director is not one-sided, and if one listens to what the Department Director says, then one can make an informed decision, yes or no.

I understood what was being said by the Department Director and I voted no in the Finance Committee Meeting because this bill is not necessary; it's something that could be done in-house and I will vote no on it today. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Can we take that bill separately, Madam President? It's very confusing.

We will vote on all the bills in the Committee on Engineering and Construction; if you want to exclude any, that's your privilege.

Madam President didn't say you couldn't make one, did she?

Mr. Ferlo:

Fine. I would just like clarification before you monopolize the debate.

The Chair:

There's no further discussion unless it's on another bill.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, you said, "On the bills." I'd like to make a comment on the bill.

I have no problem with Mr. Ferlo making a comment.

Bill 340. And I will yield; you may go first.

designated as Block No. 16A, Lot No.
300, for $4,500.00; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, I have comments on Bills 338 and 339. As you know, we had that bill recommitted and Mr.
McDermott was here and it was established one of his staff people negotiated; he didn't know that his staff person had negotiated the cost which was $4,500 and $12,000 for Outdoor Advertising and Patrick Media.

Bills 338 and 339 address reimbursement to Patrick Media and to Pittsburgh Outdoor Advertising on the issue of putting a sewer under their sign, their outdoor sign. They wish to be reimbursed if they have to take this sign down and they're asking for $12,880. If indeed it has to come down, that's the fact of life. I don't think that checking around their figure is irresponsible.
However, we don't know if that's going to happen. Construction and Engineering has stated that we may be able to build a sewer while the Outdoor Advertising sign stays in place.

And also, on the other bill where they say they want $4,500 to reimburse them for "two months", and their signs cost $2,000 a month, that's what they generate in revenue on big outdoor signs, they are stating that if the sewer is built, they would lose that revenue. Well, if the sewer is built but they don't have to take their signs down, it seems to me that sometimes signs are sold for two or three months. You know, elections, sometimes for two or three months. When they sell a cigarette ad, they don't put a new one up every month. It would seem to me that we ought to monitor this bill and make a request to find out if indeed the sign comes down, and if indeed the sign stays up, whether they're losing their two months because even though construction is going on underneath and nearby, they're probably not losing a dime of revenue and we're talking about a $17,000 bill.

Could I have that letter go, Mr. Perry; just a request that they update us on what takes place on 338 and 339. Do they have to take down the sign and if they don't take it down, if they change the sign, are they going to maintain the existing advertiser so that there is no loss of revenue.

Mr. Woods:

Madam President and members of Council, I move to approve all reappointees and all members of Council.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

The Chair:

What about the new ones?

Mr. Woods:

We'll bring them in this Wednesday to be interviewed by Council.

The Chair:

All in favor of that motion?

Michelle Madoff:

I abstain and I'd like to explain my abstention, Madam President.. I believe Robert's Rules allows you to explain your abstention. And when you're through with the bills, all the other appointments, there are 24 appointments, 5 women, 1 minority — I've been on this Council 10 years in June; I served on a six month appointment to the Leasing Authority and I've not been reappointed. I think that if there's still such a great fear that I would audit whatever I sat on, that's the problem of the Administration. I do not plan to vote for anyone until my appointment to a board or commission is made.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

The Chair:

It was moved, with one abstention, that all of the members of Council and all of the reappointments were approved —

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of order, Madam President. Did we vote on Mr. Woods' motion?

The Chair:

Yes, with one abstention.

Mr. DePasquale:

In other words, we confirmed all the reappointments and all members of Council, but we're going to have all the others in for an interview.

The Chair:

Yes, on Wednesday.

Mr. DePasquale:

These are the ones we're voting on now?

The Chair:

He read them all so that you would be aware of which ones were reappointments and which ones were new ones. It was moved and seconded, with one abstention, that all the members of Council and all the reappointments are approved. The new people will be brought in on Wednesday for interviews.

Michelle Madoff:

On another subject. Madam President, I think all of us are aware of the crisis that exists in our City on the Koppers potential take over. I have some great concerns. I know that the Shearson Company has been dropped by the Allegheny County Sanitary Authority. Alcosan is one of their people representing them in investments. I know the City of Pittsburgh will not use them.

I heard today that Senator Heinz is introducing legislation that would make it very difficult for a hostile take over by the Beazer people out of England. But my great concern, and incidentally for those who may want to know, Shearson is the same as American Express. I'm going to evaluate whether I'm going to keep my American Express Card and I urge everyone else to do that. I, unfortunately, have charged some tickets on it and I owe them some money. But I'm going to look very carefully at what happens as to whether I will get rid of my American Express and take another charge card.

In this morning's paper there's a full page advertisement stating their position, the position of Beazer. And in paragraph six, for those who may not have read it or don't care, they point out that "while the Koppers board and management has encouraged unwarranted fear and panic in your community, they have been busy at work designing a drastic corporate recapitalization plan for Koppers including the possible sale of substantial portions of Koppers operation which would cause severe disruption to the Company's employees and community.

We have advised Governor Casey, Mayor Caliguiri and other public officials that we were prepared at any time to meet with them and explain first hand our intentions. We have offered again and again to meet with Koppers' management to discuss our plans but, unfortunately, they're unwilling to talk."

I have no way of judging whether it is appropriate for Koppers to meet with a hostile take over; I'm not a business genius. I don't think anybody on this Council is. But I think it is important that we do something before it is too late. We've lost Gulf; our major companies have cut back on employment. I arrived here in 1961; in 1988 we've gone from almost a 700,000 population to under 400,000. We can't afford to lose any more people.

It would seem to me that before we get to whether we should declare the Koppers Building an historic designation, and they can't take their building down or put it on wheels - I'm being facetious - that we need to have interaction with the Administration. We need to meet with our Mayor and we need to find out from Senator Heinz and others what they are planning to do to keep Koppers here. And further, we need to find out from Koppers whether this statement that is made by Beazer Company, that, "A substantial portion of Koppers operation will be sold which could cause severe disruption to the Company's employees and community" is true; severe disruption is a euphemism for laying people off and putting people out of work.

So, I suggest very strongly, Madam President, that you meet with the Administration and set up a meeting immediately, members of Council. Try to get some input from the legislative representative of Heinz' Office and to try to get Koppers to meet with us to say, "Is this true?" If indeed you go ahead with your plans to find a white knight, or what they're doing now is giving bonuses to stockholders to encourage them to vote against a take over, are they going to make up that money by cutting back on employment in this area? I don't want to find out after it has happened; I'd like to find out now if it's in the realm of possibility or whether we're going to generate more jobs. Or is there a good possibility that under the scenario Koppers is being accused by Beazer of indeed planning to cut back. I'd like to know, I think the public would like to know, I think members of this Council and the media would like to know.

Can we set up, Madam President, a request to the Mayor and to Koppers directly, that they meet with us and tell us what are the scenarios? One, in a hostile take over; two, in a white knight take over or a joint venture; and three, under the plan that they're anticipating now which is a bonus through generating revenue by sale of properties and by floating whatever corporate paper they can which is going to put a burden on their company. Are they planning to raise that money by putting people out of work and are they going to do it in our area? I think we need an answer to that question; those people working there are entitled to that. We can't sit idly by.

The Chair:

I'll be glad to write the letter and invite them.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President, I have three very, very brief points. One is, I note that in the appointments today that this individual member of Council, Mr. Ferlo, is not on the appointment list. I would remind the Administration that in the Home Rule Charter it is fairly specific that all Councilmembers shall be represented on an authority. That has not been the case. If there are vacancies on some of the other authorities, I will ask that Council introduce separate legislation making an appointment. I don't know if the Administration is holding out to organize an authority on doggy-do, but I would like a consideration and I communicated that desire months ago to the Administration. So, I would make that plea again.

On the issue of the public hearing tomorrow, I would make a motion that that public hearing tomorrow be televised concerning the trade union organizations who are coming in tomorrow to talk about the presence of non-union contractors on construction work. So, I'd like to make a motion to have the public hearing televised.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo:

Thirdly, very briefly, I submitted legislation today, five different bills under the banner known as the Pittsburgh Hunger Act and I would like to make a motion to hold these bills for a public hearing.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you very much, Madam President.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, on the first issue that Mr. Ferlo raised, since we're going to go through all of the issues then come back and discuss them afterward which is something new but this Council never surprises me. May I point out to my colleague, Mr. Ferlo, that I've been here over ten years and I had the distinct honor of being appointed to the Leasing Authority for six months and my term has expired. And while it may say in the Home Rule Charter that every member of Council should be appointed, don't count on it.

Mr. Pollock:

Two brief items, Madam President. On April 9th, the Smoking Ordinance takes effect and over the months, until that date, we've had numerous discussions, my office and Public Safety and the Legal Department and so forth.

Very instrumental in determining the interpretation and the enforcement and implementation of the ordinance have been some individuals from the private sector who have donated a considerable amount of time and expertise at no expense to the City and I wanted to publicly thank them at this time because there contributions should be noted; specifically, Attorney John Greeno from the law firm of Berkman Ruslander Pohl Lieber & Engel has spent a considerable amount of hours reviewing the ordinance, drafting enforcement guidelines, meeting with Public Safety officials and the Law Department, and never submitted a bill nor even considered submitting one. So, I really want to thank him and his firm for allowing him to spend the time that he did.

In addition, Chuck Vukotich from the County Health Department and Bill Godshall from the County Health Department also donated a considerable amount of time to the implementation of this ordinance.

One other item. On Sunday, April 10th at 7:30, the Pittsburgh Public Theatre will be presenting the Second Annual Benefit Performance for the benefit of the Pittsburgh AIDS Task Force. The production is "The Normal Heart" and this is the second year in a row where the Public Theatre is having all the receipts from that night, as well as additional ticket prices of a greater contribution price, be turned over to the Pittsburgh AIDS Task Force.

So, I want to thank the Pittsburgh Public Theatre and its Executive Director, William Gardner, for doing that and I wanted to let people know about this. If they're interested in obtaining tickets, call 363-6503 to get information about this event.

Mr. DePasquale:

If I may, Madam President. There has been some talk, actually a proposal, that they may have a mall in the Downtown district. I realize that's a long way off. But as someone stated, I think a couple Councilmembers, if they don't have free parking in that mall they may as well forget about it.

But the point I'm trying to bring out is the overzealous tagging and towing that's going on in the City of Pittsburgh is absolutely horrible. They've killed Downtown. Just the other day I stopped down Sol Mintz, bought a suit, two for that matter and I'm paying for them with my own money by the way, but at any rate, while I was in there --

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, I object to Mr. DePasquale talking about his suits because when I talked about looking out the window at a barge that was under discussion, he objected to my speaking about a barge. I was on the bill; his suits are not on the bill.

Mr. DePasquale:

May I continue?

The Chair:

Please finish.

Mr. DePasquale:

While I was in the store a gentleman I happen to know, and that's beside the point, had his car towed. He was being fitted for a suit also. The only point I'm trying to make is that perhaps we can write a letter to the Chief of Police of the City of Pittsburgh or to the head of traffic to use a little discretion, especially between four and six. The least they can do is go into those stores and ask if the people whose cars are out there are in those stores. Even if they've ticketed the car, at least give the person a chance to get that car out of there before it's towed. I understand the towing charge now is something like $90. The businessmen in town have said this has been going on for some time and they've just thrown their hands up.

In that block I'm talking about where Sol Mintz there's five vacant store rooms and I guess you know down the other end of the street there on Liberty Avenue and Penn Avenue, there are so many that you can't even count them. So, they've just driven these people out of business. Every little bit helps and if they could use just a little discretion in regards to ticketing and towing.

The Chair:

Are you asking that we send a letter to the Public Safety Department?

Mr. DePasquale:

I'm not asking them not to do their job; I'm asking that they give somebody a warning, at least on a towing. It's murder. You have a guy towed, he comes out and has to get a cab to go down and get his car or whatever at ninety some dollars. It's ridiculous.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, on the same subject that Mr. DePasquale raises. I think we've raised this issue before in Council, that we ought to do what Alexandria, Virginia does. They have meters located at every single place you could possibly think of so people can park. They use the streets for parking, unlike Pittsburgh who keeps you off the Downtown streets, but they have specific hours and you cannot park during the rush hours. I think if we move in that direction, that we have more meters put up, that you cannot park for certain hours, we will give more parking spaces to people. If we just say no parking, say, four to six, but people could park Downtown from six o'clock on, going to restaurants. We will bring more people into the City. I think he's absolutely right; I think we're overzealous and I don't think we're doing ourselves any good. I think that other than the rush hour we should allow parking on streets even without meters as long as we're not obstructing the passage of the traffic. I think we are really not operating in our own best interest. And it might be a good idea to take a driving tour through the Downtown area and other parts of the City and for this Council to recommend streets that we would suggest to the Administration to be available for parking.

Michelle Madoff moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, March 14, 1988.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. DePasquale

Council adjourned.

WHEREAS, they will travel to London via British Airways for a four day tour of the City, with the highlight of their trip being a visit to the House of Commons in London where important decisions of government are made; and

WHEREAS, these young "Pittsburgh Ambassadors for Academic Excellence" leave today, April 4, 1988, to begin "an experience of a lifetime".

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT

RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh extend these exemplary, outstanding students our sincere congratulations and wish them a safe and exciting trip to London.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Coyne:

May I have the students from the Joseph M. Katz Graduate School of Business come forward, please?

I'd like to state while the folks are coming up right now that the projects that these folks have been working on in coordination with the Steel Valley Authority and the Tri-State Conference on Steel is an excellent example of our educational institutions working collectively with the Steel Valley Authority and working for the development of our industrial base and looking for ways and means to improve the lot of the workers who have been displaced by the inferior industry that has been going on lately.

Mr. Coyne presents

No. 541. WHEREAS, the Joseph M. Katz Graduate School of Business of the University of Pittsburgh has offered its current Masters of Business Administration students a project course in cooperation with the Steel Valley Authority; and

WHEREAS, this course, under the direction of Professor Carrie R. Leana, offers graduate credits to eleven students who have worked tirelessly conducting several studies on the feasibility of reopening the South Side electric furnaces; and

WHEREAS, the Steel Valley Authority has found the information in these studies to be invaluable and the assistance of these students to be immeasurable; and

WHEREAS, the Katz School, through the creation of this project course, has provided valuable research for redevelopment in the Pittsburgh area with no cost to any local government or local authority.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby commend Dean H. J. Zoffer and his administration at the Joseph M. Katz Graduate School of Business of the University of Pittsburgh for their contribution to redevelopment in the Pittsburgh area; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Council commends Dr. Carrie R. Leana and the students of the project course, John D. Betzler, R. Clairborne Capute, Nancy J. Deramo, Shari Foehring, Stefan A. Herzer, Michael Krajovic, William D. MacBlane, Karen Piercy, Anita Prizio, Larry D. Sadjia and Curt D. Zihmer for investing so much time and effort in projects that are sure to aid in the redevelopment of industry in the Pittsburgh area.

Mr. Coyne moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Coyne:

I'd like to have Professor Carrie Leana and also Dr. Dean Zoffer give a few words and Bob Erikson, if you'd like to come too, please and give a word from the Steel Valley Authority.

Professor Leana:

Madam President, members of Council, Mr. Coyne, we thank you for honoring us here today with this resolution. As Councilman Coyne said, we've been working this semester with the Steel Valley Authority on some projects that investigate re-opening the electric furnaces on the South Side of the City. As you know, these furnaces have been closed for the past several years by the LTV Corporation and this has resulted in the loss of significant tax revenues for the City and also the loss of hundreds of jobs for area residents. We are very happy to be working with the Steel Valley Authority on these projects.

I wanted to take this opportunity to commend Bob Erikson and Jay Weinberg - Bob is with the Steel Valley Authority and Jay is with the Tri State Conference on Steel - for working with us so diligently and so competently this semester.

Finally, I want to take this opportunity to join Council in commending my eleven students here who, more than anyone else, have contributed to the project's success. Thank you.

Dr. Zoffer:

Mr. Coyne, on behalf of the Joseph M. Katz Graduate School of Business, I thank Council for this resolution. There is not much more valuable service that we can render as a university than to be relevant to the community of which we're a part. This is a great opportunity for us to indicate how academia and the community can work together in common cause.

I'm very grateful to the students who worked hard on this and to Professor Leana who directed them, and I hope there will be many other opportunities when we can show the relevance of our business school to this community and to help focus on some of its problems. Thank you very much.

Mr. Erikson:

The Steel Valley Authority has found the projects the students have just completed to be very helpful for our efforts to restart the South Side mill. It was something that we would have had to hire outside consultants to do in most cases. It was done, I think, very competently by the students of the Katz Graduate School of Business and I think it has been very helpful to us in moving forward and I think ultimately it will benefit everybody in the City of Pittsburgh. Thank you very much.

Mr. Ferlo:

Would Kay Tillow and Ann McLemore and Frank Lupinacci please come forward.

Mr. Ferlo presents

No. 542 WHEREAS, all American families share the need for family and medical leave, quality child care, services for the elderly, comprehensive health care, and equity in quality education; and

WHEREAS, all of these things are a part of a broader and increasing need for economic justice, including job security, a decent standard of living, and a right to a voice on the job; and

WHEREAS, over 54 million women are in the American work force and according to the Labor Department's Bureau of Labor and Statistics, about

53% of children under age 6 have mothers in the labor force this year, including 50% of those who were 1 year old or less, a dramatic increase over the last decade; and

WHEREAS, the wages of both parents in a two-earner household and those of a single parent are, in these tough economic times, essential contributions to maintaining even a basic standard of living, making the likelihood of women leaving the workforce to care full time for families nonexistent; and

WHEREAS, single parents and families where both parents work are increasingly torn between caring for their children and elderly relatives and productive performance on the job, especially when their family members are sick, or when a new child is born; and

WHEREAS, the average price tag for child care is $3,000 per year, half the income of a minimum wage family, and 37 million Americans have no health insurance and another 50 million have inadequate coverage; and

WHEREAS, care for our elderly is scarce and expensive and the 14.5 million middle class citizens over 65 years of age with no family available to help must pay $300 to $400 a week for such care; and

WHEREAS, these problems are compounded by the still prevalent problems of racism and discrimination for Black, Hispanic and Asian American families; and

WHEREAS, it is a disgrace that our nation has not set as a goal the need for a National Family Policy; and

WHEREAS, the Coalition of Labor Union Women is sponsoring the AMERICAN FAMILY CELEBRATION:

WORKING FOR CHANGE, which will be held on Saturday, May 14, 1988, from noon to 5:00 p.m. at the Sylvan Theatre, near the Washington Monument in Washington DC - an event designed to bring national attention to all of these working family issues and more; and

WHEREAS, the AMERICAN FAMILY CELEBRATION is currently endorsed by the AFL-CIO and many other national organizations.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh endorses the AMERICAN FAMILY CELEBRATION: WORKING FOR CHANGE; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, by so endorsing, we send a clear message to Congress and to the Presidential candidates of both parties, that the problems facing American families every day are crucial to our nation, and demand their personal attention.

Mr. Ferlo moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you very much. Since it was a lengthy resolution I don't have to make a speech but I would like to introduce three individuals to my left; Kay Tillow, Vice President of District 1199-P of the National Union of Hospital and Health Care Employees and also President of the Coalition of Labor Union Women Chapter; Ann McLemore who, I believe, is a Vice President with the Amalgamated Clothing and Textile Workers' Union as well as a leader in the Clue Organization; and Frank Lupinacci who many of you know is the Co-Director of AFL-CIO.

Ms. Tillow:

I'd like to thank Councilman Ferlo and all of the members of Council for your support. We strongly believe that we will not solve the increasing problems of our family and the lack of health care and the lack of child care unless we can get some federal legislation. We are ashamed that we are the only industrialized country outside of South Africa that doesn't have a national family policy so we're putting it on the agenda and we have a local coalition. Busses are going from the Steel Workers' Union and from the Steel Workers' Retirees, from the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, from the Communications Workers' and the Urban League and the NAACP and the National Council of Negro Women and the Women for Racial and Economic Equality are a part of it.

So, we invite you to in any way help with this. If you would like to contribute money or send busses, we would appreciate it. We are going to D.C. to put on the agenda the right to health care, the right to child care, the right to care for our senior citizens, the right to a job, and the right to economic security for all of our American families. Thank you.

Mr. Lyons:

Would the Housing Authority and Commission on Human Relations representatives come forward please?

Mr. Lyons presents

No. 543 WHEREAS, the United States Congress created Fair Housing as part of this nation's Civil Rights Law twenty years ago; and

WHEREAS, the Commission on Human Rights of the City of Pittsburgh had established the Fair Housing Program as an integral part of the Commission long before passage by the U.S. Congress; and

WHEREAS, the excellence of the fruition of the Fair Housing Program of the City of Pittsburgh can be easily recognized for the purpose which it was created; and

WHEREAS, we salute Director John Gabriel, Chairperson Alma Speed Fox and the entire Commission for maintaining and preserving the principles of the Fair Housing Laws.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby proclaim the Month of April, 1988 as "FAIR HOUSING MONTH" in the City of Pittsburgh to commemorate the 20th Anniversary as created by the U.S. Congress.

Mr. Lyons moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Gabriel:

On behalf of the Commission and the staff and many others in the Pittsburgh community, we appreciate this resolution from Council. As the resolution indicates, the City has had a Fair Housing Law longer than the national law. But the importance of the national Fair Housing Law, I think, is particularly significant today as we recall the assassination of Dr. King, and we know how hard he worked on behalf of a national law.

The second reason I think it's important is it does publicize to all of the area residents that they do have a right to be treated fairly in the housing market.

Again, our thanks to you.

Michelle Madoff and Mr. Pollock present

No. 544 WHEREAS, Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, a viral disease commonly known as AIDS, is a fatal illness for which there is no cure or immunization; and

WHEREAS, AIDS is being contracted by ever-increasing numbers of Americans and the only tools to combat the disease are education and prevention; and

WHEREAS, The Pittsburgh AIDS Task Force, which was founded in 1985, is an organization of effective and compassionate volunteers who provide medical, emotional and legal support to AIDS victims and their families and work to protect the community against the spread of this course; and

WHEREAS, on April 10, 1988, the Pittsburgh Public Theater will present a performance of the play, "The Normal Heart", for the benefit of the Pittsburgh AIDS Task Force as a means of obtaining much needed funds, increasing awareness of the agency and raising consciousness about the fatal illness.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby proclaim the week of April 10 through April 17 as AIDS AWARENESS WEEK in the City of Pittsburgh and thanks the Pittsburgh Public Theater, its Producing Director William Gardner and the Pittsburgh AIDS Task Force for this extremely important event.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

This is the second year that the Pittsburgh Public Theater has been so gracious and benevolent to donate a one night performance and the benefit proceeds go to the AIDS Task Force. It's truly an incredible event and we are honored to have William Gardner, one of the finest directors in the country, be here to receive it along with Carey Stoner, the Director of the Pittsburgh AIDS Task Force.

Mr. Gardner:

Madam President and members of Council, I'd just like to take this opportunity to thank you on behalf of the Chairman of my Board, James Roddey, and the Chairman of our benefit on Sunday night, Don Brockett, for this resolution. And just more broadly, to thank the Council, the Mayor and the City agencies for the help that they have given the Pittsburgh Public Theater over the years. Our current success is directly attributable to that help.

I'd like to introduce Carey Stoner, Executive Director of the Task Force.

Mr. Stoner:

Madam President, members of Council, and guests, I would like to tell you that I'm very proud and honored to be here on behalf of our Board of Directors, our volunteers, our supporters and the people with AIDS, the families, their friends and their loved ones who thank you for your leadership, for your support, both in bringing the attention of this problem to the people of the City of Pittsburgh, and your support in dollars in the past year.

In 1984, whenever the seed for Pittsburgh AIDS Task Force was first planted here, I would think it safe to assume that most Pittsburghers assume that AIDS would never and could never truly be a problem in the City of Pittsburgh. It simply would not happen here, not in 1984. That is something which, unfortunately, has proven to be untrue and the people who founded the Task Force early in 1985, unfortunately, have had very accurate vision and the future has come upon us very quickly.

In our early days there were fewer than 40 cases of AIDS in Allegheny County. These are residents of the County who have developed AIDS while living here. Today, in 1988, there are over 160 residents who have developed AIDS thus far and by the end of 1991, only 44 months from now, there will be over 1,000 residents with AIDS in Allegheny County. This is only the tip of the iceberg of the 3,000 to 7,000 people in Allegheny County and the City of Pittsburgh who are currently infected with the human immune deficiency virus.

Who are these people who have AIDS and who are the people who are infected with this virus which we try to prevent? They are men and women, young and old, black and white, straight and gay, children who have behaviors that put them at risk for this virus.

As we work hard to make better this most liveable City, we must ensure that it is as liveable for people with AIDS. There must be quality care that does not discriminate on the basis of ability to pay. There must be alternatives to long-term acute care stays which are unnecessary because no alternatives exist. There must be accommodations for portable housing for people and for households which have been financially decimated by this illness. There must be support, both practical and emotional, not only to the victims of AIDS but also to their families, friends and loved ones.

As we examine the needs of our ever-growing population in this City of older Pittsburghers, our senior citizens, will we have the foresight to understand that many of our senior citizens will be called on in the years to come to care for their children now in their 20s, 30s, and 40s who will be coming home because they have AIDS?

As we work to provide parity for black men and women and children in this City, will we work to ensure that they do not disproportionately suffer from AIDS for the same reasons that black men and women and other people of color have suffered disproportionately from other illnesses?

Today, directly as a result of your support in the past year and the work of people like Bill Gardner and the Pittsburgh Public Theater, I'm proud to tell you that much has changed. Today we have an office; last year we did not. Today the Task Force is 200 volunteers strong; we operate a hotline ten hours a day that answers questions for people, directs them to services and testing sites; we provide direct support to 45 people with AIDS right now, this moment. In addition, we have strong prevention programs underway to help meet the needs of people at risk, including collaborative efforts in relationships with organizations which are respected in the communities that they serve such as Alma Illery Medical Center and the Family Health Counsel of Western Pennsylvania.

We are most appreciative, and I cannot underscore enough to you all, the significance of the support of this Council and its leadership over the years to come. AIDS, unfortunately, will continue to be with us.

I'd like to thank you again as well as acknowledge the Pittsburgh Public Theater for their support, again, for this proclamation which will bring the attention of the issue of AIDS to the people of this City and help rally them in their support. Thank you.

Mr. Pollock presents

No.545 WHEREAS, the National Institute of Health has recognized the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine, Pulmonary Department, as one of ten major medical centers to participate in the National Lung Study; and

WHEREAS, the Surgeon General of the United States has concluded that cigarette smoking is the major cause of chronic obstructive pulmonary disease in the United States for both men and women, and further, that cigarette smoking contributes more to morbidity and mortality than any other factor; and

WHEREAS, chronic obstructive pulmonary disease is the fifth leading cause of death in the United States; and

WHEREAS, the new Smoking Pollution Control Ordinance shall become effective on Saturday, April 9, 1988 and individuals who wish to quit smoking may find this study to be beneficial.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby commend the Lung Health Study at the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council encourages all qualifying City residents to participate in the Lung Health Study.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

The City truly is blessed to have us be one of the ten cities that are picked for this study because people with problems are being analyzed at no fee to themselves. Currently this week in the lobby of the City County Building some of the preliminary screening is being done and we're very fortunate to have Dr. Rogers from the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine be here to receive it and say a few words.

Dr. Rogers:

Thank you very much. I'm now known as Rob Rogers' father rather than Dr. Rogers, the political cartoonist. I take no responsibility for what he does; I have no editorial to write.

I'd like to thank Madam President and the members of Council for their foresight in opening the City of Pittsburgh to all its residents.

We had thought in the past that smoking is a personal behavior that is harmful and its probably the leading most harmful activity in this country. The facts are that it is harmful in a secondary way; that is, people with heart and lung disease cannot participate, cannot go to public gatherings because this smoke will impair their lung function or their heart function.

Furthermore, it is very clear now, and the data is overwhelming, that secondary smoke can cause cancer of the lung and chronic obstructive pulmonary disease. Our study is to look at chronic obstructive pulmonary disease and try and gain some insight into the factors that cause some people to be more impaired than other people. As stated, there are about 10 million Americans struck with this disease; it is the leading cause of disability estimated at $40 billion paid a year. Smoking is the overwhelming etiology. We are going to screen up to 12,000 people to get 600 enrolled. We already have 300. The benefits to Pittsburgh are they are free screenings; two-thirds of the people will receive an intensive smoking intervention program and all will be followed for five years with pulmonary function analysis.

We are very pleased to have received this grant which is close to $3 million and at the moment has brought employment to 25 individuals in the Pittsburgh area as well as recognition. And I would like to amend the Council for your foresight in seeing that smoking, indeed, is a health hazard for everyone, not just the smoker. Congratulations.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, I would like to ask Randy Wingard, Vice President of Administrative Services for Koppers Company to step forward and Bob O'Gara, Director of Advertising, to receive this resolution.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 546 WHEREAS, Koppers was established in 1907 to design and build chemical-recovery coke plants for the American steel industry, and was incorporated in 1944 becoming Koppers Company, Inc.; and

WHEREAS, two core businesses now make up the heart of Koppers, Construction Materials and Services and

Chemical and Allied Products, employing approximately 10,000 people nationwide, with 1,150 employed locally; and

WHEREAS, Koppers Company, Inc. ranks as the 10th largest publicly owned company in the area; and

WHEREAS, the Koppers Company Foundation, founded in 1952 by Koppers Company, is one of the largest Pittsburgh area charitable trusts and foundations, contributing millions of dollars through the years to higher education, the arts, hospitals and community funds; and

WHEREAS, Koppers Company, Inc. is the target of hostile takeover by British based BNS Inc., led by Beazer PLC and investment bank Shearson Lehman Hutton Inc.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh vehemently opposes any unfriendly, hostile takeover of Koppers Company, Inc., which is a vital and thriving part of the Pittsburgh Community; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council denounces the greedy and self-serving role of Shearson Lehman Hutton, Inc. in the attempted hostile take-over of Koppers Company Inc.; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council strongly supports the efforts of Governor Casey, Pennsylvania Treasurer G. Davis Greene and Mayor Caliguri to thwart the unfriendly, hostile take-over and will assist in any way possible to ensure that Koppers Company, Inc. remains a Pittsburgh based company.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Members of Council, as you know, I obtained signatures from all of you for this resolution later last week and it has been sent to various people including the Governor, the Mayor, our Treasurer in the Commonwealth and Peter Cohen, Chairman and CEO of Shearson American Express, and also several people in the Koppers Company.

In a moment, I'd like Randy Wingard, Vice President of Administrative Services to say a few words.

We all know what happened several years ago with Gulf Company; we lost thousands of jobs in this City. We all know what happened this past weekend with Herbeck and Held; we lost 180 jobs. We cannot afford to lose Koppers Company and basically that is what we are presented with now. And we need to do everything humanly possible in the City of Pittsburgh over the next several days and weeks to prevent that from happening. I, for one, have been a supporter of American Express over the years; I have an American Express credit card and I will continue to have an American Express credit card, but not if a hostile takeover occurs. I will never have an American Express credit card again and I would hope that everyone in the Pittsburgh community and Western Pennsylvania would do the same. We need to send as strong a message to American Express, Shearson Lehman and Beazer, as possible. And I hope Randy Wingard can tell us how we can help in any other ways.

Mr. Wingard:

Madam President, members of Council, on behalf of all the employees at Koppers, I want to tell you how much we appreciate the support that you have shown in the past and the support that Council is now showing by joining in the state of Pennsylvania, Governor Casey's office and in the County of Allegheny and in the City of Pittsburgh's continuing support of Kopper's effort to survive.

I can assure you that even as we speak here, the effort is continuing. The people at Koppers have been fighters for a long time. We fought to reorganize our company, we fought for market share, we fought competition. In my 35 years with Koppers, I can tell you that this is the toughest battle that we've been in. But I can also tell you that it is the most gratifying struggle in which I have ever been involved because of the tremendous support that we have received from the people here in the City of Pittsburgh and indeed throughout the state of Pennsylvania and from our Congressional delegation from Pennsylvania. Koppers has a lot of support and we appreciate it very, very much and we certainly and sincerely appreciate what Council is doing in recognition of that support this morning.

I can tell you that the most effective action that you can take is the action that many of you have already taken; and that is to express your protest of this takeover effort engineered by Shearson Lehman American Express by writing or calling to Peter Cohen, Shearson Lehman American Express, in New York City, or to James Robinson who is head of American Express in New York City. Write them a letter, make a phone call to them; do anything that you think is appropriate to let them know that you do not feel that investment bankers should be involved in hostile takeover activity in the unprecedented manner in which they are involved. I can guarantee you that Koppers and its employees will do their dead level best to keep the lights on in the Koppers Building and not let it become dark like the Gulf Building. We appreciate the support that you've given us and we know that we can count on it in the future. Thank you very, very much.

Also,

No. 527 Resolution amending Resolution No. 446, Item G, approved May 29, 1987, which authorized the sale of property in the 15th Ward, being a 2 story, frame house on a 61.5' X 195' X 62.21' lot, located at 224 Hazelwood Avenue, designated as 56-C-319, to Larry Minnock, for the sum of $8,500.00. The reason for the above amendment is to reduce the sale price from $8,500.00 to $1,500.00 as the house has suffered extensive damage through vandalism. It will, therefore, save the City the cost of demolition.

Which was read.

Mr. DePasquale moved to approve the appointments.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Discussion. Madam President, I cannot in good conscience vote for five of these individuals for various reasons, and I'll be very brief.

First of all, on two of the appointees, Anna Marie Guzman and Arthur Schock, I made the comment at the Wednesday hearing that these two individuals, while they have wonderful resumes, are not residents in the City of Pittsburgh. And on a fundamental issue with me, not only with employees needing to have residency but I think people in important decision making capacity in the City of Pittsburgh on the various boards, commissions and authorities, I'll be darned if I'm going to vote for somebody who is not a City resident and who is not willing to make a commitment to the City in that regard. So, on those two individuals, I would have to vote no on that reason alone.

On the issue of Mr. McCormick, in reviewing his resume, he is currently, I believe, a City resident; however, he has only been a resident for the last several months, if that information is accurate on his resume. I think the City of Pittsburgh has a wealth of individuals from the art and cultural community who are residents in the City who I think could lend a hand and have good input into the Art Commission, a commission, as far as I'm concerned, that needs some improvement reviewing the situation of the great windmill statue which will grace our Golden Triangle in some time to come. I think there are a lot of good people that are community based that have a contribution to make in regards to art and I think the Mayor could have chosen someone who has a long standing involvement in the community. So on Mr. McCormick I will also be voting no.

On Mr. Uhrich from the Mayor's Office, again, a gentleman I don't really know too well, he obviously is a good person but I would make the point that on the important authority of the Water and Sewer Authority, I think we should reach outward to the Chamber of Commerce, to the business community, to the corporate community, to the environmental community. There are many other people outside of a political appointee of the Mayor's Office who could have been considered and should be considered for appointment to a very important Water and Sewer Authority, an authority that has gone out on a debt service of millions and millions of dollars. So, not only for management reasons but for a whole host of reasons, I think we should have looked elsewhere to find someone who could make a contribution aside from an individual who is basically involved with political activities for the Mayor's Office.

My fifth concern is on Mr. Noonan from the URA, a gentleman who is obviously very well qualified, lives in Brookline. He's a good person and I don't dispute that. However, I am concerned that he is replacing a Mr. Edward Walkowski from the Lawrenceville community who I believe has served in good faith and has done a very good job serving on the Board of Adjustment for at least a decade, if not longer. I don't know if there's any truth to the matter that the reason why he was not reappointed is that he's a few months shy of getting a pension. I don't know if that's the case but I would like that information brought forward if someone knows that.

Mr. DePasquale:

He is about nine months short of a full pension.

Mr. Ferlo:

I stand corrected; he is a few months, nine months, short of a full pension. I believe he's been on this Board of Adjustment, he has spent a lot of time and energy and he certainly is a good person. I think the Mayor's letter to Council was misleading in the sentence that it says that Mr. Walkowski chose to retire. I don't think that is the case at all and I would urge members of Council to please join with me in voting down Mr. Noonan, not because Mr. Noonan isn't qualified, but I think we should vote him down and send a message back to the Mayor's Office that he should consider reappointment of Mr. Walkowski.

So, on those individuals, I stand in opposition.

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of order, Madam Chairman. In regards to the non-City residents on the boards or authorities, I thought there was sort of an unwritten agreement in Council that we wouldn't approve them. In fact, that's the only question that I usually ask them, if they live in the City. If they say yes, okay; if they say no, I'm against them. I'm against the non-City residents.

The Chair:

All of these non-City residents are businessmen in the City of Pittsburgh and that's why the Mayor appointed them. They work in the City, they employ people in the City.

Mr. DePasquale:

I just thought that we had sort of an agreement that we would not approve of non-City residents.

And in regards to Mr. Walkowski, if I may. He told me - I've known Ed most of my life, I went to high school with him and he's a very good friend - that he was nine months short of a full pension. Mr. Noonan, and I want to make it clear, is also a very good friend of mine and I couldn't very well vote against his appointment, although I understand one of the Councilpersons is going to want to hold that and it's alright with me. But I was just wondering if we could talk to the Mayor or somebody in the office and perhaps employ Mr. Walkowski for the next nine months so he would have a full pension rather than let him go with nine months short of a full pension.

Mr. Coyne:

Madam President, I share the concerns of Councilman Ferlo and Councilman DePasquale as to the residency requirements. Regardless if Mr. Schock and Ms. Guzman do operate and work in the City of Pittsburgh, they are not residents and I think if Council is going to push residency requirements for City employees, and even though these are unpaid positions, that what we need to do is start setting a precedent and listening to our own beliefs and our own rules. Therefore, I would not be able to vote for either one of those individuals.

Mr. Lyons:

I have a question. I noticed on the appointment agenda that in accordance with Chapter 175 of the Pittsburgh Code which states that the Director of Public Works shall be a member ex-officio of the Commission, confirmation is not required by Council.

The Chair:

Just the Director of Public Works.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, I think there's some concerns about several members being appointed here and I'm not suggesting that they should come back in front of Council; they have done that, the new appointees. But I think it would be in the best interest to hold the appointments for a week or two and I raised the question last week, my concern for Mr. Walkowski. Since then I've been able to gather a little bit of information; I'd like a little more time. So, if the Chair and the majority of Council would permit, I'd like to move to hold all appointees for two weeks.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Pollock presented

Bill No. 535

Report of the Committee on Finance for March 30, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 250

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a professional services agreement or agreements for the administration of the City's Worker's Compensation Program for a period of three years beginning July 1, 1988 to June 30, 1991 and providing for the payment of the cost thereof, subject to annual appropriations, at an annual cost not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00), chargeable to and payable from Code Account 44, Workmen's Compensation Fund, Index Code 004408, Department of Finance." (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Mr. DePasquale:

Madam President, I wasn't at the Finance session Wednesday. In regards to the professional agreement with the Workmen's Compensation Program, we made a compromise, apparently, from $600,000 to $100,000, but someone told me that there was some talk that if they needed more money they could come in and ask for it. Is this the understanding?

Mr. Lyons:

Whatever they need, it was understood then that they would have to come back to Council and they would hold the vendor's name secret and wouldn't tell the Council, and we agreed to that.

Mr. Ferio:

We didn't agree to that. That's what they said they would do; we didn't agree to it.

The Chair:

Mr. Pollock, it's your bill; is that your understanding?

Mr. Pollock:

They don't have to tell Council if they don't want to.

The Chair:

That's your answer.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President, on Bill No. 250, the Workmen's Compensation, I would like my comments brought forward for the Record from last Wednesday's meeting.

Mr. Woods:

I would like my remarks brought forth also.

(MR. WAGNER'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 250-Wednesday, March 30, 1988)

Mr. Wagner:

Well, we are talking about two issues on this bill, and in regard to talking about two issues -- actually, we have only talked about one issue and the issue pertains to the legislative format by which professional service contracts are approved by this Council. I guess in the hour and a half that we have had discussion, that has been the discussion and we really haven't talked to any great length about the intricacies of Bill No. 250, and that is what I am really concerned about. And the reason I say that, is that obviously the issue of how these contracts are approved, there are two schools of thought; the Administration and Council. And it pertains to many pieces of legislation. And I would suggest to the Chair that maybe there is a need for another public meeting pertaining to that issue in general as it relates to all contracts. And it would also pertain to this bill, naturally.

Possibly the reason why everyone is talking in great length is the frustration over the workers' compensation problem. And I know that is where my frustration is, in knowing that we had $12 million per year in losses three years ago, right now we are at $16 million approaching $18 million, and the fact remains that that could go higher. So obviously, we want to have assistance, we want help. And that is the reason for the professional services contract about which we are talking about and disagreeing on the method by which it is approved.

The $16 million or $18 million, whatever the accurate figure is, is a very serious, serious problem. And I think that relates directly to the professional administrator as to what product we are getting from that professional administrator to help us stabilize or reduce that financial obligation. Just to say that the $16 million or $18 million, if we ever cut that in half, which almost appears to be unlikely at this point, or if we can stabilize it rather than going into the operating dollars for more millions, we can provide the public more services. And that is really the intent here, and I think that is the reason why this issue is so important, two-fold; the cost is dramatic, and No. 2, people who are genuinely injured are hurt, and they are hurt and they may be off on a temporary basis or permanent basis. So we want a professional administrator. And I use the word "professional" because we want someone who can provide us with the advice we need to address that serious problem and hopefully reduce that problem.

I just want to say I know there has been some discussion about length of contract, and I would hope through some discussion here, private discussion, that I know we talked about a one year contract possibly. This has been worded I believe as a three year contract. I am in support of the three year contract because I believe in order to get true professional companies to bid on the contract they need to know that they will have a shot at a three year contract in order for them to give us their best proposal, whatever that is.

As it relates to the proposal, what I am concerned about and really concerned about are the conditions of the contract. The conditions of the contract to the point where what will we be getting under this new contract, and this is my question. What will we be getting under the new suggested contract from a professional insurance administrator that will help us to better handle our worker's compensation problem? And so I ask, I suspect, Mr. Turner and Mr. Young that question: What, in concrete, do you see us doing in this contract to give us more to address this problem?

Just let me say, prior to answering that, maybe I should have said this before, I have read all the information that you have provided to me from our present administrator, and I am not going to mention any names, but I am a little disappointed in a lot of things. I am very disappointed in the loss analysis information that is provided to the City, because we cannot zero in on where our worker's compensation problems are by looking at it. True, we can say how many dollars we lost, but it indicates that -- for instance, I am reading one memo. "Three major causes of accidents are falls, trips and slips, which account for 39 percent of the accidents; lifting objects, 25 percent; motor vehicle involvement, 10 percent."

Well, that is all well and good, but we need more to bite into than that if we are going to institute some preventive measures to reduce those losses. Are the motor vehicles because people weren't wearing their seat belt shoulder harness? Are they because the vehicle was in bad shape? Were they violating motor vehicle regulations? And that is what we are not getting.

And in addition, in this same letter there is a sentence that just slapped me in the face: "While several of these accidents may have been unavoidable, it does appear that enhancing the safety program may help in reducing some of these."

Let me say, across the board every single accident is avoidable. And that word has to go out City wide when it comes to our worker's compensation problem. The only way an accident is not avoidable is if it is an act of God.

(Deleted text.)

In regard to the bill, Bill 250, it is not my concern what the price is, because the overall cost of the worker's compensation problem is monumental; as I indicated, it is about $18 million a year. So if the contract comes back and it is a few thousand dollars one way or another, that is not the important point. The important point is, in my opinion, that we get the best professional administrator that we possibly can get to address our severe problem, which is too many losses.

Now, under the new proposed contract, what would you hope to do or hope to accomplish in terms of getting commitments from that professional administrator in the new contract that we don't presently have in our existing contract?

Mr. Turner:

Let me address that in a slightly different way, Councilman. And if you are concerned that I haven't hit what you wanted me to do, please bring me back to it.

I agree totally that the issue here on the decision of the worker's compensation third party administrator, the primary consideration should not be based on the price that is quoted, because our view of their ability to control both the current costs and to control the unfunded liability is far more important than whether they are paid $5,000.00 more one way or another. It is a rather small part of the total problem.

We have been thinking about it for quite sometime. Certainly I have been thinking about it every since I came back into this position. There are a number of roads that I think we have to travel down, some of which we are traveling down now, maybe we need to speed up that process, others are going to be new roads we haven't ventured into before. We have to have verification investigative services as part of this contract. We have to explore alternative duty, new approaches, instant alternative duty is something that has been mentioned. We have to proceed much more vigorously on modified duty. We have to have a stronger safety program. I have asked Director Cannon if he would Chair to reinstitute a safety committee and Chair it. He would do that and proceed to do that as soon as we get this past us.

We have to look at the creative financing techniques, the concept of commutation, which is basically a buy out in order to reduce the unfunded liability. We have to explore the use of annuities to both fund the unfunded liability and to create packages that basically fit the particular needs of certain individuals. We have to look at the concept of incentives, incentives with respect to our employees. Can we set up a shared savings type of program whereby employees get a portion of any savings? We need disincentives, if you will, with respect to our departments to the extent that department costs are not being controlled, then those funds have to come out of other areas of their budget and not the salary areas, but other non-salary items. I think we have to try to make everyone accountable. We have to look at reforming state laws. We have to look at the rehab efforts; are we doing enough of it?

These and many other items are roads we have to venture down. The question in my mind is we can neither entirely blame whoever the third party administrator is or give them all the credit if we do a good job. It has to be a joint venture between the City and the third party administrator. But included in that, quite frankly, I think we have to hold them more accountable. I have talked with the Solicitor about having termination clauses in there and an actual review for poor performance, that if, in fact, we go through a process and we all believe that firm X is the best firm, and after 12 months we are all convinced that, in fact, they haven't performed, then we need to have the ability to not wait two more years, but to stop then. So I see it as a joint venture.

I am very much concerned with getting this process started, which is why I am concerned about now having to come back to Council another time and get into a debate over who the firm is and whether they are the better firm.

Have I addressed your question?

Mr. Wagner:

Yes, to some degree you have. In the contract language, what changes could you supply this Council with, the changes that you will make in the contract language in comparison to the present contract versus the future contract to get more out of our professional administrator to help us with this problem?

Mr. Turner:

We haven't drawn up the contract. I have talked with the Solicitor about what we want to do. The contract is really the last thing after -- the RFP wouldn't be the contract language, which is, I think, what you are asking for. We can certainly do that. I am trying to get started on everything, and doing that now rather than doing that three weeks from now is no problem.

But I am concerned with our ability to sort of monitor the performance and to make the administrators as accountable to us as they can be in having the ability to terminate in the event we are not satisfied with the performance.

Mr. Wagner:

Any changes that would strengthen the contract I would appreciate if you would supply that information to this Council.

I also would like to see a contract, if approved, to require that professional administrator to be meeting with the Executive Safety Committee on a periodic basis to tell the Executive Safety Committee what should be done to improve the overall safety program in worker's compensation program. That is not to say that some good things haven't been done so far with the light duty, the modified duty programs. I know Pat Barns in your office, I know Mr. Calley in Safety and their staffs have done some very positive things, but I think we all would agree that more has to happen.

And in one particular area -- and we have discussed this privately -- I would like to see us zero in more on our current workers' comp people, the people that are off that are causing our large numbers of losses. There are over 500 of them permanently on worker's comp. I would like to see us, along with this professional administrator, look at each individual case and hopefully bring those people back onto modified duty, light duty, and whatever way possible get them back to work. Because if my figures are accurate, about 12 million, 10 to 12 million, of our annual losses which are exceeding 16 million, relate to our permanent worker's compensation people. Now, I don't know if that is factual or not, but I am sure it is 50 percent anyway. So in order to take a bite out of the problem, we need a professional administrator to help us accomplish that feat. And I believe that there are people out there on permanent worker's comp that want to come back to work in other ways. For instance, we said we need more people on 911. Well, we do. Let's get some of the people that are permanent worker's comp people and get them back working, not as police officers, fire fighters, paramedics, but as 911 operators, even if we do have to pay them the full salary of a police officer or fire fighter, because if not, we are paying two salaries. So I think there is a lot that we can do there.

And one other item I just want to touch on is the incentive program. We need some kind of incentive program. And I would hope that this professional administrator would help us set up an incentive program. And can we make that part of the contract that they do that?

Mr. Turner:

Yes. Part of the RFP -- I mean, quite frankly, the way I see this proceeding is that if we ever get to the process of evaluating firms, that we expect them to come in and tell us how they are going to handle a whole range of issues, many of which both of us have mentioned, some of which I got tired of listing them all, and there are other things. What we are looking for is a firm that we feel is going to be the most aggressive and has thought this through the business and is the most likely to run down all the roads at the same time as quickly as possible in order to try to control these costs.

Mr. Wagner:

In going out to bids, how many companies do you think potentially are out there that could bid on this contract?

Mr. Turner:

---

My guess would be a dozen, something like that. I am not sure. I am not sure how many bids there were the last time. We certainly have gotten a lot of inquiries.

Michelle Madoff:

Five last time.

Mr. Turner:

That doesn't mean that the inquiries necessarily will result in the submission of a bid. I would hope that there will be that many.

Mr. Wagner:

I am not concerned who gets the contract. I am concerned that we get the most professional company that is available to help us with our problem. And I would like that company to truly live with the City day and night, eat and sleep with this problem. And I believe they have to do that in order to understand the problems that we have. And they are very complex, with various union contracts, with different departments that are completely different from the other departments, types of different state laws that pertain to worker's compensation agreements and what people can get paid, light duty programs relate differently to different departments. And they truly must live with us to understand us. I am hopeful that however we proceed here that we can get the best buy for our dollar. And I certainly want to work with you in whatever way I can to do that.

(MR. WOODS' COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 250-Wednesday, March 30, 1988)

Mr. Woods:

Mr. Chairman, I would like to make a motion first to amend the bill to take the money out, to go out on RFP's but delete the $600,000.00.

Mr. Ferlo:

Second.

Mr. Woods:

If I may, Mr. Chairman, could I please ask Mr. Turner, or would you please ask Mr. Turner to come to the table?

The Chair:

Why don't we have -- is the Solicitor here, as well?

Mr. Woods:

He is coming.

The Chair:

Here he is, our knight in shining armor.

Michelle Madoff:

Is Mr. Woods going to ask questions or are you?

Mr. Woods:

Sure. That is why I asked him to come to the table. Danny, I just got this opinion. What does it say?

Mr. Pellegrini:

It says you can't do it.

Mr. Woods:

Why?

Mr. Pellegrini:

The Charter is very specific about --

Mr. Ferlo:

Do you have a copy of this?

Mr. Pellegrini:

It was sent up yesterday and it was somehow lost in transit. Let me pass it around. That is our file copy.

Mr. Woods:

Wait a minute, Danny. I don't want to award the contract, No. 1. All I want to do, and what we asked, was when you go out, can Mr. Turner go out for RFP's and not state the money? That was what we asked for a legal opinion on.

Mr. Pellegrini:

What you could do is authorize the Director to go out and spend all the money in the code account, if you are trying to hide the amount of money available on a line item.

Mr. Woods:

Wait a minute. Please answer my question yes or no. I made an amendment to go out on RFP's without including the $600,000.00 figure.

Mr. Pellegrini:

You don't --

Mr. Woods:

Wait a minute. Yes or no, can you do that legally; go out on RFP's and not include the money?

Mr. Pellegrini:

At that point in time it is not an RFP, it is only an expression of interest.

Mr. Woods:

Here is the thing, Danny; I need a yes or no.

Mr. Pellegrini:

The answer is no.

Mr. Woods:

If I go out and I have these specs in my hand and I say, "Miss Madoff, here are these specs. Would you please give me a bid," is that legal?

Mr. Pellegrini:

The answer is no.

Mr. Woods:

Why not?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Because, No. 1, if you go out -- there are two things in the contract. So what you are asking a vender to do is come in and say, "You don't have any authorization to enter into this contract, so we want to have negotiations with you prior to the contract." An RFP process leads to a binding contract. There is no authorization by the Director to lead to a binding contract, and that is the reason that you can't go out. A Director can go out -- he doesn't have to come to Council, period, to do that type of --

Mr. Woods:

I know. It happened before.

Mr. Pellegrini:

The Director doesn't have to come to Council to do that. The Director has to come to Council to get authorization to enter into the contract. To enter into the contract you have to have a dollar amount, because he can't enter into a contract unless he has the dollars. So what you will be doing is you are saying to all these venders who go out there and spend enormous amounts of money putting these RFP's together, and he comes up here and you say, "I don't want to do it." So those venders are out thousands of dollars each at that point in time.

Quite frankly, if that is the way it is going to proceed, we probably wouldn't go out for the RFP's.

Mr. Woods:

Let me ask you something, Danny. Does this, your explanation, does that pertain only to professional contracts?

---

Mr. Pellegrini:

It pertains to all contracts.

Mr. Woods:

All right. Then why, if I want to go out and bid building a new building, I don't have to include the money. I show the specs out, give the specs out, and they, in return, tell me how much money it is going to cost me, and the lowest responsible bidder gets it. Why is it different for this contract versus, say, a construction contract?

Mr. Pellegrini:

A private contract?

Mr. Woods:

Yes.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Okay. The decision before Council, when Council authorizes the contract, is you are going to put up a building, and that building is -- we estimate the cost is going to be a million dollars. Council may be willing to spend up to a million dollars on it, but you may not be willing to spend $2 million. So what you are really doing is asking contractors to come in and say, "I am going to bid X amount of dollars," and then you come in and say, "We are not going to do it," or we come up and say, "We want to do it for a million and a half," and you say "No."

The other process of it is, under a case called Locheim, that bids have to be binding when they are put in, Locheim vs. the City of Philadelphia. So what is before Council is what is the policy decision? And in this workmen's compensation case, the policy decision before Council; one, are we going to employ an administrator, and two, how much? How it is to be done after that is a purely administrative decision.

Mr. Woods:

I am not trying to interfere one iota.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Then what is your concern?

Mr. Woods:

My concern is we should go out, send RFP's out to 2 contractors, to 22 contractors, to 100, I don't really care, and say, "Here are the specs. We want you to give us a price on how much you are going to charge the City of Pittsburgh to administer this program. Here is what we want you to do." I want that contractor to come back and say, "I will charge you $800,000.00" -- or what is in the budget, by the way, 1.3 million; it is not $600,000.00, ladies and gentlemen, it is 1.3 million that is budgeted for the administration of this fund -- "or $400,000.00." Just give us a price on what each one of you will do. And then you give the Administration the price, not Council, because you are right, we don't have no choice, and let the Administration either pick the lowest vender, the highest, whatever he wants to do, what he feels is the most qualified. All I am asking is to take the money out. I believe that the money is encumbered, because there is a specific line item code account just for administration of this program, and it is not $600,000.00, it is 1.3 million, and it is on page 2159 in the Finance Department.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Fine. Put $1.3 million in the ordinance. The only thing we are authorized to spend under the resolution is $600,000.00.

Mr. Woods:

I want you to get the best people, and I am asking you to take the money out. You can't explain to me why it is illegal.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Yes, I just did. In the process by which you are advocating it --

Mr. Woods:

Wait.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Let me tell you the process.

Mr. Woods:

This Council -- and this Council, not Ben Woods -- asked for a legal opinion on can we take the money out, in writing, and that is not here.

Mr. Pellegrini:

It is in the third paragraph.

Mr. Woods:

It is not there.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Read the third paragraph.

Mr. Woods:

I am not saying you can't enter into a contract. All I am saying is we will allocate the money. You can enter into a contract. All I am saying is we will allocate the money. You are saying we are saying you can't enter into a contract.

Mr. Pellegrini:

No, I can't enter into a contract. The City can't enter into a contract because when it hits the Controller's office and there is no source of funds, it is bounced.

Mr. Woods:

Wait a minute, Danny. Isn't this a source of funds? I thought the budget was an ordinance. It is a law, the operating budget is a law. All that money in there has to be spent. You can spend all that money that is in there. And since that is passed by ordinance, the operating budget, then it is a law, and you have $1.3 million in there.

Mr. Pellegrini:

If Council wants to put in the resolution that we can spend up to $1.3 million, the whole line item in the code account --

Mr. Woods:

The operating budget is a resolution. It had to be passed by this Council. It is law of this City. In that law it says $1.3 million.

Mr. Pellegrini:

So what you are really saying is that under your -- let's get your understanding of what the process is clarified. What you are saying is that if we go out for an RFP and an amount comes in at $610,000.00, that we can send down to the Controller's office a contract that says $610,000.00, and the Controller will countersign that contract.

---

Mr. Woods:

According to law. It is in the budget, Danny.

Mr. Pellegrini:

To be honest -- let me finish. If that is the understanding of the Controller, then we don't have any problem with that process. But my -- that is not what the Controller would do. Unless we have a resolution with a number in it -- and it could be 600 or the whole line item -- he is not going to countersign the contract.

Mr. Woods:

Just answer two more questions, then I will relinquish the floor.

The operating budget of the City of Pittsburgh, is that law, is that ordinance?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Yes.

Mr. Woods:

Is the line item in it for administration of the workmen's compensation, is that in the budget?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Yes.

Mr. Woods:

So therefore, that must be law. And in that line item it says $1.3 million.

Mr. Pellegrini:

If the Controller has the same understanding that you do, we do not have to come back to Council for any appropriation. That is news to me, but we will be willing to go along with it.

---

Mr. Woods:

Danny, I asked you a question, I want a simple answer, I ask simple questions. Just give me a yes or no. We.

Pay our wages -- our people got paid today; today is March 30th, all our help got paid today in the City of Pittsburgh. Did you have to come to Council and ask every week or every other week for a resolution to pay these people?

Mr. Pellegrini:

No.

Mr. Woods:

Because it is under the salary and code account in the operating budget. And it is the same criteria here that I am telling you.

Mr. Pellegrini:

What you are saying is we don't have to come back to Council.

Mr. Woods:

I am saying take the money out.

(Deleted text.)

Mr. Woods:

If I may, I think I have a way to solve the problem and still accomplish what we want to accomplish.

Let's amend the legislation -- instead of taking all the money out, let's amend the legislation to read "$100,000.00". Therefore, after they select their contractor -- they are not going to get anybody for $100,000.00 -- they are going to have to come back to Council and say, "Here is what we need now." And that is a solution. We are giving them money, we are not holding up the bill at all, and we accomplish what we want until we get a regular piece of legislation.

Mr. Ferlo:

That is fair.

Mr. Woods:

I think that all of us can live with that.

---

Mrs. Masloff:

What does Mr. Turner have to say?

Mr. Woods:

Madam President, I think this is our decision. It is not what they have to live with, it is what we have to live with. I think there is no one here that can find that unreasonable. I make a motion to amend --

The Chair:

You have your motion to amend to take it out.

Mr. Woods:

I withdraw that motion. Do you withdraw your second?

Mr. Ferlo:

I made the second. I am not sure I want to withdraw the second yet, because --

Mr. Woods:

Let me make the motion. My idea is good.

Mr. Ferlo:

Okay.

Mr. Woods:

I make a motion to amend to read instead of $600,000.00, to read "$100,000.00".

(Deleted text.)

Mr. Woods:

Mr. Turner, you know I disagree with you. But to say that you don't have to come back to this Council -- if we authorize $100,000.00 and you don't have to come back to this Council for $400,000.00 and name the contractor, I can't believe that is so.

We just went through a number of bills here today, and every contractor or person that is entering into a contract with the City of Pittsburgh is named and the amount they are getting. And Danny is not here, but when Danny wants to make a decision to fit Danny or the Administration, he does.

Now, if we have been doing something for seven years I have been on Council one way, why all the sudden is it another way you don't have to name a contractor? That is one thing. History will show you that every time the Administration enters into an agreement it names the contractor or the person you are entering into the agreement with.

If we go along -- and no one has made the motion yet -- to fund this thing at $1.3 million, we defeated our purpose, because we still don't have the last check and balance. You don't have to come back to us because now you got $1.3 million. Instead of it being $600,000.00, you can spend $800,000.00 or the whole $1.3 million. The point is you don't have to come back to us, and that is your objection and I understand that and I sympathize with you. And if I was sitting in your shoes, I would want to do the same thing.

But we are the legislative body, we are the checks and balances on the administration.

And one other thing. If someone here is going to make the motion to go $1.3 million, I totally resent it. I was kind enough and courteous enough, when you, Mr. Chairman, asked me to hold this thing until after the meeting or after we discussed all the other options, and then for the Administration to come and lobby, which is your right. If anyone makes that motion, I will totally resent it, because I was kind and courteous not to push the issue at that time, and it would have been voted and gone.

The Chair:

Let me respond to that, because it was my request. The courtesy was not for any member of this Council, but for the other Directors who were sitting here.

Mr. Woods:

At your request. I respected you as the Chairman, and I was courteous enough to comply with your wishes when I didn't have to. I could have pushed for the vote right then, and we would have been long gone, and it would have been over with, it would have been $100,000.00. No one has made the motion and I hope they don't, out of courtesy to me.

(MR. FERLO'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 370 - WEDNESDAY, 3/30/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

And on Bill No. 370, Mr. Chairman, I want to briefly pass something out to members of Council. I know the hour is late, and I will speak briefly about this issue.

Mr. Chairman, in the past three months that I have been here, I voted no on other appropriations to four specific groups, and they are the Pittsburgh Opera, the Dance Council, the Civic Light Opera, and the Pittsburgh Ballet. At that time I stated, and I will again state today -- and I just want to quickly clarify to Council and to the public why I am voting no on Bill 370, Bill 390, Bill 394 and Bill 395 which funds the Pittsburgh Trust for Cultural Resources, as well as three of its member organizations.

I submitted to members of Council and to the public today an arrangement that has been worked out between the City through the URA and the Pittsburgh Trust for Cultural Resources. I am not even sure how this arrangement is legal, but assuming it is legal, what I have suggested to Council in the past is that the repayment Urban Development Action Grant funds that will come from the construction of the CNG Tower, Downtown, those repayment funds, which as members of Council are aware we recently appropriated and today approved by way of example in the Giant Eagle repayment fund, some of those funds went to targeting neighborhood supermarkets. Here is a situation where Federal dollars that are targeted to low-income communities in our City rather have been targeted to the Pittsburgh Trust for Cultural Resources to ensure some level of funding for the Opera, the Dance Council, the Civic Light Opera and the Pittsburgh Ballet until the year 2062. No community group certainly addressing low income needs in the City or economic development agendas in our neighborhoods, has had any kind of a luxury like that of being given a funding source until the year 2062.

I don't want to suggest that this arrangement is illegal. It's something that I will certainly pursue, not on this table, but later on through the course of the month. But I want to clarify that because of the large amount of money; again, a continual funding base for the Pittsburgh Trust for Cultural Resources which begins in 1990, they will receive $250,000.00 of City funds, and they will continue to receive money until the year 2062.

Again, I love the Opera, I love the Council, I love the CLO and I love the Ballet. I don't want to in any way suggest that they are not doing a good job and they are not an important institution to the City and to Downtown. But in terms of limited dollars and in terms of dollars that I feel should more directly go to neighborhood based economic and housing development, personally, I think this arrangement is outrageous. But it's a contract, and I'm not sure it can be changed. But I want to make clear that I'm voting no on Bill 370, Bill 390, Bill 394 and Bill 395 because I think that the City has done more than its fair share in supporting these organizations.

And I will just close by making the argument that these four organizations are better able to receive the philanthropic support as well as the corporate support from the Downtown community less likely than a Bloomfield/Garfield Corporation or a Hazelwood/Glenwood, Glenhazel Citizen Council or a West End Citizen Council, and I'm very upset about this arrangement. I'm not clear that I have any power to change it, so I want to make it clear and voice my opposition to those four bills that I mentioned. Thank you.

(END OF REMARKS)

Mr. Ferlo

Just briefly again, I'm voting no on 370 and 390, 394, 395. These are the Grants and Donations to the Trust For Cultural Resources and to the Opera, Dance Council and to the Ballet. As I explained in the Wednesday Committee Meeting, my concern basically has to do with the City Council having been very gracious in the past by letting these groups benefit from the CNG Benedum UDAG Grant, the Urban Development Action Grant. Unlike any neighborhood group that is struggling for money in our City, these cultural groups in the Downtown community will be benefitting as a result of the repayment funds and the interest repayment funds from the UDAG Grant until the year 2062. On that basis, I cannot see giving them this allocation. Thank you.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGE)

(MR. WAGNER'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 373-Wednesday, March 30, 1988)

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Chairman, members of Council, I think it is good to scrutinize these various resolutions and grants and donations, and I believe this Council and previous Councils have, and I believe the Administration has. I think if you look at the last several years you will see that the dollars that go to these various organizations have been reduced significantly; about 50 percent of these are recommendations by the Administration, and about 50 percent are recommendations by Council. The important thing to look at I think is what benefit or what return we get from our investment here. And on many of the organizations, the dollars that we donate are returned in the way of tickets that go to senior citizen centers throughout the City for various events. Many of the other organizations are neighborhood organizations and play a very vital role in those neighborhoods. Some of these organizations are Veterans' organizations, and we have a high number of Veterans in our City.

So I believe that we should scrutinize these, but at the same time, I believe that did happen during the budget process in the latter part of '87. And many of these organizations are getting less dollars than they have in the past, and maybe they should get less in the future as our ability to fund through grants and donations diminishes. But at the same time, I believe that we should support them as they are today, as they appear in these various resolutions.

(MR. POLLOCK'S COMMENTS ON BILLS NO. 371, 372, 374, 375, 376, 377, 378, 379, 381, 382, 383, 384, 385, 386, 387, 388, 389, 391 and 392 - Wednesday, March 30, 1988.)

The Chair:

Since I have been on Council and involved in two budget processes, I have maintained very strongly that until our 4 percent wage tax is lowered, City government and the City taxpayers cannot be sponsoring and paying for little leagues, and local Veterans' parades and everything else. And I have opposed all of these in both years, and I am going to oppose them again today. So I am going to be voting against every one of these.

And with the possible exception of Michelle, I don't think there is a greater lover of the arts on Council. I attend an arts performance almost every week, and I would be extremely distressed if any of these arts groups left. But as I have told each of them individually, we have to lower the wage tax, and until that time, the private sector and the foundations have to fund these. And I can't go along with giving any money to any of these arts groups, as well.

The only two that don't fall into either one of the categories that I talked about so far are the Arsenal Board of Trade and the Bloomfield Citizens Council. Now, I feel strongly that both of these organizations should go through either the Neighborhood Fund procedure for receiving grants or, in the case of the Arsenal Board of Trade, through the Neighborhood Business Development Revitalization Committee process. But since they did not, I don't want to preclude them completely, so I will approve those two this year. And I will ask that a letter be sent by the City Clerk or from the budget staff to both of these institutions, or agencies, or groups telling them that they should go through the Neighborhood Fund or the Neighborhood Business Program so they don't go this route. I think that is why we have these two different bodies, actually three different bodies. We have Council for grants and donations, we have the Neighborhood Fund for neighborhood groups, and we have the Neighborhood Business Revitalization Committee for the neighborhood business groups.

So I will vote for them yes today, but not next year on these.

(End of remarks.)

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is it Council's pleasure to have this man come in on Wednesday for an interview?

Mr. Woods:

So moved.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Lyons:

I have a comment on another issue. I've become concerned about the vandalism that is going on in our City parks now. We know recently Leslie Park had been destroyed for about $600,000. There's been a lot of vandalism up at West Penn Park while its under construction, a lot of vandalism. And then just recently, last weekend was the vandalism of the Brookline Pool.

I think certainly that it's time for Council to take a look at and protect the interests of the City of Pittsburgh as well as the pleasures for our citizens. I don't have the solution for it but I think it's time for concern with this kind of money being wasted through just atrocities, just vandalism, just out and out destroying City properties. Certainly I feel that the Police Department, it may be necessary to expand the Police Department; but I do know this, that it is necessary at this time to do something.

Mr. Coyne:

Madam President, on the same issue. This morning I had the opportunity to go up to Brookline Memorial Park to look at the damage at the swimming pool that occurred there over the weekend. It was a senseless and horrendous act that it seems was carried on by a few but will adversely affect the entire community. If you saw on the news reports, and when you're there it's even worse, that several walls were totally destroyed, that railings were knocked off and thrown into the pool. The metal covers which were supposed to be vandal-proof were ripped off the filtration system, but it appears as if no damage itself was done to the filtration system.

At this time there are no estimates on the cost of the damage although Engineering and Construction is currently assessing the total damage and we'll have a figure as soon as possible.

I've also been in touch with the Department of Public Safety which is conducting an on-going investigation to identify the individuals involved in this senseless act. The Police Department has informed me that they have the names of approximately 15 juveniles, and they are pursuing the leads, because these folks were seen in the area the night of the occurrence. Their investigation is continuing and the Department of Parks and Recreation and the Public Safety Department has promised to keep me apprised of the situation and as I receive information I will relay it to Council and to the public. Thank you.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, I was also out there this morning and I took some photos that Councilmembers may want to look at about what happened at Brookline Community Center Pool over the weekend. It truly was, and I'm glad my colleagues have mentioned the issue, one of the worst cases of vandalism that I've seen here in the City of Pittsburgh. It's a relatively new pool; it's about six or seven years old and there has to be at least $10,000 to $20,000 in damage that has been done to it.

I think several things need to happen, obviously at this particular location and some of the others that Councilman Lyons has referred to. I think we need to get them repaired as soon as possible and hopefully get them open for the season. In the case with Brookline Community Center, to get the pool open for the swimming season.

In addition to that, a full investigation, I have requested, and must occur, to determine who was involved in this incident and to apprehend the people and to send a strong message that we cannot put up with vandalism of this sort in the City of Pittsburgh.

The other item that has to happen is increased patrols at all the parks and not just passing by the parks in the Police car. The Police have to stop at these park facilities, get out of their vehicles. If there are gangs there, move the gangs. If the gangs don't move, arrest them. It's that simple. If the park facility is closed, if it's after hours and there's people loitering there, they should be arrested because, if not, potential damage is going to occur with the facility.

In the case of Brookline, I understand one of the reasons why this occurred was that the lighting system which was damaged several months ago, a transformer was not in operation; therefore, the lights were not on along the roadway and these people could not even been seen. They were heard but they weren't seen. Consequently, if the lights would have been on, I think it would have acted as a deterrent. I was in touch with Duquesne Light Company and they told me that power will be on as of this afternoon up there and hopefully we can get Parks out there to turn the lights on on that private road owned by the City leading to the park beginning this evening.

In addition to that, I think this Council should find the dollars to install security systems in all of our park facilities. I know we have done it individually in several facilities throughout the City where vandalism has occurred. I don't think we should wait; I think we should go ahead and install the appropriate security systems in all buildings that potentially can be vandalized. The cost per building, I understand, is anywhere from $800 to $1,000. But certainly the cost of $800 to $1,000, if it could alert us that vandalism is going on and we can prevent a loss such as the one here at Brookline Community Center Pool, of anywhere from $10,000 to $20,000 to $30,000, it would be money well spent.

In addition, at this particular location, I've asked Mr. Reginella to please meet me there tomorrow morning again to take a look at the facility. Hopefully someone from Parks can show up. They can assess the damage and institute the appropriate measures.

So, hopefully, we can do more here from a police and a preventative point of view and reduce the potential of this occurring. It still isn't the summer and generally vandalism is greater in the summer than it is in the winter or the spring months. Therefore, we have to create a greater deterrent now to prevent this from happening any further.

Mr. Coyne:

Madam President, just one question for Mr. Wagner. Councilman, what time did you want someone from Parks there?

Mr. Wagner:

Someone from Engineering is meeting me there at 10:00 a.m. in the morning.

Mr. Coyne:

Thank you very much.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, in regards to the Koppers resolution, the people from Koppers got for me the names of the appropriate people to write to in protest to this hostile takeover and I'd like to list who those people are: Peter Cohen, he is the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Shearson Lehman Brothers Incorporated, American Express Tower, World Financial Center, New York, New York 10285. I'd like to say that again: Peter Cohen, Chairman, Shearson Lehman Brothers Incorporated, American Express Tower, World Financial Center, New York, New York, 10285.

There is also another man who is the Chairman of American Express Company: James Robinson, III, Chairman of American Express, American Express Tower, 200 Vesey Street, New York, New York 10285.

Any of the listeners out there, if the media could be helpful, to get these names printed and these addresses printed, and to get people in Pittsburgh and the surrounding area of Allegheny County and Western Pennsylvania to initiate an all out effort to let these individuals know that we are strongly against this hostile takeover.

Mr. Ferlic:

Very briefly, three unrelated points. First of all, on Mr. Wagner's point in relation to communicating to the Company, I would urge that if we have any direct or indirect financial relationship with any of the banking community on this issue, that we investigate the possibility of withdrawing our support from those financial institutions as the City government.

There are two companies over the weekend that I'm concerned about in terms of a potential loss of jobs. And in the absence of a formal plant closing notification law in this City, we heard through the Pittsburgh Press, I believe, the closing of Herbeck and Held Printing Company. As well it's rumored that the Fisher Scientific Company which is a very large company Downtown and I know operates a very large print shop is contemplating closing and/or moving from this City.

In relation to those two companies, I would ask that Council send a communication to Mayor Caligiuri and ask him to use his good offices, as he has many times in the past, to intervene in these situations or at least to communicate to these companies the potential assistance or help that maybe the City itself could offer these two companies.

In addition, the Urban Redevelopment Authority could certainly help package an employee stock or some type of an employee-owned company as was the expressed interest of some of the unions involved in Herbeck and Held. So, I'd like to make that motion or ask the President to please do that. I'd be happy to draft up a letter.

On two other brief points, I received a letter today; as well, members of Council may have received a letter from Mr. Ziegler, President of the Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation. I'm concerned about this letter and I want to be very clear on why I supported Mr. Pollock's resolution. That has to do with the LTV Works, the South Side J & L Works.

Mr. Ziegler's letter implies that my vote for that resolution has now guaranteed that the history of steel-making in Pittsburgh will be told for generations to come, meaning that Council's vote on that resolution somehow formally committed ourselves to seeing a museum of some sort on that property. Nothing could be further from the truth. As far as my vote, I only voted for that to stave off pending demolition. I agree with Mr. Wagner and also the efforts of the Steel Valley Authority about the electric arc furnace and Mr. Wagner's comment about the potential for other kinds of specialty steel-making. I'm very much opposed to any large percentage of that land becoming tax exempt and non-profit with a museum and I would argue, in fact, that of all the potential sites for a museum, there are places out in the Mon Valley that are actually better from a historical point of view than that property which is prime commercial property that I think we need to develop.

So, please, Mr. Ziegler, stand corrected, at least from this one Councilmember's concerns.

Thirdly, very quickly as the hour is late, I am very concerned and outraged at comments made by Mr. Mistick of the Mistick and Company Organization which is a so-called merit shop, non-union construction company, who has done and benefitted a lot from City and County and State public dollars. I'm very outraged and I think all of Council and the public should be outraged with comments that this gentleman had made concerning the concerns that union organizations and individuals raised with Council this past week in a public hearing. He is quoted as saying in the Pittsburgh Press, and I quote Mr. Mistick, he says, "For some of these union guys, the tools of the trade include extortion, bribery, embezzlement and lying," Mistick said. "Because they aren't competitive in the marketplace, they have to resort to backroom politics to get their ends."

I find that ludicrous and laughable. If anybody is engaged in backroom wheeling and dealing, it's Mr. Mistick in order to gain some hegemony in the construction trade locally and, in fact, what I saw last week at a public hearing is citizens and unions democratically expressing their concern to City Council very openly and very publicly.

I'm concerned because I attended an inquest of a construction worker who is working for not much more than minimum wage at the Penn Central Station, probably never had a safety lesson in his life on the use of a safety belt. This gentleman who probably went to work expecting to shovel gravel and sand on the floor was working some fifty feet up on a dome at the Penn Central Building. He lost his life; this gentleman is now dead. This worker is dead, as far as I'm concerned, because of the profit interest agreed and the negligence of Mr. Mistick and Company and I would urge the Deputy Coroner, Mr. Gilkes, to file negligent charges against this company in relation to the situation of that poor worker.

And I just want to state publicly that I will not vote in the next year and a half that I am on Council for any bill that would commit public dollars to this company. I want to put neighborhood groups on notice and Mr. Mistick, don't come to any of my fundraisers, and I will not vote in any way, shape or form for any public dollars going to this company. And I find it laughable that he refers to his shop as a so-called merit shop.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, I have two last issues here. One relates somewhat to what Councilman Ferlo referred to, the Pittsburgh History and Landmarks and the South Side Works. I have sent all of you a copy of my letter, and the Mayor a copy of my letter, to Mr. David Carroll, Vice President of Public Affairs of LTV Company.

As I indicated last week prior to final vote on requesting an evaluation of historical designation, I wanted to see that bill held for at least a week to bring LTV Company in here. I indicated at that time, even if that didn't pass this Council, I was still going to request that. In this letter I have done that with Mr. Carroll; I have asked him to appear in front of Council on April 13th at 1:00 p.m. for a post agenda meeting to discuss the approximate 72 acres of property of the South Side Works.

The purpose of this request is to simply educate all of us with what is on that property. Certainly all the property is not buildings; a significant portion of it is not. I am not in favor of seeing the entire parcel of property designated historically. I think it is of value to this Council, the public, the Administration and anyone else who is interested to sit in on this presentation, if LTV is receptive. My sense is they are receptive and they will be here a week and a half from now.

My last item, and certainly not the least important, but as Chairman of Public Safety I am very disappointed in the continual problems of 911. I have mentioned verbally to the Director and various management people within 911 that this must stop. We have seen reprimands go out to people working in 911 for various problems that have occurred over the last several months.

Just this past weekend there was a question whether or not it is totally accurate; we will only be able to tell when we review the tapes of a delay through 911 on the problem at Brookline Pool. Approximately a week ago there was a shooting where there was a serious delay, an interruption, getting through to 911. We know what happened about four or five weeks ago with the rape in Homewood.

The problem, I for one, do not think that it is an individual personnel problem. I firmly believe that if there are continual problems within a particular department, the problem is management. I am going to ask Director Cannon, I am asking him publicly now and I am going to do it in writing, if another problem occurs in 911 I, as Chairman of Public Safety, want to see a management shakeup in the 911 system.

Harry Truman once said, "The buck stops here", and it's time that the buck has stopped. There are problems in 911. They are not individual personnel problems necessarily; I believe they are management problems. Something must be done soon to correct it. If we need more people, let's get more people. If we need to take certain things out of 911 that have never been there, like 255-INFO should have never been part of the 911 system, let's do all these things. But for once, let us get our act together in the 911 system and that can only be done through the management system. And I will keep you abreast of my activities there.

Mr. Ferlo

In response to Mr. Wagner, just very briefly. I think the 911 situation has grown more critical than the last several incidents have even implied. And I would remind Council that we have ultimate oversight on this issue. And I would also like to remind Council that we can conduct formal investigations into departments of City government and I think it's fast approaching a time, again, you know my bias; I voiced my strong opposition against the Public Safety Department from the beginning, probably for this reason. I think we put millions of dollars into equipment and we're not backing it up with the proper management. But if this situation is not resolved shortly, I would encourage Mr. Wagner to consider some type of formal oversight or overview or investigation by Council into the matter of the 911 system.

Mr. DePasquale moved to excuse Michelle Madoff for absence from the meeting.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Lyons

Council adjourned.

Michelle Madoff

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President, I'd like to ask Rich Cerrone who is the Vice President of Public Relations for the Pittsburgh Pirates to step forward to receive this first resolution. We also asked the Mayor and Carl Barger who is the President to join us today but unfortunately at 2:30 they have a board meeting, their monthly board meeting. As everyone knows, today is Opening Day of the Pirates.

Mr. Wagner and Mr. DePasquale present:

No. 576 WHEREAS, today, April 11, 1988 marks the opening of the 101st Home Baseball Season of the Pittsburgh Pirates; and

WHEREAS, in the past 100 years the Pirates have won five World Series Championships, nine National League Pennants, six Division Titles, and have provided thrills to millions of baseball fans; and

WHEREAS, the 1987 Pittsburgh Pirates finished the season with a flourish, winning 27 out of their last 38 games; and

WHEREAS, due to the leadership provided just two short years ago by Mayor Richard Caliguiri and others, we are able to have this Opening Day in Pittsburgh.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT

RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby wish the 1988 Pirates much success as they continue the climb to the top of the baseball world, and that in their 101st season they win at least 101 games; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council urge the people of Pittsburgh to come to Three Rivers Stadium and support the Pirates as they play HARDBALL IN '88.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Prior to Rich saying a few words, I simply want to say that the Stadium is sold out tonight; I believe that's the first sell-out in quite some time. The whole purpose of this resolution is not only ceremonial but to bring attention to what everyone considers to be a very exciting baseball team for 1988. We hope that everyone will get out there to the Stadium and support the team and they will not only have a record number of wins this year but also a record attendance.

As you know, the City of Pittsburgh owns half of the Pittsburgh Pirates and so does many other corporations and individuals. So therefore, it's even more important for us to support the Pirates in 1988.

It's a pleasure and an honor to introduce Rich Cerrone, Vice President of Public Relations of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Mr. Cerrone:

I'd like to thank the Council and Mr. Wagner for this wonderful honor for the ball club. I do apologize, as Mr. Wagner said, Mr. Barger and the Mayor are at a Board of Directors meeting but very happily, as he touched on, there are some wonderful things that I'm sure they're discussing. Tonight's sell-out which we announced on Saturday is the first sell-out in the history of Three Rivers Stadium for the Pirates, so we're very pleased about that.

We also learned today that our Saturday afternoon game on April 23rd will be carried nationally by NBC as their Game of the Week, and if we win tonight and the Cubs lose, the Pittsburgh Pirates are in first place in the National League East.

So, there's a lot of good things but we will not forget, we will never forget, that all of these good things would not be possible if not for the hard work of Mayor Caliguiri, of the City Council, of all of you here today. Thank you so much.

Mr. Lyons presents

No. 577 WHEREAS, on Saturday afternoon, April 16, 1988, the parishioners of the Morningside Baptist Church located in the Garfield area will celebrate the fifth Pastoral Anniversary of their Pastor, Reverend Tenolia J. Guice; and

WHEREAS, Reverend Guice was ordained in 1976 and has always carried out his ministerial duties in the Pittsburgh area, serving as Associate Pastor of the Good Hope Baptist Church, prior to his appointment with the Morningside Baptist Church in 1983; and

WHEREAS, Reverend Guice was educated in the public school system in Dallas, Texas, received his Bachelor of Arts Degree from Bishop College, Dallas, Texas, earned a Masters Degree in Education from Duquesne University, attended the Pittsburgh Theological Seminary for two years and completed his education by earning his second Master's Degree in Theology from Duquesne University; and

WHEREAS, Reverend Guice has retired from the Pittsburgh Board of Education, having served as a teacher at Westinghouse High School for many years, so that he may devote full time to preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ; and

WHEREAS, Reverend Guice's current ministry has revitalized his church and much of the Garfield community, leading several new development projects at the Morningside Baptist Church; and

WHEREAS, Reverend Guice is married to the erstwhile Ollie Mae Hyatt, a counselor at Taylor Allderdice High School, who has always been supportive of her husband's call to the ministry, and they were the proud parents of a son--Gregory, whom God took in October of 1974.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby congratulate the Reverend Guice on the celebration of his fifth Pastoral Anniversary at the Morningside Baptist Church in the Garfield area.

Mr. Lyons moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Lyons:

I would like to say this, when the names of the great citizens of Pittsburgh be mentioned of trying to make Pittsburgh continue to be the Number One City in the country, Reverend and Mrs. Guice will rank and be enumerated high in that number.

I would like to have Reverend Guice express himself.

Reverend Guice:

Thank you, Madam President, Council, and other members present, especially Otis Lyons, Jr. and others. It's an honor for me to accept this proclamation on my fifth anniversary as Pastor of the Morningside Baptist Church in Pittsburgh in the Garfield area.

As a teacher, I was a teacher not long ago in the City schools of Pittsburgh, and as a teacher I was involved with students and with parents. And that's quite an involvement, as many of you know.

As a pastor I have a greater involvement and a new field of endeavor. As pastor, I have a greater responsibility in that I am also responsible for the souls and social activities for those who do not have any form of recreation. We also provide opportunities for those who do not have any counseling; we counsel those who need counseling in marriage, we counsel those who are despondent.

We also have help from the congregation and members and we appreciate that because they help us with the great spirit in promoting our services to the community.

We would like to thank and appreciate this opportunity to come forth today to receive this proclamation. My sincere thanks to the Council and I shall always remember and treasure this opportunity. Thank you very much.

The Chair:

Our next resolution is presented by all members of City Council, introduced by Mr. Pollock and Mr. Wagner.

Mr. Perry:

Before I read this, I'd like to call on Councilman Pollock and Councilman Wagner to please come forward. Also, Kevin Kerwin and Principal Brother Richard and I guess all the members of the team and cheerleaders and coaches and whoever come up please.

Members of Council present

No. 578 WHEREAS, the Seton-LaSalle Boys Basketball team won their first Pennsylvania Interscholastic Association Class AAA Championship; and

WHEREAS, the Seton-LaSalle Rebels completed the season with 26 wins and 6 losses by defeating Milton High School 77-72 at the Hershey Park Arena; and

WHEREAS, the SETON-LASALLE CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM is comprised of DAVE BINKOWSKI, JULIUS CAYE, MIKE DEVINE, STEVE HARTZ, KEVIN KERWIN, BILL LONERO, JEFF MEDER, CRAIG POLLICE, KEVIN SALVADORI, JIM SATALIN, ED VAVRO, BRIAN WALTERS, MARC PANNUCCI, TODD KLETTER AND RON MUSZYNSKI; and

WHEREAS, the Seton-LaSalle Boys Basketball team has brought pride and honor to their school, families, neighborhoods and the entire City of Pittsburgh with their athletic accomplishment.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby congratulates the entire Seton-LaSalle organization, including Principal Brother Richard Grzeskiewicz, Vice-Principals Jim Palmer and Sister Kathryn Palas, Athletic Director Charles Rutter, Team Managers Patty Sweeney and Missy Mace, Head Coach Walt Milinski, Assistant Coaches Walt Milinski, Jr. and Tom "The Dog" DiBasi on winning their first PIAA Triple A Championship; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council also applauds the efforts of the team's cheerleaders, Becky Barrett, Jenny Lewandowski, Mary McGerver, Denise Woods, Pam Woods, Ingrid Fierle, Molly Duffy, Carole Roth, Jennifer Rowles, Donna Bucci, Beth Kemerer, Lori Niederburger and their coordinator, Mary Beth Palmer, who kept the spirit of the team, school and all their fans enthusiastic at all times.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

It should be pointed out that this is truly a team that came back because they did not win the WPIAA Championship; they were defeated there. They were forced to play before they got to Hershey a team that had already defeated them twice - Allequippa beat you guys twice during the year - so this was the third time that they came back and beat Allequippa to get to Hershey and then win the State Championship in Hershey. So, it's truly a great victory for Seton-LaSalle and for the City.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mark, if I may. I found out how they won; they threw the other teams off stride with these pretty cheerleaders.

Is "The Dog" DiBasi related to "Ham"?

Mr. Wagner:

Jeep, I'll answer that question. Yes, he is related; he's a friend of mine. I put that in there and I'm sure he's not going to be happy with me.

But I want to compliment each and every one of you, the school, Seton-LaSalle, the Administration, Brother Richard, the coaching staff, Coach Milinski, all the players, all the cheerleaders, all the people behind the team, the student body, the families, and just about everyone involved, including many communities. Seton-LaSalle does not only attract students from the City of Pittsburgh, mostly the communities of Brookline, Beechview, Overbrook, but also communities such as Dormont, Mount Lebanon, Scott Township, Castle Shannon, Baldwin. I may have left a few out but there were a lot of people, a lot of good fans behind this team this year.

This is the first WPIAA Championship for the boys, but it's actually the second for Seton-LaSalle; the girls won a couple years ago. So, I guess the guys are catching up with the girls.

But I want to compliment all of you for doing a great job. You really did come back and maybe there was a premonition. I understand Bill Lonerio had some Hershey wrappers on his locker from the beginning of the year which indicated that they were going to Hershey. And yes, they did to go Hershey and they won, and they won the State Championship and we're all very proud of you.

I understand both Brother Richard and Kevin, one of the co-captains, are going to say a few words.

Brother Richard:

Thank you, Councilman Wagner. On behalf of Seton-LaSalle High School, we're very grateful to you for this special honor. We're very proud to have been able to bring back the championship trophy to Western Pennsylvania and the City of Pittsburgh.

I'd like to introduce Coach Walt Milinski to say a few words on behalf of the team and the Coach will then introduce Kevin Kerwin.

Coach Milinski:

I just want to add briefly to what Brother said, that we were pleased to go to Hershey, Pennsylvania for our first State Championship and to represent the City of Champions and great athletic teams like the Pittsburgh Pirates and others and be fortunate enough to win and bring back the gold. Thank you.

Kevin Kerwin will say a few words on behalf of our basketball team; he is one of our tri-captains this year.

Kevin Kerwin:

On behalf of the team, we'd just like to thank City Council for having us down here. And we'd just like to say that it was a great honor to bring back a state title to the City of Pittsburgh and Western Pennsylvania.

Mr. DePasquale presented

Which was read and referred to the Board of Code Review for report and recommendation.

Mr. Pollock:

I'd like to make the motion that Bill No. 565 is referred to the Board of Code Review before it comes to Council. It has to be reviewed by them.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Point of procedure. Could Councilman Pollock just clarify this piece of legislation and then secondly, procedurally, is this something that we first vote on and discuss and then it goes to Code Review? Or does it automatically go to Code Review when it's submitted?

Mr. Perry:

Usually it's referred to Committee and then from Committee it goes to the Board of Code Review.

Mr. Pollock:

We don't discuss it in Committee. We can't discuss it until the Board of Code Review acts on it.

Mr. Perry:

Right. The Board of Code Review has to act on it but Mr. Pollock is cutting corners just so it's sent down to --

Mr. Ferlo:

I want to be clear on the procedure. I don't know about the bill and I wanted to ask Councilman Pollock about it's content, but to be clear on the procedure, is this something that as an act of Council we are communicating this legislation to the Code Review for their consideration or is this coming from an individual member of Council? What is the precedent and what is the procedure?

Mr. Pollock:

The way the City Code reads, before Council can even address the issue, upon the introduction of it by any member of Council the Board of Code Review has to act on it and make a recommendation before Council even discusses it. Is that your recollection, Mr. Perry?

Mr. Perry:

That's correct.

Mr. Ferlo:

So it's going to Code Review not necessarily on behalf of Council or coming with any affirmative or negative recommendation, but that's the procedure that has been in place?

Mr. Pollock:

It has to be that way.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President and members of Council, on Bill No. 464, in relation to the expenditure to pay for various drug testing of new employees, people for promotion as well as existing employees, I cannot support this legislation as it is being presented by the Administration. I personally feel that the morale in the Public Safety Department is still extremely low; I find that there's a tremendous amount of divisiveness in the Department. I think there are a number of things that Council needs to review concerning policies that have been administered in the Police, Fire and EMS Bureau.

I still believe strongly that there will be, and I'm fearful that there will be, abuse by the existing administrators of the Department of Public Safety regarding the drug testing. I think, unfortunately, the drug testing will be selectively enforced. I don't see why we can't have reasonable cause when we are infringing upon people's rights. And I think the fundamental reason why I'm concerned is that drug testing and everything I've been able to understand from the scientific community is that it's not accurate.

For all of those combined reasons, I cannot in good faith support this legislation so I will be voting no. Thank you.

Mr. Wagner:

I move to recommit Bill No. 464.

Mr. Woods:

Madam President, I missed last Wednesday's meeting and I apologize for that. I suggest that Council rethink it's vote and vote in favor of giving this $12,000 to the Arts Festival, especially those members who were on Council last year when we all voted for this budget and in that budget was the $12,000 for the Arts Festival.

We give a lot of money away and $12,000 is not a lot of money to give to the Arts Festival when we receive ten times that, and I hate to quote editorials in the newspapers, but just in parking taxes alone. All the people that come down here that go to our restaurants, our shops. I think it's a small contribution of $12,000 from this Council.

I understand Council's feelings, Mr. Coyne's, about the Police protection, the EMS, the Fire, the refuse pickup. But I believe that just the people coming here in tens of thousands offset any other costs that we have. We make a lot of money on this and I urge Council to rethink its vote and vote in favor.

Mr. Pollock:

I think I have greater standing to discuss grants than any other member of Council since I'm the only one who has been opposing all the other giveaways that this Council recently approved. Like just last week the Little Leagues, the football teams, the local parades; anyone that comes up to Council can generally find someone dressed in a Santa Claus costume to give them something. In the end of the budget process in 1987 I opposed all these giveaways and I still oppose them.

My feeling on the gift, the grant, to the Arts Festival is that there should not be a grant but there should also not be a charge. I think it should be awash. I think that, although the Mayor feels strongly about it and his Administration and his employees feel very strongly, his Directors, that Public Works, Public Safety, City Parks and other personnel and services that are supplied, some of the expense should be retrieved by way of a charge to the Regatta, the Arts Festival, the Marathon and so forth. But I think that what has to be looked at, as Mr. Woods so articulately stated, that the City reaps an enormous benefit from the Arts Festival in terms of not only parking taxes, which he alluded to, but also the room nights. The other events that are held are one day events; the Arts Festival is the only one that really benefits the hotels and the room nights. And if you have a person in this City overnight, the amount of money spent is enormous. They have to eat three meals a day; they have to do everything else that they have to do, shop and so forth. So, in that sense, the Arts Festival is unique.

In addition to that, the other organizations in this City which I have opposed receiving gifts, grants, are all groups that charge people; the Dance Council, the Ballet, the Opera, which I opposed all of them at this time and which I use probably more than any other member of Council, all charge; they all have an admission. The Arts Festival, there are no charges. So, that has to be looked at as well.

The Mayor, I believe, is taking the posture, I know some of his Directors are still of the posture that they are going to charge a certain percentage of the expense calculated for cost to the City. So, I would be my posture today that while I oppose that and I oppose the grant, that we approve the grant with the proviso that the grant be granted only if the charge to the Arts Festival continue. If the charge is removed, then

I would introduce the legislation to repeal the grant so that there would be no grant to the Arts Festival but no charge to the Arts Festival as well. The Arts Festival should be supported in terms of our personnel and our services to the Arts Festival, but no dollars going to it.

I think also that the Arts Festival should look very, very long and hard at the suggestion that the Mayor made and that artists have made to shorten the Arts Festival from 17 days to 10 days. I think that 17 days is too long; I think that many artists feel that it's too long and I would ask them to seriously look at shortening it to a 10 day festival.

But before us today is the grant with the knowledge that the City is going to be charging for services rendered, at least a percentage of it, 20 or 40 percent, whatever it is, which would mean that there be a negative cost, negative cash flow with the City. So, to offset that cash flow going back to the City, I would support the grant today but, again, if the City removes its charges, I would ask to repeal the grant so it would be awash and there would be no charge and no grant.

The Chair:

Mr. Wagner?

Mr. Coyne:

Madam President --

The Chair:

I'm sorry; did you have your hand up first? Excuse me, Mr. Wagner.

Mr. Wagner:

Okay, I'll yield.

Mr. Coyne:

I am the Chairman of the Committee and I would appreciate the chance to speak. But I will defer to Mr. Wagner since you called on him first.

Mr. Wagner:

No, I yield.

The Chair:

I didn't notice; I'm sorry. Mr. Coyne?

Mr. Coyne:

Madam President, I have been opposed and I am opposed to granting the $12,000 to the Arts Festival.

If I may quote a newspaper article, the Pittsburgh Press, it says, "How can the City justify reductions in its financial support to the annual show?" The answer is simple; when you don't have the money, you don't have to justify not spending it.

I must reiterate to my colleagues, this is a regional event. Not only do the residents of the City attend, but residents from Westmoreland County, Washington County, Greene County, and other surrounding counties and municipalities attend it.

$12,000, what we're talking about, isn't that much to an event such as the Arts Festival who has almost a $1 million budget. But this $12,000 could be better put to use by a community organization or a couple community organizations. If we took three community groups in some areas of Pittsburgh and gave them $4,000 each, it could make a major impact in the programming and a major impact on the life in that community. And I think we would be better looking to spend the money in that direction.

Also, on the contribution of the County to the Three Rivers Arts Festival, the County contributes roughly $10,000. City taxpayers are also County taxpayers. That means, not only are we contributing in kind services which last year reached over $76,000, but this year the City taxpayer will be putting in the City tax dollars to equal the $12,000. Also, his County taxes will be giving another $10,000 to the Arts Festival.

I realize that the City does gain a lot and I realize that is a very attractive event. But, so is the Regatta, so is the Marathon, so is the Vintage Grand Prix and so is the Children's Festival. City Council has not allotted one penny of a grant to any of those organizations or any of those events so I don't think it's fair, really, to award one group when you're not awarding the others.

So, I would ask my colleagues to think about not giving this $12,000 because I feel it will set up an unwise precedent for the other events and, also, I don't think they need it. I think we're doing enough for the Arts Festival in in kind services.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, I think there are two sides to this issue and I think it could be well debated here on this Council as to what should be done with this particular bill and an allocation of $12,000 to the Three Rivers Arts Festival.

I do want to state that in response to Councilman Pollock, this is one Councilmember that on all grants and donations, and I voted for the budget in 1988 and I voted for this $12,000 allocation to be put in the budget, I did it with a lot of forethought as to whom I thought deserved to get City taxpayer dollars through grants and donations. This was one of the groups that I voted for, and I voted for the budget, and the majority of Council at that time also voted for the budget; not all Councilmembers but the majority of Council did. And this particular item was not line item vetoed by the Mayor at the time. I think there was justification for that and the justification for it was the benefit that this particular event brings back to the City of Pittsburgh. When I say benefit, I'm talking about economically and culturally.

The investment of services that we give towards a special event does have a direct return to the City of Pittsburgh. It has a direct return in terms of parking taxes, it has a direct return in terms of many other types of taxes, wage taxes, etc., to the Downtown merchants and surrounding merchants in the City of Pittsburgh. The use of our hotels is up drastically through the Three Rivers Regatta; the use of restaurants and the use of stores in Downtown Pittsburgh increases during that period of time. It has been estimated that $13 million is brought into our economy. If three-fourths of that is outside the City of Pittsburgh, I think that's terrific because that's approximately $9 million that we would not have had in our economy during that time frame if we did not have this event going on.

I think that's the important factor here. Do we want an event like this, and if we do want it, are we willing to support it to some degree? I understand that the Three Rivers Arts Festival operated at a deficit last year of $50,000; approximately 40 percent of the revenue to operate it which is approximately $1 million per year comes from the various vendors and the people participating in the Three Rivers Arts Festival. The other dollars come from corporations, foundations and individual donations to the event.

I think the return that we're getting is significant and I don't believe that a $12,000 allocation is excessive and I think it's a tremendous benefit to this City. Anyone, any resident of this City, can go to the Three Rivers Arts Festival for nothing, in essence, can go down there and can enjoy themselves for 17 during that entire event. Now, whether or not the event should be 17 days or not I think is a good issue that Councilman Coyne has brought up, that the Mayor has brought up, that this Council in the past has brought up. And I think it's in the best interest of this Council and the Mayor and the Three Rivers Arts Festival to sit down with them between now and 1989 and let's talk about the length of this festival. And if it's beneficial economically to the City, let's support it. If it's not beneficial, let's not support it at the length of time in which it is being suggested. I believe that can be accomplished through the permits that are granted for the event.

But at this point in time, I voted to put this in the budget in December of 1987 for the 1988 budget and I am again, today, voting for this $12,000 allocation.

Mr. Lyons:

I'll be very brief. I'm not flipflopping but I would vote for the bill today having found that it was part of the budget for 1988, voted in by Council. And if we were to take that out, I can sympathize with my colleague, the Chairman, Councilman Coyne, very readily; but if it had not been in the budget, I would not have voted for it. But for $12,000, we get too much returns for this small thing. I understand that we've already given them a lot of money but if we voted no and it's a line item in the budget, then what would be safe in the budget? Therefore, my vote will be in the affirmative for the $12,000.

Mr. Ferla:

I think it's very important that we support the Festival; I don't think there's any question and I would not attempt to dispute the information that I know we received in the mail today I assume from the organizers of the Festival where they talk about, in good detail, the hundreds of thousands, if not millions of dollars that are brought in in revenue to the City. I don't dispute that.

I think it's also very clear that this Council and the Administration is very concerned about helping the Downtown community in bringing in more pedestrian traffic and more people who will come into town to spend money. I don't dispute that.

However, I, in good conscience, cannot vote to support the $12,000 appropriation but what I would argue very clearly is that the $12,000 is not really the meat of the issue here. I would concur - and again, it's always fortunate, once in a while you get to agree with an adversary because I think Mr. Pollock has made an important point which I agree with - the real issue to me is not the $12,000 but the amount of money that represents five or six times that amount of money that the City is requesting or demanding or arguing should be returned to the City coffers, some $50,000 or $60,000 in reimbursement for services.

I'm opposed to appropriating the $12,000 but, on the other hand, I think it's important and I agree with the Festival organizers and those in the Downtown community about the value and the good that comes out of the 10 day or 17 day or I could care if it's 25 days because we do reap tremendous benefits from that. I'm voting against the $12,000 because other groups have not received this appropriation. But, on the other hand, I think it's wrong for the Administration to receive reimbursement for services because I think this should be something that is legitimately a contribution from the City because we reap tremendous benefits from it.

The other thing I'm concerned about as I look at the cross section of Pittsburghers who attend various events. The Administration funded the Pirates' $21 million bond issue. We've given an $11 million bond issue for DeBartolo for the activities at the Civic Arena. There are hundreds of thousands of dollars that we've spent in other kinds of activities in Parks and Recreation. All of these various events attract different types of folks from the Pittsburgh community; there are those who would go to the Festival and enjoy that activity as taxpayers and residents who don't necessarily participate in and support the Pirates affair or the activities at the Civic Arena. So, I think we ought to try to reach out and broadly represent all of the varied interests of our constituents.

So, again, I'm saying very clearly that I'm voting against the $12,000 appropriation; I agree with Councilman Coyne. But I'm fundamentally opposed to the Festival being plagued with having to make a reimbursement for services.

I'll close by asking that the headliner who does the Post-Gazette please read the article because I think the article did a disservice by somehow suggesting that this Council voted to give money to emergency shelters but then was being Uncle Scrooge in voting against the $12,000 appropriation. The money for the emergency shelters are categorical federal grant monies and we are acting as a conduit for those funds.

So, I'd like to encourage that individual to read the article before they put broadside headlines on the newspaper.

Thank you, Madam President.

Mr. Pollock:

I'd just think it should be pointed out that it's very difficult for anybody to vote against this when it is truly an investment that brings dollars in when this Council last week gave away money to organizations that bring no money into the City whatsoever. I don't think this Council should be in the business of funding Little Leagues and football teams and local parades and everything else that bring no money, no economic development benefits and nothing else. It should be purely self-sustaining. And everyone on this Council except myself voted to give this money away and now, a week later, something that's truly an investment, not to mention the improvement of the quality of life, is now being opposed by certain people. So, I think it's ludicrous to even discuss that.

Mr. Coyne:

Madam President, I wasn't going to comment any further until Mr. Pollock made his comments on the Little Leagues. I think it is a fine investment for the City to invest its money back to the taxpayers and to fund programs such as Little Leagues and neighborhood events. I think we have to give our citizens something for their money and not only services but we have to work on increasing the quality of life out in our neighborhoods. They're the folks who live in the City, they're the people who are paying the four percent tax, they're the people who deserve to get something back from City government besides services.

Also, to talk about the $12,000 again, it is a small amount of money for that festival. Granted, it is a good festival and it does bring money into the City. But, once again, it is a regional event. And as Councilman Ferlo so aptly put, we fund things in this City so much for people who live outside, it's about time we start worrying about our own house and invest the money in something for Pittsburghers.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President, the two individuals, Burgwin and Schmidt, are they City residents?

Mr. Perry:

5700 Fair Oaks Street.

The Chair:

That's Squirrel Hill.

Mr. Perry:

And Schmidt is 1060 Highmont Road, 15232.

Mr. Pollock:

32 is all in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Ferlo:

Okay.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Coyne:

Madam President, I'd like to make the motion that the public hearing be televised tomorrow.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President, just a couple of points very briefly. I would like to ask Council to communicate or have the City Clerk communicate either to the Port Authority or to the Police Department or to our Solicitor, and I'm not sure who, on the issue of the Fifth Avenue Bus Lane which, if I read the paper correctly, yesterday another individual was killed stepping off the curb in the Oakland corridor. I have not kept track but my recollection over the last five or six years in particular, I can recall at least five or six individuals who have been killed stepping off the curb onto the busway.

I think it's time for City Council to review this matter. Personally, when it was originally approved by Council to give the Port Authority that right of way, I had called it into question at that time. But I think given the sinful number of people who have been killed there, and again, a number of these people were out of town individuals visiting family members at the area hospitals, I'm asking Council to please look into this matter. Ask for the information because specifically I'd like to know when the designation comes up again on the right of way that I believe was permitted by Council ordinance.

So, I'd like some information from the Administration regarding the number of deaths in that corridor since the changeover that took place. And at that time, I would like to suggest that Council consider moving back the buslane to the Forbes Avenue corridor so that it's logical and that it's safe for pedestrian and vehicular traffic.

The Chair:

What specifically do you want now?

Mr. Ferlo:

I'd like to get this information vis-a-vis the City Clerk to, I believe, possibly the Department of Public Safety. I would imagine it would be the appropriate individual and possibly the Port Authority.

Mr. DePasquale:

On that same subject, if you don't mind, Jim. There's a lot of construction going on out in that area right now; McKee Place, Forbes Avenue, down by the University Inn, what have you. They definitely should have a flagman or a policeman out there during the day, especially for pedestrians. It's almost impossible to cross the street at Forbes and McKee, almost impossible. You have to go out into the middle of the street and there's nobody down there directing traffic, no flagperson whatsoever. Up at Meyran which is just block from where that construction is taking place and I can imagine in all that confusion that person stepped off that curb and boom. I'm not blaming the driver or anybody else; it's just a mess up there.

The Chair:

Don't you think that's the responsibility of the contractor to provide that? We will write them a letter; I'll ask Mr. Gaetano —

Mr. Ferlo:

I have no problem with that but in addition I would like to receive this information from the Port Authority and the Department of Public Safety.

I might point out to Councilmembers, if you go out to the area the yellow line which used to be painted there is completely wiped away and worn away so when people are stepping off the curb, they don't really realize unless they're looking to the left, which is not your natural reaction to look that way, that there is the buslane. I think this is the third individual who was out of town visiting the hospital system there, stepping off the curb.

So, immediately I think the Public Works Department could at least get out there and paint a red line from Craft Avenue straight down to Bellefield and at least highlight the area so that people at least look that something is different on the street before they jump off the curb.

But on a longer range, I think Council should re-evaluate its designation of that Parkway. I see no reason whatsoever why the busses couldn't continue to go straight down Forbes Avenue like they used to 12 or 13 years ago. So, I would like that information forwarded.

On two separate matters, and I'll be very brief —

Mr. Wagner:

Could I comment on the same issue.

Mr. Ferlo:

I have no problem as long as I can continue to have the floor to discuss two brief other issues.

Mr. Wagner:

On this issue, Madam President and members of Council. I'm glad Councilmen Ferlo and DePasquale brought the issue up. I think it does need some dialogue and some information and I'm pleased to hear that the information is being requested from the Port Authority as to the number of accidents that we are having here and the number of injuries. In addition, the similar type of information from the Public Safety Department and/or Traffic Engineering which, I understand, falls under Engineering and Construction.

I would also like to know from our Solicitor, in regard to the same issue, whether legislatively we can require the Port Authority to install a guardrail along the entire length of where a bus route is that is going in the opposite direction of a one-way street. If we can do that legislatively, I believe we should pursue it here in this Council because there have been too many injuries because of people walking out into a street, and I think the cause is that they think it's one way, going in one direction only, and all of a sudden you have a bus coming in the other direction right along the curb lane which is normally a parking lane. That's the real problem here; it's normally a parking lane.

So, I think if these lanes are to continue, we definitely have to institute some additional safety measures, possibly requiring the Port Authority, not the City but the Port Authority, to install a guardrail along the entire length except at intersections. And also some signs that are at eye-height instructing pedestrians that this is a bus lane as soon as you step off the curb. To my knowledge, they do not exist or, if they do exist, they're not easily visible.

I would like that letter to go to the Solicitor as soon as possible. If we can legislate that, I would like to legislate that with a separate piece of legislation.

The Chair:

Mr. Perry, will you write to Mr. Pellegrini?

Mr. Perry:

Yes.

Mr. Ferlic:

Very briefly on two other points, on the continued issue regarding the appointment, or the not appointment of Mr. Walkowski and the appointment of Mr. Noonan, again, I'm not reflecting any comments relative to Mr. Noonan; I don't really know the gentleman at all but I assume he's very well qualified. I do have a major problem with him representing the Urban Redevelopment Authority and then going on the Board of Adjustment.

In addition, I think I've expressed myself on the issue of Mr. Walkowski not being permitted to finish out his term.

Thirdly, I am concerned generally about some of the appointments the Mayor has made, continually nominating people who are non-City residents for important policy making, decision making boards and authorities in the City of Pittsburgh.

I would like to ask, because I don't know if other Councilmembers have received phone calls, but I have received at least three phone calls from neighborhood groups in the last week and a half asking for their right to have some kind of dialogue or the right to a public hearing on the matters of the appointments. I would like to ask Council, prior to final approval of the appointments of Mr. Noonan and others, to at least allow for a public hearing, allow the citizens and neighborhood groups the right to communicate their concerns to Council on the non-residency as well as the potential conflict of interest regarding the appointment of Mr. Noonan representing the Urban Redevelopment Authority.

So, I'd like to make a motion to conduct a public hearing regarding this issue of the Mayor's appointments.

The Chair:

We've never done it before where appointments are concerned.

Is there a second to the motion?

Hearing no second, it fails for the lack of a second.

Mr. Ferlo:

The third thing I'm concerned about, Madam President, it's come to my attention that the Deputy Director or Assistant Director of General Services purchased an automobile.

The Chair:

What's the name? Who is it?

Mr. Ferlo:

I believe the individual's name is Susan Goetz. I don't want to point an accusatory finger but I believe it's been the standing policy of City government not to allow employees to purchase automobiles from the tow pound or from the auction block, whether it be our own fleet or automobiles that the public no longer has possession of.

The information that I understand regarding this issue at least suggests an impropriety and a lack of judgment on the part of this individual and I think it's important that Council receive a report from Director Botsford regarding this issue. My information would at least suggest that this Deputy Director tried to circumvent the process as well, and I'm concerned about that.

So, I would like to publicly call for the Director to respond to Council in writing and give us a report regarding the purchase of this Ford Granada, what were the circumstances, how can a Department Assistant Director not be aware of a long-time policy of City government. Did she attempt to circumvent the process? How much is the car worth? And how can we now suggest, as the Department Director has to me, that the automobile will be returned? I'd like to know from the Solicitor how one legally returns an automobile to the tow pound having already purchased it. It sort of mesmerizes me from a legal point of view.

So, for all those reasons, I'd be happy to draft a memo for Mr. Perry. I would like this Council to receive a formal report from the Director and the Administration regarding this issue.

The Chair:

We will ask for that report, Mr. Ferlo.

Mr. Wagner:

Just a couple quick items, Madam President. In regard to the letter that was sent to LTV, I hope all Councilmembers are aware that they have agreed to come into Council this Wednesday, April 13th, at 1:00 p.m., to put on a presentation about the present condition of the LTV South Side J & L Works. This is purely an informational presentation about that entire 72 acre site.

The other meeting that is coming up relating to a very important City issue is tomorrow at 1:30. Koppers has requested to have a meeting with Council to give us an update on what is going on, obviously, to keep Koppers in the City of Pittsburgh.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Mr. Lyons:

I believe that Councilman Wagner a few moments ago said that he wanted the City Clerk to write a letter to the Port Authority about putting up a railing. I would like to sit with Councilman Wagner before the letter goes out. Would you give me that courtesy?

The Chair:

Do you want to add to it?

Mr. Lyons:

Yes.

Mr. Wagner:

Okay. If I may add, my initial request is from the Solicitor to ask to what degree we can legislate requirements that would be mandated to the Port Authority such as a guardrail.

Mr. Lyons:

I'll join in that.

Mr. Woods moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, March 21, 1988 and Monday, March 28, 1988.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale moved to excuse Michelle Madoff for absence from the meeting.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Lyons

Council adjourned.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

I would like the following people who are victim service people to please come forward: Mary Alice Gorman, Mary Phan-Gruber, Carol Campbell,

Mary Cartwright, Marcella Cipriani, Jeff Kerr, Molly Knox, Amory Clark, Melanie McNair, Sandra Zolten, Shirley Darby, Kurt Trazella, Sophia Prince, Mary Anne McClair and Katie Clouse.

The Chair and Mr. Wagner present

No. 612 WHEREAS, some 35 million Americans are crime victims each year; and

WHEREAS, victims of crime and their loved ones in the City of Pittsburgh suffer grave financial, physical and psychological losses; and

WHEREAS, the trauma of victimization may affect victims and survivors in Pittsburgh and elsewhere for a lifetime; and

WHEREAS, many victims and survivors of crime exhibit determination, strength and courage in the aftermath of a crime; and

WHEREAS, certain groups—such as racial minority victims, victims of hate crimes, homeless victims, chronically mentally ill victims, gay and lesbian victims, elderly victims, child victims, surviving relatives of homicide victims, victims of drunk driving, victims of sexual assault, differently-abled victims, spouse abuse victims, catastrophic physical injury victims, and burglary victims—are often undeserved in many of our communities; and

WHEREAS, all citizens of the City of Pittsburgh deserve to be treated with dignity, compassion and justice and

WHEREAS, many victims and survivors still do not receive appropriate treatment in the aftermath of crime; and

WHEREAS, thousands of our fellow citizens in their work and their volunteer activities are helping victims of crime and crises.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby proclaim the week of April 17 through April 24, 1988 as "VICTIM RIGHTS WEEK" and urges all citizens and institutions in the City of Pittsburgh, public and private, to support the establishment and enforcement of victims rights and services through participation in local and state activities commemorating those rights.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mrs. Gorman:

On behalf of representatives here today from Mothers Against Drunk Driving, Pittsburgh Action Against Rape, Womenspace, Womenspace, Family Resources, Allegheny County Center For Victims Of Violent Crime, Women's Center and Shelter, the Hope Center and Crisis Center North, I thank City Council once again for the compassion and support they've shown to victims of violent crime. Before many other governmental agencies were looking to the needs of victims, the elected officials in Pittsburgh were certainly looking not only to the needs of victims but to lending that support for them. We thank you for this resolution.

Mr. Wagner:

I also would like to commend all of you. One of the most horrible experiences anyone can go through in life is a crime of various types. We want to publicly thank each and every one of you for making that experience a little less frightening to all those people. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, I'm really certainly supportive of the rhetoric of having the week declared Victims' Rights Week but boy there's a lot more that needs to be done. I need to see this Administration and this Council when budget time comes up to have our priorities in order and we need to see that you get here at budget time, get on the agenda, call Mike Perry at 255-2138 and make sure that your needs and your causes are addressed.

Mary Alice, I know you have an association where you help each other and maybe there's one building that we can put you in and maybe there something from an administrative point of view that we can make your operation more efficient. And you know you can count on my help any time as you have in the past.

Mrs. Gorman:

Thank you all.

Mr. Lyons:

Would Dr. Reid, Dr. Faison, Mr. Robinson and all those who are affiliated with NEED come forth please?

Mr. Lyons presents

No. 613 WHEREAS, the late Mrs. Louis J. Reizenstein and Mr. James A.

Jordan, with the assistance and dedication of many committee volunteers, founded the Negro Educational Emergency Drive to financially assist students and provide motivational stimulus to those who would aspire to post secondary education; and

WHEREAS, 21,208 grants have been allocated to Pittsburgh and Western Pennsylvania area students; and 5.5 million dollars have been generously contributed by Pittsburgh and Western Pennsylvania based corporations, civic and social organizations, as well as individuals; and

WHEREAS, the Negro Educational Emergency Drive continues to provide counseling, financial assistance and educational information to area youths; and

WHEREAS, on Tuesday, April 19, 1988, at the Pittsburgh Hilton Hotel, "NEED" will celebrate its 25th Anniversary.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of all its citizens, recognize the contributions, dedication, accomplishments and volunteer spirit of Executive Director Herman L. Reid, Jr., ED.D., and his staff and volunteers, past and present; Chairperson of the Board of Trustees, Mrs. Helen S. Faison, PH.D., and all Trustees; Mrs. James A. Jordan, Founder; and the late Mrs. Louis Reizenstein, on the occasion of the Negro Educational Emergency Drive's 25th Anniversary celebration.

Mr. Lyons moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Lyons:

Madam President, here in this crowd that has been very supportive of NEED we find two of our erstwhile Councilman, namely the senior man being Brother Jordan who has served on the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, and Brother Bill Robinson.

We will now hear expressions first from Mr. Reid and he will be followed by Dr. Faison and then in the order that they choose thereafter.

Mr. Reid:

I want to say on Council on behalf of the Negro Educational Emergency Drive and the more than 15,000 young people who have benefitted and for those who have yet to be served, NEED is proud to accept this resolution. And as we all know, education today is the key to what will happen to the future of our country and we wish to have this continued support. And for those of you who would like to, we invite you to attend the dinner tomorrow at 6:30. Thank you, Council.

Dr. Faison:

As Chairperson of the NEED Board of Directors, I wish also to say thank you for this resolution and proclamation.

With your permission, I would like to defer to Mrs. Marion Jordan, one of the two original founders of NEED who is present here.

Mrs. Jordan:

Thank you, Dr. Faison and thank you Herman Reid.

This really is a very happy day and I can tell you that I don't feel a day older than I did 25 years ago when Jim sat here on City Council and when Florence Reizenstein and I started this project.

Pittsburgh has always been a can-do city and I hope you're carrying on that reputation. We've cleaned up the City, we've developed the City, we passed the second best housing legislation in the City, New York was first. Many things have been done in this City and the reservoir of goodwill and talent is really unlimited.

So, I'm delighted to come back from Boston where I now live, where the Boston Celtics abide, and where today there is the Boston Marathon. I'm delighted to come back here because a part of our heart is here and I'm so delighted that this is carried on and the people who have diligently carried out the mandate that Florence and I felt was important for this City. Imagine more than 21,000 grants have been given; that in itself is extraordinary, isn't it?

So, keep up the good work and a part of my heart is right here in Pittsburgh. Thank you.

Mr. Jordan:

Madam President and members of Council, it's a pleasure to be back here. I've had so many warm memories of my experiences here except that we fought and I understand that you don't fight now. But so many good things have been done. One thing I can tell you all is that you'll look back on this experience on Council because it's a real opportunity to do good and to see the results of your activities, and that means a great deal. We've been able, I hope, to carry the message to Boston and other places of the good that's done in Pittsburgh as the Number One City.

I saw NEED grow from just an idea and my wife turned to me one night at home and said, as the result of the assassination of Medgar Evers, "What can we do?" She said, "Something has to be done." I said, "Well why don't you do it?" And out of that really literally grew the idea of NEED. She and Florence Reizenstein got together and invited a few people to a meeting to discuss it. Jack Coleman who was then a professor at Carnegie Mellon coined the name NEED, Negro Educational Emergency Drive. As a matter of fact, the group was so small, I remember the first time they were going to have a dinner, the hotels wouldn't trust them; they wouldn't give them any credit for the dinner. They raised $10,000 that first year to help the average student, not the top student or the bottom, but anyone who needed money to go to anything to get to school. Traveling around the country we have met more NEED recipients who are so grateful for the opportunity that was afforded to them and we've met people who are millionaires and successful performers and education people and everything. It just shows you what an idea will do.

Again, my heart goes out to you. It's so good to be back here in these Chambers; it brings back already so many memories. Thank you.

Mr. Robinson:

Madam President and members of Council, it's always a pleasure to return; it's my third time. I come more often than Councilman Jordan.

I've had the honor and perhaps distinction of being perhaps the first NEED recipient, certainly one of the first, before the organization had the type of structure that it has today. I remember being at Ohio State University and needing $200 to complete my undergraduate education and I couldn't find it anywhere. I thought about NEED because I had worked at the Urban League the summer before that, the summer of 1963; I guess I'm telling how old I am. I was very heartwarmed to get the response by way of a check within a week from NEED. I serve today on the Board of Trustees and it's nice to know that this organization has existed for 25 years. My sister was a NEED recipient; I have a cousin who was a need recipient. There are many young men and women who need the help of NEED. I got $200 25 years ago and the average grant from NEED today is only about $500 so we need a lot more money.

I think that I am some proof that NEED works and that there are young people, if you help them, they will come back and serve. I had the honor to serve on this Council for eight years; I considered it an honor and I still consider it an honor, and I thank you very much for the recognition that you've given to NEED today.

Mr. DePasquale and Mr. Wagner present

No. 614 WHEREAS, on March 30, 1988, the Pittsburgh Firefighter's Union Local #1, under the leadership of President Bernard R. Burns, held their annual luncheon at Poli's Restaurant; and

WHEREAS the purpose of this luncheon was to honor Pittsburgh firefighters who have distinguished themselves in the line of duty during 1987; and

WHEREAS, 15 firefighters were chosen this year by an Awards Committee who reviewed acts of valor or heroism which were considered above and beyond the normal realm of duty; and

WHEREAS, the firefighters chosen to be honored were Capt. Paul Beattie, Capt. George Devinney, Capt. James Flaherty, Lt. Harry Hores, Lt. Robert Walker, Lt. Chester Morgan, Firefighters Ronald Hintz, Gary Miller, Allison Plutt, William Robertson, Barry Hilling, Thomas Castle, Joseph Hannah, Joseph Dugan, James O'Toole, James Bisby, and Firefighter Raymond Erfort who received two awards.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby congratulates and commends these firefighters who risked their lives so that others might live and thanks them for their total dedication to saving the lives of the people of Pittsburgh.

Mr. DePasquale moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale:

I'd just like to say that the heroic efforts of these people here just symbolize the great Fire Department that we have in the City of Pittsburgh. I was at that luncheon; unfortunately, it was held when Council had a meeting, I went to a funeral and I had a chance to get out to the luncheon and none of the other Councilmembers could because they were at the meeting and that's the way it should have been. But at the same time, they've done this for the last three or four years and I just thought that it was about time that we gave them a second honor and brought them into Council and recognized them here.

Without further ado, I'll hand out the resolutions and then ask a couple of them to speak.

Mr. King:

First off, I want to thank Council personally. It's an honor to accept this resolution on recognition of the firefighters. President Bernie Burns was not able to make it here and again it gives me great honor to represent Mr. Burns and a fine group of firefighters like these fellows who are standing before you.

I apologize for the other recipients of this resolution for they had to be at duty today. But believe me, the men and women that accept a career in firefighting go out every day and risk their lives. It's a privilege that when they're recognized by their peers for distinguished for their service up and beyond the call of duty. It's an honor to be recognized by the public and I thank you personally. Thank you.

Captain Flaherty:

I'm Captain Flaherty; I work on Allequippa Street in the Hill District. All I'd like to say is that I thank Council for what they're doing today for us, but they also recognize our union pretty good. Every man on the job deserves this award today, not only us few right here or us few who got it a few days ago. We all do this every day of our lives and people don't understand this. It's just like going to work every day; it's a normal thing for us to do. I appreciate it; thank you.

The Chair:

Thank you, gentlemen.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President, I'd like to ask the North Catholic Girls' Trojanettes Basketball Team and the Principal, Athletic Director, Coaches and everyone that's here from North Catholic to please step forward for this resolution.

As everyone will see in the resolution, this is the fourth State Championship for this school and basketball team in the 1980's.

Mr. Wagner and Mr. Woods present

No. 615 WHEREAS, the North Catholic High School Girls Basketball Team displayed outstanding basketball talents during the 1987-88 season, compiling a record of 32 wins and only 1 loss; and

WHEREAS, the "Trojanettes" captured the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League (W.P.I.A.L.) Class Triple A Championship by defeating Beaver Falls; and

WHEREAS, the Trojanettes defeated Lancaster Catholic High School, 59-52, at Hershey Park Arena for their 25th consecutive victory and the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Association Class Triple A Championship; and

WHEREAS, the Members of the North Catholic State Championship Team are: Jackie Capizzi, Joni Pavlasky, Liz Flynn, Molly Larkin, Amy Gierl, Jennifer Phillips, Michele Klaas, Heather Eyerman, Jill Bujalski, Heather Lazzara, Jeanine Megahan, Karen Kokoski, Lisa Depp, Lisa Darkey, Kathy Exler, Amy Ott, Marcie Popek, Diane Palmieri and Carol Messmer, the team statistician; and

WHEREAS, this is the fourth state championship that Coach Don Barth has led the Trojanettes to in the 1980's and North Catholic is the first team in PIAA History to win four girls state basketball titles.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT

RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of Pittsburgh City Council hereby extend sincere commendation to the North Catholic High School Girls Basketball Team, Principal Dr. James DeTrude, Athletic Director Leon Kosakowski, Assistant Athletic Director James Porter, Head Coach Don Barth, Assistant Coaches Bob Darkey, Ken Gierl, Bill Larkin, Frank Windisch and Publicist Don Ireland on their outstanding regular season play and on winning the AAA State Championship and the WPIAL AAA Championship; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council declares the week of April 25 through May 1, 1988 to be North Catholic Trojanettes Championship Basketball Week in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Before asking Dr. DeTrude and Leo Kosakowski to say a few words, I'd also like to say that a publicist on Ireland is with us and he has been very instrumental; also in putting together this resolution Ralph Horgan in the back of the room has supplied quite a bit of information.

We also understand that you only have three seniors this year which means that the majority of this basketball team will be back next year and that is a great tribute to the school, to the Troy Hill community, all of North Side. We can't say enough about you and what you add to the City of Pittsburgh.

First of all, I'd like to ask Leo

Kosakowski to come forward and say a few words and then Dr. DeTrude. Congratulations.

Mr. Kosakowski:

Madam President and Councilmembers, I'd like to, on behalf of the school, thank you for acknowledging our school by recognizing the accomplishments of these 18 young ladies and the gentlemen who are their coaches. This is a classic example of teamwork, whether they are a senior or freshman, whether they are a starter or substitute, it's an example of teamwork as illustrated by this resolution. This is the only girls' team that has won the State title four times. Thank you.

Mr. Wagner:

This is Principal Dr. DeTrude and he is going to introduce one of the seniors to say a few words.

Mr. DeTrude:

Madam President and members of Council, I want to take this opportunity as the Principal at North Catholic to thank the members of Council for recognizing the achievements of young people in our community. I think it's tremendously important that the Council is very much aware of the outstanding efforts put into their education that these young people are achieving. Basketball is a particular example this afternoon regarding the achievements of these young women. The quality of these young women is just tremendous. And what I'm very happy about is that they keep their grades up. They're hard-working individuals and they had to accomplish academic responsibilities in order to participate in our basketball program. It certainly is a tribute to them and to their coaches that they have been able to maintain as a team a B average. And as an educator, as a principal, that delights me. It's important that North Catholic continues to make the educational contribution in the City of Pittsburgh that it has made over these many years. So, for those opportunities that you've given me to make these kinds of statements, I'm extremely grateful.

It is my pleasure at this time to introduce one of our senior captains, Joni Paulasky.

Joni Paulasky:

We'd just like to thank City Council for this proclamation. We're proud of our school but mostly of the City that we live in. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

I would hope that the young ladies who have shown such dexterity and skill might consider, among many other thoughts, consider a career as police officers and firefighters. Obviously you have dexterity, you have skill, and if you can pass the academy, we'd like to have you.

Mr. DePasquale:

If I may, I don't know any of these young ladies and I don't know Marcie Popek but I do know her dad. I also understand that Mr. Popek delivered newspapers to Councilman Lyons many, many years ago.

Mr. Wagner:

I might also add that they're all very pretty.

The Chair:

Thank you all very much.

Mr. DePasquale presented

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, Mr. Ferlo introduced a bill today repealing Resolution No. 185 which is the historic site for the J & L plant. I have no problem with his introducing that bill; it will come up routinely a week from Wednesday. However, in speaking to Peter Kelly, the Executive Vice President of LTV in Cleveland, it appears that there is a major problem. The problem is they can wait two weeks because there is an on-going meeting and dialogue that seems to be productive between Art Ziegler of the Historic Society and LTV, J & L. But they are holding up a contract for removal of asbestos so the people don't get asbestosis. The asbestos removal people who are licensed and qualified are hard to come by and they have a contract to start immediately. If they don't allow them to continue with the asbestos removal, the people available to them will go elsewhere and it will be a long time before they're back to do the job.

So, I would like to, if Mr. Ferlo agrees, waive Rule 8, have the issue come up this Wednesday and amend the repealing of the bill to allow the asbestos removal to continue. I don't know what the Parliamentarian would indicate but perhaps we could exempt that particular aspect right now under Old Business.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Wagner had organized a very important post agenda a week ago which yourself and Mr. Lyons and Mr. Coyne, I believe, and maybe a couple other people were there also. It was a very interesting post agenda and I think it shed a lot of different light on the issue of the demolition and the historical designation issue.

I want to defer to Mr. Wagner at this time who I believe is helping to prepare some further additional information regarding this issue. I have no problem, personally, ready to debate the issue on Wednesday. I don't want in any way to limit Mr. Wagner or others who want to prepare some additional materials for discussion before City Council. I know he's working on this issue and I wanted to know if he has any input at this time or any problem with expediting the discussion.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President, I'm not sure if that can be done from a legislative point of view, amending that bill to permit asbestos removal. I think that would have to be through excluding that portion of the site from the historical designation. And basically, that's been the intent all along here; to determine up front what portions of the site warrant historical designation and which portions of the site can be re-used for steel-making operation and designate that portion of the site historical, or request that it be designated, and then take the remaining portion of the 102 acres and let's get on with demolition and re-use of the property. Now whether or not that portion falls into Councilwoman Madoff's — What she's referring to, I'm not certain.

The Chair:

Are you suggesting then that we hold the whole thing?

Mr. Ferlo:

Can I just conclude? I just wanted to hear Mr. Wagner's comments. I have a suggestion, if Michelle would find this suitable. I think her point is well taken about the issue of asbestos. I would prefer to expedite this discussion for Wednesday, as Michelle has suggested, and in that vein I would hope that we would repeal the previous designation. That would allow the removal of the asbestos and the other activities to begin immediately. But we then would still have the prerogative as early as a week or two later to then redesignate a portion at least of that property, if that's what the opinion of the majority of Councilmembers is.

I'm personally opposed to any of the designation because I'm opposed to the notion of historical use of that property. That's my own individual opinion. But I don't feel that we should impede the efforts of the LTV Corporation as it relates to the removal of PCBs and asbestos and getting rid of some of the site that really needs to be demolished. That's why I introduced initially the resolution today to repeal the historical designation. But if we can expedite the discussion, waive Rule 8 and have the discussion on Wednesday, we can move on this point.

The Chair:

You're the maker of the motion, Mr. Ferlo; what do you want?

Mr. Ferlo:

I want to be clear that this is what Michelle is trying to put through.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, J & L needs to proceed as of this moment with the removal of the asbestos. They have a contract; they have the people ready to go. There's no way that we can amend the bill that is not before us so I'm suggesting, since this is Monday, that we waive Rule 8, it comes up on Wednesday and we can amend the bill. Even if we're going to hold it for two weeks, it can still be amended to exempt the removal of asbestos. That would be a minimum and then if it takes two weeks to resolve, the repealing or whatever have you, so be it. They can live with two weeks as far as repealing the bill. They can't live with two weeks on the asbestos; they need to have that amended today. And further, if they don't get it, they're going to court and seek an injunction under the bankruptcy rules and it's going to cost the City taxpayers money and they're going to proceed in any event.

So, my suggestion is that we waive Rule 8, have the issue come up on Wednesday. Mr. Wagner can talk to Mr. Peter Kelly, he's the Executive Vice President of J & L; I'll give him the number there. You can speak to anybody and everybody can have their input on Wednesday as to what they want to do. But we cannot hold up the removal of the asbestos; that has to proceed immediately.

As I said, we cannot amend a bill that is not before us. I strongly suggest that we waive Rule 8 and at least discuss it on Wednesday.

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of Order, Madam President. I refer this question to Mike Perry. Mike, are we empowered to repeal a bill within the same year?

Mr. Perry:

Yes.

Mr. DePasquale:

Within what period of time?

Mr. Perry:

You can do it within a week. There's no time limit on it.

Mr. DePasquale:

We could do it five months from now, six months from now?

Mr. Perry:

Right.

Mr. Ferlo:

On a Point of Procedure, Madam President. The only way to resolve this issue of the asbestos is to expedite the discussion on my legislation which repeals the historical designation and have that discussion Wednesday and I would urge Council to support that resolution to repeal the previous designation. Then the removal of asbestos can happen instantly. Procedurally, that's the only thing on the table right now without a new bill being introduced to amend the specific bill that Mr. Pollock had introduced a couple of weeks ago.

Let's be clear procedurally that at this point, unless someone can correct me or explain to me, the only thing right now on the table is the bill that I have introduced. We can waive Rule 8, we can support it, and the asbestos removal can take place.

The Chair:

Is that your motion at the moment?

Mr. Ferlo:

I make a motion to waive Rule 8 so that we can consider --

Mr. Lyons:

Point of Order. Madam President, I think since the bill has already passed, we would have to reconsider that bill to amend part of it.

Michelle Madoff:

We're not going to amend it. I just want to waive Rule 8.

Mr. Perry:

Waive Rule 8 so it goes into Committee on Wednesday.

Mr. Lyons:

Let me ask the Law Department here. We already have a bill that's passed. Now, they want to reconsider that bill for a part to amend it.

Parliamentarian:

You can always amend part of a bill.

The Chair:

But we don't have a bill before us because the bill was passed. We want to repeal the bill then we can have discussion and decide what we want to do on it. That's my understanding.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, Madam President. You don't mean you want to repeal the bill; you want to have discussion on the repealing of the bill on Wednesday by waiving Rule 8 and at that point it would be the prerogative of this Council to repeal the bill or not to repeal the bill or to make amendments. But you can't do anything until the bill is before us.

The Chair:

Mr. Ferlo, it's your bill; what is your motion?

Mr. Ferlo:

My motion, first of all, and let's be clear, Michelle, the only thing on the table that we're legally allowed to enact and discuss on Wednesday would be the bill that I have submitted today which we can waive Rule 8 on and discuss. But that legislation repeals the previous historical designation. Any other notion of amending the previous bill that was introduced by Mr. Pollock would have to have been introduced for discussion today. So, the only thing on the table on Wednesday will be my legislation to repeal the historical designation and, as Michelle points out, we can amend that bill.

With that in mind, I make the motion to waive Rule 8 so that the bill, whatever number it be, may be discussed at the Wednesday session.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                 |                          |
|-----------------|--------------------------|
| Mr. Ferlo       | Mr. Wagner               |
| Mr. Lyons       | Mr. Woods                |
| Michelle Madoff | Mrs. Masloff(Pres't) |

AYES 6

NOES 2

(MR. COYNE AND MR. DEPASQUALE
VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion was approved.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, Point of Order. I think Mr. Ferlo is correct that you can't amend a bill that isn't before us and the bill before us will be only the bill, I'm talking about Wednesday, will only be the bill to repeal.

I think what we need is an opinion from the Law Department by Wednesday which will clarify whether there is a motion to keep the historic bill as it is but to allow J & L to proceed on the asbestos removal, whether we cannot infringe on the rights of the environmental regulations which may precede our regulations under federal law to just take that little portion out but to hold off the other issue, a bigger issue, and I think we're going to need somebody here on Wednesday because I think Mr. Ferlo is correct. If I had had time and had known before, I learned about it five minutes to two, I might have introduced a bill saying while the issue of repealing or the existing bill on J & L historic site is in effect, that I move to just amend the issue of asbestos to give them a chance to proceed. But since I didn't introduce that and I couldn't introduce it until next Monday and it couldn't come up until next Wednesday and it couldn't be voted on until the following Monday, they cannot wait two weeks on the asbestos removal and they will go to court on that. I'm suggesting that they're going to have to wait until Wednesday but by Wednesday we should be able to make an amendment to the bill.

The Chair:

There may be more amendments than just that to the bill.

Michelle Madoff:

I think that's the one that we have to deal with immediately. And we better have somebody here from the Law Department to address that issue.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President, on this very point. I wanted to indicate to my colleagues that I hope that my colleagues will allow the Steel Vally Authority representatives to appear at the table to speak to this point. Obviously, if someone objects, then we will have a problem. But I wanted to let that be known today because I did want to extend an invitation to those representatives.

Michelle Madoff:

I support that and I would say that I'd also like to have Art Ziegler from History and Landmark here, or a representative, so that we can get the issue resolved. Can we make a motion, Madam President, that both of those parties will be notified to be here Wednesday?

The Chair:

Does anybody object? If there are any objections we can't ask them. Is there anybody who objects to asking those gentlemen?

Mr. Woods:

To what?

The Chair:

To appear at our Wednesday meeting.

Mr. Woods:

I do.

The Chair:

You object?

Mr. Woods:

Yes.

The Chair:

Well then we can't have them. Sorry about that.

Mr. DePasquale:

You need a unanimous vote.

Mr. Woods:

If I may make a point, Madam President. We asked to hold that bill for a week so that LTV could come in here and talk to Council and Council said no. So, rules apply to everybody. If somebody wants to hear from this group, call a post agenda like Mr. Wagner did. End of subject.

The Chair:

Okay, so we cannot invite them to come to the Wednesday meeting. You'll have to call a post agenda.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, with all due respect, I don't believe that Mr. Woods was in the room when the issue was initially discussed. The issue of the repealing or maintaining the historic site is not the issue. The issue is that there is a contractor ready to go ahead right now with removal of the asbestos. And if they are not able to proceed, they will go to court on it. I'm asking that we amend whatever bill we have on Wednesday but the only bill that can be amended is the one before which will be the bill to repeal. Something will have to give because I don't see any sense in wasting taxpayers' money defending an issue that we're sure to lose. I think the federal laws and the DER state laws on the removal of asbestos take precedent. I think that perhaps there's some confusion as to what we're asking to do, and that is, unfortunately, I can't amend a previous bill that has been passed unless I introduced it and that would take weeks and the asbestos contract would be held up.

The Chair:

The point I'm making, Michelle, is that there may be other amendments or other changes in the bill.

Michelle Madoff:

My point is that if Mr. Woods holds as the only person to say no to having the guests invited that Mr. Ferlo suggested, and that is the LTV people, and I say if you have them, since I'm aware and I also stated earlier before Mr. Woods joined us, that Mr. Art Ziegler and J & L have been working and need two weeks to resolve the problem, that we cannot hold up the asbestos while they're working out their two weeks. Our normal course of government in its normal procedure would be two weeks. So, I'm just saying, that in that particular instance we have a dilemma and the dilemma is that we cannot amend a bill that will not be before us. We can't amend Mr. Pollock's bill. We can only amend the bill that Mr. Ferlo will have, since he waived Rule 8, before us on Wednesday and if we do not allow those people to come to the table, we'll be voting in a vacuum, uninformed, and I don't see why anybody would want to be an obstructionist, and I would ask Mr. Woods to reconsider having them come to the table.

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of Order, Madam President. We've heard this spiel ten times now. Let's ask Mr. Woods if he'll change his vote; if not, let's move on.

The Chair:

That's right.

Now to move on with Unfinished Business, appointments to be approved.

The Chair presents

No. 495 Resolution that the appointment by the Mayor of John Noonan, 815 Woodbourne Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15226 is hereby appointed and confirmed as a member of the Board of Adjustment for a term to expire April, 1991.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On that bill, may I ask a question? Madam President, as I was leaving to go on vacation, I received correspondence which I guess everybody else did about a member of the Board of Adjustment who had served for - I believe it was the Board of Adjustment, I may not be sure and I just need some clarification on this - who has served for a number of years and is just a couple of months away from fulfilling the required time for pension -

The Chair:

He's not on this list.

Michelle Madoff:

I know he's not.

The Chair:

Well then that issue is not before us.

Michelle Madoff:

The problem is, I just wonder whether we voted without being aware there was a replacement. I thought there was an opening, a vacancy. When I voted for Mr. Noonan, who I think is an excellent candidate, I voted as an assumption, erroneous obviously, that there was an opening, a vacancy. There was no vacancy; it was a replacement. And I think all of us have been contacted about what is perceived to be an injustice and I wonder if somebody could tell me what the latest status of that was.

The Chair:

It's my understanding that the previous person has put a letter of resignation in. They have a letter of resignation from this other gentleman. And the bills before us now are the final action on these appointments to be approved.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, I agree with you that you want to stay to the subject matter before us but when this Council votes in an uninformed manner, and I certainly must say that a lot of us felt that way, that we did not know that this person was going to be let go just a couple of months before he had served out the length of the term that would have entitled him to some benefits, we should have known that and I think it's important to bring that to the table.

And this is the appointment that we're voting on now, or we're accepting or being notified of.

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of Order, Madam Chairman. Both of the gentlemen, Mr. Walkowski and Mr. Noonan, are close personal friends of mine; yet there's something very erroneous about this pension stuff and I think Mr. Walkowski would be the first to admit it. He's not being denied his pension; he's being denied the full pension which, in the City of Pittsburgh is 20 years of service and 60 years or better of age. Mr. Walkowski is approximately my age, he went to Schenley High School with me, so I know he's about 66. Mr. Walkowski has about 19 years and 4 months including his service time; he's about 8 months short. I would hope that he would have been allowed to serve that time out but he tendered his resignation as you said. But he will get a pension, maybe one percent, or two, less than a full pension.

Mr. Ferlo:

Point of Procedure, Madam President. Could you clarify how we're going to vote on these bills that Mr. Perry will be reading?

The Chair:

Individually.

Mr. Ferlo:

Isn't it appropriate that the discussion take place following the introduction of each bill or at the end? I would like to address a number of these bills and I would like to know from the President at what time is it appropriate for me to address my opposition to some of these appointments.

The Chair:

Each appointment will be separate and we will discuss each one as their names are presented. The first one is Bill No. 495, the Board of Adjustment, Mr. John Noonan.

Mr. DePasquale:

Motion to approve.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Discussion on Bill No. 495, the appointment of Mr. Noonan. First of all, I know Mr. Noonan, I worked with him in the past on the Armour project. He's obviously very well qualified and a wonderful gentleman. That's not the issue before us here today.

First of all, I think the Mayor had misled City Council in his communication to us regarding the issue of Mr. Walkowski. It implied somehow that Mr. Walkowski had tendered his resignation. That actually was not the situation; the situation was that Mr. Jacoby had called Mr. Walkowski in the office and basically had suggested to him in very clear terms that he was no longer wanted on the Board of Adjustment and that the Administration expected his resignation. And Mr. Walkowski being the gentleman and the non-adversary that he is, certainly cooperated. I don't dispute the fact that the Mayor makes the appointments, but Council does provide some overview on this issue.

The problem that I have with Mr. Noonan, quite frankly, even though he happens to be very well qualified, is that he continues to have an employment relationship by way of consulting with the Urban Redevelopment Authority. And I believe very strongly that there should be some separation and I think there potentially is a conflict of interest between him being paid by the Urban Redevelopment Authority in the Real Estate Division, and also being a voting member of the Board of Adjustment. I think the Board of Adjustment is a body that has to make some very important decisions. I'd like to know what is so important on the part of the Administration's agenda over the next few months that they must have further control over the Board of Adjustment and its decisions on major developments that will take place in an around the Downtown area, because I think that's part of the problem.

I had asked, but Council did not support, requesting a public hearing so that this matter can be discussed because I know a number of neighborhood groups are concerned that the Board of Adjustment remain impartial and fair, both to developers and to neighborhood organizations. I am fearful that with the appointment of a URA representative to the Board of Adjustment that that will not be the case.

So, I wanted to clarify why I'm voting no on the appointment of Mr. Noonan. In addition, I do believe strongly, although we're not able to deal with it today, that Mr. Walkowski should have been allowed the opportunity to finish out his tenure on the Board of Adjustment. So, very clearly, I'm voting no on the appointment of Mr. Noonan; I think it's a conflict of interest.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, I don't see the conflict between the Board of Adjustment and the URA for Mr. Noonan. However, I would like to make a suggestion and I hope I get a second. I'll make it in the form of a motion that a letter go to the Administration urging them to keep Mr. Walkowski for an additional 8 months as an extra member, or a senior member, or a merit member of the Board of Adjustment so that he can have his 8 months' time in and I think that would be the honorable thing for this body to do. I think he's been a very effective member; I've worked with him personally over the years and I would like to see support for that motion.

Mr. Ferloc:

I have no problem with that but I think the motion is out of line at this time. I think it would have to be raised under Motions and Resolutions. It's part of the agenda and I would certainly second it.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm only suggesting; we have no authority to do it. I'm suggesting that we send a letter to the Mayor and to the Administration that in the interest of fairness and justice that they allow Mr. Walkowski to serve out the eight months on that Board. I think that's the honorable thing for us to do.

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of Order, Madam Chairman. I believe I made the motion a couple of weeks ago that we send a letter to the Mayor requesting that he allow Mr. Walkowski to serve somewhere in the City for eight or nine months so he would get the full pension. So, this motion really would be moot.

Mr. Pollock:

In regards to Michelle's motion, I'm sure that she's well-intentioned except that Council is constrained by several things; number one, of course, the budget which only funds three individuals for the Zoning Board of Adjustment, and number two, I believe the City Code delineates the membership and the appointments to the Board of Adjustment only being three members. So, I don't think Council, by motion, can extend the size of any Board that is set by City Code, nor can it amend the budget when there's not the dollars for it. So, there's no way that Council could really entertain that motion; I think it would have to be ruled out of order.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, may I respond, Madam President? Perhaps what we ought to say is that we let Mr. Walkowski finish out his eight months and let Mr. Noonan serve after that time.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, I think this appointment is one of the most important in the City of Pittsburgh. The Zoning Board of Adjustment is a three member board and any one appointment can be a swing vote on the Zoning Board of Adjustment. We all know how important that is in all development, in all areas of the City of Pittsburgh. We have many, many zoning public hearings here in front of City Council.

I think we have a couple problems we're wrestling with here and the one that has been brought up is a conflict of interest. I also agree that this appointee is as competent an appointee as you could come by for this Zoning Board. However, we cannot, I think, in good conscience appoint anyone, no matter who it is, to the Zoning Board of Adjustment if they are working on a consulting basis with another entity of Pittsburgh City government which is the Urban Redevelopment Authority.

So, for that reason, I think it's important that we at least delay appointment until there's a clarification or a restriction of another position that this individual has at this time.

In addition, I am also concerned with the person that has handed in their letter of resignation, has been asked to and has done that. And I think the excellent way to address this whole situation, and obviously only the Administration can do it, Council can only do half of it with the appointment, is for us to delay this appointment until that other position that Mr. Noonan has is eliminated and during the interim for Mr. Walkowski to continue to serve and to also continue to accumulate additional retirement benefits, possibly up to 20 years. He's only several months short. That's my recommendation.

The Chair:

There's a motion before us now to approve Mr. Noonan. It's been moved and seconded. Unless they want to remove that name, we can't demand they change it. So, with that in mind, I will ask for a vote on the appointment of John Noonan to the Board of Adjustment.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, Madam President. I am abstaining and I think you're allowed to explain an abstention. My reason for abstaining is that I think Mr. Noonan would be a great public servant, I don't have a problem with the conflict; I just want to see fairness extended to Mr. Walkowski. If that can be arranged, then I would change my vote.

Mr. Wagner:

My reason for abstaining, Madam President, is that I don't believe we can make an appointment to someone who is also receiving dollars from another entity of this government and the Zoning Board.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the appointment?

And on the question, "Shall the appointment pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |              |
|----------------|--------------|
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Woods    |
| Mr. Pollock    | Mrs. Masloff |

AYES 4                      NOES 3

(MR. COYNE, MR. FERLO AND MR. LYONS VOTING NO)

(MICHELLE MADOFF AND MR. WAGNER ABSTAINING)

And there not being five votes in the affirmative, the appointment was tabled.

Mr. Ferlo:

Could you clarify the status of the legislation, although I hate to dwell on the obvious?

Mr. Perry:

That appointment is tabled; it can be brought up at a later date.

Mr. Ferlo:

Is the legislation defeated or is it tabled?

Mr. Perry:

It's tabled; it can be brought up at a later date.

Mr. Ferlo:

Could you explain why it's tabled as opposed to defeated?

Mr. Pollock:

If it obtains the majority but not five votes, then it doesn't die. It's effectively tabled and it can be brought up again. It did receive a majority but it didn't receive five votes. He received a plurality but he didn't get five votes.

Mr. DePasquale:

Madam President, I wish Council knows, or they should know, that the Board of Adjustment has three members and two constitutes a majority. So, they'll be operating with two members until we approve an appointment. No doubt if the Mayor doesn't persist in Mr. Noonan, he'll come up with another appointment and not Mr. Walkowski.

Mr. Ferlo:

The Mayor also has the option to rip up the resignation letter of Mr. Walkowski and I urge his honor to do that.

Also,

No. 496 Resolution that the appointment by the Mayor of Timothy G. Uhrich, 137 Grandview Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15211, be and the same is hereby approved and confirmed as a member of the Pittsburgh Water and Sewer Authority for a term to expire April, 1993.

Which was read.

Mr. Lyons moved to approve the appointment.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Discussion. On this gentleman who is a political appointee of the Mayor, I have a number of problems with this. First of all, I think it's a total waste of a very important position on the Water and Sewer Authority. I think it's very clear that in the upcoming months, as has been the case in the last year alone, there have been significant rate increases faced by the people who have to pay water and sewage rates. It's clear that that is an important authority that has tremendous power over hundreds of thousands, if not millions of dollars, in consultants and other types of capital projects that will be bid out. I think it's important that there be someone from the business community, someone from the environmental community, someone who can add some quality and some additional discriminating vote to the Water and Sewer Authority, not a hand-picked political appointee of the Administration. The Water and Sewer Authority, against my better judgment, was created by this legislative body and I feel that except for the contributions of Mr. Wagner and Davis and possibly one or two others, it's an authority that's out of control. I'm totally opposed to a political appointee, part of the inner-circle of the Administration, being used as one of the replacements on this very important authority. I don't think the ratepayers and the consumers are having justice in this regard and I'm totally opposed to the appointment of Mr. Uhrich.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the appointment?

And on the question, "Shall the appointment pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                 |              |
|-----------------|--------------|
| Mr. Coyne       | Mr. Pollock  |
| Mr. DePasquale  | Mr. Wagner   |
| Mr. Lyons       | Mrs. Masloff |
| Michelle Madoff | (Pres't)     |

AYES 7                      NOES 2

(MR. FERLO AND MR. WOODS VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the appointment was approved.

Also,

No. 501 Resolution that the appointment by the Mayor of Arthur Schock, 316 Fourth Avenue, 1001 Commonwealth Building, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15222 is hereby appointed and confirmed as a member of the Board of Code Review for a term to expire April, 1991.

Which was read.

Mr. Woods moved to approve the appointment.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. Schock has a Fourth Avenue address, which is in the City of Pittsburgh obviously. I presume he doesn't live there; Councilman Coyne told me that's his place of business. I just wanted to make that fact known.

Mr. Ferloc:

As I indicated in the Committee session, all three of these people have made a contribution in the past. They have served; I was not on City Council in the past. I cannot in good faith support the nomination of these three individuals based only on the issue of the fact that they do not live in the City of Pittsburgh. I find it outrageous that we have an Administration that appoints people to major decision-making boards in City government, and these are individuals who do not live in the City of Pittsburgh. I have a fundamental problem with that to the same extent that I have a problem with people living outside the City who work for the City of Pittsburgh. Again, I'm voting no on 501 and 502 and 503 based specifically on the issue that these people do not live in the City of Pittsburgh and I resent the fact that they have major decision-making power over my life.

Mr. Pollock:

After it was revealed by the Chief of the Bureau of Building Inspection as to why individuals were nominated who did not reside in the City, what I learned was that because of the requirements that the City Code puts on the appointments to be Board of Code Review members and the duties that are required by service on the Board of Code Review, Mr. Imhoff told me that it is difficult to find individuals to serve on this Board and that he had asked around to try and find people and that he found it to be a quite arduous task. Maybe he hasn't looked hard enough. I would hope that the Mayor and his Administration and the Chief of the Bureau of Building Inspection have made a diligent effort; I can only take them at their word. It's not always a joy to serve on some of these boards that are totally anonymous and require a great deal of time. It's nothing at all that benefits any one individual; it's a public service, it's certainly not a private gain.

Mr. Wagner:

I just have one comment. True, the individual doesn't live in the City but he does work here and by having a business and working here he does have a vested interest in the City. In addition to that, these three appointments, under the Board of Code Review and the Art Commission, are all non-paying appointments. These people are volunteering their time to the City.

Mr. Pollock:

I forgot to mention also that if indeed they have businesses, then they are City taxpayers. Whether they're City wage taxpayers they are City business privilege taxpayers and that certainly makes them individuals that have standing in this City, legal standing.

Michelle Madoff:

I have only one concern. I would challenge Mr. Imhoff to prove that there are no people who are qualified who are dedicated to the City of Pittsburgh and its best interest and who have eminent qualifications that could not be available or would not volunteer to serve on the Board of Code Review. I don't believe it and I believe that just our statement here today, there will be people who will come out of the woodwork who would say, "I would like to serve" who are eminently qualified.

I agree with my colleague, Mr. Wagner, that in the case of Mr. Schock he does have a business and certainly an interest in the City. I would not have a great problem with that. I don't know about the other two; are they both non-City resident?

Mr. Ferlo:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

And they do not have businesses in the City?

The Chair:

Yes they both do; they told us. They both own businesses in the City.

Michelle Madoff:

I know that Mr. Schock does; I don't know that Eugene Dotter and I believe that Anna Marie does not. She works in the City; that's nice, I'm glad she has a job. Does she pay a four percent wage tax?

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President, very briefly I will make the point, and due respect to Mr. Imhoff, I think there are any number of representatives of labor organizations as well as neighborhood-based community groups throughout the City who would jump at an opportunity to have a designated individual on the voluntary Board of Code Review. Frankly, I think the information from Mr. Imhoff is a bunch of baloney and I think some of these people should be solicited and I'm sure that they would jump at the opportunity to sit on the Board of Code Review. And I hope that in the future, some of those constituent groups will be solicited for nominees to these various authorities and boards.

Mr. DePasquale:

I want to explain my vote on these three people before we do the voting. I've never voted for anyone out of the City whether it was a volunteer job, whatever, unpaid and so on, unless that party had agreed that they would move into the City or make an effort to move into the City. I want that on the record that I've been consistent and I'll continue to be in regards to non-residents serving on boards or whatever.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the appointment?

And on the question, "Shall the appointment pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                 |              |
|-----------------|--------------|

And there being a majority of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the appointment was approved.

Also,

No. 502 Resolution that the appointment by the Mayor of Eugene V. Dotter, 2068 Palm Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15235, is hereby confirmed as a member of the Board of Code Review for a term to expire April, 1991.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like a question answered. Does he own a business in the City? Does anyone know? Or does he have a job in which he doesn't pay four percent wage tax?

Mr. Woods:

I think so.

Michelle Madoff:

Think so isn't good enough. Does he or doesn't he?

Mr. Woods:

I think so.

Michelle Madoff:

Since I don't know the answer, I'll abstain.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the appointment?

And on the question, "Shall the appointment pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

No. 503 Resolution that the appointment by the Mayor of Anna Marie Guzman, 114 Doray Drive, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15237, is hereby appointed and confirmed as a member of the Board of Code Review for a term to expire April, 1991.

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

I would just highly recommend the appointment. We interviewed these people and I think they're qualified.

Mr. Ferlo:

Just to reiterate, there's no indication that this individual has a business in the City.

Michelle Madoff:

Since I'm going to abstain, I'll explain my vote. I love to see women getting the opportunity to serve on boards and commissions, unlike Michelle Madoff who has been here ten years and has only served on one commission for six months, one of the authorities, and it's a joke. I shouldn't be voting for anybody until I've had an appointment which is incidentally a violation of the Home Rule Charter. But my objection is that I'm going to be consistent in the fact that either you have a job in the City and pay taxes, or owned a business. And since she has neither, I feel it is improper to vote for her so I'll abstain -- Excuse me, I'll vote no.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on

Mr. Lyons:

Madam President, I know that you said we'd vote on these individually but since they're all City residents, I move that we vote for the three on the Art Commission in one vote.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Pollock presented

Bill No. 607

Report of the Committee on Finance for April 13, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 310

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution prohibiting the transfer of funds to various authorities until such time as the authorities adopt a City of Pittsburgh residency requirement for their employees." —(SPONSORED BY MR. FERLO)

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

On the issue of the City residency, I would like my comments brought forward. I'd like to thank those members of Council who supported this in the Committee; I hope they'll carry through on their vote today.

Very clearly, this bill was introduced so that it would have the full weight of law and set an affirmative policy on the part of City government regarding the 700 or 800 employees of our various authorities living and residing in the City of Pittsburgh, not only on the issue of lost revenue, on the issue of fairness to those City employees who must live in the City, but also on the issue of decision making and policy making, that these are individuals who hold important positions at our authorities and they have a stake and living and contributing to the City of Pittsburgh. Thank you.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGE)

---

(BEGINNING - MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 310, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 13, 1988)

Mr. Ferlo:

Since this resolution has been discussed a lot previously, obviously I'm for the residency requirements.

I want to remind Council that if we pass this bill today, we're giving a leadtime of at least three months in order for the authorities to follow suit so there will be not be any infringement upon any kind of current hiring or recruitment that is taking place at the authorities.

I submitted information previous to Council on the lost wages and lost taxes of which it could estimate about $200,000.00 plus in lost wages; a little over $200,000.00 in lost taxes. I have also made the comment and concern to Council and to the public that people who work in our authorities should be city residents because they are major policymakers in the City of Pittsburgh. I want the resolution to have the full weight of law in addition to whatever individual acts the authority boards might see fit. So for all those reasons I would ask my colleagues to join me in the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale:

We're saying authority employees must be city residents. I'm thinking about hiring new employees, would this hold up employment?

Mr. Ferlo:

No. This only says that if we pass the legislation from three months from now the legislation will take effect. At that point forward, the authorities must have a residency requirement and at that point forward any future employees hired by the authority must be city residents. It doesn't have anything to do with anybody currently on the payroll or anybody that the authorities would want to hire in the next three-month period.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Who is, specifically, the Metropolitan Tenants' Organization? Who are the principles?

Mr. Lyons:

Alyse Marsh, they had petitioned and got approval from the Housing Planning on their proposal and no one gave them anything of the ULO money or anything and they're in dire need of money to keep the things that they have amassed and got some donation from in time passed to keep as an emergency that they would have this money. It's a black organization that's in the Hill District and they're in need of our support.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm sure they are and I'm sure I'm going to support it but I still didn't get an answer to my question. Are they consultants? Are they experts in the field?

Mr. Woods:

Metropolitan Tenants' Organization is all the tenants' organizations in public housing, in the communities. They represent approximately 40,000 people that live in public housing.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you.

Bill No. 611

Report of the Committee on Engineering and Construction for April 13, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 512

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 93, effective February 16, 1987, entitled: 'Providing for an Agreement or Agreements with a Consultant or Consultants for architectural/engineering design services in connection with the Renovations to Bloomfield Pool, Recreation Center and Outdoor Recreation; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by providing for the use of existing Agreements."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill No. 512, the more I review what is going on in Construction and Engineering the more I am convinced that it would be appropriate to go back to a point in time where Parks and Recreation had its own engineering people and did its own job. We are now seeing a $70,000 request for a consultant to renovate, we're not building from scratch, to renovate the Bloomfield Pool and Recreation Center. There are people who would like the job who will do that kind of consulting for us for free. I have talked to people who prefer not to put their jobs in jeopardy, who feel very strongly, as I do, that this is a great abuse of consultants.

I'm in the awkward position of being between a hard place and a rock; I don't want to vote against Bloomfield having a recreation center and the much needed renovations; obviously, we need to go with them. I think there are enough votes here to support it but I'd like to make that a protest vote to show Mr. McDermott, again, that I don't like the way he works with his consultants and his abusive dollars. We're now over $5 million in the last three or four years that he has been applying the new work.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, I would just like to say Councilwoman Madoff indicated a protest vote. I would hope we would not vote this down. This project is a very important project and I'd like to see it move forward.

Michelle Madoff:

I just agreed with you on that and I said that I just want to make the point.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

Also,

Bill No. 513

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts for Construction of Sidewalk Ramps for the Handicapped at various locations in the City of Pittsburgh; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President, I move to amend Bill No. 513 by adding South Hills area, Carrick and Sheraden Business Districts.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

The Chair:

It seems to me that they haven't located any specific place and I would think that that's included in here because it doesn't specifically exclude them in the bill.

Mr. Wagner:

If I may explain, Madam President. In the bills that were before us last Wednesday, they indicated five specific locations in the City. These two locations also need this same type of work and for that reason I am adding it to this bill now. I thought this final bill would read exactly the same as our bill that showed up last Wednesday; it doesn't.

Alright.

AYES 9 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 548

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution further amending Resolution No. 631, effective July 17, 1985, as amended by Resolution No. 299, effective April 6, 1987, entitled: 'Providing for an Agreement or Agreements, or Supplemental Agreement or Agreements with a Consultant or Consultants for Consulting Services in connection with Construction Inspection on an 'As-Needed' Basis; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by amending the title to name S.A.I. as the Consultant and by increasing the total project allocation by $121,700.00 from $285,000.00 to $406,000.00."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 548, I am really appalled that Council allowed themselves to be shafted again. We are giving up our rights repeatedly to Mr. McDermott and company to do as they want, when they want to; they never have to come back to talk to us. We've increased the dollars from $285,000 to $406,000, that's a half million dollars practically, so that Mr.

McDermott can go out and do inspections as needed without having to come to this Council for money. If you sit down with him he'll give you the reasons of how we'll save money because he can get to people in a hurry. Mr. McDermott would save us a lot of money if he did what he had to do. For example, on McArdle Roadway and Grandview Avenue, if he did all his work at one time and not stretch it over seven years and have to start all over again when he admits that he knew there was deterioration going on. Mr. McDermott would have saved us a million dollars if he had put his bid out on Phase II earlier.

I think it's unconscionable that we don't even ask the questions and don't do a post agenda to ask Mr. McDermott how many of his people are licensed and qualified and have taken the examination that qualifies them to do construction inspection when most of his people have those tests and have passed those tests, yet we have companies being hired, people are going out for inspection for the City who have not passed these qualifying tests.

I think it's a disgrace. I think that this is going to catch up with the City and certainly with Mr. McDermott and I'm going to help it along and I'm going to vote no on 512 and 548. I hope everybody else will vote yes on 548 so I don't have to change my vote; it's a protest vote on consultants.

Mr. Ferlo:

On Bill No. 548 to greatly increase the amount of inspectors, an increased allocation of over $121,700, I spoke about this in the Committee Meeting, I obviously voiced my opposition. I think this bill borders on not only fiscal irresponsibility but fiscal criminality. I find it outrageous that as we approach April, into the fourth month of the fiscal year, and we received information today from our budget staff, as we review it from Engineering and Construction, on the number of vacancies and unfilled job slots in various departments throughout the City, we have some 12 positions that have yet to be filled in the Department of Engineering and Construction, of which that represents $309,000 in personnel wages. But of that, I think interestingly, in regards to this legislation, over $100,000 of that money that this City Council, the previous Council, budgeted for Engineering and Construction, they budgeted some $100,000 in additional staff to be inspectors. Mr. McDermott has yet to fill an Inspector 3 position, he has yet to fill two vacancies that he refers to here as Inspector 1, and there's at least several other staff people on this list of unfilled budgeted staff positions in Engineering and Construction that directly or indirectly have to do with the inspection of jobs.

We received one minute before the vote last Wednesday from Mr. Reginella a list of projects that the staff, the inspectors, were supposedly working on and have to be there full-time. Again, I don't pretend to know a lot about Construction and Engineering but I cannot believe that it takes a full-time inspector all eight hours of every day for a quarterly period to sit in the Mayor's Service Center during the reconstruction of that facility. The list that was submitted by Mr. Reginella abounds with those types of examples where it's clear that we're being snowballed. It's clear that you do not need a full-time inspector to be at some of those jobs that are being done and being coordinated out of Engineering and Construction.

Again, I think this is another plum to an outside consultant, Salvucci and Associates, who unquestionably are competent and excellent consultants. However, I think this is an outrageous amount of money, close to half a million dollars; it's not needed and I suggest that before Council would even entertain approving additional consultants, I would suggest that we demand that the Administration fill the budgeted positions that the previous Council has already awarded them, some $309,000 worth of employees. Long before this bill should ever be considered by Council, the Administration should fill the budgeted positions that they have on board, and in particular, the three or four inspectors that we've budgeted. I think it's irresponsible for Council to even vote on this bill now before that takes place and I'm voting very clearly in opposition to Bill No. 548.

Mr. DePasquale:

In contrast to Mr. Ferlo, I thought that the answers that Mr. Reginella gave were quite obvious and put into perspective that we do not have the inspectors available for these jobs and that we have several jobs going on, or will be going on, over a period of years.

We must remember too that the Water Authority, and most of this work is going to be on waterlines, the Water Authority had a couple of bond issues and I think a total of a couple hundred million dollars and almost a hundred million of that, I believe, is going into construction. Therefore, there's going to be several jobs on board. I've got a list of all the jobs; I don't know if all the other Councilmembers did, and therefore, we can't possibly have enough inspectors in-house to do these jobs or be on these jobs.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |              |

AYES 7 NOES 2

(MR. FERLO AND MICHELLE MADOFF VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Woods:

Madam President, I make the motion to reconsider Bill No. 503, the appointment of Anna Marie Guzman on the Board of Code Review.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Reconsider it, did you say?

Mr. Woods:

Yes, bring it back up for a vote again.

I'd like to discuss my motion, if I may. We all interviewed Ms. Guzman when she was here. As Mr. Pollock and Mr. Wagner stated, she's eminently qualified. She lived in the City, I believe, most of her life and she stated that eight or nine years ago she got married and she moved outside of the City with her husband, I believe to North Hills. He's a professional man, she's a professional woman. But, she still works here in the City and I think to have a person of her caliber, especially to come before the interview, she was interviewed extensively two weeks ago, I think that Council would do nothing but benefit itself by reconsidering this vote in favor of this lady.

Mr. Pollock:

I think it should also be noted that this past Sunday or the Sunday before in the Pittsburgh Press, ironically there was an article about Anna Marie Guzman as being one of the finest architects around. It just so happened it was an article about women architects and she, obviously, is one of them. And I think that our City would be well served by having her do voluntary service at no fee, as a public service. If she's willing to come in and do it, this Council is looking like a bunch of fools if it doesn't accept the services of a woman who is eminently qualified, who wants to donate her time and energy to this City with no private gain. It's ludicrous to say that she should not be serving.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, I have a very close friend by the name of Marcia Berger who is an architect and I think an outstanding architect and she lives in the City. I don't know whether she's been asked to serve on this Commission or whether she would be interested, but I'm sure there are a lot of very well qualified female architects in the City who should be given the opportunity.

Mr. Ferlo:

I don't disagree at all with the comments of Mr. Pollock; in fact, this individual, certainly, is very qualified and she certainly has made a contribution in the past. But that's not really the principle issue that myself and others on Council have attempted to raise. And I resent the intonation that somehow in opposition to this we are doing a disservice or acting like a bunch of fools; in fact, we are supporting a very important principle.

I would like clarification, Madam President, from the Parliamentarian on the issue of reconsideration since the vote has already taken place.

The Chair:

Parliamentarian, may we reconsider this particular appointment today?

Parliamentarian:

Council cannot reconsider.

Mr. Ferloc:

Thank you, Madam President.

Mr. Pollock:

Madam President, I move to suspend Council rules so that Mr. Woods could make a motion to reconsider her appointment.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Mr. Coyne:

Discussion. Madam President, it seems ludicrous if we're going to be amending Council rules every time it suits someone's fancy. We've had some private discussions among Council about the procedure we were going to use for Read and Adopted resolutions and I think once a rule is made it is made to be stuck to, not to be changed for convenience. We do have a Rules Committee right now which you're working on, and that's the time to amend the Rules of Council. It's ridiculous to sit here and change the rules whenever Council chooses to do so.

Mr. Woods:

Madam President, I'd just like to state one thing. We've done this in the past; we've reconsidered our votes in the past. I've served on Council for seven years and we've done it every year since I've been here, we've reconsidered our votes. Members have come in and voted 20 bills later. We've done it here many, many times and all I'm asking is that we do it again until Council rules are straightened out.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President and members of Council, I believe the motion by Mr. Woods and Mr. Pollock is justified in this situation. I think if we move forward from this point and we do not approve this one individual, and if you look, there were three people that were not approved but there's only one that cannot be brought back up in front of Council and it's this one appointment. I believe the efforts here to have Council reconsider are justified in this one situation. The other two, I don't believe there will be any motions.

In addition to that, I know we've talked about people living in the City, people working in the City. A half a loaf is better than nothing. We all attempted to get a full loaf; we only got half of a loaf and it's better than no loaf at all, meaning, when it comes to economics in the City, if a person cannot live here, if they work here or if they locate their business here, that means a whole lot to this City. And this person has done that. They want to offer their services free, and I believe we should welcome that individual into the Board of Code Review.

Mr. Woods:

One last comment. I believe that this Council, by initially tabling two people and turning this one down initially, we sent the message to the Administration and two other people that from now on bring us people that live in the City. I think the message has been sent and now I'm asking Council — When these individuals came here, there were appointees in the past that did not live in the City; there are appointees now that sit on different commissions and boards that do not live in the City. I don't believe that we should embarrass these people by turning them down. I think we have sent the message to the Administration; from this point on, give us City residents when at all possible and if not, explain why not. But please, ladies and gentlemen, let's vote in the affirmative for this individual.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'd like to reiterate the point that this is a new Council. I was not permitted, obviously, since I was not here to vote previously on the appointments of other people who currently do sit on the boards, the commissions and authorities. But when there are new appointments coming up, I'm going to use that as an opportunity to uphold that very important principle which I've talked about. So, again, I hope that we do not vote to suspend the rules on this issue and I just want to close by saying that I reiterate that it's not in any disrespect to the individuals that have already served; obviously they're very well qualified. I again make the point that there are representative of labor, there are representatives of neighborhood groups, there are a multitude of City architects that I'm sure would enjoy the opportunity to sit on this board or commission and I disagree entirely with the logic.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                          |

| Mr. Pollock    | Mrs. Masloff(Pres't) |

AYES 6

NOES 2

(MR. COYNE AND MR. FERLO VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion was approved.

Mr. Woods:

Now, Madam President, I'd like to make a motion to reconsider Anna Marie Guzman.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

Mr. DePasquale:

Madam President, if I may, prior to my vote. I made a statement a while ago that I have been consistent, I vote against all non-residents of the City of Pittsburgh. I do respect the pleas of my colleagues and I didn't know the background of this young lady, that she did live in the City up until recently when she got married, and I didn't realize that she would be such a good addition to that Board. So, I'm going to go back on my former comment and I'm going to vote aye.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |              |
|----------------|--------------|
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner   |
| Mr. Lyons      | Mr. Woods    |
| Mr. Pollock    | Mrs. Masloff |
|                | (Pres't)     |

AYES 6                      NOES 2

(MR. COYNE AND MR. FERLO VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion was approved.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President, I'd like to make a motion to conduct a public hearing concerning the Conditional Use Application, No. 540, the Allegheny County Medical Society Expansion. It's clear that a large number of people in the medical profession, those who are part of the medical society, are obviously in support of this but I know that there are a number of citizens who are opposed to it and I frankly would like to hear all sides of the story before I vote on this legislation. It's my understanding that unlike other decisions from the Planning Commission that require an automatic public hearing, this is not the case with this bill and I'd like to make a motion that we at least have a public hearing and afford them an opportunity, both sides, to appear before Council.

I would remind Council that a petition will be submitted anyway so what's the big deal.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Lyons:

Madam President, there was supposed to be a petition in from Carole Malakoff for a public hearing. Has it reached your office or the City Clerk?

Mr. Perry:

No, it has not.

Mr. Lyons:

Okay.

And on the motion of Mr. Woods

Council adjourned.

ONE-HUNDRED TWENTY-FIFTH COUNCIL

SOPHIE MASLOFF ..... President
MICHAEL PERRY ..... City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON .. Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, April 25, 1988

PRESENT:

| Mr. Ferlo       | Mr. Woods    |
| Mr. Lyons       | Mrs. Masloff |
| Michelle Madoff | (Pres't)     |

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

The Chair:

Before we begin this meeting, I want to announce with a great deal of pleasure the presence here today of one of our former colleagues and a dear friend, Amy Ballinger.

Amy, come on up and say hello to us, but keep it clean.

Ms. Ballinger:

Gosh, it's great to be back but unfortunately I buried my last sister this morning; that's what brought me to Pittsburgh.

But I'm having a great time in Florida. I don't know how I became a comedienne because you all know I never made fun of anything in City Council, did I? I can only remember the time when Mayor Flaherty and your present Mayor Caliguiri were running for office and I was campaigning for him and all I could say was, "Do you want Dick in and Peter out or do you want Peter in and Dick out?" You could have either one. It went over big and the result is that Mayor Caliguiri was elected at that time and I understand he's still the Mayor and I'm anxious to see him.

Of course, I always tell him I'm so old, I'm old enough to be condemned. I happen to go with a man 20 years younger than myself in Florida and they all say to me, "Amy, why don't you go with somebody your own age?" I say, "I can't find them; they're dead." They put a glass of water in front of me and I put my teeth in it. I think Happy Hour is a nap.

Mayor Caliguiri:

Dick is here.

The Chair:

She was just talking about you.

Ms. Ballinger:

But anyway, if you ever get to Florida, come to see me and I'll tell you where I'm appearing. I don't get paid as well as I did in City Council but I'm living.

I know a guy last night that said, "I'm yours for the asking"; I said, "I'm asking $250". He said, "How do you want it." I said, "Wrapped in a fur coat."

Anyway, it's great to be here and thank you for the introduction. Nice to see you all. Thank you.

PRESENTATIONS

Michelle Madoff:

Would Mr. James Harper please step forward?

Ladies and gentlemen, Madam President and members of City Council, the resolution here today I'm going to present to Mr. James Harper who taught at Connelley and retired in 1966. He's 85 years young. Let me read the resolution and we can hear from him.

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 659 WHEREAS, after 58 years of providing educational and technical programs to Pittsburgh residents, Connelley Vocational Trade School may soon close their doors; and

WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh Public School Board, currently divided on the subject, is pending a decision on whether or not to keep the school open; and

WHEREAS, Connelley Vocational Trade School was built in 1930 as a vocational high school and became an adult education center in 1971, and currently offers 27 various vocational programs in addition to courses in areas such as literacy and basic education for adults; and

WHEREAS, Connelley provides low-cost, public vocational education for poor, lower economic people and minorities who otherwise could not afford to attend similar educational facilities, and Connelley is very sensitive to the labor market, offering courses based on the availability of jobs, and many programs at Connelley have almost a 100% placement after completion; and

WHEREAS, this system of low-cost, public education for job-needy students makes eminent good sense, and the benefits given back to the City of Pittsburgh are invaluable.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby urges the Pittsburgh Public School Board to keep the doors of the Connelley Vocational Trade School open; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Council offers its assistance in seeking state and federal funds to keep this institution alive in Pittsburgh.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I didn't arrive in Pittsburgh until '61, and I guess that's getting on a little bit, but I have met so many people who are very successful in our community and would not have had the opportunity to have careers had they not been students of Connelley. I want to thank Mr. Harper who was a teacher; as I said, he resigned in 1966, and thank him very much for taking the time to come today and receive this resolution.

Mr. Harper:

When I taught at Connelley it was acknowledged to be one of the best trade schools in the country, not only the state of Pennsylvania but in the country. We had over 1,100 boys; 10 percent to 12 percent of those boys made co-op. That meant that their work in the school was sufficiently good that they were selected to take jobs part-time in industry within the City. We had a coordinator who traveled from business to business and placed boys that were ready to be placed. And I'm sure if we could get a consensus from the co-op graduates from Connelley in the City of Pittsburgh today, they would greatly be sad to think that Connelley might close. I see no reason to close it.

Someone on the School Board of Pittsburgh made the statement that they would not raise taxes. I submit to this body and any other body that's listening, you don't go on a school board to cut taxes; you go on a school board to say that the taxes are well spent in educating our youth which is the biggest asset we have in the nation. If this body can help to persuade the Pittsburgh School Board to keep that facility open, I'll take off my hat.

Mr. Ferlo:

I just wanted to thank Michelle for introducing this resolution today, especially because this will be the week that the School Board votes on this question. Obviously, Council these last two weeks alone has voiced its opposition to the closing of Connelley and I urge everyone in the listening audience to please call and lobby your respective School Board member before the vote this week.

I agree with you, sir, and I think it's outrageous that the School Board would close this facility without even having made the attempt to approach, whether it be the state or the private industry council, this City Council, private foundation, or as you have suggested, the Alumnus. It's irresponsible and I would please urge Pittsburghers to lobby their School Board members this week.

Mr. Harper:

I might add one thing. I am not really familiar with the program at Connelley today. It's called a Skill Center; it has adults. When I taught there, the students were all high school students. So, I'm not real familiar with that program. But the point is, there's a big investment in that building; it has elevator service that stops at 11 floors, it has a big swimming pool, a big gymnasium, it used to have 21 shops. And I see no reason to close it. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

May I suggest that this body send a letter or a telegram immediately again reinforcing the sentiments of Mr. Harper and this Council, urging them to please not close down and that we will do what we can to help.

I want to point out, Mr. O'Malley is not with us any longer on this Council, but Mr. Ben Woods and Mr. O'Malley were responsible in sponsoring programs to help in the literacy program, to help those who are unemployed, and the turn-around of the programs and the unemployed in this City. I think that that's the kind of leadership and the kind of investment this City has got to make, keeping Connelley open, helping with literacy programs, and if we can help in that way, we'll have done a great deal of good for the community.

The Chair:

To accept the next resolution, Barbara King, Dave Farley, Jim Brenner, Barbara Brown, Patsy Petzosky and Canice Dolan and Robert Foltz, would you please come forward to accept the resolution. Thank you all for coming.

The Chair presents

No. 660 WHEREAS, Pittsburgh Partnership recognizes the contributions older workers make to the Pittsburgh community; and

WHEREAS, Pittsburgh Partnership also recognizes Pittsburgh organizations who hire older workers of age 55 and up; and

WHEREAS, each year the Pennsylvania Hall of Fame of Champions of Older Workers Council selects organizations who have shown special and noteworthy efforts to recruit and hire older workers; and

WHEREAS, Pittsburgh Partnership nominated Goodwill Industries of Pittsburgh and Sears Roebuck Company to the Hall of Fame Council; and

WHEREAS, Goodwill Industries of Pittsburgh was selected as the State Champion in the service category.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh proudly commend the efforts of the various industries who hire older workers, recognizing these workers as a valuable asset, and we further extend our sincere congratulations to the Goodwill Industries of Pittsburgh for receiving a State Service Award; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council hereby proclaim Tuesday, April 26, 1988 as OLDER WORKER RECOGNITION DAY in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. DePasquale moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Ms. Dolan:

I would just like to say on behalf of Goodwill Industries that we won the program, it's a placement program for the older worker. The program is less than two years old and has just been a booming success. We always have people knocking at our doors, we have a long waiting list, and we have placed almost 90 people in jobs in that period of time.

So, I'm really very grateful, particularly to Dave Farley whose idea the program was for permitting us to do this. And the older workers have just been a great contribution to Goodwill Industries in terms of our handicapped clients and the way they have been real work models for them. I thank you.

Mr. Farley:

I'd just like to echo Canice's comments. If it weren't for Goodwill Industries we wouldn't have a program. It's been a real source of pride to all of us in the Pittsburgh Partnership. If any of you know ways to shake loose more money for older workers, my extension is 2696. Thank you.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President, the next resolution is recognizing the distinguished and dedicated service of 37 police officers who will retire in 1988. I would like to ask the following people to please step forward for this resolution: Mr. Patrick McNamara, President of the F.O.P.; Warren Broz, Vice-President of the F.O.P.; John McMahon, Public Relations Officer of the F.O.P.; and two of the 37 retirees and they are Emil Kranjec and Warren McGuire. Gentlemen, please step forward.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 661 WHEREAS, on Wednesday, the 27th of April, 1988, the Fraternal Order of Police, Fort Pitt Lodge No. 1 and the Pittsburgh Bureau of Police will honor thirty-seven (37) individuals who will retire from the City Police Force this year; and

WHEREAS, these officers have served bravely throughout their careers by maintaining the safety of our City, by recognizing that the life and liberty of its citizens is the primary area of responsibility; and

WHEREAS, the thirty-seven (37) retirees being honored have 1,050 years combined service, and on each day of that service, risked their lives to protect our property and the security of our lives; and

WHEREAS, Pittsburgh's rating as "America's Most Livable City" was due in part to the low crime rate as compared to other major cities and the officers of the Pittsburgh Police Bureau and the citizens of this City share responsibility for that great achievement.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh join with the citizens of Pittsburgh in recognizing and saluting each and every one of the thirty-seven (37) honorees for their distinguished service and sincere dedication.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Members of Council, ladies and gentlemen, first of all I'd like to say to Pat McNamara, welcome back. Pat just had a serious illness and he's looking great and we're glad to see him back here. In addition to seeing all of you here, and Pat's going to say a few words and the two retirees are also, I'd like to say that as a representative of City Council and Chairman of Public Safety, I also salute all those 37 honorees and all of the dedication that all of you as officers and all of the 37, of which we have two of them here, we can't say enough and we can't thank you enough.

Patrick, please say a few words.

Mr. McNamara:

Thank you Council President Sophie, Councilman Wagner and fellow elected Councilpeople. It certainly is a great honor, privilege and personally a great feeling to be here today to accept this resolution on behalf of the 37 police officers who we will honor this coming Wednesday at the Syria Mosque in Oakland.

As you know, it's a great honor to be a police officer and the people retiring have taken upon that honor and served the citizens of this City of Pittsburgh well. It also is a great privilege and it's a great privilege that you invited us here today to accept this resolution. I've also said to you that it's a great feeling. I did have a very serious illness; I have conquered it, I hope, and I'm doing very well. But during the period while I was in the hospital, and the last three months that I have not worked, it was very sad to see the battles of 911 continue in the City. There's a tremendous amount of reprimands being given out to police officers for doing their jobs in the City, chasing stolen cars, making arrests, because someone didn't like the way it was done. We have an officer that was just taken down for a breathalyzer - it was a total violation of his rights; he never drank in his life - by some civilian personnel leader. We have a fire officer who has just been Trial Boarded twice from the Troy Hill area for letting newpeople into that firehouse to take pictures.

The reason I'm raising those, this past year we got a two year war and I went to several people and asked them not to retire. This year we only have 37; last year it was 70 and the year before it was 80. I'm asking them to stay on. But we cannot let people in City government do what they've been doing in the past three months in the Department of Public Safety, issuing reprimands, Trial Boarding fire officers because they let the news media in the firehouse, running police officers down for a breathalyzer when they were on duty and the reading was zero-zero. We're going to take those battles up and I'm going to ask Council to give me a public hearing so we can stop this so we don't have more retirees. And I'll be asking for you to help me in that matter.

Today, in your presenting this resolution, I've asked two of the police officers that are retiring, Lieutenant

Emil Kranjec who has 36 years of service to the City of Pittsburgh and Detective Warren McGuire who also has 36 years, to come forward and say a few words to you about their service in the City. I'm sure they don't want to say too much; they're very proud of what they've done in this City, and they deserve a nice hand. I would ask them to come forward and say a few words.

Detective McGuire:

On behalf of the retirees, I'd like to thank the members of Council for honoring us with these resolutions. Thank you very much.

Lieutenant Kranjec:

Ladies and gentlemen, members of Council, it's an appreciative thing for someone to think of you at the end of your career. I have 37 years. 37 seems to be the lucky number; 37 retirees, 37 years. I've had good years. I've come up with a lot of the people; some of the people are still here on Council that I've had a lot of dealings with.

I've appreciated this City. I still live in the City and intend to stay in the City. It's a pleasure to be here and having you thank me, I'd like to thank you.

Mr. McNamara:

Once again, I hope you all can show up at the Syria Mosque on Wednesday night at 7:00. The ceremonies will take place at 8:00 and everybody is invited. Thank you very much for your time.

The Chair:

Will Gloria Novak please come forward to accept this next resolution?

Mr. Woods moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Woods:

Thank you Madam President and members of Council. Before I ask Gloria to say a few words, I'd like to say that I grew up in the North Side my entire life, my family is still there, my parents grew up there. I remember the good times when North Side was one of the great neighborhoods in the City of Pittsburgh, all of North Side. And I remember in the name of I guess progress, when it was destroyed, East Street, Manchester, many of the other neighborhoods, and now it's coming back. If it wasn't for these 13 neighborhood groups and the parent group, the North Side Leadership Conference, it would not be the part of the City it is today. We owe a lot of gratitude to the North Side Leadership Conference.

Ms. Novak:

I just would like to thank everybody for this resolution and let you know that we are working very hard on the North Side to bring it back. We're alive and well and you're all invited to the dinner this Friday, April 29th.

So, thank you again for the resolution and for all your help and support in the past. Thank you.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

The Chair presents

Bill No. 495 Resolution that the appointment by the Mayor of John Noonan, 815 Woodbourne Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15226, is hereby appointed and confirmed as a member of the Board of Adjustment for a term to expire April, 1991.

Which was read.

Mr. Lyons moved to approve the appointment.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Mr. Pollock:

Discussion on the motion. Right now the Zoning Board of Adjustment is serving with two individuals. Recently they've had several cases where one of the two individuals sitting there was forced to abstain which left one individual to decide the matters. The City Code does not permit one member of the Zoning Board to make a decision; there has to be at least two which means that several projects now are completely on hold until there is a third member appointed, a second member able to vote. For Council to continue to play chicken or games with the Mayor is really holding up progress of the City, holding up development, and holding up some very important projects.

This Council does not appoint members to the Zoning Board; it only acts on nominations. I know Mr. Ed Walkowski; I know him to be a fine gentleman and a very nice man. But this Council can vote no on any appointment it wants and its never going to get the name Ed Walkowski put in front of it and I think that all of this Council should recognize that fact. To stop progress and to hold up developments in this City is really being shortsited and against the interest of the City. So, I think it's very important that we go forth and put Mr. Noonan on the Zoning Board.

Michelle Madoff:

Madam President, was the letter that was requested be sent to the Administration asking to have Mr. Walkowski somewhere in the City so that he could get his additional four to eight months in to be eligible for retirement, was that sent as requested? We were not trying to usurp the Mayor's priority; there's nothing we can do about that, as my colleague has pointed out. But I think that all of us felt that any of us that were in the same position four months or eight months away from being vested, that it would be terribly unfair and that was the point that I made last time.

Since the letter was not sent, Mr. Perry --

Mr. Perry:

That was only a request; it was never formally --

Michelle Madoff:

Well I would like to take this vote, if it's in order, since the sentiment of this Council seemed to be that we act fairly and justly towards Mr. Walkowski, that while we vote on this, that a letter be sent to the Administration urging them, which is all we can do, make a request, that Mr. Walkowski be found a place in the City for the next eight months so that he reaches his eligibility of 20 years. Look at the message we're sending to everybody that works in this City, that they can be fired or they can be let go eight months before they're eligible for a retirement. And I think that is a terrible thing for us to do and I would just urge my colleagues to support the sending of a letter. My understanding is that we agreed on it and that the letter was to be sent.

Mr. Perry:

It was only a suggestion made by Councilman DePasquale.

Michelle Madoff:

It was made by me but it doesn't matter.

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of order, Madam President. First of all, we're not talking about a pension; we're talking about a full pension. Mr. Walkowski, and it was in the newspapers last week, would receive $630 a month if he were to retire today. If he gets his full pension rights he would get $660. We're talking about a difference of $30. I have no problem with it if the Mayor or somebody over there wants to put him on for eight or nine months so he gets the full pension, but we are talking about $30. We're not talking about a full pension.

The Chair:

Can I point out, though, I'm a member of the Municipal Pension Fund. We have Mr. Walkowski's application for pension; we acted on it last week and he was awarded a pension. I don't know what more we can say on that matter.

Mr. Ferlo:

Madam President, if one were to proceed with Mr. Pollock's logic, the Senate would never have any say-so or impact on the nomination of Mr. Bork. But I don't think that's the case. This legislative body does provide oversight and does have say-so. He is correct in one matter and that is that this Council does not have any prerogatives relative to putting Mr. Walkowski back on the Board of Adjustment. That's just not practical and not possible for a number of different reasons, mainly that that would have to come from the Administrator, the Mayor himself.

But on the matter of Mr. Noonan, I want to make it clear that I am voting no on his nomination, basically on one issue alone. I happen to know Mr. Noonan and I'm very clear that he's qualified for the position. But I do believe strongly that he does present a conflict of interest being under retainer and as a consultant for the Urban Redevelopment Authority —

Mr. Lyons:

Point of order. On that portion where you think it's a conflict, the Law Department came down last week saying that it was not a conflict for the status that Mr. Noonan has. That was handed down by the Law Department.

Mr. Ferlo:

Okay, but to finish my comments, I'm not aware of any opinion or anything in writing from the Law Department but, assuming there is something in writing, I don't really think that's the issue. The Law Department acts on the political behalf of Mayor Caliguiri and the Administration. I think that's clear in the history of this Council and that will be clear in the future history regardless of who the Mayor is.

So, very clearly, I'm voting no on Mr. Noonan's appointment. Obviously, he will probably be accepted today by this Council. I do feel it is a conflict of interest, especially in that there are a number of matters that come before the Board of Adjustment that directly and indirectly relate to the Urban Redevelopment Authority, both as an agency as well as people on the URA Board. A recent case being last week alone with a prominent URA board member before the Board of Adjustment happened to be a restaurant and business owner in Shadyside.

With that in mind, I will hope that Mr. Noonan would exclude himself in the future from any vote relative to matters that are before the Board of Adjustment that relate to URA voting.

Mr. Coyne:

Madam President, like Councilman Ferlo I also question the advisability of having someone on the Board who does do work for the URA. I, Mr. Lyons, have seen a report from the Legal Department and that's why I would be voting no on Mr. Noonan also.

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President, I requested back when this came up for a vote a week or two ago, a legal opinion from the Law Department as to whether or not there is a conflict if someone is employed by the Urban Redevelopment Authority on a consulting basis and whether or not they could also be one of the three members of the Zoning Board of Adjustment. I hear that that opinion has been given through the media but I have not received anything in writing in that regard.

Mr. Perry:

I haven't either.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. Wagner is correct. I read it in the paper, I believe it was last week, after we tabled Mr. Noonan's nomination. I believe I read it in the paper where one of the reporters asked Danny Pellegrini, the City Solicitor, if it was a conflict of interest and his answer was no.

Mr. Wagner:

If I may, are we then to vote without that legal opinion?

The Chair:

Yes. We're going to vote right now.

Mr. Wagner:

I would like to comment then, Madam President. I think Mr. Noonan is an exceptionally qualified candidate but I believe this issue should be ironed out prior to the vote; I've said that before and I'm going to say it again.

I have opposed the other matter of which the manner in which Mr. Walkowski was removed from the Board, but I don't really think that's the issue in front of us. The issue in front of us is whether or not we would vote for Mr. Noonan. Now, that name came forth, I believe, about 60 or 70 days after the expiration of the previous term and the previous candidate was serving an extended period during that time. Council could have acted on a name after the 60 days had expired; I, for one, was not aware of that. What we have now is Mr. Noonan's name in front of us and I don't see any urgency here in this matter and I don't see any reason why we cannot wait one additional week, at least, to get a legal opinion. I would be very much in favor of doing that.

Mr. Pollock:

Call for the question.

Mr. Wagner:

I am going to abstain because I have not received an opinion yet.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the appointment?

And on the question, "Shall the appointment pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                 |              |
|-----------------|--------------|
| Mr. DePasquale  | Mr. Pollock  |
| Mr. Lyons       | Mr. Woods    |

(MR. COYNE AND MR. FERLO VOTING NO)

(MR. WAGNER ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the appointment was approved.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Pollock presented

Bill No. 654

Report of the Committee on Finance for April 20, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 549

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of A & L, Inc. in the amount of $18,854.27 in payment of work performed in connection with the Remedial Construction Work on the Saw Mill Run Interceptor; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Mr. Pollock:

On Bill 549, I voted aye on Wednesday and I subsequently learned that our law firm has a lawsuit with the party involved in this, so I'm going to have to abstain. I didn't know it before Wednesday but I subsequently learned that.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                 |
|----------------|-----------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Michelle Madoff |

Hurwitz, M.D. $40.00; Jerome Wolfson, M.D. $27.00; Morton Berkowitz, M.D. $1,255.00; Mercy Hospital (Medical Records) $17.00; Joseph M. Zoffer, Esquire (Attorney's Fees and Misc. Expenses) $3,128.21; Gwendolyn Jackson, in trust for Monique Jackson $7,562.79, c/o Joseph M. Zoffer, Esquire, 1516 Frick Building, Pittsburgh, PA 15219."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo

Madam President, on Bill No. 559, the agenda that I have here lists $40,000 as a figure for Dennis J. Hurwitz, M.D., and I believe it's to be $40.00. That's a considerable difference, even the way we spend money around here. With that correction in mind, I have no objection.

Mr. Perry

That's a typo. We'll take care of it.

Also,

Bill No. 560

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in the amount of $3,300.00 payable to Rosemarie DePellegrini, c/o Jay H. Spiegel, Esquire, 4552 McKnight Road, Pittsburgh, PA 152137-3109, in full settlement of a claim for property damage and providing for the payment thereof."

Which was read.

The Chair

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

| Mr. Lyons       | Mrs. Masloff |
| Michelle Madoff | (Pres't)     |

AYES 9 NOES none

And there being two-thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 561

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution transferring the sum of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) to Code Account 1045-9, Index Code 104596, Workers' Compensation, Department of the Mayor, City Information Systems from Code Account 1042, Index Code 104208, Salaries, Department of the Mayor, City Information Systems."

Bill No. 568

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts, or the use of existing Contracts for traffic signal installation at various locations within the City of Pittsburgh; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo

In the Committee Meeting on the discussion concerning traffic signal installations, I made a comment about the effort of the community there for the last many years to try to put a light in at Estella and Warrington and I had suggested that I was going to offer an amendment today to make sure that that was done. Following the meeting we did receive a call from Public Works and it's my understanding that they will put a traffic light in at Estella and Warrington Avenue in the next 30 days. So, on that basis, I would not make the offering of an amendment today and I want to thank Public Works and it's Chairman, Mr. Woods.

Also,

Bill No. 569

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts, or the use of existing Contracts for concrete slab replacement at various locations within the City of Pittsburgh, and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

The building is located on property zoned "R2" Two-Family Residence District and is identified as Lot No. 262, Block 40-G, in the Allegheny County Lot and Block System, 28th Ward.

Which was read.

Mr. Ferla

Madam President, on Bill No. 566, I would like my comments brought forward regarding Crown Wrecking Company and I would just make the comment to the Department Director that if there is merit to the issue of Crown Wrecking Company being guilty of illegal dumping and not having proper permits, I would hope that the Department Director would review the pre-bid specifications to in some way disallow this individual company from being able to bid on City demolition work in the future. Thank you.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

---

(MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 566 - Wednesday, 4/20/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Imhoff, concerning this legislation, there have been a number of articles in the paper recently concerning a local demolition company called Crown Wrecking Corporation, or Crown Wrecking Company. I have been in touch, my office, with a local Magistrate, as well as the Health Department, based on these articles in the newspapers. Apparently this company does do a lot of work with the City; they are one of the five or six main demolition companies that we do business with.

The concern that I have is they have been fined -- at least I will say this: They have been fined money for illegal dumping or not having proper permits. The concern that I have -- and I am trying to still get all the information from the Health Department and the local Magistrate -- is what are the nature of those charges that they were fined for, either in terms of not having the proper permits, as well as the issue of illegal dumping.

Now, these were articles in the paper, and this is information from the Magistrate and from the Health Department. But prior to the vote on Monday, if it is clear that this company has been found guilty of illegal dumping, I am going to seek to amend this legislation to in some way exclude them from being able to bid on this demolition work from the City.

Now, again, I am only operating on what was in the newspaper and the initial discussions I have had with the Magistrate, as well as the Health Department. But if that is the case, then I am seeking to amend this on Monday to exclude them in some way through the bid process from being able to bid on the City work.

Mr. Imhoff:

First of all, Crown Wrecking Company doesn't do a lot of work for the City. They are one of the top wreckers in the City. The only jobs that they bid on today are newspaper advertisement large jobs. They do not bid on our normal letter bids that are going out for bid.

On the lawsuit that was up, this was a Health Department complaint filed against a dump site that they owned, and it was formerly the City garage dump down in the end of the 28th Ward. And he was going in there, he was going in evidently to prepare for dumping for some of his own material on demolition that he does, and did not get the permission from the County Health Department. And the County Health Department cited him and I understand took him to court, I don't know. I guess he was fined, I don't know. That was what I read in the paper.

---

Mr. Ferlo:

I don't dispute you, but in the brief time that I did work in the Controller's office, I know for a fact it seemed like every other month there were significant invoices for Crown Wrecking.

Mr. Imhoff:

No, sir. I can tell you --

Mr. Ferlo:

When I worked in the Controller's office, there were many invoices paid to Crown Wrecking Company, because I processed the checks, so I know that. That may have changed in the last year, I don't know.

Mr. Imhoff:

I think we can go back a number of years and get you the number of jobs that were done.

Mr. Ferlo:

Whether it is 1 or 50, the point being that if there is some merit to the issue of illegal dumping, or not having proper permits, or violations of the health code, or not having City permits, I don't think that this company should be allowed to bid on the City work.

(Deleted text.)

Mr. Ferlo:

It is my understanding that we have in the past and even presently the City bid specifications provide for all types of requirements. And it would be perfectly legal to, within the parameters of the bid specification, to exclude someone who has been found guilty of illegal dumping or having violations. That is perfectly within the prerogative of the City Administration regarding the execution of the contract. There are 20 or 30 requirements that companies must meet before they can bid on City work, and this would be a pre-bid specifications, and I believe it is perfectly legal.

---

Mr. Perlo:

In response to Michelle, first of all, Mr. Pellegrini is not the last word, nor do we have anything in writing from him regarding this issue.

(This portion transcribed by Helen L. Kriebel, Stenotype Reporter.)

4-20-88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Imhoff, is it not a fact that--and I can point to a couple of examples. In the bid specifications currently, if you are a contractor doing work for the City and you don't complete the work or you botch up the job, isn't there clause in there that you are excluded in the future from bidding on the work. And in fact a local company, a plumbing company that now has a city contract did botch up the work and they re-incorporated a new name in order to then to able to bid on the City's plumbing contract.

Mr. Imhoff:

I don't know anything about the plumbing contract.

Mr. Ferlo:

In those service contracts there is a requirement there that if a contractor botches up a city job, they are then excluded in the future from being able to bid on city work, so it's a question of making it a part of the pre-bid specifications.

Mr. Imhoff:

I would think that if somebody repeatedly does a job like that and doesn't do it right, that yes we would not send them out for bids; that is the letter bids. On newspaper bids Dan Pellegrini has said that unless they are disqualified for some reason and they are notified properly and everything, we cannot disqualify them from newspaper bids. We have a selection on the letter bids but not on newspapers.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. DePasquale:

Just a note in passing, Madam Chairperson. I just thought when Amy Ballinger and the Mayor were here, and myself, we should have taken a picture and it would probably have been entitled, "The Unholy Trio Rides Again".

Mr. Pollock:

How about "The Good, The Bad And The Ugly"?

Mr. Wagner:

Madam President, as all Councilmembers are aware and the public is aware, we've had an excessive number of vandalism cases in various City parks within the last month. To name a few, some examples are, the Brookline Park in excess of $10,000; Leslie Park, $500,000 to $600,000 of a fire, a serious fire; West Penn Park has had some problems; most recently, Moore Park has had vandalism.

In some of those situations, police have apprehended some of the people that are accused of being involved, but the simple fact remains that it's very early in the year and we've had some serious, serious vandalism problems at our parks throughout the City.

Due to the unusual number of vandalism cases and complaints that have come in to 911 and to this Council, I have suggested to the Department of Public Safety that we re-implement the Park Police procedure within the Police Bureau. When I say re-implement, as everyone knows, back a couple years ago, we had Park Police that specifically went to the 200 or so parks throughout the City of Pittsburgh and enforced the law in those parks. What I'm suggesting, and I've discussed this with Director Cannon and briefly with Chief Pampena last week, that we do something similar to what we did in the past under a different reporting procedure, that we have Park Police that fall under the jurisdiction of the various zones and the commanders, but their job is only to patrol the parks, and to do this during the hours in which problems occur the most which is somewhere around dinnertime in the evening until maybe three or four in the morning, and to implement it as soon as possible.

We have a new police recruit class graduating very soon within the next two weeks and we could take two officers per zone seven days a week for one shift and implement this Park Police patrol.

In addition to that, the ordinance states that you are not permitted in the parks between the hours of 11 p.m. and 6 a.m. unless you have a permit from the Director of Parks and Recreation. There are very few parks in the City that have signs on the various entrances to the parks indicating that. So, people think they can be in the parks when, in fact, according to the Code, you're not permitted in the parks between the hours of 11 p.m. and 6 a.m.

There is also a $300 fine if you're caught in the parks during those hours if you don't have a permit say, for instance, for softball games or whatever a permit would be given out for.

But, I'm also asking Parks and Recreation to put up signs sometime in the near future, but more importantly, I'm asking Public Safety to implement a special patrol in the parks. I am hoping that the Administration will go along with it and I'm hoping that we can reduce the potential of these serious vandalism incidents from occurring this year. And I would also ask them to do it each and every year for a six month period beginning in April through October.

Mr. Ferloc

On this issue and somewhat a related issue, I'd like to concur with Mr. Wagner and support him on this initiative and hope that we get a response from Director Cannon on this issue. But you can add West Penn Field also to your list -- Did you mention that?

Mr. Wagner:

Yes.

Mr. Ferloc

Excuse me. It's my understanding that it will not be able to be used now for softball because of the lighting being blown out.

I would like to, on that issue, address a concern to my colleague, Mr. Coyne, and maybe he could follow up with it, if he's willing, and that is, it's been raised with me that Sargeant Electric Company does provide lighting that is more difficult to knock out with B-B guns and rocks. It's a little bit more money but I think it's reached the point now where, out in Sheraden Field, I know, and now West Penn Field and probably elsewhere, where it might be more efficient and actually less expensive to pay a little bit more for the safety lights in some of these parks and ballfields than to have the situation that we have now where the lights are blown out and taken out of commission for many, many weeks.

So, I would like, if he's willing, Councilman Coyne to pursue that matter since he's Chairman of Parks and Recreation because it was raised with me when I was out in Sheraden Field a couple weeks ago and it would seem to me it might be a little more money but it would be much more wise on our part.

The Chair:

Very well.

And on the motion of Mr. DePasquale

Council adjourned.

ONE-HUNDRED TWENTY-FIFTH COUNCIL

SOPHIE MASLOFF ..... President
MICHAEL PERRY ..... City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON .. Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, May 2, 1988

PRESENT:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Michelle Madoff  |
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Ferlo      | Mr. Woods        |
| Mr. Lyons      | (Pres't Pro tem) |

ABSENT:

Mr. Pollock
Mrs. Masloff

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Michelle Madoff:

This resolution is a pay equity resolution and I would like to call representatives who are present of the ten groups that are presently supporting this legislation. There are many, many other groups who are currently discussing this concept and I'm sure will be on the bandwagon. The American Association of University Women, American Federation of State and County Municipal Employees Local 2578, Coalition of Labor Union Women, Communication Workers of America Local 13,000, Greater Pittsburgh Commission of Women, League of Women Voters, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, NAACP, National Council of Jewish Women, Service Employees International Union, WYCA of Greater Pittsburgh. I believe we have Joyce Poeseel, Kay Tillow, Cynthia Chertos, Harvey Adams, one rooster among the chickens, Shirley Levine, and Jan Neffke with us today.

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 697 WHEREAS, on average, women's annual full-time, year round earnings are approximately 68% of men's and the wage gap between men and women has been fairly constant over the last fifty years in spite of federal and state laws outlawing sex discrimination in employment; and

WHEREAS, the persistent disparity in wages is in large part due to occupational segregation, where the majority of "women's jobs" such as nurse, secretary and teacher carry lower pay than traditionally male occupations requiring comparable levels of skill, effort and responsibility; and

WHEREAS, if all women were paid according to the value of their jobs, the wage gap would narrow substantially; and

WHEREAS, it is the responsibility of every employer to assure that employees are fairly paid according to their job content, without regard to their sex; and

WHEREAS, setting women's wages at a level consistent with the value of their contribution would increase their disposable income and therefore expenditures within the local business community, contributing to the government's tax base, as well as reducing the number of families in poverty; and

WHEREAS, HB 1182 would provide pay equity for state employees and SB 558 would amend the Equal Pay Law to provide a legal remedy for sex-based wage discrimination; and

WHEREAS, the passage of such laws would benefit the families and the economy of this state.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby supports and encourages the passage of pay equity legislation.

Michelle Madoff moved to approve the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm going to turn the mike over to people who would like to speak, give them all one minute, and we'll keep our comments brief. But I do want to make one statement; there was a comment made at the press conference that this is something that white males would not see very favorably and I've only one comment: Men of quality are not threatened by women of equality.

Ms. Tillow:

I'm Kay Tillow; I'm President of the Coalition of Labor Union Women and we're fighting for the pay equity out of a sense of justice for people but also because the result of that wage discrimination is children living in poverty without adequate clothes and food and shelter. It's a part of a national drive for pay equity which we are doing in a march on Washington on May 14th and busses are going from Pittsburgh and I have that information available.

Mr. Adams:

I'm sure I didn't hear Michelle limiting someone's right to free speech to one minute. It takes me a minute to tell you my name, but I'm only teasing you. And to Mr. Ben Woods, I don't get down here often anymore but you certainly carry the mantle of President of Council very well. I'm so happy to see you in that role, Ben.

I'd just like to say that the NAACP certainly stands foremost behind any groups that ask for equality. We all understand, and we just said the Pledge of Allegiance, where we talked about equality. Certainly, one of the greatest tenants of discrimination has to do with money, and that applies to Blacks, Hispanics, females in particular, in this instance. And we're saying that there are many, many female heads of households who are being underpaid for the work that they do. This is just another form of discrimination that has to be rooted out in this country if that Pledge of Allegiance has any merit to it and certainly the government has a great role in doing that and I have the greatest confidence in this Council of doing the right things and we hope that you'll use your considerable influence to reach those State Legislators, Congressmen, Senators, including presidential candidates, to see that that is one of the planks in their platform. We thank you very much.

Ms. Chertos:

I'm Cynthia Chertos, I'm the Executive Director of the Greater Pittsburgh Commission For Women and Co-Chair of the Pay Equity Coalition of Southwestern Pennsylvania.

On behalf of the Pay Equity Coalition of Southwestern Pennsylvania, we were very pleased to assist Councilwoman Michelle Madoff in drafting this resolution. The Coalition, for your information, was formed this year to provide public information on the issue of pay equity and to assist whenever it seems feasible in moving the agenda of pay equity. Our membership includes the Greater Pittsburgh Commission for Women, the YWCA, the NAACP and the other sponsoring organizations that you heard Michelle speak of a few minutes ago.

I'd just like to say that implementing pay equity is good business, it's important to families, it's important to our community, and I think we should all be very proud that the City of Pittsburgh is joining those forward looking communities in our country, recognizing and resolve to eliminate any remaining wage discrimination for women and minorities. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Woods, would you perhaps see that the City Clerk is instructed to see that this resolution gets to all the State Legislators representing the City of Pittsburgh and we'd like to see it go to the candidates for President.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Woods, it's a little bit off the subject but I think we should commend Harvey Adams and the NAACP for their leadership on the Connelley School in helping to come out, as Michelle just last week introduced a resolution on that issue. And I think we should applaud Harvey Adams who often times is criticized in the papers but on this issue the NAACP has shown a lot of leadership and they're partly and mainly responsible, I think, at this time for the School Board looking twice at the closure of the Connelley School.

Mr. Coyne:

Could I have the following individuals come forward, please? Michael Senko from the City Department of Parks and Recreation; Fred Landucci of Beechview Senior Center; Frank Perello of Brashear Senior Center; Anthony DeNapoli of the Garfield/Bloomfield Senior Center; John White of the Glen Hazel Senior Center; Rose Lucchino of the Greenfield Senior Center; Catherin Sciulli of the Hazelwood Senior Center; Bessie Foster of the Homewood Senior Center; Dorothy Snyder of the Lawrenceville Senior Center; Loretta Foley of the Mount Washington Senior Center; Bill Simendinger of the North Side Senior Center; Julia Fountain of the Northview Senior Center; Ted Czolba of the Oakland Senior Center; Frances

Mr. Coyne presents

No. 698 WHEREAS, the month of May is an ideal time to honor Pittsburgh's senior citizens because with the Spring season comes the celebration of brighter days and the promise of a full life; and

WHEREAS, the theme of this month-long tribute is "In Praise of Aging" in recognition of senior adults as a vital part of the Pittsburgh community; and

WHEREAS, Citiparks' senior centers facilitate the social, emotional and physical well-being of older adults and promote the older person's confidence in his or her ability to lead an independent life; and

WHEREAS, "In Praise of Aging" aims at sensitizing seniors to their own capabilities and celebrating the richness of growing older.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby declares the month of May as "Older Americans Month" in the City of Pittsburgh to heighten community awareness of elderly citizens and their activities; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the week of May 9 through May 13, 1988 be recognized as "Senior Center Week" in conjunction with the programs conducted by Citiparks.

Mr. Coyne moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Coyne:

I'd like to ask Mr. Senko of Citiparks to give a brief comment and also to point out that we have 19 folks here who represent the various senior centers. But it isn't just these 19 people we honor here today, although their efforts are to be praised because they're members of the Advisory Council, but all our senior citizens who participate in programs throughout the City and for the staff of Citiparks for doing such a fine job.

Mr. Senko:

Thank you, Councilman. We appreciate Councilman Coyne's efforts, and all of Council for their continued support and the opportunity not only to honor these representatives of our centers here, but also the opportunity that it affords us to educate the public on what the continued contributions of the elderly citizens of Pittsburgh do through the center's system and the preventative role of their healthy contributions.

I invite everybody to join us Wednesday through Friday of this week in the lobby of the City County Building for the displays and exhibits of their healthy contribution to the City. Thank you.

Mr. Ferla:

I'd like to ask Mr. and Mrs. Walkowski and their daughter Carol to please come up.

Mr. Ferlo presents

No. 699 WHEREAS, for over 19 years, Ed Walkowski faithfully served on the Zoning Board of Adjustment; and

WHEREAS, the Zoning Board of Adjustment is often found in the middle of community disputes, which necessitates that members have the wisdom of Solomon in order to resolve them; and

WHEREAS, during those 19 years Mr. Walkowski participated in over 8,000 rulings before the Board; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Walkowski was respected as a Board Member by community groups and businesses across the City for his fairness and hard work; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Walkowski resigned from the Board on April 1, 1988.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh commends Ed Walkowski for his contributions to the City of Pittsburgh and wishes him well in future endeavors.

Mr. Ferlo moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo

I'd just like to call on Mr. Walkowski. I'm sure all of Council is very familiar; many of you have been friends with Ed for many years. I'd also like to introduce his wife, Helen, and his daughter, Carol.

At this time I'd like to give the proclamation to Ed and ask him to say a few words.

Mr. Walkowski:

I'm not one for a few words but I'll give you a little.

When I was asked to come down, I didn't know what was going to happen here. In my mind I thought maybe George Jacoby was going to bring me my gold watch. I don't see it here today but perhaps in the future he'll break down and deliver it.

Looking back over that period of time, I worked with quite a number of people that deserve credit. You had some Chairmen by the name of Paul Sullivan and Joe Mistick; great people, they did a great service to the City of Pittsburgh. In fact, I think those people plus this Board helped the City of Pittsburgh become the Number One City in the United States. That I felt proud, that we had a little contribution to that.

Also, working with Gerald Fox who is still on the Board. Gerald pointed out a couple of weeks ago that Gerald and I have served on that Board longer than any boardmember in its existence. I was surprised to hear that.

Also, down the hall working with Jim Brown and Paul Imhoff; great people that you have working for you. You can count on them to continue a great job.

At the present time, a lot of people ask me if I'm going to retire, and I said no, I wouldn't. I will be in my office starting tomorrow selling insurance; that's life, commercial, business. That is the commercial for all T.V. programs. I enjoy that work and I enjoy working with people. However, I would like to wish my replacement the best of luck; he's going to need it. It's a tough job. He will get threats, I got threats; some of the threats were carried out. I won't go into detail, but he has to be on his toes.

As for the future, I look forward to two things; in August I'll be married 40 years to this young lady here and we're going to celebrate. Also, I'm looking forward to next year's election. That primary should be a real humdinger. I'm going to take a very active part in it; I don't intend to run for Council, so no one has to worry about that. But I will be very active in it and I'm cordially inviting all Councilmembers, if you're in Bloomfield at any time from 11:30 to 1:00, I'll take you to lunch.

With that, I do appreciate this award. This is the third big award I've received in my life; I received one from the American Legion, a Distinguished Service Award, and I got one from the City of Hope which I received in Hollywood, California. So, this makes number three and I'm proud to have it. Thank you.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Walkowski, I just want to thank you also for your little over 19 years of service to the City of Pittsburgh. You have truly brought professionalism to the City and dedication. I would have liked to have seen it been 20 years, but I guess the chips fell the way they were. But, at the same time, I want you to know that I appreciate your contribution to the City. You mentioned the Most Liveable City in America; you're right. Your contributions along with many others made that happen and I thank you for it. And I hope you do stay involved in the City of Pittsburgh in the future. We need you.

Mr. Walkowski:

I will be active next year.

Mr. Wagner:

Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Ed, I was away on vacation and I came back and found out what had been done to you. I didn't talk to you; I just automatically mentioned to this Council that I was most distressed that eight months before your total pension was due, that we were sending a terrible message to all the employees that work for the City saying anybody can lose their job at the last minute. I was very distressed. You and I have been friends since the day I started to run in '73 and you're always been my supporter, and Helen even a stronger supporter; we women hang together or we hang alone.

You mentioned something today that struck a familiar chord, it struck a nerve. When did Paul Sullivan leave? What year was it?

Mr. Walkowski:

In '79.

Michelle Madoff:

I think you're right, because I was on Council in '79 and I had worked with Paul Sullivan in the environment. I went to bat for Paul Sullivan because the same thing happened to him. Do you remember? Paul Sullivan was discharged without -- It wasn't even so much the seven years and no pension but there was also the fact that he was replaced by someone with very short notice.

So, here I am and I hope we don't have it. The third time is a charm; you got a third award. I hope we don't have a third time where this City would do something like that because I think it's unconscionable.

Mr. Walkowski:

Joe Mistick replaced Paul Sullivan.

Michelle Madoff:

I didn't know Joe at the time and I love Joe; Joe is a wonderful man.

Mr. Walkowski:

He is wonderful and if you ever hear of Joe going back to Italy, congratulate him because the he got married again. Every time he gets married —

Michelle Madoff:

He's married again; he just had a baby.

Mr. Walkowski:

Then he's going to Italy again. He's a terrific guy.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't remember names very well, I'm very bad with names, but I never forget issues. I'm like a computer; I don't forget issues. And I'm telling you that I remember going to bat for Paul Sullivan. Do you recall that? Think about it.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. Chairman, Point of Order. We're here to honor Mr. Walkowski today and we've gone back in history about 40 years. I don't mean that to be sarcastic.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Thank you all very much.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 692 Communication from Mayor Caliguri returning with his veto Council Bill No. 310 entitled, "Prohibiting the transfer of funds to various authorities until such time as the authorities adopt a City of Pittsburgh Residency Requirement for their employees".

Which was read.

(MAYOR'S VETO LETTER)

April 28, 1988

President and Members of Council
CITY OF PITTSBURGH
510 City County Building
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15219

Dear President and Members:

I am returning herewith Council Resolution No. 310, Authority Residency Requirements, along with my veto of that legislation.

I am in complete agreement with the spirit and the intent of your resolution. I believe that every person who is employed by the City or an authority related to the City should have a vested interest in our community. However, I am advised by the City Solicitor that, consistent with my powers and duties as set forth in the City Charter, I must veto this legislation because it is legally defective.

There are two issues confronting me. The first is specific to Section 1 of the Resolution and its prohibition on signing warrants unless a residency requirement is adopted. The second relates generally to City Council's authority to contravene the power derived by the authorities from state legislation.

First, by directing that warrants not be countersigned by the Mayor and the City Controller, Council has placed itself in the position of modifying the terms and conditions of the City's contracts with the various authorities. Under the terms and conditions of these contracts, the various authorities and the City of Pittsburgh has certain rights and responsibilities that are owed to each other. By ordering me not to sign, and the City Controller not to countersign, any warrants with these authorities solely for the lack of a residency requirement would constitute a serious breach of these agreements.

The second defect in this resolution arises from City Council's attempt to overstep the legislative authority from which our municipal authorities are created. By their very nature, authorities take on the appearance of the municipal governments which they serve, for it is their purpose to ensure the orderly progression of municipal development that is beyond the scope of the local entity. However, the powers exercised by the authority are not derived from the local governments, but from the enabling legislation passed by the state legislature that created each specific authority.

Each authority has a specific public purpose. Such a narrow focus creates a unique set of problems that each must face. There are management contracts, labor contracts, federal funding streams and contract reviews that are peculiar to each authority. This is recognized by the state legislature, and that is why each authority is created under a specific municipal authorities act. We would not only be illegally pre-empting state legislative power by forcing a residency requirement on each of the authorities, we would also be compromising the integrity of self-governance that is essential for their very purpose.

Fortunately, the authorities of the City of Pittsburgh share your foresight and concerns about the residency requirements. I have, in the past few months, asked each authority to consider a residency requirement for its members. Of the six authorities in question, all have either adopted a residency requirement or are in the process of developing a residency policy.

It has always been my policy to seek out the most qualified persons who are City residents or who have a vested interest in the City of Pittsburgh to fill the authority positions over which I have appointive power. You have my assurance that this administration will vigorously attempt to legally assert whatever powers it has to ensure that residency requirements are met by all future authority employees.

Very truly yours.

Richard S. Caliguiri

(END OF LETTER)

Mr. Ferlo:

Point of Procedure. Mr. Chairman, I'd like to ask for a three minute recess.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

And I would also like to ask that Mr. Dan Pellegrini, the attorney who wrote this opinion, be here.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'm only asking for the recess, not for Mr. Pellegrini.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm asking for Mr. Pellegrini to be here.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I'm not going to have Mr. Pellegrini come up here. We're going to recess for three minutes.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me. May I challenge the Chair on having Mr. Pellegrini here?

The Chair, Pro tem:

You can't challenge the Chair.

Michelle Madoff:

Why not?

The Chair, Pro tem:

Because the Rules of Council say that if anyone objects to anyone coming to Council, that's it.

Michelle Madoff:

That's true but I think it's unfair.

And on the motion of Mr. Ferlo

Council recessed.

The Chair, Pro tem:

The recessed meeting will now come to order. I need a motion to override the Mayor's veto.

Mr. Ferlo:

Motion to override.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Discussion. I'll try to be succinct because having discussed this issue over the weekend and as late as three minutes ago, I think I know where everyone stands and I'm hopefully going to make an eloquent passionate appeal to Mr. Coyne and Michelle to vote with the other five Councilmembers who —

Michelle Madoff:

Don't presume to know how I vote. I find it offensive.

Mr. Ferlo:

I don't presume, I'm only making a last ditch effort in hopes to win your support on this because I know all of Council unanimously approved the residency requirement as originally proposed in the legislation and now we are faced with an override. I don't want to get into a long discussion about why the legislation was necessary; suffice it to say that we proposed it and supported it as well as members of Council because of the money issue involved in lost revenues. It's very clear to me that in the tenure of this Administration over the last eight years, close to 40 percent of the payroll of the various authorities are people who live outside of the City. Those are jobs that are not going to residents of Hazelwood; they're not going to residents of Greenfield. This legislative would help to alter that and I hope that Councilman Coyne would think about that issue.

On the legal matter which is really the issue before us, in the letter of veto to Council, and in response to that, I had sent a letter over the weekend to Mayor Caliguiri, and just to speak very briefly about that, I would like the Administration in their veto did not outline or specifically identify any contract that they believe was in violation of this legislation, that this legislation violates. It cannot point to any contract. In fact, in many opinions that the Solicitor has offered to this Council as recently as last week in the matter of the historical designation, the Solicitor's position has consistently been one that regardless of federal law or state act, we have tremendous powers under Home Rule for various types of powers relative to police to the health and welfare of our community. And that's certainly an issue that falls in this area. I point to the case law of the City of Pittsburgh versus the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania which I cited in the communication to the Mayor.

I think it's very clear from lots of different case law that has been established over the years that we have very broad powers given to us under the Home Rule Charter and, in fact, the Home Rule Charter, as the constitution of this City, was given to us as enabling legislation by State government. They transferred, basically, powers to us as a municipality. The Home Rule Charter is power given to us by State government and I believe very strongly that its within that power for this Council as it has with wisdom chosen to support the residency requirement. I am not interrupting or contravening the powers of the Authority to enter into contract with any entity. This simply states a relationship between we, the City of Pittsburgh, and the various authorities, authorities which we create by ordinance regardless of the fact that there is state enabling legislation.

Even if you believe or support some of the arguments made by Mr. Pellegrini's legal mumbo-jumbo to Council, at least let us proceed further by overriding the Mayor's veto and let us have some discourse, whether it be in a court of law or some type of arbitration with the Administration on this matter.

I will point very clearly that the reason why I want this residency law, regardless of the individual decision of the authority boards to pass requirements, is that in the future we may have a new Administration who will appoint new boards and commissions of authorities. There will be new staff people. There may be some of these people who will come from the County and the one last place for political appointments that's not covered by Personnel and Civil Service is the various authorities that employ upwards of 800 people.

If, by using an example, if the County Controller would end up being Mayor, the one option that he would have is to put County residents that are working their tails off for his election in high paying jobs in the various authorities. And that's denying a job to a person from Hazelwood and a person from Greenfield. And I want to see that stopped.

This residency requirement would have the full weight of law and it would not have a situation that it can be overruled and undermined by individual authority boards of which they will change. The face of the authority boards will change in the future. This is not the antagonist issue with this Administration, per se; it is something that is a principle issue that everybody who works in the City, whether it be the Police, the Fire, the Paramedics, the white collar work force or the authority, should live and reside in the City of Pittsburgh and contribute financially.

I'll just close by saying that I think the legal arguments are spurious. I think we should have the option in the future to either arbitrate with the Administration but, if need be and we need legal representation, I know a number of attorneys who helped me draft this resolution. Without mentioning names, some of them are attorneys who work for other authorities, in fact. They are very willing to help us pro bona, for free, be represented in the future if we need to.

I call on the Administration not to be a legal obstructionist which is, I think, the basis for their action here as well as being politically adversary. And I think it's important to override this resolution so that we can have further discourse and action on it in the future. Thank you, Mr. Woods.

Mr. Coyne:

I'd like to express my appreciation to Councilman Ferlo for his concern for City workers and in particular those from Hazelwood and Greenfield. I think it's very commendable that you're so concerned about the residents in my area and I hope you remember this when the workers of our City, in particular those of Hazelwood, when the LTV issue comes up on Wednesday as we fight to save that plant for further operation and not just play into the company's hands for ripping it down.

I'd like to express my dissatisfaction with the Administration for giving us this veto on Friday at such a late date before we had a real good change to debate it among ourselves in enclosed quarters. However, I must say that I'm not going to vote to override this veto solely because I agree with the argument here presented by the City Solicitor and also after conferring with a couple attorneys I know, they also agree with his position. Initially, Councilman Ferlo and other members I hope will remember that I did support this bill and I think what this points out is a need for City Council to have its own attorney. If we would have had our own attorney, we could have discussed the legal ramifications of this bill prior to voting on it and having it go to the Mayor and then having the Mayor veto it.

The Mayor's first argument or the Solicitor's first argument for the Administration is that this would create a breach of agreement. And though I find that there is some merit to that argument, I feel the second point taken is the most important and I'd like to read that for the public's consumption. It says:

"The second defect in this resolution arises from City Council's attempt to overstep the legislative authority from which our municipal authorities are created. By their very nature, authorities take on the appearance of the municipal governments which they serve, for it is their purpose to ensure the orderly progression of municipal development that is beyond the scope of the local entity. However, the powers exercised by the authority are not derived from the local governments, but from the enabling legislation passed by the state legislature that created each specific authority.

Each authority has a specific public purpose. Such a narrow focus creates a unique set of problems that each must face. There are management contracts, labor contracts, federal funding streams and contract reviews that are peculiar to each authority. This is recognized by the state legislature, and that is why each authority is created under a specific municipal authorities act. We would not only be illegally pre-empting state legislative power by forcing a residency requirement on each of the authorities, we would also be compromising the integrity of self-governance that is essential for their very purpose."

I think that very clearly says our act initially was illegal and I want to point out again that if we had our own attorney maybe we could circumvent these types of action in the future.

I think what's real important is that the Mayor points out here in his veto is that of the six authorities questioned all have either adopted residency requirement or are in the process of developing a residency policy.

I can see what Mr. Ferlo is saying with a new administration or with new directors, this policy may come into question. However, I would like to remind Council that City Council has the final prerogative on the approving of new directors or members of the authorities. —

Mr. Ferlo:

No we don't.

Mr. Coyne:

If the Mayor appoints a new Director, the Director does come before Council. Am I mistaken?

The Chair, Pro tem:

You're mistaken.

Mr. Coyne:

Well then the new members of the board come before Council; am I correct, Mr. President?

The Chair, Pro tem:

It depends on what board.

Mr. Coyne:

Well, I think what we need to think of is that the Mayor, whoever the Mayor may be in the future, whether it be any other politician, as Mr. Ferlo has alluded to, or anyone, will take into consideration the welfare of the City first and they would get a commitment from the Directors that a residency policy would be upheld.

Finally, I think that taking the position of going to court is going to cost the City regardless of whether we get attorneys who are going to do it for free. There are going to be some costs that are taken from the City. And I think in a time when we're trying to cut back on spending that it's something we really need to look at.

So, in good conscience, although I did endorse this bill when it first came, I wish we would have had these legal opinions before us ahead of time and after reading this today and consulting with some other attorneys, I cannot in good conscience vote to override the veto. Thank you.

Mr. DePasquale:

I just want to say, Mr. President, that I'm going to vote to override the veto and I think that Mr. Ferlo said it all. And in light of what Mr. Ferlo said, I think I should go on record as saying the veto of the Mayor really puzzled me.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, earlier Councilwoman Madoff had an excellent resolution supporting pay equity. To some degree we're talking about employment equity here in the City of Pittsburgh for blacks, for whites, for males, for females, to give all the people in the City of Pittsburgh a greater opportunity to work for authorities that are based within the City of Pittsburgh. That's one of the reasons why I support overriding the veto of the Mayor.

A couple other reasons come to mind. The most important problem in the City of Pittsburgh, obviously, is the lack of employment. There's not a day that goes by that someone doesn't call my office, doesn't stop me on the street, doesn't make some request to assist them in employment. That still is the number one priority in the City of Pittsburgh and if we can provide a few extra jobs within our authorities by requiring that the authorities hire City residents, I believe we should do that.

There really is no legal issue here, as has been presented, if all the authorities hire City residents. That's the important point to remember here. There is no conflict between Council and the Administration as is suggested, as long as they follow the intent of the original resolution which is to hire City residents. I might further say that this does not restrict an authority from hiring someone that lives outside the City or in another City but the first day of employment working for that authority, they must live within the City of Pittsburgh. That's really the intent here behind Councilman Ferlo's original resolution, to maintain our tax base and give people a greater opportunity for employment within the City of Pittsburgh.

Councilman Coyne referred earlier to we have some control over the authority. About two years ago when Council was in a dispute over who was to be appointed to the Urban Redevelopment Authority, a ruling came down from the Solicitor that it doesn't matter whether or not Council concurs with the Administration. The Mayor's appointee serves on the authority. And that was a ruling by our Solicitor that was given to this Council. In essence, what it said was, that name never really has to come in front of Council and the person can still serve on the authority. So, therefore, we have very few checks and balances on authorities unless we sit individually on the authorities or pass a resolution similar to the one proposed by Councilman Ferlo.

For that reason, for all those reasons I should say, I support a motion to override the veto.

Michelle Madoff:

I have a real problem. I think it's really a sad day for the City that for years I tried to get legal counsel for this body, to have an attorney who can advise us on what is fact and what is fiction. I realize there could be a lot of arguments saying, well, one attorney will give you one opinion and another will give you another opinion. But if you have sufficient time to sit down and look at the law itself, you get some clarifying information that helps you in voting so that you don't vote in a vacuum.

As I read this letter from Mr. Pellegrini, there are several issues that are very unclear to me. I ask respectfully that he be allowed to come here before this body, and if one person says no, he can't come. Mr. Ben Woods, you were saying you won't allow him to come; is that correct?

The Chair, Pro tem:

That's correct.

Michelle Madoff:

And this has happened before. We had a hearing the other day, we had a post agenda because eight members of Council wanted to hear from the Administration and Mr. Woods again decided that he doesn't. I think we need to look at that rule and have a majority decide whether someone will come to Council.

The things that I'm very confused by is that in the second paragraph, counsel to the Administration, and basically, although Mr. Dan Pellegrini is counsel to the Administration and supposedly to this body as well, it's difficult to serve two masters. But he says, and I have no reason to doubt him, and this is the Mayor's letter, "I am advised by the City Solicitor that consistent with my powers and duties as set forth in the City Charter, I must veto this legislation because it is legally defective."

And then there's another statement, another paragraph that says, "First by directing that warrants not be countersigned by the Mayor and the City Controller, Council has placed itself in the position of modifying the terms and conditions of the City's contracts with the various authorities. Under the terms and conditions of these contracts, the various authorities in the City of Pittsburgh have certain rights and responsibilities that are owed to each other. By ordering me not to sign, and the City Controller not to countersign, any warrants with these authorities solely for the lack of residency requirements will constitute a serious breach of the agreement."

Well, Dan isn't here for me to ask him the question which any normal relatively intelligent person would want to know. What has that got to do with this Council saying we don't want people to be on boards and commissions that are not City residents? What has that got to do with tying the hands of the Mayor from being able to vote on the other aspects of contracts?

I talked to a couple of attorneys that tell me that the legislation before us is legal. There are attorneys saying it isn't legal. This body ought to be ashamed of itself because you don't have your own legal counsel. So we're forced to vote in a vacuum all the time. And then those of you who didn't vote for a legal counsel say, "Well, whatever their position is that day". They justify it.

It seems to me that I have taken a position before this bill was introduced by Mr. Ferlo. But I had suggested, I've written letters and there's a documented trail, that I wrote to, and I also met with, the Stadium Authority. I believe they came to a post agenda here in Council. Do you recall that, Mr. Woods? We had the Stadium Authority here and their lawyers. I was concerned that so many new people were being hired at the Stadium that were not City residents. Certainly that's a place to give jobs to City residents. Nobody supported me from this Council to say that was wrong, and it is wrong.

The greatest argument for overriding the Mayor's veto is that Alcosan and the Stadium, as two glaring examples, have been areas where non-City residents can be hired. Alcosan has certainly been a breeding ground for patronage. I am sure that all the authorities are breeding grounds for patronage. This body has not been able to get the City Controller to do audits on several authorities I would like to see audited and, of course, from a very personal perspective, and I speak for myself, I hope I speak for other caring people, that having a County Controller as the City Democratic Chairman and his firm working on bond issues as underwriter counsel to the tune of $1 billion, certainly does not say that these authorities who have, according to the Mayor, autonomy, they're autonomous bodies, I say, autonomous, B.S. They can't be autonomous because they have to be responsible to somebody.

And I believe that since there is nobody here to answer my questions since we don't have our own legal counsel, I am in the position of having to make what I believe is an ethical, moral decision, and that is that I'm going to have to vote to override the Mayor's veto.

Earlier today when I read this document, it seemed to me that there was a lot of validity to it. But since checking on and thinking it through a little further, I know I'm going to disappoint the Administration. I hope that we can disagree without being disagreeable. I believe that we have to override the Mayor's veto so that we can have further dialogue and hope that the bill will come up again in an amended form so that we can achieve what the Mayor wants. The Mayor doesn't want people hired who are non-City residents, but I think he's being told that he cannot do what he wants by his Law Department. And I think that the Mayor and this City Council are in full agreement as to what is ethically and morally correct. I am not a lawyer yet; I've got my degree by osmosis. I got the Liberty Bell Award from the Bar Association in '72 but I don't think I could pass the Bar, and I don't drink. I don't mean to be funny because this is a serious issue but in my earlier discussions with the Administration today, I was inclined to support them and with further reflection, I feel that I cannot.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I also am going to vote to override the veto. I believe that some of the deficiencies that are discussed in the Mayor's letter we can correct by amendments. If we don't override now, this bill will be dead for two years. It does not affect any present employee in any authority; their jobs are secure. And I believe that we owe it, this Council owes it, to the people of this City to assure any future jobs, whether it be working for the City of Pittsburgh or any authority that we control, we owe it to them that they get first turn at those jobs.

If you're voting to override, vote yes. If you're voting not to override, vote no.

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. DePasquale | Michelle Madoff  |

AYES 6 NOES 1

(MR. COYNE VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion was approved.

Michelle Madoff:

Point of Order. Can we find out what is the intention of the Administration and how can we resolve this in an amicable way? It's time we stopped having an adversary position with the Administration. I believe, as I said earlier, the Mayor supports the concept of the bill; we need to figure out how to work it out.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I believe Mr. Ferlo is going to work with him, get some amendments in here, and we can do that.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President, I think that by overriding the Mayor's veto here, we put him in a better position to come back and ask for amendments to the bill. I think that doesn't handcuff him.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I agree with you.

Commodity Distribution to the needy, for the benefit of the residents of the City of Pittsburgh during 1988 and providing for the payment of the cost which is not to exceed $35,000.00, and is chargeable to and payable from Code Account 1103 (110304) Miscellaneous Services, in the Department of City Planning."

—(SPONSORED BY MR. WOODS)

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 601, Mr. President, we're talking about the distribution of cheese and butter to indigents and we're talking about $35,000. And while I agree that we need checks and balances and everybody that comes before us should be able to substantiate what the money is going to be used for. That's our responsibility. But I think that zeroing in, and I wish Mr. Pollock were here because I have an enormous respect for him and I think that his intentions are very honorable, but zeroing in on the indigents and the small grants that we give to groups to make the City a better community, does not anywhere approach the complete waste, total waste, that we see in capital improvements on contracts that we exceed on the monies that are spent in overrides, on contracts we go out on where the estimated costs are $3 million and they go out at $4 million, on hiring consultants to tell us how to do roofs and sidewalks. We're talking about $5 million or $6 million. If we want to save money, that's the place to save the money. We need to think about the millions that have gone into the Zoo, the Aviary and the Conservatory, and three quarters of the people that use them are non-City residents. Do you want to save some money? Do you want to help City resident? Give the Zoo to the County. But certainly, let's not zero in on those least able to defend themselves, number one; and number two, I think that a community is measured by how it treats its senior citizens, its children and those that can't help themselves in time of need.

Again, I support Mr. Pollock on the fact that he is the Finance Chairman; he should at least see the documentation. He's perfectly within his legal rights and I think he's really in the hot seat if anything should be wrong. But I certainly think it is wrong to use this as an example of where we need to cut.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Woods, on Bill 601, I think it's extremely important to support this expenditure of $35,000 to Lutheran Service Society. Quite frankly, $35,000 will enable us to spend or receive hundreds of thousands of dollars in commodities such as cheese and butter that otherwise would be sitting in warehouses. This is an organization that has at least a decade long history, not only in the delivery and coordination of this particular service but countless other social service kinds of activities. They have a long standing track record in the community.

I wish that Mr. Pollock were here today because I wanted to address what I felt was very irresponsible comments in the newspaper regarding not only this agency but the process of financial overview which I think he's total misbased. Since January 4th I have not heard Mr. Pollock, as Finance Chairman, one time scrutinize or call into question an expenditure of the Administration, not one time. And rather than read off the litany of questions that I've raised from Gascard to out of town travel, I hope that Mr. Pollock, as we go towards the end of the year, will become much more focused in on what his responsibilities are as Finance Chairman and not to make ridiculous attacks on an important social service agency.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President, I think on last Wednesday you gave a very comprehensive report for the $35,000 in which the Lutheran Home had been passed up and they didn't get any funding. Certainly, we must deal with the people of our City who are out in the wilderness with no food, no shelter. And

I think this is a very Christian way and a very humane way to answer some of their cries. Certainly, $35,000 isn't much money but it will show our intent and very possibly there may be some organizations looking in and will supplement this money.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I also support Bill 601 and I just briefly want to say that one of the best programs ever initiated by the Federal Government is cheese and butter. It's really Washington entering the home and helping people that need help. For us not to allocate these dollars, we would be very foolish. We would not permit the cheese and butter to get out to the point of distribution. For that reason, we must move forward. If we didn't, we would be biting off our nose to spite our face. I firmly believe we should approve this allocation.

Michelle Madoff:

I realize I spoke on the subject one but I think I need to make a point again, with your indulgence. I don't think anybody here is going to vote against this bill; we all support it on a humanitarian basis. But I think Mr. Pollock has a point. I would like to see at some point in the near future how the $35,000 is going to be spent because if, for any reason, it's misspent, it's on the heads of this Council. And I make that in the form of a request. Mr. Perry, would you please obtain for me --

The Chair, Pro tem:

You don't have to do that; they're going to send it.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Perry, would you please obtain for me a breakdown of how the Lutheran Association plans to spend the $35,000? We should have had that before the vote. And in that respect, Mr. Pollock is 1000 percent correct.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I'd just like to say, I've been involved in this program since its conception; I believe in 1982 we started this. We built up a network of over 50 volunteers to go over on a Saturday, we're there at 7:00 in the morning and we do 27 neighborhoods. We do all of North Side, West End, Sheraden, Banksville, all the 20th Ward, 28th Ward, and all the seven wards in the North Side. We have 50 volunteers that help me; many of them firemen, one of them sitting here in the audience here today, my family, friends, many people that work here in Council, John Mascio, Pete Vaughn, Al D'Alessandro, Jerry Cavalovitch and many people that work for the Housing Authority. I'm grateful to them; they give up their time, they spend their own money, I spend my own money for gas in these vehicles, for lunches and different other items.

I'm disturbed with Mr. Pollock. I think he has his priorities out of order. Every time we make a distribution, it costs $20,000. That's four a year; so that's $80,000. And that's just for City residents. So, $35,000 isn't covering even two distributions. The rest of it they get from themselves, Lutheran Services donates it themselves out of their Christmas fund. The others come from the State and Federal Government.

The group that I work with alone, just that one group that do those 27 neighborhoods, we distributed 180,000 pounds of commodities in one day, in a matter of hours. That's just one-third of the City.

And now for the breakdown; $9,600 goes for transportation, that's leasing five vehicles, ten laborers and drivers. We don't use them in our neighborhoods because we do it ourselves but other neighborhoods don't have that. $2,000 goes to disbursements, that's people that pay out of their own pocket that Lutheran Services gives them back. $2,700 goes to the Administration, and that is within the guidelines of any non-profit organization, that's 28 percent of the money. And $2,300 goes to storage for the commodities and opening the place up on Saturday. The other 35 goes for telephone, travel, postage and printing, and you all know what it costs to get something printed in the newspapers. Every time that there's a site open they tell you what time it will be there, what day that that particular community is going to distribute the commodities.

So, I'm very proud to be involved in this. I know Mr. Wagner is involved in his neighborhood. Mr. Givens used to do it in his neighborhood and I do it in 27 neighborhoods. And I'm going to keep doing it as long as we get the commodities from the federal government. And $35,000 out of $80,000 to help the senior citizens who are truly needy in this City is a very small amount to pay. In fact, Ms. Madoff, I heard you time and time again say that some people in the City are eating dog food. Well, every time we make a distribution, that means somebody doesn't have to do that.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Woods, again, I think all of us support you and applaud you for what you've done. I don't think that you will disagree, though, that the figures you just gave us today should have been there before. In all fairness, isn't that so?

The Chair, Pro tem:

I disagree with the approach Mr. Pollock took.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm not talking about personalities; I'm talking about checks and balances.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Ferlo:

Just very briefly, I read an article in the paper this morning concerning the paramedics who, I believe in terms of advocacy, over the weekend to address the issue of increased overtime, something which is plaguing the people that currently are on the payroll, were wearing red ribbons as sort of an advocacy statement and a protest statement.

I hope that there's not a situation where these individuals are going to be reprimanded just because they sought to address and bring to the public and to the Administration's attention a concern that the have.

I just want to dovetail in that same discussion relative to overtime, it's certainly a problem that's plaguing the 911 dispatchers. Recently I think Council became aware that there is the investigation by the Pennsylvania Emergency Management Agency of the 911 system. I just want to state at this time that I hope that City Council, either as a body or through our Chairman of Public Safety, Mr. Wagner, will in some way be a part of this investigation. And if I could address Mr. Wagner, I was hoping that he might be willing or could possibly shed some light on this issue to Council, if he chooses to.

Mr. Wagner:

Members of Council, I have spoken with Director Cannon about the 911 situation. He has spoken with the people in Harrisburg they have told him that they will be in Pittsburgh some time within the next couple weeks. They have been instructed by the makers of that bill in Harrisburg to come in to Pittsburgh and take a look at 911 due to the problems that have existed in the past.

Director Cannon indicated that he would inform me of the date and time. As of this date, he has not been back in touch with me so I can assume that there has not yet been a scheduled date and place. When I find that out, I will let all of you know of it.

I am also interested in knowing what transpires at that meeting. I believe that some improvements have been made at 911, possibly not enough, but I think that any dialogue on the issue that is done in a very, very objective way can be healthy. I would hope, thought, that it's not in any way leaning towards political or subjective opinions and I would hope to keep it from ending up being a discussion of that type.

So, I will be monitoring it and I will keep you abreast of what happens.

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you.

Mr. DePasquale moved to excuse Mr. Pollock and Mrs. Masloff for absence from the meeting.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, April 4, 1988 and Monday, April 11, 1988.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Lyons

Proceedings of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh

VOL. CXXII Monday, May 16, 1988

No. 19

Municipal Record

ONE—HUNDRED TWENTY-FIFTH COUNCIL

BEN WOODS ..... President Pro-Tem
MICHAEL PERRY ..... City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON .. Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, May 16, 1988

PRESENT:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Michelle Madoff  |
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Pollock      |
| Mr. Ferlo      | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Lyons      | Mr. Woods        |
|                | (Pres't Pro tem) |

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Mr. Wagner:

I move to give the President Pro tem the full powers of the Presidency of Council.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Mr. President, it is my understanding that in the ruling by the Law Department that the President of Council is also the Mayor and vested in her is the ability to determine what committees should be designated and I don't think anything has changed until we have a vote on that. I will abide by the legal opinion which, I believe Mr. Pellegrini states in one paragraph that Mayor Masloff has abdicated and is using separation of powers, to let Council govern itself.

Now, I don't know whether that is legally correct or not legally correct. There may be someone who wishes to pursue it but I think that in order to pursue what Mr. Wagner has designated, I guess you're going to call for a vote.

I would like to point out that the rules of Council are very explicit; the law on the issue is very explicit. I don't believe that the President Pro tem has the power to make the different decisions, but, as I say, I will abide by them. And I'd like to keep in mind that as I came in today, on every station, on every news broadcast every ten minutes it said that Council is going to be disorderly, a circus and a zoo, and in honor of Dick's memory, I would like to ask all of us to conduct ourselves as ladies and gentlemen. Thank you.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, from April of 1977 until January of 1978 I served as President Pro tem. I was informed by the Law Department and my interpretation of the Home Rule Charter was that the President Pro tem had all the powers of the President of Council other than the official title. There was never an occasion where I made any changes so there was never any reason to question it or to fight it or whatever. But I did serve for those nine months and I was under the impression that I had all the powers of a President of Council.

Mr. Pollock:

Unless I'm mistaken, this Council as always abided by the legal opinion of our Solicitor. Our Solicitor has stated that the Council President remain Sophie Masloff with full powers to exercise the powers of the Council presidency; the only ones that she does not have are the ones that she relinquishes. I have not heard that she has relinquished the power; in fact, I don't know what specific power she has relinquished. So, until such time as she has stated what powers she has relinquished, this Council does not have the power or the authority or the legality to put power in any other individual other than the powers that she has advocated.

Accordingly, I think this motion is out of order, as out of order as if this Council made a motion to declare war on O'Hara Township. It would be just as illegal and as fallacious and ridiculous. It's a totally illegal motion. The opinion on the Solicitor has always bound this Council and, accordingly, I would say that this motion is totally out of order.

Mr. Ferlo:

I think it's very clear at 8:30 in the morning when Council President Sophie Masloff assumed the duties of the Office of Mayor, that with that she assumed certain duties and rights and responsibilities. No one would question that. Certainly it was totally necessary and appropriate in order for this City to carry on and conduct itself accordingly. I would suggest that certainly this City Council, as a separate branch of government, the legislative branch, needs to carry on and proceed forward with the work of the City. To do that, we need an elected leadership. Fortunately for our City, Mr. Pellegrini was not one of our founding fathers; otherwise, we probably would have a pretty chaotic interpretation of our Constitution and a clear delineation and separation of powers, because I believe in his opinion, he has suggested a clear un-American usurpation of powers. I think it's clear that Council is a separate and legislative branch. I think it's also clear under Section 308 of our Home Rule Charter which clearly prohibits a member of Council from holding a separate office.

With that in mind, I think it's important that we go forward and continue to carry on the activities of our Council and in order to do that, quite frankly, we have to have established leadership. Thank you.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, first of all, I'd like to dispute Mr. Ferlo's comments. In Section 306 of the Charter it says that the President of Council shall serve as Mayor. It doesn't say that the President of Council becomes Mayor or gives up any powers or responsibilities as the President of Council.

But, I would have a question I'd like to address to the Parliamentarian. That is, this motion seems to be a rule change. Wouldn't we have to go through the normal procedure of a rule change and have it in writing rather than just have something brought up in the form of a motion as it is right now?

The Chair:

The Parliamentarian can't rule on that; the City Solicitor is the only one that can rule on whether it is a rule change or isn't a rule change.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Woods and members of Council, again, I am the maker of the motion and I would like to briefly explain the motion. The motion was to give the President Pro tem the full powers of the Presidency of Council. The motion is quite similar in action to what our now Mayor, Sophie Masloff, is. She is not the Mayor; she is the acting Mayor with the full powers of the Mayor. I believe this legislative body has the responsibility to move forward with stability and direction and in order for it to do that, it must have direction, it must have someone who has the full powers of the Presidency of Council. I think the logical person for that is the President Pro tem who is Mr. Woods.

Mr. Pollock:

As I stated, it's an illegal motion and I won't be voting for it, but I've been informed by two of my colleagues that the only reason and the only way that they would vote for this motion would be if the President Pro tem assured them that he would make no changes in any Committee assignments. I would like the President Pro tem to address that issue since he has given his word to two other members of Council.

The Chair:

Please call the roll.

Mr. Coyne:

I would have to abstain on this vote; I feel it's an illegal vote.

Mr. Lyons:

I vote I with the understanding that there be no immediate change in Chairmanships.

Mr. Pollock:

I abstain because this is an illegal motion.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

(MICHELLE MADOFF VOTING NO)

(MR. COYNE AND MR. POLLOCK ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion passed finally.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, Point of Order. Now that you have all the powers and everything of President of Council, is it in order to vote for a President Pro tem?

The Chair:

I'll appoint someone. I'm still President Pro tem.

Mr. Coyne:

We don't get to vote on somebody?

The Chair:

No. I'll appoint someone when I'm not going to be here.

Mr. Coyne:

Is that in your powers?

The Chair:

Yes.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Coyne, Mr. DePasquale and Mr. Wagner present

No. 754 WHEREAS, May 21, 1988 marks the thirty-ninth Anniversary of Armed Forces Day, a day when Americans everywhere pay tribute to the men and women who comprise our nation's military forces; and

WHEREAS, whether on the battlefield or while keeping peace through vigilance and readiness, the members of the Armed Forces have displayed discipline, courage and commitment that has made this nation the leader of the free world; and

WHEREAS, members of the Armed Forces feel a special joy and pride in the important role they fulfill in preserving our American way of life and with their dedication and continued support of fellow Americans, we are confident that our children's grandchildren will be enjoying the same love of liberty and same strong drive to remain free.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of its citizens, proclaims the day of May 21, 1988 as ARMED FORCES DAY in the City of Pittsburgh as a tribute to the 39th Anniversary of Armed Forces Day.

Mr. DePasquale moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale:

I wonder if Colonel Robert T. Hordor from the Army would come up please; from the Marine Corps, Captain Murphy; from the Air Force, Lieutenant Colonel Roman N. Carter; Navy Commander Larry Donns; and from the Coast Guard, Quartermaster Chief Wilton T. Hart.

Before we hear from these gentlemen, I would like a few words from two co-Councilmen who sponsored this bill with me, former Marines like myself. I personally served in World War II; I guess that's the old war now. And my colleagues Coyne and Wagner were in the Vietnam era.

Mr. Coyne:

I would like to commend the men and women of the United States Armed Services for doing a fine job. Most of the time you don't notice them until it's a very difficult experience that the nation is going through and I'd just like to thank them for their service.

Mr. Wagner:

I also would like to thank all of you for being here today. It's important to note that the City of Pittsburgh and the whole region in Western Pennsylvania is one of the most productive regions in the country for people in the Armed Forces. For that reason, I think it's important that we all support this upcoming day. Thank you.

Colonel Horder:

On behalf of the Army soldiers and civilians in the Pittsburgh area, I accept the resolution with pleasure. It's just one of the neat things that makes Pittsburgh Number One.

Captain Murphy:

On behalf of Major Everhardt, the Commanding Officer of the Marines in the area, I'd like to thank our three former Marines who have gone on to continue their great service, and other members of Council here for taking the time to recognize us. Thank you.

Colonel Carter:

On behalf of the Air Force, I would also like to thank the great City of Pittsburgh for allowing me this opportunity to say thank you for all the support that you've given our great country. We're truly honored to serve you. Thank you.

Commander Donns:

On behalf of the Navy, I'd like to emphasize that the Western Pennsylvania area has been very supportive of the Navy in almost every issue, most recently in the namesake submarine, the U.S.S. Pennsylvania which was christened on the 23rd of April and joins other states having a namesake submarine as well.

The U.S.S. Pittsburgh is currently serving and is doing well as the namesake of the City whom all of you have supported enthusiastically in the past. Thank you.

Quartermaster Chief Hart:

On behalf of the Coast Guard, I'd like to thank you very much. It's an honor.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'd like Bob Braun to come up from PAJE, Pennsylvania Alliance for Jobs and Energy.

Mr. Ferlo presents

No. 755 WHEREAS, poverty and marginal employment are pervasive and energy costs remain a burden on low income households; and

WHEREAS, in 1986, Congress substantially reduced the funding for the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) from $2.1 billion to $1.8 billion; and

WHEREAS, last year, Congress again slashed LIHEAP funds another 16 percent to $1.5 billion, placing additional millions of Americans at risk to meet their basic needs for warm shelter; and

WHEREAS, the majority of oil overcharge funds used to offset LIHEAP funding cuts in the past have been expended and a reliance on such funds will create a considerable shortfall in the level of energy assistance funds available in the future; and

WHEREAS, the needs of the poor continue to increase at a time when the resources available to alleviate those desperate conditions are declining; and

WHEREAS, LIHEAP provides for the vital energy needs of low income families and senior citizens, and distributes that cost as a basic social responsibility of all Americans.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby urges the Congress to restore the annual funding for LIHEAP to the range of $2 billion to meet the long term energy needs of disadvantaged Americans. This level of funding is modest and fiscally responsible. Any less puts an excessive economic burden on those who can least afford it.

Mr. Ferlo moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo

At this time, I'd like to introduce Bob Braun who works for PAJE, Pennsylvania Alliance for Jobs and Energy. Bob is one of the people that works all day long with some other staff people on a daily basis assisting low-income and elderly other folks in the City who are in need of energy assistance. I'd like him to just speak a little bit about the current program and how important it is that this program be restored with funding.

Mr. Braun:

Thank you. Thanks for the opportunity to speak to Council on this important issue. PAJE has what is called the Utility Service Advocacy Project and since 1978 we have assisted and counseled over 10,000 individuals in the area who are having problems with the utilities. The situation is not getting any better; the rates are going up and funds, unfortunately, are being cut.

We take applications for the program at our office along with Dollar Energy Fund and in the last several years, we've seen the funding levels from the federal government be reduced from $2 billion to $1.8, this past heating season to $1.5 billion. This year the Administration in Washington is proposing a further cut to $1.2 billion. What this means for individuals is a reduction in the benefit level, the individual grant amount that a household is eligible for during a heating season. That's been severely cut back recently where, in a lot of cases, it's not paying for a month's heating bill or even half a month's heating bill. We're asking Congress to restore it to the $2 billion level.

Senators Heinz and Spector, Senator Spector is on the Senate Appropriations Committee which has a lot of influence and deals directly on the funding. We've met with him and the other Congresspeople from the Pennsylvania Delegation and they are very supportive and we just need to have them be out there and be very vocal on this issue. I think that this resolution and any other contacts or lobbying on the part of City representatives, representatives of City government, will go a long way to helping the people who really need this. Thanks.

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 756 WHEREAS, THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF MUSEUMS is an organization which has been working since 1906 to establish and promote standards of excellence for the museum profession; and

WHEREAS, THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF MUSEUMS holds annual meetings in different cities throughout the United States and this year's meeting will be held in Pittsburgh with 3,000 participants expected to be in attendance; and

WHEREAS, the theme of the 1988 program will be "Renaissance: Museums as Bridges to Community Renewal"; and

WHEREAS, this national conference provides the opportunity to show Pittsburgh's unique cultural and economic resources and to further enhance its role as a potential major tourist market; and

WHEREAS, the Conference will be from June 3 through June 7, 1988 at the Vista International Hotel, with most daytime sessions taking place at the David L. Lawrence Convention Center.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh thanks and commends THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF MUSEUMS for its time and dedication in helping Pittsburgh to explore new and innovative ways to enhance the historical value of its museums and the Council wishes the Association and the participants much success on the Conference; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh declares the week of June 3-7, 1988 as "MUSEUM WEEK IN PITTSBURGH".

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

Needless to say, it's very exciting that more than 3,000 people have elected to come to our City at the beginning of June and I hope they will avail themselves of our many fine restaurants and attractions.

With me is Dean Root who is the President of the Greater Pittsburgh Museum Council to receive the resolution and say a few words.

Mr. Root:

Thank you very much, Council. On behalf of the more than 30 institutions which are members of the Greater Pittsburgh Museum Council, I want to express our appreciation. This proclamation will help us to host these people from all over the country, not only from the major institutions such as the Smithsonian and the great museums of the East Coast, but also the smaller organizations, the grass roots institutions in every small community around the country which will be represented here.

We believe very strongly, of course, that museums are part of a cultural engine, if you will, that helps to drive our country and our cities. We're very active in community affairs in all levels, not only economically but equally as important, we feel, as we are repositories, education centers, places that help us to understand not only our past but where we are at present and where we're going in the future.

So, if we place any value, as I think all of us do, on who we are, why we are what we are as a city, why Pittsburgh can be the Number One place to live in this country, why our communities have had problems in the past and how we can solve them, then we have to believe that the museums are vital in that effort. You're helping us very much through this proclamation; we want to help you in your efforts as well. Thank you.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I'd like to ask the following people to please step forward for this resolution: Patrick McNamara, President of the F.O.P. Lodge No. 1; Dave McNutt, Chairman of the Memorial Week campaign for Police; John McMahon, Editor of the F.O.P. Police News; and Phyllis Carver who is head of the Ladies' Auxilliary of the F.O.P. Also, Helen Blakely please step forward.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 757 WHEREAS, recognition of the risks and sacrifices made by police officers' originated in 1962 at the prompting of President John F. Kennedy when Congress set aside a special day in memory of law enforcement officers killed or disabled in the line of duty; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of this observance is to call upon the citizens to pay tribute to the brave police officers who, through their fortitude, dedication, and courage, have given their lives for the preservation of the public's safety, inspiring all of us to pause and reflect upon the dignity and value of human life; and

WHEREAS, this legislative body fully realizes that police work is an extremely hazardous profession, and has become increasingly more dangerous in recent years; and

WHEREAS, since 1898, 52 Pittsburgh Police Officers were killed while safeguarding the lives and property of our citizens, while 152 law enforcement officers nationwide died in the line of duty in 1987.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby recognizes the week of May 15 through May 22, 1988 as POLICE MEMORIAL WEEK in the City of Pittsburgh in recognition of and tribute to the Pittsburgh Police Officers who have made the supreme sacrifice of their precious lives for the cause of justice.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Members of Council, ladies and gentlemen, I indicated the seriousness of the situation. In 1986, Council did a similar resolution and we stated the number of officers nationwide that died in the line of duty. It was 61 officers. You just heard the number of officers that died in the line of duty in 1987; it went from 61 to 152. Obviously, there's a great concern there. I personally thinks that it ties in with the narcotics problem nationwide. As, as Patrick McNamara will tell you, there was a memorial celebration of which he and several others were in Washington yesterday, a national memorial celebration. We are having ours this coming Sunday at the Immaculate Conception Church in Bloomfield. It will begin with a parade at the Bloomfield Moose and proceed to the church where Bishop Wuerl, I understand, will be present. I'm sure Pat can tell us a lot more; I'd like to introduce the President of the F.O.P., Mr. Patrick McNamara.

Mr. McNamara:

Mr. President, Pro tem, Councilman Wagner and fellow Councilpersons, yesterday I attended the ceremony in Washington, D.C., and words cannot describe what I've seen of the survivors of those police officers that were killed through 1987. There was a special seminar, a three-day seminar; ten of our police officers went up along with the Ladies' Auxilliary to participate in that ceremony.

When you heard the number 152, it's very shaking for 1987. But I took time out to look at the figures so far for 1988. We have 19 police officers killed in the line of duty across the United States so far this year and seven of those deaths involve drug-related incidents. It's leading the group. Of the 19 police officers killed in 1988 so far, 15 were firearms, three were rifles, and one was an officer run down with a motor vehicle. The position of a law enforcement officer here today is to be very serious out there; they have attacks upon them across the United States. Here in our City, our last death was in 1983, a narcotics officer, Norman Stewart.

This Sunday we'll be honoring our Police Officers in Allegheny County. We have 52 Pittsburgh Police Officers and 12 Allegheny County Officers from the Allegheny County Police, the Sherriff's, and the various Police offices surrounding this area which we will be honoring by a parade in Bloomfield starting at 9:30. We'll march to the Immaculate Conception Church and we will have survivors of those police officers there and then there's a breakfast following. It's a ceremony that words cannot describe when you see the relatives and the survivors and the little children that we witnessed in Washington, D.C.

I'd like to present to you now Dave McNutt, the Chairman of the Memorial Week that we're having here in Pittsburgh. Following him will be Helen Blakely, the President of our Ladies' Auxilliary who also was in Washington, D.C. observing this event and participating in it.

Mr. McNutt:

Councilman Woods, Jack Wagner, Councilmen and Councilwoman, it's an honor to be here. As it has been said in the past, 152 officers died last year; that's about every 57 hours one officer's life has been taken. Many times it has been said, "Well, they get paid to do it; it's their job." I don't think it's anybody's job to be killed. I think it's time that we start looking at the death of a police officer as more than just a job. It's something that is very serious; a person's life has been taken, a family suffers. It still bothers me, yesterday, when I saw a woman walking down there carrying a baby with two children by her side. Her husband's life has been taken. Yes, our life is on the line, but when it's on the line and the ultimate is when death occurs, it affects all of us. Very few of us are out there and we are trying to protect life, limb and property. It is time that we take a very serious look at what is happening to our fellow police officers.

May 22nd at 9:30, we're going to line up to march to Immaculate Conception. Bishop Wuerl will greet us at the door with a solemn Mass. After Mass will be a breakfast with guest speakers. It's a very moving ceremony. I even hate to think of it but next year I could be one of the people that they're honoring and I have to look at it honestly in saying that my life is there and I hate to think what my wife and my family is going to go through. I thank you very much.

Ms. Blakely:

I'm President of the Ladies' Auxilliary and I'd like to introduce Phyllis Carver. She was State President. My conductress, Mary Cahill and our head trustee, Mary Anne Burns.

This was my first trip up to Washington and it almost left me in tears because I am married to a policeman. I have children; I have grandchildren. What I saw up there really frightened me. It was not only one woman with a small child and several children tugging at her; it was many young women. Maybe the older women can pick up the pieces; I'm frightened for the young women because it is getting worse and worse. When you see 55 survivors just for 1987, it's frightening.

I ask you for more support. I thank you for all the support you have given us. Thank you.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 758 WHEREAS, May 8-14, 1988 has been designated as "JUST SAY NO" week by President Reagan and Mrs. Nancy Reagan; and

WHEREAS, the Parade will begin at the Civic Arena, travel down Fifth Avenue, and will finish at the vicinity of the Pittsburgh Children's Festival.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Pollock presented

Bill No. 749

Report of the Committee on Finance for May 4, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 616

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of Carnegie Institute in the amount of $2,663.04 covering the final payment for the Renovations to the Founders Room and Continuing Education Office; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 631

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of A & H Equipment Company to cover the cost of materials for manufacturing and installing neighborhood street signs."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

On Bill No. 631 concerning the expenditure of a little over $7,000 for installation of neighborhood street signs, I'm voting for this. This is an expenditure that we've already incurred but I want to remind Council that this Wednesday there will be debate and dialogue on the expenditure of over $1.5 million for the City street sign program. Thank you.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I'd like my comments brought forward on that same bill, Bill No. 631, for the record.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

---

Mr. Wagner:

Discussion. On Bill No. 631, this bill does tie in with the other bills I think indirectly and that's the reason why I thought we'd discuss all of them together.

Question about Bill No. 631. How do we determine that this company got the initial work on the signs?

Dir. Gaetano:

This all deals with the legislation that you yourself introduced last year pertaining to signs. You introduced legislation that all signs in the City of Pittsburgh have to be eliminated. The type of materials that we were testing and the size of the signs we did not have. A&H is the distributor for 3M Company in this particular area or state. The illuminating and the engineering grade signs, they're the ones that had it; we did not have it. It wasn't that we couldn't make them or do them. We can make any sign that there is over there right now. The fact of the matter is now we have all the equipment and we have purchased different types of engineering grade and high-intensity type grade to do these signs ourselves. So we are only trying to follow the piece of legislation that you introduced to see the intensity, the size of the sign, the reflectivity of the sign and to keep exactly in order for what you want.

Mr. Wagner:

Director, there are two separate issues here. My resolution back a year ago pertained to signs in general. What we are doing here with Bill No. 631 is paying a particular company for a test or some examples of model signs.

Dir. Gaetano:

Correct.

Mr. Wagner:

Why was this company chosen over other companies?

---

Dir. Gaetano:

I have to go back and see how the contract was put out. They were the distributor that had high intensity. There's only one company basically that has high intensity.

Mr. Wagner:

When did they become a distributor for 3M Company?

Dir. Gaetano:

Two years ago.

Mr. Wagner:

Because they are the only company that distributes for 3M Company, does that mean they will probably be the successful company to get the award?

Dir. Gaetano:

No. Let me clarify the new contract very, very shortly. Since Councilman Ferlo doesn't have the proposals, I'd be happy to get him one.

The actual new contract that is going out Jack is going to be bid three different ways. It's going to be bid on both high intensity and engineering and grade materials. In the three ways that it will be bid, it will be bid where the company actually will make the sign, furnish the material and put it up. It will also be bid where they just make a sign and give it to me and put it up. It will also be bid that they will actually furnish only me material that I can put the signs up.

(AT THIS POINT I WAS TEMPORARILY RELIEVED BY HELEN L. KRIEBEL)

MARY ANNE HRUSKA
STENOTYPE REPORTER 1

---

Mr. Gaetano:

We have actually started in the City of Pittsburgh with my own people in putting the new street signs up in areas where they are stolen or taken down already. But, see, there are three different ways they have to bid this new contract. As Councilman Ferlo said, it will be much easier, once you get the proposal, to understand it a lot more.

Mr. Wagner:

But why have we chosen this company over other companies?

Mr. Gaetano:

Strictly because they had the high intensity; that is the only reason.

Mr. Wagner:

If they are the only company that has the high intensity, will they get the award on the larger contract?

Mr. Gaetano:

That all depends on 3M Company, see, who their sub will be. 3M Company actually provides the materials. They can go to Joe Doe Company and give them the distributorship. I don't know the tie or the cause or contract that 3M has with its suppliers. I can't say that A & H will have the contract at all, that is up to 3M.

Mr. Wagner:

Director, the point I want to make, and I guess it is simple, is I don't want to see any company have an edge over other companies on bidding on these signs. If you could sit here and tell me, because they are the test market, they will not be involved in the bidding later, I would feel very comfortable.

Mr. Gaetano:

I can't say that.

Mr. Wagner:

Let me continue. I don't want to see a company have an edge over other companies because they have already manufactured some of these signs and they know what their cost is; therefore, their bidding on the contract can be much -- they can sharpen their pencils much more on bidding on the contract than anyone else that would entertain bidding on it. Just let me continue.

I don't think we should be giving any company an edge on over a million dollar contract as we have here with this company, and that is my point. And I don't know, you are going to come back to this Council at a later time probably -- well, you won't, because you have that bill coming up for the larger contract which you are going to go out to bid on. And I would prefer not to see any company involved initially. I mean, this goes on. These companies know what they are doing, and they want an inside track. What we have done is given this company an inside track, and I don't think that is in the best interest of the City.

Mr. Gaetano:

I don't think we have given them an inside track, Jack. We had to go to a company that had the particular material to put it up to see what type of things we need. There are many, many companies capable.

The largest part of this contract, Jack, is not basically the material, it is actually the installation, putting it up and making the brackets. So there is no inside track. As to the brackets and things like that, we did that, they just supplied the material through 3M. The basic brackets and everything, we worked with them and we put them up and did that ourselves. We actually did most of installation all ourself. So there was no inside track for anything.

These contractors and the companies that bid on this particular contract are going to have to sharpen their pencil. The way I put it out, there are three or four different methods of them supplying it. Where A & H doesn't make the materials, 3M may want to come in or another company, Monsanto or whoever it is, and just bid the whole thing by themselves and say, "A & H, you are not part of the contract any more," or, "I can get somebody to install it much cheaper than you." That is something they deal with among themselves.

Mr. Wagner:

How much is the total contract?

Mr. Gaetano:

You have it on the next two portions of the legislation there. That is only $7,000.00.

---

Mr. Wagner:

Are you willing to exclude this company from the bidding process?

Mr. Gaetano:

I am not allowed to exclude any company from the bidding process.

Mr. Wagner:

I, in the future, do not want to see companies having an edge over other companies on major million dollar contracts. And I think by doing this initially we have done that, and that is what concerns me about this piece of legislation. It is a small amount, we are talking about $7,100.00, but this company is now involved, is in on the front end and knows their cost, and that is not fair to all the companies out there that may become involved in this bidding process. That is the only point I want to make.

Bill No. 750

Report of the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development for May 4, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 586

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution Repealing Resolution No. 185, effective March 30, 1988, entitled, 'Nominating the South Side Pittsburgh Works, LTV Steel Corp., to be a Historic site under Section 513 of Chapter 1007 of the Pittsburgh Code.'"

—(SPONSORED BY MR. FERLO)

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'd like to discuss Bill No. 586 on the legislation that I submitted to rescind or take back the historical designation. I'd like to just briefly summarize my position once again.

I think the basic and most important priority for development on that site of land in the South Side should be the efforts of the Steel Valley Authority to re-open the electric arc furnace. As well, the construction and building of a continuous caster on part of the 104 acres of land. I think that's clearly no small task and I don't believe it's a task that the Steel Valley Authority should shoulder by themselves. I think it's something that needs full public sector support and cooperation.

I believe strongly that the historical designation is counterproductive and in fact detracts from this primary objective. Council and the Administration, I believe, should be focusing our attention and the attention of both state and federal as well as private investment to the efforts of the Steel Valley Authority.

Having toured the facilities in question, the ones proposed for demolition, I see no such historical significance of the remains that once produced steel at the South Side Works. What I do see is prime commercial property begging for development proposals.

I believe that the main issue in this debate should be the need to get the City Administration, the Urban Redevelopment Authority, and City Planning to both creatively and affirmatively seek out economic development proposals that should have two main objectives; one, the development project which will produce the largest number of decent paying jobs to City residents; and secondly, which development project will produce the largest contribution of tax dollars to the School Board and to our City.

All of the likely development projects to take place on what probably is the most valuable land, valuable acreage in our City at this time, each one of those development projects will come with a price tag to the public. I believe that the Administration, the Urban Redevelopment Authority, the public, the South Side community groups, and others throughout the City should all be a part of the public debate on the cost versus the benefit for whatever development project should be supported.

I would hope that the Planning Commission and the Urban Redevelopment Authority, City Council together with the Mayor's Office, would all support the need for a public hearing or hearings on what the nature and what extent economic development should take place on this property. Again, I would refer to it as both lucrative and valuable riverfront property.

I would call today on our new Mayor, Mayor Masloff, and the Urban Redevelopment Authority Board to initiate a process whereby private investors can begin to offer proposals for development on this acreage of land. I would also call on the Mayor and the URA to report back to City Council regarding the status of the Steel Valley Authority's efforts and to indicate to this legislative body how we may help hasten the start up of the electric arc furnace and the employee owned operation that is hoped for in the South Side. Thank you very much.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President, I'd like to offer a motion that Buildings 2, 3, 4 and 5 would be excused from being razed by LTV, while they'll have the right to raze all the other buildings giving the Commission 90 days for further study.

The Chair:

Mr. Lyons, I hate to do this but I have to rule your motion out of order; It's not in writing. You can come back next Monday with legislation, if you wish.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President, that being the case, I then ask the City Clerk to prepare the letter that Buildings 2, 3, 4 and 5 will be allowed to stand for an addition 90 days while LTV can eviscerate all the other buildings, notwithstanding the electric arc furnaces.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to recommit the bill.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

The Chair:

There is a motion and a second to recommit the bill. Is there any discussion on the recommitment?

Mr. Pollock:

There has been a petition for a public hearing scheduled; there have been numerous letters sent to Council from individuals who want to have a say in this debate. I think that if Council really wants to have input from the community and the neighborhood, it should hold up on this vote until such time as a public hearing has been scheduled and held.

Mr. Ferla:

Point of Procedure. I believe there's already a motion on the floor to accept the bill.

The Chair:

The motion to recommit is in order.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, I'd like to point out to my fellow Councilmembers that I agree with Mr. Lyons, with his trying to find a middle ground in this position. I would like to remind everyone that with the good intentions here, there's a good possibility that Buildings 2, 3, 4 and 5 will not be standing next week. If we would wait a week, then at least we could draw up this and that's why I would ask for this to be held because if we rescind this today, there's nothing to prevent LTV to go in tomorrow and start ripping down those buildings.

The Chair:

No, they have to wait. The bill doesn't become law for ten days.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President, if I'm right, this bill, if it's passed today in its present form, it would not become effective until after Wednesday of next week. Am I right?

The Chair:

Right. Ten days.

Mr. Lyons:

Then that gives me room for the amendment on Monday.

The Chair:

Right.

Mr. DePasquale:

I don't want to dispute with my colleague, Mr. Pollock, but our duty as Councilmen is to pass legislation and also to pass referendum. If we are to go to a public hearing every time we have a tough decision to make, then we may as well resign here. We have one duty and that is to carry out the business of the City of Pittsburgh and we're to make the decision, the nine people here, or the eight people now, and not to go to the public and have a referendum or have a public hearing every time a difficult situation arises.

In regards to recommitment, I have to be opposed to it on the grounds that I voted for the historical designation and I must add, and I apologize for it, I voted in the blind. As I passed those buildings, to me it looks like an empty warehouse and there are buildings standing up. I never realized the conditions those buildings were in and I think some of the people who are asking us to not rescind it, I think they should go over there and see for themselves and see how bad a condition, how bad a shape those buildings are in. They're a danger and they're dilapidated and there's no reason whatsoever to designate them historical and allow them to remain up.

The Chair:

Roll call vote on the recommitment.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Coyne                      Mr. Pollock
Michelle Madoff

AYES 3                      NOES 5

VOTING NO:

Mr. DePasquale              Mr. Wagner
Mr. Ferlo                      Mr. Woods
Mr. Lyons                      (Pres't Pro tem)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

Mr. Coyne:

Discussion on the bill. Mr. President, I would like to thank Mr. Ferlo and Mr. DePasquale for becoming instant historians in their judgment of the validity of that plant being an historical site.

I would also like to remind my colleagues that we are here to make important decisions but we are to use instruments that are available to us if we are to make well-informed decisions. I don't think that any knowledgeable decision can be made without all studies being completed. The history people wanted an additional 90 days; I don't think that's being very unreasonable.

Also, I'd like to remind Council that the Steel Valley Authority and the Tri-State Conference On Steel still are not aware of how much property they need to operate those plants. There's nothing to prevent LTV from going in, demolishing the site, then selling it off parcel by parcel which we could, in effect, bring up the idea that I still maintain, that LTV does not want an operating steel plant there to be a competitor with their Cleveland facility.

I would urge my colleagues not to rescind this, since we couldn't reach a compromise, and to let the History and Landmarks people do their study, let the Steel Valley Authority and the Tri-State Conference On Steel decide on how much property they actually need for the development of an operating furnace in that area, and then make our decision in the 90 days hence when we have more facts in front of us. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think at this time I would like to read into the Record my feelings that are summarized in an editorial that appeared in the Press or the Post Gazette, I'm not too sure, in the media, and I think it really tells the whole story.

"City Council was wise to take the stitch in time that saves nine by nominating the LTV Corporation South Side Works for historic designation. It will delay any demolition of the mill for up to a year to give the City's Historic Review Commission a chance to consider the matter.

The major reason for the action lies in the possibility that it could become either a major or satellite site for the Pittsburgh History Center that is being discussed by several groups including the Historical Society of Western Pennsylvania and the Pittsburgh History and Landmark Foundation with the possibility that steel firms on the brink of razing some of the buildings quick pre-emptive action was necessary.

LTV will still have a chance to make its case in hearings before the Historic Review Commission and were to be determined that all or part of the South Side Works is not useful for historic preservation, the designation could be lifted to allow the corporation to take whatever action it wishes for the property, including the demolition of it.

Council action also is a recognition of the potential tourism value of such historic industrial sites."

May I digress a moment to point out that we received a brochure that talks about the Sloss Furnace, a national historic landmark in Birmingham, Alabama. I questioned the Historic Committee at the time as to the condition of the property and whether it was any different than the skeletal remains of J & L at this point, and indeed it was not. In essence, it's really a reconstruction on-site where it belongs, where the history of our community has sprung from.

"Council's action also is a recognition of the potential tourism value of such historic industrial sites. An article in the business pages of yesterday's New York Times about Great Britain's heritage industry illustrates the potential here. Even though Britain is rich in historic palaces and stately homes, cities and even corporations are discovering the value of turning old mills, coal mines, and even iron bridges into tourist dollars. Industrial museums have become increasingly popular, the Times relates.

In the Wagon Heritage Center and the Iron Bridge George Museum, people dress up in garb, cast iron, make candles, and generally act like they're Victorian ancestors.

The dark mills of the industrial revolution sanctified by the passing of time have become museums and industrial archeology as a fast expanding academic field.

Just as in Pittsburgh, there are those in Britain who worry that glorification of an idealized past is a threat to the present. The Times says that some also worry that some exhibitions are a Disneyland presentation of Britain's past.

One of these, a newly created 10th Century Viking village in New York already is attracting 900,000 visitors a year. Others object that too many of the jobs that the tourism creates are low-paid, unskilled and seasonal. Still, the country's 1,750 museums, half of them created since 1971, are considered vital additions to what is Britain's fastest growing major industry and the second largest earner of foreign currency after North Sea Oil.

The Times says that tourism is a $24 billion a year business in Britain, employ 1.4 million people, and creating 45,000 new jobs a year. Estimates are the take will reach $40 billion annually in the 1990's.

In a Pittsburgh region that has been at the forefront of global industrial progress since the early 1800's, we have almost too many possibilities and major problems in figuring what to do. Clearly, not all the industrial heritage sites in the Pittsburgh region can or should be saved. But until there's a sorting out, destruction should be delayed, a reason solidly to commend Council's latest action."

I had made some comments earlier and they can be carried forward, but basically, to reiterate, the electric arc furnaces will not be in dangers. They have been waived. The water facility that would feed and provide the water sourced for the electric arc is exempt from demolition in any event. The cleaning up of hazardous materials is exempt under federal law, and they can proceed immediately. They are exempt; we cannot stop them from going ahead.

All we're asking, we've been debating this and arguing, and originally we voted to give them, I believe we rescinded and we said they would know within five months. I think almost two months are gone. We're only talking about three, three and a half months. And all we're talking about is not allowing LTV to go in now when the price of scrap is very, very high and the bulldozers are standing by to go in and level the property. We're asking to allow three more months, probably three and a half months at the outset, to have our public hearing, have all segments of the public who have diverse opinions. The preponderance of opinions seems to be, let's wait and see when the national historic association says there is great potential for business in the community. In a community that has gone from 700,000 people to 350,000 people, how dare we, how can we even consider not letting those affected on the South Side, citizens who wish to have a tourism area, where we are not being obstructionists to the immediate needs of LTV. I think that we have a responsibility to allow the historic designation to stand and all those agencies, both local, state and national, to give us an opportunity of their educated wisdom and come back and tell us, within a reasonable time frame, what we can do to turn this bad economically depressed area into something that might produce some dollars and some jobs for our people. It is not going to impact on what other facilities, industrial parks, and reinstating the electric arc mill, which, incidentally, we're talking about a $400 million investment and will be very hard to come by and at this moment is not competitive with foreign trade when we have Brazil sending in ingots that are not cost effective because of the price of scrap.

We don't know the whole story. Let us not vote in a vacuum. Let us hold a public hearing. Let's hear from all sides. Let's be reasonable. And let's not push just because we have a position which may or may not be wrong and will hurt the entire community. I urge my colleagues to reconsider and leave well enough alone, allow a three month period to go by and to reconsider. We can always rescind the designation. We don't have to do it this moment.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I am voting to rescind the original bill and I want to state my reasons why.

Actually, this issue has been in front of Council for eight weeks. The original bill was introduced on March 21, 1988 by Mr. Pollock. Rule 8 was suspended on the bill when four members of Council wanted to hold the bill for one week for some dialogue. We could not at that time find five votes to do that.

Since that time, Councilman Ferlo has introduced his bill to rescind, and we have had several meetings here in Council, and we had one extensive tour of the plant or at least the buildings suggested to be demolished. In that tour, I think this Council found out quite a bit and, in essence, what we found out was that the land is prime land and is much more valuable than the buildings on the land.

Then Councilmember Sophie Masloff asked that question at the table, "Isn't it really the land that is so valuable?" and I don't think there's any member of this Council that could disagree that that is prime developmental land.

This Council also wants to see the Steel Valley Authority and the electric arc furnaces move forward, if that is possible, for those electric arc furnaces to be put back in operation in the future. And we have shown that in the past with our votes here on this Council funding the Steel Valley Authority.

We have talked also about historical value and something to draw people into the City, tourists and conventioners. This City, I think, has a lot to offer along those lines right now and is proposing several things. Obviously, we have Station Square which is probably the best drawing card in the City of Pittsburgh for people that come in to the City. It does have some historical value itself.

We do have other things that are proposed as tourist attractions such as the Buhl Science Center on the North Shore, the Riverside Festival Market adjacent to the Convention Center, the Carnegie, the Zoo, and many other things; we could go on and on.

I would like to see us think about a development opportunity on the portion of the site that is not needed by the Steel Valley Authority. I'd like the City Clerk to pass out a letter to all members of Council that I am sending out, and I am copying Mayor Masloff, Mr. Lurcott and Mr. Donahoe. I'd like to read the letter; it's a very brief letter.

"President and Members of Council:

In the event the historical designation of the LTV site on the South Side is rescinded today, I would strongly recommend that the City of Pittsburgh move forward with residential development on the site.

The area along the riverfront adjacent to the South Side Riverfront Park, and it's immediately adjacent to that park, represents a tremendous opportunity for condominium development. A developer could take advantage of the riverfront and build boat docks along with condominiums. In doing so, we could create an amenity not yet available along the 35 miles of riverfront property. I have always said if you provide a boat dock rather than a parking spot, people will move back to the City of Pittsburgh by the thousands. In doing so, we would reverse our declining population and our tax base.

I would strongly recommend we find developers that are interested in this type of new project that would enhance the South Side in the City of Pittsburgh."

I firmly believe that this is what this City needs to do to turn itself around. We need to develop our riverfronts and we need to do it by attracting people back into the City and giving them an opportunity that they cannot find anywhere else. This is a great place for condominium development to attract people back into Pittsburgh and to give them boat docks along the riverfront where they can live 365 days a year. They wouldn't need to find a second home up along Conneaut Lake or wherever; they could live along our riverfronts. I think a portion of this parcel is a prime opportunity for that and I would like to see the City move forward as rapidly as possible to do that.

The Chair:

Call the roll.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President, I still have the right next week to present my bill on Monday for the 90 days, correct?

The Chair:

Yes.

Mr. Pollock:

I'm going to abstain on this bill and I'll explain my abstention.

Much has been said about this J & L site and the proposed historic designation, but I want to consolidate my position and explain why I can't vote for it.

To begin with, it is mind boggling that this Council, especially certain purported, populist and democratic members would vote on an issue as significant as this without input from the public and the neighborhood. It is plain that those Councilmembers who want the public to speak only want the public to speak when it will say what they want it to say. It is unfathomable to me that this Council would not permit the community to speak on the subject. It is unprecedented in my tenure on Council.

Let me make it very clear from the outset that I hope and pray that the Steel Valley Authority will be able to restart the electric furnace and to again operate a steel mill in the Steel City. But this operation would be very site-specific and would not utilize a very large portion of the entire J & L site. A functional electric furnace would have no negative effect on, and indeed, would have a complimentary relationship with a steel heritage site.

Let me also be very explicit that I am not taking the position that the structures on this site can definitely be preserved. I also toured the site and saw the buildings. There are some facts I learned as a result of this tour: one, the site is very large and very old; two, I am not the least bit qualified to state whether or not the structures can be saved; three, the structural engineer and architect who also toured the site both said that there was a very real possibility that the buildings could be renovated and preserved. They said they could form a more certain opinion if they would have more time to view the property.

People don't travel to other cities to buy chocolate chip cookies and leaf jewelry. There has to be an attraction to which an exciting shopping area and hotels and restaurants can be complimentary.

But let's look at whether or not this site is actually historic. Is there really historic value to the structures? Let's look at what the National Parks Service of the U.S. Department of the Interior said. In its letter to the Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation of April 20, 1988, the U.S. Department of Interior National Parks Service said, "An examination of the Historic American Engineering Record collection for those structures relating to the Bessemer steel-making process revealed that the Bessemer Building at the J & L plant is indeed a rare survivor. In fact, the Historic American Engineering Record considers this structure and the adjacent open-hearth building, the railroad viaduct and the hot metal bridge to be nationally significant resources. Accordingly, the Historic American Engineering Record carried out a large format photographic project of these J & L structures..."

"The J & L Bessemer Building is an historically important resource as it stands as a reminder of steel-making technology at a time when the nation's Bessemer operations have fully matured. At this date, the Historic American Engineering Record is aware of only one other major Bessemer building, an 1870's masonry structure built by the former Pennsylvania Steel Company in Steelton, Pennsylvania. The J & L Bessemer Building is clearly one of the few remaining in the United States and stands as a very significant reminder of the nation's industrial heritage."

Let me state one certainty. There is going to be a steel heritage museum and it will receive millions of federal dollars in grants. It will generate millions of tourist dollars and it will provide enormous benefits for the hotels, restaurants and shopping areas and municipalities near it. The question is, if this museum is all the way down river in the Mon Valley, what benefit will the Pittsburgh businesses and hotels receive?

Let's take a look at the potential. The City of Lowell, Massachusetts was hard hit by the closing of its textile mills. The economic condition of the area was one of near hopelessness. The Massachusetts Historical Society preserved and re-used a number of abandoned textile mill buildings and now more than 800,000 people a year visit the site as tourists. In addition, it has promoted economic development through the preservation of structures that were derelict, that were seen as eyesores, that were going to be bulldozed. They went through the same procedures that we are going through here today.

Wang Industries, one of the largest high-tech companies in the nation, purchased one of the abandoned textile mill buildings for their national headquarters. Corporate America is moving into the historic site on a large scale.

Michelle spoke about the Birmingham Sloss Furnace. I must remind everybody that Birmingham, Alabama is certainly no tourist mecca, and yet it has a model exactly like what we're talking about today where tens of thousands of individuals go every year. Need I remind everybody that Birmingham is called "the Pittsburgh of the South". It would be ironic if "the Pittsburgh of the South" had a steel heritage museum and the real Pittsburgh did not.

If these buildings can't be saved, then so be it. Let them be torn down. But historic sites are like endangered species; once they are gone, there is no bringing them back. They are gone forever.

Permit me to address another aspect of this issue. Pittsburgh is in the process of successfully making a transition from an economy based on manufacturing and heavy industry to one that is based on service, high-tech information, providing tourism, biomedical technology and related fields. We should be extremely proud at how well we are making this transition.

A steel heritage museum is part of this new economy. Clearly, it is part of the providing of information and the improving of the City as a tourist attraction.

I've traveled to other cities. People talk about the great successes of Harbor Place in Baltimore and Faneuil Hall in Boston. But don't think for one minute that Harbor Place in Baltimore would be prosperous if it didn't have the world-class aquarium as part of its site or that Faneuil Hall would be so successful if it weren't located in the center of historic Boston with Paul Revere's house and the Old North Church and other sites located nearby.

I've been asked by many individuals why certain members of Council are now changing their vote. After all, the original nomination vote passed 8-1. I certainly can't believe that any member of Council would vote on something that he or she didn't know what he or she was voting about. Nor could any member be forced into voting one way, especially when some members of Council avail themselves of the privilege to abstain as frequently as they do.

I really don't know why some are changing their vote. I'm certain there are some personality politics involved. I'm certain there are external forces at play here. And there were indications of this in the discussions with the representatives of the Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation. They were asked if they were going to be putting an expansion on Station Square in the site. It was alleged that Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation was acting in bad faith, that it had an ulterior motive other than the preservation of the structures for a museum. Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation was accused, in Bolshevik style, of conniving a "land grab" of some type. When has Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation said it wants the land? When has it said that it wants to control the site?

But while we're on the subject of Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation, I would suggest that when Pittsburgh History and Landmarks speaks, this Council should listen. People said an abandoned railroad freight house could not be converted into a shopping area, but Station Square is one of the most successful business areas in the entire region. The only hotel making money in the City of Pittsburgh is the Sheraton at Station Square. The Grand Concourse Restaurant does one of the highest volumes of business in the nation and the largest volume of business between New York and Chicago.

These are all spinoffs to Pittsburgh History and Landmarks conversion of an abandoned railroad freight house which no one said it could do. And the beneficiaries of this success are the City and the people of Pittsburgh. The jobs, the tax revenue, the room nights, all the benefits would not be realized if not for the vision of Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation. So, I for one, listen when Pittsburgh History and Landmarks speaks.

The creation of a steel heritage museum would be an economic development boon to the City. We have to be certain that this prospect is fully examined, and this will take several months. Those that say the museum could be anywhere in the City are as ludicrous as those that say that it would be a benefit to the City if it were down in the Mon Valley. To have a steel mill model or a steel mill museum in a contrived setting is as much a hoax as the claim that certain Members of this Council care what the public really wants.

Now, what about the delay of several months? What will the ramifications of that be? Representatives of LTV say that safety concerns mandate that the buildings be razed. They cite asbestos and other hazardous material which must be removed. They also state that the buildings are dangerous. These claims are quite intriguing.

First, for nearly one month after the nomination was in place, LTV never contacted this Council, the Planning Department, or the Historical Review Commission to determine if it could remove the asbestos or hazardous material or if it could secure the buildings. It cared so much about safety that it never even picked up a phone for almost a month to inquire if it could remove any hazardous material from the site. It merely attempted to have the designation removed.

What I am asking for is Council to delay its final decision on this nomination for six months so that all the options, can be examined. It must be pointed out that last week the South Side Planning Forum met to discuss the issue. The members of this group are the South Side Local Development Corporation, Main Street on East Carson, the South Side Chamber of Commerce, the South Side Arts, Antiques and Crafts Association, South Side Community Council, the South Side Library Advisory Committee, the Brashear Association, and representatives of the South Side schools, churches and health care institutions. These groups voted unanimously to support a six month delay in the rescission and a study of a site as a potential steel heritage museum. In addition, the Tri State Conference on Steel also requested that this matter be delayed until such time as a public hearing could be held and it can present its views to Council. Even the Pittsburgh Press, which originally opposed the nomination, now says that there is a need to study the matter further and urges Council not to rescind.

Curiously, LTV raised concerns about buildings that have been sitting idle for nearly three decades with no problems at all. Why all of a sudden is there an emergency? It is clear that LTV has been disingenuous with this Council from the start. It is also clear that its purported claims of exigency are fallacious. There is no reason whatsoever why this matter cannot be studied for several months.

Two other points. One, there has been talk about the site being used for housing. If anyone thinks for one minute that any developer could, or would, construct residential units on a site where there has been asbestos, PCB and other hazardous material, then he or she probably believes in the tooth fairy. I have been informed by the State Advisory Committee on Hazardous Waste that there are numerous other hazardous materials on this site that will only be discovered as this site is further examined. There is no way that any developer would attempt to develop this site for residential use.

In addition, if the site is so marketable for industrial or other type of use, why hasn't LTV been able to sell it for all the time it has been trying to do so? If it is such a valuable piece of property, why aren't people beating down the doors of LTV to purchase it?

Last week at a public meeting held on the South Side Reverend William Greiser made a passionate plea to preserve the site. Reverend Greiser is a fourth generation J & L employee. He was the fourth generation in his family to work at that site. And I apologize to him for attempting to relate his plea because I know I will not do it justice.

What he said was that the J & L site was like an old workhorse that had served its master for many, many years, and then it was forced to be sold into some other person's hands. And that other person beat the heck out of that horse, worked it to death, didn't care for it, didn't feed it, didn't rest it, and then finally the horse had to be put to sleep. And then when the people that had owned that workhorse for so many years, and had cared for it, wanted the horse back to at least give it a proper memorial and to dispose of it in a proper manner, the new owner sold it to the glue factory. That is exactly how he views the J & L site and I can only concur with him.

Thank you.

Mr. President, I've been advised by Council's budget staff that there is insufficient funds in Code Account 10 which would be needed to reimburse Code Account 1838 which means that Council will have to find this money somewhere else during the year to make up for this deficit. I don't think this is a very logical way to spend money for City government, especially with the financial crunch that the City is in right now. So, I would ask my colleagues to either vote to hold this or to vote against this because there are insufficient funds at this time.

The Chair:

Bill No. 752

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 643

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Five, Traffic, Chapter 547, Transit Vehicles and Taxicabs by adding Section 547.01(c) requiring the installation of crash attenuators on all safety islands."
—(SPONSORED BY MR. WAGNER)

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 643, addressing the attenuators. May I point out that I think it would be in our best interest to resubmit the bill because the insurance on the safety islands is covered by the Port Authority, and may I read, please, from the letter received May 16th.

"Should Bill No. 643 pass as proposed, PAT would consider the agreement null and void and, as such, PAT would no longer indemnify the City as previously agreed. Such an action may further delay the widening of the islands and result in additional engineering design and installation cost."

Basically, they are guaranteeing the safety of whatever is put up. Obviously, we all care about the safety of the people in that area. Obviously, something has to be put up whether it's a nosecone and some barriers, or whether it's attenuators. But since the agreement was made with Construction and Engineering representatives representing the City of Pittsburgh and with the Port Authority, that the City would not bear the burden of the indemnity that all liability would fall on Port Authority, if we proceed to mandate what they're going to do to protect the islands, we will lose that insurance liability. I think that we ought to at least resubmit and get some more information on that. I make that in the form of a motion.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

Mr. Coyner:

Discussion. I also would like to urge my support of Councilwoman Madoff's asking Council to hold this. I have received this morning, and I believe other Councilmembers have, a petition signed by nearly 300 residents of the Beechview area. To sum up their letter, they say, "As stated before, the Beechview Area Concerned Citizens is not against safety; however, the future implications of this legislation remain too undetermined to justify its passage at this time. We therefore urge Council to delay action on this bill and to require a further study which may resolve the issue which would be undertaken in all haste."

I would urge Council to follow the wishes of the citizens who signed the petition and at least hold off until further studies can be completed.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, a lot of allegations have been made in regard to Bill No. 643 by the media itself saying that this is a political issue and obviously Councilman Coyne just indicated that there is a petition even from the people in the neighborhood that I live in saying that they want the bill held. I think that in itself indicates that this bill is a very serious bill that has been attempted -- We have attempted through the Administration, the Engineering and Construction Department within City government, to convince the Port Authority Transit of the seriousness of abutments sitting in the center of public streets. The Administration has not been successful in convincing them to move forward to do that.

Councilwoman Madoff has indicated that we received a letter today suggesting that the agreement that has been struck with the City of Pittsburgh and the Port Authority would be null and void. Maybe that is the truth with the Port Authority in terms of their opinion. It is certainly not my opinion or anyone's opinion in the legal area in the City of Pittsburgh, and the reason why I say that is this: Anything that Port Authority owns, they are responsible for. And it has been my opinion all along that everything they own in the public right away, they are legally liable for and always will be legally liable for that. With an agreement or without an agreement.

However, I do want to state that I don't believe we should hold the bill, and that is the motion on the floor. The reason why we should not hold the bill, because in holding it we will not accomplish anything. The Beechview Area Concerned Citizens, the group that sent in the petition, I appeared in front of them last Thursday evening at their meeting. I answered all the questions they wanted me to answer. They asked the Port Authority to attend the meeting and they refused.

I have been open in public on this issue. This Council asked me to hold the bill one week; two weeks ago I did that. We brought the Port Authority in front of Council. We've given them the opportunity to have dialogue in front of this Council. I don't think there's any further need to hold the bill.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, friends of mine who signed this petition called me and told me they were being literally blackmailed by Port Authority and that's why they signed the petition.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Coyne                      Mr. Pollock
Michelle Madoff

AYES 3                      NOES 5

VOTING NO:

Mr. DePasquale    Mr. Wagner
Mr. Ferlo         Mr. Woods
Mr. Lyons         (Pres't Pro tem)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

Mr. Pollock:

On the bill itself. Studying the same letter that we received from the Beechview Area Concerned Citizens, apparently there is some disagreement as to the veracity of Mr. Wagner's allegations. He stated that he answered all of the citizens' questions, and yet the letter states that he did not answer the question of what he would do or what the City could do if the Port Authority removed the islands if they were forced to provide crash attenuators. Maybe he didn't answer that because there is nothing that he or City Council could do if they decide to move those islands. That's probably why the Beechview Area Concerned Citizens want to hold this matter up, to get those answers, because it could be penny-wise and pound foolish. I have no doubt because I spoke to Mr. William Millar, the Executive Director of the Port Authority.

Mr. DePasquale can call blackmail all he wants; I call it using business sense and business pressure that if this bill is passed they'll take the safety islands out. They have the absolute right to do that. And that's probably why so many residents of Beechview are greatly concerned about this bill and that's why they wanted to have time to discuss it and to have a public hearing on it.

In addition, it should be noted for the record that Allegheny County has a citizens' organization called the Allegheny County Transit Organization which deals with all matters concerning the Port Authority Transit, the company of Port Authority of Allegheny County, and all matters of transit in the County; also, of course, included in that is the City. The Allegheny County Transit Authority opposes this legislation and would like to have the opportunity to study it, to determine if, in fact, it could support it, but as of right now it does not want it passed. That is why this citizens' group was formed, to address issues like this, to study them and to testify before legislative bodies. It's unfortunate that they were never consulted because I know them to be an uncommonly talented and committed advocacy group dedicated to serving the people of Allegheny County. They should have been consulted, they should have had the opportunity to address this issue; and for that reason, I can't possibly support this.

And I must concur with the Pittsburgh Press that this is one of the first examples of district elections which is going to cost the City of Pittsburgh enormous sums of money where people appealing to small districts will do anything they can, spend any amount of the City's money to appeal to their selfish interests.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I will not comment on some of the comments that just came before me because they have no basis. However, I would like to talk on the merit of the legislation.

I have, in front of me, an Engineering and Construction drawing from May of 1987 on crash attenuators for Arlington Avenue and Broadway Avenue that was recommended to the Port Authority Transit of Allegheny County. Anyone involved in the Port Authority and anyone involved in engineering in this City has been well aware of this for quite some time; it was discussed at length for two years prior to that. It does not take a genius to know that when you have a concrete abutment in the middle of a City street, if you provide an impact attenuator or a crash attenuator on that abutment, you will reduce the potential for accidents if you hit that abutment whether you're going five miles an hour or fifty miles an hour. That's all this issue refers to, is reducing the potential of people being seriously injured or killed.

I am the Chairman of Public Safety and I don't care if every newspaper in this whole world comes out against me on this issue. I will still move forward on this legislation because I believe firmly in my heart that it is in the best interest of the public and it will reduce the potential of the public being seriously injured when standing on or hitting an abutment in the center of a street. It not only pertains to two neighborhoods; it pertains to several other areas of the City of Pittsburgh and anywhere else in the future where the Port Authority wants to put a safety island in the center of the street. People have created the argument, why aren't these crash attenuators on the flower planters on Grant Street. A somewhat valid argument. However, plants are a lot different than people and people are not supposed to be standing on those planters; people stand on safety islands. And they should be made safe for those that stand on them and those that travel the streets around them, particularly if they're located in residential communities.

Even if there are neighborhood groups in my own community that are against me on this issue, I will not stop pursuing the issue. I have pursued it for three years with the Port Authority, and I have hoped, through negotiation, that this could be accomplished. It has not been accomplished. I have no other alternative, except through legislation. And I would hope that you would support me.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I had also asked Mr. McDermott, head of Construction and Engineering, whether he felt the attenuators would be safer than the design that the Port Authority was proposing, the nose cement protectors and the protectors along the islands and the widening of the islands, and he said that he didn't know. I suggested at that point that perhaps what we ought to do is to get an independent consultant, we have some money available, to tell us what the appropriate situation should be. Should we have the attenuators or should we go to one or two or three other options? Not the Port Authority and not the City of Pittsburgh because, ultimately, I think that we would have a stronger case should we go to court to make sure that the liability for damage to any lives or to the property, if it involves someone's car, would be covered because we did our homework and we had an independent consultant tell us what is appropriate.

I didn't want to read the whole letter but I feel compelled to do so. It went to every member of Council. This is from Mr. Bill Millar of the Port Authority.

"Dear Councilwoman Madoff:

The safe operation of a public transit system serving the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County is the highest priority of Port Authority Transit (PAT). We will not compromise the safety of the public in the design, construction and operation of any PAT facility.

With that in mind, I must express my disappointment over the preliminary vote of City Council on Wednesday, May 4th, to adopt Bill No. 643 which would require the installation of attenuators at transit stops safety islands along Broadway Avenue in Beechview.

PAT has worked closely for many years with the City of Pittsburgh and the community of Beechview to resolve the issues related to the light rail system. In fact, you may recall that PAT redesigned the concrete guard of the safety island at the request of the City prior to their original construction. PAT has continued to work with the City of Pittsburgh and the community to again redesign and widen the existing safety islands. At the request of the City Law Department, PAT has also agreed to assume all maintenance and liability for the safety islands.

Should Bill 643 pass as proposed, however, PAT would consider the agreement null and void and, as such, PAT would no longer indemnify the City as previously agreed. Such action may further delay the widening of the islands and result in additional engineering design and installation costs. It is PAT's contention based on sound engineering judgment" —

And I repeat, they say they have sound engineering judgment and our own Engineering Department said they don't know which is better, which is why I'm calling for an independent party to give us their perception of what is the right thing to do. PAT goes on to say —

"that the proposed design of the proposed guard at PAT safety islands as agreed to by PAT and the City of Pittsburgh Department of Engineering and Construction in August of '87 will provide a high level of safety for transit passengers and community residents.

It is also PAT's contention that the inclusion of attenuators not only will fail to provide any additional level of safety, but conversely will present several serious problems, including, among others, intermittent suspension of light rail service resulting in substantial delays to transit passengers traveling through Beechview due to attenuators being struck and, upon collapsing, protruding over the tracks. Please keep in mind that the distance between the island and the track area is only six inches. Additional maintenance costs is in an imprudent use of taxpayers' dollars. Unsightly appearance of attenuators in the Beechview community (see attached photograph).

I urge you to consider the implication of the pending legislation. A review of transit operations in other cities confirms that attenuators located at transit stops along low-speed roadways are impractical and provide no additional level of safety.

I share your concern over the safe and efficient operation of a public transit system serving the residents of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County. The installation of attenuators at safety islands along the posted 25 m.p.h. City street, however, is neither appropriate nor necessary."

Basically, I cannot tell you since I am not an engineer whether the attenuators is the way to go when our own City Engineering Department says that they don't know. I think it would be prudent to hire an independent consultant to advise this Council as to what would be the best method to proceed and then we can vote as an informed body.

The Chair:

Call the roll.

Mr. Coyner:

Mr. President, I am abstaining on Bill No. 643. I find it very unfortunate that this is the second time in one day that Council refuses to hold legislation for further studies when we have been asked by the residents of the neighborhoods and communities directly involved. I feel that we are starting to lose touch with the request of the people of our neighborhoods and I feel it's very unfortunate.

Mr. Wagner:

I would like my comments brought forward on Bill No. 643 for the Record.

(BEGINNING - MR. WAGNER'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 643 - WEDNESDAY, 5/4/88)

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Chairman and Members of Council, Bill No. 643 was held one week from last Wednesday's meeting because several Councilmembers wanted to have the opportunity to have dialogue with the Port Authority in regard to this bill. That happened this past Monday at 1 o'clock. We had a meeting and Mr. Millar, the Executive Director, Mr. Walters, representative from their Engineering Department, were here in front of Council along with representatives from our Engineering and Construction Department.

As all of you know who attended the meeting, there was some good dialogue in regard to this bill. The history of the bill, Bill No. 643 goes back about a year ago where negotiations have occurred, extensive negotiations between our Engineering and Construction Department and the Port Authority Transit of Allegheny County.

It was the position of our Engineering and Construction Department that crash attenuators be installed on all safety islands owned and operated by the Port Authority. The Port Authority refused to do that and therefore the City took the position, "well, if you're going to refuse to do it, we would like you to be responsible legally from a liability point of view for all the safety islands which are located within the boundaries of public streets in the City of Pittsburgh and to my knowledge there are approximately 12 of them at the present time. In years gone by we had hundreds and possibly thousands of them and today we have only approximately 12.

It has been the position of the Port Authority not to install these crash attenuators, therefore the City, meaning the Engineering and Construction Department and the Legal Department, agreed to permit them to take over the legal responsibility, the liability of these safety islands.

It is my opinion as Chairman of the Public Safety Committee that that is not going far enough. These safety islands have been a hazard in public streets for decades in the City of Pittsburgh and we have not done everything humanly possible to protect passengers of automobiles that could strike them and have struck them hundreds of times. People standing on a safety island and pedestrians off to the side of the safety islands, on the sidewalk and the potential for vehicles travelling in the opposite direction that could be struck by a vehicle hitting a safety island. That was the reason for initiating this legislation. What this legislation does is require the Port Authority to go out and install what is the best available safety engineering design which is a crash attenuator. A crash attenuator is a cushioning device that many of you have seen on our highways where you have abutments. Well that's basically what a safety island is.

The crash attenuators are a good idea. What it comes down to is two things with the Port Authority: the cost of installation which they do not want to incur, plus the fact that they feel that crash attenuators if struck by vehicles may protrude out into the lane of travel where the new light rail transit vehicles operate. Therefore, it would prevent them from moving ahead on schedule with these vehicles. They would have to come out immediately and repair the crash attenuators if it's struck by an automobile. Well, that's what you're supposed to do with a crash attenuator. And for those two reasons the Port Authority, I will tell each and every one of the Councilmembers and the public, they are against this legislation. This legislation can do nothing but protect the public further.

In addition to that, it's my position and it has been stated to the Port Authority that from a legal liability point of view, it will protect the Port Authority because it will reduce the potential of people being injured, involved in accidents at these safety islands. In essence what it will do is prevent the possibility of them being fined and taken to court for not doing everything they can do humanly possible to protect the public.

This legislation is supported by the Beechview community. We have two letters they have been sent to this Council, one from the Beechview Concerned Citizens that want to see the legislation held up and one from the Beechview Community Council that supports the legislation.

The reason why this legislation must move forward is that the Port Authority is in the process right now of re-designing the safety islands. They have already allocated the dollars to go out to contract to redesign them. These crash attenuators should be part of that contract and if we permit this legislation to be held, they can move ahead and redesign the safety islands and start work on them and not install the crash attenuators.

It is in the best interests of all parties, of residents of the City of Pittsburgh and the Port Authority for these safety islands which are located in the center of public streets owned by the public, to be protected as well as possible and crash attenuators is the best available engineering technique to do that and I would strongly hope that members of Council would unanimously support this legislation.

Mr. Pollock:

I would like my comments brought forward on Bill No. 644 for the Record.

Mr. Wagner:

I would also like my comments brought forward, please.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

(BEGINNING - MR. WAGNER'S AND MR. POLLOCK'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 644, WEDNESDAY, 5/4/88)

Mr. Wagner:

Members of Council, this bill as you see the $2,000.00 for the Chemical People Institute at Duquesne University, is primarily for the parade that is coming up in two weeks for drug abuse. That is the purpose of this bill. And I wanted everyone to know where these $2,000.00 are going. These dollars are coming out of a public safety code account as you see. And I had mentioned that to Director Cannon just this morning. They are his $2,000.00 to operate his department.

The reason why I indicated Public Safety is at the present time Code Account 10, as you know, does not have sufficient dollars in it for this $2,000.00 allocation, therefore I am stating publicly that once that code account of which Council has some control over, accumulates $2,000.00, I will introduce a bill to take those $2,000.00 out of Code Account 10 and put it back into the Public Safety Department.

Director Cannon is in support of this proposal and he just wants to be reassured that he'll get his $2,000.00 back.

This is going to be used for numerous costs incurred in the drug abuse parade which will occur in two weeks--"Just Say No To Drugs".

There's going to be bands in the parade, there's going to be thousands of school children marching in the parade and it's a parade that is being held to create greater public awareness hopefully to get children involved in an anti-drug campaign.

It will be used for bands, for T-shirts, for balloons, for clowns, etc. It is this community, the City of Pittsburgh, along with the Chemical Institute people that are sponsoring the parade.

This is an anti-drug campaign of which many organizations are involved in and the parade will cost in excess of $10,000.00. This is a minor portion to go against the most serious crime problem that exists in this city and in this country. Now if you want support the $2,000.00, fine; if you don't want to, that's fine also.

---

The Chair:

One comment. I too feel that drugs are probably the most serious problem facing American society today, but I'm at a loss to understand how balloons and clowns fight drugs and I think it's just another taxpayer give-away. On the question, all in favor please say aye?

Mr. Wagner:

Unfortunately you feel that way.

The Chair:

I vote no. We have enough balloons and clowns and shit.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, on Bill No. 622 concerning the expenditure of $125,000 for lighting and electrical renovations at various ballfields, I would like my comments brought forward from the Wednesday meeting on that bill.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGE)

(BEGINNING - MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 622 - WEDNESDAY, 5/4/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

On this bill, Bill No. 622, does West Penn Field, which I believe was recently vandalized in terms of lighting, included in this and secondly, could you please address very briefly--I don't want to belabor the point or the meeting--the issue of why we don't use or if we do use them, why don't we use more of the, safety shields because it seems as though continually there's a problem of young people breaking out these lights in these ballfields. It's my understanding that for another $75.00 per light we could have safety shields put in and it makes more sense to do it. Can we do that in the future?

Dir. McDermott:

Very good point. We're doing it.

Mr. Ferlo:

In this approving of the $125,000.00, will this include the more expensive safety design?

Dir. McDermott:

I don't know whether it will affect the lighting on West Penn because we're only partially addressing it, but we'll take a look at that.

Mr. Ferlo:

So I do not have to offer an amendment, this is something that you'll agree to do?

Dir. McDermott:

Yes, we will.

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you.

(END OF COMMENTS)

PREPARED BY: MARY ANNE HRUSKA, STENOGRAPHIC REPORTER 1

Mr. Ferlo:

I was going to offer an amendment on this bill but at the discussion with Mr. McDermott, he made a commitment to this body that in the purchase of the electrical replacement units for the lighting, that in the future, while it will cost more money, he will utilize various safety shields, lighting, for these ballfields as opposed to what is presently there. It will cost more money per unit but I think it's clear from the amount of vandalism and problems that we have had in the parks that it may be penny-wise to spend a little bit more for these electrical lights with the safety shields.

On that basis, I did not offer the amendment, given his commitment to this body. But I would point out in closing that I had mentioned the need to take care of some of the electrical concerns at West Penn Field and it's my understanding from Director Brown that that is in the process of being worked on and it may cost $20,000 or $30,000 and I hope while it may not specifically be part of this legislation, that that will be forthcoming quickly so that the softball leagues can play ball on West Penn Field. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Pittsburgh Aqua Zoo; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, on Bills 617 and 629, they are both dollars for the Zoo; one is for $60,000 and the other is for $116,000. I love the Zoo; I took my child to the Zoo. But in light of the last budget statement made by our beloved Mayor who is no longer with us, he has stated that we are in a dire financial situation here in the City and we are going to be hard-pressed to meet our budget needs without taxation going into next year. We're just barely going to get through by the skin of our teeth.

The debt service on the Zoo, the multi-millions of dollars that have been funneled into the Zoo, I believe the Zoo should be given to the County. I've said that before; I'm saying it again. And on that vote I'm going to vote no on those two bills.

The Chair:

Does it have something to do with these?

Yes. Mr. Wagner, do you know, is Mr. Alex Sciulli on the Water and Sewer Authority as a member?

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Alex Sciulli is the Director of the Water Department —

Michelle Madoff:

I know; that's my committee. Is he a member of the Water and Sewer Authority?

Mr. Wagner:

He is not a member of the Board of the Water and Sewer Authority.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to request that this body make a motion that somehow or other the head of the Water Department be included as a member of the Water and Sewer Authority. I say that because,

Mr. Ferlo:

I have no comment but I want to make it clear that you should call for Motions and Resolutions.

And on the motion of Mr. DePasquale

ABSENT:

Mr. Pollock

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

We have a few resolutions today but before we go into that I'd like to ask Mr. Ferlo to come up. We have some friends from our sister city in Nicaragua and Mr. Ferlo will make a little presentation.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President and members of Council, thank you for this opportunity. I apologize on behalf of Mr. Pollock who is not able to be here today. It is my understanding there was a mix up on a resolution; otherwise, there would be one before you. But as a courtesy to elected officials and to a trade union delegation from our sister city of San Ysidro in Nicaragua, I wanted to at least afford both an opportunity and a courtesy to these fine gentlemen from our sister city.

One of the proclamations that our late Mayor was very proud of passing several years ago, Dick Caliguiri, had to do with naming the city of San Ysidro in Nicaragua as a sister city to the City of Pittsburgh. Since that time, there has been efforts by a non-profit community-based organization in the City of Pittsburgh, the Pittsburgh San Ysidro Sister City Project, that has been about the business of providing friendship and cooperation as well as donated medical supplies and other kinds of humanitarian items to the village, the peasantry of this small city in Nicaragua.

As a courtesy, they are on a trade union delegation across the United States. They are here in the City of Pittsburgh today. At this time, I want to call on both of them for a brief statement. I want to ask that Council please welcome them to our City, we being the sister city of San Ysidro. To my left, though, is Professor John Beverly from the University of Pittsburgh; he is an activist and supporter of the Sister City Project here in the City and he actually, as you can see, is also very fluent being a professor -- Actually, I don't know if he's a professor of Spanish Literature but he certainly has those skills, as you can see and you will shortly hear. But our guests are obviously fluent in Spanish and John would like to briefly help to translate this dialogue and brief discussion. So, members of Council, thank you for the opportunity to briefly let them say hello to our citizens here in the City of Pittsburgh.

To my left we have the Mayor of San Ysidro, the gentleman's name is Luis Antonio Martinez. He is the Mayor. Also, we are joined to his left by the gentleman, Eduardo Jose Flores. He is a peasant farmer and he's a trade unionist, a president of the cooperative movement, an organization equivalent to much of our union organization that we all know here in the United States. A gentleman who will be coming in later who is also visiting the City as part of the trade union delegation, his name is Marvin Cortez Estrada, represents the National Union of Public Employees.

At this time, I would ask for a brief courtesy just to let them make a brief statement to the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh. Thank you.

Mayor Martinez:

Good afternoon, honorable

Counselors of the City of Pittsburgh. I want to greet you on behalf of myself as Mayor of San Ysidro and on behalf of the town.

The objective of our visit with you here in Pittsburgh this week is to solicit your help in raising the blockade, the economic blockade that has been imposed on our country and in getting your help to further the possibilities of peace in the area.

Thank you very much.

Mr. Flores:

Good afternoon brothers and sisters of the sister city of Pittsburgh. Please receive in the name of the farmers and peasants of San Ysidro a very warm greeting.

My name is Eduardo Jose Flores. I'm the Coordinator of the Agricultural Cooperative. In the name of the farmers and of the members of that cooperative, we ask you to help us in our struggle for peace and the end of the commercial embargo against Nicaragua. We're not lovers of war; we are lovers of peace.

Thank you very much.

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you. At this time, I'd like to introduce and call up for a resolution two gentlemen from Freeport, Pennsylvania; a little closer to home. The gentleman is Mark Holbein; he's a City Councilman from the City of Freeport, Pennsylvania, and he's joined by one of his staff people and co-workers, James Swartz, Sr. Mr. Swartz is the Superintendent of Public Works in the City of Freeport, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Ferlo presents

No. 826 WHEREAS, it has come to the attention of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh that a permit application has been filed by a company known as the Freeport Terminals, Inc. with the State Department of Environmental Resources (DER); and

WHEREAS, the company desires to establish an incinerator ash transfer station on the banks of the Allegheny River in the municipality of Freeport, Pennsylvania, located fifteen miles upstream of our water treatment intake system; and

WHEREAS, the incinerator ash is the toxic remains of garbage burned daily in the City of Philadelphia and is known to contain chemicals such as dioxane, the most deadly chemical known to mankind and our environment; and

WHEREAS, approximately 225 to 675 tons of the incinerator ash will be transported along the Pennsylvania turnpike, per day, to the Freeport Terminal's transfer station and then loaded onto barges which are to be docked on the Allegheny River and eventually be transported through the City of Pittsburgh to landfills in Ohio and Texas; and

WHEREAS, the accidental spillage of this toxic material into the Allegheny River could cause the long-term closing of the City of Pittsburgh's Water Treatment Plant leaving City of Pittsburgh households and industries without a source of water; and

WHEREAS, the elected officials of Freeport and Armstrong County, Congressman Joe Kolter, State Senator Regoli, among many others, have joined forces in a legal and political battle to stop the State DER from granting the necessary permit because of the grave environmental and ecological consequences.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh finds that a real and potential threat exists to the river system supplying water to the people, towns and businesses supplied by the Pittsburgh Water & Sewer Authority; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Council requests the following actions to be taken:

- (1) Mayor Masloff and our City Solicitor shall investigate this matter and prepare a formal legal challenge to the permit application;
- (2) The State Department of Environmental Resources should conduct a formal public hearing in our city on this matter;
- (3) A request go to State Representative Tom Murphy of the House Conservation Committee to conduct an investigation and issue findings to the public;

Mr. Ferlo moved to approve the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. May I ask the gentlemen that are here, Mark, did you discuss any of this or did anyone discuss this with Mr. Richard Cosentino of our Water and Sewer Authority? Have you spoken with Mr. Bruecken, our engineer and scientist?

Mr. Holbein:

Not as yet.

Michelle Madoff:

Have you spoken to the University of Pittsburgh, Moyshie Shapiro, who is an expert in water control?

Mr. Holbein:

No, we haven't as yet but we have spoken with our own sewers engineer and we feel this is the route to go.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't have a problem if this is the route to go, and I'll be with you 100,000 percent. I'll be in front of you fighting the battle. But generally before I take an action of this kind, I like to get my stats. So, what I'm asking is, do you have any documents, any tests that have been done, that I can see the results?

Mr. Holbein:

I certainly have. I have brought department application at the Freeport terminal, have talked with DER, and they list all the sampling. Questions that we raised at the hearing on Wednesday which was in front of DER is the validity of the sampling that was done in '84. We feel it's much stronger than what they've submitted, although what they've submitted is pretty damaging.

Michelle Madoff:

And who has determined that the quality of the samples or the grab samples, samples taken when people were aware, does anybody have the standards by which it has been measured?

Mr. Holbein:

That's what our sewage engineer has questioned the DER. They did not submit, the terminals did not submit the methodology used in reviewing the samples, the way the tests have been taken. Nothing has been given to us. We've requested it but that's all we've been supplied with.

The Chair:

All in favor of the resolution?

Michelle Madoff:

I abstain.

The Chair:

Gentlemen, would you like to say a few words?

Mr. Ferlo:

I do want to remind Council of the participation and support of David Hasting in the audience from the Clean Water Action Project which is assisting these gentlemen in this effort.

Mr. Holbein:

I'd like to express our appreciation at being invited here today on behalf of Freeport Borough. It's a small community about 20 miles up-river; it consists of 2700 people. We're small but we have a large fight on our hands. We're very appreciative of the City of Pittsburgh for their support that they may give us. It's not only a concern of ours, it's a concern of yours, considering that your water plant is downstream of ours. We just wish that this would be investigated thoroughly before any permit is granted, and hopefully, no permit at all will be granted. Thank you.

Mr. Swartz:

I'd like to thank all of you Councilmen for inviting us down today. I have the same thoughts as Mark, here, with this ash being loaded into the barges and then they're going to be sitting up there for anywhere in the neighborhood of a week to ten days until they get six or eight barges to bring down the river. If you should lose a barge or if a barge of that should possibly sink while being loaded up-river, then we're going to have problems in Pittsburgh.

We're asking for all the support you can give us. As Mark said, we're a small community and all the support you people can give us down here, we're really going to appreciate it.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I'd like to ask Mr. David Miller, President for the Society for the Preservation of the Duquesne Heights Incline to please step forward to accept this resolution.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 827 WHEREAS, The Duquesne Incline was opened to the public in May of 1877, carrying passengers up and down Coal Hill now known as Mount Washington-Duquesne Heights, and

WHEREAS, in November of 1962 The Duquesne Incline was closed for repairs and was in danger of being closed forever, and

WHEREAS, the residents of Duquesne Heights with dedication and enthusiasm, raised the funds to make the necessary repairs and the incline was re-opened on July 1, 1963, and

WHEREAS, the Port Authority of Allegheny County purchased the incline in 1963 and since that time has leased it for $1.00 per year to the Society for the Preservation of the Duquesne Heights Incline, and

WHEREAS, The Society has assumed full responsibility for the operation and maintenance of the Incline through much voluntary work and contributions.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby congratulate and salute The Society for the Preservation of the Duquesne Heights Incline, the residents of Mt. Washington-Duquesne Heights and the Port Authority of Allegheny County and all others responsible for keeping the Duquesne Incline, a working museum, open and running.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Mayor and the Council, on behalf of all citizens of the city, wishes the incline a happy 111th birthday, with hopes for many more ups and downs, carrying passengers, in the years to come.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Members of Council, again, I'd like to introduce Mr. David Miller who is the President of the Society for the Preservation of the Duquesne Heights Incline. Just this past Friday they celebrated the 111th anniversary with the unveiling of a plaque on the observation deck. On that plaque it lists all the major contributors and many other people involved in contributing to the observation deck.

David is going to say a few words about the present state of the incline. It's in very good physical shape but financially it's had some problems. Hopefully, the citizens of this City can rally behind it, and not only the citizens of this City but the people in Allegheny County and Western Pennsylvania. It is certainly a jewel for the City of Pittsburgh; people who visit this City from all over the world travel on this incline and get a magnificent view of our great City. It's one of two left and it certainly is a jewel and we commend the Society for all the work they've done.

Mr. Miller:

Thank you, members of Council. We appreciate this recognition very much. The message to the community now, as it was 26 years ago, is, it's your incline; use it or lose it.

Our business has declined by approximately 50 percent in the last 10 years. I'll not go into that; it's difficult to discuss without appearing to knock other people. But, rising costs of insurance, changing patterns of transportation for business purposes and the like, have forced us to raise fares and we still have difficulty meeting our obligations for important maintenance that is inevitable in anything that is 111 years old.

We need, in addition to the ridership created by visitors, and I'll just add that if everybody in the County rode the incline once every other year, we'd have so much business we wouldn't know what to do. So, your occasional ride counts so much. Bring your friends.

We also need something to enliven West Carson Street at the bottom. Station Square needs to be expanded so as to incorporate the large building. That will do so much for what is a dead end of town, and thereby make the incline that much more attractive.

Thank you for this opportunity to be with you and thanks for your recognition.

Bill No. 632

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 1041, effective December 22, 1987, entitled: 'Providing for an Agreement or Agreements, Contract or Contracts, or to make use of existing Contracts to manufacture, supply, install and provide other services related to purchasing and installing new street signs,' by increasing the project allocation an additional from $290,000.00 to $1,790,000.00."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President and members of Council, I'd like to offer an amendment to Bill No. 632. The bill has to deal with the increased expenditure of $1,500,000 for the street sign installation program that was discussed at length in the Committee Meeting. Also, I'd like my comments brought forward on this matter.

But the following amendment is to Bill 632. I've supplied members of Council with a copy this morning and passed one around just now. I'd like to read it:

"Section 3. The Mayor and the Director of the Department of City Planning, on behalf of the City of Pittsburgh, are hereby authorized to enter into agreement or agreements, contract or contracts, or to make use of existing contracts in the form approved by the City Solicitor for the purpose of installing new street signs only with consultants or vendors who agree to employ residents of the City of Pittsburgh and only residents of the City of Pittsburgh, in all work directly involved in the production, assembly and installation of the new street signs, the removal of existing signs and the recordation of new signs at each location. Residents of the City of Pittsburgh are those persons who shall be domiciled in the City at the time that they begin work on this contract and shall be domiciled in the City throughout the period that they work on the contract."

I'll just speak very briefly to this point. Obviously, members of Council, I expressed my dissatisfaction for a number of reasons at the expenditure of $1,500,000 for the new City Street Sign Program. I think I made it quite clear that I supported the sense of Council on the need to make sure that in places where there were not street signs, that the first priority has got to be to get the street signs put up. I applaud Council's earlier effort at making sure that a more interesting and a reflective sign is used; I applaud that. My objections have to do with the expenditure of $1,500,000 for two reasons: one, I felt very strongly that this work should not be let out to an external contractor, but I felt strongly that the work could be done over a period of time by City employees. That doesn't seem to be the sense of my colleagues on Council.

With that in mind, and recognizing my other concern that there are all other kinds of Public Works, priorities, and I didn't see a value of this expenditure at this time, in recognizing that this bill will probably be passed today, I would like to, at this time, offer this amendment, as I have read, and the basic gist of the amendment is that if we're going to dole out $1.5 million, and if we're not going to do this in-house, could we please, members of Council, guarantee that those who benefit from the contract in terms of the people employed, are at least City of Pittsburgh residents. My argument originally was that I saw no reason why a few people couldn't be added on a part-time basis or as-needed basis to Public Works in order to get this sign together. We know for a fact that people in-house have the expertise and the skills to put these signage together. The materials are available from such companies as 3M, among others.

Leading that battle, I would at least like to offer this amendment, and it's my fervent hope that my colleague would join me in attaching this rider to this resolution.

(MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 632-Wednesday, 5-18-88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you. On this issue of 632, and its companion bill 633, I would like the Public Works' Director to come forward, and anyone from City Planning. I am sure a number of other colleagues have questions on this appropriation.

Lou, you had given members of Council a copy of the request for proposal, and we held this bill up the last time, and you were kind enough to send this information to us.

I have a number of concerns about this expenditure. I think certainly the most important priority for city government and your department clearly is the replacement of signs, especially the hundreds, if not several thousand, signs that need to be put up throughout the city. You have mentioned repeatedly to this Council you have a problem with vandalism, and I know for a fact that that is a problem.

In addition, I have been throughout the neighborhoods, and it is clear that for years neighborhoods and streets have gone unmarked without signs. So I would not in any way want to impede the ability or the necessity of the Administration to move forward and get these signs put up.

But rather, what we have here is a major expenditure of $1.5 million. And I will ask the public to look at these two signs (indicating). These are the signs currently being used by the city. And to look at this sign, which I believe is to be the sign you would be using in the future, obviously there is a significant difference, possibly in the quality, maybe even the materials that are being used. The blue one being reflective in nature.

The problem that I have is, one, the tremendous increase in the expenditure of $1.5 million, and the priority of this expenditure at this time versus other kinds of expenditures. In the short time I have been on City Council, since January 4th, every, probably, twice a week I have been out in the neighborhoods, and you know that because I have been bugging you with countless laundry lists of assignments that need to be completed. But weigh it against other necessities relative to Public Works, such as walls that are falling down in the city, such as steps in the South Side and other neighborhoods that are falling down, such as the fact that major thoroughfares and streets in the city don't even have lines painted on them so people know where they are driving, causing public safety. I could list for 20 minutes all other kinds of priorities of expenditures in the Public Works area that I think are of more immediate priority and greater value than the expenditure of $1.5 million for the placement of the new reflective signs.

What I wanted to ask you, though, is that because I am not clear I will win the support of Council to vote this down, the expenditure, I can't see any reason why, instead of bidding this out to an external contract -- because your RFP leaves it wide open, your requests for proposal would entertain both costs just for the materials upward to an external contractor doing everything, from the materials to the design, to the placement, the work crews that would go out. My question to you is why should we do it this way? What is the big hurry? Talk about the other priorities that we have.

My question basically to you is why can't your department, Public Works, do this in-house, not in the immediate time period of between now and the end of the year, but just start a regiment of sign replacement and additions over the next one, two, three, four years, instead of coming to Council now and asking us to spend $1.5 million when we have all these other priorities?

Mr. Gaetano:

First, we are looking at something like 20,000 to 25,000 signs in the City of Pittsburgh right now, of which, on the street signs, we are lucky if we have 40 or 50 percent of our street signs up in the city.

In the past three, four, five years, this particular Council itself has been on my back, really public safety wise, that people can't find where to get to the street, especially when there is a problem with emergency medical, fire, they just don't know where the street is.

As to my particular department putting all the signs up, we basically put a lot of street signs up in November, December, January, when we are not doing anything else. We just don't have the personnel to totally do it. We would have to bring in another sign crew completely, or put on another sign crew, and we are talking, like, seven, eight people, and an expenditure of $180,000.00 or $200,000.00 a year. Plus, we are married to those people now if we did something like that.

The basic reason that we have actually started the program was because of the wish of this Council itself, who many times have told me and discussed with me that, "There is no sign here, Lou, that we don't want this sign," and the actual types of the new material was actually a resolution by Councilman Wagner, who requested the reflective signs be put up and did have it passed.

We have put all new street lighting within the City of Pittsburgh, and we are doing that right now. What we would have liked to have done was not only put the new lights up, but also the signs up in the various communities as we go along; we do the signs, the lights, and actually redo the community completely with the hardware that we are doing now. That is the basic reason we are doing it. Public safety really was the number one reason, police, fire and emergency medical not being able to get to the area or the streets because the signs weren't up.

I would love to put them up myself. We can make the signs, I would be lying to you if I say we don't. We are doing it right now.

Mr. Ferlo:

Who made this sign (indicating)?

Mr. Gaetano:

I think it was made by us.

Mr. Ferlo:

By Mr. Walsh.

Mr. Gaetano:

We can make signs, and we do that. Just like you said, we are putting the blue one up right now in different areas and replacing. We are not using the old sign now, we are doing it ourselves. The actual contract that you have, I think I discussed it with you, is three parts, whereas the contractor, if we do give it out to a street contractor, will not be being doing all the signs in the City of Pittsburgh. I will be still putting up, in certain sections, the signs. So it is a large contract, but the contractor will not make all the money. The basic portion of the contract that is going out for the City of Pittsburgh, 70 or 80 percent, is labor of putting them up. So that $1.9 million, you are talking, like, $1.4 million, really is the cost of putting them up and not actually making the sign itself.

My labor force, I just don't have the people. I would like to do it, I would love to do it, but I don't have the people to do it on a year round basis.

Mr. Ferlo:

Let me ask you one more question, and I will give up the floor.

First of all, I applaud the efforts of the department. The signs are wonderful. I think Council in its wisdom was correct about the need for the signs. I have no problem with the reflective nature of the new signs. Everything is wonderful, I don't dispute that. Mr. Walsh is a hell of a guy, he seems to be really on top of the ball, and he is extremely qualified to do this. In fact, I think he is so well qualified to do this I think it should be down in-house.

What I would ask the Administration to consider, prior to us approving -- because as you know, once we approve $1.5 million and the request for proposal, you are off and running and it never comes back to this table.

What I would like to see is at least the Administration think about an issue that you raised with the Administration, I know with me privately it has been raised in the past and it has been raised in the community. You have talked in the past, the Administration, about the possibility of engaging and entering into contracts with neighborhood based organizations to perform various services. The Administration was thinking about entertaining contracts with neighborhood groups to take care of some of the parks, the little league fields, some of the things that involve clean up in the community.

I would suggest that it is possible that there could be a neighborhood based development corporation that could do this kind of work. You already have the materials or you can purchase the materials, you already have the equipment and the expenditure to cut these letters out and the work that is involved with putting it down. I am saying can we not use a little creativity and try to explore other arrangements, either your doing it in-house over a period of time that is greater than just the one year period, or what the cost would be for you to add some staff people to spread it out. And thirdly, is there a possibly that we could give a contract to a neighborhood based minority group, community group, that could be divided? Let them take on the assignment working with

Mr. Walsh, who is very able and qualified to direct this activity, and I would suggest that it could be done better, quicker, it could be a source of employment for some neighborhood people, and I think it could be done quicker than the external contract that I fear we will provide you with once we approve this expenditure.

Mr. Gaetano:

I don't know if the neighborhood groups actually have the equipment to do something like this. It is more than just putting a sign up.

Mr. Ferlo:

Working with you.

Mr. Gaetano:

Well, in putting a street sign up you have a major liability. If you are putting a sign up on a pole with wires and everything else, you are dealing with Duquesne Light, Bell Telephone, different signs there that have to be moved, taken down. Also part of the contract is also putting a lot of new poles up for these signs. I don't know if we have -- we don't have the equipment enough to lend them, say, one of our lift trucks or something like that, because ours will be used. So that neighborhood would have to have lift trucks and everything else.

---

So you are hitting us with something that I really don't know. I couldn't answer that at this time, totally your question, not knowing the whole capability of what these neighborhoods groups would have. It is something maybe we can look into, yes, I would be lying if I said we couldn't look into something like this.

Mr. Ferlo:

You have admitted to us that your department could do this --

Mr. Gaetano:

Yes, we do it now.

Mr. Ferlo:

-- except for not having enough people.

Mr. Gaetano:

I could do it, but if I would commit to doing the whole thing -- with the people I have now, it would take me six years in the winter months to put these signs up with just the people I have right now. Like I said, if I put those seven, eight people on, then we marry these people on the city payroll, and you are talking $200,000.00.

Mr. Ferlo:

Why can't they just be perceived as -- you know, you are initiating a Public Works' project, they have a limited employment opportunity, you can hire from the union hall even. People go off from the union hall all the time to do selected jobs. I can't imagine that the expenditure needs to be a million and one-half dollars. That is the problem I am having with the legislation.

(END OF REMARKS)

(TRANSCRIBED BY HELEN L. KRIEBEL, STENOGRAPHIC REPORTER)

Michelle Madoff:

I'll second it for discussion and may I discuss it?

Mr. Ferlo, I'm glad you applaud Council for its support on various aspects of the legislation; one, for example, the fire and police and paramedics have not been able to find houses because they didn't have signs and streets. We feel, and we have for many years, that that is a very important project.

I hope you will applaud the information that we're about to give you, that this Council tried desperately to pass legislation similar to that of Boston where we would mandate that a percentage of 50 percent, I believe, and you can help me, Mr. Woods, was to be for jobs for City employees. We were told by the Law Department that we cannot do that; we do not have the power. And if you wish to pursue this, I would suggest that you pursue it with the Legal Department and if you can come up with a ruling that says that we are empowered to give jobs to City residents, I will be the first in line to support you as I'm sure will the rest of my colleagues, not only on this bill but on all projects and contracts that are issued through the City wherever possible.

The Chair:

I would like to say something. I sympathize and I kind of agree; I think most Councilmembers do and would like to help our residents that are employeeed, we want to see our companies that are located here in the City of Pittsburgh do that. But if we would pass something like this, I think we'd become an island because, and I'm a construction worker by trade, that would mean that I could not go to work in say Sharpsburg; they would not let me in there because I'm a resident of the City of Pittsburgh and they want employees coming there to work on their construction projects that are just residents of Sharpsburg. Same with their companies; they would not accept one of our companies located in the City of Pittsburgh bidding on one of their projects.

I think that you have a good idea and I think to blindside us at this time with this amendment, you know, you just can't debate it here properly with all the facts. You may have some facts and figures that you might want to share with us, but I don't think this is the place to do it. This is a Legislative Meeting; this should have been discussed, if you felt this way, at the Committee Meeting. I think that if Council would pass this amendment, we are wrong because we have a lot of suburban areas out there, we have a lot of other counties, that our companies do a lot of business with and this legislation will just spread. I would ask Council to defeat this amendment.

Mr. Ferlo:

In response, very quickly. First of all, I disagree with you entirely, Mr. Woods. The only other large municipality is the County government and if they had the power to do anything relative to residency, I would encourage them to do that also. By their mandate, obviously, that residency would be all those individuals domiciled in the municipality of the County government, and that would include any City resident. No other municipality in the County has the kind of resources and spends the kinds of monies budgetary that we do, and for that reason I would disagree with you.

This is a limited cooperation agreement. We are doling out $1.5 million. We have every prerogative whatsoever to make, as part of that agreement between the parties receiving this work, such an amendment as I have offered.

In response to Councilwoman Michelle Madoff, history will correct her in a couple of instances. First of all, the legislation that she had talked about, the Jobs With Pittsburghers resolution, I believe was an action that Mr. Flaherty at the time had suggested. It never went to a full-fledged political discussion of Council passing the ordinance and then entertaining an override with the Caliguiri Administration. That was just not the case in the history of that legislation. In fact, since the debate around the Jobs With Pittsburghers ordinance offered by Mr. Flaherty, we now have some fundamental case law on the books, a Supreme Court decision which, in fact, upheld the City of Boston's jobs residency ordinance regarding contracts with large construction firms.

What I am proposing today, however, has nothing to do with the notion of a broad-sweeping law such as the Jobs With Pittsburghers ordinance which would be legal. But that is not at debate today and that is not my intent. My intent, very frankly, is to suggest, as I have stated, that if we're going to spend $1.5 million for putting street signs up, there's no reason why we shouldn't show favoritism to City of Pittsburgh people who are in need of employment. I'm only suggesting that if we're going to give out $1.5 million, and if you're not going to accept my advice of doing it in-house which we have the capability and the expertise to do, and if everybody is so concerned about the City budget and trying to end the City budget at the end of the year with a fund balance which nobody seems to be worrying about, I would suggest that we have the prerogative and certainly the legal power to enter into a contract, and as part of that contract for those who want to receive the work, they have to give jobs to City of Pittsburgh residents. It's perfectly within our legal rights and I would suggest rather that it's morally our obligation given the kind of unemployment situation we have in the City of Pittsburgh.

For that reason, I would hold firm and ask Council to support the amendment, and if not, I would be happy to recommit the legislation if the Chairman were so willing, and discuss this further. Saving that, I would have to ask for a vote on the amendment for jobs for Pittsburghers.

The Chair:

All in favor?

Michelle Madoff:

I think it's very unfair to end on that note.

The Chair:

I don't agree with everything he said but I interpret his last objection was to me and I'm willing to let him stand on what he said.

All in favor of the amendment?
Opposed?

Mr. Ferlo:

Aye.

The Chair:

The amendment fails.

Michelle Madoff:

Can we resubmit the bill for a legal opinion?

The Chair:

That's over.

Is there any other discussion on any other bills?

Michelle Madoff:

On the same bill. Can we resubmit the bill for a legal opinion as to whether what Mr. Ferlo said --

The Chair:

The amendment has failed.

Michelle Madoff:

I know but the bill itself hasn't failed yet.

Mr. Ferlo:

Motion to recommit, Mr. Chairman.

The Chair:

Wait a minute. Please. The amendment has failed; it has failed for this session. Now, there's no other reason to recommit the bill because you can't discuss the amendment. Is there any other discussion on any other bills?

Mr. Wagner:

On that particular bill, Bill No. 632, I simply want to state that if legally that can be done, it's been advised to this Council that it cannot be done in the past. That's the reason why I did not support my colleague.

Michelle Madoff:

Point of Order. I was not allowed to speak again and you're letting Mr. Wagner speak.

Mr. Wagner:

This is on the bill; it is not on the amendment.

The Chair:

He's on the bill.

Michelle Madoff:

I was speaking on the bill.

Mr. Wagner:

Consequently, if legally the law has changed and we can do that, I would suggest that a piece of legislation be introduced as a coverall for all legislation of this type.

But in regard to this particular bill, Bill No. 632, I would like to see the bill passed. It is a neighborhood bill; street signs are everywhere in this City and they are inadequate. I shouldn't say they're everywhere but they should be everywhere and they are inadequate, particularly as it relates to public safety. And we all can recall incidents within the last year where simply street signs indicating the block of the street of which many of these signs will have on them, would act as a vehicle to let our emergency personnel know precisely where they are when they're responding to emergency calls. This piece of legislation began back a couple years ago. I think it's a great idea and the quicker we get these signs up on all streets, and when I say all streets I mean every street in the City must have a street sign, the better off we're going to be.

I also would like my comments brought forward for the record. I have indicated to the Director at the previous meeting, Director Gaetano, I would like to see the streets without signs to get signs first, and that to be done by City of Pittsburgh employees and then move throughout the City in blocks if they're going to go out by contract.

Furthermore, I'd like to see us put these signs up such, and I want this on the record, such that it's very difficult to take them down because it appears to be the in thing to steal street signs, not only in Pittsburgh but everywhere, and we need to make sure that these are put up securely so that they cannot be stolen.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

---

(MR. WAGNER'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 632-Wednesday, 5-18-88)

Mr. Wagner:

Director, a couple of questions, a couple comments. As you know, I have been a strong supporter of this and I think it is a good investment to the city. Do these dollars come out of capital dollars?

Mr. Gaetano:

Yes.

Mr. Wagner:

Including the dollars to install the signs?

Mr. Gaetano:

That would be split up. Now, as I mentioned to Councilman Ferlo, we would be putting up a lot of these ourselves or making a lot of these ourselves. When I do it, it would come out of my operating fund and then the actual labor would come out of my operating fund and not out of this capital expenditure. So that capital expenditure, even though it states "one point X dollars," may be much less if I do the signs in the wintertime, which I intend to do.

Mr. Wagner:

So it is going to be a combination thereof?

Mr. Gaetano:

Yes.

Mr. Wagner:

The most frequent complaint you hear of people coming to the City of Pittsburgh is that they can't get around in the city, and one of the reasons they can't get around is there is not good signage out there and good directions. Hopefully this will address the problem.

I agree with you, though, the most important issue here is a public safety issue. And we right now have many streets throughout the city that do not have signs on them. We have just put in a new computer aided dispatch system. I think it is critical that we move forward as quickly as possible to get signage up on streets, in particular, that do not have signs now.

That is my question to you: Where is the priority being placed, whether it is in-house or by contract, with streets that do not have signs versus streets that have signs?

Mr. Gaetano:

Most of the areas, if a street does not have a sign right now, I do get calls and I put them up immediately, immediately.

What we intended to do in a particular project was go into a community and actually do the whole community, one community after another. But that doesn't stop me from going into an area outside that particular community to put up this particular sign that we are missing somewhere on the street. I do that right now and have been doing that, and I will continue to do that. I have mentioned many times that on a call if you don't have a sign on your street at this table, to please contact me and I will put that up immediately.

But we intended to do it on a community by community basis. And I would have liked to have followed by streetlighting program and then put the streetlights up, the new signs up, and got out of the community and went all the way around.

But the way the contract reads, we hope to have the whole thing done within a year. So every sign in the City of Pittsburgh should be up within a year.

Mr. Wagner:

I would just like to throw out an idea, and I am glad Director Cannon and I believe Mr. DiNardo are here so they hear this. I can see your philosophy of contract neighborhood by neighborhood putting the signs up. But if Public Safety has certain streets that are not identified, I would like you with your people in-house to put the signs up, and I would like Director Cannon, through his staff, to let you know what streets are a greater priority, because they don't have any signs on them today.

One additional item. The contract, we are going to go out to bid $1,790,000.00. Is that going to be for one contract or is that going to be broken up into different types of contracts?

Mr. Gaetano:

If you have seen the proposal, it is one contract but it is broken up three different ways. Three different ways meaning that I could have a contractor come in and actually make the sign and put it up. The second way is I could have a person just make the signs and give them to me and I will put them up. Or the third way is I could purchase just the materials and then I put them up and make the sign. So the contract is broken up into three different aspects that gives me a tremendous amount of flexibility.

---

Mr. Wagner:

You know what my concern was on the other bill that I felt was somewhat related here. I have found out since then that the company that does this illumination type work, 3M, they will deal with any company.

Mr. Gaetano:

Any, right.

Mr. Wagner:

So whoever is out there listening to this discussion, whatever company could be involved in the bidding process, I would like them to be involved in the bidding process, because the more competitive, the greater potential the contract will cost less. And so I wanted to bring that point out, that other companies -- if this is a 3M material and that is the only company that makes this material here, other companies can deal with 3M to be part of the construction of these individual signs. Is that accurate?

Mr. Gaetano:

Absolutely. I talked with them, too, afterwards.

(END OF REMARKS)

(TRANSCRIBED BY HELEN L. KRIEBEL)

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think Mr. Wagner is on target. I think we have to go ahead with this bill, but I've asked Mr. Perry to search and find a bill I introduced about three or four years ago, before Mr. Flaherty's bill where we requested that we have the jobs here in the City and the Boston issue came up and we were told that legally we couldn't do it. Subsequently, Mr. Pellegrini came to this Council and said he couldn't give us an answer because it was in litigation, it had not been resolved, it had gone to a higher court.

I think it would be incumbent upon us to have a letter go immediately to Mr. Pellegrini to ask the status today of the Boston ruling and whether Boston can indeed hire its own people. And then we can introduce legislation similar to that. Would you get that, Mr. Perry, please?

Mr. Lyons:

The bill is necessary to be passed today and I'd like to see it passed because in the past life has been lost because of unmarked streets. However, I think that we should, at the same time, ask Mr. Gaetano to exhaust every effort to do as much, if possible, of these signs in-house. You're speaking of $1.5 million of people that need money who are residents of the City of Pittsburgh.

While the amendment may have been out of order, but it's purpose to me was in order because I think that the people in Pittsburgh and the residents of the City of Pittsburgh should be considered in doing this work. This is only on Bill No. 632. And I certainly think that Mr. Gaetano should be further urged to use in-house and if possible temporary workers.

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of Order, Mr. Chairman. I'm opposed to recommittal but I do believe that a recommittal motion is in order.

The Chair:

I didn't say it wasn't in order; I said if the recommittal motion was for the purpose of amending this, then it was out of order because you couldn't amend it come Wednesday.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I would make a motion to recommit but I don't think it would pass so I'll save my breath.

Michelle Madoff:

Try it.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'll just say in closing that I think this Council lackschutzpah.

Also,

Bill No. 633

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution further amending Resolution No. 1094, effective January 1, 1988 as amended, entitled: 'Resolution adopting and approving the 1988 Capital Budget and the 1988 Community Development Block Grant Program; and approving the 1988 through 1993 Capital Improvement Program,' by increasing a line item and by adjusting the Summary Totals."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

AYES 6 NOES 1

(MR. FERLO VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 681

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh to expend $40,000.00 of Neighborhood Development Program Funds for a contract with the Hill District Community Development Corporation."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 682

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 549, effective July 13, 1987, entitled: 'Authorizing the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh to submit an application for financial assistance in the amount of $1,000,000.00 to the Pennsylvania Department of Community Affairs for the Neighborhood Housing Program' to include provisions concerning prevention and elimination of blight."

Which was read.

Bill No. 683

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 542, effective July 13, 1987, entitled: 'Authorizing the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh to submit an application for financial assistance in the amount of $450,000.00 to the Pennsylvania Department of Community Affairs for the 1987 Urban Homesteading Program' to include provisions concerning prevention and elimination of blight."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, in regard to this bill, this is the changes in the various codes, we have all received a letter from Mr. Paul Imhoff, Chief of Building Inspection. There is concern on this Council, I believe, to amend portions of this bill. As of this date, there has not been a written amendment put in front of us so, therefore, I recommend we put the bill back in Committee for one more week.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Bill No. 825

Report of the Committee on Engineering and Construction for May 18, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts for Construction of Phase 4.03, Tropical Forest Complex Exhibitry at the Pittsburgh Zoo; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm going to abstain so I can explain my vote. Again, we are voting for $2,625,000 for the Forest Complex at the Zoo. Again, it's another expenditure for City residents and the debt service. We're talking about $2.5 million. I think the total dollars out of the Pittsburgh operating budget I believe arrived today at about $19 million. Again, this is a facility that is used three-quarters by non-City residents and I think, again, that the Zoo should be given to the County.

Also,

Bill No. 671

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts for the Demolition of the Rankin Avenue Pedestrian Bridge; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to ask that Bill No. 671 be recommitted. I have some concerns about $55,000 for a demolition job for the pedestrian bridge. I would like to check on the validity of the number. I have some sources, engineers, who could tell me if that's reasonable in light of the fact that we've seen some newspaper reports and some problems with demolition jobs. I'd like to hold it one week.

The Chair:

Is there a second?

Mr. Ferlo:

On which bill?

Michelle Madoff:

Bill 671. It's $55,000 for the demolition of the Rankin Avenue pedestrian bridge. It may be reasonable; it may not. I need a week to find out.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'm sorry. I couldn't understand why you would want to hold it.

Michelle Madoff:

It's a question of the price. You're concerned about a million something for the other bill; we have overruns on contracts all the time. I want to know if that's a reasonable cost. I have not had a chance to check it.

The Chair:

Hearing no second, the motion dies.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 671 I will abstain. I have some concerns about $55,000 for a demolition when I have seen some real problems in demolition costs for the City and I need to have that checked out and when I do I'll report back.

Which was read.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

The Chair:

I would like to say something. In what I feel is in the interest of harmony on Council, I'm going to make a number of Committee changes. I'm not going to elaborate, I'm just going to make the changes, and I think everybody knows why. I would like Council to get along better; I think there's been a lot of friction lately, not only with Councilmembers but some staff with Councilmembers. I think that has to change so I'm going to make the following changes:

I'm appointing Mr. Wagner to the Finance Committee; Public Safety, Mr. DePasquale; Public Works, Mr. Ferlo; Engineering and Construction, Mr. Coyne; General Services, Mr. Pollock; and I will take Parks and Recreation.

---

They are the new changes and the new committees and I hope we can all, for the next 18 months, work together.

Mr. Wagner:

I move to adjourn this meeting and meet again next Tuesday, May 31, 1988 at 2:00 p.m.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

And on the motion of Mr. Wagner

Council adjourned.

Wednesday, May 25, 1988
Pittsburgh, PA

Mr. Woods:

If I may, I would like to make a motion that at Monday's meeting, we forgot to make a motion to excuse the absent member, who was Mr. Pollock. I would like to do that now.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Ferlo presents

No. 858 WHEREAS, the Pennsylvania Alliance for Jobs and Energy (PAJE) is a ten year old Pittsburgh based non-profit organization made up of consumers working for fair, prudent social and economic policies which strengthen the local economy and benefit area consumers; and

WHEREAS, the Public Utility Commission granted Duquesne Light Company a 41% increase in electric rates totaling more than $232 million dollars; and

WHEREAS, PAJE, the Pennsylvania Office of Consumer Advocate, the City of Pittsburgh, and numerous other intervenors petitioned to deny this rate hike on the grounds of excess capacity; and

WHEREAS, the Public Utility Commission did not consider Duquesne Light Company's generating capacity as excessive; and

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh, Office of Consumer Advocate and others petitioned for re-consideration of this case and the PUC voted 2-2 ending in a deadlock; and

WHEREAS, re-consideration could result in $60 to $70 million in consumer savings; and

WHEREAS, Joseph Rhodes was recently confirmed as a Public Utility Commissioner and represents the deciding vote to re-consider this damaging ruling.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh formally calls upon Commissioner Rhodes to vote for re-consideration of this case and that he do everything in his power to uphold the intent of the Public Utility Code; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Council requests Commissioner Rhodes and the PUC to conduct a public input hearing here in Pittsburgh on the rate request.

Mr. Ferlo moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Mr. Ferlo, I think your intent is very honorable and you know I support what you're trying to accomplish. But you start off with a resolution to the Pennsylvania Alliance for Jobs and Energy and you end it with a request to Mr. Joe Rhodes. Which is it? I think you have two resolutions run together.

Mr. Ferlo:

I think I'm recognizing PAJE as a consumer organization that's helping —

Michelle Madoff:

Well you need to do that in a separate resolution. I'm making the point. Do you understand?

Mr. Ferlo:

No I don't understand.

Michelle Madoff:

I'll try again. Try. Concentrate. If you wish to recognize PAJE and honor them, then do so in a resolution. But your basis of everything else in your resolution is to ask Joe Rhodes, the new Commissioner, to reconsider or to move quickly and expeditiously to break the deadlock because you're right, it could save us a great deal of money. You have two resolutions in one; you don't complete the first one and you're off into the second.

May I suggest that we honor PAJE separately; I would be very happy to do that. And that we then take up the issue of asking Mr. Rhodes. I think you've run apples together with oranges.

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you, Michelle, for confusing the resolution. But to stand corrected, the resolution is pointing out briefly what PAJE is as an organization. The basis for the resolution, obviously, is calling on Commissioner Rhodes to join in a reconsideration of the 7-2 deadlock that the PUC took. That's the essence of the resolution.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Ferlo:

A very brief comment from Chris Bathurst from the Pennsylvania Alliance for Jobs and Energy, who is not confused about the resolution.

Michelle Madoff:

He will be when I ask him a question.

Mr. Ferlo:

I doubt it, Michelle.

Mr. Bathurst:

Thank you, members of Council. Thank you, Jim Ferlo, for helping us to pass this.

I don't want to take up a lot of your time but certainly this is a tool that we and other consumer groups can now use as leverage to get Mr. Rhodes to reconsider the Duquesne Light increase. We are certainly acting in hoping that we can get that reconsidered. We have done that in the past and we intend to do it this time.

This will also send a clear message to the citizens of the Pittsburgh area, those who pay Duquesne Light bills and that rate base that clearly the representatives in City Council are with on their consumer side and we will use this to obviously show the ratepayers that they do have some representation and that we will use this as a tool, obviously, with Mr. Rhodes to deliver a clear message that we want the hearing to be opened up again.

I have no other messages. Thank you for your time.

Michelle Madoff:

Did you call Mr. Joe Rhodes and ask him whether he would be willing to do this, or have you been in contact with him?

Mr. Bathurst:

We have been in contact with him but the degree of what that contact is about this specific case, I'm not knowledgeable.

Michelle Madoff:

Joe has been an old friend of mine for years and I have a gut feeling that I don't think you're going to have any problems and I think it would have been appropriate to discuss it with him first of all before we put the pressure to his feet.

The Chair:

Thank you very much.

Mr. DePasquale for Mr. Coyne presented

No. 828 Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts to remove fire damage and make repairs to the Leslie Bathhouse at a cost not to exceed $200,000.00, chargeable to and payable from Code Account EC 88-47.

(AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 720, Mr. President, Mr. Perry came to my office just before we came into session for an interim approval. My question was, why were we signing an interim approval when we were going in to vote on the bill for final vote within a half hour?

The bill does not specify what Mr. Perry told me. And to reiterate what he said, correct me if I'm wrong, Mr. Perry, this is for bonuses to the paramedic people and the only way the money could be available, and it's negotiated bonuses under contract, was to transfer dollars.

Why would we have an interim approval a half hour before we go in to work on the bill? Could someone explain that to me?

Mr. Perry:

They were supposed to get their checks today, Michelle, and the only way they could get their checks is if Council had given them an interim approval, which they did receive.

Michelle Madoff:

What did I ask you in my office?

Mr. Perry:

Why were they so late in submitting it? I said, you're going to have to ask the budget staff on that. The Mayor's Budget Office.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to know that because the negotiations were how long ago, Mr. Perry? I mean, I don't think it's fair to this Council to have something put in front of us and say, here it is, sign an interim approval and you're going to vote final vote within a half hour, when nobody has had any information. And I concur with my colleague; we need more information, Mr. Ferlo. It says, making certain additions and corrections. What are they? To take some dancing girls over to have a Turkish dinner in Viehna? I don't know. What is it for?

The Chair:

Mike, fire a letter off to the budget staff, the Administration budget staff, as to why it took so long.

Michelle Madoff:

And if we don't vote on it today, they don't get paid. And one of the services you get, ladies and gentlemen, when you're elected to Council is that we are offered as scapegoats. We don't know whether we should be voting for this, but if we don't, the paramedics won't get their bonuses. Would it be terrible if they got their bonuses next week?

The Chair:

They're going to get them now because we signed the interim approval. We already discussed this legislation at Wednesday's meeting.

Your questions was why did they need an interim approval and I think Mr. Perry explained that, that they were supposed to receive their checks today.

But we talked about this last Wednesday, we discussed it, it's up for final action. I think what we need an explanation on is the interim approval and, Mr. Perry, you will see to it that we get that. Correct?

Mr. Perry:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

May I continue? The point that I'm making is that all of us have had problems, Mr. Wagner, Mr. Ferlo, myself, members of Council, yourself. We ask departments for information and we don't get it for weeks on end. I've been trying to get some information from Construction and Engineering on the covers. I've requested material and I get gobbledygook. Now I'm going to go and sit outside the office and they want a written note authorizing them to give me the material. If I don't put it in writing, I can't get it. It's delaying tactics.

I'm sure this is strictly on the up and up but I'd like to know what took so long. Was there a danger of the paramedics not getting their money in time so we would be blamed for it? Were we being set up? I don't know.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I didn't raise this for debate during Committee but if you're going to send a letter, I think we should also make note of the fact that the only group of workers that continues to not have a signed contract are the group of Environmental Service Refuse Workers, for reasons unbeknown to me, and I didn't want to get into a raging debate with Mr. Schneider who I don't have much faith in as an individual administrator. But since we are sending letters off to the Administration and we have already approved it, I didn't want to delay the process of the budget but I would still like some explanation as to why the Administration can't negotiate a fair contract with this group of City workers. It makes no sense to me.

Michelle Madoff:

And timely.

Also,

Bill No. 721

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending and supplementing Resolution No. 1093, of 1987, effective January 1, 1988 as amended entitled: 'Resolution fixing the number of officers and employees of the City of Pittsburgh and the rate of compensation thereof, and setting minimum levels for designated positions,' by making certain additions and corrections." (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, in accordance with Section 322 of the Home Rule Charter, and the urgency of a couple of those bills, publication effective date of legislation, I move that the effective date of Bills No. 720 and 721 shall be the date on which it is signed by the Mayor.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

Bill No. 722

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 140, effective March 16, 1988, entitled: 'Providing for a Contract or Contracts or to use existing Contracts for the furnishing, delivery and installation of Office Equipment for the Department of Personnel and Civil Service Commission and providing for the cost thereof,' by increasing the amount of Resolution No.

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

On Bill 729 on the transfer of $32,371, I'd like my comments brought forward from the Committee session.

I'm voting no on this legislation basically because I did not get a clear understanding from Director DiNardo as to what these monies were actually being spent for. And I think in the future when there are these transfers, we should have a specific listing from the Department Director on what the expenditure is for. So, on principle, I'm voting no.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

---

(MR. FERLO'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 729, WEDNESDAY, 5/25/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. DiNardo, am I correct in assuming that this reappropriation has to do with the purchase of the uniforms?

Mr. DiNardo:

No, sir. This has nothing to do with that.

Mr. Ferlo:

Does it have anything to do with the new badges, the Public Safety badges?

Mr. DiNardo:

No.

Mr. Ferlo:

What does it have to do with?

Mr. DiNardo:

The $32,371.00 transfer deals with the processing of trip sheets from the Bureau of EMS. The 46 hundred -- actually the EMS transfer for uniforms deals with changes from the uniform allowance account to the uniform purchase account for various needs that the EMS Bureau has.

The Police Bureau transfer deals with boots for the boot program. They deal with an allotment for books and periodicals and various other items, keys and locks repair, but none of them deal with the uniforms.

Mr. Ferlo:

So, if I vote for this, this has nothing to do with the uniforms which I do not support. And I do not support the badge. I see nothing wrong with calling a police officer, police; a fire, a fire; and the EMS --

Mr. DiNardo:

They are still called that.

---

Mr. Ferlo:

Aren't you changing the badges so they are all public safety?

Mr. DiNardo:

One patch on each shoulder. One is a police patch, the other is a Public Safety Department patch.

Mr. Ferlo:

Right. So we are going to spend money making a public safety patch.

Mr. DiNardo:

It's already been spent. It was spent in 1987.

Mr. Ferlo:

So, I'm not voting to support that in this appropriation?

Mr. DiNardo:

No, you are not.

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you.

Bill No. 735

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution granting unto Dr. Shirley Y. Hill, 1739 Beechwood Boulevard, her successors and assigns, the privilege and license to construct, maintain and use, at her own cost and expense, a fence on a portion of the right-of-way of Forbes Avenue in the 14th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh."

Bill No. 738

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution granting unto Mr. Edward Feth of 1721 Marcus Way, his successors and assigns, the privilege and license to construct, maintain and use, at his own cost and expense, a parking area on a portion of the unimproved right-of-way of Marcus Way in the 17th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 739

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing and directing the Mayor and the Director of the Department of Public Works, for and on behalf of the City of Pittsburgh, to act as the sponsor for the stream improvements of the Wyman Run Tributary in the 32nd Ward of the City of Pittsburgh by the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Resources."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 740

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts, or the use of existing Contracts, for the purchase of Litter Receptacles, and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Briefly, Mr. Chairman, on Bill No. 740 on the expenditure of $25,000 for trash litter receptacles, my basic problem and concern that I expressed at the Committee Meeting is that this amount of money, unfortunately, is too small an amount of money. From the discussion we gathered from the Director, this $25,000 really is just being used to replace some of the receptacles that are already there but are in disrepair. It really does not address the broader issue which Michelle and others started to talk about at the Committee Meeting which is that there are many business corridors, especially throughout the City, where there are no trash receptacles on the corner. I would hope that the Administration before the end of the year would come back to this body for an appropriation for some new and additional cans and we also learned from the Director that he's contemplating the purchase of some type of new mechanical truck, mechanical device, that would make the picking up of these litter cans more easily done. He raised questions about staffing. I think these are all questions that I'm going to be looking at at the end of the year when we debate an approve various budgets for each one of the departments. So, I hope that before the end of the year, there will be another bill coming back to us for an increased amount of money for these trash receptacles which I think are needed in many more places throughout the City. Thank you.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President, I think Director Gaetano also pointed out that there would be public donations, and that's the reason he was saying he would stay with the $25,000 for now, because he didn't know what the public donations would be coming in to his department for trash cans.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Lyons is correct. We were to have a letter sent to Mary Beth Salley, I don't remember her new last name, but to ask her if she would please update us on what the Clean City Committee is doing with the hundreds of thousands of dollars that the City gives them, this Council votes, to see whether they're addressing this issue of litter cans because they are desperately needed at busy corners and highly trafficked areas and all business communities. You can walk for blocks and there just is no place to put litter and the cans are overflowing. That's why the City looks so dirty. It's a pigsty.

AYES 6 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 718

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with a Consultant or Consultants to provide computer consultant or consultants to provide computer consulting services related to the management of an existing R-base application for the management of the City's Permit Parking Program and development of new applications related to the Capital Budget."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Just very briefly, I would like to explain my vote on Bill 718. I'm voting no. This is on the expenditure of $20,000 for a consultant to provide computer consulting services. My basic problem is that this is probably the third or fourth contract since January 4th for the expenditure of consultants in relation to various types of computer applications and with all of the people in need of employment and a job in this City who are skilled and have expertise in the practical applications of computers, I don't know why we don't hire somebody on-board for the hundreds of thousands of dollars that this Council has approved. I'm totally opposed to this expenditure of $20,000 and come budget time I'm going to have to reassess the staffing in CIS.

Michelle Madoff:

On the issue of the computers, I think when we get into consultants and computers, we're getting into a different baliwick. I think, from my experience in dealing with programming, it is a highly technical skill, a very professional skill, and people seem to specialize like doctors do in blue eyes that are right, or in left toenails. You've got very high — There are specialists that deal in various phases of computers and I think that's why we go out on consultants. That's one area that I don't get quite so upset and I don't think we could have somebody in-house who would be knowledgeable enough in all the facets of computer programming and it's basically for computer programming and designing. So, in that area, I do not agree with Mr. Ferlo.

Mr. Ferlo:

As a brief response, on the consultant for computer I beg to differ with my colleague, Michelle. This is not some complicated area. If the legislation reads correctly, and it was explained to us, consultant to provide computer consulting services related to the management of an existing R-base application for the management of the City's permit parking program.

I'm not a whiz in computers but the brief time that I spent at CMU, there are half a dozen of undergraduate folks who come out of the University that have the expertise on R-base. This is not an overwhelmingly complicated system and, again, I would argue that putting on board the competent people can do this, would could have saved the money that we needed for the Mayor's Information Center that we also approved consultant fees on.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

| Mr. Lyons       | Mr. Woods        |
| Michelle Madoff | (Pres't Pro tem) |

AYES 5                      NOES 1

(MR. FERLO VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 684

A. Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Cooperation Agreement or Agreements with the Urban Redevelopment Authority to provide authorization for the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh to act as an agent of the City of Pittsburgh in matters of property acquisition and relocation of street rights of way in connection with the reconstruction of Grant Street/Liberty Avenue, Phase III, Liberty - 10th Street - 6th Avenue; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

On Bill No. 684, again I'd ask Council to reconsider this. This is on allowing the Urban Redevelopment Authority to proceed and basically take over a piece of property on Liberty Avenue, the White Tower property, I think now it's the Hot Diggity Dog. The problem that I have with this piece of property, as I pointed out in the Committee Meeting, is that we will lose about $33,000 in taxes regardless of whether or not the business is currently operating. The property is valued, lands and buildings, at about $600,000; the legislation here only approves some $330,000. Again, there's a substantial amount in the difference here in the amount of money to acquire that property.

There has been no safety report given to Council as to why it is so necessary to realign the corner of 10th Street and Liberty and that intersection. It may be that that's the case, but I don't believe it is. I don't know that there's been a significant number of traffic accidents and problems relative to pedestrian or vehicular safety at that intersection. There is no federal requirement or state mandate that this roadway be done; that was not alluded to by the Department Director. And for all those reasons, I see no value in condemning someone's private property and losing tax base and all of the other increase costs of construction relocation to make this a more cosmetically appealing intersection.

For those reasons, I'm voting no on Bill 684 and I would like my comments brought forward from the Committee Meeting, Mr. Perry.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

---

(MR. FERLO'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 684, WEDNESDAY, 5/25/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Yes, I believe we do have a choice. The reason I asked Mr. Lyons to hold this for a week is because I wanted to briefly discuss a couple of points.

First of all, from a purely clinical engineering point of view, someone who sits and designs things on paper and is void of other considerations, I think this Council should consider -- I think it's the best thing to do, from a purely engineering -- someone sitting there playing at the table, what would the most ideal situation be for this intersection, I would agree with the Director that this should be done.

However, I have two concerns. One is I disagree with the safety consideration, and I would ask that before we approve this that we get a rundown as to what actual accidents have occurred. I would contend that there have not been significant safety problems in the existing intersection, and if there have been, I want the documentation of that.

Secondly, I have information from the Board of Assessment in our own Finance Department that suggests that the elimination of this property is going to mean a loss of 30 -- and I want get this figure right -- a loss of $32,723.00 in lost revenues to the City and to the School Board. So by eliminating this property, members of Council, we are giving up close to $33,000.00 a year, for God know how many years, of lost revenues to the City.

We have talked at length about the problems of tax exempt properties plaguing the City, but where we have taxable income property, why would we move to eliminate it purely for what I contend is an engineering design prerogative as opposed to any issue of safety or any federal requirement to complete Grant and Liberty. I don't see that as a prerequisite. My argument being very clearly, I think we are going to lose $33,000.00 a year unnecessarily, which I am opposed to.

Secondly, this property is valued, combined lands and building, and I can have a print out from the Deed Registry, at $604,000.00. Now assuming the owners of this property are within their senses, as I'm sure they are, I'm sure that for a building that is valued at $604,000.00, land and building, they are going to want more than the suggested figure of $330,000.00 that is being budgeted here.

---

So I don't even think what we are proposing here is even within the budgetary likelihood that that is going to be the amount of money that is going to be needed. I think it's going to be far in excess of that. And before us today are no figures relative to relocation cost. If we approve this, the City also incurs the responsibility for relocation costs of this property.

Mr. McDermott:

You said it was an engineering prerogative. It is not an engineering prerogative. There are design standards, as you are designing new roadways and intersections, to meet the Federal Highway Regulation, the highway design group that you apply, and to be continued to be eligible for funding, that is the criteria that we use. It's not a straight --

Mr. Ferlo:

What I was suggesting -- first of all, I think it's premature to approve this.

One, I think you should come to Council with a copy of the design, as I'm sure you already have it, and I think you should supply to Council some information about the issue of safety and see if that is an outstanding issue that we should consider in weighing this matter. But my debate here deals basically with the loss of 33 thousand plus in revenues to this City for something that does not seem to be of significance in terms of safety, and for that reason, I stand opposed to this resolution.

(END OF REMARKS)

PREPARED BY GLORIA J. BORS, STENOGRAPHIC REPORTER

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President, I think the Director, Mr. McDermott, pointed out well that -- I will agree with my colleague here that we will be losing a piece of property. However, he alluded to the fact that it would be a federal mandate that we align 10th Street, and not only that, 95 percent of the total cost would be paid for by the government. There's only 5 percent of it on the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Ferlo:

In response to Mr. Lyons on the bill, the Director very explicitly stated that there was no state or federal mandate, nor could he or would he produce any such memo or letter from the federal government to say that this had to be done. The Director stated that it does not have to be done but that it was, in his opinion as an engineer, that it seemed more desirable from a cosmetic point of view. There was no evidence of safety involved. So there's no federal mandate.

And I disagree with my colleague, Mr. Lyons, on the 95 percent reimbursement. That was not indicated by the Department Director. If that is the case, he did not state that and I'd like to restate that very clearly. We're going to be putting out a lot more money and, as well, losing tax dollars.

Discussion. I think Mr. Lyons has taken a very responsible position. He has taken the position that if, indeed, the J & L steel mill wishes to sell their scrap metal for a large -- As I understand it would be $6.5 million because scrap is at an all-time high and they want to move ahead expeditiously. He doesn't want to stand in their way. On the other hand, he feels as I do and, I believe, those of us who have studied the issue carefully, that the issue is not whether the buildings can maintain the weight of the structure. It is a matter of maintaining a shell to duplicate what other cities have done as tourist attractions to perpetuate the heritage of their communities. And certainly the heritage

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like some information on Bill 704. Mr. Ferlo, on Bill 704, this is the accounting, basically, financial records of the temporary move to the South Side where the police are presently being housed while the building is being renovated. Is that correct?

Mr. Ferlo:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

And the dollars that we're talking about here are $1.5 million. Where there any other dollars that you know of that are not mentioned here today in renovations and some repairs?

Mr. Ferlo:

Not to my knowledge. We've already expended $75,000 in additional expenses which I voted against.

Michelle Madoff:

What I'm looking for is the total cost of redoing the building. I think it's appropriate at this time to say that I personally think that we made a big boo-boo. I think at the time the Gulf Building was up for sale, we ought to have consolidated all the City and County offices in that building. We should have built a new Public Safety Building on the site where we are now. It will never be right; it will just be put together with spit and paste and Band Aids. We're being penny-wise and pound-foolish. We're already paying $1.6 million to house our police officers on a temporary basis.

Mr. Ferlo:

I agree.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 791, the rehabilitation and masonry painting of No. 5 Police and No. 8 Stations, were they consultants who had done this work or is this the actual work and was there a consultant involved and why was there a consultant involved?

The Chair:

It was the actual work.

Michelle Madoff:

Were there consultants on the job to begin with?

Mr. Lyons:

Not to my knowledge.

Michelle Madoff:

Because this is something that Mr. Wagner and I have opposed. I don't know why we need a consultant to tell us what we need to do about a roof or painting a building. Certainly that can be done in-house. And now we're going to an additional $7,000 --

The Chair:

But that's way past, Ms. Madoff. Now we're on the actual work.

Michelle Madoff:

But I'm making the point again that with the financial plight of this City, Mr.

Woods, we just can't keep giving money away.

The Chair:

You're not giving it away at this point; you're paying for a service.

Michelle Madoff:

We're going $40,000 to $87,000. That's a $47,000 increase and I'd like to know why the consultant didn't pick that up.

The Chair:

I have no idea, Ms. Madoff.

Michelle Madoff:

Do you think we should vote without knowing?

The Chair:

No, I think you should have been here when we discussed this bill on Wednesday and you could have asked the person who is in charge of it.

Michelle Madoff:

I wish I could have been here too.

Again I point out that Bill 791 is going from $40,000 to $87,000; that's a $47,000 increase. I don't know how a consultant could have missed it or whether it's a decision by Construction and Engineering to go ahead and do some additional work while they're there which is just the old show game. This has got to stop. We cannot have Council voting on a Wednesday discussing it and then adding on $47,000 without knowing up front when we're hiring consultants.

I move to recommit Bill No. 791.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of Order. If this bill was defeated today, when can it come up again?

The Chair:

In 1990.

Michelle Madoff:

Question on recommitment. My purpose of asking this to be recommitment is that I believe this work could be turned over - we could find out, for example, whether we had a consultant and try to do away with it.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Also,

Bill No. 792

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 112, effective March 8, 1988, entitled: 'Providing for a Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts, for the P.J. McArdle Roadway Sidewalk Rehabilitation; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by increasing the total project allocation by $11,000.00 from $225,000.00 to $236,000.00."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 792, I'm concerned that in both cases, 791 and 792, we don't need any consultants. I believe that Public Works could go in and do the sidewalks.

I want to remind everybody that I fought the battle, not very well, I might add, because I don't have the authority to make the changes. McArdle Roadway has been shut down either entirely or one way, it was shut down for seven years. And in the nonsense that was perpetuated was that we brought it in a month ahead of schedule and $100,000 under budget. What a joke. Then we tore up the street to put in a sewer line and a water line. The street looks like it's had 17 tractors go over it and have accidents; it hasn't been repaved.

I read in the paper this weekend where some corporation here to do business, wants to expand their business here, and the first thing they did was take those people up to Mount Washington, up McArdle Roadway. Well, that certainly isn't a sight for sore eyes going up, seeing the walls destroyed, the fences that are lining the new bridge and the McArdle Roadway which is in terrible deterioration.

Now we find out we're going to go to sidewalks. My question, and we better all ask ourselves this question, we better ask General Services, if we're going to redo the sidewalks, question one, could the sidewalks be done by Public Works who has done them before and who gave me a paper showing a design how they've always done sidewalks, that they don't need a consultant, number one. Could they do the work, number two. And number three, which is very important, we start to do sidewalks on McArdle, what are we going to do about the wall that's caving in and chipping away? Are we going to repair that at the same time? Are we going to put up new fences? Are we going to change the electrical work? Are we going to change the sewer system which is the catch basins which are causing water to drain onto the Roadway which freezes and we've had several accidents with people being unconscious in their automobiles? How many more years will that area have the impact of not having the job done all at one time? Again, it's a piecemeal approach.

May I respectfully ask the City Clerk to please write a letter to Mr. McDermott and ask him what impact the repaving of the sidewalks will have in relationship to the electrical, the sewer, the fences, the retaining wall, and whether they will have to shut down either part or all of McArdle to do the work, when it will be scheduled to be done and when will the rest of the work that I've just outlined be done and will they have to shut down at that time? I mean, this is just — I just don't have words to explain how irresponsible this kind of management is. I don't know how you would have somebody come and paint your house and paint one room and go away for a year and come back and hammer something up in another room. This is a disgrace.

Mr. Ferlo:

Originally when this bill came up a couple of months ago I voted no on the appropriation, Bill 792, the allocation of $225,000 for the sidewalk. At that time, and this last week in the Committee session, I expressed my concern about the fact that this should and could be done in-house and like the previous bill prior to this, the fire station, it's unfortunate that we in the City have yet to put together some type of Public Works infrastructure work force that could hire people directly from the union hall, if need be, to do these kinds of jobs, sidewalks, roof repair, painting, instead of hiring consultants and going out on bid. We could save a lot of money and actually get more sidewalks put in, more walls retained, and more Public Works kinds of activities around the City.

So, again, I am voting no on this bill, 792, that calls for an increased expenditure of $11,000 for a total of $236,000. I would think I could go down to the union hall and get some finishers and probably put the sidewalk in for $50,000 or $60,000. So, I'm clearly voting no and I'm concerned about these projects that keep getting bid out when there's the possibility to do them in-house. I hope Michelle will vote no on this bill and that it dies right here, unless, Mr. Chairman, it finally dawns on him that he does not have the votes to pass this legislation and make a motion to hold this since the City Clerk has gotten up and risen to the occasion as he has so many times in the past.

The Chair:

I would just like to remind Council, if you do vote this down, these sidewalks will not be repaired for two years, before this legislation can come back up.

Michelle Madoff:

Why?

The Chair:

Because you have to wait until we reorganize in 1990.

Michelle Madoff:

Then hold the bill for a week.

The Chair:

Michelle, let me speak, please. I listened to you. If you vote this bill down, just remember that it's down until 1990, January 1st.

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of Order, Mr. Chairman. I'm in favor of recommitting the bill, fearing it's going to be voted down, with the exception — I want to be sure. We're talking about and increase $11,000; from $225,000 to $236,000. We've already approved the $225,000; correct?

The Chair:

Right.

Mr. DePasquale:

So, in effect, we're talking about the $11,000 increase we're voting down here now.

The Chair:

Right. Or recommitting. Did you make a motion to recommit?

Mr. DePasquale:

I'll make a motion to recommit.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which was read.

Mr. DePasquale moved to approve the reappointments.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

On another matter, Mr. Woods. On a holiday weekend it's very hard to get hold of people. I happened to be home this weekend doing some work, some business for the City, and I got a phone call with reference to the police and paramedics, etc., not having their radios. The reason I was called was, I serve on the Leasing Authority. I confess I was not at the last meeting of the Leasing Authority but the radios were not discussed. It was not a subject that came up. The subject that was discussed was the awarding of the bond and, as you know, the bond was awarded not based on necessarily the lowest fee but because it would save the City more money in percentages on the bond. I don't want to get sidetracked over that but I did do my homework and I did find out what happened at that meeting. The radios were not brought up.

But I must tell this Council that on four different occasions, one where the police responded to a call where I was present. The police officers have repeatedly told me that their radios don't work. You may recall that last Wednesday I made a plea, I asked at the table about getting the radios. It was sort of brushed aside but it was in the works, that that was not the subject matter and not the merchandise of purchasing that was going on.

The police tell me that not only do they not have their radios, but they don't have the charging machines to recharge the radios. And they also informed me that they are terrified, and their wives are afraid, that if they have to go on a call, we don't have enough police officers to give them back-up. They don't even have radios that work.

Now, that is inexcusable. This Council, others on this Council, have called for radios for a very long time. My understanding is that they did go out on bid and there were several bidders but one was G.E. that was prepared to supply a 48 channel radio. Incidentally, G.E.'s radios are made in Japan. And Motorola was supplying 12 line radios. However, under the Leasing Authority regulations, if somebody comes up with state of the art, they have the right to match or, if it's a lower bid, receive the bid. And it was decided by the Leasing Authority or by the Administration, and I have no problem with this, that they should go out and rebid because, at this point, Motorola says, "We'll give you 48 channels as well for the same price."

The thing that bothers me is that it took them so long to get to that point because it wasn't put on a priority, it wasn't a Wallace Act, it wasn't an emergency. But it's an emergency with me and it's an emergency with the wives and it's an emergency with the police. It took three weeks to open the bids and after the bids were open, it was decided to go out for rebid again. Why it took three weeks, I do not know.

As we speak there is a meeting going on with the Administration. I have asked Dawn Botsford to please relay the message to Mr. Jacoby that I believe this is a priority. We do not have the authority to invoke the Wallace Act but I would like to see those bids out and back and a decision made in a week, not wait two and a half more weeks to open the bids and then decide what's going to happen and wait until they deliver three or four months from now. You've got to go out and buy the 48 channel radios wherever you can get them and you've got to get some now, and we've got to get some machines that can at least charge the existing radios, a battery charger; we don't even have those. It's a very sad situation when Councilmembers have to, first of all, learn it from the media. And secondly, we have been pleading for radios all along and were given to understand that that was in the works.

Perhaps Mr. Wagner can add something to that because it was his committee and I'm sure he has the same concern. Now it's a financial matter and he'll look into paying for it; that's not an issue. It's out of the Leasing Authority; the money is there. But the urgency was not there and I would like to have a letter go from this Council, and I make it in the form of a motion, that we move post haste to supply the 48 channel, or whatever radios are necessary to protect our police, our paramedics, immediately. I don't care where you get them, I don't care what they cost, because if one officer is killed because he can't contact someone to give him back-up help, there is no excuse. Any price will not justify that. And there was an incident with the paramedics, which you may have read, where they tried three radios and couldn't get through to a physician to save somebody's life and what they had to do was go to somebody's phone and call a doctor.

Now, how do we sit here being scapegoats for this kind of nonsense? This cannot be allowed to continue.

May I have your support in writing a letter to urge that the Leasing Authority move immediately to award a contract, sit down with everybody and if you have to divide the contract, I don't care how you do it, I don't care what mechanism, but in a week those officers and paramedics must have their radios.

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of Order, Mr. Chairman. I believe the former Chairman of Public Safety, now the Finance Chairman, Mr. Wagner, has a resolution that will make the letter moot.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I'd like to request from the City Clerk that a post agenda be set up tomorrow afternoon at 2:00 p.m. to act as a fact-finding post agenda on this same issue. And I'd like to request that the Director of General Services, Dawn Botsford, attend. Also, the Solicitor of the Leasing Authority and, my colleague may be able to help me out here, but I believe his name is Mr. Tim Slavish.

Michelle Madoff:

No, we don't really have an attorney for the Leasing Authority; it's a corporation and I've just forgotten their name. They send a number of attorneys.

Mr. Wagner:

Well, whoever that solicitor that's representing them that's available tomorrow. Mr. Jack Wilson in charge of the radios and the overall coordinating of radios, Mr. Jacoby, if he's available, and also the people from Public Safety that work, I guess, the most with the radios which would be Mr. Martarano in charge of communications, Mr. DiNardo in charge of administration, and Director Cannon.

I would like to just add one final note. I'd like to request something somewhat different from my colleague, that the Administration put on hold the rebidding process of these radios until this fact-finding post agenda is over and the issue is discussed publicly, I believe, as it should be discussed. It has not been discussed within the Leasing Authority or at this Council; therefore, it has not been discussed in the public arena. To rebid the radios, I understand what your motion is to get things moving again, but the problem is rebidding will require several months and people in Public Safety probably would not have these radios. I understand the contract indicates 180 days for delivery which means that that's another six months in addition to the two or three months to rebid. They would not have these radios until 1999 if we go through the rebidding process.

I think we should air out the present bids and I would like to request that the Administration put on hold the rebidding process due to the urgency of us needing radios that work and are quality out in the field.

The Chair:

Mr. DePasquale, do you have anything to add to that, since you're the Chairman of Public Safety?

Mr. DePasquale:

No.

Mr. Ferlo:

Certainly I would support a post agenda but, quite frankly, Mr. Chairman, the issue of the radios is just one of several issues that I think have come up over the last few months in relation to Public Safety. And there's the issue of the 911 system and problems with it; currently there's a state investigation. We have the problem with the overtime both with the paramedics as well as the overtime of what I call are like air traffic controllers; the people that do the 911 dispatching are working 12 hour shifts, seven days a week. There's the issue of the park safety utilization of personnel in relation to the problem that Mr. Wagner has addressed earlier. We've had a renewed sense of commitment from the Administration on the issue of on-street drug trafficking. By all means, I support the post agenda on the radios but I think it's time for City Council to entertain some type of a post agenda and dialogue with the administration of Public Safety on these other issues as well. I will not confuse the situation for this one but I would like to see that dialogue happen. We can't have that interaction because of the way our committee sessions are structured on Wednesday but it's about time Council started providing some oversight on what the heck is going on in Public Safety.

The Chair:

Can I suggest this, Mr. Ferlo? Tomorrow we discuss the radios and then the following Wednesday bring up all the other issues that you brought up and bring the same parties back.

Mr. Ferlo:

I would appreciate it if Mr. DePasquale has no objection to that.

Michelle Madoff:

Same subject. My only concern about the post agenda, and of course I support the post agenda, I think we're all thinking on the same lines, we're all alarmed and I noticed that you had been contacted as well in the newspapers. What we're going to learn tomorrow is not more than what I've told you, a repeat that they went out for bid, they opened them late, they took three months to rebid them, they're going to be back again in two and a half weeks, I believe, the bids will be two and a half weeks. So, the delay of whatever delivery time that Mr. Wagner stated would only be a two and a half week delay.

My feeling is that the whole thing is totally unacceptable. I think we need a letter from this body in case someone is not at the post agenda tomorrow that says I don't care how you get the radios, get them. It is not acceptable for one second to me to say well, we'll go out and bid them and then in 180 days, 2-1/2 weeks, 6 months, they'll have radios. I don't care where you get them. Even if they're on loan, even if it costs us extra dollars to rent them, some way, some how, our paramedics must have radios this week, now, and so must the police to protect their lives and the lives of, in the paramedics' case, the lives of the patients.

That's the point I'm making. Yes, we can get together and we can have a post agenda, but I don't think its acceptable to say let's delay until we know what we're talking about. Radios we can't delay. If a car was bearing down on your child, would you want a post agenda or would you go out to try and save your child?

The Chair:

The letter is not going to get there any faster than tomorrow at 2:00. So, we'd be telling these same people that we're going to send a letter to and I have nothing against that. But why don't we just wait and tell them in person; here's what we want, do it now. Why did you fail us? Why did you fail this City? Give us an explanation but here's what we want; do it now.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Woods, that would sound logical but this Council and this City doesn't always function logically. Can I ask you if you plan to stay for the post agenda tomorrow?

The Chair:

No you can't ask me.

Michelle Madoff:

Frankly, I don't think you'll be here. You very frequently are not.

The Chair:

What does that have to do with it?

Michelle Madoff:

Because there will be two of us and I think that —

The Chair:

Mr. DePasquale is Chairman of Public Safety and he'll be chairing that post agenda.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm making the point, if you'll indulge me a moment —

The Chair:

No, don't make the point with me, Ms. Madoff.

Michelle Madoff:

Why can't we have a letter than could be the intent of this entire Council by majority to get the radios?

The Chair:

Do you want to send a letter? Make a motion.

Michelle Madoff:

I make the motion that we have that letter.

The Chair:

Is the a second to the motion? It dies for lack of a second.

Is there any other subject to discuss?

Michelle Madoff:

Thank God the public is watching this.

Mr. Ferlo:

Two brief points. One, I'd like to make a motion to televise the public hearing on Tuesday, June 7th, in relation to the hunger issue.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo:

Secondly, very quickly, Mr. Chairman, I had the displeasure of attending a rally, picket line, community protest, whatever you want to call it, a few days ago in relation to the public housing community in the City of Pittsburgh. This was a protest on the part of parents, citizens, residents and children in the Terrace Village community. I notice Marion Clark in the audience also.

It seems as though there is a situation once again where my good friend, Director Pietragallo has basically created what I would best describe as tension and divisiveness in the community. For a number of months, if not years, a community based organization of voluntary effort, I believe referred to as the New Beginnings Youth Organization, at their own expense and volunteer labor power, created something good in the community. People working together rehabilitated a basement of one of the buildings in Terrace Village and I believe mostly after hours, after their work day, there was youth center activities. In addition, I think our previous Mayor contributed some equipment for the use by the young people at this facility.

As is typical with this Housing Authority Director who engages in petty politics and vindictiveness, he has taken out on one individual in the community who in the past has shown opposition to the previous issue of the demolition of Allequippa Street. So these individuals in this youth center were basically thrown out on the street; the door has been padlocked and just don't think that's a very good situation.

I would certainly be happy to respond to questions but what I would like to see, quite frankly, is a situation where people work together in the spirit of harmony in that community with the Housing Authority. There's no reason whatsoever why this community group, under the direction of Ms. Clark as well as Reverend Paul, couldn't entertain a lease and be able to continue to use the basement of this facility. As is typical of the Director, he puts one sector of the community pitted against the other; in this case, the tenants' council against the needs of the New Beginnings Youth Group.

So, I think we should publicly chastise the Director in relation to the divisiveness that I believe he has created in this community and I think in terms of having a resolution of this, I see no reason whatsoever why the New Beginnings Youth Group can't get a lease from the Housing Authority to continue the operation of their volunteer program.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President, I'm aware that there is a difference but you have to remember that that lease has been given to, and the lease holder now, is Allequippa tenants and not the New Beginnings. Now, Ms. Clark has come to me and I'm trying to work out the differences now between the adverse parties. But Ms. Clark and the New Beginnings -- There is no lease with them to the Housing Authority. I think Mr. Pietragallo has done a whale of a job. If there are any differences, I am going to mediate the whole problem and certainly I hope there would be forthcoming some condition that would be accepted by everyone and no one will feel the hurt nor will there be any vendettas felt among all the parties that are concerned. I know there is a difference and possibly, as I understand, Ms. Clark could have been accused for some things in the past that she has not done. These are the things that I'll straighten out with the Housing Authority.

Mr. Ferlo:

Is it my understanding that Mr. Lyons will report back to Council regarding this issue?

Mr. Lyons:

Let me say it this way. I'm trying to work for an effort that would be beneficial to the community, to the Housing Authority, and to bury any differences that there may be and everyone will be treated right. And I think it will come to Council.

The Chair:

I'd like to say something. I think that Mr. Pietragallo is one of the finest, if not the finest, directors in this City, that the City has ever had, and I do know him very well and he is a personal friend of mine. I think that anybody that has a problem with the direction that he takes the Housing Authority, we have an open meeting, everybody here knows that; you can get on the agenda and get up and speak and have your say.

I'm on the Housing Authority Board and I only read about this situation through the newspapers and through your demonstration. I don't know if Ms. Clark appeared before the Housing Authority Board. If she did, I apologize; I didn't see her. But that's where that should be discussed, right there, right at the Housing Authority meeting. And there is another meeting at the end of this month and I suggest, Mr. Ferlo, if you wish to come and voice your opinion, or anyone else, please get on the agenda and I'll make sure you're on the agenda and I'll make sure you have your say and we will listen to you, all the board members.

Michelle Madoff:

On another subject. The Post Gazette on Monday reported that planners, another consultant, advised on Shadyside parking problems. You may recall that we had scheduled a hearing before Council. I was asked to bring that up and we indeed did request a public hearing and one was scheduled. Shadyside Coalition asked me to cancel it because they felt they could sit down, as I did, with the Shadyside merchants. I met with all factions, the neighbors, SAC people, and the Shadyside Merchants Coalition. They wanted to work out their own problems so that what is happening wouldn't happen, and that is, not to air their problems in the media and try to work them out through arbitration and through some kind of mediation.

I think it's time that we found out what is going to happen. This City is losing people. You know the old saying, people are voting with their feet. So many people are leaving this City. We can't afford to lose businesses. We can't afford to have divisiveness in the City.

There are many problems in the Shadyside area. There's the impacting of the traffic on the residents. My understanding is that there was to be sticker parking for residents first. There was to be a waiving by the shopkeepers, the Shadyside merchants would waive their right to have X number of parking facilities for themselves so that they would have space for their customers; and we were to build some garage space which would not cost us anything because that space would be used over and over again and would be one of our better investments in parking facilities.

I don't know where the problem stands at this point but I don't think we can wait until we run into a problem where people just don't want to come in and shop in that area any more. We have too many areas that are being hit. Everywhere, not only Shadyside but everywhere, business is down. Population from '61 until now, that's 25 years, has gone from close to 700,000; in the next census it's expected to be 358,000. We're talking about building shopping mall down here.

We cannot afford not to intervene and to help a community reconcile its problems. And to that, I would like to ask Mr. Perry if he would please get a letter out to Mary Alice Lidle, Shadyside merchants, and the SAC people and to make sure that everybody, that the people who are impacted who live in the community and are parking, -- Let's get on with having a hearing and resolving this problem on the parking situation.

The first step might be to send a letter to Mr. Lurcott but I've been talking to Mr. Lurcott for a year about this and I haven't had very much response or very much success. If they're going to build the garages, give the sticking parking, I think things will be resolved and the merchants are going to waive their parking spaces. They cannot take the parking spaces for their own use; they're going to have to shuttle their employees. They talked about having them come from the houses of worship, etc., and some other spots that are available. We have to leave the spaces open to the customers. If everybody gives a little bit, we can maintain that property and maintain the district in a very responsible way.

So, I think we'll do Lurcott first and, based on his response, we'll then schedule a hearing if we can't resolve it.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. Chairman, the Army has its Unknown Soldier. I think we should think seriously about Unknown Heroes of the City of Pittsburgh. I'm referring specifically to a young woman who did some surveillance work on her own in regards to a pervert that was bothering her daughter. This young woman, through her hard work and perseverance, was responsible for the capture of this pervert. Obviously, we don't know her name, and won't know, to protect the child, her child, who is a minor.

There's an oddity and an irony to the whole thing; the gentleman - well, he's not a gentleman - is 75 years of age. Back in 1942, the week before I went into the Marine Corps, I captured him as a peeping tom in Oakland. Forty-six years later, he hasn't changed, not one iota. Seventy-five years of age and he's still out there bothering little kids.

But I do want to repeat that that young woman was so courageous, and she took a great risk, but she got the evidence and she more or less set him up to be caught by the police.

The Chair:

Very good.

Is there anything else?

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Woods, I'd like to make a motion that the Monday meetings be held at 10:00 a.m. rather than 2:00 p.m. from now until Labor Day.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

May I ask why?

The Chair:

It's very hot out and I can see how hot this room is. Now we can come in in the morning, get all our work done, and keep these meetings longer without worrying about running off to eat dinner or anything like that.

Mr. Wagner:

If I may respond --

Michelle Madoff:

Could I finish my question? Could we have our Wednesday meetings or post agendas or some hearings scheduled so while we're in the same day - many of us haven't filed for ten years and it gets voluminous - why don't we, and we talked about this some time ago, about doubling up on the day we're here.

The Chair:

We do that.

Michelle Madoff:

Why don't we do Monday morning and Monday afternoon and Wednesday and Wednesday afternoon, and have some time to work in our offices?

The Chair:

Fine. When we get some hearings, we'll see about scheduling them.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. DePasquale moved to excuse Mr. Coyne and Mr. Pollock for absence from the meeting.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Question on excusing the absent members. Why are the members being absent?

The Chair:

Mr. Coyne notified us some time ago that he would be on vacation starting today and be gone for two weeks. The other absent member, I have no idea.

Mr. Ferlo:

I would like an explanation as to whether or not the other absent member has given indication as to why he's absent. Mr. Coyne, I know, went around and informed all of us through courtesy, and I believe he communicated to the Clerk also, that he would be out of town for two weeks. But that's not the case with the other member. I'm not voting to excuse anybody.

Michelle Madoff:

I believe he has allergies; he was out ill last week.

The Chair:

There's a motion on the floor to excuse the absent members. All in favor? Opposed?

Mr. Ferlo:

Opposed.

The Chair:

Just on one, Mr. Ferlo.

Both absent members are passed.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Michelle Madoff:

On the same subject, Mr. Woods, don't you think it would be a good idea to go back and obey our own rules that we voted on, which was that we give Mike Perry the courtesy of letting him know whether we will be here or not be here. There is a $10 fine if the person doesn't do that.

The Chair:

Ms. Madoff, let me explain something to you. That is what everybody has been doing. Except for this one instance, the individual didn't notify us last week or this week. I can't do anything.

Michelle Madoff:

Could we send a note to him?

Mr. Perry:

We sent a memo, Michelle, to all members of Council to let me know.

Michelle Madoff:

You may not have a quorum sometimes.

The Chair:

I just sent out a memo, if you read your mail the other day, please, we are a member short because I knew Mr. Coyne was going away, we're down to seven members. This memo went out last Tuesday that if anyone was going to be absent to please notify us because we're two members short for the next two weeks.

---

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Woods, isn't there a fine automatically of $10 for not notifying?

The Chair:

If it's not approved, but we approved it.

Michelle Madoff:

Can I get my money back?

Mr. DePasquale moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, May 16, 1988.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. DePasquale

Council adjourned.

The Chair (Pro tem) presented

No. 874 Communication from Tom Flaherty, City Controller, submitting the Fiscal Audit of the Department of General Services, Warehouse Inventory, as of December 31, 1987.

Mr. Ferlo:

Point of procedure. I have comments about the audit; at what point would it be appropriate to make them?

The Chair:

Right now.

Mr. Ferlo:

Okay. Just very briefly, if I may be permitted. One of the things that always struck me as somebody out in the community before I took office is the willingness of Council to receive the various audits from the Controller's Office and, unfortunately, most of the time there was not discussion. Maybe that's for good reason. But I would like to suggest that in the future when we formally receive these audits there at least be some admission or recognition on the part of Council as to the content of the audit and its recommendations, even though it's up to the executive branch to make corrective actions if they're suggested. In the future, obviously, there may be some audits of a performance nature that would be somewhat more controversial. But on this note, I did have the time quickly, today, we only received this audit today, to review it, and I'd like to comment very briefly if I may be permitted.

This audit of the General Services warehouse recommends four things. First, the method of inventory evaluation should be maintained as the weighted average method. Secondly, the mark-up on the inventory supplies charged to City departments receiving goods should be revised from time to time depending on the rate of inflation. Thirdly, identification of the inventory in the warehouse should be improved by adding pre-printed labels to each item in stock. Fourth, the inventory system should be computerized and linked to the General Services Department in the City County Building.

I know sometimes its viewed that the Controller's Office is not meeting a mandate in performance audits but, in this case, I think the staff has done an excellent audit and the recommendations that have been talked about in this audit, in fact, are already underway by the Administration and Director Botsford's comments relative to this audit are that the recommendations are being implemented or they already are implemented.

So, I'd just like to note that in the future I hope that Council will take time not only to make comments about these various audits but, if need be, some of the more controversial audits that a public hearing process would be appropriate.

Thank you, Mr. Woods.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think it might be appropriate at this time to inform my colleague, Mr. Ferlo, that the process has always been that no one was allowed to address those issues because I've tried repeatedly to do that.

The Chair:

Well, it's just being introduced right now. He's discussing the audit.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm suggesting we have a post agenda on the audits.

Also,

No. 875 Communication from Richard Cosentino, Executive Director, Pittsburgh Water & Sewer Authority, submitting the Annual Report of Municipal Authority, for the year ending December 31, 1987.

Which were read, received and filed.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Wagner presented

Bill No. 876

Report of the Committee on Finance for June 1, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 640

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with an independent accounting firm to perform the annual audit for the City of Pittsburgh for a period of three years and providing for the payment of the cost thereof subject to annual budget appropriations."

---

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I would like to make an amendment to Bill No. 640 in relation to the $600,000 expenditure for the year-end audit of the City of Pittsburgh. This is an amendment that I offered in the Committee Session; I will once again offer it here today to see if Councilmembers have re-evaluated their position. I would like my comments brought forward on this bill also.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

---

(BEGINNING - MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 640 - WEDNESDAY, 6/1/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

I would like to offer an amendment to this bill. Unfortunately once again I would dispute our learned Solicitor.

Basically I would like to offer an amendment on the appropriation for $200,000.00 for the next three years.

I feel strongly and I think Council in many instances in the past has supported the basic notion of set asides or the need generally to increase the amount of business going to women and minority owned firms in the City of Pittsburgh and I'm offering an amendment to this appropriation and I would read it quickly.

"Section Two, the amendment would be the independent accounting firm that is selected is to maintain within the City of Pittsburgh a headquarters or place of business.

Section Three, the independent accounting firm that is selected is to comply with the minority and women set aside policy. The firm will enter into an agreement or agreements with the Pittsburgh based minority and/or a woman-controlled auditing firm for a sum not less than 25 percent of the total contract amount to assist the independent accounting firm in conducting the annual audit of the City of Pittsburgh."

I think generally speaking the Administration has made some serious efforts over the last decade to increase the amount of dollars going to Pittsburgh-based companies as well as women and minority firms, however I think there is much more that could and should be done. I think it's entirely within the legality and rights of City Council prior to approving legislation to dictate the perimeters of the legislation. I disagree with the Solicitor's opinion because he's referring to some notion that we are getting involved in contracts.

Mr. Pellegrini's opinion is not a good opinion for this Council because he would basically make us governmentally impotent. His suggestion is that we don't have the kind of prerogative to attach amendments and to set the perimeters for legislation, obviously I would disagree and I would hope that members of Council would disagree with that also.

The only proper thing that the Solicitor did talk about and I would have to agree with him is that there is pending court action by the Supreme Court on the whole issue but it doesn't mean we shouldn't proceed or move ahead with something if we think it's fair or within our power to do it. If it's something that Supreme Court overturns in the future, so be it, but there is no reason why we can't move affirmatively in the area of minority set asides and the one area where we have the most power to do this, the most lucrative area is the area for Professional Services Contracts. And my discussion here today basically is if we're not going to do it in an area where we have the most power to do it, then we're never going to do it anywhere so with that in mind I would like to offer an amendment as read.

(END OF COMMENTS)

PREPARED BY: MARY ANNE HRUSKA, STENOGRAPHIC REPORTER 1

Mr. Ferlo:

The amendment, and Councilmembers have a copy on the table here today, to Bill 640 reads: "Section 2. The independent accounting firm that is selected is to maintain within the City of Pittsburgh a headquarters or place of business." And 3, "The independent accounting firm that is selected is to comply with the Minority and Women's Set Aside Policy. The firm will enter into an agreement or agreements with a Pittsburgh-based minority and/or woman controlled auditing firm for a sum not less than 25 percent of the total contract amount to assist the independent accounting firm in conducting the annual audit of the City of Pittsburgh."

Michelle Madoff:

I second that for discussion.

My understanding, and having worked on the minority issue and trying to get an agreement between the Administration and the groups that were very interested in seeing that they got their fair share of the pie was that we do have in place a 15 percent mandatory, I don't know if it's mandatory but certainly striving for 15 percent on all contracts as an achievement goal.

I don't have a problem supporting Mr. Ferlo because all it does is say yes, I agree that we should do it. But my understanding is that we are indeed already doing it. What was discussed at Wednesday's meeting was that we might want to have an update from the Administration, have a post agenda or a hearing update, and I suggest a hearing only from the point of view that at that point it is covered so the public knows what's going on by cable.

What is the status of meeting our goal of 15 percent, both in contracts and in materials? It seems to me that we only are achieving at a very low level in the contractual basis it is very limited. But in merchandise we are meeting the 15 percent; the contracts have been set and bonds have been set at a lower level. I remember Mr. Jacoby came to us and said, "I've only been here a short while and it isn't 15 percent, it's less than 1 percent." I don't know whether it switched over, that the contracts are doing better, or whether the materials are doing better. But I think we need to have an update as to the status of how we're meeting our goals for minority and women. And that should be separate and apart from a separate bill.

I thought we had agreed that we were going to do that, Mr. Perry. Wasn't there something that we agreed to Wednesday?

Mr. Perry:

You did say you would have it put in a separate bill but --

Michelle Madoff:

And you did not prepare one? We have to prepare it.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Woods, very briefly, since this was discussed at length in the Committee Session. I agree with Michelle and I hope that either she, myself and others may submit a landmark legislation to cover the whole ball of wax, but until that happens I see no reason whatsoever why a professional service contract which is the most lucrative contract given out by the Administration with the greatest amount of leeway and prerogative on the part of the City to take corrective action. What I'm suggesting, Mr. Chairman and members of Council, is that there is corrective action that is needed relative to the amount of money that has gone to minority and women owned companies doing business in the City of Pittsburgh.

My amendment takes corrective action. It addresses a corrective action in relation to the amount of dollars of our City budget that go to people and businesses within the City of Pittsburgh. I think it's perfectly legal, it's perfectly appropriate, and it does take corrective action. So, I want to make it clear why I've offered this amendment and I hope that my colleagues will support the amendment. If not, I hope we vote down this bill. There's no hurry to approve this. Let the Administration come back with some other arrangement. I find it ironic that an authority in the Administration can often times award a bid that is not even the lowest, such as the case of Mr. Schmeiser and the Equipment Leasing Authority where they've been pretty much giving dollars away, but here we have an amendment to take corrective action to those in the community, in this case minority owned businesses and women owned businesses who would like a piece of the action. I think it's an appropriate response of government and that's the reasoning for my offering the amendment.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President and Council, while the intent of the amendment is good, Mr. Turner and Mr. Young last week said it was in place that they would have a minimum of 15 percent.

I oppose the amendment in it's entirety because I need a breakdown or further understanding of the word minority here because that can be a blanket and it can go to one group of minorities and not the other. It minority is broken down to so much percentage for blacks, so much for women, I would buy it. But this way, minority is a coverall and a blanket and it doesn't specify who the minorities are.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Woods, it's unfortunate that I have to explain the term minority because I think it's very clear in the history of this City, all of the legislation passed to date, all of the case law on the books, all of the executive orders by the Administration, each and every one of those times the word minority has been very clearly meant to be the following; and that is, racial minorities, exactly black businesses in the City of Pittsburgh. I don't think that's very complicated or very confusing and I think the amendment language is very clear and very specific. Thank you.

The Chair:

I just want to disagree on one point. Minority in the City of Pittsburgh is Hispanic, women, Black, American Indian. There's a lot of different ones.

Okay, all in favor of the amendment?

Mr. Ferlo:

Aye.

The Chair:

The amendment fails.

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGE)

(BEGINNING - MR. WAGNER'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 734 - WEDNESDAY,
6/1/88)

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like to make a brief comment and Mr. Ferlo, the bill is now in your committee; it wasn't originally so you can have the final comment if you wish, but I'd just like to make a brief comment.

I think Council has made a moral and political commitment with divestiture legislation in the past that was spearheaded by Councilman Robinson at the time of which it passed Council unanimously, and so Council from a city perspective has made a commitment, and probably one of the first governmental bodies in the country that made that type of political commitment. This is illegal according to our Solicitor and I can't state that any clearer. We cannot legally proceed with this type of an amendment. However, I think Mr. Ferlo should get a response from CMU and I would hope that prior to final vote on this legislation this Monday that Dr. Cyert would respond in writing to this Council and in particular to Mr. Ferlo.

I also agree with Mr. Woods that simply by making the issue a public issue a lot has been accomplished and a public awareness is there that was not there in the past.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like to make a motion to recommit Bill No. 734.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Objection. I think this is obstructionist. I think this bill has been held. I'm sure the University would like to have their permit. I see no reason for holding this bill whatsoever and I think there should be a vote today on the bill.

Is there any other discussion on the recommitment?

All those in favor? Opposed?

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

On Bill 786 which approves the Park-N-Ride for the Port Authority Transit. down in the Zoo, it's my understanding after urging Councilman Wagner and others on Council that this is the regular 71-B bus, the Highland Park bus which will not end at Bunker Hill but will go down the hillside towards Butler Street and then come back up and that is a very dangerous curve and I hope upon passing this piece of legislation, give all the accidents that have happened in the Oakland bus corridor, that there be some lighting and proper safety designs for that hill coming down. The Hill Drive is the formal name of the street coming down, and I hope that it's marked with a 5 m.p.h. speed limit and some other kinds of safety measures so we're not having people run over because Hill Drive is a thoroughfare where pedestrians walk frequently. So, I hope upon approving this that there will be corrective actions taken so we're not talking about somebody getting killed by a bus a couple a months from now.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like my remarks brought forward, Mr. President, on that same bill, Bill No. 786.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

---

(MR. WAGNER'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 786-Wednesday, 6/1/88)

Mr. Wagner:

I have a question. Is this what I have been requesting for you to do for several years?

Ms. Brown:

Yes.

Mr. Wagner:

Where will this bus originate to go to the zoo?

Ms. Brown:

This is the 71B, which originates I guess Downtown, travels throughout East Liberty and Highland Park, through that corridor, and previously had stopped up at Bunker Hill and then would not make any stops at the Zoo.

It will now come down Hill Road, make a stop at the Children's Zoo and make another stop down by the Zoo parking lot.

Mr. Wagner:

All right. Are we going to publicize where this bus leaves from? Is that our responsibility or the Port Authority's?

Ms. Brown:

We are working with the Port Authority. There will be a grand dedication opening on June 11th, which is when the bus service will start. There are bus cards that will be placed in all the busses informing the public that you can now make tracks to the Zoo on PAT.

Mr. Wagner:

Are we in any way going to make this bus different from the other busses to make it reflect the image of the Zoo?

Ms. Brown:

We have talked about a Zoo bus, but there will be continuous bus service to the Zoo seven days a week. So obviously, there will be different busses that they will have. They have not decided on whether they will have one single Zoo bus.

---

Mr. Wagner:

Is there any way in which this Council can assist to do that, maybe with CD monies? I know we do it with another bus route or two in the City that the Port Authority does not frequent. But is there any way we could -- again, I am asking this question, I ask it at budget time each year -- construct a bus that reflects the image of the Zoo with animals and makes it fun for children to ride and is an advertising vehicle 24 hours a day, seven days a week?

Ms. Brown:

We would have to discuss that at greater length with the Port Authority. As I recall, they were not interested in decorating one bus that would be a Zoo bus, that may or may not go to the Zoo, it may just travel throughout the area.

Mr. Wagner:

Could we buy a bus and do that and then have them operate the bus?

Michelle Madoff:

You're talking about one-half million dollars.

Ms. Brown:

It is pretty expensive.

Mr. Wagner:

Or reconstruct a bus?

Ms. Brown:

It would be probably expensive. We can check. I will check to see whether that would be legal under the Port Authority.

Mr. Wagner:

I have been asking for three years that that be checked.

Ms. Brown:

We have, and the Port Authority has not expressed a great deal of interest in spending their money to make some additional improvements to the interiors of their busses or even the exteriors. You may recall that years ago they used to have different kinds of busses, Steeler's busses, Pirate's busses, and they no longer had that kind of promotion for campaign anymore because, I believe, of the cost.

---

For the City to purchase a bus, I have no idea how much a bus costs, I bet it is pretty expensive, or to retrofit another bus that would be needed, maybe, in other services, I don't know.

I think we have made a major step right now just by getting public transportation to the Zoo.

Mr. Wagner:

I agree, and I am very pleased to see this bill come in front of us.

I would just like to add, though, that the problem with the Zoo is the location of the Zoo; I have always said that. It is at the farthest most point from the City in terms of Downtown, and we need to have a dependable transportation link, and if we can advertise that with a certain type of bus, I really believe it is the way to go. It would have a tremendous return, in terms of advertisement, all the time, traveling throughout the City. And I would like to see us initiate something along those lines in the future.

(END OF REMARKS)

Also,

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, on Bill No. 795, I'd like my comments brought forward.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

---

(BEGINNING - MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 795 - WEDNESDAY, 6/1/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Director, please educate me a little on these things. Are these the things that you see around the city and along the highway--the dome that keeps the salt inside?

Dir. McDermott:

That is correct.

Mr. Ferlo:

And it cost $800,000.00 to build something that's a bunch of two-by-fours and shingles?

Dir. McDermott:

No. The $800,000.00 is the total budget for four of them. Two of them we have already built and we're asking for an increase of another $250,000.00 to take it up to an $800,000.00 figure so that we can build two more at approximately $200,000.00.

Mr. Ferlo:

What are these things made of--gold?

Dir. McDermott:

Gunite. They are 100 feet in diameter.

Mr. Ferlo:

What's the framing of this?

Dir. McDermott:

There is no framing. They use an air-inflated balloon. They apply their reinforcing to it and then they spray the concrete.

---

Michelle Madoff:

I'm very familiar with the process.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'm through. I'm voting no.

(END OF COMMENTS)

PREPARED BY: MARY ANNE HRUSKA, STENOGRAPHIC REPORTER 1

Mr. Ferlo:

The reason why I'm not supporting the expenditure of $800,000 for the construction, the engineering and design consultants, for two or possibly three salt storage domes, the basic point is that I think it's an outrageous expenditure. I've been led to believe that these are domes, I frequently see them on the Turnpike; I saw them yesterday as I was driving back from Harrisburg, and they do not seem to be very complicated units. They're fiberglass; they're constructed fairly easily. I can't imagine that we could not get copies of design work already done by the State or other kinds of municipal agencies that have already constructed these. I just have a hard time fathoming why we're spending $800,000 for the construction of these domes when I believe it could be done in-house, as I've said many times before, by the very competent architects and engineers that are presently on staff at great costs to the taxpayers in the Department of Engineering and Construction.

Again, I think it's a case of the McDermott Marauders who I do not think we should reward continually with grandiose amounts of money for consultants. I would hope that Council will vote down this expenditure.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm glad to see that one of my colleagues is beginning to see the light of what is going on in Construction and Engineering. He has only just scratched the surface; we're only seeing the tip of the iceberg. It is so unbelievably bogged down, I believe because of mismanagement, that it would take a whole staff of people working for an extensive period of time to find out what really goes on there.

I would think that the appropriate thing would be to talk about audits, to have an audit done by our Controller, on these bills. It would be appropriate to call for an audit of Construction and Engineering, what went on before Mr. McDermott took over, how many contracts were issued, how many contracts they are behind, what kind of dollars, what kind of staff, they've increased their staff by a third, and yet have gone out for more consultants than ever.

The Chair:

I would just like to ask my colleague to remember one thing before we vote. You all have your opinions and I may agree or disagree. But let's try to keep personalities out of this. The next time we debate a bill, it would be good to use a department instead of a particular person's name. I think that's only courteous and I think we all want to be that way.

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Lyons      | Mr. Woods        |
|                | (Pres't Pro tem) |

AYES 4                      NOES 2

(MR. FERLO AND MICHELLE MADOFF
VOTING NO)

And there only being a majority of votes of Council present, the bill was tabled.

The Chair:

This bill was tabled because, while it got the majority of the votes present, it didn't receive five votes. So, if someone wants to untable it when there's a full Council, it could possibly pass.

Also,

Bill No. 791

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 557, effective July 20, 1987, entitled: 'Providing for an Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts, for the Roof Rehabilitation and Masonry Painting of No. 5 Police/No. 8 Fire Station; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by increasing the total project allocation by $47,000.00 from $40,000.00 to $87,000.00."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

I think Mr. Ferlo is right on the button on this issue and not only Bill 795 where we're talking about salt domes for $800,000, it's almost $1 million, but on Billk 791 where we're talking about doing a roof rehabilitation and masonry painting of the No. 5 Station. I don't think that is an additional $47,000 worth of work. I think there are a lot of unemployed people who can do roofing work and painting that would not cost $47,000 additional monies. And I think we better start calling for an audit and start looking at what's going on before this City is entirely bankrupt.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Ferlo      | Mr. Woods        |
| Mr. Lyons      | (Pres't Pro tem) |

AYES 5 NOES 1

(MICHELLE MADOFF VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 792

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 112, effective March 8, 1988, entitled: 'Providing for a Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts, for the P.J. McArdle Roadway Sidewalk Rehabilitation; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by increasing the total project allocation by $11,000.00 from $225,000.00 to $236,000.00."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

I said too much on Bill No. 792, the McArdle sidewalk. I can't talk about it anymore and I hope that Council will vote that legislation down. It's a waste of money.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

Mr. Ferlo:

On Bill No. 830 in relation to the $200,000 that needs to be spent to clean up good old Ashland Oil's present to the City along the Mon, I would hope that we make sure that we're vigilant in getting back all of our costs, not only the $200,000 but any amounts of interest payments or other kinds of expenses that will be incurred either because we have laid the money out in advance. Personally, I think we should get a check from Chairman Hall and Ashland Oil ahead of time instead of us having to take it out of our pocket.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

The Chair:

No. 883      Communication from Sophie Masloff, Mayor, City of Pittsburgh, informing Council of the appointment of Justin L. Johnson, 509 South Highland Avenue, #14, Pittsburgh, PA 15206, as a member of the Civil Service Commission, for a term to expire with the Mayor's term of office.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also,

No. 884      Resolution approving the appointment of Robert B. Quigley, Jr., 3953 McClure Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15212, for an unexpired term as a district member of the Pittsburgh Cable Communications Advisory Committee, for a term to expire December 31, 1989.

Which was read.

Mr. Lyons moved to approve the appointment.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, this may disturb Mr. McCaren of the Pittsburgh Press but I received some calls during the week that had to do with some open solicitation for male prostitution. At the corner of Forbes and Craig every Friday night, it appears, from the hours of 11:00 p.m. to 3:00 a.m. there's open solicitation for male prostitution.

I took it upon myself to go up there. I was well concealed this week and I was utterly amazed. They're all over that corner and on up to, I believe it's Filmore Street. It's a highly residential area; it's a high business area. Yet, at the same time, this has been going on for some time. I immediately contacted some people in the Police Department and wanted to know why in the heck something wasn't done about that area. I was told in the past they've made arrests, brought them down to the station, and as quick as they brought them down, a member of the American Civil Liberties Union, an attorney, was there springing them to get them out. They say it's a hopeless situation; there doesn't seem to be a thing they can do about it. I say there has to be something that can be done about it. It's absolutely a disgrace. They're out there as openly and brazen as you could want someone to be.

Now, I'm going to say this also for the benefit of Mr. McCaren of the Pittsburgh Press. These people who are doing the soliciting are not coming from a gay bar which is on Forbes called the Holiday Bar. Those people there have never bothered anybody and nobody has ever bothered them. They go about their business and everybody else goes about their business. The solicitors are coming either from Shadyside or other parts of the City of Pittsburgh. They are not from that bar and they are not from that area there. Nobody seems to know who any of them are. But it's going on and the police claim that it's a helpless or hopeless situation.

I thought this should be brought to the attention of Council and, once more, the Police Department vowed that they would do something about this situation to try to alleviate it.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, on two separate matters, very briefly. Tomorrow in Chambers there's a public hearing in relation to the Hunger Act which I've submitted a series of bills related to raising money by not infringing upon the limited resources of the City budget. That public hearing begins tomorrow at 10:00 a.m. and I believe people can still call in if they'd like to speak either in favor or in opposition to the legislation, one of which being a little more controversial, the $500 license fee for the video poker machines.

So, I want to encourage people to attend the public hearing tomorrow on the Hunger Act and call 255-2138, pro or con, if you are interested in speaking on the legislation.

Secondly, Mr. President, I would like a letter sent, if my colleagues would concur, to the Mayor and/or the Director of Public Safety. This afternoon I had reason to tour the City garage and I was amazed, once again, to learn that at least three of our brand new multi-million dollar fire trucks have been damaged. Some were damaged when the firefighters were driving them who, I believe, have had more than a decade of experience driving these unbelievably humongous, outrageous, ridiculous expenditure by the previous Council. It seems as though we are stuck with these white elephants.

I think it's important that we receive a report because I know of four of these trucks that have been damaged so far. I think we should at least know how they were damaged, how much is involved in the damage in terms of the cost which seems as though we're going to make the Doerr Brothers Company rich on these new fire trucks we've bought. How long will they be down? How long will they be out of service? What kinds of corrective action is going to be taken relative to the safety of these vehicles?

I've been led to believe that people, including firefighters who I have a lot of respect for and we should all have respect for and who have many years experience at driving these vehicles, even they are having a difficult time managing these vehicles. And if people with ten years' service who have driven these things all their life, every day, are having a difficult time, I don't know what the heck we're going to do when one of them might be out on vacation and one of the recruits or one of the newer firefighters takes charge of one of these vehicles. But I think it's important that we receive a report from Public Safety regarding the incidents of these four wrecked vehicles and some of the questions that I've outlined.

I like to ask, if my colleagues would cooperate, that we communicate this in written form from our President. Is there any objection?

The Chair:

No.

Mr. DePasquale:

Just to elaborate on what Mr. Ferlo said, I've been informed by people in the same situation he's talking about. I also looked at a couple of the rigs last week and I'm dumbfounded as to how they get around our narrow streets. They're just too big. Whoever ordered them, it was an absolute mistake. Pittsburgh obviously is an old City and we have a lot of narrow streets and there's going to be difficulty maneuvering on a lot of streets in the City of Pittsburgh in those big rigs.

The Chair:

Okay, there's no objection so we'll get those letters out.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think it's important that we do what we can to try to keep the Koppers' jobs in this area. Last week, if I may reiterate what has happened, due to the efforts of my colleague, Councilman Wagner, who had introduced legislation, a resolution I believe, to try to keep the Koppers' jobs here, he was contacted about having a meeting with Council on Friday morning at 11:00. There was some kind of miscommunication where he had set up the meeting, agreed to have it, and Koppers did not confirm the time.

I had heard through another source that there was a meeting — I called Mike Perry at home Friday night at about 11:00, I called Mr. Ferlo about midnight, and nobody knew about the meeting. My source was so impeccable, I thought, I heard it from a media person, that there is definitely going to be a meeting, and it seems there was except for the miscommunication that I had gone over a request to tape for Channel 4 and Mr. Beazer was there. I had the privilege of meeting him and getting to talk to him. I thought it would be appropriate to invite him to come to this meeting I thought was going to take place Friday at 11:00. He said, "I will have to check to see if I can come." He called his attorneys and said, "Yes, I will be delighted to come."

I then thought that the days of our being protagonist with the Administration should end. I called over to Mayor Masloff's office and spoke to Mr. Jacoby's secretary, I couldn't reach anybody, and said I think it appropriate that we let the Mayor and Mr. Jacoby know that, in all likelihood, Mr. Beazer, if no one else from Koppers, would be meeting with Councilmembers, whoever was available. I think there were about four or five of us at that point, either aides or Councilmembers who would meet with Mr. Beazer at 11:00.

I don't know what took place and, whatever happened, I'm delighted. The Mayor, Mr. Jacoby, legal counsel got together with Mr. Beazer and there was some kind of an agreement to agree in principle to do whatever they can to keep the company here. I don't know if the contract really says anything very different than what Mr. Beazer has said all along.

The reason for my going back over the history is that I want to tell you that many years ago I had dealings with Koppers. Koppers had both been a polluter and a manufacturer of pollution control. I'm very familiar with the Koppers plant in Bridgeville. And for those who may not know, the portion of Koppers that was purchased by Mr. Brian Beazer is a very small percentage of the jobs. Ninety percent of the jobs are in the chemical division. Their only hope of keeping that 90 percent of the jobs, and there are 800 jobs at the Koppers headquarters, is for the management to do a leverage buyout and that's in 45 days. That's all they have, 45 days.

I think Commissioner Foerster made the most eloquent and probably logical statement right off the bat which was, let's get on with giving help or trying to see what we can do through the State or through any financial insitutions to see that a leverage buyout can be accomplished in the next 45 days. The other option is that the chemical division, in reality, could be broken up into 10 or 20 companies with various and sundry people acquiring them and we have no guarantee that jobs would indeed remain.

I'm a little bit confused about the fact that we'll keep 1,500 jobs here when there are only 1,100 to start in this area. But, be that as it may, there are 15,000 Koppers jobs that are not in this area. The whole ball of wax, the whole Koppers jobs, are 15,000 of which 1,100 are in this area, and 90 percent of those 1,100 are not in the area that was purchased which is the construction area; it's indeed in the chemical area.

I think it might be a good move to show we are in support of the keeping of the chemical division here by adding our support in a letter both to Commissioners Foerster and Hafer and Flaherty and to our Mayor that we move to find the dollars to permit the leverage buyout of the chemical plant in its entirety.

I would like to so move that a letter be sent and that all of Council concurs with that, that we offer whatever support or interest or any avenues that we might suggest to get PNB, Mellon, Equibank, anybody, to support this leverage buyout. As I say, it's only 45 days; there isn't much time. I think that we ought to say that we care. You don't care who gets credit for doing it; we just want to see it happen. I make that in the form of a motion and I hope someone would second it.

The Chair:

Does anyone object? Put the letters out.

Mr. Ferlo:

I just have one concern. One of the reasons why Koppers would like to rid themselves of this division is because of a number of very real economic problems and crises facing chemical divisions, not only in this company but across the United States. And I would hope that before any public dollar commitment is invested that there is a formal market and feasibility study which I would hope would preceed any public dollar commitment relative to a buyout.

The Chair:

I don't think Ms. Madoff meant public money. We just encouraged them to get involved.

Mr. Ferlo:

I heard her say public. Excuse me.

Michelle Madoff:

May I point out that I had some concerns about the environmental issues and I called to find out what is happening. It seems that the best people to address the environmental issues, as it was put to me, it's like somebody saying, you take over my life; I've got a wooden leg. It's hard to live with a wooden leg if you haven't had one all your life. It's also very difficult to manage the environmental impasse of Koppers and it is easier for those who are used to dealing with it who understand it and those, indeed, are the marketing and the people who are trying to buy out the company, management people, who are familiar, and they have set aside, I think, it's $15 million a year, I'm not sure what it is, to keep in compliance with environmental regulations. That's one of the reasons I would like to see Koppers buy it because we'd have a better chance of meeting the environmental controls and seeing that whatever has to happen will happen. I think that letter ought to go very, very rapidly.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, on the same subject. I'd like to compliment our new Mayor for her involvement in Koppers' situation. Initially her reaction was very negative but so was mine and I think so was everyone else in the City of Pittsburgh. But once we all realized, and once she realized, that Koppers had made an agreement with Beazer, in essence, there was nothing that could be done because two companies had made an up-front agreement, one to sell out to the other under certain terms and certain stipulations. From that point, a meeting was held, I guess, Friday morning and certain conditions were worked out which I think will, over the long haul, be in the best interest of the City; a possible headquarters in the City of Pittsburgh if Beazer ever expands in the future, keeping the Koppers' name, guaranteeing one year employment with salary employees, and hopefully, the same will hold true with union employees, and giving the Pittsburgh management the first opportunity to buy the chemical division which I think is really where all the jobs are, obviously, over 1,000 of them. I compliment her and her staff for actively becoming involved in those negotiations and getting some up front commitments from Mr. Beazer.

Another point I want to make is that all along I have been very concerned and disturbed about this buy-out, not that one company was trying to buy out another company but an investment banking company, Shearson, Lieman, Hutton which is owned by American Express, was putting up money to help Beazer buy out Koppers. What that exact amount of money is, I don't know precisely, but I think it's $40 million or $50 million they were putting up to help from an equity position for the buyout of that company.

Seeing that that has occurred and seeing that Shearson, Lieman, Hutton and American Express, their parent company, will profit from this buyout, I would like to see Shearson, Lieman, Hutton and American Express become an equity partner and contribute the management Koppers and the buyout of the chemical division also. Now, if Shearson, Lieman, Hutton who is located here in America, and American Express also is as concerned about the chemical division as they were about Beazer, I would like to see them participate. So, what I am going to do is, I am going to write Mr. Peter Cohen, the CEO of Shearson, Lieman, Hutton, and ask him to do the same with the Pittsburgh based management of Koppers that he has done with Beazer, a foreign concern. And when I do that, I will share that letter with all of you and also with the Mayor.

Mr. Lyons:

On the same subject, Mr. President. I'd like to commend the Mayor and the entourage that she put together to meet and deal with Mr. Beazer last Friday. I think it was very commendable of the commitments that she has gotten from him. I feel that a letter should go from this Council in her support. I don't feel that we should open up new avenues as Council or make a lot of fronts. I support Jack Wagner and what he's saying to write to the stockbrokers, but also, I think first and foremost, we should support the Mayor verbally, openly and very publicly.

Mr. Ferlo:

Very briefly, I want to concur with my colleagues, Mr. Lyons and Mr. Wagner. I think this is one of the first actions that Mayor Masloff has had to take that was difficult in terms of negotiations and interaction with corporate people and I want to join in applauding the efforts of Mayor Masloff.

But on a more candid note, one of the agreements in the memorandum has to do with Mr. Beazer possibly having an apartment or a house in the City and I'd just like to know the most important question, and that is, do we get four percent of his income if he maintains an apartment in the City of Pittsburgh? Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm probably going to say something very unpopular but, you know, as my hero, Harry Truman, said, "I never give them hell; I just tell the truth and they think it's hell."

I agree, all of us were distressed when we heard that Mr. Beazer was going to be buying out the Koppers plant. I learned about it, I was home ill with the flu, and I got a call from a reporter asking me if I knew about the lawsuits that were filed and what they meant. I said no, I didn't even know they were filed.

So, I called the Law Department and found out what was involved. I then called Koppers to find out what was actually going on. And after I did my homework and I found out what was happening, it became very eminently clear that it was after the fact. We should not be worrying about history; we should be worrying about what is going to happen in the future and that is saving the 90 percent jobs. And as Mr. Brian Beazer said, when Mr. Heinrich came from Germany to start Koppers, nobody object to his being a foreigner. Our country is open to all people and we don't want to discourage investments in this community. My immediate reaction was, let's drop the lawsuit. This is nonsense because all we're going to do is delay the 45 days and put that as an impediment into resolving the problem.

I think it was horrible that the Mayor of our City, who is the first citizen of our City, went on a talk show and screamed and yelled and was not doing what she said, wisecracking, and said, "I'm going to scratch his eyes out; we've been stabbed in the back." I think we're all being very polite. We've been chastised in this Council for our shenanigans and being a circus. I read something in today's paper about Sophie calling Mr. Harrington to talk about how Jeep and Michelle have fought in Council and the image that we projected. What could be a worse image for this City than the Mayor saying, I'm going to scratch somebody's eyes out? I was appalled. I think it needed to be said and I've said it.

Mr. Lyons:

I move to adjourn.

Mr. Ferlo:

That needs a response.

The Chair:

A motion to adjourn is always in order.

Is there a second?

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Are you all in favor?

Mr. Ferlo:

No.

Mr. Wagner:

No.

The Chair:

The motion fails.

Now, Mr. DePasquale, Mr. Ferlo and Mr. Wagner.

Mr. DePasquale:

I just heard the pot calling the kettle black but that's something else.

On the same subject, several years ago a young friend of mine called me and said he was in the stockbroking business and he would appreciate some business from me. That's maybe five years ago. I gave him some money and I said, "Buy me some stock." He said, "What stock do you want?" I said, "I don't know a thing about the stock market. I was there twice for a couple thousand dollars and I went under both times. So take this money and do what you want with it." He bought me Shearson, Lieman. When he bought it, it was at 10. It is now at 7.46. Now, if I suddenly get rich over this merger, this was not planned. This happened five years ago and I don't want anybody saying it was a conflict of interest.

Mr. Ferlo:

Very briefly in response to my colleague, Michelle Madoff. I think her comments are inappropriate in relation to the Mayor's candid comments on radio, whether it be scratching Mr. Beazer's eyes out or anything of the sort. But I think one of the reasons why a memorandum of understanding was able to be worked out was because of the strong adversary and advocacy position that Mayor Masloff took right after the incident and I would disagree entirely with Michelle. I think the fact of the matter is that Sophie came out very strong on this issue and it was for that reason, as well as the filing of a legal action to the judge asking for some time to evaluate the deal, that they in fact set the stage for a memorandum of understanding to be worked out. So, I beg to differ with my colleague on this point and I think Sophie should be applauded.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I'd like to make a motion to set up a public hearing to determine the status of Strategy 21 funds that have been budgeted for various City projects, monies from the state, for various City projects that have not come forth into the coffers of this City. What I'm talking about are projects such as the Buhl where state funding has been committed, the Riverside, the Pittsburgh Technology Center and Washington's Island. All four of those projects, State funds have been committed for that and it's in the budget in 1988. And as of this date, to my knowledge, we have received no funding. It has stagnated those projects and they cannot move forward.

---

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff moved to excuse Mr. Coyne and Mr. Pollock for absence from the meeting.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Lyons moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, May 23, 1988.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Lyons

Council adjourned.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Lyons presents

No. 925 WHEREAS, not many groups, institutions or organizations endure for 100 years. For more than 100 years, there should be pause to take note of such; and

WHEREAS, Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church (A.M.E.) in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, is the oldest church of color West of the Alleghenies; and

WHEREAS, from its first Church building on Strawberry Way (Downtown) to the location on Wylie Avenue and finally to its present address at Webster Avenue and Morgan Street (Hill District), its influence has been formidable; and

WHEREAS, its stability and growth can be attributed to its congregation and, of course, to the leadership of the congregation throughout the 180 years; and

WHEREAS, its current Pastor is the Reverend Samson M. Cooper, a graduate of both Wilberforce University and Payne Theological Seminary, Wilberforce, Ohio and under his leadership, Bethel has reduced its indebtedness to a mere $20,000.00; and

WHEREAS, Reverend Cooper has inspired the congregation to fully light the entire outside of the Church surroundings as well as adding new glass front doors and a modern institutional kitchen stove; and

WHEREAS, Reverend Cooper has encouraged Membership Development through added new members, a Basketball team for youth, and promoting the Class Leader System; and

WHEREAS, Outreach programs such as the Annual Thanksgiving Dinner for Senior Citizens and Anyone Eating Alone continue, and others such as a Food Pantry and a Senior Citizen Program have been added in cooperation with the Pittsburgh Board of Education; and

WHEREAS, this is a reflection of the cultural and religious efforts which have inspired Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church to maintain the achievements of their rich heritage for 180 years.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh calls attention to this religious institution which started 180 years ago in our city and which continues to this day, and commends it as it celebrates its heritage from June 15-19, 1988; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we congratulate its Pastor, Reverend Samson M. Cooper, its officers and congregation, on a job done well.

Mr. Lyons moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President, we will have expression from a very dynamic and spiritual leader of the Bethel A.M.E. Church of Pittsburgh, the Honorable and very able Reverend Samson Cooper.

Reverend Cooper:

To Councilman Lyons, to the members of City Council, it is indeed with deep humility that I accept on behalf of Bethel Church this very fine commendation. As has been stated, this congregation is 180 years of age, it is the branch of the Methodist Church, it is African due to its heritage being founded by a former slave by the name of Richard Allen who purchased his freedom for $2,000. We are supervised by bishops throughout the world.

We thank you for this honor. We love the City of Pittsburgh and we'll do all within our power to share with you in seeking to eradicate some of the problems that do exist.

Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

May I ask for Bob Gentile, Frances Wright and Jenny Reese to come forward, please?

This resolution pertains to an issue very close to my heart which is the literacy problem and the illiteracy problem. I hope the people here from the Hunger Action Coalition will understand that all these issues go hand in hand.

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 926 WHEREAS, illiteracy is a growing social problem in America with an estimated 23 million Americans unable to read or write past the fourth grade level; and

WHEREAS, Pennsylvania has one of the largest percentage of residents who are functionally illiterate and are thereby finding it increasingly difficult to find employment in a technical and computerized economy; and

WHEREAS, two years ago Television networks PBS and ABC launched a public service campaign to address this problem by forming Project Literacy United States, or P.L.U.S.; and

WHEREAS, the International Association of Personnel in Employment Security, or I.A.P.E.S., recognized the unique position Employment Security workers are in to identify and refer individuals with reading and writing problems to their local literacy councils; and

WHEREAS, the Pennsylvania Office of Employment Security adopted this initiative by recommendation to the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry who in turn dedicated its full resources to the implementation of the I.A.P.E.S. program.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh join in recognizing each of these Organizations for their commitment to the eradication of illiteracy; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council commend the Pennsylvania Office of Employment Security (Job Service and Unemployment Compensation) and the Pennsylvania Chapter of the International Association of Personnel in Employment Security for their participation in the Project Literacy United States Program, and honor all those who have been involved in the ongoing literacy efforts in our community.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I just want to point out that number, I skimmed over it, 23 million Americans are unable to read or write past the 4th grade and that we're one of the unfortunate strongholds.

Mr. Gentile:

On behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Office of Employment Security, the International Association of Personnel and Employment Security, we thank Michelle Madoff, we thank Judith Aaronson, Director of the Pittsburgh Initiative, and we hope to continue our association in order to alleviate this terrible social problem that we have.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like to thank Mr. Ben Woods for his leadership in raising some funds for the literacy program last year. Mr. O'Malley is not with us but they made that one of their priorities and I hope that Council will pick up this issue because you will eradicate hunger if people can read, write and get jobs. Thank you.

The Chair:

Thank you all very much.

Mr. Perry:

Will Chuck Wikenhauser, Executive Director of the Zoo please come up, and Margie Marks also.

The Chair presents

No. 927 WHEREAS, THE
AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF ZOOLOGICAL PARKS AND

AQUARIUMS is an organization which has been working since 1924 to establish zoos and aquariums as educational, recreational, conservational and scientific institutions; and

WHEREAS, The Pittsburgh Zoo is an accredited member of THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF ZOOLOGICAL PARKS AND AQUARIUMS; and

WHEREAS, together both organizations wish to honor the more than 115 million people who visit zoos and aquariums nation wide; and

WHEREAS, the month of June, 1988 has been chosen as NATIONAL ZOO AND AQUARIUM MONTH.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh proudly joins THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF ZOOLOGICAL PARKS AND AQUARIUMS in proclaiming the month of June, 1988 as ZOO AND AQUARIUM MONTH IN PITTSBURGH.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wikenhauser:

Thank you very much. We'd just like everyone to know that the Pittsburgh Zoo is working very hard to provide the City of Pittsburgh with a quality zoological institution and that the Pittsburgh Zoo is not only a recreational facility that draw over 500,000 visitors to the City each year, but also a cultural and educational asset to the community and a contributor to the worldwide conservation effort.

The proclamation this year is especially important in that this is the 90th anniversary of what used to be the Highland Park Zoo and is now called the Pittsburgh Zoo. We'd like to invite everyone out next Saturday, June 18th, at 12:30 for the beginning of the celebration of our 90th year. It will start with a cake cutting ceremony there.

One portion of our multi-media campaign to increase the awareness of the people in Pittsburgh and the nearby communities and to encourage their visitation of the Zoo was the creation of this poster that we brought along. We have these for Council for your offices. It says, "Come Live The Wild Life", and we certainly encourage you all to visit the Pittsburgh Zoo.

Michelle Madoff:

One moment. I would like to make a recommendation that for your 90th anniversary you turn the Zoo over to the County. Three quarters of the people using it are non-City residents and the people paying the debt service are City residents. And guess what? We can't afford it; we're bankrupt. Thank you. Mark me opposed on this resolution.

Mr. Wikenhauser:

We'll certainly give it every effort to making —

Michelle Madoff:

I think we all agree that's a reality.

The Chair:

Thank you very much.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on General Services.

Michelle Madoff moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I see no reason to expedite this particular issue. We're talking about over $7 million that the Administration would like to go out on bond in order to purchase God knows what type of equipment. I think there's time needed to discuss this both in the Committee. As well, I've indicated to the Administration that I would like questions answered regarding this expenditure. Equally, I have a resolution before Council which would repeal the formation of the Equipment Leasing Authority.

For those and many other reasons, I see no reason to expedite this discussion. I think it should take the usual course of time so that we can receive information from the Administration.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, as I mentioned to my colleague, I was not present at the last Leasing Authority meeting because I still have this horrible cold that I've had from the draft. Thank God it's warm today. There's no draft today or it's so hot I'm not feeling it. But I was not at the last meeting and I did take the time, though, to find out what happened. When I'm not present at a meeting I'm directly involved in, I want to know what the issues are.

The issues are very simple. Number one, the issue of the radios never came up. Number two, the bond was awarded on the basis of the best proposal made to the people who chose, Mr. Jacoby and Mr. Turner, the Finance people, in the best interest of the City. For example, it was determined that while the firm that was about to be awarded the contract did charge a very slightly higher fee for administration or their percentage of the contract, the money the City would save because of the structure of the bond --

The Chair:

Ms. Madoff, let me interrupt you.

Michelle Madoff:

Let me just finish. Two more sentences and I'm done.

The Chair:

Please argue about why the bill should be either committed to Rule 8 or not.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm trying to.

The Chair:

You're going over the whole past meeting and I can't permit that. Why do you want the bill --

Michelle Madoff:

In summary, Mr. President, if we wait, it could cost the City a great deal of money because the interest rates are fluctuating. We are ready to go out in what is known as a more favorable market. We got a better deal and every quarter point, every eighth of a percentage on a point means hundreds of thousands of dollars on major bonds, and certainly thousands on this bond. And the sooner we get out, the sooner we take advantage of the best rates and be positioned for a window, the better we are. Therefore, I would urge this Council to vote for this bill. I reviewed it myself personally. I have the same concerns my colleague had and I do not think we should hold the bill.

The Chair:

I suggest to vote in favor of waiving Rule 8 also because if you want to discuss it, perhaps we'll have a longer time for discussion. Discuss it this Wednesday and if you want to hold it over for another week, you have more shots at it.

All those in favor? Opposed?

Mr. Ferlo:

Opposed.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Wagner presented

No. 905 Resolution providing for an Agreement with Pittsburgh Steelers Sports, Inc., the Stadium Authority of the City of Pittsburgh and consented to by Pittsburgh Baseball Associates.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, I'd like to ask that Bill No. 795 be taken off the table to be reconsidered.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Coyne presented

No. 795 A Resolution entitled, "Resolution further amending Resolution No. 390, effective April 30, 1985, as amended by Resolution No. 611, effective September 21, 1986, entitled: 'Providing for an Agreement or Agreements, or Contract or Contracts, for engineering and construction services in connection with the Design and Construction of the Main Salt Storage Dome and Satellite Domes; and providing for the payment of the costs thereof,' by increasing the total project allocation by $250,000.00 from $550,000.00 to $800,000.00."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Okay, so I can explain to everybody, the bill was up last Monday. It was tabled because it lacked five votes. It was, I believe, four in favor and two opposed. Therefore, it was not defeated; it needs five votes to pass Council. Mr. Coyne, it's his Committee, he's re-presenting that bill today in hopes of getting five votes.

Michelle Madoff:

Is it up for discussion now?

The Chair:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

May I address my colleague who introduced the bill?

The Chair:

Sure.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Coyne, are you familiar with the ground preparation for the other two salt domes and the work that was involved?

Mr. Coyne:

Councilwoman, I've spoken to Director McDermott this morning and I have spoken extensively about this bill and he has made me aware of all that.

Michelle Madoff:

Do you know whether we're going to have extensive site preparation on these next two salt domes?

Mr. Coyne:

He told me that as far as he understands, no.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, let me tell members of Council and the public, this is exactly the kind of issue that my bill will address. Mr. Specter has been working with Mr. Pellegrini. We spent $200,000 on each of the past two salt domes. The reason being that we supposedly had some major problems with the site preparation. The question I would need to have answered for me before I can vote on this bill is why we didn't move the site to a more stable position. Why didn't we do borings to find out whether the site did have a problem before we ran into the overruns. And I call those overruns and overbids.

On the next two salt domes, I have talked to one of the major designers. As a matter of fact, somebody who did some of the drafting on the bill, I'm having lunch with him this week, and he feels if there is no site preparation necessary of inextensive nature, that the $200,000 is a gross overcharge to the City of Pittsburgh where we could have $50,000 out of each one of those, a minimum of a $25,000 additional surplus over those two salt domes which would go to the Hunger Action or anything else this Council would like to give its money to.

This giveaway has got to stop and that's why I supported Mr. Ferlo. I think the cost of those two salt domes is out of line. I need some more time to check on it. I'm talking to the people who designed it and the people building them. Until that is determined, I cannot vote for it.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President, I voted no on this particular appropriation at the last minute and I will once again vote no on it. I think it's an outrageous expenditure of $800,000 to design and construction two or three or four salt domes for several reasons; one, we have these domes presently in place. I can't imagine that there aren't previous designs that have already been paid for. I make the point continually that we have 30 odd staff people in the Department of Engineering and Construction, many of whom are engineers and architects who I feel are more than capable of designing a salt dome which does not take an outrageous amount of expertise in order to do this. It's an outrageous expenditure; I'm disappointed that this Council would reward this particular department director once again, with an appropriation that is not warranted both for the engineering costs as well as the construction costs and I think it's important that we vote this expenditure down.

I used the phrase at the last meeting, McDermott's Marauders, and Mr. Woods reminded me that it's unfair to make such a comment on a personal level to a department director, so I would not want to make such a statement about this particular department director. But I think it's an expenditure that's unwarranted and certainly we can find better uses for $800,000 than we have in a giveaway program. And this is, once again, in a long line of giveaways that have plagued this particular Department of Engineering and Construction.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like to move to hold the bill, put it back in Committee.

The Chair:

There is a motion on the floor, just one second. We just untabled it; we're not going to hold the bill.

Michelle Madoff:

I know. I want to put it back.

The Chair:

Wait a minute. I'm running this meeting, Ms. Madoff, and I'll conduct it that way.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, I'd like to urge

Council to approve this after speaking with Mr. McDermott this morning and being assured by him that this is in the best interest of the City and that the Department of Public Works also concurs with him. It's something that's needed. It's something that when the sites are prepared, it will be in conjunction with something the Department of Parks and Recreation feels is necessary for one location. I don't think it's anything that's uncalled for; I think it's something we need.

The Chair:

Mr. Wagner, last speaker.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I'd just like to say, as you can see by this legislation, the financing for it goes back four years, back into the 1985, 1986, 1987 budget, and now 1988 with different dollar allocations coming from all four years. The idea of these salt domes began back in 1985 while I was Chairperson of Engineering and Construction. Since that time, three years ago, it has matured and changed the proposal drastically. The original intent was to build one salt dome in the City and the cost of that I don't recall right now precisely but, since that time, various studies have been done and that has evolved into other proposals and this final proposal is to build four salt domes rather than one. There is a lot of logic behind that and, at the same time, the cost is increased along with it. But the logic behind it is, if you have one large salt dome located somewhere in the City when you have severe weather problems, all of the trucks from Public Works must go from the various neighborhoods great distances to that one salt dome. The theory of four means to place them around the City and therefore save time in terms of the various trucks not having to travel as far going to a salt dome that is somewhere in the geographical area of the City where they're operating. It saves manhours of people operating those trucks. It keeps the salt trucks out on the streets longer rather than traveling back and forth. It saves fuel and probably, most importantly, it provides a better service to the public where we can salt more streets in less time by having four salt domes rather than one salt dome. That is the major reason for the increase in cost in this proposal since it was originated four years ago when it was originally one salt dome and now its four salt domes.

The Chair:

Call the roll on the bill.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I have an additional point.

Michelle Madoff:

I had my hand up.

The Chair:

Keep calling the roll.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I have additional points.

The Chair:

Go on with the vote.

Michelle Madoff:

I'll abstain so I can explain my abstention. That is the rule.

The Chair:

Keep calling the roll.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, sir. I've abstained and on an abstention I have the right to explain my abstention.

The Chair:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

I challenge the Chair on my right to explain my abstention. Will someone support me on that, please?

The Chair:

Is there a second to the challenge of the Chair? Hearing no second, the motion fails.

Michelle Madoff:

Well I hope everybody watching knows we just gave away $50,000. That's the issue.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Woods        |
| Mr. Lyons      | (Pres't Pro tem) |

AYES 5

NOES 1

(MR. FERLO VOTING NO)

(MICHELLE MADOFF ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Mr. Ferlo:

Point of Order, Mr. Chairman.

The Chair:

There's no point of order; this Council is in order.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'm not disputing that.

The Chair:

It is in order and there's no point of order.

Mr. Ferlo:

I would like my vote cast as no, if you're not going to recognize me for an additional comment. Thank you.

Bill No. 845

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 202, Item A approved March 19, 1986, which authorized the sale of property in the 4th Ward, being a 2 story, brick house on a 32.29' x avg. 58.04' x 15.91' lot, located at 2526 Rr. 2526 Allequippa Street, designated as Block 11-D, Lot 64 to Albert W. Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 846

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 201, Item A approved March 31, 1988, which authorized the sale of property in the 12th Ward, being a 2-1/2 story, frame house on a 25 x 135.12 lot, located at 6924 Kelly Street, designated as Block and Lot No. 124-M-225."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 847

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the filing of a petition or petitions for the sale of certain properties in various Wards of the City of Pittsburgh, acquired at tax sales in accordance with Act No. 171 of 1984."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, we have before us a copy of a memo from Mr. Murphy regarding -- It's relevant to Bill No. 847. It says, "Please rescind Item F of Council Bill 847 for the sale of six lots on Glen Mawr Avenue. The purchaser, Mr. Jack Buncher, Chairman of the Board of Corliss Roadway Corporation, has stated that they do not wish to become involved with a dispute with Council and has asked for the return of his hand money."

I don't know if someone was prepared to make this in the form of an amendment; it is possible. I do want to state that having investigated this issue with the Director of Planning at the County level who is responsible for the Airport master plan, as well as Mr. Lurcott, I had some brief comments but I was not seeking to initiate a dispute with Mr. Buncher and if he was to develop this property I wish him well.

I would like a clarification from the President regarding this memo. Is this to be entertained at this time?

The Chair:

If somebody is going to make that motion, it will be entertained. If not, we're going to go along with the bills as presented.

Mr. Ferlo:

I make a motion to amend this bill, 847, to repeal Section F at the wishes of the Administration.

Michelle Madoff:

Second and discussion. On Bill 84, I called the Buncher Company to try to determine what the problem was. If, indeed, by implication there was some motivation or some appearances of impropriety that the Buncher Company wanted this land, as it was stated here by Mr. Evers, for an entrance and exit. It turns out that it is a very innocent issue. Mr. Evers, trying to do a good job for the City and get rid of properties that we don't need, contacted the Buncher Company and said, "This property abuts your land that you already own; why don't you take it off our hands for $1100." They said, "Okay, if you want us to take it, we'll take it."

They really don't need it, they don't want it, and they absolutely don't want it now. They've never sought to purchase the property and they want to go on record that they do not want it or need it.

Mr. DePasquale:

I just wanted to comment that sadly or otherwise, all the City did here was lose the opportunity to place six worthless lots on the tax rolls. I realize that the Councilpeople who spoke out against it the other day meant well and I think if they would have done a little more homework it wouldn't have happened, it wouldn't have gotten out of hand, there wouldn't have been a story in the newspaper, that no doubt cause these people to feel that if this is the way the City wants to react to our doing them a favor, in effect, then back off. And that's what they did.

The Chair:

All in favor of the amendment?
Opposed?

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Also,

Bill No. 851

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution transferring the amount of $10,000.00 from Code Account No. 1001-1, Miscellaneous Services, Supplies, Equipment, etc., City Council (Index #100115) to Code Account No. 1006, Equipment, City Clerk's Office (Index #100602)." —(SPONSORED BY MR. WOODS)

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

AYES 7

NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 453

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution establishing the Hunger Trust Fund of the City of Pittsburgh." —
(SPONSORED BY MR. FERLO)

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, on Bill 453, the issue of the creation of the Hunger Trust Fund, I would ask support of Council at this time for the creation of the Hunger Trust Fund. It is still a fund that could receive private contributions, contributions from elected officials, and anywhere else. It does not have any legal problems with the creation of the specific fund in City government. So, at this time, I would ask support for the creation of the Hunger Trust Fund established with Bill 453.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Ferlo, I think we all got a package this morning from the Law Department. Is that correct? It addresses the issue of the check-off, addresses the issue of the bill to assess a larger licensing fee for poker machines or gambling machines, and included in that, did you see another letter from me from 1982? Is the Chair aware of this letter? In 1982, I asked the exact same question that Mr. Ferlo is asking; could we not have a check-off in our tax forms for specific uses for — My issue at that time was a job program. I was told by the Law Department in 1982 that it is illegal to have any check-off on a tax return or to use tax returns for that purpose. However, I believe that the trust fund, the creation of the trust fund, would provide a vehicle or a line item, actually, whereby people can make contributions for the City to distribute money to the hungry.

You may recall that a number of years ago I had a bill that provided for people to make voluntary contributions to the City of Pittsburgh, the Treasurer's Office, if they wanted to make payment of greater than their $10 head tax, and if the suburbanites wanted to pay more than their $10 head tax or commuter fee. We received one time, I think, $1200 and the second time over $2000 that went into that fund and, at that time, Mr. Dave Matter referred to it as instead of the commuter tax he called it the laughing tax. It isn't a laughing matter any more than this issue of hunger is a laughing matter, and I think by creating a line item, which I think is what you want to do, anybody can send money to the City to be used.

I wonder whether we ought to reconsider, because I would vote for a line item, I don't have a problem with that, Mr. Ferlo, but is there someone already doing a good job where voluntary contributions could be made to that existing organization and not put a burden on the City to handle those funds until you have clarified the issue of the check-off box or the vending machines to make it of some substantive nature. And then if you do, you need to determine where that money that is collected in the general fund or the line item, which group would get the money and how the distribution would take place.

Those are some unanswered questions that perhaps you can address.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President and Council, having read the Solicitor's letter this morning or directive, I quickly thought of the check-off box on our federal income tax where we're allowed to give $1 to a party affiliation for the President of the United States. That's still a form of tax which is no more than this, and what rule of thumb is used there that we are being denied here?

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I simply want to state that I support the intent behind this bill, the establishment of the Hunger Trust Fund, but the one section of the bill, Section 2, where it indicates the collection of license fees for video poker game machines, and that issue being in dispute as it is legally, I personally don't think that that one line should be part of the bill at this time. If, at a later time, legally it is determined to be okay, then I think that could be included. But I don't think it should proceed with that in there now.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, in light of Mr. Wagner's, Michelle's and other's comments, and in light of the fact that we recommitted the check-off and we still have discussion and review of some of the content of Section 2, if it would be permissible, and I apologize for not writing this out, and if you want it written we can hold the bill and I will write it out and come back to it, but I would like to make the suggestion, if you would permit this, that in Section 2 we just simply state that the Hunger Trust Fund of the City of Pittsburgh shall hold off funds generated from the collection of various private and public sources, period, and not specifically state, as Mr. Wagner has correctly pointed out, license fees and the check-off, etc. And then we make it a catch-all phrase. At this time I think it would bring to rest the concerns that have been legitimately raised by Mr. Wagner, Councilman Lyons and Michelle.

The Chair:

Does anybody object to the verbal amendment?

Mr. DePasquale:

Me.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, I support Councilman Ferlo 100 percent on this. As I said before, I do not believe this Council should be making rules and then breaking them at convenience. Councilman, you have my full support on this; I just can't go along with that.

Mr. Ferlo:

Two things on point of procedure. I will gladly either recommit this or, if you give me three minutes, I will type up the amendment and we can come right back to it.

The Chair:

Jim, we can't do that. We did that before and it got out of hand.

Mr. Ferlo:

I move to recommit.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Also,

Bill No. 454

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution directing the Mayor and the Treasurer of the City of Pittsburgh to amend the Pittsburgh Form 40, Earned Income Tax Return Form, to include a "check-off" box to allow a donation to the Hunger Trust Fund of the City of Pittsburgh." —

—(SPONSORED BY MR. FERLO)

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

In regards to Bill 454, I would ask that this bill be recommitted at this time.

Briefly, I think it's important that we ask that the Administration, including the Solicitor, re-evaluate their opinion of this bill in two regards; one, I disagree with the Solicitor's opinion from a legal point of view. He is taking a very strick interpretation of what the power of the Treasurer is in regards to designing the tax form, the Earned Income PGH 40. I think there's a broader interpretation that would be legal. I would ask to allow me time to get an external legal opinion regarding the check-off of the tax form, and also, I think it's important that we have more time. That's the main reason why I'm asking for it to be recommitted.

I do want to point out to my colleagues that for the 1987 returns, as of Friday, there were 5,986 tax refund checks that were mailed out totalling a sum of money of $670,432. Obviously, we would not get all of that money as some individuals would not choose to make the donation and the check-off. But certainly we could benefit from some percentage of that. It's important enough, and I ask for a recommitment at this time. I make that motion.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Point of Order.

The Chair:

Let me explain something. This Council is not out of order. People misuse point of order.

Michelle Madoff:

When you're through voting, I have a point of order.

The Chair:

This Council is not out of order, so you can't call it to order.

All in favor of recommitment?
Opposed?

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Also,

Bill No. 456

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution directing the Mayor to prepare a year-end State of the Poor Report." —
(SPONSORED BY MR. FERLO) (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

On Bill 456, regarding the year-end State of the Poor Report. We've had lengthy discussion on this. Council was kind enough to sit through a four-hour public hearing with close to 50 speakers, representatives from organizations as well as constituents who voiced their concern that the State of the Poor Report is in the best interest of the City.

I would ask that Council please consider supporting this resolution. I think it provides a framework that would yield a document that the Administration as well as Council can use as a benchmark to determine exactly what the state of low income people, individuals and families is in the City of Pittsburgh. I think it would set a framework for the way that government needs to respond positively to try to deal with the problems faced by low-income individuals.

Again, there's a voluntary request to the Administration; there's no legal barrier to this resolution, and I sense a willingness on the part of the Administration to work on what would amount to be a valuable document.

So, at this time, I would ask support from my colleagues on Bill 456.

Michelle Madoff:

Am I allowed to speak as a duly elected member of this Council? I'm allowed to speak? I just wanted to be sure.

On Bill 456, Mr. Ferlo, you have asked that it be a request, is that correct, not a mandate? You're not directing; you're requesting.

Mr. Ferlo:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

Therefore, I second it and support you.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill

Bill No. 734

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement granting to Carnegie Mellon University the right to construct and maintain a building over a sewer line of the City of Pittsburgh on property owned by Carnegie Mellon University in the 4th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh, vicinity of Forbes Street and Margaret Morrison Street."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

This bill has been discussed at length. I would like my comments brought forward from the June 1 Committee Meeting.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, first of all, I'd like my comments brought forward from the meeting where I believe discussion occurred a week and a half ago on this issue, on Bill No. 734.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

---

(BEGINNING - MR. FERLO'S AND MR. WAGNER'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 734 - WEDNESDAY, 6/1/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

The reason why I wanted it held for one week is we haven't received anything in writing from Dr. Cyert of the University in response to the issue including discussion between Mayor Masloff and Dr. Cyert, and discussion I also had with Dr. Cyert and I would like something in writing from the University relative to this issue. I don't see it as an outrageous request given the fact that they would want something from the City and we want something from them. So I wanted to hold it for one week until a written response comes a letter from Dr. Cyert.

Mr. DePasquale:

I think Madoff and Woods put it into perspective and I'm opposed to the hold motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Recognizing that the motion will not pass, I will withdraw to hold and just have a formal vote but I would like to offer an amendment to the bill.

On the actual bill I'd like to offer the amendment which I distributed a week ago which basically, rather than reading the whole bill again, it's the same bill with the caveat-- "...at the end upon formal adoption by the Board of Trustees of Carnegie Mellon University of a complete divestiture of investments in companies doing business in South Africa." I'd like to offer that as an amendment.

The fact of the matter is that it was a very close vote. The fact of the matter is that it was debate that probably the University Board of Trustees hasn't had in 50 years, and because it was such a close vote, the power now rests in this Chambers with this City Council to tip the balance of scales.

It is very possible and the reason why I wanted to hold it obviously is that I would like to hold it. I would like to agitate and publicly embarrass and chastise and criticize and call to task the President of Carnegie Mellon University and the Board of Trustees. All those other corporate leaders, political officials, judges and other people who sit on that Board of Trustees.

The only power that we have to have a meaningful input or impact on the Board and the University policy is the prerogative and the power of this Council on this specific legislation. We don't have the power because nothing comes to the table. We now have a unique ability, we have an anchor. We have the issue of the City granting a right-of-way over a sewer line for us to take on an important public policy debate with this university.

It is not broadly philosophical in nature, it is fundamental. Why is it that the University--Carnegie Mellon, who recently announced that they want to make investments in a new computer firm owned by the gentleman who owned the Apple Company. Something that's wonderful; I applaud the efforts of the University to donate a few thousand dollars in their holdings for this new computer company. It means jobs, it means economic development activity. Why the heck should the University persist in maintaining a $16 million portfolio for economic development and oppression in the government of South Africa? It makes no sense whatsoever. Yes, I'm trying to call the University to task. Yes, I'm asking the Council to take to heart the previous legislation which you supported under divestiture, not only dealing with what's happening with the city contracts and city dollars, but we're an advocacy body in addition to being a public policy body and I disagree with my colleagues respectfully because I do think we have the power to publicly condemn and chastise the University and we have the power here to tip the balance of scale on the Board of Trustees.

I believe strongly that if we hold out the next couple of weeks on this bill, Dr. Cyert would have to get on the horn and call together an executive committee of the Board of Trustees and those few Neanderthal corporate leaders who sit on that board that are holding out on this issue I think we can tip the balance of scale, I think we can have an influence with them.

Yes, I'm asking Council to make a moral and a political commitment and obviously I'm asking Council possibly to do something that we don't even have the legal prerogative to do. But 15 years from now when I look at young people I want to feel like I can say honestly that I did everything in my power as a legislator, as an individual, to fight a system that should be wiped off the face of the earth. We have the power to do this.

I think we have to do more than chastise Dr. Cyert and the Board of Trustees. I think we should stand firm in our resolution, vote this bill down and I think very clearly in the next few weeks the University will come back to us with a reconsideration; that's all I'm asking for. Thank you.

---

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like to make a brief comment and Mr. Ferlo, the bill is now in your committee; it wasn't originally so you can have the final comment if you wish, but I'd just like to make a brief comment.

I think Council has made a moral and political commitment with divestiture legislation in the past that was spearheaded by Councilman Robinson at the time of which it passed Council unanimously, and so Council from a city perspective has made a commitment, and probably one of the first governmental bodies in the country that made that type of political commitment. This is illegal according to our Solicitor and I can't state that any clearer. We cannot legally proceed with this type of an amendment. However, I think Mr. Ferlo should get a response from CMU and I would hope that prior to final vote on this legislation this Monday that Dr. Cyert would respond in writing to this Council and in particular to Mr. Ferlo.

I also agree with Mr. Woods that simply by making the issue a public issue, a lot has been accomplished and a public awareness is there that was not there in the past.

Mr. Ferlo:

Just in closing I respect Mr. Woods comments and I appreciate the comments made by Michelle.

Again I think it's important that we win on this issue, not just go through the rhetoric and discuss the issue and the philosophy and I think the reason why I wanted to hold the bill is to avoid a legal battle if we don't vote on the bill and what I would encourage Councilmembers now to do is to vote no on the bill. We will not engage in a legal battle, we're just voting no on the bill and at some point in the future we'll give reconsideration of the legislation. So if we vote no on the bill, we still have the ability to come back and approve the right-of-way at some future time when these corporate Neanderthals meet with Dr. Cyert and reconsider the action that they took several weeks ago on the Board of Trustees.

(END OF COMMENTS)

PREPARED BY: MARY ANNE HRUSKA, STENOGRAPHIC REPORTER 1

Mr. Ferlo:

I still maintain my position that City Council should take an affirmative action here and deny this right-of-way for the Carnegie Mellon University. I think it's important to point out that the recent vote of the Board of Trustees regarding the divestiture bill and failure to support divestment from South Africa was an action that was not only despicable and deplorable but morally repugnant. I think it's important in the November meeting of the Board of Trustees that yourself and others who may be members of the Board of Trustees at Carnegie Mellon University call for a public vote on the divestiture issue once again. I wish that my colleagues would join me in making this kind of a firm statement. I discussed at length in the previous meeting the conditions that exist in South Africa. This Council has been on record for many years in support of divestiture; here we have an exact opportunity to make a very formal statement and hold out the permission of granting a right-of-way to CMU until such time that they reconsider their vote.

There doesn't seem to be a majority of support on this body for that action but I once again would call to task and publicly chastise the University for their actions. And I hope that in the future, at the next Board of Trustees meeting, they would reconsider their actions. But I could not, in good conscience, vote to support this right of way for a university that has taken such actions.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President and Council, I cannot understand why Carnegie Mellon and the Board of Trustees of Carnegie Mellon are so defiant as not to release their holdings in South Africa. I could in no way, or in good conscience, vote or support this bill. In the first place, I feel anyone who supports the regime of Bota in South Africa is arming them and supporting people to be disenfranchised from voting in any other right. And not only that, we are manufacturing to them through the profits of our investment weapons to annihilate the Blacks of South Africa. Therefore, there would be no way that I could vote for this bill.

Further, I feel that why couldn't we wait, if they're so honest and so interested, until they divest themselves of their holdings and then we give them consideration.

If I'm in order, I'd like to make an amendment.

The Chair:

No, you're not in order.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, since I wasn't here last week to express my views, I'd like to make it perfectly clear that I, too, am an opponent to apartheid. But I think by going along with Councilman Ferlo's amendment, what we will be doing is setting up a very dangerous precedent. I think that we need to keep government and the educational institutions of this country separated. I think when we get to the point where the government, whether it's local, state or federal, is dictating policies to our educational institutions, you're getting very close to saying, what are we going to start limiting next? What they teach or what they don't teach or having different requirements on what the academic institutions can or cannot do. And I feel that this would be one step in that direction and, because of that, I cannot support the amendment.

Mr. DePasquale:

Unequivocally, I think I can say that all Councilmembers are certainly opposed to apartheid, or anti-apartheid. But, as usual, some of our bills get out of hand and discussion gets out of hand. This bill is far from support of apartheid. It has nothing whatsoever to do with apartheid or the situation in South Africa. Here is a university that wants to put up a dormitory over a waterline. Nobody objects to the President of the University; the trustees voted not to divest of their South African holdings. How this could possibly be connected with this waterline or with the dormitory is beyond me.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I certainly concur with what my colleague, Mr. DePasquale, has said. We are all unanimously joined in opposing the horrors that go on in South Africa and the fact that this Council, I think it was my resolution, initiated that we support, we urge the City to enter into getting rid of all interest or doing business with anybody that doesn't support divestiture and doesn't support taking action against apartheid. However, I do want to point out that it is a fact that Dr. Cyert and most of the actual staff or the boardmembers of Carnegie Mellon support our position. They agree with us; they think it's horrible. Dr. Cyert thinks it's horrible. As a matter of fact, the amount of money that we're talking about, I think, is $16 million which is a very small portion of the budget and dollars allocated to Carnegie Mellon.

The last I heard, both you and Mr. Wagner, were going to make contact with the powers that be at Carnegie Mellon so that they would know our feelings and see if you could voluntarily get them to change their mind. But I agree with Mr. Coyne, that we cannot do something wrong because somebody else is doing it. Two wrongs don't make a right.

I understand Mr. Ferlo's position; he'd like to use it as leverage to force another vote. But I think in a very responsible leadership way, I believe that you were to meet, Mr. Woods and Mr. Wagner. Did you do that? You said you were going to report at last Wednesday's meeting and I did not hear the results of that. What did they say?

The Chair:

I'm going to let you finish and then

Michelle Madoff:

Okay, well anyway, if they are going to move to revote on the issue of apartheid, then so be it. I think we've accomplished our mission. If they are not, then it is incumbent upon this body that every month a letter goes out from this Council saying, another month has gone by, this is now July of 1988, this is now August of 1988, September, and we bring to mind that we are not going to close our eyes and our ears and pretend it isn't going on and forget. And as leaders of the community, elected to be leaders of the community, we have a responsibility to speak out. And I think you've done that, Mr. Ferlo, with the support of this Council. But I don't think it's responsible to act as we are, using delaying tactics. I think we'd be more effective taking a stronger stand and getting public support for our position than we are to vote on an issue such as this.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like to say that I spoke with Dr. Cyert last week over the phone. Dr.

Cyert is very sensitive to this issue. You have stated accurately what his feelings are and he indicated that there would be another attempt at a vote within CMU in the future.

I believe, also, that Mr. Ferlo has accomplished something here, even if the bill, his bill, his wishes are not met, in that publicity has been brought to the issue. However, I think it's Council's responsibility to do what Council is capable of doing. Council, as has been discussed over three years ago, was one of the leaders of any municipality in the country under then Councilman Robinson's legislation for the City of Pittsburgh dollars not being invested in South Africa companies.

Therefore, I believe we have done what we can do within the monies under the control of City government. However, I think the project at CMU is very important to all people, including minorities, and that project should move forward. We're talking about a sewer line and building a building, a multi-million dollar project over a City of Pittsburgh sewer. We cannot hold up that economic development because of this issue of which we, in essence, have very little, if not no control over. So, I would suggest that we move forward.

The Chair:

I would like to say that I spoke to Dr. Cyert last week; I spoke to him again today as he was leaving, I believe for New York. He guaranteed me there will be another vote; it will be, instead of a written ballot, a public vote and I'm almost sure that it will pass. He's guaranteed me that he will have — He can't guarantee that it will pass but I'm saying that I'm almost sure it will pass and I think Mr. Ferlo and you and Mr. Lyons, I think you accomplished your goal. You brought this to light; it got a lot of press out of it. I believe that by chastising this university any longer or by holding this piece of legislation up, it's not going to accomplish anything other than what it already accomplished. They not going to vote until they have another meeting one way or the other. There's nothing more that this Council can do other than take the good will, the good doctor and his word that he's going to do it, and I believe he's going to do it and I'll be there.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President, I'd like to thank you for your communication to Dr. Cyert and also you've indicated to Council that you will attend the next board of trustees meeting and ask for a public vote on this matter. So, I'd like to thank you for that.

I did want to call attention to both Council and to the public that if you feel sympathetic to this issue, prior to the November board of trustees meeting, I would hope that individual Councilmembers would write to the 40 or 50 odd board of trustee members. I did that a week ago; I think individual letters from this elected body would be supportive as, as well, if there are individuals — an organizations in the community, I hope that you will communicate your concerns to the University. Thank you, Mr. President.

Michelle Madoff:

I have a question, Mr. President. This meeting, is it open to the public, the vote?

The Chair:

I don't know.

Michelle Madoff:

Could you find out for us because it might be productive if this Council were to go down and watch the vote.

The Chair:

I think that's exactly what, if I was a boardmember, I would try to avoid having make a show out of something. I'm not saying that facetiously; I would not want to sit on that board if I was one of those members and have the general public come in and raise a lot of hell. I understand what you're saying, but I think we'd be better off following Mr. Ferlo's suggestion, writing some letters to all the board members. In fact, we can do this at Council as a body.

Michelle Madoff:

That's a good idea. Is that a motion? I'll second it.

The Chair:

I can't make a motion.

Michelle Madoff:

I'll make a motion that we write, as a body, to all the board members who would be voting on this apartheid issue.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I was not suggesting that it be an open meeting where the public comes down and descends on Carnegie Mellon. I want to get that clear for the record. All I asked is, is it a public, open meeting. You are a member of that board; is that correct?

The Chair:

Right.

Michelle Madoff:

Are there people in attendance who can sit as they can in Council and watch? I just wanted to know whether it was an open meeting. But certainly, you've got to give them an opportunity at the next board meeting to change what I think is a grievous wrong by changing their vote. But at the next following meeting, if they did not change, I think it would be incumbent upon Council to go and observe. But I don't know whether it's open; I was just asking.

Mr. DePasquale:

I think when you answered Michelle Madoff's question with a yes, you're answering mine. As President of Council you automatically become a member of the trustee board. I know I was and Sophie was and any other President in the past. To tell you the truth, I attended a couple of those meeting and I don't recall if they were public or they weren't public.

The Chair:

They're not.

Okay, all in favor of sending that letter? Opposed?

Mr. Lyons:

No.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Coyne            Mr. Wagner
Mr. DePasquale    Mr. Woods
Michelle Madoff    (Pres't Pro tem)

AYES 5                NOES 2

(MR. FERLO AND MR. LYONS VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Mr. Lyons presented

Bill No. 921

Report of the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development for June 8, 1988 transmitting one ordinance and one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 239

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title Nine, Zoning, Article III, Chapter 921, Section 921.02, Zoning District Maps No'd. 6 & 7, by changing: From "R4" Multiple-Family Residence; "C3" Commercial; "M1" and "M3" Industrial Districts to "S" Special; "R2-T" Townhouse Residence and "C3" Commercial Districts and "A-1" Commercial/Residential Associated Districts certain properties located in the East Allegheny Community generally bounded by: NORTH CANAL STREET; CEDAR AVENUE; NORTH AVENUE and VINIAL STREET, 23rd Ward." (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Is there something missing on Bill 239? Didn't you add a rider that the bill would not go into effect until —

The Chair:

It's Section 2 at the bottom of the next page.

Michelle Madoff:

Then we are also voting on that as well. I need to apologize. I did not understand the other day that what you were doing — I thought you wanted to hold the bill until the 31st and then we would vote on whether the zoning would change. You're changing the zoning but the date that it goes into effect is next year; is that correct?

The Chair:

I apologize when I'm wrong. I don't have a problem. You did a very good job. I talked to the citizens in that area and I want to commend you on resolving that dispute and I will vote with you.

Mr. DePasquale:

I don't mean to get into a running argument with my colleague, Michelle Madoff, but I do believe that you can't explain any vote. If there's any discussion, it must be before the vote.

The reason I say this is that I intend to abstain on this bill and I wanted to explain my abstention before because I don't think it's proper to explain it when you're voting. I said at the meeting on Wednesday that I thought there was something over there that didn't smell right. I heard some ugly rumors and therefore I vote no at the time. But I will give them the benefit of the doubt this time.

The Chair:

Bill No. 924

Report of the Committee on Engineering and Construction for June 8, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 833

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements, or use of existing Agreements, with a Consultant or Consultants, for the implementation of the Swimming Pool Infrastructure Study; and providing for the payment of the costs thereof."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, on Bill No. 833, the issue of having a consultant or consultants for the implementation of the swimming pool infrastructure means, in layman's language, they want to hire somebody to go out and look at our pool to see what needs to be done.

I have been doing a thorough study and investigation of the Department of Engineering and Construction and the feedback I'm getting, people don't want to put their necks in the guillotine. The general consensus seems to be that they would like to go back to the way it used to be where Parks and Recreation had their own engineering, Public Works had its own engineering and took care of its own issues. In this particular case, once more, we're going to hire a consultant to go look at the pools for $40,000. I think probably we have in-house capacity of those people who worked in Parks and Recreation were transferred back to Parks and Recreation. If indeed at that time it were determined that they needed a consultant, I might be more favorably disposed. But we've gone to over $5 million in the last three years in consultants so that the Construction and Engineering Department can have a scapegoat; if anything goes wrong they can say, "I didn't do it, the consultant did it." The City can't afford that luxury. We brought someone to the City who is supposed to be able to administer a program and have the knowledge to do it. I repeat that we have some very serious problems, one of them I will address because I was ruled that I could not abstain an abstention so, at the end of the meeting, I will explain what I was trying to say about a giveaway of the dollars.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 835

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution further amending Resolution No. 274, effective March 29, 1985, as amended by Resolution No. 390, effective May 13, 1986, entitled: 'Providing for an Agreement or Agreements, or Supplemental Agreement or Agreements, with a Consultant or Consultants in connection with asbestos and environmental quality assessment and analysis at various City facilities; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by increasing the total project allocation by $20,000.00 from $70,000.00 to $90,000.00."

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

The Chair:

I'm just going to be very brief. I want you to notice that we did take care of the draft.

Michelle Madoff:

I wanted to thank you for that; I'm not in the draft. I will buy you lunch at the best restaurant in town. I'm tired of being sick. That isn't your restaurant, is it? The best restaurant in town? The Hyeholde; is that okay?

I wanted to point out that there seems to be some misunderstanding. Mr. Coyne and I just talked for a couple of minutes. I was not here this morning because of my cold; I was trying to get some rest and I didn't want to miss the meeting.

What I am saying is that I agree with Mr. Wagner. Yes, we should have four salt domes. That's not the issue. Yes, they should be where people can get to them easier in the same way that Mr. Wagner introduced the concept of having gasoline available so that we don't waste time with our trucks. But the issue is the $200,000. Those two initial domes cost $200,000; I think they're overpriced. The reason they're overpriced is that they needed extensive site preparation.

My questions is, and I don't know the answer to it yet, could they have gone on another site, and are we going to have the same kind of site preparation on the new ones? I was told they're not. Therefore, $800,000 is not the figure and if $800,000 is not what we should be paying, and I have one of the people who worked on those domes ready to meet with me and with you, you're invited to lunch, Mr. Coyne, to tell you that face to face, we're talking about the City taxpayers' dollars being, I'm trying to do it in a ladylike way, a giveaway. It's like taking an ad in the paper saying "come and get us; we've got $200,000 for a salt dome". I'm telling you that if they could have put it somewhere else, on another piece of land nearby, if they had done the proper drillings, borings, to find out whether the land was unstable, they bidded out to more people. The cost of domes can come in on that size, I looked at the structure of the size, could come in anywhere from $125,000 to $150,000, not $200,000. I have a concern that the last two salt domes are going to be $50,000 over what we can get them done for in a community that needs jobs. That's $100,000. The first two were $25,000 over, which would be $150,000.

But let's say I'm off-base and we only save $50,000. Wouldn't you like to save $50,000, Mr. Coyne, to give to some other needy cause? I know you would. And I want to share this information. I'm sorry we couldn't meet before but I do my homework and what I'm telling you is fact and it's going to be substantiated and I didn't want you to be publicly embarrassed.

Mr. Coyne:

Thank you very much.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President, while we're talking about an $800,000 figure up front, if we look at it — Let's take a hindsight here. It will be accessible in the four areas to save the City a lot of money. It proved, when they were putting up the gasoline stations in different places how much money that would return. Millions of dollars a year because the Police and the people that need gas wouldn't be an hour and a half from their site and the same thing here. I feel we would spend less gas by going to a place that is close to the area and the people wouldn't be out of work going from one long place to another place, as Councilman Wagner pointed out. I see an overall picture that it will be a big savings to the City and the taxpayers of Pittsburgh.

Michelle Madoff:

I was suggesting, Mr. President — What is the issue? The issue, we all agree. We're just saying it shouldn't cost as much.

Mr. Coyne:

I'd like to point out that the line items in the State budget this year for the hemophiliac care needs to be increased from $1.3 million, which it was last year, to $2.8 million in 1989. The need for this increase is because the blood factor product, which is called Factor 8, which hemophiliacs need to clot their blood, needs to have new testing on it for AIDS and to make sure it's hepatitis free.

The treatment that had gone from 5 cents a unit is now up to 65 cents a unit, which is making it highly improbable that a lot of people who have hemophilia are able to afford it, especially those who cannot get third party insurance because of their condition or because of their inability to work. Fortunately, due to the efforts by the Western Pennsylvania Hemophiliac Society and by Representative Ivan Itkin, Governor Casey has agreed to increase the cost the State will pay into this program by $1 million. But that still falls half a million dollars short of what is needed to maintain the same level of care for hemophiliac programs throughout the State. The Pittsburgh center alone, which is located in Oakland, would lose $100,000.

So, I would like to ask Council to send a letter to the Governor and also to the Secretary of Health, Dr. Mark Richards, encouraging the Governor to allot the extra half million dollars so that the hemophilia program is able to be maintained at its current status.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I'd like to share a letter with you that I've sent today. The letter is in regard to the Koppers Company and this letter here is one of several that have gone back and forth between myself and Mr. Peter Cohen.

"Mr. Peter A. Cohen
Chairman and Chief Executive Officer
Shearson Lehman Hutton
American Express Tower
World Financial Center
New York, NY 10285-1900

Dear Mr. Cohen,

Now that Beazer PLC has been successful in acquiring the Koppers Company, I would like to focus attention on what has been my number one priority throughout this ordeal - keeping jobs in the City of Pittsburgh.

In our previous correspondence one common theme was recurring, doing what was best for the people of this region. You, personally have cited Shearson Lehman Hutton's commitment to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania: employees, offices, charitable, civic and educational contributions, equity underwritings for Pennsylvania - based companies and underwritings for State and Municipal Governments. That commitment is something I would like you to expand on.

As I'm sure you are aware, it is Beazer PLC's intention to sell the Chemicals Division of the Koppers Company. Brian Beazer has given the present Koppers Chemical Division employees 45 days in which to make an offer to buy this Division. For the City of Pittsburgh the salvation of the Chemicals Division of Koppers is crucial because 1,100 jobs are at stake.

I would like to request from you, as the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Shearson Lehman Hutton, any and all assistance to the City of Pittsburgh and the employees of Koppers in assuring a successful purchase of the Chemicals Division. To be more precise, if the Management/Employee Group falls short in obtaining the proper funding to complete the deal, I would like Shearson Lehman Hutton to be an equity partner. In doing so you would play a similar financial role as in the Beazer takeover. In addition a commitment to provide the expertise that you and your company can offer would be invaluable in the effort to keep 1,100 jobs in the region.

Let me go one step further. While a buyout of the Koppers Chemical Division by the employees is most desirable and would virtually assure the jobs remaining here, failure of an employee buyout should not preclude those jobs remaining in Pittsburgh. If an employee buyout is not viable, I would ask you to use your resources to find an alternative buyer that would be willing to keep the 1,100 jobs here.

Mr. Cohen, no elected official was more outspoken on your company's role in the acquisition of the Koppers Company by Beazer PLC, than I. However, I believe in leaving the past in the past and moving on to the next task at hand. For me that is doing all in my power to keep the economic climate of my City stable and neutralizing any future unemployment.

I must believe that Shearson Lehman Hutton is not insensitive to this concern and is willing to assist in this endeavor.

Time is of the utmost importance in this matter. Therefore, I know you will respond promptly to this call for assistance. I look forward to hearing from you."

In summary, I simply want to say since the takeover has occurred and the issue is not in the media and in the forefront, the days are going by and its not 45 days; we're already down to about 37 or 38 days remaining for the employee management group at Koppers to buy out the chemical division. It's a big sum of money; it's $400 million, and Shearson Lehman Hutton is an extremely wealthy company, investment banking company. If they can assist a foreign concern, Beazer, to buy out an American company, I think they should assist the management employees of Koppers to buy out the chemical division. They are certainly capable of doing it and I am hoping that they will put their best step forward and do it.

Michelle Madoff:

I commend my colleague for writing the letter; it is a well-written letter and I think his sentiments are in the right place. I think it also might be prudent, and I make it in the form of a motion, to write a letter to the President of Koppers asking him to please brief us as to what is the status of the leverage buyout before too much more time has expired.

I know that Tom Foerster has done an outstanding job; he's taken a leading role in trying to raise money. I have contacts with Koppers; you know, I did speak with Brian Beazer. As a matter of fact, I thought Mr. Wagner was holding a meeting here with Koppers personnel and I invited Mr. Beazer to be here. As you know, he met with the Administration that day.

My understanding is that there is an agreement that is very close, and they need more than 45 days. It would be in Mr. Beazer's best interest to extend the time and I believe that will happen. But we don't have any idea of what is transpiring. Other inside information is inside but I think it's common knowledge, and I think Mr. Beazer said that when he came to the briefing and the press conference, that he hasn't heard that the leverage buyout by management had a great deal of search and looking for the dollars and it seemed to be close to fruition. I hear that from one source and from another source I hear that there's some real problems. I don't think we can wait the 45 days to find out whether they need a little extra time; I think we should be briefed as soon as possible to see whether there's anything the City can do with leverage with the banks we do business with. This is not a bankrupt concern. Koppers is not a firm that needs an affusion of dollars in order to make a profit. It is anticipated that they are probably going to make at least a 15 percent increase profit this year over last year. It is a matter of getting the banking world to put some money up. Certainly with the kind of money in our budget at the end of the year that goes through the banks we have some leverage. And we shouldn't be waiting until the 37 additional days have expired.

I would make it in the form of a motion that this Council invite Koppers' President, Mr. Tenley, to come and meet with Council - he was going to do it anyway; he's willing to do it - and see what we can do to help. If you would do that, I would make it in the form of a motion. Will somebody second it?

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Would you set that up so we can be briefed or set up a meeting there where a representative of this Council can go and be briefed. I don't care if it's Mr. Wagner or yourself.

The Chair:

I have no problem with that but I know the Administration and the Mayor are working very diligently and very hard and I would not want this Council to, not intentionally, I know that, to try to undermine anything that they are doing. I will speak to the Mayor and I have no problem and I think we should be informed. I will speak to the Mayor and I have no problem with that.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, on another subject, very briefly because the hour is late. I was to introduce a resolution today transferring the aggregate amount of $500,000 from various code accounts in our City budget to the Hunger Trust Fund.

In regards to this resolution that I was going to submit, but I obviously withdrew it and did not submit it today, the Administration contacted me, specifically Mr. Turner, and I had a brief discussion with Mr. Jacoby. I believe it's the opinion of the Administration that they must come forward in support of a sum of money in relation to supporting the food pantries.

I withdrew the resolution, did not submit it today, to allow them an opportunity, I believe, tomorrow to make some type of public pronouncement regarding their support for the Hunger Trust Fund.

So, at this time, I wanted to explain why I was not submitting that resolution and why I'm allowing the Administration to come forward and a take some action regarding financial support for the City's food pantries. I'm just explaining my actions regarding with withdraw of the resolution. Thank you.

---

Mr. Lyons moved to excuse Mr. Pollock for absence from the meeting.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale moved to approve the Minutes of Tuesday, May 31, 1988.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Lyons

Council adjourned.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. DePasquale presents

No. 961 WHEREAS, under the sponsorship of the Polish Hill Civic Association, the first organized KIDSWATCH PROGRAM in Pennsylvania was formed, and

WHEREAS, under the direction of Toni Dobies, Director, the children of Polish Hill are learning the heritage and value of their community, and

WHEREAS, these children ranging from grade school to high school ages are contributing and volunteering time, by watching out and protecting their neighborhood, assisting the senior citizens and attending regular meetings of KIDSWATCH, and

WHEREAS, help has been given by Ann Davis, Sponsor, Polish Hill Civic Association, Father John Jendzura of Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Director Glenn Cannon and Officer Spruill of the Public Safety Department and Cheryl Barry, making it possible for these children to become responsible members of the community.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby supports and commends the KIDSWATCH PROGRAM on their continued effort in serving their community and for setting the example for the youths of other Pittsburgh communities to engage in this effort.

Mr. DePasquale moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale:

If I may, would Ann Davis and the other people who are with her, Father Jendzura, I see, come up here please?

I would like Ann and Father Jendzura to say a few words but I'm going to pull rank on both of them and say a few words first.

This, I understand, is the first program of its type in the United States and we have to commend Ann Davis and Father Jendzura, Toni Dobies, and everybody else who was connected with this KIDSWATCH PROGRAM and this great effort on their part to do something about the crime and the problems that are in the Polish Hill area. We hope that it extends throughout the City of Pittsburgh as the regular Nightwatch or Peoplewatch Program that Councilman Wagner was so closely connected with and worked so hard with. I hope to continue to do the same as he did in the past and work with those people in regards to their parade and what have you, and the Watch Night and so on.

So, without further ado, I'll ask Ann Davis and Father Jendzura and Toni Dobies to say a few words.

Ms. Davis:

Just a couple little notes, dear Councilmembers, my lady and my gentlemen. We are here to honor and praise our children, the KIDSWATCH organization which, incidentally, is a first of its kind in the country which the Councilman already said. We are putting a lot of effort and emphasis in teaching the children how to love one another, how to help one another, that the community belongs to them, to say no to dope, to alcohol, to burglary, so we can rid ourselves of the no-no's that we don't want in our community. I'm sure everybody else feels the same.

These children which total 60, are eyes and ears of the community. We are also emphasizing that there are no stoolies because the good kids will tell us what's going on in the community so they're called stoolies. Well we feel that they are not stoolies; they're only truthful and honest boys and girls in the community and I hope we can do that in every community in the City of Pittsburgh.

I want to thank all of you, all the Councilmen and Councilwomen for giving us this privilege and this honor and Councilman DePasquale and also Otis Lyons for promoting this for us. Also, Jack Wagner; he's been with us for a long, long time and has helped us through the years. So thank all of you for the kids.

Father Jendzura:

Good morning and a pleasant day to all of you. I want to thank the Councilmen and women for their graciousness in promoting this great cause. It shows an interest in the children who are to be the citizens of tomorrow, who may replace you tomorrow, and working for a good cause, promoting peace, promoting justice and promoting love. So, I want to thank you also again for your graciousness and may God bless you for your wonderful cooperation. Good health to you.

Ms. Dobies:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Depasquale for his efforts in sponsoring this legislation, to Mr. Wagner who has been so gracious to our program while he was committee head of Public Safety, and to Mr. Lyons for supporting our program, as well as the rest of the Councilmembers.

I would also like to publicly thank Mr. Cannon and the Public Safety Department, in particular, Officer Gus Spruill, Sergeant McFadden, and the crime prevention unit and every police officer in our zone who has helped to make our unique program such an overwhelming success.

A special thank you to our community, especially our youngsters' parents who have believed as strongly as I do that we must teach our children to be aware of their environment in order to be safe.

Last, but certainly not least, a thank you to our 60 strong youngsters who took that phrase, "peer pressure", and used it to their advantage, for the primary ingredient in the KIDSWATCH has been positive peer pressure.

May I extend, also, again, a special thank you to every Councilmember here for helping to preserve an endangered species called our children and protecting our most abundant national resource, again, our children.

On behalf of the KIDSWATCH and our community, thank you.

Officer Spruill:

I would like to thank Council for working with me down through the years. You know, I've been around a long time, and I appreciate your help in the past and I appreciate your help now. This is the result of our working together in the City of Pittsburgh to accomplish something like this. Again, thank you and God bless you.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd just like to say, first of all, I'd like to compliment my colleague for presenting the resolution, but all the people standing there is a great example of the cooperation within a community in the Polish Hill community. We have the church, we have the community organization, we have the Pittsburgh Police Bureau and the Public Safety Department, and we have all the people from Polish Hill and particularly the children. And if we can get that type of coordination in other neighborhoods in the City with a KIDSWATCH program which is an outgrowth of the BLOCKWATCH, or the BLOCKWATCH is the adults and the KIDSWATCH is the kids, if we can get that to happen in the other 87 neighborhoods in the City of Pittsburgh, that would be a tremendous compliment to all of you that initiated this program. Thank you.

Mr. Ferlo presents

Mr. Ferlo moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you for allowing me to misread some of those names of the students.

This is the document that was produced. As you can see, it's a very beautiful document containing a lot of poetry and prose and some narrative writing.

At this time, I'd like to ask for a few words, maybe from one of the students, and also Ms. Pamela Johnson, who helped to coordinate this whole project.

Mik Anderson:

I'd like to thank City Council for recognizing the hard work put to us by our Writing Workshop. And I'd like to thank you, once again, for this proclamation; it means a lot to us.

Ms. Johnson:

I'd like to thank Jim Ferlo for his support, his personal support, in making this publication a possibility for us. We're really grateful that the arts and young artists have been given this kind of support from the City of Pittsburgh. Thank you, very much.

Mr. DePasquale:

Besides offering congratulations, I'd just like to know, are these name changes official?

Michelle Madoff and Mr. Pollock present

No. 963 WHEREAS, on Sunday, 26 June 1988, approximately 200 Soviet citizens and a like number of Americans will be visiting Pittsburgh as part of a month-long trek for peace across the States. They will arrive late afternoon from Philadelphia to camp overnight at the Schenley Park Overlook; and

WHEREAS, the American and Soviet walkers will include a broad cross-section of ages, races and occupations with over 21 states and with all 15 Soviet republics.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh recognizes and commends the INTERNATIONAL PEACEWALK and its citizen diplomacy person-to-person contacts.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Ms. Beatty:

In show business they say it's good to be last on the bill, but you lose your audience in City Council. So, next time, first up, Michelle.

Thank you. I appreciate this motion from City Council. Last summer, I was in Moscow to do a documentary on the Soviet American Peacewalk which was the offspring of the Great American Peace March which came through Pittsburgh in 1986. It was very gratifying to me to encounter people who had spent time in Pittsburgh in '86 and had fond memories of the good hospitality that they received here in our City.

This walk, the American Soviet Peacewalk is the counterpart of the march from last year. I saw first hand as did our President in his recent experiences in Moscow at the Summit, that the Soviet people have a great deal in common on a day to day basis and in what we all want in our lives and for the future of our children and the world. It's gratifying to know that the City supports this event which is coming Sunday, and we also hope that the people of Pittsburgh will avail themselves of this opportunity to come out to Schenley Park Overlook on Sunday evening and exchange conversation and perhaps some picnicking with our Soviet guests. I certainly hope that City Council will avail themselves of the opportunity to come out during the official welcoming ceremonies from the stage from 7 to 7:30.

Two special acknowledgements; three really. I want to thank Councilman Mark Pollock for his attendance at a couple of our ad hoc committee meetings. He gave us good advice and good support. Also, the Citiparks Southern Division, Vince Hurley, who secured the permits for the encampment and was real supportive and discovered a peace pole which had been given to the top 50 cities in the States. It had been supported by our late Mayor, Richard Caliguiri, and when he discovered this, we also agreed that Sunday night was an appropriate day to officially install the peace pole which has greetings, slogans for peace, in Russian, English, Spanish and Japanese. So, that will happen on Sunday as well.

But thanks very much for the resolution. Thanks to Michelle Madoff for sponsoring it, and hope to see you on Sunday. Thank you.

An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title Nine, Zoning, Article Five, Regulations Applicable to All Districts, Chapter 993, Exceptions, Section 993.01(a)(3) by adding, final recommendation shall require at least five affirmative votes of the appointed Commission members.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Point of Order. That was supposed to be introduced as a floor motion because it's only the will of Council. We can't force this; you need an Enabling Act from the State and what we want to do is ask for an Enabling Act and I have the bill ready to ask for it.

Mr. Perry:

I understood it was supposed to be an ordinance, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

It can't be. It's only the will of Council to try to get an Enabling Act out of Harrisburg.

Mr. Perry:

We can make it a read and adopted

Michelle Madoff:

Why don't I do it later? I was going to do it later.

The Chair:

Alright, the introduction of that paper will be disregarded. We'll bring it up at the end of the meeting.

Mr. Wagner presented

This seminar should prove extremely valuable to Mr. Yakich in his position of Accounts Payable Supervisor, as his primary responsibility is collection of unpaid tax revenues.

Also,

No. 953 Communication from Melanie Smith, Director, Department of Personnel and Civil Service Commission, requesting authorization for Barbara A. Brown to attend the Private Industry Council Phil-a-Job recruitment show in Philadelphia, PA, on June 15, 1988, at a cost not to exceed $334.00, payable from the JTPA-1 Trust Fund. Which was read, received and filed.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President, if it's appropriate under Unfinished Business, we're now approaching the third week in June and in previous meetings and actions of this Council relative to the issue of the workers' compensation contract, it's my belief that the first part of June the Administration was to come back with a report. I believe that's Unfinished Business. I'd like to know what the status is of that.

Secondly, we had set the first week of June as the time that we would allow the Administration to formally communicate to Council regarding their intentions of the Troy Hill Fire Station. We're now approaching June 20th and we've not heard from the Administration on these two important matters and I'd like to know what the pleasure of the President is regarding these two important issues.

The Chair:

On both matters, Mr. Ferlo, I will see Mayor Masloff. I'll try to call her as soon as this meeting is over, and have something for you, for Council, before the week is out, or what direction, if we have to have a meeting. But definitely by next Monday I will find something out. If I find it out quicker, I'll relay it and call a special meeting of Council.

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you, Mr. Woods.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Wagner presented

Bill No. 957

Report of the Committee on Finance for June 15, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 871

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of Burtt, Seman and Hamilton in the amount of $250.00 for consulting services rendered to Michelle Madoff, without previous authority of law, and providing for the payment of the cost thereof." —(SPONSORED BY MICHELLE MADOFF)

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like to address Bill No. 871. I think it would be in order to carry a sentence when any Councilmember transfers money from their own allocations to you for payment that it is so indicated on the bill so that anyone listening doesn't think that someone had extra monies. This is the way we pay our consultants and I've transferred $250 from my stipend to Mr. Perry. It would be helpful if it said, "Transferred from Councilmember" because this comes up from time to time for various members of Council.

Also,

Bill No. 872

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the issuance of a warrant in favor of Henry, Buchanan, Mick & English, P.A., in the amount of $1,525.00 in payment for legal services furnished for the benefit of the City without previous authority of law; and providing for the payment thereof, and repealing Resolution No. 338 of 1987."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |

And there being two-thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 873

(SPONSORED BY MR. FERLO) (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 890

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution transferring the sum of $1,600.00 from Code Account 10, (001008) Accounts Payable Prior Years to Code Account 1801, (180109) Miscellaneous Services, Department of Parks and Recreation."
—(SPONSORED BY MR. LYONS)

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 906

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the transfer of union dues of employees of Environmental Services which were held in escrow in Blue Cross/Blue Shield, Index Code 210005, to Interest Earned Payroll Withholding Fund, Index Code 210500, and providing for the payment of the union dues including interest earnings to Environmental Services employees and Local 249 while the City of Pittsburgh held the union dues in escrow."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Michelle Madoff  |
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Ferlo      | Mr. Woods        |
| Mr. Lyons      | (Pres't Pro tem) |

AYES 7 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Michelle Madoff for Mr. Pollock presented

Bill No. 958

Report of the Committee on General Services for June 15, 1988 transmitting one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 904

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the City to incur Lease Rental Debt in the amount of $7,900,000 by entering into an Equipment Lease with the City of Pittsburgh Equipment Leasing Authority at annual rentals in varying amounts which will be sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the Authority's Equipment Revenue Bonds, Series of 1988, the proceeds of which will be used to pay the cost of acquiring equipment and paying financing costs relating to that series; approving the form of lease and authorizing execution of the official statement relating to the Authority's Bonds."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Members of Council, Mr. President, I think it's important after the lengthy discussion that we've had on this bill to clarify what the bill really is.

Mr. Ferlo:

Point of Procedure, Mr. Woods.

Excuse me, Ms. Madoff. It's my understanding by talking to the Director this morning, his response was that this bill will be held for one week. And if we're not going to hold it, then I ask for a recess so I can go get my notes to discuss the bill.

The Chair:

You're right; we don't want to hold it.

Michelle Madoff:

May I just address what I was addressing? I had the floor.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'm asking a procedural point relative to our action to undergo at this time. The Administration told me this morning that we're not voting on this bill.

The Chair:

We're going to recess this meeting today until they sell the bonds. Then we will vote on this bill. So, we're withdrawing the bill; we're not going to present it. Like we do on every other bond issue, they have to wait until they sell it. It has preliminary approval; it was passed on Wednesday. And then you can discuss it and whenever they have the window open, what the interest rates will be, that's when we will take final action like we do on every other bond issue. You're absolutely right. But we won't hold the bill or recommit it; we'll recess this meeting.

Michelle Madoff:

Point of Order. Have we given final permission to go out on this bond? I didn't think we had until we voted today. I didn't believe there was final approval to even go out and sell the bond until we voted today.

The Chair:

We gave preliminary approval on Wednesday.

Michelle Madoff:

But we didn't give final approval?

The Chair:

And we never do. We let them go out and get the window, they see what the interest rate is, we come back, we recommit this bill — Mr. Perry is right, we'll recommit this bill. We hold the Committee Meeting, then we come back into final action when we know what the interest rate is.

So, on this bill, I need a motion to recommit.

Michelle Madoff:

So moved.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Woods presented

Bill No. 959

Report of the Committee on Parks and Recreation for June 15, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 784

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with the Hazelwood Little League Association for professional services in connection with their Summer Baseball Program, at a cost not to exceed $2,000.00, chargeable to and payable from Code Account No. 1838, Miscellaneous Services, (Index Code 183806), in the Department of Parks and Recreation." —(SPONSORED BY MR. Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 884

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with Project 90, Inc. for providing professional services in connection with their Comprehensive Educational Program providing scholarships for low income families to send children ages 6 - 14 to camp, at a cost not to exceed $1,000.00, chargeable to and payable from Code Account 1838, Miscellaneous Services (Index Code

WAGNER)

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Could the sponsor explain, please, "at a cost not to exceed $1,000". Is that per child or is that just a contribution we're making to the organization?

The Chair:

That's for the entire band. One contribution we're making.

Michelle Madoff:

We're making a contribution to this comprehensive educational program of $1,000 to send children ages 6-14 to camp.

The Chair:

Right. To play in a band.

Michelle Madoff:

It's a very small contribution.

The Chair:

Right. That's all they asked for.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like my remarks brought forward on this bill, please.

(MR. WAGNER'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 907 - WEDNESDAY, 6/15/88)

The Chair:

As sponsor of the bill, I know that they are several thousand dollars short. Their intent is to raise at least $5,000.00, you are right. And I have indicated to them that this Council will publicly request that the School Board match this amount because this group is representing both the School Board and the City of Pittsburgh.

So, I would like the City Clerk, if it's in agreement with this Council, to send a letter to the School Board indicating that we would like them to match this sum of money with an equal $1,000.00.

(END OF REMARKS)

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Which was read, received and filed.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff:

My first item is to address the bill that was introduced in error as an ordinance which should be a floor motion and everybody has copies of it. You may recall, the other day we had a bill submitted to Council. As I've often said, one of the duties Council offers is scapegoating. People don't want to take the responsibility in their committees and then they say, leave it to Council; let them take the heat. There are nine members of the Planning Commission and, of the nine members, we got a recommendation on a bill with only three affirmative votes. Nothing passes without a majority vote of five. I don't see why we should not send the bill back and say we want five votes.

My understanding is, and we'll probably have to ask the Law Department and we should send this, if it passes this Council, the resolution back to the Law Department and have it taken care of from there because my understanding is that it's a state law that sets up the Planning Commission and they don't have to give us five votes but I'd like to have the Enabling Act amended that says before a bill comes to us there must be five affirmative votes or at least a couple of attempts to do that before it comes to us. My understanding is that if a particular bill goes back to the Planning Commission, there will be five votes. Six people showed up, for some reason somebody abstained, somebody voted no, three voted aye and I don't know what happened to the other vote. I don't think that's acceptable any more than it would be acceptable from this Council if we said three votes and it was no. Then there's got to be some other action. Obviously in this case it comes to us and we feel the heat. But I think either people want to serve on that Planning Commission or they don't want to serve on it.

I'd like to have an investigation, or a review would probably be more appropriate, by the Law Department of what is needed, do we need a) an enabling act; b) can we pass legislation ourselves that says we want the bill to come to us with five votes; and c) if people are attending or not attending who sit on that Commission and, if they're not, ask them to resign and get other people to fill those spots.

I think it's very important because I think a lot of hassling and fighting and dissention in the community is only perpetrated by the kind of action they get from the Planning Commission and a lot of time is wasted on both sides and nothing gets accomplished.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President, on the bill. If it came to us with three votes, evidently they're allowed to have three votes. I don't think this is the first time that something has come out of the Planning Commission with five votes. It would be a different body than Council. So, I think we would have to determine their laws first to see if they're within the ambiance of their law, that whatever amount voted, the majority of the people voted was in the affirmative for the bill. I don't see that if we're doing anything else later on, but my point here on the bill, we must determine that they're not in error. That's all.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President, I concur with my colleague, Michelle, on this point. I agree with her; I would suggest that we forward her draft bill to the Solicitor and do what she just said which is to basically ask the Solicitor for an opinion whether or not we have the power to pass legislation to create that threshold of a minimum of five votes or does there need to be a specific state law changing the enabling act or what have you. But I think if we just forward the document that Michelle has presented to the Solicitor, we could move the discussion ahead.

Michelle Madoff:

That was exactly what I said; I'm glad Mr. Ferlo agrees.

I just want to clarify for my colleague, Mr. Lyons, this does not pertain to his bill or to the bill before us. It pertains to all votes coming to us from the Planning Commission, that indeed they have five affirmative votes and, if they don't, we want to know why. At least we should know why we don't have five affirmative votes.

The Chair:

Mr. Perry, would you please forward that bill to the City Solicitor and get his response?

Mr. Perry:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

Do you want to read the bill or is it necessary to read it?

Mr. Wagner:

May I comment? Mr. President and members of Council, I'd like to say that I think it's a good idea to investigate that because even though the issue came in front of Council last week, it was a 3-2 vote out of the Planning Commission where they have nine members. There is a very real possibility we could get a bill, a recommendation, that has a 2-1 vote if only three members show up. So, I think we do have to determine what is the minimum number of votes that the Planning Commission should have. I personally would like to see a majority five, but this does not preclude this Council from voting on any legislation that has come to this Council with less than five votes. So, consequently, I think during the interim period of which we're investigating the issue and the legality of it, we still have a responsibility to move forward on legislation.

The Chair:

I'd just like to add one thing. I agree with both sides but the Planning Commission is just like our Committee Meetings. The majority of the people there, if there's only five people there and something passes 3-2, it comes to this Council in the Legislative Meeting with affirmative recommendation. If it fails 3-2, it comes with a negative recommendation. But this is the final action and this is also the final action of the Planning Commission. So, the law perhaps looks upon the Planning Commission as just what it is, a committee. As long as they have a quorum, they can vote and majority rules, just like we do at our Committee Meetings. But, please, let's send it on and get more information on it.

Michelle Madoff:

I think it is important that we read the bill because I think there's something left out of it.

The Chair:

It was already read. Mr. Perry read it into the Record.

Michelle Madoff:

There's something missing from the bill. I wish to add something to the bill, that we at least get a reason why the bill comes to us —

The Chair:

Please read it.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't have to read it; I just want to put an amendment to it that says we can at least have a reason why they are giving us the bill in the condition they're giving it with perhaps one positive and all negatives. We'd like to know why. Did they have two meetings? Did they have three meetings? How many times did they meet? Did they try to resolve the problem? Some kind of a response or a report to us so we know where we're at.

Mr. Perry:

Do you want me to read it, Ben?

The Chair:

Go ahead, read it.

Mr. Perry:

"Action of Commission. The Commission shall make a report of its findings and recommendations within ninety days from the date of filing of the application, final recommendation shall require at least five affirmative votes of the appointed Commission members, and shall transmit a copy thereof to Council and to the applicant. Notification of such findings and recommendations shall be forwarded to interested parties when a written request therefore, in each particular case, has been filed with the Commission."

The Chair:

It's no longer an ordinance. All it is is a piece of paper with writing on it. It's not even a resolution; it's not a bill. It's only going down to get Danny Pellegrini's opinion.

Mr. Ferlo:

On an unrelated matter. Mr. Chairman, I would like to report briefly to Council and ask for some actions to be taken relative to a post agenda session that was held last week regarding what I consider a calamity in this City, and that is the purchase and the operation and now the ownership of this lovely piece of equipment called the Pierce Tiller. This brochure here, in fact, shows our beautiful City with this equipment and I presume the company is in the process of promoting this tiller and I would hope that any other cities that are in ear-range would buyer beware.

There are a number of concerns that I have and I'd like to just very briefly speak on this point, since I didn't speak on any legislation that we were voting on earlier.

I'm very disappointed in Director Jacoby because in reviewing a transcript of the Council meeting in October of '86, a discussion that Michelle Madoff and

Mr. Wagner and Mr. Givens at the time engaged in with Mr. Jacoby. He conveyed certain information regarding the purchase of this equipment, a sum of money at that time that he indicated was $3.5 million. Under questioning from Michelle and Mr. Wagner and Mr. Givens, he answered a variety of questions, some of which and none of which was ever realized in terms of his commitments to this Council. He indicates that ten of them, meaning these trucks to purchase, will be ladder trucks and of that ten, three of them will be tiller trucks, meaning they will have the ability to have a rear driver. In fact, that's not what the City ended up purchasing; it ended up purchasing five tiller trucks and seven regular trucks.

Under questioning, Mr. Jacoby responded, and I quote, "None of these trucks will have any problem fitting in the station houses that we intend to put them in." That is not the case. We've already expended $2.4 million retrofitting the fire stations because the tiller trucks don't fit in. And in fact, as I'm sure Mr. Lyons and others have pointed out, some of these tiller trucks don't even go over many of our bridges throughout the City.

He indicates also that there are 30 companies in the United States, and I quote, "There are approximately 30 in the United States that will produce these fire trucks." That is not true at all; nowhere near 30 companies entered into bids for the equipment.

I think most importantly regarding this truck, though, because of the apparent problems there are in the design and the safety of this vehicle, is a direct quote from Mr. Jacoby who indicates to Council under questioning from Mr. Wagner, and I quote Mr. Jacoby, "Certainly we would not buy a truck without having seen one of their products. In addition to that, we would require references. We will also talk to the fire chiefs in the cities that do have their equipment and find out their service record and their performance record on these trucks. We would not buy a vehicle such as this without having not only seen the truck, seen it operate, but we would also talk to the other governmental agencies that own them." Well, either we got led down the primrose path, or Mr. Jacoby is a bold-faced liar and had no intention of doing what he intended to do.

I think it's irresponsible for the Administration to come to the table and under legitimate questioning from Councilmembers who are trying to determine the value and the priority and the worth of a purchase to be able to give this information and then not even follow his own words. Nothing took place; nothing of the sort took place in regards to the purchase of over $3 million for the new so-called Pierce Tiller.

Another interesting point, before I refer to some of the specific complaints from the people who have to use this equipment. I can't understand one thing, and I think we should demand an investigation and some very clear indication from the Administration what went wrong. In the bid specifications for this equipment, there is a specific paragraph in the bid that says, "In order to establish that the model which is being bid has been widely accepted in this area, bidders are required to provide a list on the attached forms of at least six fire departments, preferably in Western Pennsylvania, who currently have in service apparatus and cab chassis similar in both design and use to that which is specified. A list of references for use in establishing the expected quality of the proposed equipment must be provided. Failure to comply may result in rejection of bid."

On that paragraph alone, I cannot understand legally how we proceeded to even purchase the Pierce Tiller equipment. A company that never before produced a tiller equipment or even a fire truck with a straight ladder. This was not produced, ever, in the history of this company. How they even met these bid specifications is beyond my understanding. One would think that some shenanigans were afoot and I think it's the responsibility of this City Council to hold Chief Leahy responsible. As I've indicated to the papers and to the news media following the post agenda, I felt very strongly that Chief Leahy should either resign or be fired. I still believe that very strongly based on the information that I've seen.

Having been familiar with the tiller equipment that we purchased as well as the older equipment that we have, I physically sat in each one of the equipment. I agree with the complaints and concerns. There is absolutely no visibility or ability of a tiller man to drive the new aerial truck; there's no visibility. The ladder does not rotate 360 degrees completely, as the brochures suggest, because of design flaws that even before it came out of the factory they had to add some lighting to the top cab hood and, as a result, the ladder itself cannot even rotate unless it's 42 feet high already. There's no safety locks on the ladder, the hydraulic lift. Once the ladder goes up, in the last few weeks alone, it's been known to come down and there's a great potential for a firefighter to have his foot removed from this ladder.

I followed in a car the Pierce Tiller that went out on a fire to West Penn Hospital. Fortunately, it was a false alarm. And I noticed when the truck came back to the Stanton Heights parking lot where they were doing some maneuvers, the outrigger chased loose from the equipment. It extends out six or seven inches. It's going to cause a situation where that's going to be scraping cars at some point.

In noticing the maneuvers of the Fire Department, it's clear to me that the setting up of the new tiller takes three times as long to make it fire ready than the old tiller that we have in stock.

I mentioned the problems with the bridge weight, the fact that this tiller cannot even go over a number of bridges in the City, and in fact, Mr. Jacoby's comments were not accurate because in the end we did have to retrofit and redesign buildings.

All of these comments were alluded to gentlemen who are 10 and 11 year driving instructors in the post agenda session.

I'm very concerned. I think the previous Council has been buffaloeed and now we're holding on to some white elephants. I'd like to know what we're going to do about it. There are a number of options; I think Pierce should come in for free and redesign this vehicle if it's possible. Is there any possibility that we have any legal rights here to basically send the equipment back and get our money back? Are we going to investigate and have a discussion with Mr. Leahy who is responsible for the design flaws in this tiller equipment?

We've been led down the primrose path. We're out $4 million, $5 million, $6 million and we should be asking a lot of questions and demanding that some heads roll. Most importantly is the issue of the future. Is this a safe vehicle? Is this what we want our firefighters to have to live with every day and go out and try to wage a fight against a fire?

I'm saying, my friends in Council, that we have to do some more homework on this and we should be demanding some answers from the Mayor and from the Administration regarding what their intention is on this equipment.

I just want to point out in closing, and I hope that others will make their comments because they were here when I wasn't last year, it's interesting to note that the Pierce Company bid $345,000 for this equipment when we bought it. The same equipment is now being bid at $507,000, a recent bid that went to the City of Columbus, Ohio. They are, in fact, not the low bidder there so my prayer is that the City of Columbus, and I will communicate to those elected officials, will not embark on a purchase with this company. But they bid $507,000. I suggest that what we have here is a situation where a particular fire chief would like to either have his name go down in history for having helped redesign or, to use the brochure, revolutionize a piece of fire equipment. I think his ego is at play here and that ego has cost the City over $5 million. I would demand that Chief Leahy resign or be fired, quite frankly, and I would further request that the Administration communicate to Council regarding what we're doing about this. And I hope the public is equally concerned.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. DePasquale:

On the same subject, Mr. President. I agree wholeheartedly with the remarks and sentiments of Councilman Ferlo. The actions were very improper on the part of Safety Director Cannon, I believe, the General Services Director, Dawn Rotsford, and City Solicitor Pellegrini who were the three who walked out. I was sitting here at the time they walked out and, actually, I was shocked. I couldn't believe that they would refer such an insult to Council and the firefighters.

Their argument was that they weren't going to sit down and negotiate a contract or deal with the firemen in regards to their contract, collective bargaining, what have you. This was not a meeting with the firemen and with the Safety Department and the General Service Department of the City of Pittsburgh; this meeting was called by Council where these parties and the other involved and interested parties and who moreso than the firemen. And when the firemen sat down and they walked out, that was highly improper. I just don't understand their actions and why they did it and I don't know what we can do to get them back here, more or less force them to stay and have that post agenda or conduct that hearing.

But until then, I just want to go on the record as saying that I agree wholeheartedly with Councilman Ferlo and I thought that their actions the other day were very, very improper.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President and members of Council, obviously from the transcript that Mr. Ferlo read to Council, many of us were questioning the new fire trucks. In cross examining Mr. Jacoby early on before we actually approved and voted on them we knew that there was going to be several million dollars -- I guess we didn't know until afterwards that there was $ million in repairs to the actual fire stations, particularly the doors and the floors.

I was unable to attend the post agenda the other day and I'll be happy to tell you that I had a meeting with the design engineer looking at the $28 million reservoir covers and coming up with some alternative suggestions and on the salt domes. And I couldn't be in two places at once and the meeting had already been set up. So, what I did was have my office contact the Underwriters' Laboratory. The reason I did that is presumably Mr. Ferlo and others are saying the fire trucks are not safe; others are saying that they are, meaning the Administration. So, we wanted to get an independent person or an independent source that can evaluate the fire trucks. And we did that.

We spoke to a Mr. Boyd Cole of the Underwriters' Laboratory and we have the phone number here, it's a 408 number, 985-2400, ext. 2271. He's to call us back today to give us the name of somebody who is capable of coming in and independently evaluating the fire trucks as to their safety. My office asked him if he was able to evaluate the new tiller trucks for safety. He told us that the LTI Company of Lancaster has been making similar equipment for some time with no problems and are detected problems in the design.

He felt that it was a distinct possibility that our problem was a lack of additional training. But he will be calling us today or tomorrow to give us the name of somebody who could come in as an independent, as I said, from Underwriters' Laboratory, to look at the product, tell us whether it's a good product or not. And I thought that was the way to go. We ought to not be dealing in a vacuum; we ought to be dealing from fact. And I don't think we really have the facts at this point.

So, I'd like the permission of Council to pursue this avenue; I'm going to do it anyway but it might be as a joint support that we have an independent evaluating organization, Underwriters' Lab, that gets the Good Housekeeping Seal of Approval for a product such as this and let them come in and tell us whether there's anything wrong with the vehicles or not because no matter what we say, the Administration is going to say they're safe and the Administration could very well be correct. We don't know. Maybe there's more training needed; maybe the trucks are defective. The only way we're going to know is to have someone who has no axe to grind to come in to take a look. And that would be in the form of a recommendation that we have them come in. I don't think there's any charge but, if there is, I don't think it will be substantive; it will be minimal and we ought to go in a responsible course of action and I think this would be the way to proceed.

Mr. DePasquale:

One other comment, I forgot to say a while ago. In regards to the most important part of that post agenda, I believe, was concerning an alleged large amount of misspent money. And for the attention of the media, especially, for these people not to even sit down and to explain to us why they ordered this equipment, it doesn't fit into the engine houses, it can't make the corners of most of the streets in the City of Pittsburgh, and their argument was, so what, they had accidents before. Two wrongs don't make a right. They'll go out and order that equipment and I think Councilman Ferlo said in the amount of millions of dollars and then to say we've had accidents in the past. I don't buy that argument and I don't think anyone else should.

Michelle Madoff:

I have a motion on the floor, Mr. Woods, and I'd like a second, if I can, to have the Underwriters' Lab come in and do an independent evaluation.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

The Chair:

I think for us to do that we end up paying money. If we can convey that to the Administration, let them come in and let them spend the money.

Michelle Madoff:

I plan to do that.

The Chair:

But then for us to go and hire somebody, we can't enter into a contract and ask somebody to come in here.

Michelle Madoff:

You're saying this Council shouldn't go out and hire somebody, and I don't think there's any fee involved, it's the Underwriters' Lab, I think it's part of their services and duties. However, even if we had to pay something, how do we sit here and criticize the Administration, make accusations that we've all made about expenditures and the need to revamp the fire stations and the doors, and then say, but it's not our department to verify whether we know what we're talking about. Either we know what we're talking about or we don't. If we're going to criticize, let's know what the facts are.

Mr. Ferlo:

I know what the facts are.

The Chair:

I think Mr. Ferlo is going in the right direction. He had a post agenda and I'm going to take it further when we're all done here, and people are going to give some answers.

You have a motion on the floor and it was seconded. Now, anyone that wants, and I think for this Council to do that at this time is completely off-base. That's my opinion.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm sure the Administration --

The Chair:

Ms. Madoff, I didn't interrupt anybody here and I listened to you very politely. Now I have the floor and I'd like you to listen to me politely without putting your side barbs in. Do you mind doing that?

I think this Council should vote that down. I don't think we have any business hiring anybody to evaluate something that the Administration bought and sold this Council. And I think Mr. Ferlo was in the right direction when he called the post agenda and, since some people did walk out, I have another way and we'll get them here. But it will be done in an orderly manner. And if anyone is going to be hired to evaluate the safety other than Mr. Cannon or Mr. Jacoby or Chief Leahy, then let the Administration bring somebody in and tell the Administration where they messed up, not this Council.

Now, roll call on those in favor of Ms. Madoff's motion to have a private consultant come in.

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Michelle Madoff

AYES 1      NOES 6

VOTING NO:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Mr. Lyons        |
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Ferlo      | Mr. Woods        |
|                | (Pres't Pro tem) |

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I simply want to say that Underwriters' Laboratory is an organization that is paid by the manufacturers to test products. Underwriters' Laboratory, no matter what product they test, that company has paid them to do that. Are they independent? Yes, I hope they are; but at the same time, it's always important to check -- First of all, they're not always right; hopefully, the majority of time they are right. But it's always important to determine whether or not an independent, so-call independent testing company is being paid by that manufacturer to test that product.

I think the issue here, we've talked about several things, but I think the bottom line issue has to be the safety of the product. Whether or not this vehicle is safe, certainly this company has to have product liability insurance and maybe even we should be contacting that insurance company that insures that company and get their opinion and determine what types of tests have been conducted on the product. We certainly don't want our firefighters using something that's unsafe. I certainly believe that the firefighters' union doesn't want that, I believe Director Cannon doesn't want that and I believe Chief Leahy doesn't want that. So, somehow or another, we have to focus in on the issue of safety of the product, determine if it's safe or it isn't, and then go from there.

Mr. Coyne:

I did have the opportunity to attend the post agenda meeting the other day and listen to the concerns of the firefighters and, like Mr. Ferlo and Mr. DePasquale, I share their concerns. It seems to be a very serious issue of safety. But at the same time, Council right now is going forth with their argument and certain accusations without having heard from the Administration yet at this point. Granted, there are major questions and I have corresponded with Director Cannon's office to try to get some answers to those problems, and, for whatever reason they walked out of the hearing, they said it was because they were not advised that the union would be attending, that's something I think we need to deal with. And before we can jump off and start making proper decisions on what our next course of action should be, I think we should try to get a meeting together with the Administration and with Director Cannon and Chief Leahy to find out what their explanation is on the vehicle and to get their side of the story and then to make decisions as to what we should do from that point.

The Chair:

Mr. Ferlo, I will get hold of the Administration; I will meet with them and we will have another post agenda when there will be parties from all sides attending. It won't be a mob; it will be done in a proper manner.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President, on this note. I know for a fact that there have been meetings between the Mayor and others regarding the issue of these fire trucks and I know for a fact that the Administration realizes they've made a major mistake. Fine. Say that publicly and let's get on with making sure that these are either retrofitted, if they can. Do we have some legal prerogatives to send them back and get our money back? Can we rebid something in the future? Let's learn from our mistakes. But I'm only asking that yourself, as President of Council, take part in these negotiations or interactions so that we have some hand in what's going on and it's not just left up to the Administration because they've already botched this and without our input I feel that they will botch anything that will happen anew. And that's why I'm asking for your input.

The Chair:

I will do that.

Michelle Madoff:

Can I speak now? I do have permission? I want to be sure.

I think the suggestion by Mr. Wagner is a very sound one. Obviously, the company must have an insurance company that has approved the safety of the product. And I think if there's any other further meetings, if there's any question about the independence of Underwriters' Laboratory, which I will check today to verify what Mr. Wagner has said, that indeed they are paid by product producers. And if that happens to be true, and I'm not sure that it is, then of course we would not want to have the Underwriters' Lab. We certainly would want to have the company who carries the insurance and the liability on the fire trucks be represented here to explain why they insured the vehicles. I think that's an excellent idea.

However, if memory serves me well, I recall the firefighters having some great concern about these fire trucks and when I served as committee member of the General Services Committee, I gave them my word that no piece of equipment would be bought without their input. And I believe they did have input on the fire trucks before they were purchased. I'm almost sure that is correct. Now, whether they had enough information to go on, whether we're still all dealing in a vacuum, I don't know. But that's the kind of question I'd like to have answered when we have whatever meeting you're going to have with the parties concerned. I don't know how you're going to force them together, Mr. Woods; I don't know how you're going to make the Administration and the firefighters sit down if indeed there's a question of union negotiations.

I think it would be incumbent upon this body to write to the Safety Underwriters of the equipment, ask them on what basis they justify giving the insurance. I think it would be important to find out from the firefighters whether they did indeed — I didn't vote on it until I had their permission — did they go and look at the equipment and approve the equipment? My understanding is that they did. I don't think you can lay the blame with just one person. And I'm not sure from the information we have that it isn't just a matter of more training, and if that's not true and the equipment is unsafe, then we ought to get it off the street and protect our firefighters because the long-term cost is going to be far greater than the money expended today.

So, I'm just saying that it isn't enough to say we're going to hold a meeting; we better have the right people at that meeting.

The Chair:

Is there any other business to come before Council?

Mr. Lyons:

Real quickly, Mr. President. I have a thing that concerns me and it has since 1986 when we had the condition on the railroad track in Bloomfield for the moving of nuclear waste. I have written several Congressmen and Senators in this regard. In 1982, Congress has said that no nuclear waste would be removed until the repositories were made and then they would direct where the repositories would be. And that would not be until after 2000. They're always supposed to remain on the reactor site. Now we have been moving nuclear waste out to Idaho which I think violates every law in the country. Certainly, in 1986, two years ago when we had the incident here, quick payments were made to those who may have been affected and nothing is said.

I feel that there should be some instruments or vehicles that would abolish the removing of nuclear waste, because Congressman Luken, I have written him asking him to have this because electric companies are making millions and millions of monies and the costs are falling on the consumers. Certainly, I'm real concerned about the welfare of the people not only of Pittsburgh but of the country and I think that last year on May 5th here in Council, we had a public hearing regarding nuclear waste and from the representatives from the DER and NRC, they were very deceptive and very untruthful to the public. And certainly I'm going to pursue to stop the removal of nuclear waste. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Point of Clarification, Mr. President. Are these bills that were approved last budget and are just going through the process now with Unspecified Local Options? These are not new items that are being introduced. I think that's important because anyone listening is going to say Council is now starting to give these monies away; why didn't we get our fair share. So, I think that's important. This is what those bills are; am I correct?

The Chair:

Right.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President, several weeks ago we approved several bills which I believe were sent to the Board of Code Review; one on the plastic issue, and two having to do with reforming the Board of Adjustment process. I was wondering at what time do we expect word back from the Board of Code Review relative to their deliberations on those three bills.

Mr. DePasquale:

I think he said two weeks.

Mr. Ferlo:

It's been many more than two weeks.

The Chair:

He said probably a month.

Mr. Perry:

It requires 45 days for them to respond.

Thank you, sir.

LYONS)
(AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, in regards to Bill 948, you know, it's not my habit to agree with the Pittsburgh Press but they had an article Sunday that I thought made a lot of sense. Perhaps I fell asleep on it the other day but we're talking about a summer program and I think everybody knows here that I'm not against summer programs. But we're talking about this thing starting after July 1. I presume, if I can speak to the maker of the bill, that we're talking about youngsters who are on summer vacation who will be returning to school late in August or around Labor Day. By the time that money is put in place, if we get it, $200,000 which incidentally is a drop in the bucket, summer will be just about over. It just won't be worthwhile and it's a waste of time, personally.

I think it should be done in March or April so, if we can wait until next year and do it in March or do it in April and have a program next summer, and have a worthwhile program. But $200,000 this late in the year is just -- There's not going to be that much work or that many youngsters put to work and I doubt if we'll have that money in place. They won't get much more than a couple of pays.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, I move that Bills 947 and 948 be recommitted.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

(BEGINNING - MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NOS. 895 AND 901 - WEDNESDAY, 6/22/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Discussion. Appropriate to this bill, one of the problems that I have or one of the detrimental side effects of the Section 202 Program, the so-called senior citizen high-rise, for instance Shapinsky Arms--yesterday there was a public hearing in relation to a senior high-rise that will be built-in Homewood and this Council has approved many in the past.

The problem that I have or one of the things that I would like an understanding of has to do with the impact of when these high-rises go up and what happens in the community when an elderly person ends up leaving a home vacant and then goes into a Section 202?

I wanted a better appreciation for what the Authority is doing relative to resolving one problem, and I'm all for the Section 202 Program but I would like to see some result and emphasis placed on the home that is vacated and what can be done to not have a situation where these homes end up on the three taxing bodies or end up becoming condemnation, cannibalized, as Michelle has referred to. That's the problem that I have.

Mr. Lieber:

I guess my response to that is that the Authority runs 15 different housing programs five of which are devoted to home ownership. We attempt to stimulate the real estate sales in these neighborhoods primarily under our Pittsburgh Home Ownership Program which is the program for first-time home buyers. I think many of these neighborhoods that we see the 202's go up--Beechview and Brookline and Homewood is where we do the vast majority of our business. I think this year we will probably lend about $25 million promoting home ownership in the city so I cannot specifically say that every person that moves out each one of these units then sells their unit under the Pittsburgh Home Ownership Program but I think we are providing a favorable source of capital well below what you can get conventionally to try to stimulate movement of some of these houses and I think we have been doing that successfully.

It's under the Vacant Housing Program for those homes that are being left vacant and left vandalized and so forth and we have modified the program and we're trying to speed up production. I think in the nine months we found ourselves matching our previous five-year production under the program but I think that by getting additional funds under this program we can deal with the problems particularly in the Northside, Homewood and the Hill District where we think the problem is more prevalent.

Mr. Ferlo:

The question I wanted to get to Mr. Wagner is, on one hand we're doing something good by Section 202 Program but on the other hand we're displacing primarily elderly folks who leave a home in many cases. My question to the URA is, who actually provides an inventory for people who go into the Section 202 unit?

In other words, is there a specific process by which the URA determines when a 202 goes up and the doors open? What happened on the other end? Where did these people come from who are going to live in Section 202 and what happened to their homes? Who does that inventory? And who does that evaluation? Do you understand what I'm asking?

Mr. Lieber:

Yes.

Mr. Wagner:

If I may interject, can that tie into the two bills in the Vacant Housing Recovery Program?

Mr. Lieber:

I guess the assumption is that once these elderly individuals move into the 202, that their unit become vacant and vandalized --

Mr. Ferlo:

--I didn't say vandalized, I'm saying who provides an inventory of where the people come from who fill the 202 units? What happens to their the homes?

Mr. Lieber:

We don't take that into consideration.

Mr. Ferlo:

I understand that but my concern is that as part of this process and that's why I think it is related to this issue, someone needs to actually be hired if it needs to be a person hired on the payroll who actually does an inventory.

---

If someone goes into Shapinsky Arms, what happens to the home that they left? Does it get sold, great? Does it become abandoned? Does it go to a family member? Does it get turned into Section 202? I mean, someone should be assessing if it can be done within the constraints of this funding stream, I would like to see somebody take it into consideration in the future.

Dir. Donahoe:

It's an interesting point. We have this 202 in Homewood and it might be an interesting example of that.

Mr. Ferlo:

Even if it's done as a microcosim.

Mr. Lieber:

We know--there is information particularly by the non-profit sponsor that gives us an idea of where these folks came from so we could easily take a case study and try to find that out.

Mr. Ferlo:

Obviously I'm going to vote in favor of this but I would like the URA to consider dealing with that either by way of a specific example, the Homewood 202 or --

Dir. Donahoe:

--We will do that.

(BEGINNING - MESSRS. FERLO, WAGNER AND MICHELLE MADOFF'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 869 - WEDNESDAY, 6/22/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

It was only at 9:31 this morning that we received the legal opinion that I asked for. It's a beautiful document and I'm sure it will go down in the law library as a classically written legal opinion but if you get back through all of the five pages of legalese which it's great reading and I encourage to read it.

The letter from the Solicitor basically confirms what I had suspected all along is that this Council does have the power to abolish the Equipment Leasing Authority with one provisal and an important provisal nonetheless and that is that the outstanding debts would have to be retired. That was my observation and my belief all along. It's for that reason, and to this extent this bill does relate to the present bond issue under discussion. I feel very strongly that the Equipment Leasing Authority should be repealed and should be disbanded. I feel likewise in opposition to the credit card philosophy embodied in the Equipment Leasing Authority and the bond issue that will be discussed during this meeting.

The problem that I have is a very simple conservative fiscal philosophy and that is that we should pay as we go.

The Administration, since the days of General Services Director Yatch, should be commended for bringing the fleet up to par. I would argue that we probably a fleet as good if not better than any other fleet in the State of Pennsylvania and our Commonwealth. My simple concern is that in the future beginning this year that when we need to replace vehicles we do what has been done--my simple point is to return to what we have done in the past.

(AT THIS POINT I WAS TEMPORARILY RELIEVED BY HELEN L. KRIEBEL)

MARY ANNE HRUSKA
STENOTYPE REPORTER 1

---

(MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 869-Wednesday, 6/22/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

My simple point is to return to what we have done in the past, and that is within each year, the revenues that we receive, we earmark in appropriation of one, of three, of five million dollars for the direct purchasing of vehicles that are needed. The Administration has done a good job, and I would support their efforts at fleet management. We have done a lot of work in that area, and I would be the first to commend the Administration in that regard.

The management of the fleet is not the issue I am really dealing with. I am dealing more with the issue relative to the amounts of money that we spend and what really needs to be done. I find it inconceivable that, by way of example, we would go out and borrow $7.9 million to purchase vehicles, and we are going to have to pay over $1 million in interest for that 7.9. $1 million would buy a heck of a lot of Pierce Tillers -- and hopefully we wouldn't be buying those -- but they would buy a lot of Omni's for the Council staff and a lot of other vehicles. It is a very simple point.

Quite clearly, we have reached a different period in this city, as we approach the late '80's and going into the '90's. The fleet has been brought up and great improvements have been made. There is a management philosophy, a philosophy in place regarding the fleet. I am only urging in support of the repealing of the Leasing Authority, that we not go out on anymore future bonds and that we begin to appropriate monies each year out of the budget to pay for the equipment costs, whether they be replacement vehicles or new vehicles that might be needed like the prototype that the Department of Environmental Services wants. It is a very simple discussion, and I am sure will be made complex by the questions to follow. Thank you.

(Deleted text.)

Mr. Ferlo:

The issue of particular purchases is really not relevant to the broader discussion I am initiating with the introduction of Bill 869. If one wants to argue about particular purchases, maybe at the point where we are discussing the 7.9 we can re-entertain that discussion. I'm really trying to frame a broader discussion here, a discussion that is more long range impact than the simple purchasing of particular vehicles, be it good or bad or indifferent.

One of the harsh cruelties of creating an authority is that you create an independent entity to some extent. This authority is much more of a financial mechanism, and I would argue is at least much more under the control of the Administration and this Council than other authorities who take on a life in an Administration or a reality all their own. So it is at least somewhat limited in that respect.

What I am saying, though, is that looking at this from a multi-decade point of view, that there was a time in this city, coming out of the previous Flaherty Administration when he was Mayor, that there was a need for significant amounts of money to be borrowed in order to bring the fleet up to a decent existence. Michelle making the point of safety, I agree with her. I am saying that we must look now into the future and also reflect where we have been in the last 11 year or 12 years of this Administration. I am saying that because of the graces of having that money borrowed, whether it was under a general revenue nature or the creation of a specific authority, what we created was a sum of money. We didn't have to have an authority necessarily to create the sum of money, that was just advisable based on Mr. Turner's observation of paying off the purchase of the equipment, vis-a-vis the life of the equipment, in terms of our bond reading. I don't dispute any of that. I am only making the point now that we at least consider, and the reason why I introduced this was to set up or lay the foundation for the debate on the actual bond issue of 7.9 million, that we have gone through another window now, this is a new decade, we are going into the 1990's. And my concern is that we not continually borrow large sums of money increasing the indebtedness of the city, when I believe we have the revenues in hand out of a yearly tax base to pay for the necessary equipment costs. My argument to Mr. Turner is that if we proceed with the fund balance this year of $10 million or $11 million, or possibly even greater, that we consider rather than borrowing $7.9 million now at this time and having to spend $1 million in interest in order to do that, $1 million plus, that we look over the equipment list and that we entertain purchasing the most critically needed vehicles. It may be the DES prototype, it may be Director Gaetano's fleet replacing pickup trucks for -- whatever you call it, Chargers, Blazers, excuse me. I am arguing a different type of discussion relative to the financial health of the city, not a debate on any specific purchase, which I am certainly willing to debate later. I am asking the Administration to consider a broader discussion on recognizing where we have been and the tremendous contribution that has been made by the Administration, and to at least consider in the future the possibility of a pay as you go philosophy in terms of revenues received and earmarking the monies that we need each year, rather than bond mark it and the cost of the bonds, and all the other things that happen with the kind of financial transactions you are proposing.

I don't think what I am proposing is so fundamentally radical or fiscally irresponsible.

Mr. Turner:

Can I comment? I disagree totally; there is very little there that I agree with. We cannot afford, quite frankly, to eliminate the Equipment Leasing Authority. It has been successful, we are all in agreement with that. We can't afford to eliminate it. There is no doubt in my mind that even if we could afford it, which we can't, if we could afford it, we all know what would happen. What would happen is we would get back on that same path that we were on before, namely every year we would cut out the necessary equipment and pretty soon we would be back in the situation where we didn't have backhoes, and we didn't have the proper dump trucks, and we couldn't salt the streets properly, and all of our garage trucks were in the repair shop. We have an item that has worked very successfully, that is financially sound, that is economically solid. I would urge Council as strongly as I can to leave it in place and to continue on with the program that we have in place. I think it has been very successful.

---

(END OF REMARKS)

(TRANSCRIBED BY HELEN L. KRIEBEL)

(MICHELLE MADOFF'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 869-Wednesday 6/22/88)

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Ferlo, the reason, my understanding -- and if I am wrong, I can be corrected -- the creation of the Leasing Authority came about was probably for the same rational, which I disagree with and agree with your philosophy on the pay as you go, raise rates, that Council have the courage to raise rates and improve the water lines as we receive the money, as opposed to creating a Water and Sewer Authority with great debt.

However, in the issue before the creation of the Water and Sewer Authority, we had backhoes that were 15 year old that were out of operation all the time. We were spending more on rentals than you pay on that particular item in the debt service. We were paying rentals for automobiles for police, for whatever we needed, that would pay more than the debt service on that particular item. I believe that Mr. Yatch came up with the Leasing Authority concept not to create a windfall for somebody in the bond business, but to solve our problems. Now, if I am wrong would somebody correct me? And I will be very direct: Is it viable, now that the fleet has been brought up to par in some sense and the equipment in better condition, to now eliminate the Leasing Authority and to pay for items as you go? Is that a conceivable concept?

Mr. Turner:

Let me be very clear, because I also think this is a simple issue. I think it would be financially irresponsible to eliminate the Equipment Leasing Authority. I think that the issues on why it would be irresponsible have not been addressed. No one has asked my opinion, and quite frankly, I wish that this would have occurred prior, because just putting this on the table is potentially a problem in terms of trying to sell bonds.

So let's talk about some of the reasons why. Besides the fact that it has been successful, we are in agreement it has been terribly successful in terms of updating the fleet, if you eliminated the Equipment Leasing Authority right now, if you repealed the resolution and it died, you would immediately have the outstanding debt that would be due and payable. That is approximately $10.5 million.

Ms. Botsford:

The outstanding debt is 22.

Mr. Turner:

The outstanding debt that does not have any fund, the net outstanding debt.

Michelle Madoff:

Unfunded?

---

Mr. Turner:

That's right, that there are no funds available for. In addition, you would then have to pay approximately $7.5 million for the new issue. So what you would have is an $18 million financial impact on next year's budget. And I can tell you --

Michelle Madoff:

Give me that again.

Mr. Turner:

Approximately $18 million. I can tell you categorically without any hesitation that is not a number we can afford. It is very simple.

There are also many other reasons as to why you don't want to do this. But I think that in and of itself tells us alot. I think it is a very good policy, quite frankly, to set up a mechanism whereby you pay for the equipment over the life of it, and that is exactly what the Equipment Leasing Authority does. It has been very successful, it has saved us millions in the past in terms of our ability in the past to arbitrage, and I would strongly urge this Council to keep it in existence.

Michelle Madoff:

I want to continue, if I may. This would not preclude Council as a body getting together and looking at all the purchases that were authorized to Dawn Botsford, Director Botsford, and to determine that, indeed, as Mr. Ferlo has so eloquently stated and many of us stated long before he got here, that some of the expenditures are, indeed, unnecessary. Some of the cars that are going to staff people that don't need them, perhaps the caliber of car going to staff people that don't need them, and various others. We could look at each item in each department and determine whether directors who get as a perk a car, as opposed to getting an increase in salary, could be eliminated because -- and one of the points I have made repeatedly -- it isn't just the automobile that we give them, it is the debt service on the automobile, and it is also the fact that we give them free gas, free service, free insurance, and it is not necessary. I have never had any support for that on Council. Unfortunately, you don't have a choice, when department heads say, "We need to purchase X item," and Council has approved that item as a body, you are stuck with that purchase. Am I correct?

Ms. Botsford:

Well, this is a different procedure than that, but in that sense what you have said is correct.

Michelle Madoff:

So if Mr. Ferlo wants to be responsible, I think he does, and he will support me -- I have been here, a lone voice in the wilderness, for a long time -- Mr. Coyne, and Mr. DePasquale, Mr. Lyons, Mr. Wagner and the missing links wish to support the concept of being frugal and being responsible, then let's start to cut back on the surplus, the free bees, the excessive give aways, just because you like your friends and it is a good old boys club. I don't think you make a scapegoat the fact that a responsible entity, the Leasing Authority, is operating in a manner which has really allowed people who are working so they won't be injured to have the right equipment, because they get hurt when they fall out of backhoes or operating them, or out of cherry pickers, or what have you, the high equipment, to be responsible, to pay it over the life, and it has been a working operation.

---

I can tell you that year, after year, after year, before the Water and Sewer Authority was created, Mr. Wagner opposed it with me, I would go to the Finance Chairman --

The Chair:

Please, we are on the Leasing Authority, not the Water and Sewer Authority.

Michelle Madoff:

This is on the Leasing Authority and why it was created. It was during the time the Water and Sewer Authority was not created, we had situations where every year I would plead, "Can we have some equipment?" You see, I am on the subject. "Could we have equipment? Could we have the proper truck? Could we have the proper backhoe? Could we even have picks and hammers or hoes, brooms?" The Water Department, because that was the committee I chaired, so I can only use that as an example. And they didn't get them. And one year I got a bone of $50,000.00 thrown to me, and the Water and Sewer Authority was created because we didn't buy the equipment, we allowed planned obsolescence. And if you want more authorities created, vote against this or try to get it removed and we will be in a disaster situation in the city.

(Transcribed by Helen L. Kriebel)

---

Mr. Ferlo:

Just in conclusion I disagree totally with the observations of the Director. I believe strongly that this Council or any future Council whether I'm on it or not, as well as the Administration. We have the upper hand. It's the Administration basically who designs the budget. If they want to have payroll and personnel, they'll have payroll and personnel. If they want money spent on the appropriation of equipment, that's something that they should come to the table for and say, "Look, we have all these management people in place and it's our determination that this year these amount of vehicles need to be purchased and new". That onus responsibility is on an administration to come to the table during the year-end budget debate and make it a line item just as much as you defend spending multi-millions of dollars for the Zoo or whatever else it is that you want to spend on. That's something that's a discussion that comes to this table from the Administration.

Mostly Council, I will not say is a rubber stamp but Council's impact on a yearly budget is far less of an impact even though we approve it than all of the mechanics of putting that budget together on the part of the Administration, the department director or whatever your priorities are. And in that regard I disagree with you and I believe that this Council would spend out of all the revenues received, $200 million plus, $5 million a year for the appropriation for equipment. Thank you.

Mr. Wagner:

I would like to make a comment just prior to voting.

I'm going to vote against this even though I do have some concerns with the Leasing Authority. I'm not going to vote to repeal this but I'd like to state my reasons:

Number One, I agree with the philosophy of the Leasing Authority and if you were to make an analogy or comparison to an individual, to one of us or anyone for that matter in the City of Pittsburgh, the majority of people when they go out to buy an automobile finance the automobile.

The majority of people if they were to go out to build or buy another large piece of equipment and finance it and generally they finance it over the term of that piece of equipment, the same theory is applied here. It's just that when this was created the City was so far behind in terms of the shape of the equipment that we had that we had to finance it. Now we've gotten into that mode of financing and we're continuing to do that. If ever there was a large sum of money to come about, maybe we could go out and directly purchase the equipment. However, when it comes to buying dump trucks and fleets of cars and police vehicles and radios and large quantities of equipment, it's very difficult to take that out of the General Fund. So consequently we have to go out a bond issue and with a bond issue there is an interest rate built in and it's paid over the term or the life of the equipment. What that amount is, is not a real dollar because the future dollars are always worth less than the present dollars. So the interest rate built into this is not as great as it seems due to inflation.

Let me continue. So therefore at this point in time in 1988 financially I agree with the philosophy of borrowing money to buy equipment, large pieces of equipment.

One of the problems I have with the Leasing Authority I have discussed privately and publicly. That some purchases are not discussed or debated in a public forum and I think that relates to some of the structure of the Leasing Authority and the best example I can give is the purchase of the portable radios that we're now in the process of buying or going out to bid on for the second time. It was never discussed within the Leasing Authority or at this Council if Council would not have had a post-agenda meeting.

I think there is a great need to have greater structure within the Leasing Authority on minutes, regular meetings and agendas and that at this point does not occur. I know that factually and I've researched it. There are not regularly scheduled meetings as there are with other authorities within the Leasing Authority. In addition, the pre-agendas are very brief and some items are never discussed even though we're going out to bond issue on them, for instance, the radios. So I am not going to vote to repeal this ordinance, however in the future, if I don't see regular structured meetings, pre-agendas, minutes of the meetings, I would entertain the thought of doing this somewhere down the road but as of today I will not and I am hopeful that somehow or another that whole agenda process within the Leasing Authority will change in the future.

Michelle Madoff:

I think you're absolutely right Mr. Wagner in that the radios were an absolute disaster. You and myself prior to your getting here have all been complaining that the police officers have not had radios but I recall my very first bill on Council and that was to get motorbikes for police officers. They couldn't pursue because the vehicles were shaking. So your point is well taken, however, I can say categorically that the issue of purchasing them and buying them through the Leasing Authority had no impact on what actually happened. There was a foul up--that could have happened whether it was purchased through the Leasing Department, whether they were purchased directly from the Police Department, Safety Department or any other vehicles whether it's the General Fund or what have you. And I also might point out that prior to the creation of the Leasing Authority, the same kind of purchases were made in general obligation bonds. The equipment went to the general obligation bonds and we were at a point at one time we went out on a $17 million bond and the interest rates were 20 percent. This way it's tight, it's concise and you look for a window and you go out--I understand that the interest rate may be six percent. Last week we could have gone out at five and one-half percent; we are irresponsible if we don't move that very quickly.

---

Mr. Ferlo:

Your observation about the analogy of purchasing a car. When a working class person goes out to buy a new car, he or she has to finance it because he or she does not have the money in the bank to pay for it and that's why he or she has to go out and incur the interest debt and all the other costs. My argument is that we have reached the point in this city where by way of example the $7.9 million bond issue, instead of doing that we should spend $4 million which we have to spend on the purchasing of equipment. Thank you Mr. Wagner.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 1011 Resolution that this Council hire William F. Foley, an independent, professional consultant with experience in fire apparatus, to evaluate the new firetrucks and present Council with recommendations and solutions as to whether we need more training or modification to firetrucks, at a cost not to exceed $3,000.00, chargeable to and payable from Code Account 1001-2, Salaries, Wages, and Services of Council.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, you may recall at one of the meetings I sort of tried to --

Mr. Ferlo:

I second the resolution for the purpose of discussion.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't know that it needs one but that's alright.

There was a statement made here with reference to having the fox watch the chicken coop when it was suggested that we go to the Underwriters' Lab. I took some time to check that out; I spoke to Underwriter Lab people and to other people. I appears, for example, that if any member of this Council wished to manufacture a toy, they would go to Underwriter Lab, pay them to evaluate the toy. If that toy were to hurt a child, the liability would not only be on the manufacturer but probably revert back to Underwriter Lab, because if they approve a product, they are liable. So although, Mr. Wagner, they do the evaluating for a fee paid for by the person who wishes to manufacture or put out a product, nevertheless, it is a professional, independent agency.

Having checked that information, I then checked further and I've given the same information to Mr. Jacoby, Fire Chief Leahy is away, but to other people in the Safety Department. After much searching, the only person I could find -- I'm willing to amend my bill to say independent consultant as opposed to naming the person. But the reason I named the person specifically, this gentleman is a professional, he's had about 50 years in the field of dealing with fire equipment, particularly the kind of equipment, firetrucks, over the years and making amendments to those trucks, all kinds of fire equipment. He's dealt with all kinds of cities. As a matter of fact, he was very surprised to find out about how hilly Pittsburgh was; he just assumed that we are riverfront and that the riverfront would be flatlands and therefore these firetrucks should not present problems. His initial comment was that perhaps we need training but as he discovered that we had hills, he thought that we might need some modifications to the vehicles.

As you know, Mr. Ferlo originally brought this to Council's attention, although all of us, I'm sure, had read what was going on in the media and we don't get informed by the Fire Department when there are accidents. This is such a potentially costly item to the City, both in lives and cost of damages. But the issue shouldn't be who's right and who's wrong, but we should have an independent professional come in and say do we need more training, do the trucks need to be modified, and if so, how should they be modified. In other words, let's not just address a problem by raising it; let's find a solution to the problem.

I think this gentleman could be an answer for us to come in, evaluate, and perhaps give us a solution so that we won't have the problem. Mr. Ferlo, I think you did ride one of the trucks and had a vision problem. He could tell us what specifically could be done.

I'm afraid if we leave it in the lap of the firefighters who got together and the Administration got together and said,

"Yes, there is a problem and we're going to solve it", that we don't really have professionals to do that kind of solution. I don't think it's going to be particularly beneficial to go back to Pierce who designed the trucks. It's like saying to the butcher, is this a good cut of meat? Is he going to say this is a bad cut of meat?

I think we need somebody who is an independent person to go back and say specifically what has to be done to make the trucks acceptable for use in our terrain, whether it needs modification, training, or both. And that is why I'm recommending this person's name. If anybody has anybody else, I'm willing to withdraw the name. I am not married to my suggestion. I would have put in the resolution, as I said earlier, to hire an independent consultant. I don't think there is another one that we could find rapidly and he is beyond reproach.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, as Chairman of Public Safety, I've seen these new tillers and I don't need any consultant to tell me they're not adequate. They should be taken off the street. They don't fit in the engine houses; they can't maneuver our narrow streets. The operator of the tiller at the top cannot see the corners, cannot see the turns, and it's a hopeless situation. No one has to insult and tell us that situation exists; we know it exists. I know Mr. Ferlo saw it and other Councilpeople did. I think it would be a total waste of money.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, after speaking with Director Cannon of the Public Safety Department and with union representatives, I think they're doing a good job right now of working out the problem among themselves. Pierce is coming in to consult on the truck and I think the union has consultants coming in. I think Council's more appropriate role has to do what Mr. Ferlo did and that is to bring it to the attention of the public and try to get the ball rolling. And now that I think Council does have the ball rolling, let the Public Safety Department and the union officials work this problem out amongst themselves and if they can't come to an equitable solution, then maybe Council can try to step back in again. But I think right now this third consultant would be unnecessary.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President, on behalf of this whole issue, we asked you as Council President to participate in a discussion and meeting with the Administration officials and the union officials and at some point prior to the vote on this bill I'd like an indication from you regarding the content of that meeting and your participation in it on behalf of Council.

In terms of this specific bill, though, the reason why I can't support it at this time is that the people that I want to focus attention on is the Administration. It's the Administration that has gotten us into this fiasco regarding the purchase of this truck and, frankly, it's the Administration that will have to try to get us out of this fiasco.

In that respect, I think this resolution, although well-intentioned, diverts attention away from the focus and the focus right now should be putting pressure on the Administration to resolve this calamity in conjunction with the people who have to drive these vehicles, including the union representatives, and if there's one entity that needs to become involved financially and from the point of view of their own reputation, it's the Pierce Company itself.

I have sent letters out to the City of Columbus by way of example urging them to not purchase tiller trucks from the Pierce Company, a bid that I believe a couple days ago they turned down following the receipt of my letter. I'm not suggesting that they did it solely because of my letter. I'm suggesting that I as an individual Councilmember will do all in my power as I have in the case of Columbus, Ohio, as well as other communications to other cities purchasing equipment. I will make sure that these cities will not purchase the new Pierce tiller.

I have sent a letter to the Pierce Company on Friday requesting two things from them; one, that they remove the brochure from their circulation which has the City of Pittsburgh in the background and the new so-called beautiful Pierce tiller truck in a brochure promotional format. I think it's a disgrace that our City is being used as their first client for this equipment when it does a disservice to our City as well as their equipment. I've asked them to discontinue the promotion of this brochure.

Secondly, I've asked Pierce themselves to be responsible financially for any redesigning or any re-engineering of this vehicle and not for the Administration to come back to this table because if the Administration comes back to this table with an appropriation to spend money to redesign these vehicles, then I'm going to demand a full investigation on how these things were purchased and a rehashing of all the points I've brought up in lengthy debate previously.

But, at this time, I cannot support Michelle's resolution for an independent consultant because I think there's a process and a plan afoot and I don't want to do anything that diverts attention away from the responsibility and culpability of Pierce Company to correct its grievous errors.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President and Council, we all know that there has been a faux pas here in the purchase of the trucks. I feel that Mayor Masloff has come to grips with this problem and the Administration is trying to resolve this dilemma, and this would only, in my opinion, mitigate the position of the Administration. I feel that I don't think the Administration should be interfered with at this time while they're trying to resolve this dilemma.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, in regard to this resolution, the taxpayers of the City should not be paying for any study to evaluate the purchase of equipment of which we're paying almost $2 million for. We're paying enough money out of taxpayer coffers and we do not need to pay a consultant. I indicated last week to Councilwoman Madoff, you cannot call Underwriters' Laboratory and get them to do a free study of any type. You must pay Underwriters' Laboratory just as you must pay an individual to do a consultant study. I suggested at that time that we contact the insurance company that insures this company for product liability insurance and find out what their opinion is and what type of test or evaluation they have performed on the equipment.

I would further recommend that there are other agencies out there. The National Fire Protection Association and Mr. Ferlo is right on target, the company itself. If the company doesn't want to respond to inquiry about the safety and dependability of their equipment, maybe we shouldn't be buying their equipment.

It's that simple. Therefore, if anyone should be providing information validating that that equipment is good equipment, that is safe equipment, it should be the company, it should be the insurance company that is insuring that company and we should not be spending taxpayer dollars to go out to independent studies.

The Chair:

You asked me last week to meet with the Mayor and schedule a meeting. I did that. We met Friday with representatives from the Local 1 Firefighters with the Administration. I think it was a very productive, cooperative meeting. The Administration listened to the complaints of the firefighters, they had a number of them, they had them well documented. The Administration agreed that these were faults, that they would correct them. Pierce is in this week going over some of those problems. There will be another meeting July 18; we will all meet again. This time Pierce will meet with us. At the meeting was representatives from the firefighters, of course the Administration, and myself this past Friday. On July 18, when we meet at that time, there will be representatives from the manufacturer and we will go over the truck physically with them once again. This meeting was not physical but this time will go over the truck with them.

I think that it is moving on the proper course at this time. I don't believe that we need a consultant. I think the best consultants we could possibly have design our fire trucks are the people that use them every day, and that's our firefighters. Unfortunately, this truck was designed without very much input from the people that actually do the driving, do the tillering, that use these trucks. But in the future, we are guaranteed from the Administration that they will be fully involved, they will be fully involved in the retrofitting of these. I think that we should wait now and let's see what happens after Pierce is in here this week, I believe they're going to be here much of the week, they'll be back to meet with us again on the 18th with their engineers, with the engineers of the company that makes the ladder. We'll have two different companies here to go over it physically to see what we can do and then I think we should discuss it again.

But at this time, I think it's moving very rapidly. No other trucks will be going into service, they're not equipped right. This is what we were told; they're still going to train on these trucks but no other trucks will be put into service until they are all made safe.

Michelle Madoff:

I think what has been said today needs to be clarified because people may not realize that this is not a resolution that is binding on the Administration. It is only an informational resolution to give them a source of where they might get a solution to the problem. I think it's unfortunate that we're sitting here laying blame.

I didn't say a couple of things that I would have said and I think unfortunately I've been forced to say them. At the time that these trucks were purchased, I was head of the Committee on General Services and I made a vow, I gave my word to the fire union that I would not allow the equipment to be purchased without their input. The union leaders met with Dawn Botsford, Department of General Services, and approved those trucks. They came to me and said, "Okay, it's fine; now you can vote on it."

What I'm saying, and I think everybody is missing the point, we're all in agreement. I'm even in agreement with Mr. DePasquale. The issue is not at this point that we have a problem and that somebody is trying to resolve it. The issue is, let's stop laying blame and let's look to the future on proper solutions. I don't really feel very confident that Pierce who has got to protect their reputation may just come in and do a band-aid approach or a patch-up approach that couldn't be done better, perhaps, by somebody who is an independent consultant who has had 50 years working with this kind of equipment who might come in with some unusual or creative or inexpensive or something meaningful that's going to save lives in making a suggestion to improve these trucks.

Furthermore, I think it's unfortunate that a member of this Council would take it upon themselves to contact other cities and say, don't buy a product, if we, the firefighters, picked the product the City designed through their own specs, the firefighters approved those spends. And if for any reason that should be proven in a court of law, I think the person who is saying that that other city should not buy the product when the product was built to specifications, might find himself in a very awkward situation from a libel point of view.

It would seem to me that we ought to stop fighting and stop putting blame and get the best we can to come in and help the firefighters, help the members of this Council like Mr. Woods who has gone to meet with the people. I don't think it would hurt at $100 an hour, $600 per diem, when we spend $5 million on consultant fees in Construction and Engineering that we barely need, to have somebody come in and make some constructive suggestions that we as lay people could not possibly think about because he would know the whole range, the spectrum of what could be done, focus in specifically on the problems, verify, in case we go to litigation and indeed there is a problem, how the problem can be solved, and maybe it can't be solved, maybe he'll say, give the trucks back. And maybe the company would say, "Well, we built them to specs." And the specs were designed by our Fire Chief. And to my knowledge, the firefighters approved those specs. And if that is the fact, and I believe it to be the fact, I think we ought to wait until we have an independent review before we put our noses into something that might get chewed off.

There's no doubt that something is wrong with the trucks. Everybody knows that. We wouldn't have had four accidents. The firefighters are not deliberately having accidents. Do we need more training? Do we need to redesign them? And if we need to redesign them, which I believe is probably one of the factors, in what way should they be redesigned? Should they be redesigned according to the people who built the equipment or should they be redesigned with something entirely different? And we're never going to know that until we have an independent expert come in and tell us what should be done. I think we're being very foolish not to make that as a recommendation.

Anticipating this kind of stonewalling in Council, I already have forwarded this information to Mr. Jacoby and to the Safety Department, as I mentioned earlier, and I have confidence that they might call on this person in any event.

The Chair:

I just want to clarify something and I'm going to make some statements and then we're going to drop this issue because things are moving in a proper direction now and by Council to keep bandying this subject around, it just might throw it off track.

To begin with, the only thing the firefighters said is what they wanted was tiller trucks. That's exactly what they said, not how they want involved in the specifications. They said they wanted tiller trucks. "Please buy us tiller trucks; you need them to get around these narrow streets of the City of Pittsburgh."

And as far as any other Councilmember writing any other city, that is their prerogative. If I want to write Alaska and tell them that I think so and so is a bad product, that's my prerogative. I can do it as long as I don't say that I'm representing the entire City of Pittsburgh."

And the best consultants for these trucks are the people that drive them, just like the best consultant for a person that drives an automobile is you because you drive it. You tell an engineer, here's what I want, and that's up to that engineer to come in and do it for you. And that's exactly what's going to happen; the firefighters on July 18th, and they're moving now with Pierce or they're telling Pierce, here's what we need, here's what we want, you have the engineers, you have the technique, you design it, you have the technology.

Please, let's move from this point on. We will not discuss this subject any longer in this Council, please, until after the July 18th meeting.

Michelle Madoff:

I withdraw my bill.

The Chair:

Alright.

Is there any other business to come before?

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, a couple weeks ago we passed a floor motion to have a public hearing on Strategy 21 funding. I don't know, Mr. President, if you've set the date yet but whenever you do, I'd like to invite the following people: Ray Christman who is head of Economic Development for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; Director Lurcott, Director of Planning; Executive Director Donahoe of the URA; Chuck Kolling, who is our lobbyist in Harrisburg; and also, Mr. Mark Zabierek since he has played an important part in the lobbying effort in Harrisburg.

I'd also like to make a motion to televise that public hearing, and just prior to voting on that, I think there has been some discussion this past weekend about one of the four projects, the Riverside Project, in the media where we have not received $4 million in funding that was committed over two years ago by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

We have problems with other projects; one in particular is the Buhl Science Center. We have to resolve this lack of funding coming to the City of Pittsburgh as soon as possible to get these economic development projects moving. So, I make a motion to televise the hearing.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. DePasquale:

In light of that, Mr. President, could we speed that hearing up?

The Chair:

Mr. Perry, what we'll do is try to coordinate with Mr. Christman. Could you please call him and whenever he can come to our City, we'll have the hearing. We'll try to fit his schedule because he has to come in from Harrisburg.

Michelle Madoff:

On another subject, Mr. President and members of Council. All of us have gone through a very hot spell; those of us who may not have air conditioning probably felt it more than others. You could fry eggs on the sidewalk. I don't know if anybody read the article in Sunday's Press; it's a reprint of a Washington correspondent article with reference to the greenhouse effect. I just want to read what one of the scientists says: "We're facing chaos that will be like global nuclear war."

In light of this, the reason I'm bringing this up is that — I don't want to read the whole article but it does say that the greenhouse effect is here, that people have thought well, someday it might happen but we're really not sure. There seems to be a concensus among top scientists that the time is now.

The reason I brought this up is that some time ago Equitable Gas contacted my office to ask whether I would be a go-between between the City and Equitable to do a pilot project to get pollution out of some of our automobiles which contributes to the hydrocarbons by using natural gas which is, as you know, some of our utilities have surplus of energy. And a grant has been applied for by the Department of General Services. There are many, many cities competing; however, there will only be a couple of awards made.

The reason I point this out is that this is a subject we're going to probably have to deal with and somehow or another it will probably end up in this Council repeatedly and I just want to alert my colleagues that they might want to get some education. We might want to have somebody come in and speak to us. We are an industrial community even though our mills have cut back. We don't have the same automobile problem that California has, but we're part of the same world and we do have some problems. We're going to have to start thinking in terms of long-term, of going to hydrogen for our automobiles, going to natural gas, perhaps, while we can, solar cells. It would be important, I think, that we start to think about this long-term problem because it isn't going to go away and we may see droughts and we may see greater heat situations, temperatures next summer and the summer after. It's probably going to be a real major problem that is here before we thought it was going to be and we're all going to have to deal with it in an appropriate manner.

One of the major factors is going to be to use our natural fossil fuels in a clean manner. We don't have to stop using coal; we just have to use it cleanly. And of course we're going to need the technology applied.

Another reason I mention it is that it might be a source for a new industry for this community. We have the University Center. As I said, there already is great public concern. Some city is going to be the center for developing research and developing techniques which will help to reduce the greenhouse effect, if it is indeed not too late. We ought to start thinking in terms of educating ourselves, working with the universities and perhaps looking at this problem as a source of employment and solving the problem as a new industry for this community.

The Chair:

Michelle, if you recall in 1982 I went to a number of symposiums on natural gas about fueling our own vehicles here. Then Director Yatch, I tried to get him to do it and instead he went with propane, which was a waste. Then I gave the information to then Director Jacoby and it fell on deaf ears again. So, I know what you're talking about; I'm very up on it. I have records that deep on it. I've tried to convince this Administration for a number of years to do it; maybe now if they read the same article they'll do it.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, on another subject, but I did want to add to the discussion on Strategy 21 money that I admire and respect John Robin but I don't agree with him in regard to the Riverside Project. Therefore, I said we should try to speed up that hearing.

My issue is on a similar problem that Mr. Ferlo has been very active with in the Bloomfield-Garfield Organization in regards to vacant and vandalized housing which they'd like to see torn down, and I hope they're very successful.

For some time I have said that the Uptown section is a disgrace. The 2200 block and the 1500 block, and there's a lot of homes in there vacant and vandalized that should be torn down. Mr. Imhoff has premised me that he's going to look at the situation some day this week.

Right around the corner on Pride and Colwell, for two years I've been urging the Police Department to do something about certain addresses there and nothing has been done. As Chairman of Public Safety, I thought I had some clout and I might get it done, but as of today, nothing has been done. However, the good Lord intervened over the weekend and No. 5 Pride Street, which was a house of prostitution, was burned out. No. 3 next door was burned out and No. 7, which is a dope-crack place, has been burned out also. Thank God for that. 1512 Colwell Street is a house of prostitution. I say this for the interest of the press; they've been aware of it also, incidentally. 1502 is a heavy numbers place.

Now maybe now that the addresses are out in the open, perhaps they may be induced to close and sell. I remember some years ago there was a steal on 5th Avenue. There's an apartment out there now approximately around Wilkins and somebody reported there was a steal there and within a week they were building an apartment house there. So until the complaint was made, nobody did anything about the steal. So perhaps, hopefully, something will be done about these places.

Michelle Madoff:

On another subject; this is a very quick item. I had a comment made to me which I thought had some great significance for this Council. The summer jobs programs which has become an issue and the fact that we don't get time enough to hire people and that we pay minimal salary so that what we do is freeze out children who come from deprived homes but perhaps not deprived enough to be able to get these jobs. The comment was made to me that there are many, many jobs in the private sector that pay minimum wage and those jobs are going vacant; they're going unfilled because people don't want to take those jobs. Why would they take the summer jobs that we offer and not take the summer jobs that are out in the private sector.

It would seem to me that it might be appropriate for us to find out from Melanie Smith if there are any statistics available from the Unemployment Office as to how many jobs are available for our youth, why those jobs aren't being filled, and what the stumbling block was in their getting the jobs; is it carfare, is it appearance, is it skills? And could we have some kind of intervening kind of program that might make, for example, carfare available or a training program, so that the jobs in the private sector could be filled and, indeed, that these jobs in the private sector exceed the number of jobs that we provide for just a few weeks in the summer while these jobs could be all year round, after school, weekends. It would be interesting to me to find out what the actual statistics were and if indeed that is a factual point that was made.

I wonder whether Mr. Perry could write a letter to Melanie Smith asking her if she would contact the unemployment agency for Pittsburgh, people applying for jobs, to look through the records and to see what kind of jobs are available - are there hamburger tossers in fast food chains - menial jobs that are paying the minimum wage and could those jobs be filled by the same youngsters that are applying for our summer program and could they have jobs on an on-going basis and are we deceiving ourselves. I'd like to know what the real world is. Are there jobs that people aren't taking because they don't want to work? Are they not taking them because they don't have carfare? What is the problem so that we can start addressing a real problem instead of an imaginary one?

Mr. DePasquale moved to excuse Mr. Pollock for absence from the meeting.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President, I move to adjourn this meeting and meet again on Tuesday, July 5, 1988 at 10:00 a.m.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

And on the motion of Mr. Lyons

Council adjourned.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, the first resolution I have deals with the Emergency Hunger program, and Mr. Perry, I would like a copy of this sent to our local representatives of the United States Congress.

Mr. Coyne presents

No. 1061 WHEREAS, June 27, 1988 marked the final distribution of surplus food ending the surplus food distribution program; and

WHEREAS, the surplus food distribution program is a Federal program on which many people in Pittsburgh depend to feed their families; and

WHEREAS, Senator Edward Kennedy has sponsored Senate Bill 2123, The Emergency Hunger Relief Act, that would reauthorize the food distributions.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of the citizens of Pittsburgh, does hereby support The Emergency Hunger Relief Act and urges our United States Senators and our local Members of the United States House of Representatives to support SB 2123.

Mr. Coyne moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Coyne:

For my next resolution, I'd like to have Mrs. Barbara McCauley, a member of the Community Advisory Committee, the Pitt Treatment Evaluation Unit to come forward, please; Mr. Bill Kaelin, who is the Co-Chairman of the Advisory Board to the University of Pittsburgh Study; and Gerry Tama who will be representing the Hemophiliac Foundation.

Mr. Coyne presents

No. 1062 WHEREAS, Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome or AIDS is a disease that has been diagnosed in more than 66,000 individuals across the United States and in 183 individuals here in Allegheny County; and

WHEREAS, it is estimated that many more individuals have been infected with the Human Immunodeficiency Virus or HIV, the virus that causes AIDS. Estimates are that between 1.5 million and 3 million individuals across the Country and between 3,000 and 8,000 individuals in Allegheny County are infected with HIV; and

WHEREAS, Pittsburgh has become a regional center for AIDS research; and

WHEREAS, the Pitt Mens Study, the Pitt Treatment Evaluation Unit, and the Transfusion Recipient Aids Treatment Study, are three of the ongoing research studies currently being conducted in the City of Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, this important research would not be possible without the time, blood and energy of the nearly 3,000 individuals who have volunteered to take part in these studies; and

WHEREAS, the volunteers to these studies represent the wide range of Pittsburgh's citizenry.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh commends all of the volunteers and those close to them who have given so much of themselves for AIDS research so that we might better understand this disease; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Council recognizes the work of the Pitt Mens Study, the Pitt Treatment Evaluation Unit, the Transfusion Recipient AIDS Treatment Study and all of the area research groups dedicated to the study of AIDS.

Mr. Coyne moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Ms. McCauley:

On behalf of the organizations, I would like to read a brief statement that we've prepared.

Thank you, Councilman Coyne and Pittsburgh City Council, for this acknowledgment of over 3,000 volunteers who are actively engaged in close cooperation with the University of Pittsburgh and its Research Program on HIV infection. It is your acknowledgment that best reflects all that is positive about the spirit of Pittsburgh. Here in this City we have a unique and envied example of how volunteers from all walks of life can provide the cooperative conduits between government, academic and community agencies.

What this proclamation demonstrates is that in Pittsburgh we care. We use this terrible disease as an opportunity to give of our compassion, our understanding, our time and dedication. Pittsburgh has demonstrated that as a community we are eager to learn the facts and not allow ourselves to be paralyzed by hopelessness or fear. It has been said that the level of civilization of the community is measured by how it responds to the least fortunate citizenry. Pittsburgh, our City, measures at the very top of that yardstick.

Again, on behalf of the Pitt Mens Study, the Pitt Treatment Evaluation Unit, and the Transfusion Recipient Aids Program, we express our deep gratitude for this proclamation.

Mr. Kaelin:

I, too, would just like to say thank you for the proclamation and appreciation to the many study volunteers for all their work. Thank you

Ms. Tama:

On behalf of the volunteers and those close to them and the University of Pittsburgh's AIDS Research Programs, I'd like to thank you as well.

Michelle Madoff:

I think that the work you're doing is outstanding. You saw the problem before others did. But I think it's important to point out that this is not just a disease of homosexuals; it is a disease of all people. In some countries it did not start with homosexuals; it started with heterosexuals and we can't say it's a disease that some people may not approve of their lifestyle but it is indeed a disease, like any other disease, that we'd better all address and it is reaching epidemic proportions.

Thank you for all the work you're doing and I'll continue helping you.

The Chair presents

WHEREAS, Greater Love Outreach has sought to remain a 24-hour crisis intervention hotline for our City's needy and uprooted.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that we, the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, do hereby proclaim the day of July 2, 1988, as GREATER LOVE OUTREACH DAY in this great City of Pittsburgh, and do heartfully wish them continued success in this and all other charitable undertakings.

The Chair presents

No. 1054 Communication from Sophie Masloff, Mayor, City of Pittsburgh, returning with her veto Council Bill No. 453, entitled, "Resolution establishing the Hunger Trust Fund of the City of Pittsburgh".

Which was read.

(MAYOR'S VETO LETTER)

June 29, 1988

President Pro Tem and Members of Council
City of Pittsburgh
510 City-County Building
Pittsburgh, PA 15219

Dear President Pro Tem and Members of Council:

I am returning Council Resolution No. 453 establishing the Hunger Trust Fund of the City of Pittsburgh along with my veto of that legislation. I have submitted legislation which will address the issue of hunger and provides for the process of distributing the funds. They are as follows:

1. A resolution which amends the 1988 Community Development Block Grant Capital Budget by decreasing a line item (CC-88-10) "City Council - Hunger Services Network" from $53,060.00 to $0.00; and increase a line item (CC-88-01) "City Council - Pittsburgh Community Services" from $10,000.00 to $64,050.00;
2. A resolution which provides for an agreement or agreements with Pittsburgh Community Services, Inc., for the operation and implementation of a "City-wide food distribution and services program," at a cost not to exceed $100,000; and
3. A proposed resolution which amends previous Resolution No. 732 of 1980 and Resolution No. 1365 of 1981 entitled, "Providing for an agreement or agreements with the Housing Authority of Pittsburgh for site assembly, construction and sale of a retail store in the Allentown neighborhood, in an amount not to exceed $180,000.00" so as to decrease the project allocation to $133,585.59 (-$46,414.41).

Thank you for your support and cooperation of this very important initiative.

Very truly yours,

Sophie Masloff

(END OF LETTER)

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I move to override for purposes of discussion.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, I second that for discussion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, thank you for the opportunity to speak on this.

Members of Council, this morning I would ask that you join me in sustaining the Mayor's veto of the Hunger Trust Fund. Overriding the Mayor's veto may be politically attainable but it would amount to a shallow act that would not allow us to move forward. More importantly, it would let the Administration off the hook and take the ball out of their court. I don't intend to let that happen.

The success of the Hunger Trust Fund depends on the active and affirmative participation of Mayor Masloff and her Administration. Recent actions of the Administration have demonstrated to me that they are not treating Council's proposals to deal with the needs of the food pantries operating in our City seriously. The reprogramming of over $50,000 of funds already directed to anti-hunger agency to another anti-hunger agency is a cruel hoax and reflects a Scrooge-like mentality. By that I mean the reallocation of monies to the Community Services Agency as opposed to the Hunger Services Organization.

The main purpose of the Hunger Trust Fund was to be a repository for various public and private sources of funds which would be directed to the Hunger Fund of the Pittsburgh Foundation. This fund initiated by the Mayor's own Task Force on Hunger was to act as a clearing house for dispersing funds to various food pantries and shelters. The foundation has a voluntary allocations committee and no amount of the donations received were to be spent on administrative overhead. It was always clear and intended that City funds would only be spent on City pantries and City residents. This could have been achieved contractually.

In response to the serious efforts and concern on Council regarding this issue, as well as the public outcry expressed at a recent public hearing, the Administration has decided to reprogram approximately $40,000 of CDBG funds. These funds will now go to the Pittsburgh Community Services Inc. The amount of their administrative overhead and exactly what communities and neighborhoods, as well as what individuals can receive these funds, remains unclear. The Administration's handling of this issue has attempted to pit one agency against the other. This Council should not allow this to happen.

In sustaining the veto, I ask that Council consider supporting a resolution that I am submitting today to rebudget $200,000 of unexpended general funds to assist our City's food pantries and shelters and people in need. This money comes from staff positions that have been budgeted by the previous City Council, ones that the Administration has no intention of filling.

In sustaining the veto, I would also ask that you join me in urging Mayor Masloff and her Administration to do the following: first of all, they should meet with hunger advocates as well as services providers this week to resolve the confusion that exists in naming the Pittsburgh Community Services Inc. as the lead agency instead of the Pittsburgh

Foundation Hunger Fund. The Administration should treat the work of the Hunger Task Force with more seriousness and concern. It needs to re-evaluate its commitment to the important work of the Hunger Task Force.

Secondly, I would ask that the Administration resolve the dispute over the check-off box on the PGH-40 City Earned Income Tax Form. If enabling legislation is needed, then let's all get behind representative Tom Murphy who has made a commitment to introduce this amendment. This means, quite frankly, that Mayor Masloff should personally get involved and communicate to the Allegheny County Delegation to Harrisburg. Over 5,000 refund checks go out each year and I believe that a significant amount of money would be voluntarily contributed by taxpayers if they were allowed to do so on their income tax form. We have nothing to lose and everything to gain.

Thirdly, the Mayor and her Administration must resolve the issue of the donor option form for City employees. The United Way has allowed a special check-off designation box for a hunger fund to be placed on the donor option card, and they have even offered to print the 5,000 or so cards needed to be distributed to City employees. I ask the Administration, what will they do relative to implementing this plan which needs to be resolved over the month of July, and exactly what fund will be designated.

Fourthly, the Mayor has been silent on City Council's request for an annual State of the Poor Report. Our City has a responsibility to deal with the short-term as well as the long-term needs of our low-income families and individuals. We need a planning tool to do this. What is the Mayor's intention on this matter?

In closing, once again I ask that you sustain the veto and help me refocus attention on the Mayor's Office for it is they who must deal with both the administrative as well as the political details of our proposed anti-hunger policies.

Thank you very much, Mr. President.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President, I would like to say this. I'm for sustaining the veto; I seconded it for discussion. On Bill 453 that was presented last week, the second part of that bill regurgitated some monies that had already been found; over 63,000 odd dollars. Since that time, the Administration has come up with the additional monies that would make $100,000. This money has been secured from the CBDG trust fund return. And certainly, I think that we should sustain the veto, wipe out whatever problem is here, and we'll reconstruct it. But the $100,000 which does not include part two of Bill 453 is now available.

Michelle Madoff:

I am sure that all of us are very distressed and this act of supporting the sustaining the Mayor's veto is only a pro forma. I don't think any of us agree with what's happened but we're sort of locked in, as is the Pittsburgh Foundation. The Pittsburgh Foundation is no doubt going to have to back off; they'll be intimidated into not being the distributor of this packet of dollars, a large sum of dollars, and I think the Pittsburgh Foundation is in a better position, perhaps, to reach out into the private sector and obtain greater sources of funds that do not go to the taxpayers pocketbook.

I think that Mayor Masloff's actions were, at best, misleading and, at worst, deceptively deceitful. It's like taking a bite out of somebody else's sandwich.

I don't often agree with Mr. Ferlo's style, but I must admit in this issue on hunger he took a very responsible role in holding the public hearing. I told him at the time that I wish he had sat down with the Administration to find out where the monies could come from. But I support Mr. Ferlo that there's no reason why we could not have a check-off box on our returns for income tax from the City, and those of us who feel that we wish to make a contribution can do so which would generate substantial dollars.

It's unclear as of this moment whether the Hunger Action participants, the various groups, will retain their grants at $63,000. I don't know; does anybody know that? Or are we going to remove the money from those groups and give it to another group and have everybody at each other's throats?

I repeat; it was deceitful, it was deceptive, and it was done to look like, and there was no misunderstanding when you read the bill, there was absolutely no misunderstanding in what was put out by Mayor Masloff, by the Administration, when it said, "We are going to give $100,000" — As a matter of fact, if you read the bill, I don't have it with me, it says $150,000 from us and we're going to match the money and come up with great sums of money to help the poor, when in reality it's a $46,000 addition that this Council could have found all by itself and didn't need the input of the Administration. That's a hoax; it's disgraceful.

I, of course, will vote with Mr. Ferlo and the rest of Council, I presume, to sustain the veto because it's really meaningless. It was a meaningless act and it's a meaningless vote to sustain the veto but I think we're absolutely right. This Council must go out and find at least $200,000; perhaps a great deal more. Find the money from priority sources. What's more important; having a Zoo paid for by the City when three-quarters of the people using it are non-City residents and the Aviary and the Conservatory, or taking some of that money and giving it to our poor citizens in the City? Given a choice, I think our citizens who aren't eating would prefer to eat than go to see the animals in the Zoo. And that's just one example; we have so many overruns, we have so many give-away contracts that it's a disgrace that we can't find a mere $200,000 or perhaps $500,000.

We're in a crisis situation; those that don't have may be forced to go and take from those who do have. This causes horrible problems, particularly to our unemployed youth on the Hill whose families, 60 percent, in many cases are not working.

The hip bone is attached to the thigh bone. If we don't help those in need, we're not helping ourselves.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, if we sustain the Mayor's veto, is she going to re-introduce her hunger legislation this coming week?

The Chair:

I have no idea.

Mr. DePasquale:

Does this kill the hunger legislation?

The Chair:

It kills this bill, that's all.

Mr. DePasquale:

No doubt the Mayor will re-introduce her legislation.

Mr. Ferlo:

Just one closing comment, Mr. Woods. I just want to clarify for one of my colleagues that the actual amount of money being committed by the Administration and a bill that we will vote on today is not $100,000; so let's not have any confusion on that. The Administration's bill today is $36,940. I will offer an amendment to raise that to the $46,000 figure, but let's not be confused on the issue of the $100,000.

The Chair:

Okay, those in favor of overriding the veto will vote aye when their name is called; those opposed will vote no.

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, in line with the earlier discussion on the actual amount of money that we are creating for hunger, I would ask that Council support a formal amendment which I would like to now offer, and that is a motion to amend Council Bill No. 1001 by increasing the total cost not to exceed from $36,940.00 to $46,414.12. If we support Bill 1002, we in effect create a sum of money of $46,414.12.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Do I have your permission to ask Mr. Ferlo a question?

Mr. Ferlo, would it not be more appropriate to amend the bill from $63,000 to $60,000, to add the $10,000 to our legislation which would make it $73,000 and leave the Mayor's $36,000 as is? The numbers would be the same but it would be more appropriate for us because we are making that change, not the Administration.

Mr. Ferlo:

You'll have to restate that. I'm sorry, Michelle; I lost you.

Michelle Madoff:

I'll try again. There's approximately a $10,000 difference, $9,000 something that we're adding onto the bill. It seems to me that since Council already had $63,000 of the $100,000 and we found $9,000 more, that we would add it to our dollars. The Administration isn't adding it to hers. I would just like to amend it the other way, add it on to our money because you found the money, not the Administration.

Mr. Ferlo:

There's a good reason why we should not do that. First of all, the additional nine or ten thousand that I'm supporting by way of this amendment to Bill 1001 goes to the Pittsburgh Community Services and in turn it then goes to the various food pantries. So, the point of this legislation, just by increasing the amount, is to get a sum of money to PCI and then to the City food pantries.

The other legislation supports a specific grant to the Pittsburgh Hunger Services Network and it would not necessarily go for direct food purchase and acquisition. So, it's a contradictory situation. On one hand, Council previously made a commitment to the tune of $50,000 plus to support the Hunger Services Network as an agency in their work and anti-hunger activity. Now we're specifically targeting money which will go to food pantries. So, I'm only cleaning up the legislation by making the dollar figures coincide. If we're freeing up by way of Bill 1002 the sum of $46,414.12, then the Bill 1001 should reflect that specific dollar figure.

What Michelle has suggested may seem like a decent thing to do but it confuses the situation. This is a bill we have right now in hand and in ten days we can get close to $50,000 in the hands of the food pantries. So, I would urge that we support the amendment as I've proposed.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't have a problem with going along either way. I just think it's appropriate that the public understand that the $100,000 is not $100,000 for the Administration; it's a $36,000 addition taking the monies this Council has already appropriated and this Council suggesting that we add on $10,000. If we want to be gracious and say, just pass the bill as it is, but I think everyone understands that the bulk of that money did come from this Council and would be more appropriate to amend our dollars to reflect the additional $10,000 that we're willing to allocate for hunger programs. But I'm not going to quibble about how people get the money as long as they get it.

The Chair:

I think that's right. I don't think it's important about who initiates the legislation; it's what we do with the money. I think that's what all of us should keep at hand and realize we're here for the common good of the people of this City, not who is going to take credit for it.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, I'm already informed that the additional $53,000 odd has been secured, as I mentioned earlier, from the CBDG trust fund return. Do we want to consider that?

The Chair:

Not now; not at this time. We have other bills coming up.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think it's unfortunate that you made that last statement that we must consider the people and the good of the public as opposed to who is going to get credit for it. I think that's what this Council did. I don't agree with Mr. Ferlo's style 99 percent of the time but when he's right, he's right. And I think it's incumbent upon us to support the public and not make this a political versus Council, Administration versus each other in an adversarial role. But it is unfortunate that the Administration chose to take the good deeds of this Council, voted many months ago, and make it look like they're doing something for the public. I think that is misleading. That's all.

The Chair:

Okay, on the amendment? All in favor? Opposed?

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Also,

Bill No. 1002

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 732, effective August 14, 1980, as amended by Resolution No. 1365, effective December 31, 1981, entitled: 'Providing for an Agreement or Agreements with the Housing Authority of the City of Pittsburgh for the site assembly, construction and sale of a retail store in the Allentown neighborhood of the City for an amount not to exceed $180,000.00' so as to decrease the amount for the project by $46,414.42 for a total amount not to exceed $133,585.58."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, it is important that we vote no on this bill, 1003. It's important in recognizing that the Administration in fact did not appropriate $100,000, that they are attempting to pit one agency here against the other. It is Council's intention previously to support the Hunger Services Network with a grant of $53,060. I think we should continue to make that commitment and I would ask my colleagues to please vote no on Bill 1003.

Mr. Lyons:

I intend to vote no on it because it would be consistent with the veto. We'll straighten everything out and then Mr. Ferlo will sit with the Administration or ask them to come to a meeting so we can determine how we'll chart our course for the future.

Mr. DePasquale:

What does this do to the rest of the grants?

The Chair:

Nothing. It has nothing to do with the rest of the grants.

Mr. DePasquale:

How can we approve the rest of the grants in this ordinance and not the other one?

The Chair:

It has nothing to do with the other grants.

Mr. DePasquale:

But they're all part of the same ordinance. We've got a negative recommendation on the ordinance. You have several grants in here plus the one on the Hunger Services Network.

Mr. Perry:

That's only that one item.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, there are three bills that are companion bills. Together they accumulate the sum of $100,000. We don't want to do that because, as indicated previously by discussion, that $100,000, the reason why we got the $100,000 is we basically defunded another hunger group to support the Mayor's plan for the Hunger Act. That's not what we want to do so we're voting down, hopefully, Bill 1003 and we're going to vote yes, with an amendment, hopefully, on the two other bills and that will create a smaller sum of money.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, this bill was voted down because it was in conflict with the second part of Bill 1001 and this is the reason they asked us to deny this bill.

The Chair:

Okay, all those in favor of passing the bill, vote aye. Those opposed, vote no.

Mr. Ferlo:

On the two bills that are companion bills, I will cast a no vote on Bill 966 and, more importantly, on Bill 968 which is the remodeling of the Department of Engineering on one of the floors in this building. It's a sum of money of $335,000 and I believe that if we had money hand over fist that it's the type of appropriation that we could make maybe some time in the future. But relative to other expenditures and appropriations that I think are more important, I cannot in good faith vote for the remodeling of this floor to the tune of over $300,000 when monies are needed for all sorts of other activities in the City that are far more important than giving a few staff people private offices.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I was, to say the least, not only appalled but thunderstruck to see in Sunday's Pittsburgh Press in relation to "Paramedics' Union Reject Proposal By City To Sell Grievance", I cannot believe that in America, a democracy, we would have an administration that would say, we will let somebody come back to work who has been laid off, possibly dismissed, because the City forced them to work overtime and the person was in an accident because they were fatigued. The trade-off would be if the paramedics would engage in a gag order, would accept a gag order, wherein they would agree not to discuss the issue of the radios which are at least two years overdue, not in other forums such as City Council or the newspapers.

The fact remains, and it's somewhere in this article, that we had someone who couldn't handle a call on the paramedics' service because the radios weren't working; they had to get to a telephone booth. Now, we all know that we have rules in this City on going out for bid. But the fact remains, and nowhere in this story does it say that there were great delays, unnecessary delays, in actually starting the bidding process; the process should have been started light years ago. There has been no excuse given to this Council or anybody else as to why the Administration didn't go out for radios earlier than they did. There's no excuse for years and years of paramedics and police officers not having their radios and not having that kind of protection, especially when we've had to cut our police force back so that officers are going out one person on a call. And I've heard from some of the paramedics' wives who told me that sometimes their husbands go out on what is perceived to be a paramedic call but is a knifing, they need back-up of the police and they're not on the same channels.

There's something terribly wrong with a city that would threaten the paramedics and threaten not to take somebody back to work as a quid pro quo if the paramedics would agree not to talk to the media and not to talk to members of City Council about the fact that they do not have radios.

I can't believe this and I think that it is incumbent upon us as members of Council to send a very strong letter to the Administration, to Mayor Masloff or the powers that be that would even think about indulging in something like this, and say very strongly that we oppose any infringement on the First Amendment. We are duly elected officials who may certainly wish to address any issue, including the radios, and I don't think that's something that we should not be permitted to talk about.

I have another item but I will yield if somebody wishes to address this subject.

Mr. Ferloc

Mr. Woods, on this issue, I would like to concur with my colleague,

Michelle. The fact of the matter is that our labor negotiator whose name will go unmentioned at the request of the Chairman previously who has asked not to make reference to particular individuals, but we all know who Mr. Schneider is; he's the labor negotiator for the City and I think that it's clear that he's up to his usual bag of tricks.

I was personally offended by the article in the Pittsburgh Press and I think its outrageous that he attempts to institute a gag order on the rights of employees. We in this legislative body, and at least myself personally, I am very aware of the fact that it is up to the Administration to deal with negotiations and arbitration and matters between the unions and the City. I don't dispute that. However, individual rank and file members of the paramedics union as well as the leadership as well as any other City employee has every right whatsoever to meet and phone and discuss and to appear in post agenda sessions before City Council on any matter that they're concerned about or any matter that we have concern about. The recent demonstration by the Administration in refusing to attend the table to discuss the situation with the fire trucks is an example very similar to this.

But I would have to applaud Mr. Weslager, the new President of the Paramedics' Union. There may have been some in the past who would look to this as a good opportunity to either self-enrich his own pocket or in some way appease or compromise his membership. But I think we should applaud the leadership that this gentleman has shown in defending the rank and file and defending his people, the paramedics.

If there are concerns about radios or any other matter that the paramedics are concerned about, the First Responder Program program has been in the papers in the last couple of weeks, the issue of overtime, whatever issue be it, they have every right whatsoever to communicate to the media and I hope that they will continue to call me as an elected official and I hope in the future we will be able to entertain them at our table on various issues confronting the City. But I resent the comments and the attitude and the position of this Administration.

And if there's one reason why this Administration is not going to succeed in becoming re-elected, it's because of a very strong anti-union stance that continues to permeate the other end of this floor. Thank you.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, I'm personally appalled, not only as a Councilmember but as a citizen of the United States of America that we have people in the Administration suggesting or telling our labor unions where they're to negotiate and represent the workers, that they can't come and speak to anybody whether it be the newspeople or this body either in a post agenda or at a Council meeting or in our offices. And I'd like to just issue my support for the unions and say that any time they have any problems, my door is open and I'm sure other members of Council's doors are open. And Mr. Schneider owes an apology not only to the unions but to the people of the City of Pittsburgh for even suggesting such a tactic as this.

Mr. Lyons:

I'd like to say that I think this Council is labor-oriented and certainly I'd like to express my feelings that I support labor and the unions.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I would hope that all City employees and the public think that this Council is people-oriented and any question about any issue, whether it be union or non-union, individual or group, any employee in this City has any right to come to any Councilmember on that issue. And I want them to realize that the doors of this Council are open; they have been in the past in my office, will continue to be in the future, and I'm sure for other members of Council.

I also was appalled in reading that article. I don't think this is a conflict between the Administration so much and Council; I simply think that any employee should be able to question any issue legitimately and should be able to get an answer. And I think that's what they were attempting to do and could not get an answer.

The radio issue is one good example; that issue has never been in the public forum unless this Council put it in the public forum, even though it was part of the Leasing Authority, and it never became an issue within the Leasing Authority. It took this Council and this body at a post agenda meeting at this table behind us to bring that issue into the public forum. It's a shame it had to happen that way; I hope it doesn't have to happen again in the future.

Michelle Madoff:

I think all we said is a lot of rhetoric and a lot of hyperbole and it's nice that we all agree. Now what are we going to do about it? Let's stop being like the Administration and saying, well, we did it, we're going to get away with it and we made our statement and now we've stood up for the public. What are we going to do? Are we going to hold a post agenda on Wednesday? I will make a motion that we send a letter to the Administration and to the union saying that we support their position and to the Administration that we think it's appalling that they would think this is Russia and they would usurp the First Amendment. I make that in the form of a motion.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Could you clarify the motion?

Michelle Madoff:

The motion is very simple, that what we've stated here today, that we send a letter expounding on our thoughts.

The Chair:

Can I suggest something? I didn't read the article but I think we all know from past experience, all of us know from past experience, that a lot of things we say to the print media, and even to the TV audio, are taken out of context; a word can be taken out here or a phrase could be taken out there. We don't know, and I didn't read it but I will read it, if everything --

Mr. Ferlo:

This is a written letter, Mr. Chairman. This is a written document from Mr. Schneider to the union. It's in hand; it's very clear.

The Chair:

Fine. I didn't know that. But a lot of times, the print media, in my opinion, I don't think is very good. That's my own opinion; other people have other opinions and I respect that. Whatever you want to do, make your motion, and we'll vote on it.

Michelle Madoff:

I made a motion and it was seconded.

The Chair:

On what?

Michelle Madoff:

On a letter to both the Administration that we're appalled at their antics, and a letter to the union saying, please come to us at any time.

The Chair:

I think the union knows and I think

Michelle Madoff:

I think we need to put it in writing.

The Chair:

Can I have the floor, please?

I think the union knows, and I think all the unions in this City know and the 5,000 employees that work for the City, that they can come to this Council and Councilmembers every day of the week, and they know that. If you want to put it in letter form, that's fine. But just for the record, you know it, I know it, they know it and their leadership knows it because they come here all the time.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Woods, as you said, you have not read the article. When you read it, you'll probably be angrier than the rest of us.

The Chair:

I'm not debating the article, Ms. Madoff; I'm debating that they know they can come to us all the time.

Michelle Madoff:

And that's what I want to address. They don't know after this article; they've been framed.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, a letter is meaningless. People know who is accessible on this Council and who is not accessible.

The Chair:

You're exactly right.

Mr. Wagner:

People know how to air an issue in front of anyone. The best example is the radio issue; in the radio issue, they knew who to come to on Council to bring that into the public forum. A letter is not going to increase or decrease the accessibility of those people to this Council and these Councilmembers.

In regards to the radios in particular, and this is in reference to my colleague, the Leasing Authority is the vehicle by which a Councilmember should be screening certain issues. If you are active on a particular authority —

Michelle Madoff:

I'm not on that authority.

Mr. Wagner:

You are on that authority.

Michelle Madoff:

No I'm not. I'd like to be on one.

Mr. Wagner:

If you are active on a particular authority, you will know what issues are brought to that authority. And unfortunately, that issue is the responsibility of a Councilmember on an authority. The Councilmember on that authority never got involved in the Authority because they were never at the meetings and consequently never brought the issue to the forefront. So, other members of Council had to bring that issue to the forefront. And that's the way in which people bring issues to this Council.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like to respond to that.

The Chair:

No, we're not going to get into a debate.

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Coyne presents

No. 1082 WHEREAS, there can be little hope for any reduction in the level of violence in Northern Ireland until the problems of employment discrimination are forcefully and forthrightly addressed; and

WHEREAS, the unemployment rate of Catholics remains double that of Protestants in Northern Ireland after more than fifteen years of direct British rule and supposed British commitment to equality; and

WHEREAS, British proposals to combat discrimination have included no direct action against discrimination and no government action against intimidation in the workplace; and

WHEREAS, International human rights advocate Sean MacBride has devised a set of principals that address the serious problems of employment discrimination in Northern Ireland; and

WHEREAS, the "MacBride Principles" which seek to guarantee equal access to regional employment in Northern Ireland have been widely accepted by state and local governments and labor organizations here in the United States as a means of promoting equal opportunity in Northern Ireland; and

WHEREAS, the Pennsylvania State Legislature is currently considering legislation that would prohibit any further investment of Commonwealth assets in U.S. corporations operating in Northern Ireland unless they adopt and adhere to the "MacBride Principles".

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby support Pennsylvania House Bills 948, 949, 1079, 1080 and 1081 and Pennsylvania Senate Bills 544, 545, 546, 547 and 548 which prohibit further investment of Commonwealth assets in United States corporations operating in Northern Ireland unless they adopt and adhere to the "MacBride Principles".

Mr. Coyne moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman and members of Council, I'd like Rick Swartz and Rick Flanagan from the Bloomfield-Garfield Corporation to come forward to receive this proclamation.

Mr. Ferlo presents

No. 1083 WHEREAS, the Bloomfield-Garfield Corporation and the Garfield Jubilee Association have labored for years to combat the problems of vacant and abandoned properties in the Garfield neighborhood; and

WHEREAS, the health of the Garfield neighborhood is critical to the health of the City of Pittsburgh itself; and

WHEREAS, the vacant and abandoned properties are eyesores, fire hazards and dangerous, life-threatening hazards for our children; and

WHEREAS, the Bloomfield-Garfield Corporation and the Garfield Jubilee Association have identified over 60 vacant, abandoned properties in the Garfield neighborhood; and

WHEREAS, the return of vacant and abandoned properties to the tax rolls is of financial benefit to the City; and

WHEREAS, State Representative Frank Pistella has introduced legislation in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives to secure $200,000 from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to address the costs of demolishing unsalvageable dwellings and underwriting a portion of the expenses associated with rehabilitating units which can be returned to habitability.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby declares its support for this legislation and hereby urges its adoption by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Ferlo moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo:

Very quickly, this resolution, I would hope, would be referred to our delegation to the State House, to the State Senate, as well as to Governor Bob Casey.

Very quickly, I'd like a comment from our representatives from the neighborhood group. This came about as a result of a neighborhood tour a week and a half ago. Very clearly, it's an attempt by the neighborhood groups to focus more direct attention on the part of this Council as well as City government, Building Inspection, all the various City departments that deal with the issue of abandoned and vacant homes in the Garfield community. There's a lot that's happening, there's a lot more that needs to be happening, and I'm attempting here to focus some attention on the neighborhood groups efforts.

In this respect, I'd like to introduce Rick Flanagan to receive the resolution and make some comments briefly.

Mr. Flanagan:

Myself and Aggie Brose, the Bloomfield-Garfield Corporation, myself representing Bernhardt Realty and Warren Circone of Garfield Jubilee toured the neighborhood for weeks. We have identified approximately 35 vacant abandoned homes that are in need of demolition. There are over 60 vacant homes, possibly even more. As you tour and you walk the streets you say, there's another one, there's another one. It's rather depressing taking a walk.

In discussions we've had with the Bureau of Building Inspection, the City of Pittsburgh has allotted about $800,000 for their demolitions on a yearly basis. In order to complete the demolition of anywhere between 25 to 35 homes in Garfield alone within a short period of time, this was going to place a great drain on the resources of Bureau of Building Inspection. So, we felt that it would be appropriate to tap into on a State level, especially since the State now is in their budget process, to acquire an allotment of funds targeted towards the crisis that we have out in Garfield. And that is the goal of this resolution, to support the efforts that are being made on a State level to acquire these funds that will not necessarily drain the $800,000 that is used on a City-wide level in all the other neighborhoods.

Mr. Lyons:

Two of these representatives from the Bloomfield-Garfield Corporation, for the last two weeks or longer I've been touring there, Orville Street, Rosetta, seeing the vacant homes and they're trying to fit in new homes there and you have an eyesore across the street and it devaluates your property. Azore Street up there, I've been trying to get the rubbish and things moved and you really have my support. I've been up there many, many times getting things done.

Michelle Madoff:

There's no question that you're an exemplary group. I brought an article in, I have it in my office, I haven't had a chance to go through it yet, I think it's the Ford Foundation that's making $100,000 available to communities that are doing things that are different to revitalize their city. It's a Kennedy and Ford Foundation; I think it's a grant you can apply for. But it occurs to me, how long have these properties been vacant? Is there some way the community can arrange to see that these properties, when they come up, are not cannibalized? Maybe some kind of a burglar alarm that can be removed or a community watch because if they were turned over more rapidly you wouldn't have --

Mr. Flanagan:

I think on a long-term basis we have to look into why so many have become vacant. Many of them have been for years but many of them haven't also and it takes so long for the City to take them; many of them are tax delinquent and the City is not taking them, and there may be a problem with promotion of them. I know from a real estate perspective there's no incentive for myself to promote them because there's no commission basis on them and maybe there can be something built in to help realtors be involved in the sale of these vacant homes.

A lot of it needs to be looked at. We're looking right now at the immediate crisis in getting the down from a health hazard standpoint. The one property, for example, up on Kincaid Street, the firemen were tremendous. I certainly wouldn't have fought as hard as they did to try to save the adjacent homes when this thing was blazing. They gave their lives to fight this City abandoned home that went on fire. That's one of my concerns, also, not to see one of these folks get hurt because something should have been torn down months ago.

Michelle Madoff:

One last question. These properties, are they owned by absentee landlords?

Mr. Flanagan:

I would say many of them are tax delinquent and I think we need to look at why do these people get the chance to walk away from them and move out to the suburbs and why aren't we going back after them for them to pay for the demolition.

Michelle Madoff:

That was exactly what I was going to say.

Mr. Flanagan:

We haven't researched that far enough to know what the details and the legal details on that are.

Michelle Madoff:

We can meet and talk about it but I'll tell you what's happening, exactly why it isn't happening.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, I wanted to commend these people for their actions in that area; it's been long overdue. But throughout the City we have those problems, especially in the Hill District. I'm just curious, the 60 buildings you've designated, have any of them been designated for demolition? I know it's only been a couple of weeks.

Mr. Flanagan:

The Bureau of Building Inspection has been really cooperating with us and they have over 17 that are already listed for demolition. The contracts, necessarily, have not been let.

Mr. DePasquale:

Out of the 60 that you've looked at?

Mr. Flanagan:

All 60 are not demolitions, though. We don't want to demolish properties that can be saved. So, there isn't necessarily 60.

Mr. DePasquale:

But at least 17 of them have already been designated for demolition.

Mr. Flanagan:

Yes. And then that's the whole other issue that you folks probably need to look at, the horrible situation with the demolition folks that are doing the work. It's very bad.

The Chair:

Thank you very much.

Michelle Madoff:

Would Evanne Addams-Wawrzonek and Mary Stawovy please come forward?

Michelle Madoff presents

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Wagner presented

Bill No. 1077

Report of the Committee on Finance for July 6, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 905

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement with Pittsburgh Steelers Sports, Inc., the Stadium Authority of the City of Pittsburgh and consented to by Pittsburgh Baseball Associates."

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, in regard to Bill No. 905, first of all, I'd like my comments brought forward for the Record from last Wednesday's meeting. It pertains to the Steeler agreement and we've had considerable dialogue on this issue for the past several weeks. We have received various information including the agreement itself from the Administration; there's not much more to be said about it. I think there are some good things and some bad things about the agreement and I've indicated that in the past. The reason why the agreement was struck was due to a couple lawsuits, the one in particular pertaining to the Maulers playing at the Stadium for one year which the Steelers felt that that violated their original agreement at the Stadium. Therefore, the Court of Common Pleas tried to reach and out of court settlement with this agreement.

The only item as part of this settlement that I strongly disagree with is the escape clause which permits the Steelers to leave the Stadium and possibly the City of Pittsburgh and/or Allegheny County in the year 1999. That portion of the agreement I strongly disagree with; that's the reason why I have voted against this at last Wednesday's Standing Committee Meeting and the reason why I will vote against it again today. I do not want to be part of the Pittsburgh Steelers possibly leaving the City of Pittsburgh in the future. I can say no more than that.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, just very quickly, I would like my comments brought forward also from the Committee Meeting.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

---

(MESSRS. FERLO'S AND WAGNER'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 905 - WEDNESDAY, 7/6/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, on this particular issue, I think the Administration has done well and has probably the best possible arrangement on behalf of the City as well as the taxpayers. I think clearly from the previous Pirate deal, the issue of the favorite tenant status, I would think very strongly that the Steelers probably would do well in the court of law, given some precedence has been set on this issue. And I think the Administration has done well in terms of working out the best possible deal.

There are some things, as the Chairman has pointed out, that are not that desirable in terms of the potential of the Steelers leaving earlier in the decade than what we would hope for. But all things being equal, I think it's important to move ahead and support the arrangement that has been suggested, and I think also that Judge Cappy has put a lot of time and effort into this arrangement. And again, I think it's important that we move in support of this resolution.

Mr. Wagner:

I would like to add a comment on this. Prior to that, I made a motion a couple of times here at this Council to hold the bill, I believe twice or possibly even three times, so I would have the opportunity to review the agreement further. And initially it was Councils' desire, I believe, to have an independent lawyer review this. I know Council President Woods initiated a letter. Unfortunately that never happened because we only got four signatures on the letter. Therefore, we could not have five people from Council to get the signatures. I believe in addition to Mr. Woods and myself, Mr. DePasquale and Mr. Ferlo signed it, and I thought at the time that was the proper thing to do; to get an independent evaluation because I, like all of you, feel that the Administration has done an incredible job here in terms of negotiations with Mr. Jacoby and Mr. Donahoe. And it is a very difficult issue that involves potentially two lawsuits in regard to the Steeler organization and the operation of Three Rivers Stadium.

I have the highest respect for the Steelers, for the Rooneys, for the McGinleys, the families that own that team and what they have done to this City to make this a better town.

The position that I'm taking differs I believe from all of you and is not a popular position, but I feel it's in the best interest of the residents of the City of Pittsburgh over the long haul -- not necessarily the short haul, but the long haul. And when I say the long haul, I mean going beyond 10 years because right now today we have a lease agreement that goes to the year 2010 with the Pittsburgh Steeler Organization. This agreement has an escape clause that begins in year 1999.

All parts of the agreement, I agree with basically, which is to give the Steelers many additional advantages, particularly from an economic point of view operating here in the City of Pittsburgh, and I think that is necessary primarily because it's going on country-wide and sports franchises have become much much more available.

Recent examples of that are the relocation of three teams; St. Louis to Phoenix. Two others recently were Baltimore to Indianapolis and the Oakland Raiders to Los Angeles. We have also had numerous examples of teams staying in the immediate vicinity and moving outside those cities. Examples of that are the Los Angeles Rams that have moved to Anaheim, the Jets and the Giants who have moved to New Jersey, the Meadowlands. Miami has built a new stadium, and there are many many others. I think the escape clause in this agreement gives the Steelers the opportunity to do that if they desire to do it in the year 1999 by giving notice in 1997. That is what concerns me.

We have placed a cap on the rent in this agreement at the 1986 level which is a tremendous economic advantage to the Pittsburgh Steelers in that as the ticket prices go up in future, which they will go up significantly and they have since 1986, the Steelers will pay no additional rent.

As the Steelers negotiate for more exhibition games and possibly additional games added to the schedule either through exhibition or possibly through post season games, they will not pay any additional rent because of the cap placed on the rent. Or if the tickets go up significantly more in the years to come, as the value of these franchises increase, they will not pay any more rent than the 10 percent level of 1986.

Some other additional items that have been granted, I think all of you are aware of. Both Mr. Jacoby and Mr. Donahoe have discussed those at the table; to build additional lounge boxes, to relocate the baseball visitors locker room; in essence, to give the Steelers more space for their locker room and training facilities at the stadium.

We have put a reduction on the rent to five percent if they leave the stadium but stay in the County, however, that is subject to possibly jurisdiction by the Court of Commonpleas.

In addition to that, there are many other little items in this agreement, and as you read it, they could be significant advantages, I believe, for the Pittsburgh Steelers if they did leave by delaying payment of rent until May 1st of the following year, and several other significant items.

There is one area of the agreement that concerns me, and it is page 16, 307, and I want to read that, and I will summarize my comments, and we can vote on the bill. But it reads as follows:

The City and Stadium Authority hereby acknowledge that if it is the football club's desire to continue to operate in the Pittsburgh metro area indefinitely, irrespective of the term of the football lease, therefore in the event that the football club exercises its option to terminate the football lease in order to relocate to a stadium within the County of Allegheny, the City and the Stadium Authority shall enter into good faith negotiations with the football club towards reducing or eliminating the rental continuation payments for so long as the football club remains in the County of Allegheny.

Now I don't know of the County subsidizing the City for the operation of the stadium. True they did make a commitment for the Pittsburgh Pirates back two years ago when we were going to sell the stadium with a lease-back agreement and our cost of purchasing a portion of the Pirates was to be about $850,000.00, Commissioner Flaherty made a public commitment to pay for half of that, $426,000.00. As everyone knows, that agreement never went through in that state, and we went to a bond issue, and our cost is not $850,000.00 a year, it's $2.1 million a year. But they did make a commitment under the original agreement to help us with the Pittsburgh Pirates. Incidentally, they made that payment in 1986, but they have not made it in 1987 or 1988.

But the point is that I think this agreement gives this football club the opportunity to go outside the City of Pittsburgh if they so chose, and the terms of the agreement make it almost to their economic advantage if an offer is made by a community within Allegheny; Moon Township, Cranberry Township, where there are significant parcels of land that exist in the City of Pittsburgh, or around the City of Pittsburgh I should say. It won't help the City of Pittsburgh because we will lose significant dollars if this team were to leave and also the prestige and respect.

We know we have lost the steel industry to a great degree in this City and region. I would not want to be part of us losing the Steelers 10 years down the road.

---

I always heard by our Solicitor and assistant city solicitors that we had an iron-clad lease at the stadium, and there has been some talk recently that it may or may not be because of the Maulers situation. I don't think personally that we would have lost that. Some people say we would have. But I still believe that it's in the best interest of this City to keep professional sports franchises locked into lease agreements if it's at all possible, and if we don't, our long term debt at the stadium will increase significantly plus the windfall impact of other taxes and other business that support that stadium and that organization.

In summary, I want to say that I am voting against this only for one reason; it's the escape clause.

I personally wish that we would have put some other items into the agreement such as increasing the seating at the stadium possibly in place of the escape clause. I sense though on this Council that the votes are here for this bill, and I spoke with the Steelers, Dan Rooney and Art Rooney. I have spoke with Judge Cappy and I have spoke with our people within the Administration and told them my reasoning behind voting against it and basically I do not want to be a cause of this team leaving the City 10 years down the road, and that's the bottom line reason for why I am voting against this bill.

I will continue to work and do whatever I can to increase the economic conditions of teams operating at the stadium as I have done in the past with improved traffic flow conditions around the stadium, on the 6th Street Bridge, lane changes, making sure that we do everything we can in the future to help these organizations. I believe that commitment has to go forth all the time; not only for the Steelers, but also for the Pirates, and I believe it will with this Administration and this Council.

But in summary, I'm going to vote against the bill, and the reason is the escape clause.

Mr. Ferlo:

I will be very brief since we talked about this at length. I want to thank the Chairman for reviewing these documents and taking the time to talk to a lot of people. I think you made a couple of important observations.

I had sensed earlier from the discussion from Mr. Jacoby and Director Turner that there was a willingness on the part of the Administration to continue discussions with the appropriate parties on the issue of the seating that was discussed at the last meeting; is that correct.

---

Mr. Jacoby:

Certainly.

Mr. Ferlo:

And secondly, I concur with you, Mr. Chairman, about the issue of the problem potentially with the earlier date in terms of 1997 notification for leaving the stadium, and I think your observation about a community such as Moon Township and some of the other development around the airport with all of the multi-millions of dollars of development and road systems being built that that is very clearly a possibility that exists.

And I disagree with my colleague Michelle. I think everything in this contract does suggest at least a better scenario whereby the Steelers might want to leave in the 1997 period. So I think what I would like to hear briefly from the Administration is a response to that specific observation on your part which I concur with but am somewhat at a loss to try to decide how this Council can best play a role in making sure that that doesn't happen.

And relative to approving this document, there are still things that we have not talked about that I would hope it's the Administration's concern, as I think it has been, in addition to seating, and that is the issue of the road system in and out of the stadium and a whole broad range of other issues that the Pirates as well as the Steelers have raised in the past about problems with stadium facility.

So I would like to have at least the Administration's response relative to this particular point.

Mr. Donahoe:

The clause on the Allegheny County move was really initiated, of course, by the Steelers, and here is the premise that they set up to the Judge and to us in negotiations.

Suppose that ten years from now they make the decision that they will leave Three Rivers Stadium which under this agreement they have the right to do. Setting that up as the premise, what if they decided however that they would be willing to keep the ball club in - their position was western Pennsylvania at the time -- but for some reason wanted to move it from its present location. They wanted the City to at least agree to sit down with them at that time and discuss whether the rental continuation payment could be adjusted; in other words, would the City see it as a benefit to the City to keep them in the region and therefore be willing to discuss the rental continuation payment. After some negotiation, we decided that we would agree to that provided it was limited to Allegheny County, that their decision to move would have to be limited to Allegheny County, and then the City would sit down and discuss it.

There is no requirement for the City to agree to eliminating the rental continuation payment, nor is there any prohibition for the City going to whatever community they are going in and trying to strike some arrangement about it that would be mutually beneficial to each party. But it was simply the club wanted to feel that if they made that decision but were willing to stay in this community in general, that the City would be willing to discuss that problem with them at that time, and that's what was agreed to and that was the motivation for it.

Mr. Ferlo:

That's it.

Mr. Wagner.

I have one final comment, and then we will vote. I think it's in the best interest obviously for the City to do things that we committed to do back when the stadium was built. And obviously that is happening right now today with the continuation of the North Shore Expressway and the roads going west to Route 60 and the West End Bridge, improving accessibility to the stadium, and in doing that and enhancing the stadium, and in any way that helps the sport franchises, will enhance the potential of keeping them here, even in the year 1999, and that certainly needs to be done. Any development that goes on around the stadium -- of which some of it I have been opposed to and the Steelers have been opposed to such as a garage at the stadium -- development must be consistent with the stadium itself. And that is the focal point, I believe, over there, and everything must be built with some concern about sport franchises that operate within the stadium if we want to keep them here in that stadium. And that is something that all of us will have an impact on in the future whether it be local, the City of Pittsburgh, the county, the state or federal monies, and I think that is very important.

One final comment. I read the lease quite differently, Councilwoman Madoff, and what I see is with the escape clause that if this team leaves the City of Pittsburgh, we lose somewhere -- and these are Mr. Donahoe's figures -- somewhere around $2 million per year when you consider the taxes, the rent of $850,000.00 per year. And when you begin to consider the spin off impact, we lose all of that economically, and then we lose the recognition, and that's one of the reasons why I wanted to have an independent third party evaluate this, and I wish it would have come to that. It didn't. I see no reason to hold this bill longer, and for that reason, I'm going to ask the City Clerk to call for the vote.

---

Mr. Ferlo:

I think it's important that we do approve this resolution. I concur with my colleague, Mr. Wagner, on the issue of the potential threat of the Steelers leaving earlier and in fact giving notice to the City as early as 1997. However, the previous Council, in approving a $21 million bond issue, quite frankly, in reviewing the legal argument presented by the Steelers to the court, to Judge Cappy, it's very clear from the previous policies of this Council, and specifically their so-called favored tenant status and the lease arrangement with the Pirates, I feel quite strongly that the Steelers stand to win any legal argument in a court of law. I don't think the Administration, quite frankly, on this issue has worked out the best possible arrangement and scenario to protect the Steelers.

I think what's important, though, is that some of the other issues be addressed by the Administration in the coming years and they have something to do with the seating that was discussed by Mr. Wagner and others as well as problems with the Stadium in terms of the roadways and other issues that have been addressed and raised by the Steelers as well as the Pirates over the years. I think it's important that those issues be addressed to make sure that they aren't the Moon Township football team ten years from now.

So, very clearly, I think we need to support this. I think Mr. Wagner has raised some legitimate concerns but I think it's up to the Administration to continue to resolve some of the concerns that have been raised by the Steelers as well as the Pirates over the last few years.

Michelle Madoff:

I disagree with my colleague, Mr. Wagner. I believe that the team could leave at any time if they were offered facilities and contracts elsewhere that would allow them to continue paying off their debt here while they were still leaving. I think it's not even a factor. I think they worked out a contract where we get a great deal of money that we would not have gotten previously and will continue during the length of the contract. It is certainly a contract that is better for the City than the one we had. And furthermore, there is no question in my mind that Judge Cappy who worked on this I believe for almost two years and tried to work with both sides, and my great concern if we delayed it another moment was that the people who are representing the team are now beginning to say, "I don't know that we gave the store away; maybe we want more for ourselves. I think we gave too much away." Subsequently, I think we ought to get on with the bill, approve it, because it's a good bill for the City of Pittsburgh.

I would like to just make one correction that gets perpetuated over and over and over again. This City did not give $21 million to the Pirates. There is a franchise that's worth $80 million and we loaned $21 million against a secured note. Thank you.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, very simply, it's the best agreement possible to protect the City and the taxpayers and I'll vote for it.

Mr. Pollock:

I'll have abstain today since I haven't had time to review all the bills.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

Mr. Chairman, on Bill 588, the Medical Society zoning, I would like my comments brought forward.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

MR. FERLO'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 588 - WEDNESDAY, 7/6/88

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, this was a lengthy public hearing before Pittsburgh City Council. I thought there were a lot of speakers. All that spoke in favor of the proposal were directly involved or directly represented the interest of the Allegheny County Medical Society. There were, however, a multitude of people from the community, some adjacent property owners, some property owners in the area, as well as others who have best described as concerted neighborhood advocates for the neighborhood, who were clearly in opposition to this conditional use exception.

I think it's important that City Council defeat this resolution and not allow the conditional use to take place for a number of different reasons which I will review very quickly. And this is in light of a lot of the testimony brought out at the public hearing.

In 1970 when the Medical Society was first given the okay to be housed at that facility in the area recognizing that it was zoned residential, it was a much smaller facility. What is actually being proposed here in terms of this conditional use is not a logical extension to this much smaller facility that has existed in the community for a long time. What really is being proposed is a major expansion, and what I would best describe as a Medical Society conference center with a major expansion of a diningroom, kitchen facility, office space, and again I don't see it as a small tangential expansion of their facility. I think it's a major development of a complex that is going to be built in the location of the property.

The Medical Society in fact in the faith has not shown and in the past has not shown good faith to the City and to the Board of Adjustment, to the Planning Commission nor to the neighborhood in some of their activities; basically taking over and demolishing a building without proper permits. They basically paved an area without the proper legal authority to do that. I am concerned about that because I think it sets a bad precedent for others who we expect to make sure they have proper permits and the authority to do whatever it is they are doing with their property.

I reviewed the floor plans from the architect doing the work for the Medical Society, and it basically confirms what I am talking about in terms of the major expansion of this facility with the designing and the office space and the conference nature of this building.

It was very clearly expressed by neighbors and property owners in the area that what is really needed for that area is residential development. And the Medical Society was unwilling to participate in a compromise whereby some of the frontage of the parking lot in question either along Ridge Avenue or along the side of the property would be considered for residential development be somewhat of a buffer between the Medical Society and the residential quality and character of the neighborhood along the park. They are unwilling to do that.

It's very clear to me that if there were in the future a situation involving the School Board building on the opposite side of this property in question, judging from past actions of the School Board and the City Planning, URA, most of the buildings that the School Board has given up, there have been many examples whereby they have been developed for residential property, and I think that would probably potentially be the case with the OVT Building. What I am suggesting then is there is at least a scenario over the next decade for residential development in that area, in addition to all the investment and capital that has been put in by the City, as well as private property owners in the area, to enhance the residential quality of the area around West Park. I think we should reinforce and enhance that residential development, not only because it makes more sense in terms of the character of the neighborhood, but even from a financial point of view.

The Medical Society says even though they are non-profit, they have been paying real estate taxes, and it's true. I checked the records. They pay about $5,000.00 in taxes yearly to the School Board and to the City, but we must admit quite frankly that if there were private homes or residential development on that property, we would be collecting revenues far greater than the $5,000.00, not only in personal property taxes, but in wage taxes of people who would be living in those homes around the West Park area, Allegheny West area.

I think we should spur that development. We are approaching the 1990's. The area in question, when the Medical Society first moved there in 1970, I would argue is a different area than what is there now and what potentially can be developed in the 1990's, and I think we have a responsibility to spur economic development, in this case, housing development of a quality residential nature around that park area to compliment all of the other development that the private owners have done over the years as well as the massive infusion of public dollars we have spent.

If this were not the Medical Society and all the power and influence and prestige that they had at the microphone, if this were a VFW or an American Legion in one of the working class neighborhoods of the City, and they wanted to expand their operation to put a new bar in or a meeting room, and they were going to take over a residential neighborhood, I think it's very clear that this Council would not allow that to happen. And I think we are allowing that to happen basically because of the climate -- Excuse me, Mr. Woods, I have the floor. But I think there is some prejudicial treatment by this Council as it relates to the Medical Society as opposed to others. One individual citizen described the place as basically a club for the physicians, and I would have to agree with that to some extent.

Again I would ask that we not approve this resolution. I think we should deny the conditional use exception for some of the reasons that I talked about, and again I think we have to send a clear message to City Planning and to the URA and to the neighborhood groups and that is that we would like to see residential development keeping in character and in line with all the other private investment of property as well as the City dollars that have gone into that area.

So I strongly ask that, in addition to Michelle who I believe is going to vote no on this, that one of you at least vote no on this so we can defeat this. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

(deleted context)

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, when this bill first came to my attention prior to the public hearing, my attitude quite frankly was I'm going to vote for this. It doesn't seem like a big deal. But after listening to four hours of testimony from the community and better understanding not only the particular issues involved as they perceive them as neighborhood people, but the diverse City-wide issues that were presented as a matter of public policy, I see this as a City-wide issue. It's not just an issue affecting the neighbors in that area. I'm saying as a City-wide elected official, I'm concerned about increasing residential development of the quality that has the potential for this area, as opposed to conference center activity of the Medical Society. I see it as a public policy, as a City-wide issue that I hope all of us are concerned about, and I think we are all concerned about it.

Now we are going to have differences of opinion. Obviously I'm trying to sway one other person in opposition to this.

---

In response to my colleague Mr. Coyne, my comment was not directed specifically at a bias that any Council might have. I am suggesting, however, that relative to the Medical Society and the climate of all of the heavy-duty folks that came to the microphone -- and I'll use an example. If this was a VFW in Squirrel Hill in a residential community who has been there since 1970 and existed cooperatively in a residential neighborhood and they had proposed now to come to this Council to expand let's say across Beechwood Boulevard or anywhere else into the residential character of that neighborhood, this Council would resoundingly defeat that conditional use, and I put my whole paycheck on that.

And I am saying that what the Medical Society has been successful in doing -- and I give them credit because they are trying to lobby for their interests -- is create a situation whereby Council has received at least -- my office has received at least 50 letters from prominent physicians and medical and professional associations. I think the individuals that were paraded before this Council, I think it has attempted to create a climate whereby replacing a different value on the character of the individuals who came in defense of the Medical Society then we would if this were a situation where the VFW wanted to expand in a residential neighborhood. I believe that very strongly, and I hope I will be proved wrong in the future on this situation, Mr. Woods. But I don't think I will be. But I think this is a City-wide issue, not just a parochial neighborhood concern.

(deleted context)

Mr. Ferlo:

Very quickly in closing, I think when people bought homes and made major investments into that part of the neighborhood recognizing it was an "R5" area, that at least implied promise or applied commitment on the part of this City and Council to those individuals and families who purchased homes and wanted to develop the residential quantity of that community, and I think in approving this, we are countermining that previous promise or at least implied commitment that has been made with the zoning of that area as "R5".

The development, the massive amounts of money that this City has spent -- and for instance the Deutchtowne Square area which I would frankly consider less attractive potentially in terms of residential development than this piece of property which sits directly across the street basically from the park, I think there is much more likelihood of quality residential development from a financial point of view on this piece of property as opposed to some of the other massive amounts of public dollars in other parts of the North Side area.

My only point about the OVT Building was to just suggest there is a clear track record on the part of the School Board and various neighborhood community development corporations that when buildings have become available, whether it's recently or 10 years from now, that often times a School Board will look to a neighborhood CDC for a potential residential type of development for those buildings as opposed to just boarding them up or closing them up or turning them over for commercial use. And I'm saying that in terms of that general area that that is a possibility. That may not happen for five or eight years or ten years. I was only pointing out that was a possibility.

Lastly in closing, I don't see this solely as a parochial issue just dealing with the neighbors concerned about their residential neighborhood. I see this as a City-wide public policy issue as to whether or not we want to support economic development in terms of the building of residential quality homes for tax base as opposed to letting the boys club expand their facility, and I think that's basically what this is doing.

Mr. Ferlo:

Again, I would ask Councilmembers to please vote this down. As far as I'm concerned, the zoning would amount to what I best could describe as manifest destiny for the Medical Society.

As discussed in the Committee Meeting, it was clear that the period of 1970 when the Medical Society first entered the property to set up their association and the activities that they were engaged in, is a much different period than it is now as we approach the 1990's. If we approve this zoning, we're condoning and sending a message to any private property owner that they can do whatever they want on property adjacent to them. Again, I point out that the Society broke the law in their activities in the past. I don't think we should condone that; I think it sends a very bad message to people throughout the City, business owners as well as private property owners.

I made the argument at length in the Committee Meeting, apparently unsuccessfully, that this is an area that is prime potential for residential development. I also make the point, and I hope that this will be a legal interpretation in the future, that what is being proposed here by the Medical Society is in fact a major expansion and a fundamental change of the nature of their property. It is in fact the development of a major conference center with kitchen and conference rooms, offices. It's fundamentally different than what they have presently in their facility. If anything, I'd like to see these private physicians who have great wealth continue to have to use the Downtown hotels and motels for their conferences and meeting rooms instead of having the luxury of expanding onto property which really should be residential.

Councilmembers are completely wrong in their assessment that the area is not that residential or that somehow because the Society is boarded to the right by the Community College and to the left by the OVT building of the School Board, that somehow this area is less than residential in character. That's just not true. Much more money can be made from the residential development of this land as opposed to the expansion of the doctors, the boys' club which was best described by one of the citizens.

Again, I ask Councilmembers to reconsider. Let's not send that kind of a message out to property owners. Let's maintain the integrity of the Municipal Code, the promissory intent that we created by making that an R-5 area, a residential area, and not an institutional area. Please, reconsider and vote no on Bill 588.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, I think in the dissertation of Mr. James Brown, he pointed out very clearly that there hadn't been a resident there for several years. I think it was all clear to us.

And then on the other hand, very quickly, Attorney Allen Brunwasser has intimidated, I think, this Council by stating that if it passes he's going to sue. So, I'm saying that that's his choice and whatever the choice of the Council is is the Council's choice, and so be it.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, I'm prepared to vote for the bill but are we clear on the matter of legality? Is it really a legal bill? I'm not mentioning so much Mr. Brunwasser but several responsible people over the weekend have called me and felt that the bill was illegal. Did we get a legal opinion on it?

The Chair:

Planning and Mr. Brown have approved the bill so evidently it's legal. They have a law department; they conferred with our Law Department and it has to be legal or else they wouldn't have approved it and sent it up to us.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President and members of Council, if memory serves me well, this bill came to Council with three votes of a committee of nine. I've introduced a resolution which is only a will of Council but we have the State amend the Code so that when we get the bill at least there is a majority or we don't approve the bill.

If anyone, perhaps I should be abstaining from this bill because I have been directly involved with medical affiliations for many, many years. But I agree with my colleague, Mr. Ferlo, that what we're doing is setting a precedent not just for the North Side but for anywhere else in the community for anybody to do whatever they want to do.

Frankly, when the Medical Society pleads what a great citizen they are, what a great neighbor, that they give $5000 in taxes to the City, may we point out that if we had a mini development of townhouses similar to that in the village of Shadyside, we would probably get ten times that in taxes. So, it is an empty threat that the Medical Society is going to leave. I don't want them to leave; on the other hand, I don't think we should infringe on the rights of all the citizens, not just the citizens of the North Side.

So, I am going to urge my colleagues to please vote against this bill. It's a very bad bill. And I'm not afraid of Mr. Brunwasser suing.

Mr. President, I move that Bill No. 994 regarding the community fund of the $360,000 be recommitted for a week.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President, in regards to all of the appropriations to the various agencies with the ULO grant, in light of the predicament that the Ernest T. Williams, Jr. Memorial Center is in relative to their finances, and it's my understanding that this Council has appropriated money to that agency in the past, I think its important that we re-issue some type of a directive to the Controller regarding the issue of auditing or holding these agencies accountable. I'm not suggesting that these other agencies aren't accountable; nothing of the sort. I'm only suggesting that we have some very clear procedure by which this Council can be assured that the various neighborhood organizations and/or agencies receiving these funds are going to be held accountable for them. I think that can best be done by a communication from yourself regarding these grants.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President, the Ernest T. Williams Memorial Center is under fire; if it's not closed it's threatened to be closed and the building will be returned to the Catholic Diocese which they are now using. There's a big cloud there and I think we should be mindful. I support Councilman Ferlo in his review and observation of such conditions.

Mr. Ferlo:

There's a little bit of confusion, either by yourself and/or the City Clerk, or possibly myself. I have amendments to this bill from Assistant Chief Mellot; as you remember, we discussed this in the Committee. It does have to go to the Board of Code Review, apparently. So, we were incorrect in previous statements that we've made.

I'd like to know what point of procedure you would like me to follow.

The Chair:

I would ask you to recommit the bill, make the amendments Wednesday, and then refer it from there.

Michelle Madoff:

May I point out that I just conferred with Director Botsford. They just did some quick checking in the market; the 6.3 percent, if we move on it quickly, we can take advantage of it. Interest rates are going up; we'd better move immediately to save the City thousands of dollars.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, I think the windows here have the right price for us to move in an affirmative way on this bond issue.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, in reference to these three bills on which we have had lengthy discussion in the previous Committee Meeting, I would just like to say prior to their final approval I would like to issue a thank you to some of the trade unionists who are here in this room for the assistance they gave me in drafting these legislative initiatives and also to thank the Office of the City Controller, Mr. Flaherty, for his assistance also. Thank you.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. Chairman, I would suggest that if no one has anything new to add to these bills that we vote on them please.

Mr. Pollock:

I'm really in a bind on these bills because all three, I think, are somewhat controversial. I think all three were rejected by the Board of Code Review and there's a great deal of controversy surrounding them. It's never been in my history to abstain on bills in which there was any controversy but I just have not had time to prepare my vote or study these bills and I do not want to vote in a vacuum nor do I want to vote in a way that is not well researched and documented. I feel terrible. I'm sorry that the vote came up this quickly; I thought that it would be next week or the week after. I'm just not prepared to vote. So, against all my principles, I'm going to have to abstain on these three bills simply because I'm not prepared.

I'll simply say that I think there is merit to both sides' positions on these bills. I don't think they're as clear-cut as some individuals might think, and that there is a point of view against all of these bills. I wish that I would have had time to study it and come to a determination as to which way I would have voted and I'm sorry but I will have to abstain.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and Members of Council, this first resolution is shared with me by Councilman Jeep DePasquale, and I'd like to ask four people to step forward Shannon Capasso who won the Marbles Championship for the United States just recently. Shannon come on up please. Her mom GERALD LYNN Capasso; her coach Carol Simeone; and another coach actually two coaches Walt Lease.

Hi Shannon, how are you?

Mr. Wagner and Mr. DePasquale presents

No. 1127 WHEREAS, on Thursday, June 23, 1988, Shannon Capasso of South Side won the title, Queen of Marbles, at the National Marbles Tournament in Wildwood, New Jersey, by defeating 21 girls from across the Country; and,

WHEREAS, Shannon had to defeat a field of 250 competitors to win the Girls Division of the Allegheny County Marbles Tournament to qualify for the National Tournament; and,

WHEREAS, Shannon began her championship career just four years ago through the encouragement and coaching assistance of her neighbors Carolyn Simeone and Walt Lease; and,

WHEREAS, Shannon never let her dream of a National Title dwindle, even when she was down the first 2 rounds in a best of 15 rounds competition; and,

WHEREAS, Shannon Capasso has brought national recognition and attention to herself and her hometown of Pittsburgh;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh recognizes the achievement of Shannon Capasso and congratulates her as she reigns as the 1988 Queen of Marbles.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like to introduce Walt Lease first, who is a former employee of the City of Pittsburgh in the Parks and Recreation Department, he is one of two coaches; Carol is also a coach of Shannon.

I'd just like to say very briefly that Shannon was on the Tonight Show back on Wednesday, June 29th. We're very proud of her and we're very proud of all of you, her mom, the coaches, and Walt would you please come up and say a few words, and then introduce Shannon. Thank you.

Mr. Lease:

Let me straighten things out, I'm a volunteer worker after I retired with the City. The City dropped the marble program at one time. I'll give you a little history on it, but be proud of this City. The City of Pittsburgh when we go into competition over a period of years was built with our Recreation Program, the City Recreation Program, and unfortunately when Pete Flaherty took over — I'm an old time politician, and Jeep I got to say hello, and before I go any further I want to just give you young Councilmen a little story about marbles in the City of Pittsburgh. It will be very short. It's about Mayor Lawrence and Judge Musmanno. The best set that I ever seen was shot — as many of you old-timers know that Mayor Lawrence worked late and so did Judge Musmanno and right in front on the foyer we had the three marble rings. Mr. Lyons is probably old enough to understand that, and they shot at 10:00 o'clock at night, and Lawrence won the first game, Musmanno won the second game, and Lawrence insisted that the final was who was going to buy the coffee on the third game, and Lawrence beat him seven to six with the final game

I want to go further then just introducing Shannon here, I'd just like to say I'd love to see Council bring marbles back into the City, because we're limited — I'm just a — my daughter coordinates the program for two months. We're not looking for employment or anything like that, but you got some wonderful people in Recreation, you got Arch Harv, you got all your supervisors, you got people in the field, and I want to say this because we've lost the Black shooters. We had the only three national Black shooter marble champs here, and I could stand here and tell you about Melvin Garland from Manchester who got picked up on the Boardwalk at 2:00 o'clock in the morning, not because he did anything wrong because he was practicing marbles to win.

We got a legacy here in the City of Pittsburgh. We have 21 national champs, not Shannon, Shannon's just one of many of our national champs that we've had in the City. So, I'd like to see some encouragement, maybe Jack Mahoney your supervisor there might start it within certain sections of the City. I'm just looking forward to promote the marble program.

That was enough. I'd just want to say hello and thank you to all of you, and there's one of my ex-students from North Catholic.

Shannon did an outstanding job. One of the things I would have liked to do is just bring a tape recording for about a minute and a half and you would see her make 19 shots in a row to win the national championship. It was unbelievable how fast -- when you get into stuff like that you never get rid of it. So, with this Shannon was on the Johnny Carson Show. You might help her if you ask her a few questions.

Michelle Madoff:

Can you beat the fellows?

Shannon Capasso:

I don't know.

Michelle Madoff:

Sure you can. Say yes.

Shannon Capasso:

Okay, yes.

Michelle Madoff:

Anytime.

Shannon Capasso:

I'd like to say thanks for sponsoring me and having me here.

The Chair:

Ms. Madoff would you please leave Mr. Wagner's chair, if you want to take a chair take a chair that no one's using.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm sorry. Oh, I wouldn't want to take your friends chair. I'm so sorry, it was an accident. I just had a broken chair.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Mr. Wagner presents

Bill No. 1128 WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh Water and Sewer Authority has been advised by the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Resources that the Authority's water allocation of 117 million gallons a day from the Allegheny River is being considered for reduction to 90 million gallons a day based on current projected water consumption; and,

WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh Water and Sewer Authority operates the largest water system located in Allegheny County and is best suited to serve as a regional purveyor for other systems; and,

WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh Water and Sewer Authority has undertaken a massive Capital Improvement Program amounting to nearly $200 million in construction costs, of which about $165 million is being spent to upgrade water treatment processes, the distribution system, and storage facilities consistent with the present water allocation; and,

WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh Water and Sewer Authority has undertaken a vigorous marketing program geared to selling surplus water to other suppliers and communities based on a fair rate structure for the long term; and,

WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh Water and Sewer Authority utilizing its operations arm, the City Department of Water provided as much as 20 million gallons per day to other systems during the January, 1988 Ashland Oil Spill, thus insuring water service to many residential, commercial, industrial and institutional customers both in and out of the City;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh strongly support the efforts of the Pittsburgh Water and Sewer Authority to maintain the present water allocation based on its strategic location in the Metropolitan area and its commitment to enhance the water infrastructure.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, Members of Council, first of all thank you for voting in the affirmative on that resolution. At the past Water and Sewer Authority meeting we passed a resolution requesting that the Chairman of the Water and Sewer Authority, Mr. Roddey go to Harrisburg in the near future to talk about the item that was just read in this resolution, which is the allocation of water to the City of Pittsburgh determined by D.E.R.

When the Water and Sewer Authority was created we were re-evaluated and we're now in the process of being re-evaluated as to how much water we are permitted to take from the Allegheny River. Presently, it's 117 million gallons a day and they want to cut us back to what our normal daily use is, which is approximately 65 million gallons a day.

We're right now in the drought season that we're involved in, we're taking 90 million gallons of water a day from the river. Consequently, we want to continue to keep that allocation of 117 million. This resolution supports that. The Chairman of the Water and Sewer Authority will take this resolution along with other support from other people to Harrisburg in the near future to D.E.R.

The purpose obviously is to keep our water allocation at 117 million gallons. We had the opportunity to market water. We are now selling 10 million gallons of water per day to West Penn Water and also to other municipalities and Water Authorities. We want to continue to do that. The more water we sell the less our water rates will be to the residents of the City of Pittsburgh.

We have an abundant source of water. It's probably our greatest natural resource here in the City of Pittsburgh. We do not have a water crisis today because of the Allegheny River. I know the Governor has asked us all to cut back and I believe that that was the right thing to do, and people in the City of Pittsburgh are doing that. But, there is not a water crisis in terms of water being available in the City of Pittsburgh.

Hopefully, this resolution will help support us keeping our water allocation at 117 million gallons a day. Thank you.

The Chair:

I would like to ask Mr. Jim Steigerwald to come up.

The Chair presents

Bill No. 1129. WHEREAS, on Saturday, July 23, 1988, a special food and fundraising night will be held at the Pennsylvania Motor Speedway located on Route 22 West, Nobletown Exit, to aid the Hungry in the Pittsburgh North Side area; and,

WHEREAS, all monies and canned goods collected at this second annual benefit stock car race will be given to St. Michael Food Bank, Spring Garden area and Nativity Food Bank, Perry North area, which provides food for over 246 families each month; and,

WHEREAS, Ron Stanley, General Manager of the Pennsylvania Motor Speedway has generously provided his facility for this "Night to Aid the Hungry" in hope of drawing hundreds of spectators in order to obtain donations and canned goods for the area hungry; and,

WHEREAS, drivers Lynn Geisler and Ben Miley will again act as Co-Chairmen of this event, representing the cooperation of the community of race car enthusiasts, both drivers and fans for their support in helping to stop hunger in the Pittsburgh area; and,

WHEREAS, Jimmy Steigerwald's effort to help support his fellow friends and neighbors from North Side who are going through hard times by promoting this Night to Aid the Hungry, does not go unnoticed;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby declares Saturday, July 23, 1988 as "Night to Aid the Hungry" in the Pittsburgh area and encourages all people to participate in this worthwhile effort to help those who are less fortunate.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Steigerwald:

Thank you, City Council. First off I'd like to apologize for Len and Ben not being here today. They have a couple of things they're doing with the race cars it's pretty tough to come down here all the time, and I'd like to thank Ben Woods, because we sat down about two years ago and he's from the North Side and I'm from the North Side and we seen what was going on with these food banks and we sat down and said lets try to put something together to help our own, and without Ben we would never have gotten where we are today.

Like I said Saturday night is the "Night to Aid the Food Banks" and we've been out there really pushing this at the race tracks. Cochran Pontiac really helped out this year and so many other people. We look at it as where as long as we gain more then we did last year, and that's what we're looking for this year. Bill would like to say something, he's been by my side everyday this week.

Mr. Salinetto:

I'd like to say one thing. Thanks to City Council for their cooperation in helping us along to get where we're at. Also, the people connected with the "Night to Aid the Hunger". Last year we had an accumulation of one and a half ton of food plus the monetary value was $600, and as far as Cochran Pontiac and them they told us this year we're going over it. God bless them and thank all of you.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 1012 and Bill 1013 at Wednesday's meeting I had voted no and my reason for voting no is that Louise Brown and myself were to get together to review some plans that I received from companies that put together playgrounds. I had sent them the plans of the playgrounds and they had sent me schematics, drawings and suggestions for equipment for the playgrounds, and I've had not had a chance as yet to discuss them with Louise Brown.

The issue is to try to attempt to cut back on the consulting fees and the extra expenses when we have professionals in the business that are very happy to do it for us gratis.

Now, I'm going to vote for these two bills and after I meet with Louise Brown, I find that indeed we could have done them a lot less costly that will be part of a bill that as you know I'm working on to stop the advertising of monies available and to cut back responsibly on the costs of projects.
